

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CALENDAR

OF SELECTIONS FROM

PAPAL REGESTA.

VOL. IV.

REGESTA, VOL. CCXLV.

1 URBAN V.

- 1382.
7 Id. Nov. To king Edward. Announcing his election, consecration, and coronation as pope, and recommending to the king the Roman church and the churches and ecclesiastics of the realm.
Avignon.
(f. 9.)
- Ibid.* To the king of Scotland. The like.
- Ibid.* To Raymund Pelegrini, canon of London, papal nuncio.
(f. 10d.) Mandate to present to king Edward the enclosed letter announcing his consecration and coronation.
- Ibid.* To Edward, prince of Wales; Lionel, duke of Clarence; John (f. 11.) de Gandavo, duke of Lancaster; Edmund, earl of Cambridge, and Thomas de Ewdestoke--king Edward's sons; and to John de Charrestone, knight, seneschal of Gascony, and the king's lieutenant in the duchy of Aquitaine. Announcing his election, consecration, and coronation as pope, and recommending to them the Roman church and other churches and ecclesiastics.
- 6 Id. Dec. To king Edward. His envoys, Nicholas de Lovaigue, knight,
Avignon
(f. 47d.) and John de Wermenhale, D.C.L., have presented his letters, praying the pope to appoint John de Bukingham, archdeacon of Northampton, the king's counsellor, bishop elect of Lincoln to that see. The pope is informed that the election is void, and that it is doubtful whether John is of sufficient learning to rule so populous and noble a diocese; nevertheless, let him come to the Roman court, and it may be that his presence will sufficiently answer the objections made against him; otherwise, let the king nominate someone else in whose person the pope may be able to satisfy the king's desire.

1363.

7 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 61*d.*)

To Simon, bishop of London. Faculty to receive the oath of fealty to the apostolic see from Gerald Rothonis, prior of Lewes, nuncio designate to the king on matters concerning the papal camera.

5 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 62.)

To king Edward. Praying him to remedy the injuries suffered by the abbot and convent of Grand-Selve, in the diocese of Toulouse, whose house and chapel in Bordeaux have been ruined.

Ibid.
(f. 62*d.*)

To Edward, prince of Wales. The like.

Non. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 84.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to liberate Robert de Sancto Venantio, knight, who has been long a hostage for John, king of France, and is now old, and to accept in his place two nobles.

Ibid.

To William, bishop of Winchester. Desiring him to use his influence with the king touching the same matter.

Ibid.

To Simon, bishop of Ely; John de Boukingham, archdeacon of Northampton; William de Wykham, canon of Lincoln, councillor of the king. The like.

6 Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 88.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to give licence to Béraud, dauphin of Auvergne, long a hostage for king John, to return to his country for a time.

2 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 152*d.*)

To the same. Thanking him for his letters sent by Nicholas de Lowain, knight, in reply to those of the pope announcing his election. As to the king's petitions the said knight will bring a verbal answer.

8 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 163.)

To the same. Urging him (with the emperor Charles, Lewis king of Hungary, and others) to take part in the crusade, which is to be begun on the kalends of March 1365.

[Raynaldi Annales, anno 1363, § xx.]

4 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 214*d.*)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Recommending to him John de Revelhone, dean of Poitiers, bearer of these presents.

Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 216.)

To Edward, prince of Wales. Desiring him to assist Stephen Alberti, his subject, in recovering his castle of Le Monteil (Montillium) in Auvergne, traitorously occupied by the men of the viscount of Thouars, also the prince's subject.

12 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 217.)

To Thomas, earl of Warwick (Baroyci). Recommending to him Raymond de Roqueriis, prior of St. Macaire, in the diocese of Bordeaux, bearer of these presents, who is sent to Edward, prince of Wales, on certain matters committed to him by the pope, by Stephen cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Aquiro, and by Arnold archbishop of Auch, papal chamberlains.

8 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 223*d.*)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, papal nuncio in England and elsewhere. Faculty to dispense sixty persons on account of irregularity.

[See Vol. cclxi. f. 4.]

1863.

3 Id. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 232d.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to give licence to Guy de Luxembourg, count of St. Pol, held as a hostage, to come to certain parts of France on affairs of his own and of his late father and brother.

15 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 234d.)

To the same. The pope has received his letters asking for power to be given to the bishops of Ely and Worcester to dispense two of his clerks on account of irregularity, so as to retain their benefices and fruits received; but, as neither the causes of the irregularity nor their names nor their benefices are stated, it cannot be done. Let the causes of the irregularity be expressed, without mention of names or benefices, and as the pope sees by the king's secret seal (signo secreto) that he has the matter much at heart, he will grant the request if possible.

6 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 237d.)

To Edward, prince of Wales. Recommending to him Gaubert de Sancto Exuperio, donsel, member of the pope's household, bearer of these presents, touching the restitution to his father Elias, a subject of the prince, of the castle of Miremont in Auvergne, which Locosius de ———, also the prince's subject, has seized and holds.

Ibid.

To John de Chaverston, knight, seneschal of Gascony. Desiring him to use his influence with the prince touching the same matter.

Ibid.
(f. 239.)

To the king of Scotland. Desiring him to assist those deputed to compel the disobedient and rebellious persons who refuse to pay the annual pension to the master and community of the Hospitallers.

Ibid.
(f. 239d.)

To Edward, prince of Wales and Aquitaine. The like.

2 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 240d.)

To the same. The pope has received his envoys, Ostense (Austencius), bishop of Sarlat, John de Bellocampo, knight, and Master Philip de Godeford, D.C.L. and has given them more fully, along with these presents, a verbal answer to be carried to the prince.

[Maisant: Le Prince Noir en Aquitaine, p. 267.]

Non. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 246d.)

To Giles [Albornoz], bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Requiring him to recall any force which he may have sent against the commune of Pisa and Albert de Stercia, knight, captain-general of the company of English, the said English not having fought against the church, but rather acted on her behalf.

Non. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 246d.)

To David, king of Scotland. Desiring him to favour the master and convent of the Hospitallers in recovering from David de Mar, treasurer of Moray, what is due to them on account of a preceptory and goods of the Hospital in Scotland, farmed by de Mar at 100 marks a year, and which has been unpaid for seven years, although he has been publicly excommunicated in the Roman court.

1363.

Ibid.
(f. 247d.)

To David de Mar, treasurer of Moray. Mandate to pay up the said arrears. If he does not, the pope will proceed against him so that he will be sorry for his negligence.

Ibid.
(f. 248.)

To Albert de Stercia, knight, captain-general of the English company. Announcing the order given for the recall, in response to his prayer, of the horse which Giles [Albornoz], bishop of Sabina, papal legate, having been misinformed, is said to have sent against him.

Id. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 251.)

(f. 269.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Recommending to him John, abbot of Clairac, in the diocese of Agen, touching the recovery and preservation of the rights of his monastery.

8 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 269.)

To the same. Recommending to him Rigaud Bongeti and Jordan de Haya, clerks, members of the pope's household, bearers of these presents, who are being sent to Tours on certain affairs of the pope and the Roman church.

(f. 269d.)

To the same. Desiring him to obtain for the provost and chapter of Brive[la-Gaillarde] the restoration of their town of that name, which has been seized from them. [Moisant, p. 267.]

2 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 272.)

To the same. Desiring him to assist Guy, Benedictine abbot of Beaulieu, in the diocese of Limoges, who has some affair with the men of his town of Beaulieu.

Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 275.)

To the same. Desiring him to inform himself touching the liberties of the church of Rodez, whose bishop, Faydit, has petitioned the pope upon the oath of fealty which the prince has required of him; and meanwhile not to do anything against the said bishop and his church.

8 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 276d.)

To the same. The like, touching the houses in Aquitaine of the Hospitallers' priory of Saint-Gilles, whose prior, John de Eredia, has petitioned the pope in regard to a like oath.

[Moisant, p. 268.]4 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 279d.)

To the same. Master Philip de Codeford, D.C.L. having remained at the apostolic see for the transaction of certain business of the prince after the departure of the other ambassadors, the pope will entrust him with a message touching the same. As there are in Tuscany, near the territory of the Roman church, some companies of English, the pope desires the prince to write, telling them to abstain from injuring the lands of the faithful and of the allies of the said church, and to assist them wherever they can.

REGESTA, VOL. CCXLVI.

2 URBAN V.

1363.

Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 4d.)

To Amadeus, count of Savoy. Monition, on the representation of James, abbot of St. Just, Susa, in the diocese of Turin, to restore the castle of St. Maur, belonging to that monastery, he having forcibly recovered it from the company of English.

10 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 10.)

To king Edward. Repeating his request to give Guy [de Luxembourg], count of St. Pol, a hostage detained in England, licence to return for a time to his country on private affairs, due security being given.

4 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 12d.)

To the same. The pope has received his letters by Nicholas de Lovayne, knight, bearer of these presents; the king's request touching the archdeaconry of Lincoln, the pope is ready to grant, but as regards the see of Bath and Wells the pope thinks that Philip de Bellocampo, being under age, is unfit for it, and has translated thereto John, bishop of Worcester, the king's treasurer, and has made provision of Worcester and other sees as was fitting. He has also, as requested, dispensed two of the king's clerks, in regard of irregularity, to hold one benefice apiece.

Ibid.

(f. 13d.)

To Thomas de Bellocampo, earl of Warwick. The pope has received with joy his letters, in which he offered himself and a large company of knights to serve the church; but as the pope hopes to make peace with his enemies, there is no need at present for their services, which he is ready to accept when they are required. He hopes to see the earl at the apostolic see, and will grant his requests as far as possible.

18 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 39.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to prolong the time given to Béraud (Antiberaldus), count of Clermont, beyond the eight months allowed him to absent himself on private affairs, touching which the king may give full credence to Nicholas de Lovayne, knight, bearer of these presents.

17 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 39d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Informing him that the archbishop of Bordeaux has not, as has been falsely reported, written or caused to be said anything to the pope touching the revocation of the oath of fealty received by the prince from the prelates and some other ecclesiastics of Aquitaine. The pope has written to the prince in regard to the said persons, by whom the said oath was not accustomed to be taken to the prince's predecessors. He therefore prays the prince to put aside all irritation against the archbishop.

Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 39d.)

To the same. The pope has received his letters about the bishop of Rodez, who has said nothing to the pope in detraction of the prince, and has done no more than duly defend the liberties of his church, which, together with its bishop, the pope 1363.

commends to the protection of the prince. The pope was not able to promote the prince's chancellor to the see of Bath and Wells, but will bear in mind the recommendation when an opportunity occurs: he has thought good to translate thither John, bishop of Worcester, treasurer of the late king. As to the oath of fealty, which the prince has caused to be taken by those prelates from whom his predecessors, kings of France or England or dukes of Aquitaine, did not receive it, the pope desires him to remit and annul it. [Moisant, p. 269.]

1364.

Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 59d.)

To the same. Touching the same oath, and again excusing Faydit, bishop of Rodez, from having done or said anything more in regard to it than had been done by other bishops, as also touching the provision to the see of Bath, which the prince desired for his chancellor, who will not be forgotten. The pope is keeping the prince's envoy, John de Revelhone, dean of Poitiers, at the Roman court, for the better promotion of their interests, and sends these presents by William de Arderne, bearer of a verbal message from the pope, to whom the prince may give full credence. [Moisant, p. 270.]

6 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 72.)

To the bishop of Norwich. Desiring him to exact the fruits due to the papal camera from the priories of Castleacre and Lewes, according to other letters containing a mandate to the same effect; and if the priors invoke lay assistance the bishop is to induce the laymen to favour him rather than the said priors, and is to write a report thereon to the pope.

Ibid.

To the bishop of Chichester. The like.

13 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 83.)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Mandate to assign to Rayner Dominici and John Guccii, merchants of Florence, proctors and factors in London of the Alberti of Florence, the sum of 6000 gold florins of good weight collected for the papal camera; the said Rayner and John having faculty to receive and give acquittance for the same, and Thomas Nicolai de Albertis, proctor and factor at the Roman court of the said Alberti, having bound himself to assign it to the camera. The nuncio is to draw up two public instruments, sending one to those concerned, and the other to the camera.

Ibid.

(f. 83d.)

To the said Rayner and John. Faculty to receive and give acquittance to John de Cabrespino for the said sum; assigning it to the said Thomas Nicolai, and informing thereof the officials of the camera.

6 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 91d.)

To the bishops of Norwich and Chichester. Mandate to exact and receive from William de Varena, prior of Castleacre, appointed thereto by Clement VI. and, with others, bound to pay 480*l.* 19*s.* 7*d.* being the fruits of one year's voidance of the said priory reserved to the papal camera; and to assign to the papal collectors in England the said sum and a certain sum of money due in like manner from the prior of Lewes, payment of which sums is refused; compelling the two priors by ecclesiastical censure, and if necessary by sequestration of the fruits of their priories: with power to give acquittance for the said sums, and order to send an account under seal to the said camera.

13 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 128.)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Mandate to assign to Rayner Dominici and John Guccii, merchants of Florence, proctors and factors in London of the Alberti of Florence, the sum of 6000 gold florins of good weight, collected for the papal camera; the said Rayner and John having faculty to receive and give acquittance for the same, and Thomas Nicolai de Albertis, proctor and factor at the Roman court of the said Alberti, having bound himself to assign it to the camera. The nuncio is to draw up the usual two instruments.

Ibid.
(f. 128.)

To the said Rayner and John. Faculty to receive and give acquittance to John de Cabrespino for the said sum: assigning it to the said Thomas Nicolai, and informing thereof the officials of the camera.

3 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 131.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The pope has received with pleasure his letters sent by Dominic de Lucaro, papal usher, touching the affair of the remission and annulling of the oath of fealty taken by prelates and ecclesiastics of his principality, and is sending Master Raymund de Sancta Gemma, papal notary and nuncio, bearer of these presents, to whom the prince may give full credence, with verbal instructions in regard to the same matter.

Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 131d.)

To John de Chandos, knight. Desiring him to assist and give full credence to the said Master Raymund, papal nuncio, in his mission.

Ibid.

To James de Audeleya, knight; John de Stretelee, dean of Lincoln; Philip de Codeford, D.C.L. The like.

8 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 132.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to grant his hostage, the count Dauphin of Auvergne, an extension of leave of absence sufficient for settling his affairs.

5 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 139d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The pope has received with joy his letters sent by William Husee, S.T.P. a Friar Preacher, who has prudently and eloquently made the prince's excuses, and is sent back by the pope to express his content, and to assure the prince and his friends of the pope's favours. [Moisant, p. 271, with f. 239 instead of f. 139.]

3 Non. April.
Avignon.
(f. 140.)

To Roger de Pinibus, master, and the convent of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem. Requesting them to make provision of the priory of Venice, void by the death of Napoleo de Tibertis, to Daniel de Carreto, preceptor of the houses of Solnoft (Swingfield) and Bochland in England of the same order, and rector for the Roman church of the province of Romagna (Romandiola); the said Daniel is to resign the aforesaid two houses.

Ibid.

To the lieutenants (locum tenentibus) of the master and convent of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, and to the 1364.

priors and preceptors of the said hospital, in assembly at Montpellier. The like.

Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 153d.)

To Albert Stertz, captain of the company of English in Italy, and the rest of the said company. Letter of credence for Robert Wodhawos, their envoy, whom the pope has received with favour, and is sending back to them with a verbal answer.

18 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 155d.)

To Giles [Albornoz], bishop of Sabina, and to Androin [de la Roche], cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal nuncios. Remitting to their prudence Robert Wodhaus, envoy of the company of English at Pisa, who desire to join the Holy Land expedition, and ask for a money subsidy from Italian territory. Other companies in those parts may be induced to do the like, or may be so weakened as to be resisted, and thereby both Italy be freed, and the crusade greatly helped, which is the pope's desire and motive.

15 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 156.)

To Laurence Celsi, doge of Venice. Desiring him to assist the company of the English in Tuscany, who wish to join the crusade, in obtaining ships, to the end that the evils committed in Italy by the said company may be avoided.

Ibid.

To Gabriel Adorno, doge, and the commune of the city of Genoa. The like.

12 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 156.)

To the captain and company of the English in Italy. Thomas de Ufford, knight, son of the earl of Suffolk, bearer of these presents, having expressed to the pope his desire to join the crusade, purposes to induce the said company to join him. The pope therefore exhorts them to follow the advice of this generous and prudent knight.

9 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 159d.)

To Joan, queen of Sicily (Naples). Recommending to her William de la Pole, lord of Castle Ashby, knight, who, having received the cross at the hands of the pope, purposes to join the crusade, and hopes to lead with him a great number of the English in Tuscany, and to pass through her realm to the city of Otranto; requesting her also to cause him and his companions to be supplied with victuals.

Ibid.

To Robert, emperor of Constantinople. The like.

Ibid.
(f. 160.)

To the count of Lecce (Licii). The like.

15 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 166.)

To the captain and company of the English in Italy. Faculty, at their request, to all ordinaries of places where these presents may come to place the cross on their shoulders and on the shoulders of those who may join them in their crusade to the Holy Land; granting to them also, being penitent, a plenary indulgence, with the usual safeguards touching restitution; taking their persons and goods under papal protection, and granting them the remission of usury due to Jews.

12 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 168d.)

To the same. Indult, after receiving the cross, to choose their confessors; and to ten of their number, chosen by all, to have a portable altar apiece.

1364.

15 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 169.)

To William de la Pole, lord of Castle Ashby, knight. Faculty to all ordinaries of places where these presents may come to place the cross on the shoulders of his companions in arms, he himself having received the same from the pope; granting to them also, being penitent, a plenary indulgence, with the usual safeguards touching restitution, taking their persons and goods under papal protection, and granting them the remission of usury due to Jews.

Ibid.

(f. 171.)

To Thomas de Ufford, knight, and William de la Pole, lord of Castle Ashby, knight. Commending their purpose of joining the crusade and of inducing the company of the English in Italy to accompany them, and requiring them to treat touching the matter with Giles, bishop of Sabina, and Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legates, in order that they may procure help and favours from the nobles and communes of Italy for themselves and for their company.

8 Id. May.

Avignon.
(f. 179d.)

To Amadeus, count of Savoy. Requesting safe-conduct through his territory for Thomas de Bellocampo, earl of Warwick, and his English companions on their way to the Holy Land.

Ibid.

To Aymar de Pictavia, count of Valentinois. The like.

Ibid.

(f. 180.)

To Ralph (Rammulpho), lord of Louppy-le-Château (Lampuyum), governor of the Dauphiny of Vienne. The like.

13 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 190d.)

To king Edward. Touching the oath of fealty received by the prince of Aquitaine from some prelates and ecclesiastics of that principality, the letters which have passed between the pope and the said prince, and the mission of Master Raymund de Sancta Gemma, papal notary, who has been unable to persuade the prince and his councillors either to cancel the oath, or to abstain from exacting it without king Edward's mandate. The pope therefore is sending to him Nicholas Lebrehon, S.T.P. papal penitentiary, an Augustinian friar, who is to go first to the prince, whose envoy may be instructed to inform the king; the pope prays the king to cancel the oath taken, and to enjoin the prince not to receive it for the future.

13 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 192.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Having heard the report made of his mission by Raymund de Sancta Gemma, the pope is sending Nicholas Lebrehon, bearer of these presents, to king Edward, with letters of which a copy is enclosed.

9 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 193.)

To William, bishop of Gap. Mandate to procure the release of Richard de Wenewyk, canon of York, William Molineux, clerk, member of his household and Thomas de Heltonhed, canon of the collegiate church of Pentrich, in the diocese of Lichfield, who, with a number of other persons, lay and ecclesiastical, of England and Italy, since released, were seized and plundered on their way from the Roman court through the Dauphiny of Vienne, and are still held to ransom, Richard and William having been taken to the castle of Sigoyer (Uiguerium) in the bishop's diocese and fee, and Thomas to the city of Gap, and there assigned to the bishop's vicar.

1364.

Ibid.
(f. 194.)

To the bishop of Grenoble. Mandate to assist the bishop of Gap in regard to the release of the said captives.

Ibid.
(f. 194d.)

To Peter Arnulfi and Raymund, joint lords of the castle of Sigoyer (Siguerium). Mandate to release the said captives and place them in the hands of the bishop of Gap.

Ibid.

To the lord of Louppy-le-Château (Luppinum), governor of the Dauphiny of Vienne. Desiring him to procure the release of the said captives.

Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 204d.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to assist Nicholas Hethe, canon of York, bearer of these presents, in obtaining justice against certain powerful clerks of the realm who occupy two of his benefices.
[Fœdera ; with Lichfield for York.]

Ibid.
(f. 205.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him not to permit Reginald de Nantolio, prior of the Hospital of Aquitaine, to be defended by the prince's lieutenants and others against the claim made by the master and community of the Hospitallers for the payment of a yearly sum to be spent in defence of the faith and against the enemies of the cross, which sum has for many years been unpaid by the said prior.

3 Non. June.
Avignon.
(f. 208d.)

To Laurence Celsi, doge of Venice. Commending to him Thomas, earl of Warwick, who is coming with men to Italy on his way to the Holy Land, and who desires to equip vessels and obtain other necessities in Venetian territory.

Ibid.

To Francis de Carraria, knight, imperial vicar in Padua, and to Can Signorio de la Scala. The like, omitting mention of vessels.

Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 214d.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to liberate John Guccii, factor of the society of the Alberti in London, who, with certain other Italians, and their books, is detained in custody by the king's court, and is asserted to be in no way culpable.

Ibid.

To John de Gandavo, duke of Lancaster. The like.

2 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 242.)

To William (Thomas), earl of Warwick. Exhorting him to carry out his purpose of joining the crusade, and commending to him Peter, patriarch of Constantinople, papal legate.

3 Non. July.
Avignon.
(f. 248.)

To the vicar, councillors, and commune of the city of Marseilles. Desiring them to cause restitution to be made to Robert Holme, of the diocese of Lichfield, member of the household of John, marquis of Montferrat, who, on his way to the Roman court in a vessel of Gerald Lort, citizen of Marseilles, was, together with his servant, despoiled by the said Gerald and his fellow Baramontus and the sailors of their money, clothes, and goods to the amount of 120 gold florins.

1364.
6 Id. July. To king Edward. Praying him to remedy the wrong done to Avignon. the Cistercian abbot and convent of Grand-Selve, in the diocese
(f. 251d.) of Toulouse, in their having been despoiled of their rents, privileges, and liberties in the duchy of Aquitaine, and by the ruin of their house and chapel in Bordeaux.
- Ibid.* To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The like.
- Ibid.* To the mayor and jurats of the city of Bordeaux. Touching (f. 253.) the same.
- Ibid.* To Simon, bishop of Ely. Desiring him to recommend the (f. 253d.) said abbot and convent to the king.
- 5 Kal. Aug. To king Edward. Thanking him for what he has done in Avignon. compliance with the pope's letters for fellows of the society of (f. 263d.) the Alberti of Florence at London, and recommending them to him for the future.
- Ibid.* To John de Gandavo, duke of Lancaster. Thanking him for (f. 264.) his mediation with the king, and recommending to him the said merchants.
- 13 Kal. Sept. To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requiring him
Avignon. not to molest Raymund de Rialhaco, doctor of canon law, monk (f. 291.) and guest-master of St. Faith, Conques, in the diocese of Rodez, who has complained to the pope touching the oath of fealty exacted from him by the prince's castellan of La Peyrusse (Pe-truuccia), which has never been required by any king of France or duke of Aquitaine; stating that he holds no temporality of the said prince, and that the castellan laid hands on the tithe fruits of their priories of Livinhac (Lonihac) and Flagnac (Flannac). These the pope requires the prince to restore, and as the prince's envoys sent to the pope on the matter of the oath are not returning at once, he will send to him Peter, bishop of Florence, papal nuncio.
- 7 Kal. Sept. To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. As the pope has Avignon. heard nothing from the prince touching the oaths demanded
(f. 292.) and exacted from ecclesiastics of Aquitaine since the mission of Nicholas Lebrehon, papal penitentiary, and has been informed that the said oaths are still demanded as before, and even exacted, and that upon refusal many and great wrongs are done by the prince's men against ecclesiastical liberty, he sends Peter, bishop of Florence, papal nuncio, bearer of these presents, to induce him to abstain from enforcing the said oaths, and to do what is just touching the oaths already taken.
- Ibid.* To Master Philip de Codford D.C.L. precentor of Salisbury.
(f. 292d.) Mandate to assist the said Peter, bishop of Florence, in his mission.
- Ibid.* To Robert de Walsham, canon of York; John de Harewell
(f. 293.) archdeacon of Worcester; John Chandos, viscount of St.
Sauveur; Thomas de Felton, knight, seneschal of Aquitaine;

1364.

William Cirzi, knight; Peter de Casetone, knight; the bishop of Limoges, the archbishop of Bordeaux, the bishop of Sarlat, the bishop of Vabres, the administrator of Montauban, the bishop of Tulle, the bishop of Cahors, and the abbot of St. Maixent in the diocese of Poitiers. The like.

5 Kal. Sept. , To the archbishops of York, Canterbury, Cashel, Dublin, Avignon. Armagh, and their suffragans, amongst many others. Man- (f. 305.) date to publish and execute the revocation of the constitution and privileges of hospitals and pious places in which the duty of charity is neglected.

18 Kal. Oct. To the bishop of Winchester. Desiring him to recommend to king Edward, John, abbot of Fécamp, who is coming to England to visit the houses belonging to his monastery.

Ibid. To the bishop of Ely and to William Wykham, archdeacon of Lincoln. The like.

5 Kal. Oct. To the seneschal of Poitiers and to Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requiring them to have restitution made to Peter Bori, envoy of the papal camera, and his companion, John Bouis, who on their return from France to the Roman court were despoiled in the territory of the diocese of Tours by William Puret and Bertrand de la Mulsa, or by men subject to the said prince and seneschal, of their horses and other goods, and have been refused satisfaction.

8 Kal. Oct. To the archbishop of Canterbury and his suffragans. Man- Avignon. date to summon a synod within a month, each in his cathedral (f. 340d.) church, and to order all the clergy, secular and regular, of his diocese, to make a return of their benefices and offices, of whatever kind, held or expected by papal authority, their qualities and taxations, so that a stop may be put to pluralities and other scandals; the archbishop to send the same under seal to the pope.

Ibid. To the archbishop of York and his suffragans. The like. (f. 342.)

The underwritten time was allowed to the ordinaries, in which the return was to be made.

In England and Scotland, six months.

In Ireland, eight months.

2 Kal. Oct. To king Edward. The pope has received his ambassadors, Avignon. Nicholas de Lovayne and Thomas de Folnetby, knights, and (f. 345.) William Margarite, clerk, bearers of these presents, touching the personal citation to the Roman court of Richard, earl of Arundel, and his adherents, at the instance of William, bishop of Winchester, in regard to injuries inflicted on him by the said earl. The pope revokes the personal citation, and orders him to appear by his proctor within a year from the date of these presents, as also the others who have been cited; he has ordered John, abbot of St. Bavon's, Ghent, to go to England with powers to bring about a concord between the said parties.

[Fœdera.]

1384.

11 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 333.)

To Simon, archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, if the case be as stated by Thomas, bishop of Rochester, not to molest the said bishop touching the homage said not to be customary from him for certain temporal goods held in fee of the archbishop, and to set free the goods seized in respect of the same.

REGESTA, VOL. CCXLVII.

3 URBAN V.

14 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 6.)

To the master and community of the Hospitallers. Commending to them Daniel de Carreto, preceptor of the house of Swynefeld, in the diocese of Canterbury, and rector for the Roman church of the province of Romandiola—on whose behalf the pope formerly wrote to them for provision to the priory of Venice, which was filled up before the pope's letter reached them—in regard to the priories of Rome and Pisa, or either of them.

Ibid.

To king Edward. Desiring him to remove all hindrance caused by his edict to the enjoyment by Daniel de Carreto of the fruits of the Hospitallers' house of Swynefeld.

Ibid.
(f. 6d.)

To the prior of the English priory of the Hospitallers in the diocese of Canterbury. Informing him that the pope has written to the king as above, and ordering him to use his influence with the king touching the same.

5 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 7.)

To William de Trussel and John de Clare, knights, of the dioceses of Lichfield and Llandaff, who are about to visit the Holy Sepulchre with forty persons. Indult, with the usual safeguards, to choose their confessors, who shall give them, being penitent, plenary absolution at the hour of death.

6 Id. Dec.
Avignon
(f. 11d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The pope has received his envoys, Stephen de Cozenthona and Raymund Bernardi, knights, bearers of these presents, and has given them a verbal answer to be conveyed to the prince. [Moisant, p. 272.]

15 Kal. Jan.
Avignon
(f. 14d.)

To king Edward. The pope has received his envoys, Nicholas de Lovaygne and Thomas de Fulmethy, knights, sent after the pope's letter to the king touching the business of Richard, earl of Arundel. He is unable to grant the general dispensation asked for in regard to the marriage of the king's sons and daughters, born and unborn, with persons related to them in the third or fourth degree of kindred or affinity, seeing that scandals might arise therefrom, but in any particular case which can give no scandal, he will be ready to do what is asked. As to the king's other petitions touching the 1364.

beneficed clerks of the king, queen, and the king's children, and touching other beneficed clerks, citations of persons to the Roman court, and the cause of Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legate, and the archbishop of Canterbury, the pope has given a verbal answer to the king's envoys, who will convey the same to him. [Fœdera.]

1365.

3 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 25d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requesting him to execute by ban and seizure of goods the letters patent of king Edward directed against those subjects of himself and of the prince who, together with the detestable companies, strive to destroy, not merely as enemies, but after the manner of infidel pagans, the realm of France.

17 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 27d.)

To king Edward. Refusing to grant the dispensation asked for in regard to the marriage of one of the king's sons with a daughter of Lewis, count of Flanders, they being related within the prohibited degrees; for reasons which the king's ambassadors in the matter, Nicholas de Lovanio, Thomas de Fulnethby, knights, and William Margarete, clerk, bearers of these presents, will explain by word of mouth.

3 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requesting him to excuse William [Roger II.], count of Beaufort, from personally taking the oath required from the nobles of Aquitaine, he having done so by his proctor, as being of great age, and ill able to use his legs.

6 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 54.)

To the same. Desiring him to support Theobald, son and heir of Andrew de Budocio, knight, of the diocese of Bordeaux, in retaining lands and goods in Aquitaine, which king Edward, in return for services rendered, allowed the said Andrew to hold until he recovered certain lands in France, taken from him by the late king John, the said Theobald being now ready to proceed to the recovery of the same if he is allowed safer access than before to king Charles; the prince's men have molested Theobald on the ground that he has been negligent in regard to the recovery of the said lands.

5 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 61d.)

To the same. Desiring him, if the facts are as stated, to order his officers to abstain from the exercise of jurisdiction in holding courts or otherwise, on the lands of the Benedictine provost and convent of La Souterraine, in the diocese of Limoges, their causes having been hitherto heard, on appeal from their own court, in that of the king of France at Limoges.

Non. April.
Avignon.
(f. 70d.)

To Charles, king of France. Commending to him Guy de Prohinis knight, governor of Montpellier, bearer of these presents, who has carried the pope's letters and those of king Edward to the prince of Wales, touching the expulsion of detestable companies from France. He is now to give to king Charles an account of his mission.

[Maurice Prou. Relations politiques du pape Urbain V. avec les rois de France, p. 126. In the Bibliothèque de l'École des Hautes Études.]

1365.

Id. April.
Avignon.
(l. 72.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him to cause to be restored to William [Roger II], count of Beaufort, the castles of St. Exupéry and Chambon (de Cambone), in the diocese of Limoges, seized and held by his son, Nicholas de Beaufort, lord of Limoth (Limenil), donsel.

18 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(l. 74.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to assist the prior of England, the lieutenant of the prior of Ireland, and certain preceptors of the Hospitallers' priories of England and Ireland in obeying the summons of the marshal to the general chapter, commonly called assembly, which is to meet at Carpentras for the immediate defence of the island of Rhodes, and other parts now closely invested by the Turks.

(l. 74d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The like, in regard to the priors and preceptors of Aquitaine.

Ibid.

To John de Pavelino, prior of England; John, preceptor of Dingle; Robert de Normanton, preceptor of Bastal (Balshall); Richard de Quercone, preceptor of Mount St. John, and William Huyllis, preceptor of Baldisle (Badeisley), houses of the priory of England. Mandate to obey the order of the marshal requiring them to come to the said assembly.

(l. 75.)

To Thomas Burle, regent of the priory of Ireland; John Thome, preceptor of Hanny (Any); William Taune, preceptor of Kildil, and Richard Hualfi (sic), houses of the priory of Ireland. The like.

15 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(l. 77.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him to receive the preceptor of Aymar de Agrifolio, knight, of the diocese of Limoges, marshal of the Roman court, and to receive the said knight's oath of fealty and homage from him, and to write to the seneschal of Limoges and other officers, directing them to inflict no penalty or fine on the said knight by reason of his absence; or to send a commission to someone at the Roman court to receive the said knight's oath and homage.

(l. 77d.)

To the seneschal of Limoges. Touching the same, and sending him a copy of the above letter.

11 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(l. 83d.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to allow his hostage Charles, lord of Montmorency, knight, of the diocese of Paris, whose wife and sons have died during his detention in England, to absent himself for a year, due security being given, in order to contract a second marriage.

(l. 84.)

To William de Wikeham, canon of Lincoln, king Edward's secretary. Exhorting him to use his influence with the king, touching the same.

Ibid.

To Simon, bishop of Ely. The like.

8 Non. May.
Avignon.
(l. 88.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him to admit to his presence Master Thomas de Paxton, papal chaplain and auditor, bearer of these presents, and to listen to his defence against the false suggestions of evil speakers, who have angered the prince against him.

1365.

8 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 94d.)

To the same. Letter of commendation and credence for Bertrand de Quercin (Guesclin), count of Longueville, bearer of these presents, who, with the help of the prince and others, proposes to break up the detestable companies which ravage some parts of the faithful. [Prou, p. 128.]

Ibid.

To John de Gralleyo, Captal de Buch, knight, of the diocese of Bordeaux, and to John Chandos, viscount of St. Sauveur and constable of Aquitaine. The same. [Ibid.]

7 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 106d.)

To Thomas Wetenhale, knight, seneschal of Rodez. Commending to his special favour Faydit, bishop of Rodez, and his church.

8 Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 112d.)

To king Edward. Requiring him to pay the yearly cess of 1000 marks, which has not been paid since 7 July 1333, and desiring him to give credence to John, abbot of St. Bavon's, Ghent, bearer of these presents, whom the pope is sending to him touching this matter.

[Raynaldi Annales, anno 1365, § xiii.; with wrong date.]

Ibid.
(f. 113.)

To the said abbot. Mandate to present the above letter to king Edward, and to urge him to pay the said cess, which is needed for the defence of the territories of the Roman church against the incursions of impious companies of perverse men.

14 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 116.)

To Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legate. Requiring him, among other things, to do his best that the company of English and the company of Aniquinus may not be allowed to unite.

14 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 116d.)

To Giles, bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Requiring him, among other things, to take every means to prevent the company of English and the company of Anichinus de Bongardo from uniting, or the said English from slackening in their dutifulness to the Roman church.

2 Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 117d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine. Desiring him to cause to be restored to Walter de Roffinhaco, donsel, of the diocese of Sarlat, certain lands in Aquitaine which he received from king Edward for his services, and which he placed in the hands of the prince upon going into Auvergne by papal mandate, in order to procure the withdrawal of a certain company which was destroying those parts.

Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 118.)

To John de Harewell, archdeacon of Worcester, chancellor of Aquitaine. Requiring him so to favour Walter de Roffinhaco, donsel, of the diocese of Sarlat, bearer of these presents, that prince Edward may grant the pope's request contained in the enclosed letters to the said prince.

16 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 118d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him not to permit Arnold, archbishop of Auch, papal chamberlain, to be oppressed by the prince's men in regard to the place of Sos (Socium) in his diocese, and belonging to the see, as he, being engaged in the service of the pope, cannot attend to the matter himself.

1365.

17 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 130.)

To the same. Requiring him to grant remission to Seguin de Badafol, knight, of the diocese of Sarlat, and his accomplices, he, as captain of a company of men-at-arms, having occupied territory of the kingdom of France, and treated in the Roman court for the surrender to the said king of the place of Anse, in the diocese of Lyons, upon which the pope gave him hope that both the king of France and the prince would grant him remission. John de Sistarico, papal courier, bearer of these presents, will bring the prince's letter to the pope.

[Prou, p. 132.]

Non. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 135.)

To Hugh de Kerverley (Calverley) knight, of the diocese of Lichfield. Roger de Belloforti, donsel, of the diocese of Limoges, has petitioned for provision of certain expectations of benefices to three of Hugh's nephews and to one of his kinsmen, but as the pope has already too heavily burdened churches with grants of such expectations, he has determined to abstain from doing so, especially when the applicants are of tender age. If, however, these nephews and kinsmen study well, and make progress in science, morals, and age, the pope will deal liberally with them.

12 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 139d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him, on petition of William, cardinal of St. Mary's in Trastevere, who labours in the prince's interests, to be favourable to his kinsman Faydit, bishop of Rodez, whom the prince wishes to meet in the city of Perigueux, in regard to affairs which concern them both.

11 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 139d.)

To the same. Desiring him to excuse the said bishop if he, in obedience to the pope, and in regard to the liberty of his church, does not consent to take the oath demanded by the prince.

18 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 144d.)

To Simon de Neuton, donsel, of the diocese of Lichfield. Desiring him to come on business to the pope, who is writing for a licence to Galeazzo de Vicecomitibus (Visconti), knight, of Milan.

Ibid.

To Galeazzo de Vicecomitibus (Visconti), knight, imperial vicar in Milan. Desiring him to give licence to the said Simon.

Ibid.
(f. 149.)

To John de Pepulis, knight, of Bologna. Desiring him to interpose in favour of the said licence being granted.

8 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 151d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him to be favourable to Peter de Panato, lord of Coupiac, knight, of the diocese of Rodez.

5 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 154.)

To the same. Desiring him to show favour to Ralph, abbot of Grand-Selve, in the diocese of Toulouse, and his monastery, in regard to affairs other than those about which the pope has already written to the prince and which the prince has graciously executed.

Ibid.

To John Vawewelle (Harewelle), archdeacon of Worcester. Desiring him to commend the said abbot to the prince.

Ibid.

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requesting him to order Thomas de Ventruhal (Wettenhall), knight, seneschal 1365.

of Rodez, to abstain from injuring Stephen [de Vassignac], bishop of Vabres, whose temporalities have been seized and lands occupied by the troops of the said seneschal.

Ibid.
(f. 154d.)

To Thomas de Ventuihal (Wettenhall), knight, seneschal of Rodez. Warning him to abstain from injuring the said bishop, and to defend and protect him, his subjects, his clergy and their churches.

4 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 155d.)

To king Edward. Letter of credence for Peter [Gomez Barroso], bishop of Lisbon, bearer of these presents, papal nuncio.

Ibid.
(f. 156.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, and to the bishops of Winchester, Ely, Bath, and London. The like; with mandate to assist the said Peter in his mission.

Ibid.

To Lewis, count of Flanders; Richard, earl of Arundel; William de Wykham, archdeacon of Lincoln. The like letter of credence, with request to assist the said Peter in his mission.

Ibid.

To Bartholomew de Borwachs (Burghersh), knight, governor of Calais for king Edward. Desiring him to give the said nuncio free licence to pass into England.

3 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 159.)

To Charles, king of France. Desiring him to help towards the liberation of Béraud, dauphin of Auvergne, held captive by Edward, king of England.

4 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 237d.)

To the bishop of Vence. Mandate to inform himself and to report to the pope touching William Amedey, provost of the church of Nice, who is charged with having caused Johannetus Graveti, of Unchestre (Winchester?), to be taken in the cathedral church of Nice, and have his hand cut off by the secular court, and who, notwithstanding this and other crimes, continues to minister in his office, which he obtained when excommunicate.

Non. June.
Avignon.
(f. 271d.)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, papal nuncio. Mandate to assign to Rayner Dominici and Arnold Johannis, merchants of Florence, proctors and factors in London of the Alberti of Florence, 6000 gold florins of good weight, collected for the papal camera, the said Rayner and Arnold having faculty to receive and give acquittance for the same, and Thomas Monis de Albertis, proctor and factor at the Roman Court of the said Alberti, having bound himself to assign it to the camera. The nuncio is to draw up the usual two instruments.

Ibid.
(f. 272.)

To the said Rayner and Arnold. Faculty to receive and give acquittance to John de Cabrespino for the said sum; assigning it to the said Thomas Monis, and informing thereof the officials of the camera.

4 Id. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 311d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and his suffragans. Requiring them to assist the nuncios, collectors, and sub-collectors of the papal camera.

Ibid.

To the archbishop of York and his suffragans. The like.

3 Id. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 311d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to sequesterate, until his heirs and executors have made full satisfaction, the property of Raymund Pelegrini, canon of London, for many years papal nuncio and collector in England, who died without having rendered account of sums collected by him for the papal camera; all which is to be done without derogation to the commission and mandate issued to John de Cabrespino, to whom power is given in regard to the same matter.

1365.

Ibid.
(f. 312.)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, papal nuncio. Mandate to sequester, as above, the property of the said Raymond, even though they be beyond the limits of his nunciature.

4 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 318.)

To all prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to assist Peter, bishop of Lisbon, papal nuncio to England and elsewhere, and to supply him with 8 gold florins a day for the purposes of his mission.

3 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 326.)

To the archbishop of Reims and to the bishops of Cambrai, Térouane, Tournay, and Arras. Mandate to enforce the prohibition of marriage between Edmund, son of king Edward, and Margaret, daughter of Lewis, count of Flanders, they being related in the third and fourth degrees of kindred, and pretending that they can take advantage of a general dispensation granted by Innocent VI. which dispensation has been [this day] revoked. Margaret and her father are to be personally served with this edict, which, if they cannot be safely approached, is to be published in the cathedral churches of the said prelates; and in case of disobedience, sentence of excommunication and an interdict are to be promulgated against them, their kinsmen, friends, and abettors. [Proc., p. 138.]

Ibid.
(f. 328.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. The like in regard to Edmund. He is to be personally served with this edict, which, if he cannot be safely approached, is to be published in the cathedral church; the king and all kinsmen and friends of Edmund are to be warned, and in case of disobedience, sentence of excommunication and an interdict are to be promulgated against Edmund and all his abettors of whatsoever state, order, or condition, whether royal or pontifical.

REGESTA. VOL. CCXLVIII.

4 URBAN V.

15 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 9.)

To Thomas de Bellocampo, earl of Warwick. The pope has received his envoys and letters, and commends his discretion and devotion in taking the cross, whether he goes to the Holy Land or against the pagans in Prussia.

5 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 21.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Praying him to remit any penalty incurred by Peter de Panato, lord of Coupiac, knight, of the diocese of Rodez, a simple, unastute nobleman.

1365.

who, trusting in his own innocence, the prince's justice, and the pope's recommendation, on being charged with certain excesses, did not send an advocate to the prince's court, but an illiterate squire, who got his petition drawn up by a clerk, and not discerning how it was framed, presented it just as it was. The said knight denies the crimes narrated in the petition, which the prince has sent for the pope's information; all that he did was to defend his patrimony against robbers, who, under the name of companies (societatum), despoiled and occupied it, burning churches and houses, seizing, torturing, and slaying men and women, and committing numberless crimes, in pursuing whom the knight feared no punishment from the prince, but hoped to win the pope's praise and the indulgence granted to those who fight against such persons, who are worse than pagans.

1366.

2 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 25.)

To the same. Desiring him to be favourable to Joan, duchess of Brittany and viscountess of Limoges, touching the homage required of her in regard to Limoges, on the death of her husband, Charles, duke of Brittany, by whom the said homage has been rendered.

Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 25d.)

To the same. Thanking him for restoring the temporalities of the see of Vabres, which had been seized by the seneschal of Rodez, and desiring him to assist and defend Stephen, bishop of the same, in the preservation and defence of his rights.

12 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 30.)

To Charles, king of France. Praying him to relieve from the burden of going into England as hostage Armand, viscount of Polignac (Podompniacum), one of whose vassals is William [Grimoard], lord of Grisac, in the diocese of Mende, father of the pope.

Ibid.

To John, bishop of Beauvais. Desiring him to use his influence with the king in behalf of the said viscount of Polignac.

12 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 32d.)

To Giles, bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Mandate to supply the people of Siena with military assistance against the threatened invasion of their territory by the wicked company of English or any such persons, the said people having offered the like assistance in defence of the lands of the church.

Ibid.
(f. 33.)

To Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legate. The like.

7 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Commending to him Joan, duchess of Brittany, touching certain affairs in which she needs his favour.

6 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 37d.)

To the same. In favour of John de Agrifolio, donsel, lord of Gramat, in the diocese of Cahors, son of Aymar de Agrifolio, marshal of the Roman court, touching the said land in Aquitaine which is coming to him by the marriage he is about to contract with Anne, daughter of Bertrand de Terride, knight, 1366.

the said John being also nephew of William, cardinal of St. Mary's in Trastevere, who faithfully promotes the prince's affairs with the pope.

Ibid.
(f. 38.)

Thomas de Walkefare, knight, seneschal of Cahors. Desiring him to favour the said John de Agrifolio in the above-named matter.

Ibid.
(f. 38.)

To John de Harewell, archdeacon of Worcester, prince Edward's chancellor. Desiring him to use his influence with the prince touching the above-named matter.

Non. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 42.)

To William, bishop of Chichester, papal nuncio. Committing to him the mission of making peace between the kings of Castille and Aragon.

Ibid.
(f. 43.)

To Peter, king of Castille; Peter, king of Aragon; Eleanor, queen of Aragon; John, duke of Gerona, son of the king of Aragon; Peter, king of Portugal; Charles, king of Navarre; and Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Letters of credence for William, bishop of Chichester, papal nuncio.

[Raynaldi Annales, anno 1366, § xxx.]

Ibid.
(f. 45d.)

To [Hugh] de Calverlee, knight, of the diocese of Lichfield; Nicholas de Dagge[wort]he, knight, of the diocese of London; William de Elmham, knight, of the diocese of Norwich, and others named. The like.

Ibid.
(f. 45d.)

To all prelates and other clergy, secular and regular, within the realms of Castille, Aragon, and Navarre. Mandate to assist the bishop of Chichester, and to supply him with 10 gold florins a day for the purposes of his mission.

Ibid.
(f. 46d.)

To all prelates and other clergy, secular and regular, without the said realms. The like; with 8 gold florins a day.

Ibid.
(f. 46d.)

To William, bishop of Chichester, papal nuncio. Grant to exercise his mission whether he is within or without the realms to which he is sent.

Ibid.
(f. 47.)

To Joan, princess of Aquitaine and Wales. Exhorting her to urge the prince to mediate between the kings of Castille and Aragon, and to assist the bishop of Chichester in his mission of fostering peace between them.

3 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 48d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Commending to him John de Loberto, sacristan (capicarius operarius seu servicii luminarium) of the church of Poitiers, touching the loss caused to the said service of light by the change of currency, divers ecclesiastics refusing to pay the dues for its maintenance in the old money of Tours, or to give the equivalent in the new money of the prince.

2 Kal. May Avignon.
(f. 46.)

To the same. Desiring him to procure the release of Aymar de Veyraco, canon of Bourges, brother of Bertrand de Veyraco, counsel of the diocese of Rome, papal chief usher, who has been seized and is held captive by Robin Quin, an Englishman, who demands a 1366.

ransom of 1200 gold florins, certain horses and cloth of gold. The pope desires the said Aymar to be freed from such demand and have restitution made to him if anything has been paid.

4 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 88d.)

To Geoffrey, archbishop of Toulouse, papal nuncio. Committing to him the mission of making peace between Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales, and Gaston, count of Foix.

Ibid.
(f. 89d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Warning and exhorting him to make peace with Gaston, count of Foix, and desiring him to give credence to Geoffrey, archbishop of Toulouse, papal nuncio, bearer of these presents.

Ibid.
(f. 90.)

To Gaston, count of Foix. The like, mutatis mutandis.

Ibid.

To John, count of Armagnac. Desiring him to interpose in the interest of the said peace, and to give credence to the said Geoffrey.

Ibid.
(f. 90d.)

To Arnold Savage, knight; Thomas de Felton, knight, seneschal of Aquitaine; Thomas de Herford, knight; John Chandos, viscount of St. Sauveur; Stephen de Cosyngton, knight; John de Harwell, prince Edward's chancellor; Robert de Walskam, archdeacon of Llandaff. The like.

Ibid.

To all prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to assist Geoffrey, archbishop of Toulouse, papal nuncio, bearer of these presents, and to supply him with 10 gold florins a day for the purposes of his mission.

Ibid.
(f. 91.)

To the said Geoffrey. Letter of safe-conduct.

8 Id. May.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 92.)

To Gomez Garsie de Albornos, knight. Reiteration of verbal mandate to return to the pope as soon as he has visited his father, so as to be ready to go at once to the lands of the church and the kingdom of Sicily (Naples). The detestable company of English have left Genoa and gone to Tuscany, and are in the territory of Siena near the said lands, which they threaten to enter, and thence to invade the kingdom, the defence of which is incumbent upon the said knight, he having there the office of the vicariate court (curie vicarie).

6 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 95.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requiring him to make satisfaction for the seizure of men and cattle by his people, or those of the seneschal of Rodez in the district of Mende, which is the pope's native country.

Ibid.
(f. 95d.)

To John de Chandos, viscount of St. Sauveur. Desiring him to use his influence with the prince touching the said matter.

Ibid.

To the seneschal of Rodez. Desiring him to desist from the acts about which the pope is writing to the prince.

6 Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 103.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requiring and desiring him, without waiting for the king's consent, or that of his nobles, to grant the reasonable requests of the prelates and clergy of his principality, and to give clear and satisfactory answers to the doubtful points and conditions set forth in the enclosed schedule touching the liberties and rights of the archbishop of Bordeaux and others, which, according to the statement made to the pope by Raymund, patriarch of Antioch, administrator of Agen, and Peter, bishop of Perigueux, have been infringed.

1366.

- 18 Kal. July. To the same. Requesting him to excuse Aymer de Agrifolio knight, marshal of the Roman court, and his son John, lord of Gramat, member of the papal household, who, being engaged in the pope's service, are unable to obey the prince's order to come to him with other nobles of the principality.
Avignon.

Avignon.
(f. 111.)
- Ibid.* To John de Harwell, archdeacon of Berkshire. Thanking him for what he has done in favour of John de Agrifolio, and desiring him to intercede with the prince touching the above-named matter, and sending him a copy of the letter to the prince.
- Ibid.* To John Vicecomiti (Visconti) of Oleggio, rector for the pope and the Roman church of the march of Ancona, and vicar of the city of Fermo. Exhorting him to defend the said territory against the invasion of it by the detestable company of English, against which the pope is using all diligence to make a treaty with the Tuscans.
(f. 111d.)
- Ibid.* To Giles, bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Enclosing the above letter, and directing him to act accordingly and report to the pope.
(f. 112.)
- Ibid.* To Joan, queen of Sicily (Naples). The pope will take steps to hinder the invasion of her realm by the impious company of English, and begs the help of troops to that end: he is especially providing for joint action with the Tuscans.
- Ibid.* To Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legate. Mandate to provide troops at the request of the officers and governors of the territories of the church, which are being invaded by the impious company of English.
- Ibid.* To Ugolino, count of Corbario, lieutenant of Giles, bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Touching the same.
(f. 112d.)
- Ibid.* To Nicholas, marquis of Este, papal vicar in the city of Ferrara. Touching the same.
- Ibid.* To Galeotto de Malatestis, knight, papal vicar in the city of Rimini, and Pandulf de Malatestis, knight. Touching the same.
- 7 Kal. July. To the twelve governors of the city of Siena. Urging them to join the league against the members of the English company who are slaying and ravaging in the commune of Siena.
Avignon.
(f. 112d.)

1366.

2 Kal. July.

Avignon.
(f. 114.)

To Giles, bishop of Sabina, papal legate. Notification that as the English company [of St. George], of which Ambrose [natural] son of Barnabas de Vicecomitibus (Visconti), knight, imperial vicar in the city of Milan, is captain, has entered the territory of Gubbio, and threatened that of Ancona, the pope has complained, both privately and in consistory, to Master Gualdisus de Lovexellis, D.C.L. of Cremona, Barnabas's agent at the Roman court, touching the same, and has informed him that if Barnabas does not put a stop to these acts of hostility the pope will take such steps as are necessary.

Ibid.
(f. 114d.)

To Androin, cardinal of St. Marcellus, papal legate. The like.

8 Non. July.

Avignon.
(f. 126.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Touching the complaint made by John de Loberto, sacristan of the church of Poitiers, and requesting him not to hinder the said sacristan and his proctors in receiving the value of the old currency (see above, f. 85d.)

Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 128.)

To king Edward. The pope has received his ambassadors, Bartholomew de Burgherssh and Richard de Stafford, knights, Thomas de Bukton, D.C.L. and John de Carleton, D.C.L. bearers of these presents, who are bringing the pope's answer touching the business of their mission. [Foedera.]

Ibid.

To Edward, prince of Wales and Aquitaine. The pope has received his ambassadors, Richard de Punchardon, knight, and Arnold Rous, D.C.L. bearers of these presents, who are bringing the pope's verbal answer touching the business of their mission.

19 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 144.)

To king Edward. Reiterating the request made in letters written by the pope's own hand, and by the king's envoys on their return, touching the prolongation of the leave of absence for Lewis, duke of Bourbon, who has been a hostage for six years. [Foedera.]

Ibid.

To queen Philippa. Desiring her to intercede with the king in regard to the same matter.

2 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 147d.)

To king Edward. Thanking him for the liberation of Simon de Neuton, donsel, and expressing his satisfaction at the king's excuse made concerning William de Wykeham, whose recommendation by the king the pope will bear in mind.

4 Non. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 149d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring him to revoke the letters granted by his seneschal of Rodez to certain communes of the district remitting their share of the expenses charged for persons coming to the presence of the prince, by reason of which letters, Faydit, bishop, and the chapter of Rodez, the Benedictine abbot of Conques, and other 1866.

ecclesiastical persons having temporal jurisdiction in the said district, who have hitherto borne a part only of the said expenses, are aggrieved and molested; the revocation of the letters has been refused by the seneschal.

Ibid. To John de Harewell, archdeacon of Worcester. Desiring him to urge the prince to grant the request contained in the above letter, of which a copy is enclosed.

Ibid. To Thomas de Wetenhale, knight, seneschal of Rodez. Desiring him to revoke the above-mentioned letters.
(f. 150.)

9 Kal. Oct. To Charles, king of France. Requesting him to excuse Ray-Avignon. mund, viscount of Uzès (Ucetia), aged ten, from going as (f. 158.) hostage to England at Michaelmas.

2 Non. Oct. To king Edward. Urging him, with the emperor Charles Avignon. and other kings, to give help to the defence of Cyprus and
(f. 160.) Rhodes and other lands, against the Turks, by whom Alexandria has been retaken after a few days' occupation by the Christians.
[Ragnaldi Annales, anno 1366, § xv.]

Ibid. To David, king of Scotland, and to Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. The like. [Ibid.]
(ff. 160 and 161.)

7 Kal. Dec. To the dean of St. Agriculus, Avignon, and the sacristans of Avignon. Narbonne and Bourges. Mandate to cause two gold florins a
(f. 184.) day to be supplied by ecclesiastics, secular and regular, to Nicholas Lebrehon, an Augustinian friar, S.T.P. papal penitentiary and nuncio, and to Thomas de Brynthon, a Benedictine, doctor of canon law, of the diocese of Norwich, papal penitentiary and nuncio, bearers of these presents.

3 Kal. May. To the archbishop of Bordeaux. Mandate, on the petition of Avignon. Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales, sent by his ambassador, John Chandos, viscount of St. Sauveur, to inform himself within two months, by means of persons in his city and province, many of whom speak Welsh, whether Alexander Dalby, dean of St. John's, Chester, an Englishman, whom the prince has petitioned to be appointed to the see of Bangor, so understands the Welsh tongue as to be able to preach in it. A report, under seal, is to be sent to the pope.
(f. 219.)

5 Non. May. Monition and mandate to all clergy, secular and regular,
Avignon. in the realm of England, to make a return, within six months, of their benefices and offices of whatever kind, even though held or expected by papal authority, their qualities and taxations, so that a stop may be put to pluralities and other scandals. A register is to be made by each bishop, and sent in under seal to his metropolitan, who is to send the same to the pope together with the register of his own diocese.
(f. 227d.)

2 Non. July. To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, doctor of canon Avignon. law, papal nuncio, and John de Caroloco, prior of Lewes. Mandate to summon those concerned, and after enquiry to exact and remit to the papal camera the fruits and all other dues of 1367.

18 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 4d.)

To king Edward. Desiring him to liberate Alexander de Nevyle, archdeacon of Cornwall, who has been arrested on account of certain grants brought by him from the pope last year, which are displeasing to the king's officers and others of the realm.

Ibid.

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Desiring him to intercede with the king for the liberation of the said archdeacon.

Ibid.

To William, bishop of Winchester. The like.

1368.

7 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 49d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Commending to him Arnold, archbishop of Auch, papal chamberlain, who labours with fervour for the prince at the Roman court.

Ibid.

To John de Chandos, knight. Desiring him to intercede with the prince on behalf of the said archbishop.

4 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 53d.)

To king Edward. Commending to him the proctors of Mark, cardinal of St. Praxed's, who has had papal provision made to him of the treasurership of Wells and the precentorship of Chichester, with their respective canonries and prebends, void by the death of Peter, bishop of Albano.

3 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 55d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Renewal of request not to permit hostile action to be taken against John de Agrifolio, lord of Gramat, in the diocese of Cahors, who together with his father-in-law, Bertrand de Tarrida, is ready to appear in the prince's court touching his wife's dower.

Ibid.

To John, bishop of Bath. Commending to him the said business.

2 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 66d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Desiring and exhorting him to revoke the prohibition, with its attendant penalties, by which no one of the principality [of Aquitaine] is allowed to provide those who study outside it with victuals and other necessities, so that the scholars and clerks of the principality who are at the university of Toulouse are indirectly obliged to leave it, and others are hindered from going there.

1368.

5 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
 (f. 103.)

To king Edward. Desiring and exhorting him to inhibit his subjects wherever they may be from giving help to those companies of wicked men who are fighting against the Roman church and its subjects. Full credence may be given to Adam de Estone, S.T.P. monk of Norwich, bearer of these presents.

Kal. June.
Montefiascone.
 (f. 115.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Commending to him and excusing the long absence of John de Agrifolio, who is engaged in the pope's service, and cannot return to that of the prince.

Ibid.

To the bishop of Bath. Desiring him to use his influence with the prince in behalf of the said John.

6 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
 (f. 119d.)

To Lionel, duke of Clarence. The pope has learned by his letters and by his envoy, John de Graneu, priest, that he has come to Lombardy for the marriage which he has contracted; and hopes that amongst whatsoever persons he may be, he will not degenerate from his royal blood, but illustrate its piety and devotion towards the Roman church.

9 Kal. Aug.
Montefiascone.
 (f. 131d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Commending to him Robert Dasie, papal serjeant-at-arms, the prince's subject, bearer of these presents, who is coming to the prince on his own affairs and those of his brothers.

Ibid.

Montefiascone.
 (f. 142.)

To Hugh Spenser, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln. Desiring him to assist Master Robert de Stratton, D.C.L. papal chaplain and auditor, bearer of these presents, sent by the pope to Lionel, duke of Clarence, on business touching the health of his soul and body, the consolation of king Edward, and the state of the Roman church.

Ibid.
 (f. 142d.)

To Robert de Aschton, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln, and Ralph Basset, knight, of the diocese of Lichfield. The like.

7 Id. Aug.
Montefiascone.
 (f. 148d.)

To Lionel, duke of Clarence. Letters of credence for the said Master Robert de Stratton, D.C.L. canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain and auditor, bearer of these presents, in respect of the above-named matters.

Ibid.
 (f. 149.)

To Master Robert de Stratton, D.C.L. canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to go to Lionel, duke of Clarence, and warn him, under pain of excommunication, not to hold the tournament (in itself reprobated by the sacred canons) which he and many other nobles are said to have agreed and sworn to carry on as a hostile and deadly combat. Faculty is granted for the relaxation of any oaths and obligations that have been made and taken.

1368.

3 Id. Aug.
Montefiascone.
(f. 150.)

To all prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to assist Robert de Stratton, and to supply him with 4 gold florins a day for the purposes of his mission.

14 Kal. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 155d.)

To Master John de Cabrespino, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio, appointed collector in England and Ireland, 15 June 1363. Acquittance for the sum of 6480*l.* 13*s.* 10½*d.* to 18 Feb. 1368, and a further sum of 50 florins and 25 francs of gold, received by him and his sub-collectors to 16 August in the same year, of which sums 6363*l.* 10*s.* 2½*d.* has been paid to the papal camera, and 136*l.* 9*s.* 4½*d.* accounted for as expenses incurred.

2 Id. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 160.)

To king Edward. Commending to him Simon de Novavilla called the Green Squire ('Scutifer Viridis'), who, having confessed his fault, and having been pardoned by the pope, is, at his own request, returning to England.

Ibid.

To William, bishop of Worcester. The like.

Ibid.
(f. 160d.)

To the governors and commune of the city of Perugia. Exhorting them to grant the request of Lionel, duke of Clarence, contained in the enclosed letter, for the liberation of Hugh la Zouche, knight, of England, detained by them in prison.

Kal. Sept.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLII.

I URBAN V.

1363.

7 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 45.)

To William de Ragenhill. Confirmation of the collation made to him by Gilbert, bishop of Carlisle, of the church of Caldebek, void by the death of Nicholas de Whyteng. [Cal. Pet. i. 399.]

15 Kal. March.

Avignon.
(f. 61.)

To Henry de Bellomonte, lord of the town of Loughtebourgh. Indult that his confessor may give licence to religious to eat flesh meat at his table on lawful days.

1362.

6 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 67.)

To Edward de Wydestok, prince of Aquitaine and Wales, and Joan, countess of Kent. Decree confirming the dispensation granted to them by Innocent VI to intermarry, notwithstanding that they were descended from a common stock in the third and second degrees respectively, whereby they are related in the third degree of kindred, it having since come to their notice that they are also related thereby in the fourth degree.

6 Id. Nov.

Avignon.
(f. 69.)

To Antunus de Senis, minister provincial of the Friars Minors in the Holy Land. Confirmation of the faculty which was granted on his petition by Innocent VI 2 Kal. June anno 10, but which was hindered by the death of that pope, to receive, by reason of the lack of brethren in the Holy Land, Andrew Chesham and John Pouher of the said order, who are going thither with thirty companions of their choice.

* Vol. 231 belongs properly to the Avignon Series.

1362.

Ibid.

To Andrew de Chesham and John Pouher. Confirmation of the licence granted to them to the same effect, and dated as above.

Ibid.

(f. 70.)

To the same. Confirmation of the licence granted to the minister provincial, dated as above, to receive the said Andrew and John, with three hundred persons of their choice, to be brought by them to visit the Holy Sepulchre, and to aid in building and repairing places of the said order in the Holy Land.

6 Id. Dec.

Avignon.

(f. 70.)

To the same. Confirmation of the licence granted to them, and dated as above, to provide the materials necessary for the said repairs.

2 Id. Nov.

Avignon.

(f. 71d.)

To John de Cromdole, doctor of canon law, canon of Aberdeen, kinsman of David, king of Scotland. Rehabilitation, on account of his having obtained the canonry and prebend of Newich and Roskenni (Roskeen) in Ross, which the late Andrew [de] Bosco was bound to resign on accepting, under a papal reservation, a canonry and prebend of Moray, but of which he had a fresh collation made to him by Alexander, bishop of Ross. The said John has obtained the said canonry and prebend of Ross from the same bishop as if they were void by the death of Andrew, in ignorance of the clause in the papal reservation, and has held them for a year. The canonry and prebend of Ross is to be resigned. [Cal. Pet. i. 384.]

6 Id. Nov.

Avignon.

(f. 73.)

To Audoin, bishop of Ostia. Confirmation and renewal of the reservation made by Innocent VI. to him, when cardinal priest of St. John and St. Paul, with a canonry and prebend of York, of any dignity in that church short of the episcopal, which should, within a certain time, become void, the said reservation having hitherto had no effect.

6 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.

(f. 74.)

Relaxation, during seven years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of St. Stephen, Bristol.

1363.

4 Id. Feb.

Avignon.

(f. 89d.)

To Robert de Lambourne, rector of Wymbisch, in the diocese of London. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, so that he may hold an additional benefice, and exchange the same as well as the said church.

12 Kal. April.

Avignon.

(f. 90d.)

To John de Middleton, priest, of the diocese of York. Rehabilitation, he having been dispensed on account of illegitimacy, having obtained the church of Hoton Wandeslay, and exchanged it, by authority of the ordinary, with Adam de Patowe for that of Kyrkeby Ravenswath, in the same diocese, of which he has received fruits since last August 1. Kirbey (sic) is to be resigned. [Cal. Pet. i. 409.]

2 Kal. Aug.

Avignon.

(f. 100.)

To William Norman, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Conferred upon him the dignity of papal chaplain.

1362.

6 Id. Nov.

Avignon.

(f. 100.)

To Master Thomas de Paxton, canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain and auditor. Instructions, as executor in the case of a disputed benefice in the diocese of Prague.

1363.

6 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(L. 103d.)

To John de Langeton, B.A. Confirmation of the collation of a benefice to be made to him by the bishop of Lincoln, under papal letters touching provisions to poor clerks, the bishop having no such benefices in his gift, and no mention having been made of his being then in his twenty-second year; with dispensation, now that he is in his twenty-third year, to accept and retain a benefice with cure of souls.

4 Id. July.

Avignon.
(L. 103d.)

To John de Bures, Premonstratensian canon of Dureford, in the diocese of Chichester. Extension of dispensation to him as the son of a priest, so that he may hold a dignity or prelature in the said order.

4 Non. July.

Avignon.
(L. 104.)

To John de Loze, Benedictine prior of St. John's, Brecon, in the diocese of St. Davids. Conferring upon him the dignity of papal chaplain.

5 Id. June.

Avignon.
(L. 104d.)

To Thomas de Astone, rector of Holy Trinity, Bristol. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, so that he may hold an additional benefice without cure of souls.

4 Kal. July.

Avignon.
(L. 104d.)

To John de Middelton, rector of Kirkeby Reveneswath, in the diocese of York. Conferring on him the dignity of papal chaplain.

9 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(L. 112.)

To John atte Lee, rector of Estherte, in the diocese of Canterbury. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, so that he may exchange the said benefice for another: he is chaplain to king Edward.

3 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(L. 112d.)

To Thomas la Warre, of the diocese of Lincoln, son of Roger la Warre. Dispensation to be ordained priest and hold a benefice, he being in his twenty-first year.

Ibid.

(L. 112d.)

To Margery de Mere, damsel, of the diocese of York. Licence to eat eggs and milk food in Lent, as she cannot eat fish.

[Cal. Pet. i. 456.]

4 Id. July.

Avignon.
(L. 112.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who, on the feasts of the Blessed Virgin, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and of St. John the Evangelist, visit and give alms for the sustentation of the collegiate church of St. John the Evangelist, Ruseheworth, in the diocese of Norwich.

7 Id. May.

Avignon.
(L. 117d.)

To Richard de Retford, rector of Stretton, or Stratton, in the diocese of York. Confirmation of the collation made to him of the said church, which he obtained by authority of the ordinary fifteen years ago in exchange with Robert de Heselbeche for that of Kedington, in the diocese of Norwich; a doubt having arisen whether Stretton was reserved to the pope.

[Cal. Pet. i. 421.]

8 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(L. 127.)

To John de Bellocampo, knight, and Elisabeth his wife, of the diocese of Worcester. Indult to enter, once a year, with six honest matrons, the monasteries of Denney, in the diocese of Ely, in which their daughter Elisabeth is a nun, and Neweside in that of London.

- 1363.
- 19 Kal. Feb. To Philip Blont, alias Whyte, B.C.L. and scholar of canon law, of the diocese of Meath. Extension of dispensation to him as the son of a deacon, so that he may hold two canonries and prebends. [Cal. Pet. i. 397. See also Cal. Pet. i. 438.]
Avignon.
(f. 127d.)
- 15 Kal. Nov. To the abbot of St. Albans. Mandate, after due consideration of the circumstances, to appropriate to the abbot and convent of Byland (Bella Landa), who, as set forth in their petition to Innocent VI. have lost possessions and rents in the wars and by the recent pestilence, the moiety of Bubwith, value 20 marks, of their patronage, the real value being 40 marks; the relation made by John, archbishop of York, to Innocent VI. touching the same having been insufficient and incorrect, nor did he carry out the appropriation.
Avignon.
(f. 129d.)
- 11 Kal. July. To Thomas, abbot of Croxton. Faculty to dispense twelve canons of Croxton and Cokersand, in their twenty-first year, to be ordained priests, there being, on account of the pestilence, but few priests in the monasteries and churches of their order.
Avignon.
(f. 130d.)
- 2 Kal. Sept. To the abbot and convent of Evesham. Indult in accordance with indults of Innocent III. which have been lost, but which appear in the register, wherein there is an error, the word 'election' having been written in place of 'confirmation.' It is now granted, in consideration of the dangers and expenses of the journey to the apostolic see, that on the election of an abbot no confirmation is necessary, and that the abbot may be blessed by any bishop in communion with the said see.
Avignon.
(f. 132.)
- 4 Id. May. To Thomas, archbishop of Dublin. Correction of an error made in the Roman chancery in the letters of his appointment to the see, xiii. Kal. April last past, 'March' having been written instead of 'April'; with confirmation of the said letters. [Theiner 323, with a wrong date.]
Avignon.
(f. 133d.)
- 4 Kal. Sept. To Robert de Walsham, canon of Salisbury. Dispensation to hold two benefices with cure of souls; notwithstanding that he has a canonry and prebend of Salisbury, a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend, the church of Haselee, in the diocese of Salisbury, and the deanery of the chapel of [the castle of] Wallingford. No other benefice is to be held together with the two for which dispensation is now given. [Cal. Pet. i. 453.]
Avignon.
(f. 134.)
- Ibid.* To the same. Extension of the above dispensation, so that he may hold the above-named canonry and prebend of York. [Cal. Pet. i. 454.]
(f. 134d.)
- 17 Kal. Nov. To Lewis, bishop of Hereford. Licence, for three years, to appoint two vicars of parish churches to serve as chaplains in his chapel; there being a lack of clerks by reason of the pestilence.
Avignon.
(f. 137d.)
- 3 Id. Oct. To Robert Sumpter, D.C.L. canon of Exeter. Confirmation of the provision made to him, when envoy to the pope from the university of Oxford, of a prebend of Exeter, value 6 marks
Avignon.
(f. 138.)

1363.

which he obtained on the death of Robert Hereward, a doubt having arisen whether the prebend was reserved to the pope. He is also dean of Exeter, and has a canonry of Salisbury, with expectation of a prebend. [Cal. Pet. i. 463.]

Ibid.
(f. 122d.)

To the same, dean of Exeter. Confirmation of the provision made to him on the above occasion of the said deanery, value 94 marks, which he obtained on the death of Reginald de Bogwille, a doubt having arisen whether it was reserved to the pope. [Cal. Pet. i. 463.]

6 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 141d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the chapel of St. Mary on the green (supra Viridem), hard by the monastery of St. John's, Colchester, which has suffered from flood and fire. [See Cal. Pet. i. 444.]

6 Id. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 144.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of St. Mary, Cuappelade, in the diocese of Lincoln.

2 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 146d.)

To Nicholas, prior of Norwich. Faculty to ten monks of his church, in their twentieth year, to be ordained priests.

[Cal. Pet. i. 445.]

5 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 146d.)

To John de Castro Bernardi, vicar of Neuton Glandole, in the diocese of Durham. Confirmation of his institution by the ordinary to the said vicarage, with the consent of John, prior, and the convent of Kirkham, patrons of the same, which he obtained in exchange with John de Wyckeshall for the canonry and prebend of Bires in Auckland, a doubt having arisen whether the collation of the said vicarage did not belong to the pope. [Cal. Pet. i. 414.]

Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 151.)

To John de Hembletone, archdeacon of Sudbute (Sudbury.) Indult of non-residence for two years, the archdeaconry being of small value, and having no manse or church annexed to it.

1362.

6 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 152.)

To John de Waltham, B.C.L. and B.A. canon of Southwell. Ratification of the confirmation, made by letters of Innocent VI. dated 9 Kal. Jan. anno 9, at the request of John, archbishop of York, of the collation made to him by the said archbishop of the sacristy or wardenship of the chapel of St. Mary and the Angels, York, void by the death of Thomas de la Mare, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope. The said John has also the church of Cortenal, in the diocese of Lincoln, and canonries and prebends of Southwell and Aberwily. The death of Innocent hindered the expedition of the said letters.

1363.

5 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 152d.)

Confirmation, with exemplification, on petition of Alexander, bishop of Aberdeen, and the dean and chapter, of letters patent of David king of Scots, dated at Perth, 12 April, anno 30, granted on exhibition and inspection of letters of pope Adrian IV. and of the kings Alexander, Alexander and king David's father, touching the donation made by the first-named king Alexander to Edward (sic), bishop of Aberdeen, of the second tenth of the royal rents of Aberdeen and Banff between the water of Dee and Spee.

1363.

[Theiner, 322; Cal. Pet. i. 409.]

Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 166.)

To Walter de Sevenhampton, M.A. canon of Romsey. Confirmation of the collation made to him by William, bishop of Winchester, on the death of William de Farlegh, of the canonry and prebend of Timberbury in Romsey. There was a suit at the apostolic see between the said William and the late Andrew de Ufford, who claimed the said canonry and prebend on the death of Peter Galliciani, and a doubt has arisen whether they were not reserved to the pope. Walter holds also the church of Alresford, value 33*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

2 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 172*d.*)

To Philip de Valle, archdeacon of Ardfert. Confirmation of the collation of the archdeaconry, made to him by John, bishop of Ardfert, on the death of Bernard Yconchur; as he fears that it was reserved to the pope.

[Cal. Pet. i. 465.]

7 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 175*d.*)

To John Leche, canon of Glasgow. Rehabilitation on account of his having obtained the church of Hawick by collation of William, bishop of Glasgow, on the death of Gerard Keret; John Flamyng (Fleming), when under age, and not dispensed or ordained priest, having obtained the same many years before provision of it was made to Gerard. A certain layman now claims the patronage. The church is to be resigned.

[Cal. Pet. i. 442.]

1362.

3 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 177.)

To the abbot of Vale Royal and the priors of Norton and Holand, in the diocese of Lichfield. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to William de Raby, an Augustinian friar, at Worington in the said diocese, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

Ibid.
(f. 177*d.*)

To the abbots of Whalley and Combermere, in the diocese of Lichfield, and the dean of St. Peter's, Avignon. The like.

(f. 178.)

To John, abbot of St. Bavon's, Ghent, and two other Benedictine abbots. Mandate to inform themselves touching John de Bukingham, archdeacon of Northampton, elected by the chapter to the see of Lincoln, void by the death of John, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope. Nicholas de Lovaigne, knight, John de Wermenhale, D.C.L. and John de Kirkebi, proctors of the said archdeacon and of the chapter, have come to the pope, asking for confirmation of the election, respecting which the pope—in consideration of the petition of the chapter, of king Edward, as also of John, king of France, on behalf of the archdeacon, who, as the king's councillor, cannot conveniently come to the apostolic see—desires fuller information.

1362.

1363.

6 Id. June.
Avignon.
(c. 1362.)

To the dean of Auckland and two others named. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Roger de Gisboure, a Carmelite, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

Kal. July.
Avignon.
(c. 1363.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, if the facts are as stated by Simon, abbot, and the convent of Colchester, to publicly excommunicate prior John, John Noreys, and Thomas de Gipwico, canons of the priory of St. Botolph, John Scotland, John Mont, or Mant, and John Barbur, laymen, of the diocese of London, members of the household of the said prior, until they make satisfaction, and come to the apostolic see to be absolved from their sacrilege in attacking with sword and dagger Thomas Stuckele, monk of the said monastery, and together with two hundred men blockading the said abbot Simon and monk Thomas and other monks in the monastery. It is also alleged that, at the instigation of the said aggressors, Peter called Curteys, canon of the said priory, John his brother, John Tanner, alias Sayer, laymen, of the same diocese, with some satellites, entered the monastery with violence, and gravely injured the said abbot and convent.

8 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(c. 1363.)

To Thomas, bishop of Lismore. Mandate to summon Thomas, bishop of Killaloe; Stephen, bishop of Limerick; John, bishop of Ardfer, and others whom it may concern; the said bishops having, under pretence that the church of Iniscattery (ecclesia Cathayensis) was not cathedral, but parochial, impeded Thomas, appointed bishop of the same by Innocent VI, seized his rents and invaded his rights; the mandate of enquiry issued by the said pope to George, archbishop of Cashel, having fallen through by reason of the death of both of them. A report is to be sent to the pope under seal. [Theiner, 324.]

16 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(c. 1363.)

To the prior of St. Andrew's, York. Mandate to summon those concerned, and decide the question between John de Crakanthorp, rector of St. Wilfrid's, York, and Alan de Alnewyk and Matilda his wife, citizens of York, executors of the will of Richard de Schirburn, predecessor of the said John, touching the said Richard's personal goods, which, according to ancient custom in the diocese of York, the executors of rectors or vicars are bound to expend in repairs of the houses and manses of the same. In this case, by the neglect of Richard, great repairs were necessary, which the executors refused to make.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLIII.

2 URBAN V.

1363.

4 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 35.)

To John de Bellocampo, knight, and Elisabeth his wife, of the diocese of Worcester. Indult to choose their confessor, who may also give leave to religious of mendicant orders to eat flesh-meat at the table of the said knight on lawful days.

[Cal. Pet. i. 471.]

17 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 35d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of Trimpeleie, Kedermynstere.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 350.]

15 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To the chancellor of Paris. Mandate to admit to lecture in the faculty of theology, in the university of Paris, William de Prato, S.T.P. a Friar Minor, native of Paris, who has studied and lectured for many years in the same faculty in the university of Oxford, and has obtained there the degree of master and the licence to teach in the same.

12 [Kal.] Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 39d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, in the poor hospital of Canterbury, commonly called 'Estbruge,' founded by St. Thomas the Martyr, for the poor, for persons going to Rome (Romipete), for others coming to Canterbury and needing shelter, and for lying-in women.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 351.]

1364.

Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 42.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of St. Mary Magdalen, Laufare, in the diocese of London.

Ibid.

(f. 42d.)

The like to penitents who visit the church of St. Nicholas Wolkstede, in the diocese of Winchester.

1363.

6 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 43.)

To David Bossher, Augustinian prior of St. Catherine's, Waterford. Confirmation of his election to the said priory, confirmed by Thomas, bishop of Waterford, on the death of Andrew Edwart, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope.

[Cal. Pet. i. 467.]

2 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 44.)

To the college of masters and scholars of the hall called 'de Clare,' Cambridge. Although the hall is sufficiently endowed in the faculties of theology, canon and civil law, medicine and philosophy, and other lawful faculties, and has four parish churches appropriated to it, and all or most of the clerks are in priest's orders, there is in the house itself no church or chapel where masses can be celebrated. Licence is therefore given for the foundation and construction of such a chapel.

[Cal. Pet. i. 473.]

1364.

3 Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 46.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to dispense Thomas and Joan Tone, of his diocese, who intermarried in ignorance that a woman with whom Thomas had cohabited before his marriage was related to Joan in the third degree of kindred, to remain in the marriage so contracted, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

1363.

2 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 47.)

To Nicholas Abrahe, Cistercian monk of Ballynacurra (de Choro Benedicto), in the diocese of Cloyne. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, so that he may be elected to the dignity of abbot. [Cal. Pet. i. 469.]

1364.

Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 48d.)

To Robert Sumpter, D.C.L. dean of Exeter. Indult to have a portable altar.

8 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 51d.)

Decree whereby the present exemplification from the register of the appropriation to the abbot and convent of Croxton of the church of Thingdon, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 40*l.* made by Clement VI. 5 Kal. Aug. anno 9, shall have the force of the original. [See Cal. Lett. iii. 382; Cal. Pet. i. 128.]

5 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 52d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms for the rebuilding of the church of St. James, Garlekheto, London.

9 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 52d.)

The like to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, visit and give alms to the church of Coryngham in the diocese of London.

13 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 57d.)

To the chancellor of Paris. Mandate to admit John Romani, an Augustinian friar, to lecture on the Sentences in vacation, and within two years from the vacation next following to admit him, upon examination, to the degree of master in the faculty of theology and to the licence to teach, he having been deputed by the diffinitores of the chapter-general of his order to lecture on the Sentences in the university of Oxford, and having been advised by the physicians to return to France for the recovery and preservation of his health.

6 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 58d.)

To Thomas, prior of St. Oswald's, Nostell. Faculty to dispense six canons of his monastery to be ordained priests in their twenty-second year, many having died of the pestilence.

Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 59.)

To the provost and college of masters and scholars of Queen's Hall, Oxford. Licence to build a chapel within their house, where mass and other divine offices may be celebrated.

[Cal. Pet. i. 479.]

3 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 61.)

To Matilda de Lancastris, Augustinian canoness of Campese, in the diocese of Norwich. Grant, on petition of John, king of France, to transfer herself to the order of St. Clare, which she, before her marriage with Ralph Dufford, knight, deceased, had purposed to enter. She has, in order to escape the number of nobles coming to Campesse, where she has made her profession, caused herself to be enclosed therein, and now for peace of her conscience desires to enter the order of St. Clare.

1364.

[Cal. Pet. i. 488.]

Ibid.
(f. 61d.)

To the minister provincial of the Friars Minors in England. Mandate, on petition of John, king of France, to transfer thirteen or more nuns of the order of St. Clare, of whom one is to be abbess, from Deney, or other monasteries of the order, to the new monastery, which Lionel, duke of Clarence, is about to found and endow in his manor of Brusird, in the diocese of Norwich.

[Cal. Pet. i. 488.]

Ibid.

To Lionel, duke of Clarence, second son of king Edward. Licence, on petition of John, king of France, to found and build a monastery for thirteen or more nuns of St. Clare, of whom one is to be abbess, in his manor of Brusird.

[Cal. Pet. i. 488.]

11 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 65d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms to the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, built between the two gates of the Cistercian monastery of Kyngeswode, in which chapel, as it is asserted, miracles are done by her intercession, and to which many blind and lame come from England, Wales, France, Ireland, and Scotland.

[Cal. Pet. i. 483.]

13 Kal. —.
Avignon.
(f. 66d.)

To Eleanor, countess of Arundel. Indult to enter the monasteries of enclosed Minoresses in England, with four honest matrons, but not to eat or pass the night therein.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 519.]

6 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 67.)

To John de Cressy, rector of Thorp, in the diocese of Lichfield. Extension of dispensation granted to him as the son of a priest, so that he may exchange his benefice for another.

5 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 68d.)

To the prior of St. Botulph's, Colchester. Mandate to dispense Thomas Munde, canon of St. Botulph's, to be ordained priest on reaching his twenty-second year.

6 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 69.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of the Augustinian priory of Heverrynglond, in the diocese of Norwich.

[Fœdera.]

6 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 69d.)

The like to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms to the chapel of St. Mary in the church of Sapeot, in the diocese of Lincoln, founded by Ralph Bassett, knight, for two chaplaincies.

[Cal. Pet. i. 496.]

7 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 70.)

The like to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms to the church of St. Peter, Berwedon, in the diocese of Lincoln.

1364.

5 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 70.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadrages to penitents who on the feasts of the Blessed Virgin visit the church of St. Mary, Warwick, in which the ancestors of Thomas de Bellocampo, earl of Warwick, founded a college for a dean and seven canons; and one year and forty days to those who visit and give alms for the repair of the same on the other principal feasts of the year. [Cal. Pet. i. 498.]

7 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 71d.)

To Nicholas, prior of Newenham. Faculty to dispense six canons of his priory to be ordained priests in their twenty-second year.

5 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 73d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms for the rebuilding of the church of the priory of the cell called 'de Insula' (Lindisfarne), in the diocese of Durham, where rested the body of St. Cuthbert, by whose merits and intercession God works many miracles; the said church having been burned in the war.

3 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 74.)

The like to penitents who visit and give alms for the repair of the church and chancel of St. Botolph in Hoyland (Boston), in the diocese of Lincoln.

5 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 78d.)

To William, prior of Coventry. Faculty to dispense six of his monks to be ordained priests in their twenty-second year; many Benedictines having died of the pestilence.

7 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 80.)

To Walter Meysi or Moysi, of the diocese of Hereford. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy so that he may be ordained priest and hold a benefice. [Cal. Pet. i. 500.]

4 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 80.)

To the bishop of Glasgow. Mandate, on petition of David, king of Scotland, to dispense John Wolleys (Wallace), donsel, and Elisabeth de Eglinton, damsel, of his diocese, to intermarry, the former wife of John, and a woman with whom he cohabited, being both related to Elisabeth in the fourth degree of kindred. [See Cal. Pet. i. 476.]

1334.

10 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 85.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms to the church of St. Martin, Hereford.

Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 85.)

To John Saunford, canon of London, scholar of arts. Extension, on petition of queen Philippa, of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, so that he may hold additional benefices without cure of souls. [Cal. Pet. i. 496.]

16 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 85d.)

To the abbots and convents of Cistercian monasteries in England and Ireland. Renewal of the exemption granted by Alexander IV. dated at Viterbo, 6 Id. July, anno 3, with exemplification, from the payment of tenths of grass and hay from their meadows, groves, and lands.

7 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 89.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms for the repair of the church of St. Dominic of the Friars Preachers, Worcester.

[Cal. Pet. i. 499.]

Ibid.

The like to penitents who visit the church of St. John Baptist, Bokton, in the diocese of Lincoln. [Cal. Pet. i. 500.]

Ibid.
(f. 90.)

To the bishop of Worcester. Mandate, after consideration of the circumstances touching the fitness of John de Bellocampo, scholar, of illegitimate birth, to dispense him to be ordained and hold two benefices. [Cal. Pet. i. 498.]

Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 92.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms for the repair of the church of Ingham, in the diocese of Norwich.

3 Non. June.
Avignon.
(f. 93.)

The like to penitents who visit and give alms for the repair of the church of the Augustinian priory of Newenham, in the diocese of Lincoln.

5 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 93d.)

To Francis de Cardaliaco, S.T.P. a Friar Minor. Mandate to bestow, with the assent of the minister-general of the order, and after due examination in one of the houses of study of the said order, the degree of master and the licence to teach in the faculty of theology upon Philip Toryton, who has toiled in the said faculty in the universities of Cambridge and Oxford, and has been long a lecturer in many other convents of the said order. [Cal. Pet. i. 497.]

5 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 93d.)

To Thomas de Aston, rector of St. James's, Garlekheth, London. Extension, on petition of queen Philippa, of the value of the benefice reserved to him, in the gift of the archbishop, dean, and chapter of York, from 18 to 23 marks.

[Cal. Pet. i. 498.]

Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 95.)

To Robert de Stratton, canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain and auditor. Decree confirming a recent reservation made to him of a canonry and prebend of Lincoln, being rector of Stretham in the diocese of Ely, and having provision of a canonry and 1364.

prebend of Auckland. The see of Chichester being void by the translation of the bishop to that of London, was to have been filled by the promotion thereto of Thomas, now bishop elect of Rochester, whose canonry and prebend of Wells the pope reserved to the said Robert; but as the bishop of Chichester refused the translation to London, Thomas could not be promoted to Chichester. Afterwards the pope appointed the said Thomas to the see of Rochester; and now, whilst confirming the reservation of the canonry and prebend of Lincoln, he orders that on obtaining the canonry and prebend of Wells, those of Auckland, if obtained first, are to be resigned.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 470.]

- 16 Kal. May. To the master and scholars of Balliol College, Oxford. Indult to have mass and other divine offices celebrated, even on the greater feasts, summissa et alta voce, in their chapel, which they are bound to attend; saving the rights of the parish church.
Avignon.
(f. 96.) [Cal. Pet. i. 489.]
- 3 Non. June. Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of St. Mary, Horton, in the diocese of Rochester, which is in need of repair.
Avignon.
(f. 97.) [Cal. Pet. i. 502.]
- 6 Non. May. The like to penitents who give alms for the repair of the church of St. Nicholas, Blanchebulston, in the diocese of Ossery.
Avignon.
(f. 100.)
- 3 Kal. July. The like to penitents who visit the church of Frampton in Holand, in which there are said to be an arm of St. Stephen and a finger of St. Margaret.
Avignon.
(f. 101d.)
- 3 Kal. March. To Thomas, prior of Walsingham. Faculty to dispense four of his canons, provided that they have completed their twenty-second year, to be ordained priests, there being but few by reason of the pestilence.
Avignon.
(f. 108d.)
- 3 Non. Nov. To William de Neuton, M.A. priest, of the diocese of Ely. Indult to study and lecture in canon law at Cambridge, or another university, he having been deputed to do so in civil law; notwithstanding the statutes of Clare Hall, Cambridge, founded for the sustentation of a college of fifteen masters and scholars in divers faculties, of which he is a member, by which statutes it is provided that one only of them shall study and lecture in canon law, and two in civil law, five years having elapsed since the person last deputed to study and lecture in canon law was made bachelor in that faculty.
Avignon.
(f. 111.)
- 11 Kal. Nov. Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms to the church of the monastery of Winchcombe, which has suffered damage by a whirlwind.
Avignon.
(f. 111.)
- 3 Kal. March. To Richard, prior of Hikeling. Faculty to dispense four of his canons, provided that they have completed their twenty-second year, to be ordained priests, there being but few by reason of the pestilence.
Avignon.
(f. 111d.)

1364.

- 7 Kal. March. To Walter de Chilterham, Augustinian canon of Bristol.
Avignon.
(f. 115.) Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy so that he may be elected to any office of his order. [Cal. Pet. i. 481.]

- 3 Kal. May. Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of Avignon.
(f. 115.) enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the church of St. Mary Magdalen, Cobham, in the diocese of Rochester. [Cal. Pet. i. 492.]

- 2 Non. Nov. To William Todeworth. Grant authorising the bishop of Avignon.
(f. 116.) Salisbury to execute the papal mandate previously issued to him, and, after due examination, to give to the said William the church of Essewater, in the diocese of Exeter, void so long ago by the death of Richard Giffard that it had lapsed to the pope; a doubt having arisen since the issue of the said mandate whether this was so, and whether the said church was not void in some other way. [See Cal. Pet. i. 472.]

- 7 Kal. Sept. To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate, if the facts are as Avignon.
(f. 116.) stated, to dispense Richard Scharesbreck, donsel, and Matilda de Burchetar, to remain in the marriage contracted by them in ignorance that the late Gilbert de Goseforthsicke, who had cohabited with Matilda before her marriage, was related to Richard in the third and fourth degrees of kindred; declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

- 10 Kal. Feb. To John Kenedi, donsel, of the diocese of Glasgow. Re-
Avignon.
(f. 119d.) habilitation of his children, so as to enable them to hold ecclesiastical benefices, they having been disabled therefrom by reason that he caused a certain priest, who had slandered him to David, king of Scotland, after further provocation, to be killed, thereby incurring excommunication, from which, and from the guilt of homicide, he was absolved, his children remaining unable to obtain benefices unless dispensed by the pope.

1363.

- 2 Non. Dec. To the abbot of Battle, the prior of Hastings, and another
Avignon.
(f. 121.) named. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Andrew Sergeaunt, monk of Robertsbridge, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

1364.

- 4 Non. March. To Nicholas, bishop of Tusculum. Faculty to compel all
Avignon.
(f. 123d.) prelates, secular and regular, of France and England—to which realms he, then cardinal of St. Vitale's, and Talairand, bishop of Albano, were sent by Innocent VI.—to pay the procurations due to them, which were refused by the said prelates.

2 Id. Jan.

- Avignon.
(f. 125d.) To the bishop of Chichester, and Robert de Stratton and Richard de Wynewike, canons of Lincoln. Mandate, on petition of the prior provincial and the prior and friars of the London house of the Augustinian order, to publicly order the restoration of the books and other goods taken by John de 1364.

4 Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 129d.)

To the bishop of Winchester, the official of Salisbury, and another named. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to John Audenete, Cistercian monk of Hayles, in priest's orders, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

2 Non. March.
Avignon.
(f. 131d.)

To the bishops of Pamepluna and Nîmes, and another named. Mandate to publish the decree touching the cause between William, bishop of Chichester, and John de Dounton (as above). [In this document Thomas de Trelok is described as bishop of Rochester, to which see, in fact, he was promoted on this day.]

15 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 133d.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the case of Isabella de Scaresbrok, of the diocese of York, who in her tenth year was espoused to Henry Molineux, and was carried off, with knowledge thereof, by John de Yorke, citizen of York, more desirous of patrimony than of matrimony, and was terrified by him into a clandestine contract of marriage. Afterwards, being freed from the said John by her relations, she remained with them until she became of marriageable age, and, keeping to her first espousals, publicly married Henry. John then, falsely asserting that she was contracted to him first, brought an action against her as his lawful wife, before the official of York, and so treated her advocates and proctors that no one dared to defend her, nor did she dare to appear in person before the archbishop, being in fear of John, who, with a multitude of armed men, lay in wait for her.

9 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 134.)

To the bishop of St. Asaph. The like mandate in regard to John de Cherleton of Appelleye, of the diocese of Lichfield, who intermarried with Joan de Langheley, after which John Cudington, clerk, and John son of John de Trilowe, donsel, with their accomplices, despoiled John de Cherleton both of his wife and of her dower in lands and goods, causing her to be carried off.

7 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 134d.)

To the bishops of Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Ross. Mandate, on petition of the clergy of Scotland, to compel the abbot and convent of Dunfermline to exact no more tolls or passage dues from ecclesiastics than they do from nobles or their servants, at the port called Queensferry (portus regine) in the diocese of St. Andrews. [Theiner, 326; Cal. Pet. i. 443.]

1363.

Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 139d.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, if the facts are as stated, to sequester all the lands, possessions, and manors belonging to Margaret de Boslingthorpe, relict of Roger de Croyeby, donsel, in right of inheritance and dower, and to give a sufficient portion of the fruits thereof, during the hearing of the cause between them, to Roger Haunstredi (Hannsard or Haunsard), knight, who, alleging a previous contract of marriage, has seized the whole income, amounting to 400 marks, destroyed buildings and manor walls, wasted the woods, and alienated Margaret's lands and possessions. In the time of Innocent VI. the cause was heard by Peter, precentor of Valence, papal chaplain and auditor, and is now pending before Master John Robinelli, papal chaplain and auditor, before whom Henry Spyker has appeared as proctor for Margaret, and Robert Fraunceys for the knight. [Cal. Pet. i. 471.]

1363.

1364.

2 Sept (sic).
Avignon.
(f. 142d.)

To the bishop of Hereford. Mandate, on petition of John David, chancellor of St. Davids, to summon those concerned, and inform himself touching the chancellorship, said to be of the value of 31 marks 3s. 4d. to which John, archbishop of York, when bishop of St. Davids attached, on the death of David Baret, chancellor, who with the chapter had previously consented, the duty of lecturing in theology, either personally or by deputy, no pension or provision being made for the same; bishop Adam is now attempting to make John David lecture. A fit sum for the said lecture is to be assigned to the chancellor, who is not to be compelled to support it out of the rents of the chancellorship, if these are found insufficient.

8 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 143.)

To the abbot of Alnewik, and the prior and archdeacon of Durham. Mandate, on petition of Robert de Aukeland, vicar of Hertburn, to summon those concerned and make order respecting the jurisdiction of the archbishop of York in regard to an appeal in the archbishop's court by Robert de Bontuel and Richard Sperman of Akwclif, priests of the diocese of Durham, touching certain grievances suffered by them at the hands of the official of Durham, on the instance of Matthew, vicar of St. Nicholas's, Newcastle. In the said appeal John Ereis, commissary general of the official of the archbishop's court, ordered Robert de Aukeland, then rural dean of Newcastle, to cite as witnesses William Alman, clerk, and Hugh Hawkin of Newcastle, layman, both of the said rural deanery, and on his not doing so, cited him to appear himself, and on his non-appearance publicly excommunicated him as contumacious, on which he appealed to the pope.

2 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 144d.)

To the bishop, dean, and archdeacon of Clonmacnois. Mandate, on petition of Henry de Ferers, knight, and Joan de Tuyt, of the diocese of Meath, to summon those concerned, and make order touching the case. Walter Cusak, donsel, who had cohabited with a woman related to Joan in the third degree of kindred, married Joan, who, on being certified of this, applied for a divorce from him, and for a licence to marry another. Thomas Pers of Meath, under commission from the bishop, gave sentence in favour of Joan. Although Walter did not appeal, and Henry married Joan, the said Walter afterwards, on a visitation of the archbishop of Armagh, suggested to him that the former marriage was valid, and the archbishop, abruptly acting on this false suggestion, and without summoning Henry and Joan, declared the former marriage valid, and ordered Joan 1364.

to live with Walter as a wife. From this sentence Henry and Joan appealed to the pope. [Theiner, 327.]

1363.

15 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 145d.)

To the prior of Durham, the chancellor of Salisbury, and another named. Mandate, on petition of William de Norwico, rector of Sthanhop, in the diocese of Durham, to place him in the position in which Thomas de Brudebroke was before his death in regard to three sentences obtained by him in the papal court in the time of Innocent VI. in his cause against the bishop touching the tithe of calves and colts from the houses called Bowe-houses in Hyngeantwell (Hanging Wells), Westiacis (West Gate), Westiatflodiat (West Gate Flood Gate), Trybrister, Dahous, Sunderlandschell, Langley, Estiacis (East Gate), Horsiley, Scell (Ash Shield), Bilingschell (Billing Shields), Ovestanhopburn (Westernhopeburn), Quitwelschell, Yebraiersley, Yehorshongs, Suwinhopstell (Swinhope), in the said parish; further, to execute the said sentences in accordance with the mandate of the said pope, which mandate they have disregarded.

1364.

2 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 146d.)

Prorogation of the citation of Richard, earl of Warundel, in the cause between him and William, bishop of Chichester, touching certain injuries caused to the bishop by the said earl and Richard Win, prior of the Friars Preachers at Chichester; John Messier, Benedictine prior of St. Nicholas, Arundel; John Vincent, rector of Dichennigg (Ditchling); John Burlee, rector of Terryngg (Tarring); William de Horewik, rector of Buri; John Wilcock, rector of Toliton (Tillington); Walter de Linderings, rector of Hammes (Hamsey); John de Lovente, priest; Edward de Sancto Johanne and Andrew de Peverel, knights; Robert de Halsham, Nicholas de Wilcombe, or Wilcomke, John atte Hyde, John Bilknappe, Thomas Ackemore, Richard Schetmille, Robert de Rackeseye, Robert in the Hale, Philip Wichard, Geoffrey Norden of Lewes, Richard Chaning, laymen of the diocese; Adam Husee, Ralph Gulias, Roger Chenny, Roger de Baketon, Robert de Blundele, William Rexergue, Geoffrey Hawe, or Halbe, citizens of Chichester; Richard de Sthaniclifford, clerk, of the diocese of Canterbury; William de Honygitton, of the diocese of London; and Adam de Bury Ernery of London. The cause was committed to an auditor at the Roman court, before whom the earl and his adherents were ordered personally to appear on the first of October, but as the cause cannot be so quickly terminated, the personal citation is, with the bishop's consent, revoked, and the earl is ordered to appear by his proctor in a year from this date.

2 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 110.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the case of Henry son of the late Richard de Torbok, knight, dñsel, of the diocese of Lichfield, who died intestate, and of Matilda, now also deceased, who duly married the said Richard. Henry, their legitimate son and heir, has been defamed by William Carles, knight, and his wife Emma, who, in order to exclude him from his inheritance, say that he is illegitimate.

1365.

17 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 111d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to summon Henry de Lilbourn, Robert de Fenwik, John Braid, William Rogeri, Thomas Rogeri, Thomas de Witton, John Hanson, Edmund Essthetiht, Thomas Vidue, William Hewinhwas, John Brayn, John de Killingworth, John de Blaykburn, inhabitants of the townships in which are the chapels of Schaftow, Hert Wayton, Cambow, Mildeton Morel, Wytton, in the parish of Hertbourn (Hartburn), in the diocese of Durham, whose perpetual vicar, Robert de Ankeland, serves the said chapel's by other priests or by himself, and to whom the tithes and burial dues belong. The said laymen put other priests or chaplains into the chapels, which are not consecrated, and have had burials therein, depriving the vicar of his tithes and dues. Upon examination of those concerned and witnesses, order is to be made touching the said matter.

12 Kal. March.

Avignon.
(f. 112.)

Avignon.
(f. 121.)
- Kal. June. To the archbishop of Canterbury, and the bishops of London and Lincoln. Mandate to summon those concerned, and compel the chancellor and masters of the university of Oxford to remove from their statute book the statute touching the admission into the order of mendicants of any youth under eighteen within the said university, or the sending away of such in order to be admitted into the said order elsewhere.
Avignon.
(f. 127.)
[See Mun. Acad. Oxon. p. 204.]
- 17 Kal. Aug. To the archbishop of Canterbury, and the bishops of Llandaff and Bangor. Mandate to cite the chancellors, masters, regents, and others concerned, of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, to appear within a year with all their rights and muniments, and to show why certain hereinafter mentioned statutes, which the pope suspends for a year, shall not be perpetually revoked:—(1) That no one shall obtain the degree of S.T.P. unless he has first obtained that of M.A. (2) That there shall not be two regents in any one cloister of the order of mendicants. (3) That no one shall lecture on the Sentences unless he has taken part in the public disputations of theology held in the schools by the resident masters; that in Oxford no one may take part in the said disputations unless he has studied there one year, and in Cambridge no one unless he has studied there during the year immediately preceding. (4) That in Oxford anyone chosen to lecture on the Sentences or to take part in the said disputations, however long he may have studied, and however great and famous his virtue and learning, except M.A.s, must first be examined ex improviso in philosophy before the chancellor by two masters of arts, and that his admission thereafter to the said disputations depends on the will of the chancellor and the said masters. (5) That in Cambridge no one can be admitted to lecture on the Sentences until he has offered himself to answer publicly in the schools all the regents in the faculty of theology. (6) That in Cambridge such lecturer, after he has finished his lecturing, must once publicly answer in each school all the regents in theology, and dispute with all the masters in the same faculty before he obtains licence to incept. (7) That in Cambridge if any prelate or prince ask a grace for a member of any mendicant order, and the grace be refused, and the university be put to expense by reason thereof, no member of that order shall be promoted to any degree until the said expense is refunded or guaranteed by the said order or by the person to be promoted. (8) That in Oxford no one be admitted to lecture on the Sentences unless two regent masters in theology, in virtue of their oath, depose that the candidate is fit and furnished in morals and learning, and that for the degree of S.T.B. one of the said masters must depose the like. Also a statute at Cambridge to the like effect, and other similar provisions against the mendicant orders.

1365.

To John Skoret, or Skyret, of Buckingham, rector of Horwode Magna (Great Horwood), in the diocese of Lincoln, bachelor of canon and civil law. Confirmation of his presentation 1366.

by the prior and convent of Longueville Giffard, and institution by John, bishop of Lincoln, to the said church, value 15 marks, on its voidance by the death of Robert Kintbelle or Kinwell, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope; he has also a canonry of St. Davids, with expectation of a prebend of like value. [Cal. Pet. i. 526.]

17 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 36d.)

To the bishop of Argyle. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to dispense John son of Colun Cambel, donsel, and Mariota daughter of John Cambel, damsel, to intermarry, seeing that by reason of the diversity of dialects between the highlands (in which the said John and Mariota dwell) and the low lands of Scotland those inhabiting them rarely do so, and that by reason of the continued war and pestilence in the said realm there is such a dearth of nobles that it is hard for them to marry except within the prohibited degrees, in which condition are the said John and Mariota, they being related in the fourth degree of kindred.

Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 47.)

To Richard Pontchardon, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln. Indults to have a portable altar, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

[Cal. Pet. i. 532.]

16 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 47d.)

To Edward Twyford, lord of Duclinton. Indults to have mass celebrated before daybreak, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 526.]

9 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 47d.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the chapel of Holy Trinity in the church of the Premonstratensian monastery of Langelee (Langley), in the diocese of Norwich.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 519.]

18 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 49d.)

To Robert de Sutton, B.C.L. clerk. Enlargement of the value of a benefice reserved to him by the pope in the gift of the bishop of Norwich from 25 and 18 to 41 and 28 marks, with or without cure of souls respectively. [Cal. Pet. i. 512.]

Ibid.
(f. 50.)

To John Wyssbech, bachelor of canon law, priest. The like in regard to a benefice of like value in the gift of the prior and convent of Lewes, he having been examined and found fit by Thomas Eltesle, official of Ely, to whom the papal letters of reservation were addressed.

[Cal. Pet. i. 512.]

19 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 52d.)

To John de Gotisford, M.A. clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. The like in regard to a benefice of like value in the gift of the abess and convent of Shaftesbury, the enlargement being to the amount of 45 and 28 marks, with or without cure of souls respectively, he having been examined and found fit by the bishop of London.

[Cal. Pet. i. 516.]

Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 53d.)

To Eleanor de Lancastre, countess of Arundel. Indult to enter once a year monasteries of Minoreesses with four honest matrons aged forty.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 531.]

1366.

2 Kal. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 55d.)

To Simon [Langham], sometime bishop of Ely, archbishop elect of Canterbury. Sending him the pallium by his envoy Walter de Baketon, canon of Chichester, to be assigned to him by the bishops of Winchester and Bath, who are to receive his oath of fealty according to the form enclosed.

Ibid.

To the above-named bishops. Mandate to assign the pallium, to receive the archbishop's oath, and to send it under seal to the pope.

19 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 57.)

To John de Lowyk, vicar of Norham, in the diocese of Durham. Confirmation of the collation made to him of the said vicarage as void by the death of William de Elwyk, the same having been really void by the resignation of the said William; John is also master of the lazaret-house of St. Bartholomew, Tuedu (Tweedmouth), a benefice in the same diocese.

[Cal. Pet. i. 512.]

6 Kal. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 59.)

To Simon, archbishop elect of Canterbury. Indult to have mass celebrated before daybreak, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispose of his personal property by will.

7 Id. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 59d.)

To Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke. Indult to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

6 Kal. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 60.)

To John de Saunford, B.A. and student in arts at Oxford, canon of London. Grant, on petition of queen Philippa, whose clerk he is, that if, on account of plurality, he be removed from or deprived by the pope of his canonries and prebends of London, Wells, and Beverley, value together 64 marks, such removal or deprivation shall have no effect. [Cal. Pet. i. 535.]

Ibid.

(f. 61.)

To Simon, archbishop elect of Canterbury. Faculty to dispense ten persons of his city and diocese on account of illegitimacy, to be ordained and hold one benefice apiece.

15 Kal. Sept.

Avignon.
(f. 62d.)

To William de Burlee, vicar of Burlee (Burley), in the diocese of Lincoln. Conferring upon him the dignity of papal chaplain.

5 Kal. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 71d.)

To Benedict de Massingham, M.A. vicar of Laton, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of the provision made to him of the said vicarage, value 24 marks, in the gift of the abbot and convent of St. Albans, as void by the death of William de Sancto Neodo. Papal provision had been made of it to the late Robert de Wyssingete, who by authority of the ordinary obtained the rectory of Fullam (Fulham), in the diocese of London, before getting possession of the vicarage, which thereby became reserved to the pope. [Cal. Pet. i. 535.]

11 Kal. Aug.

Avignon.
(f. 72d.)

To Roger Payn, student in arts and civil law at Oxford, canon of St. Cross, Crediton. Confirmation, upon its being found that he was wrongly described as a student for five years instead of for four or thereabouts, of the collation made 1366.

to him of the canonry and bursal prebend of St. Cross, void by Walter de Baunton's obtaining, by authority of the ordinary, another prebend of the same. The said bursal prebend had been so long void that it had lapsed to the pope, although it was occupied by John Perour or Petrus, who held another prebend in the same church. Roger has been examined by John Schillingford, canon of Exeter, and found fit for the same, Perour being removed. [Cal. Pet. i. 530.]

8 Id. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 73.)

To the warden and college of scholars of Valense Marie Hall, Cambridge. Licence, on petition of their foundress, Mary de Sancto Papulo (Paulo), countess of Pembroke, to have a chapel founded and built by the said countess within their walls, in which masses and other divine offices may be celebrated by priests of the said college; saving the rights of the parish church. [Cal. Pet. i. 533.]

17 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 75d.)

To the bishop of Killaloe. Mandate, after due examination, to confirm the collation and provision made by Stephen, bishop of Limerick, to Maurice son of Peter de Geraldinis, canon of Ardfert, of the archdeaconry of Limerick, value 40 marks, void by the death of Peter Godyn in the time of Innocent VI. a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved or had not lapsed to the pope; Maurice, who has a canonry and prebend of Cashel, from which he says he has received nothing, and a canonry and prebend of Ardfert, value 50 florins, is, at his own wish, to resign his canonry and prebend of Cashel.

[Cal. Pet. i. 530.]

8 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 82.)

To Richard Morley, of the diocese of York. Enlargement of the value of the benefice without cure of souls reserved to him, in the gift of the archbishop of York, from 20 to 25 marks, to be conferred on him by the official of Salisbury, if he is found fit on examination by the same.

[Cal. Pet. i. 529.]

Id. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 83.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to dispense Thomas Conestabularii, donsel, and Mariota de Weynd, damsel, of his diocese, so that they may remain in the marriage which they contracted in ignorance that an impediment was caused by the previous espousal of Thomas with Megota Duncani, aged ten years, niece of Mariota, who died before marriage. Past and future offspring are to be declared legitimate.

5 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 84d.)

To Thomas Aleyn, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield. Extension of his dispensation to minister in minor orders and hold a benefice without cure of souls, which dispensation he obtained after the attack made by his friends and followers on John Blac, a layman, who had robbed him with violence and imprisoned him, but who afterwards died of wounds inflicted by Aleyn and his friends. The said Aleyn, having escaped from prison, desired only to have his enemy beaten, and not killed. He is now dispensed so as to hold two benefices without cure of souls.

[Cal. Pet. i. 523.]

1366.

7 Id. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 88.)

To John de Schepeye, D.C.L. chancellor of Lichfield. Indult in extension of the period of two years for which he, then licentiate in civil law, had petitioned to study civil law at an university, without receiving holy orders, more than a year having elapsed before the papal letters were expedited. The period of two years is to date from that of these presents.

19 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 98.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to provide a coadjutor for Hugh Hopewas, canon and prebendary of Lichfield, who is old, infirm, and nearly blind.

10 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 98d.)

To Robert de Ufforde, earl, and Margaret, countess of Suffolk. Indult to enter, once a year, monasteries of Minoreesses and other religious women, accompanied respectively by one man and four matrons aged sixty. [Cal. Pet. i. 534.]

18 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 102.)

To William de Karkestede, bachelor of canon law, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Enlargement of the value of a benefice in the gift of the abbot and convent of Peterborough, to be given to him, as a poor clerk, after due enquiry made by Robert de Stratton, Philip de Bellocampo, and Richard Wynewili (Wynewyk), canons of Lincoln, from 20 and 15 marks to 36 and 25 marks, with or without cure of souls respectively. [Cal. Pet. i. 512.]

[Register CCLV. has folios missing at the end.]

REGESTA, VOL. CCLVI.

5 URBAN V.

12 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 3d.)

To John Cobeham, knight, of the diocese of Rochester, and Margaret his wife. Indults to have mass celebrated before daybreak, and mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict, to have a portable altar, and to choose their confessor.

5 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 6.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate, on petition of David, king of Scotland, if the facts be as stated, to dispense Walter de Lessely, knight, and Eufamia, of the diocese of Ross, to intermarry, notwithstanding that Walter has cohabited with a woman related to Eufamia in the fourth degree of kindred.

4 Kal. Dec.

(f. 17d.)
1367.
13 Kal. Sept. To Thomas de Holand, knight, and Alice his wife, of the Viterbo. diocese of Lincoln. The like indult, and another to have mass
(f. 18d.) and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.
- 7 Kal. March. To the bishop of Orense (Auriensi). Mandate to license Thomas Montpellier. de Lincham, licentiate of civil law, of the diocese of Lichfield, to (f. 19.) receive the doctorate either at Oxford, where, in accordance with the statutes, he has sworn to receive it within two years, or in any other university.
- 19 Kal. Feb. To John, bishop elect of Bath and Wells. Faculty to be Montpellier. consecrated by the archbishop of Bordeaux, or any other catholic
(f. 20.) bishop in communion with the apostolic see, who shall receive his oath of fealty, according to the form enclosed, and send it under seal to the pope.
1366.
13 Kal. Jan. To Dominic de Lagueto, S.T.P. a Friar Preacher. Mandate to Avignon. admit Paul de Castronovo, a Friar Minor, after examination by (f. 21.) himself and four masters of theology, to the degree of master and to the licence to teach in that faculty, he having studied therein at Paris, Toulouse, and Oxford.

1366.

15 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 22.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and on the feast of St. Mary Magdalen, and of a hundred days to those who on certain of the said feast days, visit and give alms to the parish and collegiate church of St. Mary Magdalen, Cobham, in the diocese of Rochester.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 492.]

14 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 22.)

To John de Stratford, scholar of canon law, canon of Salisbury. Grant to retain, together with a canonry and prebend of Salisbury, the church of Chilmark, which he was bound to resign on obtaining them, the value together not exceeding 187 gold florins. The church is not more than six leagues distant from Salisbury and from the place of his origin. He had also an earlier provision of a canonry of Exeter with expectation of a prebend, which provision is annulled.

[Cal. Pet. i. 530.]

1367.

12 Kal. Feb.

Montpellier.
(f. 24.)

To Angelus de Innterramne, S.T.P. a Friar Minor. Mandate, together with four masters of theology, to examine John Welle of England, a Friar Minor, who has studied theology at Exeter, London, and Oxford, is worthy to receive the degree of master in that faculty, and was deputed by the provincial chapter to lecture on the Sentences at London. If he be found fit, the said Angelus is, with consent of the minister and chapter general of the order, to confer upon him the degree of master and the licence to teach in any place of the order where there is an university, granting to him all privileges and immunities as if he were promoted to the said degree at Paris or Oxford.

6 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 23d.)

To Nicholas Reuel or Revel, M.A. rector of Cleycot (Claycoton), in the diocese of Lincoln. Conferring the dignity of papal chaplain upon him.

1366.

9 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 23d.)

To William de Denby, M.A. scholar of theology, rector of Peniston, in the diocese of York. Renewal of the confirmation by William, cardinal of St. Laurence's in Lucina, of his wardenship of the poor hospital of St. Mary's, Gretham, about which a doubt arose whether it was not reserved to the pope, it having been obtained by exchange with Henry de Snaith for the chapel of St. Radegunda, in the diocese of London, with the approval of John Appelby, dean of London. William had previously a canonry and prebend of Howden, which, by virtue of a dispensation in extension of a dispensation for illegitimacy, he exchanged for the said chapel of St. Radegunda.

1367.

9 Kal. Feb.

Montpellier.
(f. 28.)

To Stephen de Malcarston, Augustinian canon of Holyrood, in the diocese of St. Andrews. Rehabilitation, on petition of David, king of Scotland, whose chaplain he is, on account of his having accepted the archdeaconry of Whitehern, which has 1367.

cure of souls, he holding already a church with cure of souls, under a papal dispensation granted to him, as the illegitimate son of a married man, to be ordained and hold a benefice. The archdeaconry has been already resigned.

12 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 29d.)

To Arnold Beraldi, lord of the castle of Sassac, in the diocese of Cahors. Licence to bestow certain tithes upon the college for poor scholars which Hugh Pelegrini, treasurer of Lichfield, proposes to found in the city of Cahors.

2 Id. July.
Viterbo.
(f. 35d.)

To William Courtenay, D.C.L. priest, of the diocese of Exeter. Indult to have a portable altar.

2 Non. Aug.
Viterbo.
(f. 36.)

To Hugh Cottenay, earl of Devon, and Margaret his wife. Indults to have mass and other divine offices celebrated in places under an interdict, and to have mass celebrated before daybreak.

3 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To William de Dalton, canon of York. Grant that he shall not be removed by papal letters from any of his benefices, unless special mention is made of the present grant; he having canonries and prebends of York and Ripon, and the church of Habghton (Houghton), in the diocese of Durham, value together 170 marks.

Ibid.

To Peter de Dalton, bachelor of canon and civil law, canon of Lincoln. The like grant; he having a prebend of Lincoln and the church of Surflet, in the same diocese, their value together being 170 marks.

9 Kal. Aug.
Viterbo.
(f. 57d.)

To William de Mulso, S.C.L. of the diocese of Salisbury. Dispensation to hold a benefice with cure of souls, he being aged eighteen; on reaching the canonical age he is to be ordained.

Ibid.
(f. 58.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the collegiate church of St. Mary Magdalen, Cobham, in the diocese of Rochester, founded by John de Cobeham, knight.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 492.]

10 Kal. Feb.
Montpellier.
(f. 58d.)

To Richard de Chestirfeld, canon of Lincoln. Grant, on petition of king Edward, whose clerk he is, to hold and exchange a prebend of Lincoln, value 40 marks, a prebend of Southwell, value 30 marks, and the church of Brandespath, in the diocese of Durham, value 42 marks 10s. according to the new taxation, or 80 marks according to the old, the recent papal constitutions against pluralities among the clerks of the realm of England notwithstanding.

12 Kal. Feb.
Montpellier.
(f. 60.)

To the same Richard de Chestirfeld, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield. Rehabilitation on account of his having held, when he had completed his twentieth but not his twenty-third year, the church of St. Mildrede, Bredstrede, London, and on resigning it that of Hane Wellis (Hanwell), in the same diocese, and on resigning it that of Orsted (Horstead), in the diocese of 1367.

Norwich, before he attained his twenty-fifth year, after holding which for about two years he has resigned it; 400 florins, being the fruits received from the said churches, are remitted to him.

2 Non. Aug.
Viterbo.
(l. 62d.)

To John de Gurmucestre, canon of Salisbury. Grant to hold the prebend of Aulton (Alton) in Salisbury, and of Bruclesham (Bracclesham) in Chichester, and the church of Stok in Clineslond (Stoke in Climsland), in the diocese of Exeter, and that he shall not be deprived of any of his benefices for plurality unless special mention is made in the papal letters of the present grant.

8 Id. Aug.
Viterbo.
(l. 64.)

To Reginald de Cobeham, S.C.L. rector of Coling, in the diocese of Rochester. Confirmation of the papal mandate to the official of Canterbury, by which he, as student for four years of civil law and of arts for five years, obtained a canonry of Chichester, with expectation of a prebend, notwithstanding that he held the church of Coling, value 9½ marks, the actual value thereof, as shown in the petition of the said Reginald, being 20 marks. The value of the said prebend is not to exceed 35 marks.

1366.

7 Id. Aug.
Avignon.
(l. 42d.)

To the dean of Clogher. Mandate, after due examination, to confirm to Patrick Oteny (Ocerry) his election by the chapter and confirmation by the archbishop to the deanery of Armagh, value 200 florins, void by the death of Christopher Ofratghala, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope. Anna quarto (sic). [Cal. Pat. i. 333.]

1367.

3 Id. May.
Marseilles.
(l. 71d.)

To the bishop of Sodor. Mandate, if the facts are as stated, to absolve Lochlan (Lacolannus) Johannis, called 'Maguilleon' (Maclean), dowsel, and Mary de Insulis, daughter of John, lord of the Isles, from the excommunication which they have incurred by intermarrying without banns, and to grant them a dispensation to remain in the marriage so contracted, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

Id. Aug.
Viterbo.
(l. 76.)

To William de Dingthon, canon of Salisbury. Extension of successive dispensations granted by Innocent VI. to him as the son of a priest, by virtue of which he held the church of Beyking, in the diocese of Norwich, on exchanging it that of Asshe, in the diocese of Rochester (Ash by Wrotham), on resigning which, upon rehabilitation by the said pope, he was dispensed to hold that of Wyverton, or Wiberton, in the diocese of Lincoln, together with the canonries and prebends of Tington Regis (Teignton) in Salisbury and Ruggemere in London. Subsequently, on resigning by dispensation of the present pope the church of Asshe and the said canonry and prebend in London, he obtained the church of Stayndorp, in the diocese of Durham, and the canonry and prebend of Tolsehint, in St. Martin's le Grand, London. He is now dispensed, at the request of king Edward, whose secretary he is, on resigning Stayndorp, to hold a church with two other benefices.

[See Cal. Pat. i. 420.]

1367.

16 Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 79d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, if the facts stated be found true, to grant a licence to the warden and convent of the Friars Minors in Salisbury to acquire a certain space adjoining their place, to which king Edward, the chapter of Salisbury, and others concerned are ready to give their assent. The said space is charged with a yearly cess to the bishop, and with a further yearly cess of 3 silver marks to the vicars of the cathedral church, and belongs to the bishop, who, by virtue of his oath against alienations, refuses his consent. The friars are to assign a like pension to the bishop and said vicars.

2 Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 85.)

To John, Benedictine prior of Saldinghen, or Spaldingen, in the diocese of Lincoln. Faculty to dispense twelve of his monks, having attained their twenty-second year, to be ordained priests.

Ibid.
(f. 85d.)

To Simon de Multon, licentiate in civil law. Further enlargement of the value of a benefice with cure of souls reserved to him, in the gift of the abbot and convent of Ramsey, to 40 marks, the first enlargement having been to 30 marks.

8 Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 86d.)

To Thomas son of Edward de Kendele, knight, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of the papal mandate to the chancellor of Lichfield to make provision to him of a canonry of the same, with reservation of a prebend, he being described in the said mandate as having studied law (legibus) for two years, and civil law (jure civili) for two years more, whereas he had only studied logic for half a year, and civil law for a year.

10 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 87.)

To John called 'Stalpy,' M.A. student of canon law, rector of Fethirkern, in the diocese of St. Andrews. Confirmation of his collation to and acceptance of the said church, value 25 marks, on its voidance by the resignation of Bertrand Carreti. The resignation was made to John de Pebelis, treasurer of Glasgow, deputed by William, bishop of St. Andrews, and a doubt has arisen whether, inasmuch as Bertrand was papal collector, the said church was not reserved to the pope.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 561.]

1366.

10 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 89d.)

To Richard son of Richard de Setryngton, priest, of the diocese of York, bachelor of canon law. Enlargement of the value of a benefice with cure of souls reserved to him, in the gift of the provost of St. John's, Beverley, from 25 to 30 marks.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 516.]

1367.

15 Kal. Feb.
Montpellier.
(f. 90.)

To John de Saunford, clerk, of the diocese of London. Extension, on petition of queen Philippa, of the dispensations granted to him on account of illegitimacy, so that he may hold any elective dignity in a cathedral church.

1366.

12 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 92d.)

To the bishops of Lismore and Killaloe, and the treasurer of Ardfert. Letters conservatory for Stephen, bishop, the chapter, and the churches of the city and diocese of Limerick.

1367.

2 Non. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 95.)

To the bishop of Lincoln and two others named. Mandate to proceed to the execution of the mandate committed to the bishops of Wells and Durham, and the dean of Wells, to give the church of Bishop's Wermow (Wearmouth), in the diocese of Durham, to William de Ardene, M.A. canon of Southwell. The said church became void upon William Newport obtaining that of Spefford, in the diocese of York, and has been unlawfully detained by the said Newport for two years, the said bishops and dean having refused to execute the said mandate.

16 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 96d.)

To the archbishop of Tours and the bishops of Le Mans and Nevers. Mandate, on petition of Charles, king of France, to admonish ecclesiastics of Celleville and the neighbourhood, in the diocese of Luçon, to show to the arbitrators appointed certain instruments which prove the right of the said king in the difference which has arisen respecting the said land between him and Edward, king of England.

4 Id. April.

Avignon.
(f. 100d.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate, on petition of Raymond, master of the Hospitallers, to warn all those, lay and cleric, who have seized and unlawfully hold the rents and goods of whatever kind belonging to the Hospitallers in Scotland, to restore the same.

Non. April.

Avignon.
(f. 101.)

To Nicholas de Chaggesden, canon of Lichfield. Mandate to summon those concerned and make order touching the complaint of the abbot and convent of St. Mary's, Pirkwell (Pipewell), in regard to the appropriation to them of the church of Whykhambrok (Wickhambrook), in the diocese of Norwich, by papal letters duly exhibited to the bishop and his commissaries, William Blithe, archdeacon of Norfolk (Northfolc), and the official of Norwich. The said commissaries called upon the said abbot and convent to prove the motive of the same, on which they have appealed to the pope.

6 Non. July.

Viterbo.
(f. 105.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, on petition of Walter, vicar of Wyntorp (Winthorp), to summon those concerned and make order touching the insufficient portion, to wit, 7 marks, assigned to him, the value of that church, which is appropriated to the Gilbertine prior and convent of Rolington (Bullington), being more than 60 marks.

1366.

4 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 108.)

To the archdeacon of Norwich. Mandate, on petition of Walter de Colton, vicar of a moiety of Walpol, to summon those concerned and make order touching the refusal of the prior and convent of Lewes to assign to the vicars of the said moiety a third part of the emoluments thereof, as they are bound to do by the ordinance made on the appropriation to them of the said moiety.

him, on the ground of his having not paid, for some years, the yearly fine of 8½ marks and 11*d.* imposed on him by them for absence, on the ground of one of their statutes against absentee canons, he being not bound to pay the same.

2 Id. Sept.
Viterbo.
(f. 110.)

To the archbishop of York, the abbot of Selby, and the archdeacon of East Riding (Istringendi). Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to John del Yle, monk of Monk Breton, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

7 Kal. Aug.
Viterbo.
(f. 113*d.*)

To the abbot of Bury [St. Edmunds]. Mandate, on petition of the Benedictine prior and convent of Rochester, to inform himself touching the priory, or cell, of Filkestowe (Felixstowe), in the diocese of Norwich, under the jurisdiction of the bishop and said prior of Rochester, and not under that of the ordinary. As the buildings thereof have been destroyed by inundation of the sea, it is desired to build another priory in the parish of St. Mary's, Walton, for which licence is required. A report is to be sent under seal to the pope.

11 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 117.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate, if the facts are as stated, to summon those concerned and compel the bishop, dean, and chapter of Lichfield to relax the oath which they have extorted from Walter de Kampeden, rector of Wigan, to pay a yearly pension which they pretend is due to them.

6 Kal. Sept.
Viterbo.
(f. 113*d.*)

To the prior of Newenham, the archdeacon of Bedford, and Richard de Winwil, canon of Lincoln. Mandate, on petition of Simon Tyrel, vicar of Southyeull (Southill), in the diocese of Lincoln, to summon those concerned, and make order touching the tithes due to the said vicar from the Cistercian abbot and convent of Werden (Warden); he has been despoiled thereof by them, although they have let the granges and manors, and have not themselves cultivated the lands.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLVII.

6 URBAN V.

6 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 10.)

To the doctors, masters, and scholars of the university of Oxford. Grant that anyone lawfully elected to the chancellorship by the doctors and regent masters shall be deemed confirmed and need no other confirmation; the bishop of Lincoln having claimed of custom to confirm such election.

1368.

8 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 10*d.*)

To William de Benington of Claypole, rector of Muston, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of the provision made to him of a benefice in the gift of the prioress and convent of Stikelwalde, under which he obtained the church of Muston, void by the death of John Cotes, the monastery having been described in the letters of provision as Benedictine instead of Cistercian.

1368.

2 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 12.)

To John, abbot of Walden. Faculty to dispense four of his monks, having completed their twenty-second year, to be ordained priests.

7 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 13.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun-week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and on the said six days, visit and give alms for the repair of the church of St. Peter, Tauton, damaged by tempests, in which there is an altar of St. Botolph, where miracles are often wrought.

2 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 14.)

To John de Bukyngham, B.C.L. canon of York. Indulta to have mass celebrated before daybreak, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

4 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 15.)

To Adam, bishop of St. Davids. Faculty to reconcile churches and cemeteries by deputy.

11 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 17d.)

To Robert de Denton, priest, of the diocese of London. Indult to have a portable altar.

1367.

4 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 26d.)

To John de Karlil, B.C.L. and B.A. clerk, of Carlisle. Confirmation of the papal mandate under which he was to obtain the church of Sta(n)howe, in the diocese of Norwich, as having been so long void by the death of John de Peverel that it had lapsed to the pope, a doubt having arisen whether it was not by the resignation of the said John that it became void.

1368.

Kal. July.
Montefrancone.
(f. 20.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, on petition of king Edward, to dispense, if the facts be as stated, John de Hastings, earl of Pembroke, and Ann, daughter of Walter de Many (Mauny), knight, damsel, of the dioceses of Canterbury and Cambrai, to intermarry, notwithstanding that Ann was related, in the third and fourth degrees of kindred, to the late Margaret, daughter of king Edward, damsel, whom the said earl had married. The said earl and Ann are exhorted, if the dispensation be granted, to give 1000 gold florins towards the repair of the church of the monastery of St. Paul, Rome.

6 Id. June.
Montefrancone.
(f. 21.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun-week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and on the said six days, visit the church of the Augustinian monastery of St. John Baptist, Bekenure in the diocese of London.

14. July.
Montefrancone.
(ff. 27d. and 61.)

Relaxations (as above, f. 13) to penitents who visit and give alms to the church of the Annunciation, Luleston (Lullingstone), in the diocese of Rochester.

1368.

5 Kal. June.
Montefiascone.
(f. 58.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate, on petition of queen Philippa, to rehabilitate John de Clisseby, of the diocese of Lincoln, her secretary, who held the church of Symondesbory in the diocese of Durham, and by virtue of papal letters a canonry of Lincoln, with expectation of a prebend. The said John neglected to exhibit, in accordance with the papal mandate touching the returns of values of benefices held along with benefices held or expected under provision of the pope, the taxation of his church within six months of the date of the said letters; he has been already absolved from the sentence of excommunication thereby incurred, and the fruits received from the church are to be remitted to him.

Ibid.
(ff. 58d. and 59.)

To the same. The like mandate, on petition of queen Philippa, in regard to Ralph de Notyngam, of the diocese of York, who held the church of Glemesford, in the diocese of Norwich, and a canonry of Southwell, with expectation of a prebend.

13 Kal. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 61.)

To John de Arderne, rector of Goe (Gouey), in the diocese of Coutances. Enlargement of a benefice with cure of souls granted to him, in the gift of the archbishop, prior, convent, and chapter of Canterbury, from 25 to 30 marks.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 526.]

2 Id. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 61.)

To Bernard de Guasconibus, S.T.P. minister of the Friars Minors of Tuscany. Mandate, after due examination in the Roman court by him and four other masters of theology, to grant the degree of S.T.P. at the university of Florence or other university, and the licence to teach, to John Welle of England, a Friar Minor, student of theology at Oxford.

Kal. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 81.)

To Richard de Cheshelm, of the diocese of Moray. Grant in confirmation of the mandate issued to the chancellor of Paris to confirm to him, as king David's clerk, he being also of noble birth, and having studied for four years at Paris in canon law and in other faculties, the reservation of the church of Dumberny, in the diocese of St. Andrews, which was to become void upon Thomas Karkars (Harkars), canon of Glasgow, obtaining papal provision of the treasurership of Moray. The said mandate stated, in accordance with a supplication made on behalf of the said Richard, and in his absence, by certain nobles of Scotland, that he was at the time of the issue thereof king David's clerk, the which he had been before, and now is.

10 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 82.)

To Thomas de Tynn, monk of St. Martin's, Battle. Dispensation to him, as the son of a priest, to accept any office or dignity of his order short of that of abbot.

Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 82d.)

To Roger de Wodenorton, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Enlargement of the value of a benefice reserved to him in the gift of the bishop of Ely, with or without cure of souls, from 25 and 18 to 60 and 30 marks respectively.

8 Id. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 84.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate touching the church of Altenburgh, in the diocese of Norwich, in which there are two rectors, one holding two and the other one of three portions.

1368.

Richard Garland, in the cause between him and Richard de Burton, long standing before divers auditors in the papal palace, concerning two of the three rectorial portions of the said church, was condemned under three sentences in fruits received and costs, which costs were afterwards taxed, and having been ordered by the dean of St. Agricola, Avignon, charged with the execution of the said sentences, to give up the said portions to Burton, and to make satisfaction concerning the said fruits and costs, did not obey, whereupon the dean issued sentences of excommunication, suspension, and interdict. Burton is since deceased. The bishop is to absolve Garland, under caution and a wholesome penance, on his resigning the said church and making satisfaction for the said fruits and costs.

8 Kal. May.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 93.)

To Thomas de Hauerbergh, archdeacon of Anglesey (Argligie), in Bangor. Grant in confirmation of the provision made to him by the bishop of the said archdeaconry on its voidance by the death of Howel ap Gronou. He has held the same for two years, and a doubt has arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope.

1367.

18 Kal. Jan.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 101.)

To the abbot of St. Thomas's and the prior of All Saints, Dublin, and the archdeacon of Down. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Laurence Wyteleye, canon of the Augustinian priory of St. Wulstan, in the diocese of Dublin, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

1368.

2 Kal. April.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 112d.)

To the abbot of Coggeshale, the prior of St. Botolph's, Colchester, and the archdeacon of Oxford. The like mandate in regard to Ralph de Pelham, Benedictine monk of Colne, in the diocese of London, bearer of these presents.

2 Id. June.

Montefiascone.

(f. 112d.)

To the abbot of Selby, the prior of Drax (Herlham), in the diocese of York, and the archdeacon of Oxford. The like mandate in regard to William de Selleby, Augustinian canon of Hawatempyrso, in priest's orders, bearer of these presents.

6 Id. May.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 112d.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate, on petition of William, master general of the order of Sempringham, to summon those concerned and make order touching Alesia, daughter of John de Everyingham, of Birkin, Gilbertine nun of Haverhol, who, having left her order, and having refused to obey the master's monition, was excommunicated by him, and then lived incestuously with James de Huthulle, layman of the same diocese, as if they were man and wife. On her refusing to appear before the said master, papal letters were obtained to the dean of Lincoln, who commissioned Geoffrey de Scrop and Raynald de Belvero, canons of the same, to hear the cause. The canons 1368.

absolved Alesia, under caution, from the sentence of excommunication, upon which the master appealed to the pope.

7 Kal. June.
Montefiascone.
(f. 114d.)

To the bishop of Winchester. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to make order touching the case of Agnes, wife of Robert Marchamet, knight, who, after offspring had by them, put her away, and cohabited with other women, despoiling his wife, who now desires to be put in some safe place out of her husband's power.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 117d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to summon those concerned, and decide the cause between John de Parre, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, present petitioner, and the abbot and convent of Whalley, touching the chapel of St. Michael, Clidewrowe, which the said John obtained by papal provision on its avoidance by the death of William Burton, rector of the same, and which the abbot and convent assert was appropriated to them, the said cause, partly heard by a papal auditor under a commission from Innocent VI. having remained undecided.

9 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 118d.)

To the same. Mandate to summon those concerned and decide the cause between William de Wintriton, canon of Hereford, present petitioner, and the prior of the same, Thomas Joce of Felton, Thomas Burwehil of Thynsil, laymen, and Joan Rousel, touching the right of pasturage in certain meadows within the parish of Schuth (South) Wintington, and belonging to the prebend of Preston, held by the said William.

6 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 119.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate, on petition of abbot Thomas, if the facts are as stated, to compel Richard de Scynsbucy (Seynesbury), monk of St. Werburg's, Chester, to return to the monastery and to the obedience of abbot Thomas. The said Richard, at the apostolic see, when abbot of the said monastery, of his own accord ceded his rule to the said Thomas, to whom papal provision was made thereof, and then, under pretext of having a personal exemption from the apostolic see, refused obedience to abbot Thomas and left the monastery.

4 Kal. June.
Montefiascone.
(f. 119d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the case of John Devenish, citizen of London, and Joan Blanch his wife, the said Joan being placed apart in some fitting religious place. After John and Joan had lived together as man and wife, Richard Moriz (or Morys, f. 132), of the diocese of Lincoln, asserting that he had married the said Joan, obtained three sentences in the cause heard before papal auditors, and got a mandate for their execution. It is asserted that these sentences were obtained by false, corrupt, and suborned witnesses; and that Richard was willing to let John and Joan alone if they gave him 100*l.* and a yearly pension of 5*l.*

tences of excommunication incurred by them in the above-named cause, in which false and corrupt witnesses and forged documents were produced.

1368.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L 125d.)

To the official of Tournay. Mandate touching the will of Martin of London and Pardus of Paris, sons of Pardus, jeweller, who bequeathed the greater part of their property, mainly in England, to the poor and to pious places, and appointed as executors, in presence of the official of the archdeacon of London, according to the custom of that city and of the realm of England, Ventura, and Paul Johannis, citizen of Pistoja, both dwelling in London. Ventura, in order to appropriate the inheritance, falsely pretended that Paul was his debtor in the sum of 307*l*. and caused him to be imprisoned in London until he took oath to renounce his co-executorship. If the facts be as stated, he is to compel Ventura, under threat of excommunication, to release Paul from his oath.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLVIII.

13 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L 38.)

To the official of Canterbury. Mandate, on petition of king Edward, to give, after due examination, to John Aleyn, the king's clerk, the archdeaconry of Suffolk, reserved to the pope in the lifetime of John de Carleton (viz. 4 Id. Nov. anno 5), who, as king Edward's envoy, died on his way to the Roman court. Aleyn is to resign his rectory of Otteford, in the diocese of Rochester, and his canonry and prebend of St. George's, Windsor, but not his canonry and prebend of Wells.

15 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L 97.)

To Henry Wyntirton, bachelor of canon and civil law. Provision of the archdeaconry of Essex, value 50 marks, void by Roger de Freton obtaining the deanery of Chichester, notwithstanding that the said Henry has a canonry and prebend of Salisbury, which is to be resigned on his obtaining another of the same, and that he has provision of a benefice in the gift of the abbot and convent of Bury, which provision is to be void. Henry has studied civil law for two years at Cambridge.

Concurrent mandate to the chancellors of Salisbury and London, and Robert de Stratton, canon of Lincoln.

12 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L 39.)

To the bishop and dean of Aberdeen, and another named. Mandate to give to William de Grenlaw, canon of Moray, who has laboured for twelve years in Scotland as collector of dues to the papal camera, the archdeaconry of St. Andrews, which was reserved to the pope in the lifetime of William de Pelmore (or Palmore). Provision of the same was made to Grenlaw, who was dispensed to hold it together with the deanery of Glasgow and canonry and prebend of Moray, but in the dispensation it was not mentioned that both the deanery and archdeaconry had cure of souls attached to them. He afterwards obtained, by papal provision, a canonry and prebend of Glasgow, void by the removal therefrom of Guy de Ruppe, canon of St. Martin of Tours, on account of plurality, and thereby reserved to the pope, and at the same time resigned the deanery of Glasgow. Grenlaw was rehabilitated, had remission of fruits received, and was ordered to resign the said archdeaconry and the canonry and prebend of Glasgow: as, according to the constitution of John XXII. beginning Execrabilis, the archdeaconry is now void, it is to be given to him on his resignation of it.

1368.

1367.

3 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 46.)

To the dean of Lincoln, and the archdeacons of Northampton and Bedford. Mandate to summon those concerned, and on finding the facts to be as stated, to remove William Kynewell, who has no degree in any lawful faculty, from the archdeaconry of Buckingham. In order to elude the ordinance of the present pope [Reg. 246, f. 340*d.*, and 248, f. 227*d.*] requiring a return of benefices in England even though held or expected by papal authority, he having canonries and prebends of Lincoln and Ripon, value 140 marks, and the church of Surflet, in the diocese of Lincoln, and before the pope could order him to resign the said church, he exchanged it for that of Langperch (or Longport, Reg. 259, f. 39*d.*), of lay patronage, in the same diocese. The said archdeaconry was then, by a mandate dated Kal. Aug. anno 5, ordered to be given to John Skyret of Buckingham, rector of Great Horwood (Horewode Maingna); but as he died at the apostolic see before the papal letters were made out, it is to be given to Henry Piel, canon of Southwell, licentiate in canon and civil law, who is to resign the church of Werketon, in the diocese of Lincoln.

[See Cal. Pet. i. 229. William de Gynewell.]

3 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 55.)

To John de Babyngle. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Lanchester, value 10 marks, void by the death of John de Nesbyt at the apostolic see.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of London, the chancellor of York, and the archdeacon of Oxford.

1368.

13 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 60*d.*)

To the official of Canterbury. Mandate, on petition of king Edward, to give, after due examination, to his clerk, Richard de Linteford, rector of Burgheler, in the diocese of Winchester, and canon of Beverley, the canonry and prebend of Lincoln, void by the death of John de Karleton, king Edward's envoy, on his way to the Roman court, the same having been reserved to the pope, 4 Id. Nov. anno 5, in the lifetime of the said John.

4 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 62.)

To John son of John de Geraldinis, B.C.L. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Limerick, value 20 gold florins, void by the resignation of the late Walter Gnowsall, papal chaplain, and sub-collector in Ireland, made to Stephen, bishop of that see, 1367.

7 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 99d.)

To the abbot of St. Mary's, York, the archdeacon of East Riding, and the official of York. Mandate to summon the abbot and convent of Cokersand, and others concerned, touching the church of Mitton, void by the death of William de Tatham, although the abbot and convent occupy it on the pretext that it has been appropriated to them. If the church is void it is to be given to Thomas Sotheron, who is to resign that of Monnesley, in the diocese of Norwich.

1368.

11 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 103d.)

To John de Glatton. Provision of the church of Northwolde, in the diocese of Norwich, which he obtained by exchange with Bernard de Sautre for that of High Rothing (Alta Rothynge), in the diocese of London; resignation having been made by proctors William de Neuton, of the diocese of Ely, and Master John de Hymberde or Hymberford.

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Bury St. Edmunds, West Derham, and Hulm.

Ibid.
(f. 104d.)

To Bernard Sautre. The like in regard to the church of High Rothing, mutatis mutandis.

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Bury St. Edmunds and West Derham, and the dean of St. Paul's, London.

12 Kal. Sept.
Montefiascone.
(f. 113d.)

To the prior of Bermondsey, the archdeacon of Winchester, and John de Sylinforde, canon of Exeter. Mandate to summon John Querneby, and others concerned, touching the rectory of Croydon, in the diocese of Winchester, wrongfully held by the said John, who, having no dispensation, has not been ordained priest, to remove him therefrom and to give it to Ralph de Pyleton, bachelor of canon law, priest, of the diocese of Exeter, who is to resign his expectation of a benefice in the gift of the prior and convent of Plympton.

4 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136d.)

To John Offeargayl, B.C.L. of the diocese of Ardagh. Extension of dispensation granted to him as the son of a subdeacon, at the request of Cornelius, bishop of Raphoe, of whose household he is a member, so that he may accept any dignity short of the episcopal.

11 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 144d.)

To the abbot of Missenden. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to license Richard de Peykyrke, Augustinian canon of Brunne, to transfer himself to another monastery of the same order, he having suffered from the enmity and injuries inflicted on him by abbot Thomas.

Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 147.)

To the bishop of Durham. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to dispense Thomas Gray, knight, and Margaret, daughter of the late William de Pressen—who intermarried in ignorance that the late John Lutre, whose marriage with Margaret at the age of nine was duly annulled on account of her want of consent when she reached the age of discretion, was related to Thomas in the fourth degree of kindred—to remain in the marriage so contracted sixteen years ago, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

1368.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148d.)

To the provost of the church of St. Omer. Mandate as above to the official of Tournay (Reg. 257, f. 135d).

1367.

7 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To the bishop of Sodor. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to license the prior provincial and Friars Minors of Ireland to accept a place offered them by William de Montecauto, earl of Salisbury, in his town (in villa) of St. Columba, in the Isle of Man, and to build thereon a church and other necessary offices, there being no place of the said order in the diocese of Sodor.

[Theiner, 331, from the Avignon register, in which 'villa' has been altered in the margin to 'parrochia ecclesie.']

1368.

3 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To the abbot of Waltham. Mandate to summon those concerned in the petition of Adam, rector of Olney, stating that the inhabitants of Weston-under-Wood in his parish, pretending that they are not bound to come to his church on Sundays and holidays for mass and ecclesiastical sacraments, but that the rector is bound to keep a priest at his charges in the chapel founded anew in the said town, tried to compel him. The cause was brought by the rector before the official of Lincoln, and carried by the said inhabitants to the court of Canterbury, whose official ordered the rector to provide the priest at his own charges. The rector appealed to the pope, but the official, in contempt of the appeal, excommunicated him. It is further stated that John Grenewyck, Philip Vowessan, Stephen Copull, Thomas Wylinton, and Henry Elis of Weston-under-Wood, lay parishioners, have taken and held goods and rights belonging to the said rector and church. The rector therefore prays to be absolved from the said sentence of excommunication, which is ordered to be done under caution, and the cause is to be heard by the abbot and decided.

Ibid.

(f. 148d.)

Ordinance, on petition of Hamo, abbot of Battle, touching the cell of St. John, Brecon, in the diocese of St. Davids, whose prior, John, asserts that he is a papal chaplain, and therefore exempt from the jurisdiction of the said abbot, thereby causing the dispersion of the monks, and ruin of the buildings. The prior is declared to be subject to the said Hamo and his successors.

Kal. July.
Montefiascone.

To Laurence de Ibestok, licentiate in civil law, canon of Lichfield. Grant whereby his obligation to resign the church of Barewell, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 70 marks, on obtaining a canonry of Lichfield, with expectation of a prebend, is rescinded.

1369.

2 Id. June.
Montefiascone.
(f. 27.)

To John Mareschalli. Extension of the dispensation granted to him as the son of a priest, so that he may exchange the church of Swepston, in the diocese of Lincoln, for another.

4 Kal. Aug.
Montefiascone.
(f. 28.)

To Henry, Augustinian prior of Kelingworth (Kenilworth). Faculty to dispense four of his canons, having attained their twenty-second year, to be ordained priests.

15 Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 29.)

Relaxation during ten years of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of St. Ragunde in the church of Ledbury, in the diocese of Hereford.

16 Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 29.)

The like for the church of St. Martin Novi Operis, Dover.

Kal. Oct.
Viterbo.
(f. 31d.)

The like for the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in Leverington, in the diocese of Ely.

1368.

Non. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 34d.)

To Robert Holewey, B.C.L. of the diocese of Worcester. Enlargement of the value of the benefices reserved to him in the gift of the bishop of Worcester, from 25 and 18 to 50 and 28 marks, with or without cure of souls respectively.

1369.

10 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 35d.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to summon the rector of Clifton and others concerned, and, if the facts be as stated, to allow the inhabitants of Neuton in the parish of Clifton, who are prevented from going to the parish church by the distance, the frequent floods of the river Avon (Habona), and the dangerous state of the bridge, neglected by the secular authorities despite ecclesiastical censure—to have mass, baptism, and burial in the chapel and adjoining ground in Neuton, and to cause the said rector to provide a suitable chaplain.

1368.

2 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 39d.)

To Master Peter Flandini, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate, recapitulating the circumstances set forth above, Reg. 258, f. 46, to give the archdeaconry of Buckingham, William Kinwell, rector of Longport, in the diocese of Lincoln, having been removed therefrom, to Henry Pyel, licentiate in civil law, canon of Southwell, who has, since the former mandate in his favour, pointed out by petition that the papal letters cannot pass the chancery because it is stated therein that at the time of the above-named ordinance Kinwell held the archdeaconry and the said church (of Surflet) canonically, whereas they were incompatible. Master Peter is to execute the present mandate, notwithstanding the former statement.

1369.

11 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 41d.)

To Nicholas Vendevall, S.C.L. Confirmation of the provision made to him of a canonry of St. Patrick's, Dublin, with expectation of a prebend; it being feared that whereas there are two churches in Dublin, Holy Trinity and 1369.

St. Patrick's, both reputed to be cathedral, the papal letters may be deemed surreptitious. [See Cal. Pet. i. 486.]

8 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 48d.)

To the bishop of London. Faculty to absolve persons of the realm, on their making satisfaction, from ecclesiastical sentences incurred by them as aiders and abettors of Barnabas de Vicecomitibus (Visconti), knight, of Milan, in his war against the Roman church and empire.

10 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 50d.)

To Laurence de Ybstok, B.C.L. of Oxford, rector of Barwell. Confirmation of his presentation and his institution by John, bishop of Lincoln, to the church of Barwell, in the gift of Agnes, abbess, and the convent of Pollesworth, void by the death of William de Oulecotes, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope: provided that the said William was not a member of the pope's household. Laurence is canon of Lichfield, with expectation of a prebend.

1368.

9 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 51.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year visit the chapel of Holy Trinity in the church of Ashwell, in the diocese of Lincoln.

1369.

Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 52.)

To the prior and brethren of the hospital of the Holy Ghost at Rome. Renewal of the mandate of Gregory IX. dated at the Lateran, 5 Non. March anno 4, to all prelates secular and regular in England, to receive kindly the messengers of those who come to collect the alms of the faithful for the hospital of the Holy Ghost, and not to inflict upon them loss or injury by reason of the frivolous speech of some people, but to assist them with counsel and aid.

4 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 53d.)

To the bishop of Aberdeen. Mandate, on petition of king David, if the facts stated be found true, to dispense John de Keet, donsel, of his diocese, and Mary de Chen, damsel, of that of Moray, to intermarry, they being related in the third degree of affinity.

6 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 57.)

To John de Saunford, canon of London. Rehabilitation, on petition of queen Philippa, a doubt having arisen whether his dispensations on account of illegitimacy and subsequent provisions of benefices—canonries of Wells and St. John's, Beverley—hold good, inasmuch as his mother, at the time of his birth, was married to another man [than his father].

10 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 58.)

To Robert de Fordham, bachelor of canon law, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Rehabilitation, after the enlargement of the value of the benefice reserved to him in the gift of the abbot and convent of Bury St. Edmunds from 25 and 18 to 33 and 22 marks, with or without cure of souls respectively; he having already, at the time of the letters of enlargement, received papal provision of the church of Stretham, in the diocese of Ely, of which no mention was made in the same, and having 1360.

afterwards accepted, in virtue of the letters of reservation and enlargement, the church of Thurston (Tursten), in the diocese of Norwich, in the gift of the said abbot and convent, void by the death of Robert de Thorp.

- 3 Id. March. To John Duncan, archdeacon of Down, papal chaplain and St. Peter's, Rome. nuncio. Indult to choose his confessor.
(f. 58d.)
- 5 Id. Feb. To the chancellor of York. Mandate, after due examination, St. Peter's, Rome. to confirm the collation made by the chapter (the treasurer, as
(f. 60d.) patron, having neglected to do so) of the vicarage of Aine, value 10*l.* void upon John de Welton obtaining the vicarage of Stanfordham, in the diocese of Durham, to William Canon, priest, of the same diocese, a doubt having arisen whether it was not reserved to the pope.
- 5 Non. May. To John Moubray, of the diocese of York, B.A. and S.C.L.
Montefiascone. Dispensation to him, in his nineteenth year, to hold a benefice
(f. 68.) with cure of souls on attaining his twentieth year.
- 3 Id. May. Relaxation, during ten years, of a hundred days of enjoined Montefiascone. penance to penitents who give alms for the repair of the church
(f. 70d.) of London, in which lies the body of St. Erkenwald, the dean and chapter not having sufficient means thereto.
- 4 Non. May. To the prior and chapter of Rochester. Licence to rebuild Montefiascone. in a place in the parish of St. Mary, Walton, pursuant to a
(f. 74d.) mandate addressed to the abbot of Bury [St. Edmunds], the priory cell at Filkestowe (Felixstowe), of which the monks are subject to the bishop, prior, and chapter of Rochester, and not to the bishop of Norwich, and which is falling into ruin caused by the daily floods of the sea. The said abbot was ordered to inform himself touching the same, and to report to the pope, which has been done.
- 5 Id. June. Relaxation, during ten years, of a year and forty days of Montefiascone. enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of (f. 77d.) the year, the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and on the said six days visit the church of St. Paul, London.
- 6 Kal. Feb. To Thomas March, licentiate of civil law, rector of Snayelles-St. Peter's, Rome. wzell. Grant to hold the church of Snayelleswzell, in the
(f. 91.) diocese of Norwich, together with the canonry of Lincoln, with expectation of a prebend, if the value of the prebend shall not exceed 400 gold florins, reserved to him by the pope on condition of resigning the said church.
- 16 Kal. July. To Robert de Bugham, priest, of the diocese of York. Con-Montefiascone. firmation of the provision made to him of the vicarage of (f. 91d.) Aston Rowland, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 6½ marks, in the gift of the abbot and convent of St. Albans, void by the death of Hugh de Aylesberi, the said abbot having, in order to shut out those expecting similar benefices for poor clerks by 1369.

papal authority, asserted that the vicarage is in the gift of the prior of Holy Trinity, Wallingford, whereby Robert may be molested in regard to the same.

1368.

2 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 117.)

To the archdeacon of Oxford, and the chancellor and treasurer of York. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to William de Otteley, Cistercian monk of Kirkstall, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

12 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 121.)

To the bishop and dean of Wells, and the archdeacon of Exeter. The like in regard to William Thornebury, Augustinian canon of St. Mary's, Keynesham, bearer of these presents.

11 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 124.)

To the abbot of Cîteaux, the diffinitores of the chapter-general, and to the said chapter. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to take order touching the statements made in the petition of Thomas, abbot of Stonley, in the diocese of Lichfield, to the effect that John, abbot of Bordesley, in the diocese of Worcester, claiming to be visitor of Stonley, unjustly deprived the said Thomas, and having committed the administration to William Aston and John Calshul, monks of Stonley, and having by secular power compelled the said Thomas to surrender his monastery to him, ordered the monks to elect Alexander de Evesham, monk of Bordesley. Upon their electing the said Thomas he refused to confirm the election, and with the aid of the secular power imposed upon them the said Alexander, who, after having plundered the monastery of chalices and books, and wasted woods and other property to the amount of 15,000 florins, feared to be deprived, and resigned. Afterwards the said William Aston took possession, and Alexander, falsely pretending to have been plundered, ill-used, and imprisoned in the said monastery, began a process before William, bishop of Sabina.

1369.

17 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 124d.)

To the abbot of Bordesley, the prior of Coventry, and the archdeacon of Oxford. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to John Dankastre, Cistercian monk of Stoneley, in the diocese of Lichfield, bearer of these presents.

7 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 181d.)

To the archdeacon of Oxford. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the priory of Okenbourne, in the diocese of Salisbury, of which the prior William complains that William, abbot of Bec Herlewine, in the diocese of Rouen, from which the said priory depends, has sold and now sells and alienates its possessions, and, as is believed, will wholly devastate it.

6 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 133.)

To the abbot of Torre, in the diocese of Exeter. The like mandate on petition of Robert, prior, and the chapter of Canterbury, who state that John, a layman, and Juliana, son and 1369.

daughter of the late Henry King of Northfurse, in the diocese of Exeter, and other lay persons, have seized and unlawfully detain and refuse to restore many goods and chattels belonging to the said prior and chapter, they having been bequeathed to Gilbert Honychurch, monk of Canterbury, before he was received therein.

6 Non. March. To the archdeacon of Northampton. Mandate, on petition of St. Peter's, Rome. William de Nottingham, to excommunicate Alexander Sperman, rector of All Saints, Oxford, and John Kidington, rector of the second portion of Malpas, who falsely asserted that the said William was charged with theft and other crimes. He sought to recover damages from them, and would have purged himself with six witnesses (cum septima manu) before the chancellor of the university, who gave an unjust sentence against him, from which he appealed to the pope. The said rectors, hearing of this, laid hands on him and beat him, thereby incurring excommunication, and afterwards boasted that if they could catch him they would keep him in prison. (f. 133d.)

7 Kal. March. To the official of Salisbury. Mandate to summon those concerned, and cause to be observed the sentence given by Thomas de Stratford, dwelling in London, and commissioned by the official of Canterbury, in the cause originally heard before the late Richard Plessis, dean of St. Mary-le-Bow, acting for the said official, between Nicholas, vicar of St. Laurence's, Waltham, in the diocese of Salisbury, and the prior and convent of Hurley, touching the augmentation of the portion of the said vicar. The sentence given by Stratford cannot, by reason of the power of the said prior and convent, be duly carried out, so that the vicar is defrauded of his portion. (f. 134d.)

4 Non. May. To the abbot of Langley. Mandate to summon those concerned and make order touching the rectory of Swanton, in the diocese of Norwich. John, rector thereof, states that although the tithes and oblations of his church and that of Skeyton are of the fee of the abbot and convent of Hulme, they have by custom belonged to the rector of Swanton, and that his predecessor Henry obtained a sentence in his favour from the official of Norwich. After Henry's death, John succeeded him, and has been molested by John, successor of William, rector of Skeyton. Montefiascone. (f. 137d.)

8 Kal. July. To the dean of Chichester, the archdeacon of Oxford, and another named. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Richard de Kyrkeby, priest, of the Augustinian priory of Felly (Felley), in the diocese of York, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it. Montefiascone. (f. 139d.)

16 Kal. Sept. To the bishop of Ely. Mandate, on petition of William Yokkesale, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, to excommunicate Henry Jakes, priest, and Robert called 'Barri' of Tottehal, layman, of the dioceses of Lincoln and Norwich, who laid violent hands on him, and seized clothes, books, and other goods to the value of 20 marks, which were to be applied to pious uses under letters of administration granted to the said Peter (William) by Thomas, bishop of Norwich, touching the goods of the late Thomas de Offord, rector of Hadele, in the diocese of Norwich. The offenders are to remain under sentence until they have made satisfaction and come to the apostolic see to be absolved.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLX.

8 URBAN V.

DE INDULTIS.

6 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 7d.)

To the official of Whitehern. Mandate, on petition of David, king of Scotland, on behalf of his secretary, Duncan Petit, of Glasgow, to confirm to the said Duncan, if found fit after due examination the archdeaconry of Whitehern, void by the death of Patrick Macdonel, provided that the said Patrick was not a member of the papal household. Duncan, having obtained it by provision of Adam, bishop of Whitehern, doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope. [See Reg. ccxciv. f. 145d.]

Ibid.

To the official of Brechin. The like mandate, also on petition of king David, in regard to Stephen de Cellerio, canon of Dunkeld, and the archdeaconry of Brechin, value 100 gold florins, void by the death of Laurence de Spens. The value of his prebend of Dunkeld is 40 gold florins.

1370.

4 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 12d.)

To the dean of Chichester, and the archdeacons of Durham and Oxford. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Thomas de Kyrketon, monk of Coverham, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

14 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 15d.)

To William, bishop elect of Hereford. Indult to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.

1370.

4 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 16d.)

To the prior of St. Frideswide's, Oxford, the dean of Chester [le-Street] in the diocese of Durham, and another named. Mandate to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to William de Doditon, Cluniac monk of Welnolre (Wenlock), in the diocese of Lichfield, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 23d.)

To William, bishop elect of Hereford. Licence, during two years, to reconcile churches and cemeteries of his city and diocese by deputy.

1870.

- 13 Kal. April. To the bishop of Florence. Mandate to admit, if found fit, St. Peter's, Rome. Dominic de Pantaleonibus of Florence, Friar Preacher, papal (f. 24.) chaplain, to lecture on the "Sentences" in the year next following in the university and in the house (domo) of his order at Florence, he having for several years studied in the faculty of theology at Paris and in the realm of England.
- 10 Kal. April. To the abbots of Hosten (Oseney) and Gereden (Garendon), in St. Peter's, Rome. the diocese of Lincoln, and the archdeacon of Oxford. Mandate (f. 27.) to carry out the ordinances touching apostates in regard to Simon de Digbi, Augustinian canon of Ulvescroft, bearer of these presents, who, having left his order, desires to be reconciled to it.
- 3 Id. March. To John de Plebis (Peebles), doctor of canon law, M.A. and St. Peter's, Rome. student of theology, canon of Glasgow. Confirmation of the (f. 27d.) collation made to him by the ordinary of the canonry and prebend of Barnalark in Glasgow, which he obtained by exchange with Brice Kerre, for that of Balhelvy in Aberdeen, the resignations having been made into the hands of Alexander and Walter, bishops of Aberdeen and Glasgow respectively. He is allowed to retain the parish church of Duglas (Douglas), in the diocese of Glasgow, of lay patronage.
- 3 Non. April. To Henry Dispenser, licentiate of civil law, canon of Salis- St. Peter's, Rome. bury. Dispensation to have papal provision, to be made to him (f. 29.) this day, of the see of Norwich, he being in his twenty-seventh year.
- 4 Non. March. To Edward de Dallingrigge, knight, of the diocese of Chiches- St. Peter's, Rome. ter. Indults, the first during six years, to have a portable (f. 29d. and 30.) altar, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.
- 4 Id. Feb. To the doctors, masters, and scholars of the university (studii) St. Peter's, Rome. of Oxford. Renewal, on their petition and on that of Simon, (f. 30.) cardinal of St. Sixtus, of confirmation of the statutes and customs of their university whereby the chancellor shall be elected every two years by the doctors and masters regent, the bishop of Lincoln having asserted his right to confirm such election. By previous letters it was ordered that the chancellor, so elected, should be deemed confirmed and need no other confirmation: but in the said letters it was not stated that the said bishop, when petitioned to confirm, used words, according to the form given, of commission, and not of confirmation. [See Reg. cclvii. f. 10.]
- 4 Non. March. To Lambert de Weston, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln. St. Peter's, Rome. Indults, during six years, to have a portable altar, to have mass (f. 30d.) celebrated before daybreak, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.
- 16 Kal. June. To William de Grenlaw, archdeacon of St. Andrews. Indults to Montefiascone. have a portable altar, to have mass and other divine offices (f. 31 and 31d.) celebrated privately in places under an interdict, and to dispose of his personal property by will.

1370.

- Id. Jan. To Violante, duchess of Clarence, relict of Lionel, duke of Clarence. Dispensation to contract marriage with any man of her choice related to her in the fourth degree of kindred.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 36.)
- 5 Kal. March. To Thomas Lang, M.A., chancellor of Ross. Confirmation of the provision made to him by bishop Alexander of the chancellorship of Ross, value 24 marks, void by the death of John de Abyrbrach, Thomas doubting whether it was not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that John was not a member of the papal household.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 45.)
- 4 Non. March. To Thomas, bishop elect of Exeter. Faculty to be consecrated by any catholic bishop of his choice in communion with the apostolic see, assisted by two or three others, without prejudice to the rights of the metropolitan.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 47.)
- 10 Kal. Feb. To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the legitimacy or illegitimacy of Matilda called 'Charnelles,' of London, who falsely asserts that she is the legitimate daughter of the late Thomas Charnelles, donsel, eldest son of the late Nicholas de Charnelles, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln, whose lawful heiress Joan, wife of Robert called 'Charnelles' alias Mariscall, has, with her husband, petitioned the pope touching the inheritance, Matilda being too powerful to be cited in the lay courts of the city and diocese of London.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 50d.)
- 8 Id. March. To Simon, bishop of London. Faculty, until next Michaelmas, to absolve those persons of the realm who present themselves and ask to be absolved from sentences of excommunication incurred by them under various processes instituted against invaders of territories of the Roman church.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 52d.)
- Non. April. To the bishop of Paris. Mandate, on petition of James de Besnez, master-general of the Augustinian hospital of St. Lazarus, Jerusalem, to compel those of the order in England, Apulia, Hungary, and France, who have refused for twenty years, to return to his obedience, attend the yearly general chapter, and give the contributions due to him.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 60d.)
- 5 Kal. March. To Andrew de Burwell, B.A. and bachelor of canon law, vicar of Ixning. Confirmation of the provision made to him of the vicarage of Ixning, in the diocese of Norwich, in the gift of the bishop, and reserved to him by the pope, he having been described in the letters of reservation as M.A. instead of B.A. He is ready to undergo examination for M.A.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 61d.)
- Kal. April. To Adam de Carrothurs, subdeacon, of the diocese of Glasgow. Rehabilitation, on petition of Margaret, queen of Scotland, on account of his having, under a dispensation for illegitimacy, accepted the church of Monfald, of lay patronage, value 10 marks, without having been ordained priest. He is to resign the church, and on its being again given to him, he is dispensed to hold it, and exchange it for another benefice.
St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 66d.)

1370.

12 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 68.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and on the feast of the dedication visit the church of Exeter.

8 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 70.)

To the bishop of Worcester. Mandate to summon the parties concerned, and to decide the cause between the abbot and convent of Gloucester, and Nicholas, vicar of Cernay Milonis, appropriated to the said monastery, the said vicar, whose portion is insufficient, having taken an oath, which is to be relaxed, not to proceed against them touching the same.

[See Monasticon, i. 546.]

10 Kal. June.
Montefiascone.
(f. 76d.)

To Master William de Grenlaw, archdeacon of St. Andrews. Conferring on him the dignity of papal chaplain.

9 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 78.)

To the official of Paris. Mandate to summon those concerned, and absolve Philip, duke of Orleans, from the sentences passed upon him by the auditor-general of the court of the papal camera at the instance of Adam Bury, citizen of London, satisfaction having been made to him by the said duke in respect of certain debts.

2 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 78.)

To Hugh Feribi, canon of St. John's, Beverley. Confirmation of the provision made to him of the canonry and altar prebend of St. James in St. John's, Beverley, value 26*l.* void by the death of Anthony de Goldesburg, respecting which he obtained, within five years, three sentences in the papal palace against William de Piewell and other three against John de Humbleston, canons of Beverley, who were molesting him in regard to the same; Hugh doubting whether the canonry and prebend were not reserved to the pope.

4 Non. May.
Montefiascone.
(f. 98.)

To William Baty, vicar of Pydyngton. Confirmation of his institution to the vicarage of Pydyngton, in the diocese of Durham, value 10 marks, which he obtained by exchange with Richard de Auchandrin for that of Grendone, or Grundone, in the same diocese, both in the gift of prior John and the chapter of Durham; the resignations having been made into the hands of bishop Thomas. William doubts whether Pydyngton was not reserved to the pope.

10 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 110d.)

To the abbot of Flaran, in the diocese of Auch. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to absolve from excommunication the consuls and universitas of Mezin (Medicinum), in the diocese of Condom, they being ready to give satisfaction for the injuries inflicted by them when subjects of Edward, king of England, and Edward, prince of Aquitaine, at the command of the officers of the prince, upon the Cluniac dean and church of Mouchan (Mogsdarno), a dependent of the monastery of St. Orens, both in the diocese of Auch, the church having been inhabited by subjects of Charles, king of France.

5 Id. July.
Montefiascone
(f. 122d.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate to dispense John de Dombur, donsel, and Matpory Steward (Seneſcalli), damsel, of his diocese, to intermarry, they being related in the fourth degree of kindred.

1370.

12 Kal. Aug.
Montefiascone.
(f. 133.)

To the official of Glasgow. Mandate, on petition of king David, to confirm to Walter de Roulen, rector of the chapel of St. Thanen, value 4*l.* if found fit after due examination, the church of Tarbolton, value 20*l.* in the same diocese, which he obtained by provision of bishop Walter on its voidance by John de Lindsey by reason of his not having been ordained priest. Walter doubts whether Tarbolton was not reserved to the pope.

1369.

19 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To the bishop of Lismore. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order touching the right of visitation by William, bishop of Emly, and his predecessors, of the Augustinian priory of Athescyl (Athassel), and the Hospitallers' house of Any, which is contested by Martin, prior, and John, master of the said priory and house respectively; also touching the refusal of William, Augustinian prior of Brigeton (Bridgetown), in the diocese of Cloyne, to pay a yearly cess or rent, due to the said bishop.

1370.

DE COMMUNIBUS.

4 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 149*d.*)

To the archdeacon of Oxford. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order in regard to the petition of Robert de Wikwant, vicar of SS. Peter and Paul, Walweneswotton, in the diocese of Worcester. Although his parish is large and populous, his portion is insufficient, and is diminished by the existence of a chapel newly built at Henley, within the said parish, for the convenience of those who had been wont to hear mass on Sundays and holidays in the parish church.

8 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152*d.*)

To the archdeacon of Bedford. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order in regard to the petition of the Augustinian prior and convent of Latton, respecting the church of Aure, in the diocese of Hereford, appropriated to them, a vicar's portion being assigned. William Harton, or Haiton, priest, of the diocese of York, falsely suggesting to the bishop of Hereford that the said church was void, and belonged to the presentation of king Edward, obtained it, thereby despoiling the prior and convent, who appealed to the pope, and, as a customary safeguard, to the court of Canterbury. The said William obtained royal letters inhibiting the prior and convent to make the appeal, and on their obtaining licence to prosecute it, and their being restored to the said church by the official of Canterbury, William appealed to the pope, but is not prosecuting his appeal.

10 Kal. July.
Montefiascone.
(f. 157.)

To Anglicus, bishop of Albano. Mandate to summon those concerned, and make order in the cause of Lippa, relict of Raynalducius Bartholomei, and Barbara and Helen their daughters, of the diocese of Cambray, against certain laymen named, who assert themselves to be heirs and executors of the said Raynalducius; the cause has been committed to Thomas de Paxton, canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain and auditor, who has given sentence against the said Lippa and her daughters.

1363.

8 Id. July.
Avignon.
(f. 4 and 4d.)

To John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, papal nuncio to England and other parts. Faculties to dispense sixty persons on account of illegitimacy, to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls; to dispense twenty-five men and as many women, related in the fourth degree of kindred or affinity, to remain in the marriages they have contracted, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate; to dispense thirty sons of priests, or illegitimate sons of married men or married women, to receive minor orders and to hold a benefice without cure of souls; to absolve and dispense sixty persons on account of irregularity, and to confer the office of notary on ten persons. [Cal. Pet. i. 439. See Reg. ccxiv. f. 223d.]

LITTERE DIVERSARUM FORMARUM.

4 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 12.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to inform himself, and to report to the pope, touching the hospital for fifteen poor men and a master at Holveche (Holbeach), in the diocese of Lincoln, whose foundation, endowment, and statutes John de Kirketon, knight, has petitioned the pope to confirm. [See Cal. Pet. i. 385.]

11 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 21d.)

To Hugh de Eglynton, knight, and Egidia de Lyndesay, damsel, of the diocese of Glasgow. Dispensation, on petition of John, king of the French, to intermarry, notwithstanding that Hugh has cohabited with a woman related to Egidia in the third degree of kindred.

4 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 24d.)

To the bishops of Winchester and Worcester. Faculty, after due examination, to appoint five persons nominated by king Edward to the deanery of Lichfield, and canonries and prebends of London, Salisbury, St. Davids, and Abergwili, which are about to be void by the consecration of John, bishop elect of Lincoln.

Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 32.)

To the archbishop of Dublin. Mandate to go to the Augustinian hospital of St. John Baptist, by Dublin, immediately belonging to the Roman church, and make enquiry touching the rents, lands, vineyards, rights and goods thereof, which prior William and his predecessors are said to have alienated and wasted, to the injury of the men, women, and orphans living therein, and to make order touching the reformation of the said hospital and restoration of its property, and the removal of the prior if he is found guilty. [Theiner, 323.]

1363.

14 Kal. May.

Avignon.

(f. 32d.)

Decree deciding the cause between the Augustinian abbot and convent of St. Anthony, in the diocese of Vienne, and the Benedictine prior and brethren of the united priory and hospital of St. Anthony, Genoa, which cause was heard under Benedict XII. by the late William, bishop of Norwich, papal chaplain and auditor, and subsequently by others named. (A mandate, on f. 40d, dated Avignon, 14 Kal. Oct. 1363, and addressed to the archbishop of Genoa and others named, concerning the same cause, contains a similar reference to bishop William.)

10 Kal. June.

Avignon.

(f. 35d.)

Revocation, on petition of abbot Thomas and the convent of St. Werburg's, Chester, of the letters of exemption granted to the said monastery by [Clement] VI. at the instance of William, monk and abbot thereof, he having acted without the knowledge and consent of the convent and of Edward, prince of Wales, founder of the said monastery.

[Cal. Pet. i. 423; See Cal. Lett. iii. 38.]

1362.

Id. Nov.

Avignon.

(f. 50.)

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation to the Cistercian abbot and convent of Vale Royal, of the church of Lampadervaur (Llanbadarn Vawr), of their patronage, void by the consecration of its rector, Robert, to the see of Coventry and Lichfield. The appropriation was made by the late Thomas, bishop of St. Davids, with the consent of the chapter and the archdeacon of Cardigan, but the confirmation by Innocent VI. 7 Kal. June, or July, anno 9, by reason of that pope's death was not expedited. Repetition is made of the clause inserted by Innocent VI. in the letters patent of the bishop, touching the portions assigned to the vicars of Llanbadarn Vawr and its dependents, Castle Walter, Wavelar or Wavebat, and Rolomed or Rollonrod. The letters of the bishop, dated 28 Nov. 1360, state that the appropriation is to help towards the repair of the nave of the abbey church destroyed by a great storm on the 19th Oct. last past, that the patronage and advowson of the church has been granted by Edward, prince of Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, to Peter de Lacy, Richard de Wolveston, William de Spridlynton, and John de Lues, in order that they may carry out the appropriation, and that a yearly pension of 4*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* is imposed—3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* for the bishop, 2*s.* for the archdeacon of Cardigan, and 18*s.* for the chapter. [See Cal. Pet. i. 371.]

1363.

6 Kal. April.

Avignon.

(f. 66.)

To Simon, bishop of London. Mandate to summon the bishops of Norwich and Lincoln, and others, and obtain a taxation according to the canons of the vicars' portions of certain churches appropriated to the warden and college of scholars of Valence Marie Hall, Cambridge. A former petition stated that faculty to the then bishop of London to make appropriations to the value, after assigning vicars' portions, of 100*l.* was obtained by Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, their founder, from Clement VI.; and that bishop Ralph appropriated to them Saxthorp (value 13*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*) his successor 1363.

Michael Tilneye (80*l.*) and Simon himself Waresles (8*l.*) in the dioceses of Norwich and Lincoln, vicars' portions, being assigned, so that as the total exceeded 100*l.* by 26*s.* 8*d.* the warden and college doubted whether they might not be molested touching the last-named church; whereupon the present pope confirmed its appropriation, such excess notwithstanding. In their present petition they doubt whether the diocesans' taxation of the vicars' portions, which has not yet been made, may not prove excessive. [Cal. Pet. i. 410; See Reg. cclxxxij. f. 141*d.*]

6 Non. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 80.)

To the chapter of Salisbury. Appropriation for six years of the church of St. Thomas, Salisbury, value 10*l.* in the patronage of bishop Robert, a vicar's portion being assigned. The proceeds are to be applied to the repair of the walls and bell-tower, damaged by recent storms. [Cal. Pet. i. 462.]

3 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 80*d.*)

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation by Robert, bishop, and the chapter of Salisbury, by letters dated Salisbury, 12 May 1360, of the church of Warawelle (Harewell) to Robert de Wa[ll]sham and his successors, in whose patronage is the said church, deans of the free chapel of St. Nicholas, Wallingford castle, in which Edmund, earl of Cornwall, son of Richard, king of Almain, founded a chantry for a dean, six chaplains, six clerks, and four choristers (gerosaniariorum, sic). Pensions of 20*s.* to the bishop, 13*s.* 4*d.* to the chapter, and 3*s.* to Edmund de la Beche, archdeacon of Berkshire, and his successors, are charged. [Cal. Pet. i. 452.]

3 Non. July.
Avignon.
(f. 81*d.*)

To the bishop of Wells. Mandate, on petition of John Raymundi the younger, donsel, the countess of Ormonde, and other inhabitants of Pendesford (Pensford) in the parish of Stanton Drew, in the diocese of Wells, to allow them, if the facts be as stated, to have mass and other divine offices in the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr which they have founded and endowed, upon holidays and upon other days on which they cannot, by reason of the distance and the floods, go without danger to the parish church; especially as they are ready to go to the said church on Sundays and other solemn days.

[Cal. Pet. i. 439.]

2 URBAN V.

LITTERE DE CURIA.

1364.

8 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 84*d.*)

To the official of Bordeaux. Mandate to summon Amaneus de Faberveto and examine him as to his fitness and as to the age he had attained at the time of the mandate of Innocent VI. ordering the said official to give him, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of Lincoln, void by the resignation of Stephen [Aubert or Albert] cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Aquiro, 10 Kal. July, anno 10 [1362]. The pope has heard that at the time of the said mandate Amaneus had not attained his fourteenth year and was unfit in letters and otherwise. A sealed report is to be sent, in order that the pope may be able to decide what is to be done.

LITTERE DIVERSARUM FORMARUM.

1364.

6 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 117d.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to summon the rector of the parish in which is the lazar hospital of St. Mary Magdalen, Preston, and others concerned, and if the facts be as stated, to allow the warden and brethren of the said hospital, which is served by a chaplain, to receive to their uses the voluntary offerings wherein the revenues of the hospital chiefly consist.

4 Non. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 129d.)

To the abbots and convents of the Cistercian order in the provinces of Canterbury and York. Confirmation, with exemplification, of the exemption granted by Innocent IV. and dated at the Lateran, 10 Kal. March [1244], anno 1, from tithes of their wool, milk, and lambs. [See Cal. Lett. i. 206.]

3 Non. July.
Avignon.
(f. 134d.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to summon those concerned, touching the pension and the oath to pay the same exacted by John, sometime bishop of Lincoln, from the rector of Northorp, of his patronage, for a chantry of two priests founded by him in the church of Lincoln, the value of the rectory, namely 25 marks, being insufficient for his support, inasmuch as the pension reaches in some years the amount of the benefice, and sometimes exceeds it. If the facts be as stated, the said oath, which John, the present bishop, maintains, is to be relaxed and the pension revoked.

15 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 138d.)

To the Cistercian abbot and convent of St. Mary's, Kyngeswoe (Kingswood). Confirmation, with exemplification, of the privilege granted to them by Alexander III. dated 11 Kal. March 1174[-5], anno 16, touching their possessions and immunities; namely "totum in Haseden in Chiretuna duas carrucatas terre in Tetheberi partum (1 parcum) et ormerdine in Duhtune unam carrucatam terre," with a mill and meadows; freedom from tithe on lands cultivated by them, and other rights.

4 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 142.)

To the prior provincial and the Augustinian friars in England. Licence to acquire places in four of the cities and solemn towns of the realm of England, and to build in each a church and dwellings for twelve friars, with consent of the diocesan, saving the rights of the parish church and of all others.

[Cal. Pet. i. 492.]

2 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 144.)

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the grant by David [II.], king of Scotland, to Alexander, bishop, and the chapter of Aberdeen of his land of Galchull in Banff, for the support of a chapel in the cathedral church, under letters patent dated at Aberdeen, 14 September, anno 33, and witnessed by William, bishop of St. Andrews; Patrick, the king's chancellor, bishop of Brechin; John, abbot of Dunfermline; William, abbot of Abberothoch; William de Keth, the king's marshal; Robert de Erskyno, Archibald de Douglas, John de Hayris, and Walter Moygne, knights.

[Theiner, 326.]

1364.

6 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 145.)

Confirmation of the foundation by the confraternity of Holy Cross, Stratford, in the diocese of Worcester, of a poor hospital with a chapel therein with licence of the late bishop Godfrey.
[Cal. Pat. i. 497.]

3 URBAN V.

LITTERE DIVERSARUM FORMARUM.

7 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 158d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and two others named. Mandate to summon the chancellor and university of Cambridge, and others concerned, and, if the facts are as stated, to compel them to annul the statutes and penalties made against the admission into the mendicant orders of scholars under eighteen years of age. [See Reg. ccliv. ff. 127 and 136.]

13 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 160d.)

To John, prior of Worcester. Faculty to him and his successor to dispense six of his monks aged twenty-two, to be ordained priests, thirty-two of the monks having died in the two visitations of the pestilence.

1365.

16 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 163d.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to grant licence to William de la Pole, knight, to found and build in his territory of Kingston-on-Hull a monastery for thirteen nuns of the order of St. Clare, of whom one is to be abbess. [Wadding, viii. 505.]

16 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 168d.)

To William Latimer, lord of Danbi, in the diocese of York. Licence to found and endow in the church of Helpring, of his patronage, in the diocese of Lincoln, in which his ancestors are buried, a chapel for thirteen chaplains, of whom the master is to have yearly 20 marks, and the others 10 apiece.

12 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 174d.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requiring him to desist from helping Reginald de Nantolio, prior of the Hospitallers in Aquitaine, against whom the pope has ordered proceedings touching the restitution of goods belonging to Roger de Pinibus, master, and the convent of the order.

17 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 177.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to decide the causes between Alexander de Nevill, archdeacon of Cornwall by papal provision on the death of Thomas David, and John, bishop of Exeter, William, Benedictine prior of Tywantharath, Stephen Tremagnen, rector of St. Lodechia, and Ralph Treyagu, rector of St. Stephen's in Bransell, who, supported by the said bishop, opposed the archdeacon's jurisdiction. The bishop also ordered those who received benefices to be inducted by others than the archdeacon, and sequestered the fruits of the archdeaconry. On the archdeacon's appeal to the court of Canterbury, the official thereof refused to proceed against the bishop.

LITTERE SECRETE . . . PER GUILLERMUM BARONIS, SECRETARIUM.

1371.
n.d.
(f. 5d.) To the archbishop of Tuam, his suffragans, and other clergy secular and regular of his province. [Address only. Cancelled.]
- 2 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 7.) To William, archbishop of Canterbury. Announcing his election, and the continuation of the mission of cardinals Simon [Langham] of St. Sixtus, and John of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, sent by Urban V. to foster peace between the kings of France and England, and directing the archbishop to use his influence with the king and Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales, and with the king's councillors to the same end.
- 14 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
' (f. 9.) To Charles, king of the French. Exhorting him anew, in order to avoid hindrance to the peace which the pope is negotiating between him and the king of England, to forbid his brothers, Lewis, duke of Anjou, Philip, duke of Burgundy, and John, duke of Berry, to attempt, at least in their own persons, to raise the siege of the castle of Montpont (Montis Paonis), which is invested by John, duke of Lancaster, and his brother. Datum . . . sub signeto nostro secreto . . .
- 9 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 18d.) To the same. Requesting a safe-conduct for Simon, cardinal of St. Sixtus, whom, with John, cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, the pope intends to send shortly, in order to negotiate peace between him and Edward, king of England.
- Ibid.* To John, bishop of Lincoln. Enclosing letters to the king on behalf of Raynald de Theminis, canon of Lincoln, nephew of Raymund, bishop of Palestrina, for the restoration of his canonry and prebend which William de Tyrinton, by false suggestion has obtained from the king and held for several years. The bishop is informed that if the king does not accede to the pope's request, proceedings will without further delay be taken according to justice.
- Ibid.* To William, bishop of Winchester. Touching the same.
(f. 19.)
- Ibid.* To John, bishop of Lincoln. Touching the same.
- Ibid.* To Edward, king of England. Touching the same.
- 7 [Id. ?] March.
Avignon.
(f. 23.) To Edward, king of England. Desiring him to restore to Hugh Pelegrini, treasurer of Lichfield, formerly papal collector in England, his benefices and their fruits seized by order of the king and held for four years, he having been asserted to be of the obedience of the king of France.
- Ibid.* To William, bishop of Winchester. Touching the same.
(f. 23d.)

- 1371.
- 7 Kal. April. To John, duke of Gerona, eldest son of Peter, king of Avignon. Aragon. Requesting him to use his influence with his father, (f. 27.) to whom the pope has written also, to prevent the duel which is to take place in the king's presence between Thomas de Felton and Raymond de Calciata (Causade), lord of Puycornet (Podiocorneti), knights.
- Ibid.* To Romeo, bishop of Lerida. The like, mutatis mutandis.
- Kal. April. To Lewis, count of Flanders. Desiring him to assist cardinals Avignon. Simon and John on their way through his lands to the realms (f. 28.) of France and England.
- 7 Id. April. To Peter, king of Aragon. Requesting him to forbid the Avignon. duel (as above, f. 27).
(f. 29.)
- Ibid.* To the archbishop of Saragossa, to Eleanor, queen of Aragon, and to the archbishop of Tarragona. Requesting them to use their influence with the king touching the same.
- 6 Id. April. To Edmund, earl of Cambridge. Requesting safe-conduct for Avignon. the rectors, masters, and other persons, for forty horses and
(f. 30.) oxen, and other things necessary for the building of the college of secular canons at St. Germain de Maseré (prope Munum Serenum), in the diocese of Limoges, under the will of Hugh, late cardinal of St. Laurence's in Damaso, which disposition the pope, then holding a less office, and the other executors, proceeded to carry out. The pope recommends his kinsman John, bishop of Limoges, to the earl, desiring him to cause certain property belonging to the bishop and to the see to be restored by the men of Edward, prince of Aquitaine. [See f. 46.]
- Ibid.* To Thomas de Felton; to Richard Arberberii, seneschal of
(f. 30d.) the Limousin; to John, duke of Lancaster; and to others.
Touching the same.
- 4 Id. April. To John, duke of Lancaster. The pope has received his Avignon. letters sent by John, bishop of Sarlat, the pope's envoy, touch-
(f. 30d.) ing peace between Charles, king of France, and Edward, king of England, and commends what he has done to that end. The said bishop, inasmuch as he followed the duke of Anjou on the same business, could not return to the duke of Lancaster, to whom he has been ordered by the pope to write touching the intention of that duke. As the pope has this business much at heart, he has sent the cardinals Simon of St. Sixtus and John of Sancti Quatuor Coronati to carry it out, and commends them and it to the duke.
- Ibid.* To Edmund, earl of Cambridge. The like.
(f. 31.)
- 2 Id. April. To Thomas de Felton, seneschal of Gascony. The pope has Avignon. heard from John, bishop of Sarlat, and from Armand, lord of (f. 31f.) Langeac, of his labours in fostering peace between the kings of France and England, and commends him for the same. He desires him to come to him as soon as possible, and inform him that he will send him safe-conducts in the name of the pope and of the French.

1371.

15 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 32.)

To John, duke of Lancaster. Commending to him Peter Domandi, provost of the church of Poitiers, papal nuncio and collector, and Peter Guy, sub-collector, for the duchy of Aquitaine.

Ibid.

To Thomas de Percy, knight, seneschal of Poitou. The like.

Id. May.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 46.)

To John de Evroys (Devereux), lieutenant of the prince of Aquitaine and Wales in the district of Limoges. Commending to him the college founded by Hugh, cardinal of St. Laurence's in Damaso, at St. Germain de Maseré, and the persons engaged in its construction. [See f. 30, and Reg. cclxix. f. 228d.]

(f. 69d.)

To John, duke of Lancaster. Replying to his letters dated at Saintes 7 May, and at Pons 13 May, against the citation to the Roman court of his cousin, Thomas de Percy, seneschal of Poitou, Guichard d'Angle, marshal of Aquitaine, and others of the principality as concerned in the seizure and death of the abbot of St. Cyprien[-lez-Poitiers] and John Bouchet. There is no need to fear their being captured on the way, since they can, by prolonging their route, avoid the dominions of their enemies; further, the absence of eight or ten persons need not imperil the principality. Nevertheless, feeling confident that the duke will in the meantime give satisfaction to the church, the pope prorogues the cause until after the feast of All Saints next. (pp. 5.)

Avignon.
(l. 130d.) To Edward, king of England. Commending to him William, cardinal of St. Stephen's on the Caelian, to whom the pope has given a canonry of Salisbury and the prebend of Cheremynsteret-bort (Charminster and Bere), void by the death at the apostolic see of Guy de Pestello, papal chaplain. They have been held for thirty years and more by William de Vayrace and by the said Guy, his nephew, so that the king, whose nominee holds possession of the temporalities, has no right to them on their voidance. The pope, therefore, prays him to suffer cardinal William, who has rendered services to the king, to obtain possession of the same without let or hindrance. He will favourably consider the case of the king's nominee, unless the same persist in opposing the said cardinal, whose yielding would prejudice Bertrand, cardinal of St. Prisca's, to whom the pope has given cardinal William's prebend of Heyworth in the same church.

(f. 102.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York and their suffragans, and to the prelates and other clergy, secular and regular of those provinces. Mandate to pay a tenth of all ecclesiastical revenues, one half on the feast of St. John the Baptist, and the other on that of Christmas next ensuing, except from cardinals and from the Cistercian order which is offering a subsidy, [30,000 gold florins. Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 150.] The pope recapitulates. Lately he imposed certain subsidies in France, Spain, Almain, and other parts, in aid of the expenses of the pope and the Roman church in recovering their property and rights in Italy, and upon the clergy of England, who abound in revenues, a tenth of one year's benefices, to be paid one half at Easter, the other at Michaelmas; and whereas the clergy of England, in a like case, paid to the camera of Innocent VI. a subsidy of 100,000 gold florins, and whereas the tenth might come to a larger sum, the pope was willing to accept that amount, payable at the same dates, in place of the tenth. But 1373.

as he has since heard that his letters touching the same have not been suffered to reach England, probably by those who did not wish to pay tenth or subsidy, he now orders anew the payment of the tenth, which is to be collected under pain of excommunication by the archbishops of Canterbury and York, each in his province. The archbishop of York is to hand over the proceeds of the tenth in his province to the archbishop of Canterbury, who is more conveniently situated for assigning the whole amount to the papal agents, Nicholas Luce, Rayner Dominici, and others, proctors and factors of Nicholas Jacobi and Bernard Nerotii, of the ancient Alberti of Florence, who have power to receive and give acquittance for the same at Bruges. Faculty is given to the archbishops to compel payment, if need be, by citation to the Roman Court; and the pope will still be content with the subsidy of 100,000 florins, if it be paid on the aforesaid days, in which case the directions touching the tenth will be superseded. These letters are to be posted on the doors of the churches at Avignon and in the parts near England, so that no pretence of ignorance can be made. [As below, Reg. cclxxvi. f. 20d. 16 Kal. March. To prelates and clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to publish the above letters. [Ibid. f. 17d.]
Avignon.
(f. 104.)

8 Kal. May. To Simon, cardinal of St. Sixtus, papal nuncio. Faculty to confer the office of notary in France and England on fifteen persons, married or in holy orders, who are to take the usual oath of fealty to the pope, as enclosed.
Avignon.
(f. 123d.)

Ibid. To the same. Faculty to dispense in France and England twelve persons of illegitimate birth to be ordained and hold one benefice with cure of souls.
(f. 124.)

17 Kal. Oct. To John, cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, papal nuncio. Mandate to do his best to induce Charles, king of the French, and Edward, king of England, and their adherents, to make peace; with faculty to dissolve all oaths and obligations which stand in the way. The pope commends his devotion in the cause of peace, and informs him of the mission of Pileus, archbishop of Ravenna, and William, bishop of Carpentras, for the same purpose.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 158d.)

12 Kal. Oct. To William, bishop of Carpentras, papal nuncio. Faculty to exercise ecclesiastical censure against those who injure him or members of his household during his mission to France and England.

DE CURIA EXTRAORDINARIE PER GUILLERMUM BARONIS.

10 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 178.)

To William de Grenlaw, archdeacon of St. Andrews, papal nuncio. Mandate to cause to be observed the ordinance of the present pope, made in favour of churches and monasteries, in respect of the reservation to the Roman church, for its necessities, of the property of deceased prelates and other ecclesiastics, secular and regular. Debts contracted by such ecclesiastic for the benefit of his church, and the cost of a decent funeral, are to be paid. Books and other property belonging to his patrimony are to be deducted in case only of his having a legitimate heir. Such reservation to the Roman church shall not extend to books, chalices, crosses, vestments, and other ornaments belonging to the churches and monasteries of the deceased, nor to arms for the guarding of such churches and monasteries, nor to goods and animals used for agriculture or other purposes of the same. [See Reg. cclxxvi. f. 161 and cclxxvii. f. 86.]

PER JOHANNEM DE SANCTO MARTINO.

SECRETARIUM.*

1374.

6 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 75d.)

To William, patriarch of Jerusalem, and Elias, archbishop of Bordeaux, papal nuncios. Mandate to go in person to Gascony whither the pope, upon learning that Lewis, duke of Anjou, and John, duke of Lancaster, were preparing to renew hostilities, has already sent them in succession to divers nuncios sent in vain to treat for peace or truce between the kings of France and England. Full powers are now given them to constrain by spiritual and temporal penalties the hinderers thereof, of whatsoever rank and condition, even royal or pontifical.

1874.

Ibid.

(f. 79.)

To William, patriarch of Jerusalem, papal nuncio. Faculty to exercise ecclesiastical censures against all, of whatsoever rank or condition, ecclesiastical or secular, who injure him or members of his household during his mission.

Ibid.

(f. 76d.)

To Elias, archbishop of Bordeaux. The like.

Ibid.

To the prelates, secular and regular, of the provinces of Narbonne, Auch, Bordeaux and Toulouse. Mandate to assist Elias, archbishop of Bordeaux, and to supply him with 12 gold florins a day for the purposes of his mission.

Ibid.

(f. 77d.)

To the same. The like for William, patriarch of Jerusalem.

4 Non. June.

Salon by Arles.

Avignon.

(f. 92d.)

To Bernard, bishop of Pampeluna, Ralph, bishop of Sinigaglia, and Giles Sanctii Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.I., papal nuncios. Faculty to recover, by monition and citation if necessary, from the archbishops of York and Canterbury the procurations due from the ecclesiastics of England on account of their mission to Flanders on behalf of the liberties of the English church, which procurations the archbishops are themselves to recover from the said ecclesiastics.

12 Kal. Nov.

Avignon.

(f. 100d.)

To the same three nuncios. Power to prorogue until Easter next following, or longer if it shall seem good, certain articles concerning the right of patronage, regalia, and other rights of the churches of the realm of England, and to treat meanwhile for a concord. The pope recapitulates the course of the negotiations: ambassadors of the king came and set forth his case touching the said articles; the pope replied in a letter dated Avignon 12 Kal. Jan. anno 3 (1373) of which exemplification is given [Reg. cclxix. f. 245d]; the king offered to send envoys to treat the matter at Bruges or Calais, at the pope's choice; the pope gave power to the above-named three nuncios to prorogue the said articles until the feast of All Saints next following, and to treat thereon with the king's envoys; and now, after himself having prorogued them until the feast of St. Andrew next following, he gives the further power to prorogue and treat, as above. [For fuller analysis see Reg. cclxxxv. f. 167.]

8 Id. Dec.

Avignon.

(f. 103d.)

To John [Duncan], bishop of Sodor, papal nuncio. Appointing him nuncio and collector in his city and diocese, with the usual faculty to compel payment of sums due to the papal camera. [As below, Reg. cclxxvii. f. 105.]

Ibid.

(f. 108.)

To John de Plebis, archdeacon of St. Andrews, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Mandate to compel the surrender of all property belonging to, and the payment of all sums due to 1374.

William de Grenlaw, archdeacon of St. Andrews, late collector in Scotland, who died without having rendered account to the papal camera, with faculty to give acquittances for the same. The nuncio is to draw up the usual two instruments. [See ibid. f. 101d.]

4 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 17d.)

To the archbishops of England and of Ireland, along with all other patriarchs and archbishops. Mandate to publish and to transmit to their suffragans a copy of the accompanying monition, mandate, and constitution issued this day, ordering all prelates, secular and regular, to reside in their churches and monasteries. [See Raynaldi Annales, 1375, § xxiii.]

1d. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 38.)

To the bishops of Scotland. Requesting them to assist Henry de Sancto Trudone (St. Trond), preceptor of Aval[terre], whom the pope has charged to collect the fruits of the preceptory of Scotland pending the decision of the complaint made by Robert de Alis (Hales), prior of the Hospitallers of England, against Robert de Juliaco, master of the Hospital, he having let the said preceptory on farm to Robert Mercerii, a layman of Scotland, who obtained papal confirmation of the grant, and now holds it to the injury of the said prior of England, to whom of right it belongs. [See Reg. cclxx. f. 169.]

1375.

EXTRAORDINARIE DE CURIA PER DICTUM NICOLAUM DE AUXIMO.

6 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 47d.)

To the prior of the Hospitallers in England and Ireland. Mandate to summon a chapter of the preceptors and others of the order to elect thirty-eight knights, who shall choose their esquires, and being well provided with arms and horses shall during the whole month of March 1377 hold themselves in readiness in any of the ports of Sicily, Venice, or Genoa, along with the rest of five hundred knights and as many esquires from other priories, to go against the Turks who are attacking Bulgaria, Servia, and Constantinople. [See Raynaldi Annales, 1375, § ix.]

[Letters are sent to twenty other priors. France is to furnish the next greatest number, viz. thirty-three knights and as many esquires. See Reg. cclxxi. f. 80d.]

PER GUILLERMUM BARONIS, SECRETARIUM.

5 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 69.)

To the archbishop of Genoa. Mandate to obtain by excommunication and interdict the release of William Welles, John Perraunt, John Garthorp, John Borbache, and Nicholas Coupe-lande, donsels, in the pay of the Roman church, who when returning from the Roman court to Bologna have been arrested, plundered, and imprisoned in the castle of Mento[ne] by order of Isabel, wife of Rayner de Grimaudo, of the diocese of Nice. [See Reg. cclxxi. f. 123d.]

Id. July.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 78.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York. Mandate to pay, levy, and exact, benefices held or to be held by cardinals being alone exempt, the sum of 60,000 florins. Lately the pope imposed for the defence of himself and the Roman church and its property and rights in Italy, subsidies of a tenth of church revenues in France, Spain, Almain, and England, to be paid in the last-named case for one year at two stated terms, and was content that the English clergy should pay in place thereof 100,000 florins at the same two terms; and it has been lately agreed at Bruges on the part of the said clergy that they shall pay 60,000 florins at two terms, 30,000 at the feast of All Saints next ensuing, and 30,000 on that of St. John the Baptist, and that if peace be made between Kings Edward and Charles, they shall pay 40,000 florins more. The usual powers are given to the archbishops to compel payment. [As below, Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 285. See Reg. cclxxviii. f. 91d.]

11 Kal. Oct.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 83d.)

To prelates, secular and regular, of the realm of England. Mandate to pay the procurations due to Pileus, archbishop of Ravenna, and William, bishop of Carpentras, papal nuncios during their mission whether they be within or without the realm. The pope will cause to be observed sentences of the said nuncios against the rebellious. [See Reg. cclxvi. f. 87.]

8 Id. Sept.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 84d.)

To Giles Sancii Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.L. papal nuncio. Power to prorogue until Easter next the articles of concord, provided that the king of England do the same. The pope recalls his former letter. (Exemplification and date of 1375.

which are here omitted; in Raynaldi Annales 1374, § xxi. without date. See Reg. cclxxxv. f. 167d.) to the three nuncios sent to Flanders. Before their business was completed the three returned to the pope, who, having learned that the king is willing to send an envoy to Bruges, confers on Giles, as above, further power to prorogue the articles, which have at successive times been prorogued until Christmas next; power is given him to treat with the king's envoy and effect an agreement. [As below, Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 296, except as to exemplification; see Reg. cclxvi. f. 100d.]

Ibid.

To the same. Power to him, whom the pope is now (presentaliter) sending to England and Flanders, to publish on the continent (in locis cismarinis) monitions and citations in order to enforce payment of procurations from prelates of England who may refuse. [As below ibid. f. 297 with a verbal difference.]

Ibid.

(f. 85.)

To prelates, secular and regular, of the realm of England. Mandate to provide the aforesaid Giles with 6 gold florins of the camera a day for the expenses of his mission to England and Flanders, whither he is shortly to be sent, the two archbishops and their suffragans being ordered to render an account to the pope within four months after its termination; and whereas complaints have often been made to the pope that some ordinaries not only do not pay themselves, but exact more than is due on that account, he orders them to pay the full sum due, and not to exact more than is customary, under pain of excommunication not to be removed except at the hour of death. [As below, ibid. f. 297d.]

5 Id. Sept.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 86.)

To Giles Sancier Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.L. papal nuncio. The pope wills and ordains that the archbishops of Canterbury and York shall be wholly answerable for the procurations as directed in the preceding letter, of which a copy publicly drawn up is to be sent to each of them by the nuncio under seal. Power is given him to enforce payment by publishing monitions and citations, as above. [For fuller analysis, see ibid.]

2 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 98d.)

To William, sometime bishop of Carpentras, archbishop elect of Rouen, papal nuncio. Exhorting him to be solicitous in exacting the subsidy imposed on the clergy of England. The pope is ordering, as contained in the enclosed schedule, the archbishops of Canterbury and York to assign it to him.

Ibid.

To the same. Power to receive and give acquittance to the archbishops for the subsidy, and to compel its payment by ecclesiastical censure and otherwise. [See Reg. cclxxviii. f. 136d.]

PER FRANCISCUM BRUNI, SECRETARIUM.

3 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 104d.)

To John de Peblis, archdeacon of St. Andrews, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Mandate to assign to Bartholus Johannis, Pacchius Andree, Nerotius Bernardi de Albertis, Rayner Dominici, Matthew Johannis, Bernard Nicolai, Talentus Andree, Peter Marci, and Nicholas Luce, merchants of Florence, proctors and factors in Paris, London, and Bruges of Benedict Nerotii of the ancient Alberti of Florence, all sums collected 1375.

and to be collected by him for a year from these presents, the said Bartholus and others having power to receive and give acquittance for the same, and Peter Bartholi and Philip Marsilii having bound themselves to assign them to the papal camera. The nuncio is to draw up the usual two public instruments.

Ibid.
(f. 105.)

To Bartholus Johannis and others named above. Faculty to receive and give acquittance to John de Peblis for the said suma.

9 Kal. June.

6 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 121.)

To Simon, cardinal of St. Sixtus, papal nuncio. Mandate to give full credence to the bishop of Carpentras touching the subsidy which the pope is asking king Edward and many of the prelates of the realm, as contained in the enclosed schedule, to give for the defence and recovery of the property of the Roman church. The nuncio is to make speed to induce the king to give heed to the pope's prayers, and the said prelates to come to the help of the pope and the Roman church in this their great necessity. [See Reg. cclxv. f. 102.]

Ibid.
(f. 121d.)

To Edward, king of England. Requesting him to give full credence to the bishop of Carpentras, and to induce the prelates of his realm, who alone of all Christendom do not do so, to come to the help of the pope and the Roman church, which is the king's mother church. [See ibid. and below f. 226d.]

Avignon.

(f. 179d.)

To Joan, queen of Sicily (Naples). Requesting her to make satisfaction to John Aguti (Hawkwood), knight, in respect of a certain annual provision granted by her to him several years before, inasmuch as the pope has learned that the said John intends to abandon the service of Barnabas de Vicecomitibus (Visconti), to invade no more the church and its lands, but rather to serve the same and the realm of Naples.

11 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.

(f. 208d.)

To [Thomas], bishop of Durham. Thanking him for his services and courtesy to William, viscount of Turenne, and desiring him to be prompt and liberal when he shall be asked to lighten with money the burdens of the pope and the Roman church.

16 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.

(f. 226d.)

To Edward, king of England. Urging him to dispose himself to make peace with the king of France; to show no favour to ecclesiastics who refuse to pay the subsidy imposed by the pope for the defence of the church in Italy against the sons of iniquity, Barnabas and Galeatus de Vicecomitibus (Visconti); and to suffer cardinals and others in their service, and in the service of the pope, to receive the fruits of their benefices. [See f. 121d.]

Ibid.

(f. 227d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to use his influence with the king in favour of the peace. The pope has imposed subsidies in the realms of France and Spain, in Almain and other parts of the faithful, to relieve the burden of defending the rights and property of the Roman church in Italy, and has imposed in the realm of England a tenth for one year, of which half is to be paid at Easter and half at Michaelmas, and is content, as Innocent VI. in a similar case, to accept instead a subsidy of 100,000 florins, payable at the same two dates. The bishop of Carpentras, in presence of the cardinal of St. Sixtus, has set forth to the archbishop and other prelates the necessities of the pope and the Roman church; nevertheless, after the departure of the said bishop from England, a number of ecclesiastics, at which the pope marvels, have prevented the pope's letters from entering the realm. The archbishop is therefore ordered, under pain of excommunication, to collect the tenth in both provinces and to assign it to Nicholas Luce and other proctors and factors of Nicholas Jacobi and Benedict Nerotii, of the ancient Alberti of Florence, at Bruges, within two months after the aforesaid terms of payment, the said Nicholas and others having faculty to receive and give acquittance for the same. The archbishop is to draw up the usual two instruments. The pope will still be content with the above-named subsidy in place of the tenth, if the clergy will consent to it more quickly, and provided that it be paid on the dates given. The present letters, which he has caused to be registered in his secret register, shall be accepted by all as full and sufficient proof of the powers committed therein to the archbishop. [See ibid.]

Ibid.
(f. 229.)

To the archbishop of York. The like. (Eodem modo.) [But see f. 232.]

Ibid.
(f. 229d.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to use his influence with the king touching the matters about which the pope has written to the king and to the archbishop of Canterbury as contained in the enclosed schedule, and especially about the subsidy, either of a tenth or a sum of 100,000 florins, which he is to pay himself, and induce, as best he can, the rest of the clergy to pay.

Ibid.

To William, bishop of Winchester, to [John] archbishop of York, to [Simon] bishop of London, and to [William] bishop of Worcester. The like.

Ibid.
(f. 230.)

To Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales. Requesting him to use his influence with the king, his father, in favour of the mission of the cardinal nuncios, the bishop of Carpentras, and William [Roger III.] viscount of Turenne, the pope's brother, concerning the peace and other matters touching the Roman church, the cardinals and ecclesiastical liberties, as contained in the enclosed schedule. (f. 231d.)

To Simon, cardinal of St. Sixtus, papal nuncio. Mandate to inform the king touching the appropriation of the church of Hermynburgh, in the diocese of York, to the prior and chapter of Durham, which the king has more than once written to ask the pope to grant. As there were secular as well as other canons and beneficiaries in the church of Durham to the number of a hundred and fifty, whose revenues and emoluments were applied to the prior and chapter when it was transferred to religious; as likewise there were appropriated to the said prior and chapter four abbeys of religious in which only priors are now instituted, in each of which were twenty-four monks, and now no more than fifteen in all four; as likewise two other monasteries, in each of which fifteen persons dwelt, in both of which there are not now ten; as moreover thirteen parish churches were appropriated, and many other things conferred on them, it is probable that if the king were sufficiently informed of this, he would not petition for the said appropriation, seeing further that in Durham there are now only fifty-six resident monks, who, when they go out, travel with three or four horses (equitaturis), and spend more on food and clothing than befits the modesty of their religion. The king is to be informed of this, and, if he persists in asking for the appropriation, enquiry is to be made as to how many more monks are to be added to the present number, what is the value of the church, and what is the portion to be assigned to the perpetual vicar, of all which the pope is to be informed by letter.

10 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 232.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Touching the collection of the tenth or the subsidy of 100,000 florins, which the pope at first ordered him to make in both provinces [f. 227*d.*], and which now, willing to spare the archbishop, he has ordered the archbishop of York to make in his own province and assign to the archbishop of Canterbury. The whole sum collected is to be assigned to the agents at Bruges as directed in former letters. The pope is writing to the king, as contained in the enclosed schedule, touching this and other matters concerning the cardinals, and in other ways concerning ecclesiastical liberty.

12 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 234.)

To Edward, king of England. Desiring him to give full credence to cardinal Simon, to whom he is also writing, touching the appropriation of Hemyngburgh to Durham, and to consider the information about the same which the pope recapitulates verbatim (as above, f. 231*d.*). The king is desired, if he has the matter at heart, to repeat his request, the pope's intention being that, if the appropriation be made, as many persons as can be maintained by the fruits of that church should be added to the statutory number. [Fadera.]

1373.

4 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 235*d.*)

To John Aguti (Hawkwood), knight, captain of armed forces in Italy for the pope and the Roman church. The pope has heard from Guy de Pruinis (Prohins), knight, and Peter de Murolis (Murles), donsel, of the activity and devotion of him and his men, for which he thanks him, and urges him to continue in this laudable work like a champion (pugil) of Christ, an athlete of the Lord, and a soldier of the Christian faith. Touching his petitions, Hugh, cardinal of St. Mary's in Portieu, is writing to him by order of the pope.

3 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 236.)

To John, duke of Berry. Desiring him to use his influence with the king of the French in favour of the mission of the cardinal nuncios to foster peace between him and the king of England.

Ibid.
(f. 236*d.*)

To Philip, duke of Burgundy; to Lewis, duke of Anjou, second son of John, late king of France; to Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales; to John, duke of Lancaster; to Edmund, earl of Cambridge. The like, mutatis mutandis.

1373.

Ibid.

To Lewis, count of Flanders. Desiring him to use his influence in favour of the aforesaid cardinals, William, bishop of Carpentras, William [Roger III.] viscount of Turenne, and Aymar de Agrifolio (Aigrefeuille), knight, marshal of the pope and the Roman court, in their mission. [See f. 230.]

Ibid.

(f. 237.)

To the bishop of Carpentras, the viscount of Turenne, and Aymar de Agrifolio. The pope has learned with joy the willingness of the kings of France and England to resume the treaty for peace, as set forth in the letters of cardinal Simon to cardinal John, enclosed by the latter to the pope, and in the letters of the bishop of Carpentras. He orders them to go to Bruges, where the treaty of peace is to be made, and there to aid the cardinals in their mission. They are to write to the pope not once only, but often.

Ibid.

(f. 237d.)

To the envoys of Charles, king of the French, deputed to make a treaty of peace at Bruges with the king of England. Setting forth the dangers of the war to Christendom, the pope's repeated efforts for peace, and his intention to proceed without delay, if peace be not concluded, by ecclesiastical censure and other remedies. [Raynaldi Annales, 1373, § xxii.]

Ibid.

(f. 238d.)

To Edward, king of England. Exhorting him to make peace with the king of France.

Ibid.

(f. 239.)

To Charles, king of the French. The like, mutatis mutandis.

Ibid.

To John, cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, papal nuncio. Ordering him to labour and use his influence with others for the said peace.

Ibid.

(f. 239d.)

To Simon, cardinal of St. Sixtus. The like, mutatis mutandis.

2 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 240d.)

To John Aguti (Hawkwood), knight, captain of certain armed forces in Italy for the pope and the Roman church. Thanking him for past services, and exhorting him, among others, to oppose the son of malediction, Barnabas de Vicecomitibus (Visconti) of Milan, who is preparing in Reggio and in Parma to attack Bologna.

(f. 241.)

To Richard, earl of Arundel. Exhorting him to use his influence in behalf of William, bishop of Carpentras, and William, viscount of Turenne, to whom full credence may be given, in persuading the king of England to make peace with the king of France.

PER FRANCISCUM BRUNI, SECRETARIUM.

Kal. June.
Pont de Sorgues,
Avignon.
(f. 269.)

To Edward, king of England. Requesting him to remove the condemnation laid by the royal officers upon the church of Britoll (Writtle), in the diocese of London, to pay 160*l.* sterling to the royal camera, on the ground that Silvester de Florentia, 1372.

proctor of the hospital of the Holy Ghost in Saxia, Rome, on which the said church depends, and administrator of that church, had withdrawn that sum from the realm, six years ago, without royal licence. The king is desired to order restitution to the proctors of the hospital of whatever has been exacted from the said church.

Ibid.
(f. 269d.)

To Richard, earl of Arundel. Requesting him to use his influence with the king touching the matter about which the pope is writing to the king, as contained in the enclosed schedule.

3 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 304d.)

To John Bres (Brise) and Philip [Puer or Paer], knights, Thomelinus Beumont, marshal, and Coc, constable, Englishmen in the pay of the pope and the Roman church. Commending them for their faithful and strenuous labours, which the pope has learned from Guy de Pruhynis (Prohins), knight, and Peter de Murlis, donsel, of the dioceses of Rodez and Maguelone, and exhorting them to persist in the same, seeing that the war in which they fight is a just war and against damned, pestiferous, and cruel tyrants. They are to obey [Enguerrand] lord of Coucy (Corcenato), appointed by the pope as their captain in those parts, respecting which matter full credence is to be given to the above-named knight and donsel.

Ibid.
(f. 309d.)

To the same, with Breumont for Beumont. Verbatim repetition of the above.

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate to induce Robert, king of Scotland, to whom the pope is writing, to restore to queen Margaret her lands and property.

Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 315d.)

To Edward, king of England. Commending to him Hugh, cardinal of St. Mary's in Porticu, and desiring him to assist him in obtaining possession of the archdeacons of Meath, which Matthew Compre (Crumpe) of Ireland occupies against the papal grant made to the cardinal. The said Matthew, repudiating an amicable concord which terminated long litigation at the Roman court, has again intruded himself into the said archdeacons; and the king is requested to order William de Windesore, his lieutenant in Ireland, to assist the cardinal.

Ibid.
(f. 316.)

To the earl of Arundel. The like, mutatis mutandis.

Ibid.

To William de Windesore, knight, the king's lieutenant in Ireland. Requesting him to assist cardinal Hugh, as above. [For the above four letters, see p. 105 note.]

(f. 55d.) with indescribable bitterness that they have begun to treat for peace with the impious tyrants and enemies of God and the Roman church Barnabas and Galeatius de Vicecomitibus (Visconti). The pope, who intends to have no peace with the said enemies, orders them to listen in future to no envoys coming therefrom. [See f. 279d.]
- 11 Kal. June. To John Agud (Hawkwood), knight, captain of the English
Avignon. forces in the service of the Roman church in Lombardy. Con-
(f. 51d.) gratulating him on his victory, and ordering him to join Amadeus, count of Savoy, in the territory of Milan. Their pay shall be paid as quickly as possible. [Eodem modo; the similar letter to Enguerrand de Coucy being given in full. See Reg.

To William de Grenlaw, archdeacon of St. Andrews, papal nuncio. Mandate, along with twenty-three other nuncios, to obtain and to send without delay information touching the persons and means of the houses of the Hospitallers in his district, as ordered by the pope's letters of 4 Id. Feb. last past. [See above, f. 9, and Reg. cclxv. f. 26.]

15 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 99d.)

To John Tournabary (Thornbury), knight, marshal of the English force in Italy for the Roman church. The pope has received his envoy, John Britz, to whom he has given a favourable reply; the pope desires him to continue his efforts against the enemy, especially Barnabas [Visconti]. As to their pay, let them with filial patience bear with the Roman church, especially as William, cardinal of St. Angelo's, whom the pope has appointed vicar-general in place of [Peter] cardinal of Bourges, about to return to the Roman court, will provide therefor.

12 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 245d.)

To Edward, king of England. The pope has received John, bishop of Bangor; Ultred (Ughtred), a Benedictine, S.T.M.; John Scepey, clerk, D.C.L.; and William Burton, knight, and their letters of credence. The pope recites what the ambassadors have set forth, using their words, touching (1) the presentation to prebends and other benefices pertaining to bishoprics and abbeyes and other religious houses, which become void whilst the temporalities of such bishoprics and houses are in the king's hands; (2) the presentation to dignities and benefices in the gift of the crown by virtue of the king's prerogative (ex prerogativa tue regalie); (3) appeals to the apostolic see in suits duly terminated in the king's court respecting such benefices; (4) citations which on account of the wars cannot be obeyed; (5) reservations and provisions to the prejudice of the rights of patronage, from which the pope is requested in future to abstain; (6) the subsidy, which he is prayed to postpone until the wars cease. Although the pope marvels greatly, he has caused certain articles of concord to be prepared, which are enclosed in these presents, and which the king is prayed to accept [See Reg. cclxxxv. f. 167]. As to the subsidy, although it is notorious that neither the pope's letters nor his nuncios are permitted to enter the realm, nevertheless he has granted a delay until next Easter, and even a month after; desiring the king to induce the clergy to pay, and not to favour them in their rebellion. Touching other matters laid before the pope by the said ambassadors a verbal answer has been given. [See also Reg. cclxv. f. 100d. and cclxxxvi. f. 296.]

(f. 33.)

To Charles king of France. Commending anew the mission of John de Castello, who brought good news from the territory of the Saracens, and was, with Martin de Catalonia, sent to announce the same to the king. Much information about the ill estate of the Saracens in the Holy Land and Egypt has been obtained by Nicholas Malavena, a citizen of Ventimiglia, who, as an apostate, lived many years with them, and who is also being sent to the king; and other pilgrims have confirmed it. Like news has been also brought from Africa by Aymar Alfonsi, knight, of Seville. King Charles is urged to make peace with king Edward, so that advantage may be taken of this favourable moment for a crusade.

(f. 38.)

To Bernard archbishop of Naples. The pope is writing to Joan queen of Sicily (Naples), desiring her—inasmuch as on account of the negotiations for peace between the kings of France and England, between whom a year's truce has been made, he is obliged to postpone his departure for Rome—not to send before the 25th of August the galleys she has offered. As to the galleys which are to come from the island of Sicily, the archbishop is to forward the enclosed letter to John bishop of Sarlat, nuncio, informing him that the said galleys are not to leave before August 20.

Ibid.
(f. 38d.)

To Andrew Contareno, doge of Venice. Desiring him to postpone until the middle of August the departure of the five galleys offered for the pope's voyage to Rome. The pope having this day received letters from the nuncios at Bruges informing him that a year's truce has been made, and that the negotiators are to meet again on the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, feels bound to postpone his journey.

5 Kal. Aug.

Avignon.
(f. 41d.)

To Joan queen of Sicily (Naples). The conclusion of a truce between the kings of France and England now gives hope that a peace will follow, for which the pope's presence is necessary in these parts, where the king of France and the duke of Lancaster have petitioned him to remain. As he is informed that in case the negotiators, who are to meet again at Bruges in September, fail to agree, they are to repair to the pope's presence; and as in the interests of peace and of the crusade he would feel bound, if at Rome, to return to Avignon, he has resolved to postpone his departure until the following spring. The pope will then repeat his request for galleys.

(f. 61d.)

To Robert king of Scotland. Requesting him to favour Henry de Sancto Trudone (St. Trond), preceptor of Avalterre in the duchy of Brabant, who is sent by the pope to Scotland to govern the preceptory of the Hospitallers in that realm, let on farm by Robert de Juliaco (Juillac), master of the Hospital, to Robert Mercerii, a layman, of Scotland, who obtained papal confirmation of the grant, and who now holds it to the injury of Robert de Alis (Hales), prior of England, to whom of right it belongs. Henry is to govern pending the pope's decision. [See Reg. cclxx. f. 169; and below f. 222.]

Ibid.
(f. 62.)

To Robert de Alis (Hales), prior of England. The pope is answering king Edward's letters according to the tenor enclosed, and orders the prior to obtain from the king the relaxation of the arrest of moneys due from him and many persons of his priory to the master of the Hospitallers and his convent of Rhodes, and for the passage of many of the brethren. As the arrest was made by fault of the prior, it is for him to obtain its removal.

Ibid.
(f. 62d.)

To Edward king of England. The pope grieves that he has only this month received the king's letters of 26th March, otherwise he would have replied sooner as the matter demanded. As to the preceptory of Scotland, the pope has learned that it does not belong to the priory of England and does not in any way pertain to the king's crown, but has been held, with the goods thereof, for very many years by divers clerks and laymen, and among others was held in farm for twenty years and more by a certain David [de Mar], clerk, a Scot, who has been wont to dwell at the papal court [See Reg. cexlv. ff. 246d, 247d.]; and that although the late Raymund Berengarii, master of the Hospital, granted it to Robert de Alis (Hales), prior of England, the grant was revoked by the constitution of Urban V. forbidding two priories or preceptories of the Hospital to be held by the same man. Wherefore Robert de Juliaco, master of the Hospital, let it on farm at the old rate to a certain Scotch layman [Robert Mercer] on a rent double of that paid by the prior of England. The pope has brought the matter before himself, and has empowered Henry de Sancto Trudone (St. Trond), preceptor of Avalterre in the duchy of Brabant, treasurer of Rhodes, said to be at present in Brabant, to receive the fruits and profits. As to the arrest of moneys [f. 62], in reply to the king's statement that it was made because of certain innovations made within the realm in an assembly of the lieutenant of the master and other Hospitallers lately held at Avignon [See Reg. cclxx. f. 80], contrary to the statutes, laws, and uses of the king and his progenitors, the pope replies that what was done in the assembly was done by his mandate, and was agreed to unanimously by those present, namely, the greater part of the priors and a great multitude of the preceptors of the Hospital, and by two brethren, proctors of the prior of England, in defence of eastern Christendom, and was done not for England alone but for other realms also. The pope will compel the Hospitallers to furnish 500 knights, and as many good esquires, with their horses and arms, to be ready to cross the sea in the spring with others whom he will send with them; and as much money will be opportune for the vessels and victuals, he intends shortly to write to the king for a subsidy. He therefore prays him to revoke the said arrest, so that the expedition may set out without loss of time.

1375.

To Robert Mercerii, donsel, of Scotland. Mandate to assign, until otherwise ordered, to Henry de Sancto Trudone, preceptor of Avalterro, the preceptory of Scotland, notwithstanding the grant in his favour made by Robert de Juliaco; the king of England having, upon complaint by Robert de Alia, prior of England, laid an arrest upon the pension (responsio) accustomed to be paid to the master and convent of Rhodes, and upon the portion of the general subsidy imposed upon the brethren of the Hospital due from the said prior and the preceptors of England. The pope having brought the matter before himself, orders Robert to appear personally, or by proctor, in the Roman court.

The pope has planned, as contained in his letters to the prior of England, a certain crusade (passagium) of 500 brethren and as many esquires; and the prior of Ireland is to take order that at the time to be fixed for him by the prior of England the knights and esquires of his priory may be ready simultaneously with those of England.

To Edward king of England, along with Henry king of Castile, and Ferdinand king of Portugal. By other letters [Fiedera; the first of the two under this date] which are being sent by the bearer of these presents the pope is setting forth the miserable state of Christians in the East; he informs him by these presents that 500 knights and as many esquires of the order of St. John are to go on a crusade to Greece (ad partes Romanie) in the spring of 1377, and requests from him not only free passage for the contingent assigned from England against the Turks, but assistance in their enterprise. [The letter to the king of Castile, of which this is eodem modo, mentions 22 knights and as many esquires [Raynaldi Annales, 1375, § ix. wrongly gives 25]; that to the king of Portugal is also eodem modo, with 14 for 22; this third, to king Edward, is without indication whether 14, 22, or another number was in the original. The second in Fiedera, not identical with these presents, unless, as seems probable, the Register be in error, supplies the number, viz. 38. See Reg. cclxvii. f. 47d.]

REGESTA, VOL. CCLXXVII.

4 GREGORY XI.

REGISTRUM LITTERARUM SEU BULLARUM CAMERE APOSTOLICE (Paper).

1374.

8 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 84d.)

To John de Peblis, archdeacon of St. Andrews, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Appointing him nuncio and collector of papal dues in Scotland and the dioceses of Sodor and Orkney, with the usual powers. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 68d.]

Ibid.

Safe-conduct for the same. [See ibid.]

6 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 85.)

To the same. Faculty to exercise ecclesiastical censure and if necessary to cite before the pope all persons clerical and lay who, he fears, may injure or hinder him or his sub-collectors and invade the rights of the papal camera, and to enforce thereby payment and due satisfaction to the same. [See ibid.]

Ibid.

(f. 86.)

To the same. Mandate to execute the recent reservation made by the present pope of—(i) the moveables and other personal property of the [late bishops] of Sodor and Orkney and other archbishops, bishops, and abbots of the realm of Scotland at the time of their death, having regard to the modification recited below (cum infrascripta moderatione); (ii) of the rents and rights pertaining to the archiepiscopal, episcopal, and abbatial mensæ during voidance; (iii) of the fruits and rents during voidance of all benefices whatsoever held by such archbishops, bishops, and abbots at the time of their death. The collector is to inform himself, and exact and send the same without delay to the camera, giving acquittances, and invoking the aid, if necessary, of the secular arm as well as of ecclesiastical censure and other penalties; the camera is to be certified by one or more sealed instruments. The modification, here recited, is with slight variants (the chief being the mention of archbishops and abbots instead of prelates and other ecclesiastics, secular and regular) the ordinance which was ordered to be observed by William de Grenlaw, 10 Kal. Sept. anno 3, Reg. cclxv. f. 173. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 69d.]

14 Kal. Dec.

Ibid.

(f. 94d.)

To Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, papal nuncio. Mandate, as above, Reg. cclxvj. f. 114d. [See cclxxxj. f. 78d.] [Cancelled, with marginal note alibi est.]

Ibid.

(f. 96.)

To the same. The like mandate; an eodem modo, not cancelled.

6 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 100d.)

To John de Peblis, as above. Power to use and carry out all papal commissions and letters addressed to his predecessors in the office of collector of papal dues in Scotland. [See Reg. cclxxxj. f. 82d.]

1374.

Ibid.
(f. 101.)

To the same. Power to impose a grateful subsidy (gratum subsidium) on all ecclesiastical persons in those parts in aid of the defence of the pope and the Roman church in Italy, with the exception of the Cistercian order which has offered the pope a certain subsidy [30,000 gold florins, Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 150], and to exact and enforce payment of the same by ecclesiastical censure and sequestration. [See ibid. f. 83.]

Ibid.
(f. 101d.)

To the same. Faculty to collect sums due to his predecessor William de Grenlaw, as above, Reg. cclxvi. f. 106. [See ibid. f. 83d.]

15 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 102.)

To the same. Mandate to execute the reservation made by the present pope at the beginning of his pontificate, after the example of Urban V. of—(i) the rents and rights pertaining to the episcopal and abbatial mense, during voidance, in the parts where he is collector; (ii) of the fruits and rents, during voidance, of all benefices whatsoever in those parts which were already at the aforesaid time void in any way soever at the apostolic see, or which became void, or which had been otherwise reserved to the pope. The collector is to inform himself and to proceed as above, f. 86.

Ibid.
(f. 102.)

To the same. Mandate, as above, f. 86, § (1); with repetition of the moderatio (here in the same terms as addressed to W. de Grenlaw, loc. cit.), and without the special mention of the bishops of Sodor and Orkney.

6 Id. Dec.
[Avignon.]
(f. 105.)

To John [Duncan] bishop of Sodor, papal nuncio. Appointing him collector in his city and diocese, as above, Reg. cclxvi. f. 105d. [See cclxxxi. f. 87d.]

8 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 109d.)

To John de Peblis, as above. Mandate to visit churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in Scotland, and the dioceses of Sodor and Orkney, with power to exact the usual procurations, any privileges and indulgences granted by Gregory X. and Innocent IV. notwithstanding. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 91.]

REGISTRUM BULLARUM CAMERE (Paper).

1375.

8 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 21.)

To prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Desiring safe-conduct for Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, licentiate in civil law, who is being sent to England. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 119.]

1375.

Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 28d.)

Annotation (presentibus fecimus annotari) of the ordinance of the present pope in favour of churches and monasteries (as above, Reg. cclxv. f. 173), in order that papal collectors, ordered to observe it, may not hesitate.

7 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 45.)

To William cardinal of St. Angelo's, vicar-general in temporalities in lands of Italy immediately subject to the Roman church. Mandate, in accordance with the pope's frequently repeated mandate, to give and assign without delay to John Haukewode, knight, captain of armed forces in Italy for the pope and the Roman church, as an acknowledgment of his services, a castle of a certain value, in the territory under the cardinal's charge, and to receive from him the accustomed homage for the same, which on his death is to revert to the Roman church. [See f. 79d. and Reg. cclxxi. f. 136d.]

Ibid.
(f. 45d.)

To the same. The like on behalf of John Tournaberi, captain. [See ibid. f. 137 and Reg. cclxxi. f. 142d.]

[4 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.]
(f. 79d.)

To John Haukewode of England, knight. Grant, for life, in consideration of his services, and out of regard for his beloved person (personam tuam nobis amabilem), of the castle of Montefortino (Montisfortini), in the March of Ancona, immediately belonging to the Roman church, with a yearly cess of one gold florin, to be paid on the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul (June 29), with obligation to attend the general parliament of the province, to render the customary military and other services, and to take the oath of fealty, which William cardinal of St. Angelo's will receive as well as the accustomed homage. [Unfinished.] [See f. 45 and Reg. cclxxxj. ff. 142 and 174.]

Id. July.

To William sometime bishop of Carpentras, archbishop elect of Rouen, papal nuncio. Power, as above, Reg. cclxvii. f. 98d. No. 2.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLXXIX.

6 GREGORY XI.

[REGISTRUM BULLARUM] AVENIONENSEM AD CAMERAM TANGENTIUM (Paper).

1376.

Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 22.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Recapitulation of the mandate to the archbishops of Canterbury and York to exact payment of the two instalments of the sum of 60,000 florins, as above, Reg. cclxvii. f. 78. Whereas the pope hears that of the said sum, although the term of payment for the first instalment, Nov. 1, 1375, is past, the archbishop of York and the 1376.

suffragans and clergy of his province have paid nothing, and that the suffragans and clergy of the province of Canterbury have a balance to pay, the archbishop is ordered to enforce with the usual powers, payment, not only of the first instalment in arrear, but also of the second instalment due June 24 next.

Kal. July.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 97.)

To William archbishop of Rouen, papal nuncio. Faculty, on the occasion of his mission to the realm of England, to exact and receive from Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, papal nuncio, and his sub-collectors, giving acquittances, and to transmit to the papal camera, all sums received or to be received by them for the said camera. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 267d.]

10 Kal. Sept.
Avignon.
(f. 44d.)

To William archbishop of Rouen and John Mauberti, canon of Cambrai, papal nuncio[s]. Mandate to receive from John de Interminellis, merchant of Lucca, and other merchants of Lucca in Flanders, a sufficient obligation and caution for the payment to the camera of sums collected and to be collected by the above-named John Mauberti, by Sigerus de Novolapide dean of St. Servatius, Maestricht, in the diocese of Liège, and by Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, papal nuncios and collectors. John, Sigerus, and Arnold are being ordered by other letters to assign the said sums to Alderic de Interminellis or his brother John or their factors and proctors in Flanders, and the said Alderic has, at the desire of the camera to have sureties, promised to bind the said John his brother and the other merchants.

Ibid.
(f. 44d.)

To the above Sigerus, to Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, and to John Mauberti, canon of Cambrai, papal nuncios. Mandate, by reason of the malice of the times and the danger and difficulty of assigning to the camera the money collected and to be collected in his district, to assign the same to Alderic and John de Interminellis, or their factors and proctors as above, the said Alderic and others having faculty to give acquittance.

Ibid.
(f. 44d.)

To the above-named Alderic de Interminellis. Faculty, for himself and his brother John, to receive from and give acquittance to John Mauberti, canon of Cambrai, Arnold Garnerii, and Sigerus de Novolapide for the above-named sums.

2 Id. Nov.
Lagnhorn.
(f. 81.)

To prelates and other clergy, secular and regular, and to nobles and other lay officers. Requesting safe-conduct for Francis and Nicholas de Guinisii, brothers, citizens of Lucca, and their proctors, in respect of assignments from Bruges and Venice and elsewhere of money and goods to the camera.

4 Id. Nov.
Lagnhorn.
(f. 81d.)

To Francis de Guinisii, citizen of Lucca. Power for himself and his brother Nicholas to receive and give acquittance for sums collected and to be collected by John Mauberti, canon of Noyon, Arnold Garnerii, canon of Narbonne, Sigerus de Novolapide, dean of St. Servatius, as above, and four other nuncios and collectors named.

1376.

Ibid.
(f. 64.)

To Arnold Garnerii, canon of Narbonne, papal nuncio, with each of the other six nuncios. Mandate, in accordance with an agreement made between Peter, archbishop of Arles, papal chamberlain, and Francis de Guinisiis, to assign to the said Francis or his brother Nicholas or their proctors at Bruges all sums collected and to be collected up to two years from these presents, the said Francis and Nicholas having faculty to give acquittance for the same.

4 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 66d.)

To William archbishop of Rouen, papal nuncio. Faculty to make an agreement with Andrew (sic), archbishop of Dublin respecting the amount to be retained by him for his manifold exertions and expenses in connexion with the exaction of the subsidy or tenth for one year imposed by the pope on the prelates and other ecclesiastics of Ireland and the islands thereof, as contained in letters to the said archbishop. The agreement is to be made before the said letters are delivered.

Ibid.
(f. 67.)

To Andrew (sic) archbishop of Dublin. Mandate to levy and exact in the parts of Ireland and the surrounding islands, a subsidy for the recovery of the lands of the Roman church in Italy, to wit one year's tenth of the fruits and rents of ecclesiastical benefices, those held or to be held by cardinals being alone excepted. The tenth is to be paid, half within four months after the publication of these presents, half within the six months next following. The archbishop is to compel payment by ecclesiastical censure and sequestration, without calling in, except in case of contumacy, the aid of the secular arm. The proceeds, with the account, are to be sent to the camera, or assigned to the nuncio or nuncios deputed for the purpose.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLXXX.

7 GREGORY XI.

REGISTRUM BULLARUM AD CAMERAM TANGENTIUM

(Paper).

1377.

8 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 39.)

To William bishop of Emly, papal nuncio. Appointing him papal nuncio and collector with the usual powers in the dioceses of Cashel, Lismore, Waterford, Cloyne, Limerick, Emly, Killaloe, Ardfer, Cork, Ross, and Kilfenora.

Ibid.

To the same. Mandate to exact and receive, with faculty to give acquittances, fruits and rents due by virtue of the reservation made by the pope at the beginning of his pontificate (when he sought out honest and lawful means to provide for the burdens of the papal camera), of the first year's fruits and 1377.

rents of priories, dignities, personatus, administrations, offices, canonries and prebends, and all other benefices whatsoever, secular and regular, exempt and not exempt, with or without cure of souls, certain minor benefices alone excepted, (i) which were by the present pope or his predecessors reserved to the apostolic see and were at the above-mentioned time already void or should become void; (ii) which should become void by exchanges made and confirmed by papal authority; (iii) which were or should be appropriated to cathedral or other churches, on the occasion of the resignation or death of their holders. The said reservation is not to be enforced if a benefice become void twice or oftener in the same year.

Ibid.
(f. 39d.)

To the same. Mandate to execute the recent reservation made by the pope of—(i) moveables and other personal property of archbishops, bishops, and abbots at the time of their death, having regard to the modification recited below (cum infrascripta moderatione); (ii) rents and rights pertaining to the archiepiscopal, episcopal, and abbatial mensæ during voidance; (iii) fruits and rents during voidance of all benefices whatsoever which were already at the beginning of the present pontificate void or which became void at the apostolic see. The collector is to inform himself and proceed, as above, Reg. cclxxvii. f. 86. The modification, here recited, is as above, ibid.

Ibid.

To the same. Mandate to exact and receive (for the defence of the lands of the Roman church and the relief of the burdens of the papal camera, for which the pope devises reasonable and honest ways and means, and deems it meet and right that the said church, which is the head of all churches, should in her necessities be aided by them) a tenth during three years of fruits and rents in the cities and dioceses to which he is deputed collector, the benefices held or to be held by cardinals being alone excepted. The first year's tenth is to be paid half at Michaelmas next and half at the following Easter, and in like manner for the remaining years. The usual powers are given to enforce payment. [4½ ff.] [Theiner, 360, omitting 'which is the head of all churches.']

[8] Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 42.)

To the same. Mandate to exact, receive, and transmit to the camera money due from archbishops, bishops, and abbots by virtue of their promotion to their prelacies; to compel the contumacious by papal authority, without appeal, and to invoke if necessary the secular arm. Power is given to give acquittances, and to relax sentences of excommunication incurred. [Cancelled, with marginal note: Istam non habuit dictus collector, quia fuit reformata in alia forma ut patet folio alio.]

Ibid.
(f. 43d.)

To the same. Mandate to the like effect, with differences of form, ordering the collector to proceed by ecclesiastical censure and sequestration, with the aid, if necessary, of the secular arm, and omitting the power to give acquittances and to relax sentences incurred.

1377.

8 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 49.)

To the same. Mandate, in accordance with the desire of the pope to devise reasonable and honest ways and means to provide for the defence of the lands of the Roman church, and consequently for the burdens of the camera, to visit during three years from these presents churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in the aforesaid dioceses, and to receive therefrom moderate procurations, all money arising from which is to be sent without delay to the camera.

8 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 49d.)

To the same. Power to punish by ecclesiastical censure any who hinder him or his sub-collectors in their business.

Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 50d.)

To John de Peb[li]s, archdeacon of St. Andrews, to John Doncan, archdeacon of Down, and to twenty-nine other nuncios and collectors. Mandate to publish and enforce the revocation, of which exemplification is given, made this day by the pope (by reason of the perilous state of the temporalities of the Roman church in Italy, against which cities and castles, immediately belonging thereto, have, at the instigation of the sons of iniquity the Florentines, rebelled and still rebel) of all delays granted in the payment of money due on whatsoever ground to the papal camera. Those debtors who are at the Roman court are ordered to pay up to the papal treasurer within two months after the publication there of the said revocation; others are to pay either to Peter, bishop of Maguelonne, papal treasurer at Avignon, or to the collectors in their districts, within two months after publication in their cities and dioceses. [4½ ff.] [In the margin, Nota: Mandantur littere publicari dilationum revocatarum.]

Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 72d.)

To John Tornabery, knight, of the diocese of Worcester. Whereas the papal camera owes him and his forces for their services, and for stipends and expenses incurred by him in keeping the castle of Castrocaro (Castricari), in the province of Romagna, a sum of 15,625 gold florins, as contained in a letter of Robert cardinal of the Twelve Apostles, papal legate, dated at Cesena, 1 Feb. 1377, and whereas the pope has ordered certain collectors to pay him out of their receipts 13,300 gold florins, there is therefore still due to him 2325 florins, for which this letter is a bond; the papal camera remains bound to him for whatever sum he does not receive from the collectors as ordered.

4 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 73.)

To Robert cardinal of the Twelve Apostles, papal legate. Mandate to elect four good and expert men who joined to four others elected by the companions of John Tornabery (who, with others of their number, is prosecuting the matter in person in the pope's presence) shall make enquiry touching the sum of 11,700 gold florins said to be due from the papal camera by reason of the restitution by them of the city of Cesena and the spoils obtained there, as also touching certain stipends unpaid; and who shall, within three months of the departure of the said John and others, make a declaration to the Roman court and appoint terms for the payment of such sum as shall be found to be due. Faculty is given to the legate to enter into a bond for the same on the part of the camera.

1377.

Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 73d.)

To Arnold Garnerii, canon of Châlons, papal nuncio and collector in the provinces of Canterbury and York, and his successors in that office. Mandate to pay to John Tornabery, knight, of the diocese of Worcester, out of his receipts from the month of December next the sum of 7000 gold florins towards the amount due to him by the papal camera, as contained in the letter to cardinal Robert above. The collector is to draw up two public instruments, keeping one and sending the other with the present mandate to the papal camera, which is at Avignon. He is further ordered to pay no other person until the said knight or his proctor shall be paid in full.

Ibid.
(f. 74.)

To John Mauberti, canon of Cambrai, papal nuncio and collector in the province of Reims, and his successors in that office. The like mandate to pay John Tornabery, out of his receipts from the month of February next, the sum of 1300 (sic) gold florins.

REGESTA, VOL. CCLXXXII.

1 GREGORY XI.

DE INDULTIS, PRIVILEGIIS ET DISPENSATIONIBUS.

1371.

4 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 18d.)

To Dermotus Oconcowr (O'Connor), a Friar Preacher. Extension, at his own petition and that of Margaret queen of Scotland, of the dispensation granted to him as the illegitimate son of a married man—to be promoted to any office of his order except that of provincial, by virtue of which he became prior and lector of Boscamm (Roscommon), in the diocese of Elphin—so as now to enable him to be elected to any episcopal or archiepiscopal dignity.

9 Kal. Oct.

Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 19d.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate, at the petition of Charles king of the French and of king Robert, to grant a dispensation to James, son of William earl of Douglas, and Margaret, daughter of the said king Robert, to intermarry, notwithstanding that they are related in the fourth degree of kindred.

[Theiner, 343, from Avignon Reg. ii. f. 337, and with a wrong date.]

5 Non. March.

Avignon.
(f. 26.)

To Thomas de Arundelle, son of Richard earl of Arundel, clerk, of the diocese of Chichester. Dispensation, at the petition also of his kinsman king Edward, to hold and exchange a benefice or dignity with cure of souls, even in a cathedral church, notwithstanding that he is in his eighteenth year, provided that the cure of souls, if any, be not neglected.

4 Kal. Oct.

Avignon.
(f. 32.)

To the chancellor of Toulouse. Mandate to admit Thomas Portugalensis, a Friar Minor, if found fit after examination, to lecture on the 'Sentences' in that university during the next or subsequent summer, at Thomas's choice; and afterwards, if found fit at the end of his lecturing, upon examination by the said chancellor and four masters of theology, to grant him the honour of mastership (magisterii honorem) and the licence to teach in that faculty. Thomas studied for several years in his order, especially in the parts of England, arts and theology, and then, according to the custom of his order, lectured for several years in arts in the province of 1371.

Portugal. He afterwards studied theology for several years in the university of Pisa, and then lectured and disputed in the university of Salamanca, as bachelor for two years, and as lecturer for three. Coming back to Pisa, after being sent to Paris, he returned to Portugal, and was chosen by the chapter-general of his order to lecture on the 'Sentences' in the university of Cambridge (Cantabrugie), in order that after so lecturing he might obtain the mastership in theology (magisterium in sacra pagina). At his own petition and that of Ferdinand, king of Portugal, the present mandate is made.

[See Bulaeus, Hist. Univ. Paris. IV. 439.]

18 Kal. July.

Avignon.
(f. 33d.)

To John Wylioth, canon of London, master of arts and of theology. Grant to hold, in addition to the chancellorship of Exeter, value 28 marks, and a canonry and prebend of the same, value 6 marks, his canonry of London and prebend of Ruggemere in the same, value 4 marks, which he obtained during the lifetime of Urban V. on their voidance by the death of John de Schingham, under a provision made to him by that pope of a canonry of London with expectation of a prebend. John doubts whether his prebend of Ruggemere was not, at the time of his accepting it, specially reserved to the pope. The grant is subject to the usual condition that John de Schingham was not a member of the papal household.

5 Id. March.

Avignon.
(f. 39d.)

To William de Hexham, clerk, of the diocese of York. Rehabilitation, on account of irregularity incurred by his institution about a year ago to the church of Eccleston, value 18 marks, in the diocese of Lichfield, void by the death of Henry de Haydok, on the presentation of the king to the bishop of that diocese, without having obtained dispensation as the son of a priest, which dispensation he has since obtained. The church is to be resigned.

14 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 42.)

To Richard Bidyk, rector of Bryngton, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of provision (notwithstanding that he holds also the canonry and prebend of Pelton in Chester [le-Street], in the diocese of Durham, about which he is litigating in the papal palace), of the above-named church, which he obtained by exchange with David de Wallore for the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr on Bedford bridge, their respective proctors being Roger Winston, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, and Nicholas Brakle, clerk, of the diocese of Norwich, who made the resignations to Thomas, Augustinian prior of St. Mary's, Huntingdon, under powers granted by John bishop of Lincoln. As Bryngton had, before the exchange, been specially reserved by Urban V. under date 3 Id. May anno 4, and became therefore void by the exchange, provision of it was made to Richard by letters of the present pope, those of Urban V. to the same effect having remained unfinished through his death. As it has since been asserted that, even before the resignation, the church was already void, through the obtaining [by David] of another incompatible benefice or in some other way than by the resignation, the present confirmation is made.

1371.

18 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 43.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of one year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms for the repair of the church of Bitton and its choir, in the diocese of Worcester.

11 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 42d.)

To Thomas de Salkeld, rector of Caldebecke, in the diocese of Carlisle, bachelor of canon law. Confirmation to him, who holds also by papal letters a canonry of Auckland, with expectation of a prebend, of his acceptance of the above-named church, which he obtained (on its voidance by William de Ragenhill obtaining that of North Collingham, in the diocese of York) under a papal provision of a benefice in the gift of the bishop of Carlisle, with or without cure of souls, value 25 or 18 marks respectively. Thomas since doubts whether the said church was not reserved to the pope, or whether its value is not more than 25 marks.

15 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 47d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of one year and forty days of enjoined penance, to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms for the repair of the church of the Augustinian monastery of Jedleworth, which, situated on the borders of Scotland and England, has been destroyed in the wars.

7 Id. June.

Avignon.
(f. 48.)

To John de Strensall, rector of Mixebury, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of dispensations so that he may hold and exchange three compatible benefices, of which one may be a canonry in a cathedral church and another may have cure of souls. He already holds, under successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy, the above-named church, which he obtained by authority of the ordinary in exchange for that of Egimendi (Egremont), in the diocese of York, which he had held by papal provision. The present dispensation is made in consideration of his having laboured for seven years in the registry of the collector of papal dues in England.

4 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 54d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms for the restoration of the church of St. Peter de Halle, without Dublin, which by deaths and pestilences has been brought to ruin.

7 Id. May.

Avignon.
(f. 54d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the four feasts of the Blessed Virgin, and on the feast of the dedication, annually visit and give alms towards the decoration of her chapel in the church of the Augustinian monastery of Liesnes, in the diocese of Rochester, which has been begun by the abbot and convent of the same. [See f. 87.]

2 Non. March.

Avignon.
(f. 58.)

To William de Chesholme, treasurer of Mornay, bachelor of canon law. Confirmation of the provision made to him by Urban V. of the said dignity, which has cure of souls, and which 1371.

he obtained on its voidance by the promotion of the late Thomas de Harkars by that pope to the deanery of Moray, as he doubts whether it was not by the death of Thomas that the treasurer-ship became void, and was therefore reserved to the pope. William, who is M.A. holds also a canonry and prebend in the same church. [Theiner 364, from Avignon Reg. ii. f. 421; a brief analysis.]

4 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 58d.)

To Richard de Treton, rector of Oundel, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation to him of the said church, which he obtained by provision of the abbot of Peterborough on its voidance by the death of Walter Bacton, Richard doubting whether it was not reserved to the pope.

5 Non. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 63.)

To the chancellor of Paris. Mandate to admit, at his own petition and those of Charles king of the French and Robert king of Scotland, Thomas de Rossey, a Friar Minor, if found fit after examination, to lecture on the 'Sentences' during the next or a subsequent summer, in which another Friar Minor shall not be deputed, and afterwards, if found fit upon examination by the said chancellor and other masters in the faculty of theology, to grant him the honour of mastership and the licence to teach therein. Thomas studied for several years in divers universities (generalibus studiis) the seven liberal arts and theology, and finished the course of his study in the university (studio) of Paris, honourably preaching the Word of God at sundry times before that university (universitate studii). Afterwards, according to the custom of his order, he lectured in Scotland, of which he is a native, on arts and theology. [See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 265. See Bulaeus, Hist. Univ. Paris, iv. 439 and 446; Denifle and Chatelain, Chart. Univ. Paris III. No. 1372.]

8 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 69d.)

To John de Barnet. Decree conferring the force of the original upon the present annotation (presentibus annotari fecimus) of the extension of the dispensation on account of illegitimacy granted to him, therein described as B.C.L., by Innocent VI. under date Avignon 13 Kal. Feb. anno 9 (1361), at the petition of king Edward whose clerk he was, so that he might hold a second benefice with or without cure of souls, even a dignity, personatus, office, or canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, and might exchange both. [See f. 173d.]

10 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 70d.)

To John de Thoresby, canon of York, D.C.L. Extension to 60 marks, according to the valuation of the taxation of the tenth, of the value of a benefice, value 50 marks with cure of souls or 28 without, formerly reserved to him in the gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham, the benefices in their gift being taxed for the said tenth in such great and excessive sums, and the multitude of expectants being so great that he has no hope of benefiting by the said letters; notwithstanding that he has canonries and prebends of York and Ripon, and the church of Lilleford, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 80 marks, which is, upon his obtaining such benefice by virtue of the present or the former letters, to be resigned.

1371.
 10 Kal. Sept. To John cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, papal nuncio, Villeneuve by Avignon. (f. 74d.)
 Mandate to visit, correct, and reform cathedral, collegiate, and other churches, monasteries, and other religious places in the realms of France and England, provided he receive nothing, even meat or drink (etiam esculentium vel proculentium (sic)),
- Ibid.*
 (f. 75.) To Simon cardinal of St. Sixtus, papal nuncio. The like,
- 6 Non. May. To John Ratheman, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Extension Avignon. (f. 77d.)
 to 35 marks of the value of a benefice, value 20 marks with cure of souls or 15 without, reserved to him, under the form for poor clerks, in the gift of the abbot and convent of Ramsey, in the said diocese, their benefices being for the most part of greater value.
- 18 Kal. Jan. To Odo bishop of Lascar, and William bishop of Oléron, Avignon. (f. 80d.)
 Suspension until Whitsuntide of the processes and sentences incurred through their refusal to pay the procurations ordered to be paid to cardinals Simon and John during their mission, by the prelates secular and regular of France and England. The bishops are meanwhile to inform the pope whether the land of Béarn, in which their cities and dioceses are situate, does not, as they assert, belong to either of the realms of France and England.
- 5 Id. Aug. To John de Mamcestre, rector of Northworthyn, in the diocese of Lichfield. Indult of non-residence for three years while Villeneuve by Avignon. (f. 82.) studying canon law at an university, provided that the cure of souls be not neglected.
- 13 Kal. Nov. To Richard [Apelderham of] Tangmere, canon of Chichester, Avignon. (f. 85d.)
 Confirmation of his institution by bishop William, on the presentation of king Edward, to the canonry and prebend of Collynghwith in the same, void by the death of John Streteley, as Richard doubts whether they were not reserved to the pope. [See Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 57d.]
- 18 Kal. Jan. Relaxation, during twenty years, of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the Augustinian monastery of Lesnes, in the diocese of Rochester, in which our Lord has designed of old to work many miracles. [See f. 55d.]
- Non. Jan. To Joan [Holand], duchess of Brittany. Confirmation of the Avignon. (f. 87.)
 indult granted by Urban V. 3 Non. July anno 7 (1369), for the relaxation by the preacher of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents whensoever at mass on the feast of Corpus Christi and the octave thereof the Word of God is publicly preached in her presence.

1371.

7 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 88.)

To Geoffrey de Glen, clerk, of the diocese of Glasgow. Extension of the dispensation granted to him as the son of a priest, so that he may hold a second benefice, whether a canonry and prebend or other elective dignity in a cathedral church, and may exchange both.

2 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 95.)

To the prior of St. Germans, in the diocese of Exeter. Mandate to grant to the parishioners of the parochial chapel in the town of Calyngton—which, although dependent and served by a priest appointed by the rector of Suhhulle, is distant two miles from that church, has its own separate boundaries, and has of old been called a parish, with all ecclesiastical sacraments except that of burial—to have a cemetery of their own, inasmuch as the delay of burial at the seasons of winter and harvest and times of pestilence causes great scandals and contentions.

4 Non. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 99.)

To the bishop of Exeter. Mandate to dispense Ralph Carminau, knight, and Catherine, relict of Walter Wodland, knight, to proceed to and remain in the marriage which they contracted (sponsalia . . . per verba legitime de futuro) in ignorance that they were related in the third and fourth degrees of kindred.

Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 105d.)

To the chancellor of Toulouse. Mandate to admit Peter de Marcha, a Friar Preacher, bachelor of theology, if found fit after examination by himself and four masters of theology, to the honour of mastership (magistrallem honorem) and to the licence to teach in that faculty. Peter, being deputed by the chapter-general of his order, has lectured on the 'Sentences' in the university of Cambridge (in universitate studii Cantabrigie-ensis), performed all acts and courses required for the honour of mastership there, but has been prevented by poverty from repairing thither to obtain it. [Fournier, Univ. Françaises, I. No. 685, from Avig. Reg. ii. f. 299d. and with wrong date.]

7 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 112d.)

To John de Difford, priest, of the diocese of Carlisle. Extension of the dispensation granted to him on account of illegitimacy so that he may hold a second benefice with or without cure of souls, and may exchange both.

6 Id. March.
Avignon.
(f. 127.)

To Robert Brigham, priest, of the diocese of York. Confirmation of papal letters of provision addressed to the archbishop of Canterbury, under the form for poor clerks, of a benefice with or without cure of souls within his city and diocese, in the gift of the abbot and convent of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, the said Robert fearing lest his resignation, made to Ralph bishop of Sisteron at the apostolic see, of his vicarage of Aston Ruhant, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 15 pounds Tournois, may be deemed surreptitious. The archbishop is to proceed to the execution of the said letters.

5 Id. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 136d.)

To Roger called 'Dros,' vicar of St. Michael's, Sutton by Tottebury, in the diocese of Lichfield. Indult of non-residence for three years whilst studying canon law at an university, provided that the cure of souls be not neglected.

1371.

Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 139d.)

Confirmation, on petition of the bishops of Scotland, of the grant made by David late king of Scotland, with the consent of his nephew Robert, now king, then steward and earl of Strathearn, of the said Robert's children, and other barons and nobles, and of the three estates (communitatum) of the realm in full parliament, in abolition for himself and his successors of the ancient custom whereby the moveables of deceased bishops were applied to the uses of the king, and could not be disposed of by will. [Theiner 346. See Reg, cclxxi. f. 180d. and cclxxxiii. f. 105d.]

6 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 140d.)

To Henry bishop of Norwich. Indult to demand and receive once from beneficed ecclesiastics of his diocese, secular and regular, not being exempt, a moderate and charitable subsidy, according to the constitution of Benedict XII. [Wilkins Conc. II. 578; Extrav. Com. iii. 10], to enable him to meet necessary expenses of his church.

Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 141d.)

Confirmation, on petition of the warden of the college of scholar clerks (scolarium clericorum) of Valence Marie Hall, Cambridge, of the appropriation of the church of Weislay or Werslay, in the diocese of Lincoln. Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, purchased a certain glebe or territory, including the patronage of the said church, the appropriation of which was afterwards procured by her, under papal authority, to the college. As the petition points out, the instrument of purchase contains no mention of the purchase of the glebe, but only of the purchase of the patronage. The appropriation is confirmed as though at the time when it was made the said patronage belonged to the countess. [Imperfect]; [See Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 7d.]

8 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 143.)

To William de Etale, treasurer of Glasgow. Confirmation to him of that office, which he obtained from bishop Walter on its voidance by the death of Henry de Mangavilla, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope.

3 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 150d.)

To Ralph de Ergum, canon of York, D.C.L. Extension of the reservation made to him by the present pope of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure of souls in the church of York, on obtaining which he was and is bound to resign the church of Wynestede, in the diocese of Lichfield, so as to enable him, who holds also a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend, and the chapel of St. Mary Magdalen in the said diocese, to exchange the said church for another benefice compatible with such dignity, personatus, or office.

Ibid.
(f. 152.)

To John duke of Lancaster. Indult to enter any monasteries of religious men and women once a year with thirty persons of good repute.

6 Id. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 155.)

To William de Osmundeston, canon of Limoges. Extension of the reservation by the pope of a benefice in the gift of the bishop and chapter of Durham, so that he may hold a similar benefice in the gift of the bishop and of the prior and chapter, in common or severally, or in the gift of the prior alone.

1371.

6 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 161d.)

To Raynald cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's. Indult for five years from Christmas next to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other religious places in his deanery of Salisbury, and to receive procurations, in ready money (pecunia numerata), to the amount of 30 silver [gros] Tournois a day, twelve to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of London and Winchester and the official of Salisbury. [An eodem modo, with decanatu in the text and archidiaconatu in the Rubrice.]

Ibid.

To William cardinal priest of St. Stephen's. The like indult in regard to his archdeaconry of Berks (Bireskirie).

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of London and Wells, and the dean of St. Agriculus, Avignon.

6 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 163d.)

To Peter cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Via Lata. The like indult in regard to his archdeaconry of Exeter.

Concurrent mandate to the official of Worcester, and two others out of England.

Non. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 166d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms to the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the cemetery of St. Benedict's Greshreech, London.

6 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 168.)

The like relaxation of a hundred days for the church of St. Mary Kildalk, in the diocese of Meath.

Non. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 168.)

The like relaxation of a hundred and forty days for the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the church of Ilfricombe.

6 Id. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 169d.)

To Philip bishop of Sabina. The like indult, as above to cardinal Raynald, in regard to his archdeaconry of York.

Concurrent mandate to the chancellor of Lincoln and two others out of England.

Ibid.

To the same. The like indult in regard to his archdeaconry of Leicester.

Concurrent mandate as above.

Ibid.

To the same. The like indult in regard to his canonry and prebend of Nayssiton in Lincoln.

Concurrent mandate as above.

Ibid.
(f. 170.)

To Hugh cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Porticu. The like indult in regard to his archdeaconry of Meath. [See Reg. cclxiv. f. 210 γ d.]

Concurrent mandate to three persons out of England.

1371.

8 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 171.)

To Simon cardinal priest of St. Sixtus. The like indult in regard to his archdeaconry of Wells.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of Chichester, and the archdeacons of East Riding (Estrichingie Eboracensis) and Oxford.

7 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 173d.)

To John Barnet, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, licentiate of civil law. Extension of the dispensations granted him on account of illegitimacy, (i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls; (ii) to hold a second benefice with or without cure, even though a dignity, personatus, office, or canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, and to exchange both [See f. 69d.]; so as now to enable him to hold compatible benefices of any number and kind whatsoever (quotcunque et qualiacunque), even dignities, provided they be below the episcopal.

16 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 175.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year, the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms to the cathedral church of Chichester, which is in need of costly (sumptuosa) repair. The present letters are not to apply to those who by virtue of former papal indults, whether perpetual or temporary, and not yet expired, visit and give alms in other ways.

16 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 184.)

To Hugh de Preynton, priest, of Lincoln, bachelor of canon law. Extension to a benefice with cure only, and value not more than 35 marks, of the reservation of a benefice in the gift of the bishop of Ely, with or without cure of souls, value not exceeding 25 and 18 marks respectively; notwithstanding that he is litigating about the chaplaincy of St. Julian's by St. Albans, possession of which he has not yet obtained.

DE CURIA

2 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 192.)

To the bishops of London and Worcester. Mandate to inform themselves and report to the pope touching the right asserted by John duke of Lancaster, over many cities and lands in Provence. [As above, Reg. cclxiii. f. 300d.]

7 Id. March.

(f. 192.)

To Simon cardinal of St. Sixtus, and John cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati, papal nuncios. Faculty during their mission to France and England to cause churches and cemeteries to be consecrated by catholic bishops (antistites) in communion with the apostolic see, and to reconcile and cause to be reconciled the same, when necessary, by fit priests, a bishop (antistitem) having blessed the water; without derogation to the constitution which requires such reconciliation to be made by bishops only.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to confer upon fit persons the benefices, with or without cure, of those of their chaplains and 1371.

clerks who resign or die during their mission; except such as are greater elective dignities or personatus in cathedral churches below the pontifical, or principal dignities in collegiate churches, with power to exercise ecclesiastical censure without appeal against those who oppose.

Ibid.
(f. 194.)

To the same. Faculty to relax pacts, confederations, and oaths which may be a hindrance to their mission of fostering peace between the kings of France and England, and to constrain by ecclesiastical sentences without appeal those who disturb or hinder peace. [A part in Raynaldi Annales, 1371 § 1.]

10 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 209d.)

To John cardinal of Sancti Quatuor Coronati. Faculty to give leave to a hundred women of high birth and rank (magni generis et potentes) of France and England to enter monasteries of women once a year accompanied each by four honest matrons.

Ibid.
(f. 210.)

To the same. Grant that each of his servants may choose his confessor, who shall absolve him from ecclesiastical sentences, after satisfaction made, and shall dispense him from consequent irregularity.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense thirty religious of the said realms, in their twentieth year or thereabouts, to be ordained priests.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve apostate monks of the said realms and restore them to the monasteries of their order.

Ibid.

To the same. Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to exercise, by himself or by deputy, ecclesiastical censure against all who oppose him or the members of his household (familiaribus) in the discharge of their mission, if after being warned they do not make satisfaction.

Ibid.

(l. 4.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense priests who have contracted irregularity by celebrating divine functions when suspended for blessing second marriages.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense prelates and others who have incurred irregularity by issuing verbal sentences of excommunication.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve those who, having been excommunicated and having made satisfaction, cannot be absolved by reason that the judges who imposed the sentences are dead, and have no successors. [See Reg. cclxiv. l. 95d.]

9 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.

(l. 7d.)

To the warden and college of the scholars and clerks (scholarium et clericorum) of Valence Marie Hall, Cambridge. Confirmation of the appropriations of three parish churches value 1372.

100*l.* made by virtue of letters of Clement VI. [Cal. Lett. iii. 306] addressed to the bishop of London in favour of their college, founded by Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, for poor clerks under a president (presidens) called a warden (custos). Ralph bishop of London appropriated to them Saxtorp, and his successor Michael appropriated to them Tylneye, whose successor Simon, the present bishop, has appropriated to them Weresleie, the three churches being in the dioceses of Norwich and Lichfield (sic), and vicars' portions being assigned. The appropriations of Saxtorp and Weresleie took effect before Urban V.'s revocation of appropriations was made [See f. 176]; and that of Til[n]eye has been confirmed by letters of the present pope, notwithstanding the said revocation. The present confirmation of the appropriations of all three churches is made on account of and notwithstanding the further fact, as contained in the petition, that their total revenues exceed 100*l.* by 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* [See Reg. cclxxxii. f. 141*d.*]

Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 25*d.*)

To Robert Bastard, rector of Wyli, in the diocese of Salisbury. Confirmation to him of that church, which he obtained on its voidance by the death of William de Bathe, by virtue of a provision made to him by Urban V. under the form for poor clerks of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the gift of the abbess and convent of Welton (Wilton), and now doubts whether it was not specially reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the condition that William was not a member of the papal household.

5 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 26.)

To Henry Godebar (Godebaruni in Rubrice), canon of Ripon, licentiate of civil law. Confirmation to him, who holds also the church of Egremonde (Egremont) in the diocese of York, of his canonry and prebend, which he obtained on their voidance by the death of Nicholas de Burton, by virtue of a provision made to him by the present pope of a canonry with expectation of a prebend, personatus, or office, with or without cure of souls, and now doubts whether they were not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the condition that Nicholas was not a member of the papal household.

14 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 20.)

To the precentor of Ardfert. Mandate to confirm to David Oconchour (O'Connor), subdeacon, the provision, if canonically made, which was granted to him by bishop John, of the chancellorship of Ardfert, void by the resignation of Patrick Offichillich (O'Feely).

4 Kal. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 40*d.*)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and those of St. Anne, the dedication and the consecration, on the octaves of certain of them, and on the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms to the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin and St. Anne, Stoke by Clare, in the diocese of Norwich.

1372.

8 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 41d.)

To [John de Calore] chancellor of Paris. Mandate, on petition of Charles king of the French, and of Robert king of Scotland, to confer on Gilbert Withman (or Wichman), Augustinian canon of St. Andrews, bachelor of canon law, who has studied canon law for six years at Paris, and there taken therein his degree of bachelor, the degree of licentiate in the said faculty if, after lecturing for two years only, he be found fit upon diligent examination by a doctor of the same.

[See Denifle and Chatelain, Chartularium Universitatis Parisiensis III. No. 1374.]

7 Kal. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 4b.)

To Peter cardinal priest of St. Praxed's. Indult for five years from Christmas next, to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in his archdeaconry of Northampton, and to receive procurations in ready money to a daily amount not exceeding 30 silver [gros] Tournois at the rate of twelve to a gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of St. Agriculus, Avignon, and two other persons out of England.

7 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 48d.)

To John Tresnant, rector of Llanubryn, in the diocese of St. Asaph, B.C.L. Indult of non-residence for four years, while proceeding to his doctor's degree in civil law at an university, notwithstanding that he is in priest's orders.

4 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 50d.)

To Edmund Strete, rector of Merlaw, in the diocese of Lincoln, B.C.L. Further extension to 60 marks (a previous extension to 40 marks having been already granted) of the value of a benefice with cure of souls, under a provision by the present pope of a benefice in the gift of the bishop of Ely, value 35 marks with cure of souls, or 18 without, provided always he fulfil the condition, laid down in the original letters, of his satisfying the dean of London, appointed to examine him in reading, construing, singing, and speaking Latin; notwithstanding that he has the canonry and prebend of Waltham in Chichester, value 100s. a canonry of Lincoln with expectation of a prebend, and the aforementioned church, which church is to be resigned upon his obtaining a benefice with cure of souls by virtue of these presents. [See Reg. cclxxxiv. f. 86d.]

11 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 57d.)

To Richard Apelderham, of Tangmere, canon of Chichester. Confirmation to him, who holds also the church of Estlevente (East Lavant) in the same diocese, of his institution by bishop William, on the king's presentation, to the canonry and prebend of Colwarth, on their voidance by the death of John Streteley, Richard now doubting whether they were not reserved to the pope, or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. The confirmation is subject to the condition that John was not a member of the papal household. [See Reg. cclxxxii. f. 85d.]

Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 62.)

To William Bide, D.C.L. rector of St. Nicholas, Gildesford. Dispensation to hold in addition to his parish church a dignity or perambatus with or without cure of souls.

1372.

7 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 64.)

To the prior of Lanston (Launceston), in the diocese of Exeter. Mandate to confirm to William de la Haye, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the Benedictine priory of Tywardrayth, dependent on no monastery, and value 7*l.* of which he is canon, and which he obtained by collation of the bishop of Exeter on its voidance by the death of William Bouges, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope, or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. The confirmation is to be subject to the condition that William was not a member of the papal household.

3 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 66.)

To John Welle, a Friar Minor, S.T.M. Conferring on him the dignity of papal chaplain.

[Wadding, Annales Minorum, viii. 533.]

2 Non. May.

Avignon.
(f. 69*d.*)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents, who, on the principal feasts of the year, and the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms to the chapel of the Trinitarian hospital of Matyndenne, in the diocese of Canterbury.

Non. Mar.

Avignon.
(f. 76*d.*)

To Master Roger de Freton, canon of Salisbury, D.C.L., papal chaplain. Confirmation to him—who is also a papal auditor, and has canonries and prebends of Wilton and York, the deanery of Chichester, and expectation of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure of souls in Salisbury—of the canonry and prebend of Salisbury which he obtained on their voidance by the death of John de Donton, under provision by the present pope of a canonry in that church with expectation of a prebend, and now doubts whether they were not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the condition that John was not a member of the papal household.

5 Non. July.

Avignon.
(f. 77*d.*)

To Malachie Oconehvyn (O'Connor?). Dispensation, he being scholar of canon law, and of princely and knightly birth (de nobili prosapia principum et militum partium Ibernæ procreatus), canon of Elphin, and considering that his ancestors founded or endowed the greater part of the churches in the province of Tuam, to be promoted to any elective dignity short of the episcopal, in extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy, (i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls; (ii) to hold two compatible benefices, one having cure of souls, and the other being a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, in virtue of which second dispensation he holds his canonry of Elphin with reservation of a prebend.

5 Kal. Aug.

Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 79.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, and the feast of St. Bartholomew, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms to the church of St. Bartholomew, Breselee, in the diocese of Norwich.

1372.

1374.

4 Kal. Jan.

Avignon.

Anno 4.

(f. 80.)

To Richard de Burton, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield. Extension of the value of a benefice, in the gift of the bishop of London, value 20 marks with cure of souls, or 15 without, to 30 and 17½ marks respectively, provision thereof having been made to him by the present pope under the form for poor clerks, by letters addressed to William de Tyrlington, John Berking, and John Brynkelei, canons of London.

[Folios 80 and 81, anno 4, are wrongly bound here. Their contents, which are naturally not included in the Rubricæ of the present Register, do not, however, appear in those of Reg. cclxxxv.]

1372.

2 Id. June.

Avignon.

(f. 87.)

To Edward prince of Aquitaine, king Edward's eldest son. Indult to choose his confessor.

17 Kal. July.

Avignon.

(f. 90.)

To Nicholas de Chaddesden, canon of Lichfield. Mandate to confirm to Alan de Ditton, rector of St. Michael's, Stamford, if found fit after due examination in reading, construing, singing, and speaking Latin, the church of Audele, in the diocese of Lichfield, void by the death of Richard Compere. The preamble sums up the revocation by Urban V. Kal. Dec. anno 5 (1366), of all appropriations of priories and conventual dignities, of parish and rural churches and other benefices with or without cure of souls, made to cathedral churches and monasteries, and to episcopal and abbatial mensæ, which at the said date had not taken effect [See f. 176]. Nevertheless the Cistercian abbot and convent of Hulton in the same diocese, under pretext of an appropriation of the said church (which appropriation at the time of the said revocation had not yet taken effect), took possession of it, with consent of the bishop, by whom they caused a perpetual vicar to be instituted. Notwithstanding which, William archbishop of Canterbury, to whom by its long voidance the said church had lapsed according to the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, gave it to Alan, who doubts whether it was not specially reserved to the pope, or lapsed to him by the said statutes. Alan has not yet obtained possession of St. Michael's, which, on obtaining Audele, he is bound to resign. The mandate is subject to the usual condition that Richard was not a member of the papal household.

9 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.

(f. 92.)

To John Litha, or Liche, canon of Glasgow. Rehabilitation on account of his not having been ordained priest within a year after obtaining possession of the church of Hauwik, in the same diocese. He is to resign the church.

14 Kal. April.

Avignon.

(f. 93d.)

To Thomas, son of Ralph earl of Stafford, rector of Farlingbregghe, in the diocese of Winchester, D.C.L. Dispensation to hold in addition a dignity or personatus with or without cure of souls, and to exchange the same, as well as his church, 1372.

for two other compatible benefices; the cure of souls being always provided for.

14 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 93.)

To Roger Dawe, or Dalbe, canon of Wells. Grant to retain, upon obtaining possession, together with his canonry and prebend of Wells, the church of Wely in the diocese of Salisbury, provision of which, then void, granted by the present pope, was declared null by the terms of a further provision also by the present pope of a benefice, value 25 marks with cure of souls, or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, chapter, and each and singular of the canons of Salisbury. The benefice to be held along with the said church of Wely is to be without cure of souls. Roger is scholar of civil law.

4 Id. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 92.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, visit the church of St. Mary the Virgin, Chester le Street (Cestrie in Strata), where the body of St. Cuthbert rested for over a hundred years.

8 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 105d.)

To the bishops of St. Andrews, Glasgow, and Aberdeen. Mandate to cause to be observed the pope's confirmation [Reg. cclxxxii. f. 139d.], dated Avignon, Kal. Jan. anno 1, of which exemplification is given, of the restoration to the bishops of Scotland by the late king David, with consent of his nephew Robert, now king of Scotland, then steward of the realm and earl of Strathearn (Strathne), and others, of their right to dispose of their personal property by will. [Reg. Episcop. Aberdeen: Spalding Club, II. 122, with date Id. Jan. Theiner 346, from Avignon Reg. xv. f. 292; a brief analysis. See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 39.]

9 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 107.)

To John Omachan, of the diocese of Achonry. Dispensation in extension of a former dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls, so that he may accept also an elective dignity short of the episcopal. John is by both his parents of noble race, and is scholar of canon and civil law.

5 Id. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 110d.)

To William bishop of Carpentras, papal nuncio. Power, during his mission to France and England, to grant dispensations to twelve men and as many women who have married in ignorance that they were related in the fourth degree of kindred and affinity, declaring past and future offspring legitimate. [As above, Reg. cclxiv. f. 196.]

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to commute vows, those of religion, continence, and pilgrimage to Jerusalem, Rome, and Santiago excepted. [As above, ibid. f. 196d.]

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to appoint a fit priest to hear confessions and give absolutions under the power granted to himself, but which, by reason of the business of his mission, he is 1372.

unable to exercise, of hearing such confessions and giving such absolutions as may be heard and given by minor papal penitentiaries. [See f. 3d.]

Ibid.
(f. 111.)

To the same. Faculty to give the tonsure and to confirm persons during his mission in the said realms.

16 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 115.)

To William Hegehtredebury, canon of Chichester, master of theology. Confirmation to him of his canonry and prebend of Wygtheringe (Wittering), in the diocese of Chichester, tenable only by a master of theology, which he obtained by provision of bishop William on their voidance by the death of Simon de Bredon, and now doubts whether they were not reserved to the pope, or lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. William, who is also master of arts, has in addition canonries and prebends of Salisbury and Wyngham, the church of Scham (Otham) in the diocese of Canterbury, and expectation under provision of the present pope of an elective dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure of souls, in Salisbury. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Simon was not a member of the papal household. [See Reg. cclxxxiv. f. 121d.]

5 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 124d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms to the parish church of St. Mary the Virgin, Opusaye [Opusaye in Rubric] (Hopesay), in the diocese of Hereford.

7 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 123.)

The like relaxation, with the additional relaxation of a hundred days in respect of the said octaves and six days, in favour of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the parish church of All Saints, Bekingham in the Clay [Bokyngham only, in Rubric].

4 Non. July.
Avignon.
(f. 126.)

The like relaxation, as above, f. 124d, with the addition of the feast of St. Martin, in favour of the chapel of St. Martin-le-Grand, London.

6 Non. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 128.)

To William Laing, vicar of Fluin in the diocese of Aberdeen. Confirmation to him of the said vicarage, which on its voidance by the death of David de Ameco he obtained by collation of the abbot and convent of Aberbrothoch (Arbroath), by virtue of a provision by the present pope under the form for poor clerks of a benefice in their gift with or without cure of souls in the city or diocese of Aberdeen, and now doubts whether it was not specially reserved to the pope, or, by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, lapsed to the bishop. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that David was not a member of the papal household.

16 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 126.)

To Thomas, son of Richard earl of Arundel, archdeacon of Taunton in the church of Wells. Dispensation, at the petition also of Charles king of Navarre, enabling him 1372.

(who is in his twentieth year or thereabouts, and holds by papal dispensation his archdeaconry of Taunton, and in addition canonries and prebends of Chichester, Hereford, and Shaftesbury, the free chapel of the castle of Exeter, and a canonry of York, with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office) to hold together with his archdeaconry another benefice incompatible therewith, even though with cure of souls, and even though a dignity or personatus in a metropolitan or cathedral church, and to exchange one or both of them for other and similarly incompatible benefices; provided always that the cure of souls therein be not neglected.

3 Non. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 136d.)

To James cardinal deacon of St. George's in Velabro. Indult for five years from the date of these presents to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in his archdeaconry of Leicester, and to receive procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver gros Tournois at the rate of 12 to the gold florin of Florence. The pope's intention is that those whose means cannot support payment in full, and those who cannot pay at all, are not to be compelled.

Ibid.
(f. 137.)

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of St. Mary's, Leicester, the dean of London, and another named, out of England.

9 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 142.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a hundred and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, in any year visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin over the north door of the church of Hereford. If similar indulgence, not yet expired, has been granted by the present pope, the present letters shall have no force.

2 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 142d.)

To Edward king of England. Indult to choose his confessor.

16 Kal. July.
Avignon.
(f. 148.)

To Laurence Gra, clerk, of York, B.C.L. Further extension of the value of a benefice in the gift of the bishop of Durham, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, to 40 and 30 marks respectively (an extension to 30 and 25 marks respectively having been already granted), provision thereof having been made to him by the present pope, as to which provision Laurence doubts whether, owing to the high taxation of the benefices in the said gift and to the multitude of expectants, it will not be useless. [See f. 156.]

4 Id. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 151d.)

To the abbot of Tintern, in the diocese of Llandaff. Mandate to confirm to Thomas de Braundeston, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the precentorship of Llandaff, a dignity with cure of souls, value 8 marks 7s. 8d. which he obtained by provision of bishop Roger, on its voidance by the death of Philip Euyas, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope, or lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council.

1372.

4 Non. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 156.)

To Laurence Gra, clerk, of York, B.C.L. Further extension, for the same reasons as before, from 40 and 30 marks by former letters (above, f. 148), of the value of his benefice in the gift of the bishop of Durham to 60 and 40 marks respectively.

7 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 160.)

To the abbot and convent of the Benedictine monastery of Kilwenyne (Kilwinning) in the diocese of Glasgow. Confirmation of the grant made to them under sealed letters patent by John de Mentheth (Menteith) lord of Aran, of the patronage of St. Mary and St. Brigid, in that island, and by John Maxwell lord of Maxwell, of the patronage of Liberton, in the dioceses of Sodor and Glasgow respectively. [Theiner, 347.]

Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 162.)

To John de Brompton (Brampton in Rubrice), rector of St. Dunstan's West (Sancti Aunstani West in text, Sancti Dunstani West in Rubrice), London. Licence to retain the same, value 15 pounds petits Tournois, together with the additional benefice in the gift of the archbishop of Canterbury, not being in a cathedral church, value 20 marks with cure of souls, or 15 without, which he is to receive by provision of the present pope under the form for poor clerks, notwithstanding that by the terms of that provision he was bound to resign his rectory.

7 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 169.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms for the repair of the Premonstratensian monastery of St. Mary, Cockersand (Cockersand), in the diocese of York, situated so near the sea that the walls built for the preservation of its buildings are being worn away and destroyed by the waves. The pope strictly forbids these letters to be sent by collectors; if this be attempted, they are invalid. Moreover, if similar indulgence, not yet expired, have been granted by the pope, the present letters shall have no force. [See Reg. ccxxiv. f. 105d.]

12 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 171.)

To Richard Northe of Waldneuton, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, B.C.L. Confirmation of the church of St. Mary, Wayne-flete, which he obtained on its voidance by the death of William de Askobi, who, it is asserted, was a papal chaplain.

16 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 172.)

To Edward prince of Aquitaine and Wales, and Joan his wife. Indult that their chaplains or other fit priests, regular and secular, whom they may choose, shall hear their confessions and those of their household.

Ibid.

To Robert de Walscham (Walsham), canon of Salisbury. Indult in extension of (i) the provision by Urban V. of a canonry of York with reservation of a prebend, he holding already a canonry and prebend of Salisbury, the deanery of the chapel of the castle of Wallingford, without cure of souls, and the parish church of Haslewe, in the diocese of Lincoln, a condition of the provision being his resignation of this church upon obtaining the said canonry and prebend of York; (ii) the dispensation of the same pope to hold two benefices with cure 1372.

of souls; (iii) the indult of the same pope to retain, notwithstanding the above condition, his church of Haselee upon obtaining the said canonry and prebend of York, which indult forbade him (as did already the letters of dispensation) to hold together with the said two benefices with cure of souls more than one other benefice, even though a canonry and prebend, and ordered him to resign all others. The present indult enables him to hold, together with the said two incompatible benefices and the said benefice without cure of souls, two other benefices without cure of souls. [See Reg. cclii. f. 134.]

- 17 [Kal.] Jan. To John Marescalli, rector of Swepston, in the diocese of Avignon. Lincoln. Dispensation, he being already dispensed on account
(f. 174d.) of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls, so that he may now hold an additional compatible benefice, and exchange both. [Fœdera.]

- 6 Id. Nov. To Laurence Gra of York, B.C.L. Grant to him, who is, as Avignon. he asserts, of the nobler blood (de nobiliori genere), of the (f. 175.) whole city of York that the latest letters of extension (f. 156) shall apply to one of a number of principal dignities, with cure of souls, in certain collegiate churches, formerly parish churches, of which dignities there are a number in the gift of the bishop of Durham; provided the value do not exceed 60 marks.

- 15 Kal. Jan. Annotation (presentibus annotari fecimus) from the register Avignon. of Urban V., with exemplification, of the revocation by that (f. 176.) pope, under date Avignon, Kal. Dec. anno 5 (1366) [in Wilkins, Conc. III. 65], to the end that the cure of souls be not neglected nor divine worship diminished, of all unions and appropriations, which have not yet taken effect, and of all powers, faculties, and mandates to make such unions, of priories and conventual dignities, personatus, offices, parish and rural churches, and other benefices secular and regular, with or without cure of souls, exempt or not exempt, to cathedral churches, monasteries, episcopal and abbatial mense or other benefices whatsoever, by papal, ordinary, or other authority; with inhibition during ten years from the said date to ordinaries and others to make such unions and incorporations.

- 14 Kal. Sept. To the official of Canterbury. Mandate to confirm to John Villeneuve by de Wodehult, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, if found fit
Avignon. after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Orpington,
(f. 182.) which he obtained by provision of archbishop William on its voidance by the death of Nicholas called 'Registrator,' and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. The confirmation is to be subject to the usual condition that Nicholas was not a member of the papal household.

- 3 Kal. June. To the official of Ely. The like mandate in regard to Pont de Sorgues. Stephen Roche, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, who ex-
(f. 182d.) changed a moiety of Bysele in that diocese with Roger de Wodenorton for Feny Ditton in the diocese of Ely, by authority of John bishop of Ely, who had power from William bishop of Worcester to receive the resignation of Bysele, Stephen now doubting whether Fený Ditton was not reserved to the pope.

1372.

4 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 187.)

To John Godmaston, rector of Houghton, in the diocese of Winchester, B.C.L. Confirmation to him of that church, which he obtained under provision by the present pope of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the gift of the bishop, on its voidance by the death of John Wychforde, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope.

3 Id. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 187d.)

To Simon Bate, canon of Wilton in the diocese of Salisbury. Confirmation to him, who holds also the canonry and prebend of Cropperie (Cropredy) in Lincoln and the parish church of Peccham in the diocese of Chichester, of his canonry and prebend of Chalk in Wilton which he obtained by provision of the present pope upon their voidance by the death of John Blebuyrri, and now doubts whether they were not specially reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that John was not a member of the papal household.

9 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 188d.)

To Roger de Barneburgh (Bartneburgh in Rubrice), rector of Retynghdon, in the diocese of London. Extension to 40 marks of the value of a benefice in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham, value 30 marks with cure of souls, or 20 without, which he was to receive, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, under a mandate addressed by the present pope to the archbishop of Canterbury, by which mandate Roger has no hope of benefiting owing to the multitude of expectants and the excessive taxations of such benefices; notwithstanding that he has Retynghdon, and a canonry and prebend of All Saints, Derby. Retynghdon is to be resigned, as was also ordered by the original letters, on obtaining such benefice with cure of souls.

Non. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 190f.)

To Robert Bays, clerk, of the diocese of Wells. Dispensation (he being already dispensed on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls) to hold a benefice with cure of souls, notwithstanding that he is in his twenty-first year, and to exchange the same once, provided that the cure of souls be not neglected, but be exercised by a good and sufficient vicar, and that Robert be ordained as soon as he arrive at the lawful age. [See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 189d.]

7 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 201.)

To Laurence Genevese, canon of Exeter. Confirmation to him, who is scholar of canon law and holds the church of Lantent, in the same diocese, of his two successive letters of provision by the present pope, (i) of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the gift of the bishop of Exeter; (ii) of a canonry of Exeter with reservation of a prebend, the value of the canonries and prebends of which church does not by common estimation, as he asserts, exceed 40s.; notwithstanding that in the second letters it was ordered that by whichever of 1372.

the two letters he should obtain such canonry and prebend, the remaining letters should be null and void.

4 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 205.)

To Duncan Petit, archdeacon of Whitehern. Indult of non-residence for five years while studying and lecturing on civil law at an university, notwithstanding that he holds the said archdeaconry, and provided that its duties be not neglected.

3 Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 205.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, and the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, annually visit and give alms for the restoration of the church of the Augustinian priory of Sinstede (Swinstead), in the diocese of Lincoln, which has been destroyed by fire.

13 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 207d.)

To Joan princess of Wales. Indult (in extension of a former indult hereby annulled to enter once a month monasteries of enclosed nuns with twenty honest women, and to eat therein thrice a year) to enter the same with six honest and aged men and fourteen honest women, and to eat and drink, but not pass the night therein.

16 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 210d.)

To John de Cohutzt (Colyntz in Rubrice), clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, M.A. Extension to 40 marks of the value of a benefice with cure of souls in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of Peterborough, provision of which was made to him, if found fit after examination, by mandate addressed to the bishop of London. John is scholar of theology.

Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 214d.)

Modification of the indult granted by Innocent VI. to the late Robert master-general of the order of Sempryngham, immediately belonging to the pope and the Roman church, and to his successors, (i) to use at divine offices the mitre, pastoral staff, ring, sandals, and other pontifical insignia; (ii) after mass and vespers to give benediction to the people in priories and other places subject to the said master, provided that no bishop (antistes) or papal legate be present; (iii) to bless the nuns of the order in the said places. A dispute has arisen respecting pope Innocent's indult, which John bishop of Lincoln has declared to be forged and surreptitiously obtained, but which William, Robert's successor, has asserted to be true and sealed by the true leaden bull of that pope. Upon the report therefore of an inquest committed to Peter cardinal priest of St. Anastasia's, and Peter cardinal deacon of St. Eustace's, whilst the two parties were at the Roman court, the pope now modifies the indult in certain of its headings (capitulis): (i) William shall use the mitre, pastoral staff, ring, sandals, and other pontifical insignia during his life: his successors shall use the ring perpetually, and the other insignia only on certain principal feasts and that of St. Gilbert; (ii) the heading respecting the benediction of the nuns is revoked, but it is ordered that the diocesans when they come to monasteries of the order for that purpose at the request of the master-general shall receive for each procuration due to them not more than a single meal or its value according to the constitution of Benedict XII. beginning Vas electionis [Wilkins, Conc. II. 578; Extrav. Com. iii. 10]; if the diocesans refuse to come when duly required the nuns may be blessed by another catholic bishop (antistitem) in communion with the Roman see.

1372.

16 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 235d.)

To the bishop of Argyle. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, and if fitting, to grant a dispensation to Colin Cambel, donsel, and Mary Cambel, damsel, of his diocese—who, knowing that they were related in the fourth degree of kindred, intermarried, not in contempt of the keys, but in order to mitigate the discord between their families—to marry anew, after being separated for such a time as shall seem expedient, and to remain in the marriage so contracted. Their offspring, past and future, is to be declared legitimate. [See Reg. cclv. f. 36d.]

Ibid.
(f. 236.)

To the same. Mandate, following the precedent of a declaration by Clement VI. in a similar case of omission, to execute the above letters, although there is no mention in them that the said Colin and Mary were related, as stated in their petition, in the third as well as the fourth degree of kindred.

Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 237d.)

To Robert Braybrok, rector of Colmorth (Colmworth) in the diocese of Lincoln, B.C.L. Dispensation to him, who holds also a canonry and prebend of York, and has expectation, by provision of the pope, of a benefice with cure in the gift of the bishop of Ely, to hold together with his said parish church a dignity or personatus, even if with cure of souls and in a cathedral church; provided that the cure of souls in neither his parish church nor in such dignity or personatus be neglected.

DE CURIA.

16 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 237d.)

To the prior of St. Martin des Champs, Paris, and the officials of Avignon and London. Mandate to cause to be provided until Kal. July next to Bertrand de Veyraco, donsel, member of the pope's household, by prelates and other clergy, secular and regular, procurations of two gold florins a day for his mission, and safe-conduct for him or his envoy from and to the pope, the former mandate to them, to a similar effect, holding good only until Kal. June. [As above, Reg. cclxiv. f. 109d, with Veyraco for Vayraco.]

12 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 239.)

To prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to provide during four months from these presents three gold florins of the camera a day, in addition to the twelve ordered by a former mandate to be provided, for the purposes of his mission, which is not yet finished, to William bishop of Carpentras, papal nuncio to France and England. Not only the prelates and clergy of the places in which the nuncio may chance to be shall contribute, but also those of the neighbouring cities and dioceses, in order that the burden may be distributed and more easily supported. [See f. 253, and Reg. cclxiv. f. 166.]

1372.

4 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 252.)

To prelates and other clergy, secular and regular, at Paris. Mandate to assist with counsels and otherwise Raymund abbot of Conques and Giles Sancier Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.L. papal nuncios, who are being sent to those parts on a mission concerning ecclesiastical liberty, and to whom full credence may be given.

7 Id. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 253.)

To prelates and other clergy, secular and regular. Mandate to continue the procurations of William bishop of Carpentras, (extended as above, f. 239) to fifteen florins of the camera, his mission being not yet finished.

REGESTA, VOL CCLXXXIV.

3 GREGORY XI.

DE INDULTIS, PRIVILEGIIS, ET DISPENSATIONIBUS.

1373.

18 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 10.)

To the bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate to confirm, if the facts be as stated, the donation made by the late king Robert [I. Bruce] to the abbot and convent of Dunfermline—where the bodies of some of the kings of Scotland are buried, and which the said king Robert chose as the place of his own burial—and carried out by bishop William, with consent of the chapter of St. Andrews, a vicar's portion of 45 marks being assigned by him, of the church of Kynros and chapel of Urwellis, the said church and chapel having since their voidance been possessed for forty years and more by the abbot and convent, who have now petitioned for confirmation of the said donation. Exemplification is given of the appropriation by bishop William de Lambirthon, dated at Dunfermline, Friday (9 Dec.) after the feast of St. Nicholas, bishop and confessor, 1317; and of king Robert's donation, dated at Dunfermline, 16 Nov. anno 9 (1314).

3 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 21.)

To John Malteby, vicar of Aulton (Alton), in the diocese of Winchester. Indult of non-residence for three years while studying canon law at an university, provided that the cure of souls be not neglected.

12 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 32d.)

To John abbot of Mellifont in the diocese of Armagh. Confirmation to him, who was a monk of that monastery and in priest's orders, of the office of abbot of the same, which became void by the death of abbot John, and of which he obtained possession two years ago under provision made to him by John abbot of Cîteaux, the father abbot (pater abbas)

1373.

John now doubts whether the said provision was not generally or specially reserved to the pope.

14 Kal. March.

Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To John de Cliford, canon of York, licentiate of civil law. Confirmation to him (who holds the church of Kirkby Misperton in the diocese of York, has provision by the present pope of a canonry of York with reservation of a prebend, and has also expectation of a benefice, value 40 marks with cure of souls, or 30 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham) of the canonry of Auckland and the prebend of West Merington which he accepted under a provision by Urban V. of a canonry of Auckland with expectation of a prebend, during the lifetime of that pope, on their voidance by the resignation, made to Thomas bishop of Durham, of Richard de Castro Bernardi. John de Popham, of the diocese of London, has intruded himself into the said prebend by authority of the ordinary, and a suit is pending in the papal palace; John de Cliford further doubts whether the said prebend was not specially reserved to the pope, and whether it did not become void otherwise than in the aforesaid way. The confirmation is subject to the usual conditions that the prebend of Auckland was due to him in turn (ex ordine) and that the said Richard was not a member of the papal household.

5 Kal. March.

Avignon.
(f. 41d.)

To John Penrys, subdeacon, of the diocese of Lismore. Rehabilitation (he having been dispensed by Thomas bishop of Lismore to retain his vicarage of Clomell for seven years while studying at an university), on account of his having during that time, on the failure of his money, returned to his vicarage, and resided there for a year and three months or thereabouts without being ordained priest, after which he returned again to his university, where he has studied civil law for three years and canon law for two. He is to resign the vicarage.

17 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 52d.)

To Joan princess of Wales. Indult to choose her confessor, who may commute her vows, those of continence and pilgrimage alone excepted. [See Reg. cclv. f. 22.]

17 Kal. July.

Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 61.)

To John de Thoresby, provost of Beverley, D.C.L. Confirmation to him (who holds canonries and prebends of York and Ripon, and the church of Lilleford in the diocese of Lincoln with expectation under a provision of the present pope of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham) of his provostship of Beverley, which he obtained by provision of archbishop John on its voidance by Adam de Lymborg, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Adam was not a member of the papal household. Upon obtaining possession of his provostship the church of Lilleford is to be resigned, and the said letters of provision are, as regards a benefice with cure of souls, to be null and void.

1373.

5 Kal. May.

Avignon.
(f. 62.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to confirm to Roger de Denford, priest, of the diocese of Rochester, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the archdeaconry of Rochester, value 15 marks, which he obtained by provision of the late bishop Thomas on its voidance by the resignation of William de Navesby, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope or void in some other way. The mandate is subject to the usual condition that William was not a member of the papal household.

3 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 63d.)

To the bishop of Argyle. Mandate to inform himself, and, if fitting, to absolve from excommunication incurred, and grant a dispensation to Duncan son of Walter Aulani donsel, and Elena, daughter of Gillespat Cambel donsel, of the dioceses of Glasgow and Argyle, to recontract marriage after being separated for such time as shall seem expedient, they having intermarried knowing that John de Insulis, Elena's former husband, was related to Duncan in the third and fourth degrees of kindred. Their offspring, past and future, is to be declared legitimate. [Theiner, 348.]

2 Id. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 63d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to confirm to Thomas Neweman, priest, of the diocese of Chichester, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Middelavanete (Mid Lavant) in that diocese, to which on its voidance by the death of Thomas Wampoul he was instituted by bishop William on the presentation of John prior and the convent of Schelbrede (Shulbred), and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. The mandate is subject to the usual condition that Wampoul was not a member of the papal household.

4 Non. July.

Avignon.
(f. 67.)

To the bishop of Llandaff. Mandate (if it appears that the bishop of Sodor gave licence to the prior provincial and Friars Minors of the province of Ireland—in accordance with a mandate of Urban V. on petition of the said prior and friars, and of William de Monteacuto, earl of Salisbury, addressed to that pope setting forth that the order had no place in the diocese of Sodor—to accept land given by the said earl in the parish of St. Columba in the isle of Man, and to build thereon a church or oratory, with bell-turret, cemetery, and dwelling-houses) to consecrate the said buildings himself, or to cause them to be consecrated by some other catholic bishop (pontificem) in communion with the apostolic see, the bishop of Sodor being so distant that he cannot conveniently go thither for the purpose. [See Reg. celviii. f. 156.]

[Wadding, Annales Minorum, viii. 549.]

12 Kal. Aug.

Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 69.)

To the official of Worcester. Mandate to confirm to William de Thirforde (Thirforde in Kubrice), canon of Salisbury, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the archdeaconry of Gloucester, value 46 marks, which he obtained from bishop William, acting by his own authority and that of William archbishop of Canterbury, to whom the collation of the church of St. Michael, Crooked Lane, London, belongs, in exchange with Roger Perer for the said church; William, who is in priest's orders and holds by provision of the present pope a canonry of Salisbury with expectation of a prebend, doubts whether the archdeaconry was not reserved to the pope. The mandate is subject to the usual condition that Roger was not a member of the papal household.

1373.

17 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 72d.)

To Andrew Cheminelli, treasurer of Vannes (Venetensis), licentiate in canon law. Confirmation to him of the said treasurership, which he obtained by provision of bishop Geoffrey [de Rohan] on its voidance by Richard Canadoc, who was also rector of Curre Malet in the diocese of Wells, obtaining in addition the church of Wardellay in the diocese of Exeter; Andrew doubts whether the treasurership was not specially reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Richard was not a member of the papal household.

9 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 78d.)

To William cardinal priest of St. Stephen's on the Caelian. Indult for five years to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in his archdeaconry of Taunton in the church of Wells, and to receive procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver [*gro*s] Tournois at the rate of 12 to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Exeter, the abbot of Glastonbury, and the dean of St. Agricolus, Avignon.

Id. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 79.)

To Thomas, son of Richard earl of Arundel, archdeacon of Taunton in the church of Wells. Dispensation to him, being in his twenty-first year, to accept the see of Ely, provision of which the pope intends this day to give him.

17 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 79.)

To Thomas, elect of Ely. Faculty to him, who has received provision of that see, to be ordained deacon and priest and consecrated bishop even on one and the same day by any catholic bishop (antistite) of his choice, assisted by two or three catholic bishops (episcopis), without prejudice to the right of the metropolitan.

6 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 81.)

Confirmation of the foundation and endowment by Archibald de Douglas, lord of Galloway (Galwydia) in the diocese of Glasgow, of a poor hospital with a chapel to which he has given, among other property, a house of his within the limits of the Premonstratensian monastery of Holywood (Sacri memorie) in that diocese. The confirmation made by Walter bishop of Glasgow is hereby also confirmed.

6 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 86d.)

To Edmund Strete, canon of Chichester B.C.L. Confirmation of a provision by the present pope of a benefice in the gift of the bishop of Ely, value 35 marks with cure of souls, or 18 without, made to him notwithstanding that he held the church of Merlaw in the diocese of Lincoln and the canonry and prebend of Waltham in Chichester, value, as stated in the 1373.

letters of provision, 10 marks and 100s. respectively. He received subsequently provision also of a canonry of Lincoln, with reservation of a prebend, notwithstanding the same circumstances; and the first-named letters of provision were afterwards extended to a benefice value 40 marks, and then to a benefice value 60 [See Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 50d.]. The present confirmation of these original letters is made notwithstanding that at the date thereof he was not yet bachelor of civil law, which after eight years' study he now is; notwithstanding also that the value of the said church and of the canonry and prebend of Waltham was not 10 marks and 100s. but 50 and 15 marks respectively. Merlaw is, as was ordered in the said original letters, to be resigned upon obtaining such benefice.

18 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 88.)

To the chancellor of Paris. Mandate to confirm to William de Spyny, priest, of the diocese of Moray, bachelor of canon law, M.A. who has lectured in canon law at Paris, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the collation and provision of the precentorship (precentoriam) of Moray and the canonry and prebend annexed thereto, which he obtained by exchange with William Boyl for canonries and prebends of Moray and Caithness and the chantership (cantoriam) of Aberdeen, and now doubts whether his precentorship and canonry and prebend were not reserved to the pope. The mandate is subject to the usual condition that William Boyl was not a member of the papal household.

7 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 92.)

To John Aberkordor, vicar of Aberdeen in the diocese of Aberdeen. Confirmation of the mandate of the present pope to the official of Moray to give him, if found fit after examination in Latin, a benefice with cure of souls, or without cure of souls if he were found unable to sing Latin and did not swear to learn, in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of Aberbrothoc (Arbroath), notwithstanding that he had a perpetual chaplaincy of Moray; his petition, on which the present confirmation is made, containing that at the time of the said mandate he held, not the chaplaincy of Moray, but the vicarage of Aberdeen, of which vicarage no mention was made in his original petition. The vicarage is, as John has offered, to be resigned upon obtaining such benefice.

2 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 92d.)

To Robert cardinal priest of the basilica of the Twelve Apostles. Indult for five years, as above to William cardinal of St. Stephen's on the Cælian, f. 78d, to visit by deputy his archdeaconry of Dorchester in the church of Salisbury.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Rochester, the abbot of Glastonbury, and another named out of England.

3 Non. April.
Avignon.
(f. 93d.)

To Walter de Westhale, canon of Southwell. Confirmation of the canonry and prebend which he obtained on their voidance by the death of William Ratforthe, under provision of the present pope of a canonry of that church with expectation of a 1373.

prebend, and now doubts whether they were not specially reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the conditions that the prebend was his in due turn, and that William was not a member of the papal household.

6 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 103d.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms to the chapel of Oth (Worth), in the parish of Kinges Aller, in the diocese of Bath, which needs repair. The pope strictly forbids these present letters to be sent by collectors; if this be attempted they are invalid (presentibus post viginti annos minime vulturis, quas mitti per questuarios districtius inhibemus, eas si secus attemptatum fuerit carere viribus decernentes). Moreover, if similar indulgence, not yet expired, have been granted by the pope, the present letters shall have no force. [For similar clauses see Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 169.]

6 Kal. Sept.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 111.)

To Thomas de Aston, canon of Wells, bachelor of canon law. Grant to him, who is chaplain of Simon cardinal of St. Sixtus, and holds the church of Wardebois in the diocese of Lincoln, to retain his canonry and prebend of Wells, value 6 marks, notwithstanding that upon the provision made to him by the present pope of a canonry of London with reservation of a prebend taking effect he was bound to resign them.

16 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 113d.)

To Richard Mitthes of Thornburgh, vicar of Little Marlow (Parva Merlow), in the diocese of Lincoln. Dispensation to him—who is already dispensed on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls, under which dispensation he holds the said vicarage, value 5 marks—to hold and exchange an additional compatible benefice, even in a cathedral church.

7 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 121.)

Relaxation, during twenty years, of two years and two quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the three feasts of St. James the Great, St. Nicholas, and the Invention of Holy Cross, in honour of which three the church was founded, and the feast of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms for the repair of the church of the Benedictine nuns of Henyngham in the diocese of London. The indulgence to the same effect, lately granted by the pope, the letters for which have not yet been drawn up, is declared null and void.

4 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 121d.)

Decree, whereby the ordinance of Urban V. dated 12 Kal. April anno 3 (1365) shall have force from that day, although that pope's letters touching the same were not drawn up (minime confectis). The petition to Urban V. of William bishop of Worcester, then bishop of Chichester, stated that although Boniface archbishop of Canterbury, with consent of the bishop, dean, and 1373.

chapter of Chichester, ordained that the canonry and prebend of Wystryng (Wittering) should be always given by the bishop to none but a regent in theology who should take an oath to lecture in theology at fitting times, that the collation if made to any one not a theologian should be null, and that the person to whom such collation was made should lose the profits of the prebend; and that although the said archbishop's ordinance had been duly observed of old time, nevertheless the said prebend has been held, under pretext of papal provisions of canonries of Chichester with expectations of prebends, by some who were not theologians, to wit, by the late Michael de No[r]thburgo in the first case, and next by Simon de Bredon, who held it at the time of the said petition, so that the lectureship in theology was defrauded. The ordinance of Urban V. is now confirmed, provided, in accordance with that of archbishop Boniface, that the said prebend should be tenable only by such expectants as were masters in theology. [See Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 115.]

2 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 123d.)

To John Bouryng, priest, of the diocese of Rochester. Extension to 60 marks (an extension of the value of such benefice with cure of souls having been already granted, f. 124) of the value of a benefice reserved to him by the present pope, in the common or several gift of the archbishop, prior, and chapter of Canterbury, value 30 marks with cure of souls, or 18 without.

7 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 124.)

To the same. Extension to 40 marks of the value of such benefice with cure of souls.

4 Non. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 127.)

To William Pakyngton, rector of Ivengho, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation to him of the said church, which he obtained by collation of the bishop of Winchester on its voidance by the death of James de Florentia, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope, or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that James was not a member of the papal household.

14 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 127d.)

To the bishop of Meath. Mandate to make order in the cause between Matthew Crompt and Hugh cardinal of St. Mary's in Porticu, about the archdeaconry of Meath, concerning which divers sentences have been given in behalf of the cardinal in the papal palace, but have not been executed; nor can the cardinal, by reason of the distance, the dangers of the roads and the wars which have raged in these parts, conveniently govern the said archdeaconry, either by himself or by another. Matthew is to be put in possession of the archdeaconry, and is to pay the cardinal from its revenues a yearly pension, under penalties, through the papal camera. On Matthew's death the cardinal's pension is to be paid by his successor. [See Reg. cclxiv. f. 210^v, d.]

17 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 128d.)

To John de Tytheshorst, canon of the priory of St. Mary Magdalen, Cumbewelle, in the diocese of Canterbury. Indult to enjoy all privileges, favours, exemptions, liberties, and 1373.

immunities belonging to the office of papal chaplain, which was lately conferred upon him.

6 Non. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 130d.)

To the bishop of St. Davids. Mandate to absolve from excommunication incurred, and to grant a dispensation to Philip Lippe and Agnes his wife, after separation for a fitting time, to recontract the marriage which they made in ignorance that they were related in the fourth degree of kindred. Their past and future offspring is to be declared legitimate.

8 Id. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 131.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to inform himself of the fitness of John, natural son of John Haukewod knight, scholar, of the diocese of London, and to dispense him on account of illegitimacy, provided he be not an imitator of his father's incontinency, to be ordained and hold and exchange any compatible benefices soever with and without cure of souls, of any number, and of any kind whatsoever, even canonries and prebends or elective dignities, personatus, or offices in cathedral or metropolitan churches, even major dignities below the pontifical in cathedrals, or principal dignities in collegiate churches.

5 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 132d.)

To Pileus archbishop of Ravenna, papal nuncio. Faculty to dispense forty persons of the realms of France and England on account of illegitimacy, as the sons of priests, or born of adultery, to be ordained and hold a benefice apiece with cure of souls.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty during his mission to dispense twenty men and as many women of the said realms who are related to one another in the fourth degree of kindred or affinity to intermarry.

Ibid.

To the same. Power during his mission to grant plenary remission at the hour of death to members of his household and others engaged in his service.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty during his mission to dispense ecclesiastics, secular and regular, who have contracted irregularity by receiving orders and ministering therein (se immiscuerint illis) while excommunicate.

Ibid.

To the same. Power during his mission to absolve, provided they make full satisfaction, forty inhabitants of the said realms who have incurred sentence of excommunication by laying violent hands on clerks and ecclesiastics.

14 Kal. Oct.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(f. 132d.)

To Nicholas, Augustinian abbot of Holy Cross, Waltham. Faculty, on account of the scarcity of priests in his monastery by reason of the plague which lately raged in those parts, to dispense twelve canons of the monastery, aged twenty, to be ordained priests.

12 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 132.)

To Edmund de Mortuo Mari, earl of March and Ulster. Indult to enter once a month, with fifteen honest persons, houses of religious men, and of religious women four times a year.

1373.

4 Non. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 153d.)

To William de Attelburgh (William Wotis de Attelburgh in Rubrice), clerk, of the diocese of Norwich. Rehabilitation on account of his having, when in his twenty-second year, obtained the church of Great Elyngham, in the diocese of Norwich, void by the death of Ralph, on the presentation of Alexander de Elyngham, donsel, the patron, and institution by bishop Thomas. William, who has now completed his twenty-fifth year, is to resign the church, which he still holds.

17 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 154d.)

To Peter de Den, rector of St. Thomas's, Wynchelsee. Dispensation to exchange the said church, which he, under a papal dispensation to exchange once, obtained in exchange for the church of Wodeton, in the diocese of Canterbury, held by him under a previous dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls. The benefice which he may receive under the present dispensation he may exchange as often as he will.

13 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 159d.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, on the petition of William de Burton, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln, to erect into a collegiate church the parish church of Little Casterton, value 15 marks, of which he is patron, and to appropriate and unite the same to the college which the knight has already by papal authority founded and endowed in a certain ancient chapel near his manor of Tholthorp, within the bounds of the said parish. The present master and college, retaining all their privileges, are to be transferred from the chapel to the collegiate church thus erected, and the bishop is to make statutes for them, saving the rights of the bishop for the time being, and of the knight and his heirs and successors, patrons thereof. The erection and appropriation are to be made on the death or resignation of the present rector, and the chapel with its cemetery is not to be desecrated, but served by a fit priest from the new college.

3 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 162d.)

To John Wake of Bleseworth, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of former dispensation on account of illegitimacy—to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure of souls—so that he may hold and exchange as often as he may wish two additional compatible benefices, one of which may be a dignity, personatus, or office with cure of souls, and the other a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church. It is further granted that in seeking future favours no mention of the said defect of birth need be made.

5 Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 163d.)

To Lewis ap Howel of Aber, rector of Trawsvynyth, in the diocese of Bangor. Dispensation for four years to remain subdeacon without being ordained deacon or priest, in order to enable him to proceed to the degree of D.C.L. for which he is reputed sufficiently fit, being in his thirty-second year, there being no doctor of civil law in that diocese, of which he is a native. The present dispensation is in extension of a former dispensation by the ordinary to remain subdeacon for seven years.

1373.

while studying letters at an university. The cure of souls in the said parish is not to be neglected.

Id. Dec.
Avignon.
(L. 166d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to grant a licence to Richard de Treton and John de Harlaston, priests; John Kinet, knight; and John de Breton, devesel; patrons of the parish church of Helpston, in the diocese of Lincoln, and executors of the will of Robert Thorp, knight, chancellor (cap^{an}) of king Edward—who proposed to found therein a chantry for three priests, one of them being warden—to found the same, to which when founded the bishop is at their petition to unite the said church, value 10*l*. The appropriation is to take effect on the resignation or death of the present rector.

7 Kal. Jan.
Avignon.
(L. 167.)

To John de Campeden, rector of Mehenyot (Meheniot), in the diocese of Exeter. Indult of non-residence for three years while studying civil law at an university, the cure of souls in the said church not being neglected.

13 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(L. 171d.)

To the official of Ely. Mandate to confirm to Thomas de Eltesle, priest, minor canon of Lincoln, bachelor of civil and canon law, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of the free chapel of Wolverhampton, obtained by him under the following circumstances. He received, under a mandate addressed to the same official by the present pope, provision of a canonry of Beverley, with reservation of a prebend, on getting possession of which he was bound to resign the church of Croxton, in the diocese of Ely. Before getting possession—which he has not yet got—he exchanged Croxton for Teversham in the same diocese with John de Croxton, by collation of the bishop. Afterwards he exchanged Teversham for the above-named canonry and prebend of the free chapel of Wolverhampton with William de Wynterton, by collation of the same bishop, who had special licence from Almeric dean of the said chapel. He is to hold the said canonry and prebend along with those of Beverley when he gets them, notwithstanding the resignation clause in the letters of provision.

7 Kal. Jun.
Avignon.
(L. 183.)

To John Wiclif, canon of Lincoln, master of theology. Grant to him, who holds also the church of Lugdgeraule, in the diocese of Lincoln, to retain, even after getting possession of a canonry and prebend of Lincoln—under a provision lately made to him by the pope of a canonry of Lincoln with reservation of a prebend—his canonry and prebend of [Aust in] Westbury, in the diocese of Worcester, notwithstanding that by the terms of the said provision he was bound to resign the same on obtaining the said canonry and prebend of Lincoln, possession of which he has not yet obtained. John, who is also M.A. became licentiate of theology soon (cito) after the date of the said letters of provision, and afterwards (demum) became master.

(f. 129.)

To the precentor of Dunkeld. Mandate to confirm to William de Pynkirtun, priest, of the diocese of St. Andrews, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Abirnyte, in 1374.

the diocese of Dunkeld, which he obtained from bishop Michael, believing it to be void by Richard Constabil obtaining the parish church of Perth. William has heard that Abirnyte was void because Richard neglected, although he held it for more than a year, to be ordained priest, and doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope or lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council.

Ibid.
(f. 192d.)

To Thomas de Kergell, clerk, of the diocese of Dunkeld. Rehabilitation on account of his having obtained the church of Codlystanys, in the diocese of Aberdeen, void by the death of William Fraser, on the presentation of Thomas earl of Mar, and institution by bishop Alexander, being then in or about his twenty-first year. Thomas, who is of noble race, is to resign.

3 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 138d.)

To Leonard [de Giffone], minister general of the Friars Minors, S.T.P. Mandate, after due examination by himself and four other masters in theology, to grant to Matthew de Hadesco, a Friar Minor, the licence to lecture and to be regent (legendi et regendi) anywhere, and promote him to the honour and degree of master in theology in Bologna or in any other studium of theology where there is a university according to the custom of the order, with the enjoyment of all privileges of the order as if he had taken the degree at Paris (in Parisiensi studio). Matthew has laboured for twenty-four years lecturing and studying in the faculties of philosophy and theology, has lectured through (perlegit) the 'Sentences,' laudably fulfilled his other courses, has made such progress in theology as to be nominated by the masters of that faculty in the province of England as fit to receive the degree of master therein, and obtained the necessary licence of the above-named minister-general, but by the statutes and customs of his order he would yet have to wait ten or eleven years.

Ibid.

To the same. The like mandate on behalf of Richard Routhone, a Friar Minor.

4 Id. Sept.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 140.)

To Pileus archbishop of Ravenna. Faculty to dispense fifty persons of the realms of France and England, of illegitimate birth, even if sons of priests, or born in adultery, to be ordained and hold a benefice apiece, even with cure of souls.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense forty men and as many women of the said realms, who are related in the fourth degree of kindred or affinity, to intermarry.

17 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 148d.)

To the bishop of Carlisle. Mandate to grant a dispensation to John de Denton, donsel, and Jean, relict of Thomas de Skelton, donsel, both of noble parentage, to remain in the marriage which they contracted seven years ago or thereabouts in ignorance that they were connected in the third degree of affinity, Joan de Kirkbride, the former wife of John, having been related to Joan Skelton in the third degree of kindred. Past and future offspring are to be declared legitimate.

1374.

2 Id. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 166.)

To Robert Crull, rector of Stevenage, in the diocese of London. Dispensation, at the petition also of king Edward, whose chaplain and servant (familiaris) he is, to accept and retain for three years only—in addition to the said church value 60 marks, his canoury and prebend of Skipwith in Howdon (Howden), and a certain vicarage which he holds value 50 marks—one other benefice with cure of souls, even a dignity or office, provided that such dignity if in a cathedral church be not a major dignity after the pontifical. Such additional benefice as well as his parish church may, up to the end of the said term, be freely exchanged. The usual proviso is added that the cure of souls in neither the one nor the other be neglected.

LITTERE DE CURIA.

12 Kal. Nov.
Avignon.
(f. 167.)

To Bernard bishop of Pampluna, Ralph bishop of Sinigaglia, and Giles Senei Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.L. papal nuncios. Whereas the ambassadors of king Edward [See Reg. velix. f. 245d.] set forth to the pope certain articles (super certis articulis) touching the right of patronage, regalia, and certain other rights of churches of the realm, the pope, on 12 Kal. Jan. anno 3 (1373), desiring, as far as his conscience allowed, to please the king and hoping for a good concord (concordia), made the following declaration on the said articles:—(i) That all causes which, arising out of benefices said to have become void in regalia, are carried on at the apostolic see and in the king's court or either of them, shall be suspended at the said see from the present date until the Nativity of St. John Baptist, provided that the same be done in the king's court; and at the end of that term the said causes, those namely which are being ventilated (ventilantur) at the apostolic see, unless they be meanwhile settled or the term be extended, shall be resumed in statu quo as if they had not been suspended; (ii) that those who possess or shall be in possession of benefices in the realm by apostolic authority shall remain in such possession unmolested; (iii) that if, meanwhile, cathedral churches, monasteries, prelatures, or dignities become otherwise void—from whose voidance the king pretends to have the presentation in the case of benefices in litigation, or in the case of any others whatsoever which were collated or to be collated by the apostolic see before such voidance—the king shall introduce no innovation with respect to such benefices on the occasion of their voidance in prejudice of the said litigants or of others who had such collation nor shall such voidance be allowed to prejudice them; so that a concord (concordia) may be treated of between the Roman church and the king, to be made by envoys sent either to the Roman court or to England (illuc), and the pope is content that the king shall have the choice of place (hic vel ibi), but shall signify his wish to the pope within 1374.

four months from the present date, certifying the same by his authentic letters sealed by his own seal, otherwise the suspension shall be null and void; (iv) further, the pope ordered that in all causes which are being ventilated in the Roman court, not concerning the regalia, personal citations shall be suspended for a year from the present date, and the causes be proceeded with by proctors: and in regard to like causes to be brought to the Roman court within the said year, the pope has ordained that if the parties ask for a personal citation, he will commit the causes to Cologne, Liège, or Flanders, or places near to England, where the parties can safely appear, or if they please the suit shall be carried on by proctors in the Roman court. Dated and done at Avignon, 12 Kal. Jan. anno 3. [The preceding paragraph is in Raynaldi Annales, 1374, § xxi. from the exemplification in Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 296.]

Afterwards, upon the king writing to the pope and proposing to send his envoys for the said purpose to Bruges or Calais at the pope's choice, the pope gave power to the above-named envoys to prorogue the said articles (which he had himself already prorogued to a certain date) to All Saints' Day next following or beyond, if it should seem to them expedient, and to treat and effect a concord (concordandi) with the king's envoys upon them [f. 174.]. As, however, the matter of the concord has not yet reached its desired end, and the term is about to expire, the pope, having himself prorogued the articles with the conditions contained therein to the feast of St. Andrew next, now gives power to the nuncios to prorogue them with the same conditions, provided that the king do the same, until Easter. [See Reg. cclxvi. f. 100d.]

10 Kal. June.
Salon by Arles.
(f. 167d.)

To the same. Reciting as above the letter dated 12 Kal. Jan. anno 3, and giving power to the nuncios, inasmuch as the king has written proposing to send shortly his envoys to Bruges or Calais, to prorogue as above the articles (already prorogued by the pope to the feast of St. Mary Magdalen) to All Saints' Day. [See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 296, and Raynaldi Annales, as above.]

4 Non. June.

bishop of Sinigaglia, his suite (convictiva) and fifteen horses (equitaturis), on his way to and from Flanders.

Ibid.
(f. 174.)

To prelates, as above, f. 173. The like mandate in regard to Giles Sancti Munionis, provost of Valencia, D.C.L. papal nuncio.

Ibid.

To prelates and nobles, etc., as above, f. 174. Desiring a like safe conduct for Giles Sancti Munionis, his suite and six horses.

18 Kal. June.
Salon by Arles.
(f. 174.)

To Bernard bishop of Pampeluna, Ralph bishop of Sinigaglia, and Giles Sancti Munionis, papal nuncios. As above, f. 167, as far as: Dated and done at Avignon, 12 Kal. Jan. anno 3. As the king has lately written proposing to send shortly his envoys to Bruges or Calais at the pope's choice, the pope gives power to prorogue the articles (capitula) (having himself done so to the next ensuing feast of St. Mary Magdalen) to next All Saints Day or beyond if they think expedient, with power, as above, to treat with the king's envoys thereupon.

Id. May.
Salon by Arles.
(f. 175.)

To prelates, etc., as above, f. 173. The like mandate in regard to Ralph bishop of Sinigaglia, for 6 gold florins of the camera a day.

Ibid.

To prelates and nobles, etc., as above, f. 174. Desiring safe-conduct for Ralph bishop of Sinigaglia, his suite and eight horses.

3 Kal. June.
Salon by Arles.
(f. 175.)

To the three above-named papal nuncios. Power to make any monitions and citations whatsoever by public edicts affixed in public places on the continent (in locis cismarinis) against any prelates and ecclesiastical persons of the realm of England, who do not pay their procurations.

 and master elect, dated at Paris, 24 June 1374.]
 [Theiner, 352. See Reg. cclxxi. f. 222.]
- 6 Id. Jan. Relaxation of a year and forty days of enjoined penances to Avignon. penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the octaves of (f. 26.) certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms to the church of the Cistercian monastery of Kyngeswode in the diocese of Worcester, which is in need of costly repair. If similar perpetual or temporary indulgence have been granted, and be not yet expired, the present letters shall have no force.
- 7 Id. Feb. To Pileus archbishop of Ravenna, papal nuncio. Faculty, Avignon. during his mission to France and England, to dispense six men
 (f. 27.) and as many women, who are related in the fourth degree of kindred or affinity, to intermarry.
- 4 Non. Mar. To Alexander archbishop of York. Mandate, if the facts be Avignon. as stated, to incorporate to the minister and brethren of the (f. 27.) house of St. Robert by Knaresborough the church of Quixlay, of their patronage, in the archdeaconry of Richmond, value 15 marks according to the new taxation for the tenth, which was incorporated by archbishop John in the time of Innocent VI.

1375.

to the said minister and brethren, then six in number, now eleven. The appropriation is to take effect on the resignation or death of the rector, a vicar's portion being reserved as before; notwithstanding the revocation by Urban V. of appropriations which had not yet taken effect. [See Reg. cclxxxij. f. 176.]

14 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 39.)

Inhibition touching the moveable property of bishops of Scotland, which on their decease has, under pretext of a certain custom which should rather have been called an abuse (corruptela), been appropriated by some kings of that realm. Although the late king David abolished the said custom and king Robert has confirmed the abolition, nevertheless certain officials and others, in king Robert's name, have presumed to appropriate and still appropriate such property to the royal treasury or other uses. All of whatsoever rank, royal or otherwise, are now inhibited to usurp under pretext of the said detestable custom any property of bishops or prelates dying in the realm, under penalty of excommunication, from which they cannot be absolved except at the hour of death. [See Reg. cclxxxi. f. 180d.; cclxxxiii. f. 105d.]

[Theiner, 353.]

7 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 45.)

To William cardinal of St. Angelo's, vicar general in lands of Italy immediately subject to the Roman church. Mandate, in accordance with the pope's often-repeated order, to grant in fee for life without delay to John Haukewode, knight, captain of forces in Italy for the pope and the Roman church, a castle in the lands under his rule. The cardinal is to receive Haukewode's liege homage and the usual oath of fealty, as well as a fit guarantee that the castle shall, after his death, revert to the Roman church. [See f. 102d. and Reg. cclxxxii. ff. 142, 174.]

Ibid.
(f. 46d.)

To the same. The like in regard to John Tournaberi (Thornbury), knight. [See f. 102 and ibid. f. 142d.]

8 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 51d.)

To the bishops of Derry and Clogher, and the dean of Armagh. Mandate to further dispense Thomas Ocolman, a Friar Minor—who is already dispensed on account of illegitimacy to be capable of being appointed to all dignities, offices, and administrations of his order short of the dignity of minister-general, who is on both sides of noble and powerful relatives in Ireland, has for several years studied and disputed on theology in the universities (universitatum studiis) of Paris, Oxford, and Cambridge, has publicly disputed in some of them on the word of God, is reader of theology (lector sacre pagine) in the house (loco) of the order in the city of Armagh, and has on behalf of the rights and liberties of the churches of Ireland in time of war laboured with divers temporal lords to the frequent peril of his life—so that he may be eligible for the episcopal dignity.

[Theiner, 353.]

10 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 51d.)

To Andrew de Ox, rector (rectori curato nuncupato) of St. Giles's, Edinburgh, bachelor of canon law. Confirmation to him (who is in priest's orders, and holds also the parish church of Inrarite in the same diocese) of the parish church of Edinburgh, 1375.

which, on its voidance by the death of Brice de Dumblan, he obtained from the bishop, in whose gift it is, under provision by the present pope of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of St. Andrews, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope, or whether it was not void by the unlawful possession of one of his predecessors, or by the constitution of John XXII. beginning Execrabilis, or in some other way than in that stated, or whether it was not lapsed to the pope by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council. Inrarite is, as Andrew offers, and as was also ordered by the letters of provision, to be resigned upon his obtaining possession of St. Giles's. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Brice was not a member of the papal household.

8 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 52.)

To John Martyn of Dysse, canon of Clonyne. Extension to 40 marks of the value of a benefice value 23 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, reserved to him in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of Bury St. Edmunds, seeing that by reason of the great taxations of the benefices in their gift the provision is not likely to profit him. On obtaining such he is, as John offers, and as was also provided by the former letters, to resign his vicarage of Martre (Ballynamartre, Castle Martyr), in the diocese of Clonyne.

16 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 51.)

To Thomas de Brandon, subdean of York, licentiate of civil law. Confirmation to him of the subdeanery, a dignity with cure of souls, and requiring continual personal residence, which he obtained on the death of William Ratford, under papal provision of a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure of souls, and of which, although it was reserved to the pope, he has already obtained papal confirmation. The present confirmation to him of the subdeanery is made notwithstanding that it has been by papal letters granted to and accepted by Robert cardinal of the Twelve Apostles, and that it has become void by the cardinal's resignation of it at the apostolic see.

8 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 52.)

To Edmond Overlonde, a Carmelite. Indult to remain in the place of his order at Santwicy (Sandwich) [Sandwicy in Rubrica], in the diocese of Canterbury, for the consolation of himself, his relatives, and friends.

2 Kal. June.

(f. 94d.)

To Thomas Stowe, canon of Lincoln, D.C.L. Confirmation to him, who holds also the archdeaconry of Bedford in Lincoln, of the canonry and prebend of St. Cross in Lincoln, value 15 marks, which he obtained on the death of John Selby, under a provision by the present pope of a canonry of Lincoln with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure of souls, and now doubts whether they were not specially reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual conditions that John was not a member of the papal household, and that the prebend was his in due order.

5 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 95.)

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation made to the Augustinian prior and convent of Radeford (Rade-fordia), alias Wirkesop, in the diocese of York, impoverished by the barrenness of the place and by the pestilence, of the church of Colston, alias Kercolston (Kerkolston in Rubrice), in the same diocese, of which church, notwithstanding that the appropriation thereof was made to them at the time of their foundation and confirmed to them by several popes, they had been violently dispossessed by magnates whom they could not resist. The appropriation—which was made by William sometime 'archbishop of York, primate of England, legate of the apostolic see,' and dated at the archiepiscopal manor of Burton by Beverley, 28th March 1349, in the seventh year of the archbishop's pontificate—added in addition to the circumstances briefly summed up as above by the pope, but without mention of the pestilence, that the prior and canons, on account of the unusually small crops, had to purchase every year the greater part of their wheat; that by reason of their position on the king's highway they were burdened by the meat and drink required for their guests, that they were reduced to penury by the various and almost daily exactions imposed in those days, beyond what was wont, on ecclesiastics and especially on religious, and that they were heavily burdened with debt; that they had formerly obtained the said church for their own uses, the grant of which received papal confirmation, and that nevertheless they had been violently dispossessed, as above. The archbishop provided for an annual cess or pension 1375.

of 20s. to the church of York, of which 13s. 4d. was for the archbishop and 6s. 8d. for the dean and chapter, payable at Whitsuntide and Martinmas. The appropriation was ordered to take place on the resignation or death of the then rector, William de Duffeld, a fitting portion being reserved for a vicar to be appointed by the archbishop. The attestation by John de Wldefeld (Aldefeld), clerk, of the diocese of York, notary public, scribe (scriba) of the archbishop, with the following witnesses: Master Gilbert de Welton, D.C.L. canon and chancellor; Ralph de Jarwell (Yarwell), rector of Cotom, official of the archdeacon of Nottingham (Notinghie); Roger de Stien-deby, rector of Brummun (Bramham); Master Nicholas de Whtreby (Whiteby), notary public, and others not named, was made on the same date and in the same place as above, indiction 2, and the seventh year of pope Clement VI. The letters of consent and confirmation of the chapter in the absence of the dean, of which exemplification is also given, made in the chapter house of York, 2 April in the same year, were attested, on the same date and in the same place, indiction 2, and the seventh year of pope Gregory (sic for Clement) VI by John Bryan, clerk, of the diocese of York, notary public, with the following witnesses: Walter de Caumpedon, Richard de Lydington, and Simon de Wirthorp, clerks, of the dioceses of York, Lincoln, and Worcester. [5½ ff. Marginal note at the beginning: Quaternus V. (de Indultis anni 5 Gregorii). To William Noioun, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Rehabilitation on account of his having obtained, by authority of the ordinary, without having obtained dispensation on account of illegitimacy, the church of Riseburgh, in the diocese of Lincoln, from which he has received no fruits, on its voidance by John Wodhull obtaining that of Cherring, in the diocese of 1875.

Canterbury. Afterwards, upon his petition to the apostolic see, John Swineshed, canon of Lincoln, acting for the bishop, dispensed him to hold a benefice even with cure of souls; after which, the aforesaid church being void by the resignation of John Patenay, made to John bishop of Lincoln, he obtained collation of it from William late archbishop of Canterbury, in whose gift it was, and at present holds it, receiving the fruits. The church is to be resigned, but dispensation is granted him, notwithstanding the said illegitimacy and the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, to accept it anew.

To the bishop of Bologna. Mandate—in extension of a former mandate to dispense on account of illegitimacy as the son of an unmarried man Philip Tornebyri (Thornbury), scholar of Bologna, to receive the tonsure (clericali caractere insigniri), be promoted to all orders, and hold one, two, or three benefices, one of them having cure of souls [Reg. cclxxxv. f. 11]—to dispense him so that he may accept and hold together or successively, after having received the tonsure, any other benefices, of any number and kind (quecunque quocunque et qualiacunque), even if [one be] a canonry and prebend, and one be with cure of souls, or a dignity, personatus, or office in metropolitan or other cathedral churches, even if such dignity be an elective major dignity in a cathedral after the pontifical, or a principal dignity in a collegiate church. Further, in future petitions respecting such benefices no mention need be made of his illegitimacy. [See Reg. cclxxxvii. f. 223d.]

To the Augustinian abbot and convent of St. Mary's, Trym, in the diocese of Meath. Undated annotation without marks and subscriptions (presentibus absque signis et subscriptionibus predictis annotari fecimus), after inspection and examination, of the privilege, which is beginning to decay with age, granted by Celestine III. and which bore the subscriptions and marks of that pope and of a number of cardinals of the holy Roman church, to Elias abbot of St. Mary's, Athrum, and to his brethren present and future. The said pope takes their church of St. Mary's under the papal protection, and orders that the rule of St. Augustine and the Arroasian (Aroensum fratrum) institution shall be perpetually observed therein. Those of their possessions named are:—The place where their church is situated with the appurtenances thereof, Achaduanbrad, Gardarabach, the grange of Chellfouche, Chaerebroch with waters and fisheries, that of Runailad with mills, that of Chelnacatohudan, and the rent of the town (Balle) of Athrum, with the town (Balla) of St. Mary the Virgin. Among other privileges they may celebrate divine offices privately during a general interdict; no public assemblies (conventus) can be called in their monastery by archbishop, bishop, or other person unless by mandate of the pope or his legate; tithes which they have held for forty years are confirmed to them, etc. [Theiner, 354.]

To William de Denby, rector of Remeston, in the diocese of York, M.A. Grant that he shall not be obliged, in any future petitions, to make mention of the illegitimacy on account of which he has obtained the following dispensations:—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure of souls, by virtue of which he obtained the above-named church; (ii) to hold together with his church a canonry and prebend of Houden (Howden), of which he had papal provision, and to exchange the same as often as he thought fit for another benefice compatible with the said church, by virtue of which he obtained the said canonry and prebend, resigned them for the chapel of St. Rade-gund in London, and then likewise resigned that chapel for the mastership called the wardenship (custodiam) of the poor hospital of St. Mary's, Gretam, in the diocese of Durham, which he still holds; (iii) to hold the said mastership together with his parish church; (iv) to hold also a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church; (v) to exchange such canonry and prebend as well as his parish church and mastership for three other benefices mutually compatible—one of which might be a canonry and prebend, and another a dignity with cure of souls, personatus, or office in cathedral or collegiate churches, even if such dignity were a principal dignity in a collegiate church, or a major dignity below the pontifical in a cathedral—and to exchange all three as often as he pleased for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. Since receiving the above dispensations he has obtained provision from the present pope of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham, upon which the present grant is made.

To the archbishop of York. Indult to visit the city and diocese of Durham, and to levy the usual procurations in full without first visiting his own city and diocese. The pope has already—upon learning that Thomas bishop of that see (venerabilis . . . episcopus . . . si venerabilis dici debet) had perpetrated many things worthy of correction under a certain personal [ex]emption which he is said to have obtained from the apostolic see, and that the archbishop proposed to visit his province—ordered him for that turn only to visit the said city and diocese of Durham, and to levy procurations, as though the bishop had obtained no such privilege of exemption. The present indult allows the archbishop to depart from the due order of visitation, notwithstanding the constitution of Innocent IV. and others.

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the letters of Walter bishop of Dunblane, reducing the number of canons of the collegiate church of Abernethi from ten to five. A petition of the secular prior and chapter for the confirmation lately (dudum) set forth that the church was founded by lay patrons for a prior and five canons: that upon the expressed desire of some of the patrons to augment its rents the number of canons was upon such hope raised to ten; that the augmentation of rents did not take place, and that in consequence of wars, fires, and ruin the prior and chapter were brought to straits; wherefore bishop Walter, with the counsel and assent of the said patrons and of king David, reduced the number to the original five. The pope being petitioned as aforesaid to confirm the reduction, gave mandate to the bishop of St. Andrews to inquire, whose report—as a recent (nuper) petition of the said prior and chapter contains—finds that their revenues, after deducting the yearly pensions which they are bound to pay, do not exceed a yearly value of 200 gold florins, equivalent to 50 marks sterling, which sum would be insufficient for their sustenance if they did not add to it by their industry. Upon this further petition bishop Walter's reduction is now therefore confirmed, with annotation of his letters (quarum tenorem . . . presentibus . . . fecimus annotari). They set forth the circumstances given above, adding that the church was founded in honour of St. Mary the Virgin and St. Bridget (Brigide), were dated at the collegiate church of Abbirnthry, 8 Feb. 1364, and were sealed with the bishop's seal and that of Margaret the elder, countess of Angus (de Anergus), patron of the church, lineal descendant of the original founders, lords of Abbir[n]thy.

Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation by William late archbishop of York to the Cistercian abbot and convent of Meaux (Melea), in the diocese of York, of the church of Esyngton, of their patronage by royal gift, in the same diocese, possessed by them for twenty-four years and more since the death of the rector. A fitting portion is, as was provided by the archbishop's appropriation, to be reserved for a vicar. The letters of William 'archbishop of York, primate of England, legate of the apostolic see'—dated in the chapter house of York, 30 Jan. 1346[-7] after the style of the English church, and in the fifth year of his pontificate, attested by John de Aldefelde, clerk, public notary, the archbishop's scribe (scriba), under the same date, place, and day, indiction 15, and the fifth year of Clement VI. and witnessed by Masters Roderic Turvill, canon of Lichfield; Gilbert de Welton, D.C.L. canon of Southwell, the archbishop's chancellor; by Simon de Dekyngham (Bekyngham), clerk, skilled in the law, William de Fakenham, and John de Tyverington, public notaries, of the dioceses of York, Norwich, and York respectively—stated that their manors of Salteb Aghe, Tharlestorp, Frismerk, Weytefleth, Vymoltou, and Baneue Ferode (Raveneserodde) in Holderness, whose value at the time of the foundation of the monastery was 250*l.* yearly, being situate on the Humber and the seashore, were so destroyed by the waters which flood twice in a day and a night, that their value was reduced to barely 20*l.*; and that their manor of Miton and town of Kingston-on-Hull (super Hullia), value 200*l.* yearly, had come into the hands of the late and present kings Edward, in compensation for which the advowsons of Skipse, Esyngton, and Kayingham, in the diocese of York, had been given them by the present king. A cess or pension of 100*s.* from the fruits of Esyngton was reserved, viz. 66*s.* 8*d.* for the archbishop, and 33*s.* 4*d.* for the dean and chapter. The appropriation was to take effect on the resignation or death of Hugh de Glaunville, then rector. [See Chron. Monast. de Melea, III. 6.]

A cess or pension of 40s. from the fruits of Kayngham was reserved, of which 26s. 8d. was to be paid to the archbishop and 13s. 4d. to the dean and chapter. The appropriation was to take effect on the resignation or death of John Botheby, then rector.

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York. Mandate to pay and to levy and exact, each in his city, diocese, and province, benefices of cardinals of the holy Roman church alone being exempt, a sum of 60,000 florins. Lately the pope, his resources being insufficient for the defence of the lands of the Roman church and its property and rights in Italy, imposed certain subsidies of a tenth upon the ecclesiastics of the realms of France and Spain, of Almain and other parts of the faithful, and upon the clergy of England a tenth for one year payable at two expressed terms, and was content that they should pay in place thereof a subsidy of 100,000 florins, at the same two terms. It has been lately agreed between the representatives (gentes) of the pope and of the said clergy at Bruges that a subsidy of 60,000 florins shall be paid in two portions of 30,000 florins, at All Saints next and St. John the Baptist's next following, with 40,000 more in the event of peace between kings Edward and Charles. The archbishops receive the usual powers to compel payment by ecclesiastical censure and sequestration, and to grant absolution, upon satisfaction being made, from sentences incurred by non-payment, and dispensations on account of consequent irregularity, if any. To the same. As the pope is sending him to England and Flanders on behalf of the liberties of the English church; as he has granted him certain procurations from the prelates and other ecclesiastics of the realm of England, as contained in the pope's letters; and as he has learned that it would be difficult for the nuncio to send to each diocesan of the realm, he wills and ordains that the archbishops of York and Canterbury shall be wholly answerable for the said procurations. The nuncio is to send to each of them, under his seal, a copy publicly drawn up of the said letters, which shall have the force of the original. The archbishops shall pay their own portion and exact the rest from those liable, compelling payment by ecclesiastical censure without appeal, faculty for which is by these presents granted to them. Faculty is likewise given to the nuncio to compel the archbishops by monitions and citations by public edicts posted in public places, which monitions and citations shall be binding as though personally served. - 3 Non. April. To [John de Calore] chancellor of Paris. Mandate to admit Avignon. John de Montesono, a Friar Preacher, if found fit, to lecture on the (f. 9.) 'Sentences' in the schools of the order at Paris, in the next but one or other following summer; and to admit him afterwards to the honour of mastership in theology, and to the licence to teach in that faculty. John has lectured in theology for many years in divers places (locis) of the order, and was deputed by the master of the order in the chapter-general to lecture on the 'Sentences' at Oxford (in studio Oxoniensi), and take the degree of master, but for certain reasons he has not dared to go to England for the purpose, and now desires to be admitted to the same at Paris.

- 11 Kal. Sept. To Thomas bishop of Exeter. Faculty during two years to Avignon. reconcile churches and cemeteries by deputy. [There are appa-
(f. 25.) rentely two letters in the text to the bishop of Exeter, but in reality one only. The first, which occurs at the bottom of f. 24d. under date 17 Kal. Sept. Avignon, is described: 'ut in V^o supe-riori directa Willermo Webber usque Datum.' But the only letter to William Webber is that on f. 2, conferring on him the dignity of papal chaplain. This letter to bishop Thomas, moreover, does not occur in the Rubrics; and in the paper volume 259, from which this present parchment volume is transcribed, the appointment to the papal chaplaincy is correctly assigned to an archdeacon of the diocese of Cordova. The second letter, which is the faculty above, is described in the text at the top of f. 25: 'ut in VI superiori directa Richardo episcopo, usque presentibus post biennium minime volitura.' But this sixth letter to bishop Richard, archbishop elect of Reims, informs him of the despatch of the pall. VI is an error for V, and occurs also in Reg. 289. The faculty is correctly given in the Rubrica.]

5 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 28d.)

To the official of York. Mandate to confirm to Thomas de Walleworth, clerk, of the diocese of Durham, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Hemyngburgh, in the diocese of York, which, on the death of Alan de Schotlyngton, he obtained by institution of archbishop Alexander, on the presentation of the prior and chapter of Durham, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is to be subject to the usual condition that Alan was not a member of the papal household.

Non. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 36.)

To Andrew Umfray, canon and dean of Dunkeld, bachelor of canon law. Confirmation to him of the canonry and prebend and the deanery which he obtained by exchange with Robert Keneth for his canonry and prebend and the chantership (cantoria), by collation of bishop Michael, to whom the resignations were made, and now doubts whether the canonry and prebend, with the deanery—which has cure of souls, is a major dignity below the episcopal, and is elective—were not reserved to the pope or lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council by reason of their long voidance. Andrew, who is in priest's orders, holds also a canonry and prebend of Dunbar, and by provision of the present pope a canonry of Aberdeen with expectation of a prebend. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Robert was not a member of the papal household.

7 Id. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 39d.)

To Matthew de Glendenwin, rector of Cavers, in the diocese of Glasgow, M.A. Confirmation to him of the said church, void by the death of John Canon, which he obtained by institution of John Lethi, or Leebi, vicar-general in spirituals of Walter bishop of Glasgow, on the presentation of William, abbot, and the convent of Melrose, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope, or lapsed by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, or whether it did not become void in some other way than that stated. Matthew, who is B.C.L. holds also a canonry of Glasgow with expectation of a prebend. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that John was not a member of the papal household.

7 Id. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 46.)

To Thomas, Augustinian abbot of St. Mary's, Cong (de Cunga), in the diocese of Tuam. Confirmation to him of that abbey, which he obtained by provision of archbishop Gregory, on the resignation of abbot Malachy, sometime canon. The prior and convent, having been duly assembled for the election, unanimously resolved to proceed by way of compromise, and granted to the archbishop authority for that turn to provide. Thomas now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope.

15 Kal. April.

respectively, to intermarry, notwithstanding their relation in the fourth degree of kindred, by reason that Agnes, Patrick's former wife, was thus related to Eleanor.

6 Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 49d.)

To the bishop of Worcester, the abbot of Cirencester, and the prior of Stodeley, in the diocese of Worcester. Mandate to receive the resignation of Nicholas de Trinbeye, Augustinian prior of Lanthony Prima, in the diocese of St. Davids, who, after ruling the priory well for eleven years or thereabouts, was, when saying the office of the dead, thrown to the ground, and had both his eyes torn out by the sons of iniquity, John Poding, John Welynton, and Robert Bolter, canons of the same, who also killed his brother, John de Trinbey, a layman, wherefore the prior has not dared to dwell within 40 miles of the priory, and is ready to resign. Licence is to be given to the convent to elect a fitting person as prior, and an annual pension is to be assigned to Nicholas for life from the revenues. If a fitting person be elected, the election is, if canonical, to be confirmed; if not, the commissioners are themselves to make provision. The name of the person whose election shall be confirmed, or to whom provision shall be made, is to be certified to the papal camera, or to the collector in those parts. Those who took part in the outrage, if publicly excommunicated by the commissioners without appeal, shall be strictly bound thereby until they make satisfaction and, with letters of the commissioners in proof, repair to the apostolic see for absolution.

To Robert de Bradegare (Bradegate), canon of London, B.C.L. Extension from 18 to 25 marks of the value of a benefice without cure of souls, reserved to him by the present pope, in the gift of the archbishop of Canterbury. He is litigating in the papal palace about a canonry and prebend of Wyngtham in the diocese of Canterbury.

4 Id. May.

To the same. Further extension of the same to 30 marks.

8 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 75d.)

To Hugh de Bubamhull (Bukunhull in Rubric), clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of the mandate for provision, granted him by the present pope, of a benefice with or without cure of souls in the common or several gift of the archbishop, prior, and chapter of Canterbury, no mention having been made in the said letters of provision of his perpetual portion, without cure of souls, of the chapel of Landewitrefrandegh, in the diocese of St. Davids, on account of which he doubts whether the said letters may not be reputed surreptitious. Hugh holds also by provision of the present pope a canonry of Chichester, with expectation of a prebend. [Wrong in the Rubric—

(f. 76.)

To the same. Extension to 60 marks of the value of the benefice value 40 marks with cure of souls, and 18 without which was reserved to him by the present pope, in the common or several gift of the archbishop, prior, and chapter of Canterbury. [In Rubrice 'Eidem eadem gratia iterum ampliatur'.]

4 Id. April.

Avignon.
(f. 83.)

To John Cheyne, canon of Exeter. Licence, on his petition touching certain farms (firmæ) limited to the senior canons who complete their first year's residence, which he has done at great expense, to accept the farm of Sydebury, to be vacated shortly by Robert archbishop elect of Dublin, who now holds it, in place of that of Rampton, in the diocese of Lincoln, which has been assigned to him, and from which, on account of the great distance from his benefices of the places belonging thereto and the malice of the people, he can hardly derive any benefit.

7 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 89d.)

To Malcolm Ysaie, priest, of the diocese of Sodor. Confirmation to him of the church of Moliwe (Molrwe in Rubrice), in the said diocese, which he obtained on the death of Dampnaldus Nigelli; John, lord of the place of Yle in the same diocese, the patron, presenting him, and William bishop of Sodor instituting him. Malcolm doubts whether the church was not specially reserved to the pope, or lapsed to him in accordance with the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council by reason of its long voidance, Martin Martini, sometime rector, having held it without being ordained priest in due time. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Dampnaldus was not a member of the papal household.

3 Kal. June.

Avignon.
(f. 93.)

Licence, on the petition of John Olneye, lord, and the inhabitants of the town of Weston Underwode in the diocese of Lincoln, to have a cemetery, there being a chapel there annexed to the parish church of Olney, distant an English mile and more, in which chapel all ecclesiastical sacraments except that of burial are ministered. [See Reg. cclviii. f. 168.]

6 Non. May.

Avignon.
(f. 114.)

To Findlay (Findlao) de Ketynys, clerk, of the diocese of St. Andrews. Confirmation of the church of Fethiressach, in the diocese of St. Andrews, which he obtained by collation of the ordinary on the death of Gilbert Armstrang, under letters of the present pope by which he expected a benefice with or without cure in the gift of the bishop, and now doubts whether it was not specially reserved to the pope and void, not by Gilbert's death, but by his obtaining, also by authority of the ordinary, and holding for several years along with his church, the provostship of St. Andrews, which has cure of souls, whereby the church, according to the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, lapsed to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Gilbert was not a member of the papal household.

5 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(L. 1184.)

To William Todeworth, rector of St. Tud, in the diocese of Exeter, D.C.L. Dispensation, in extension of former dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i.) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure of souls; (ii.) to exchange the same once; (iii.) after obtaining the church of Essewater in the diocese of Exeter, to receive and hold another benefice, without cure, even if it were a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, and to exchange it once, as also his church, for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, by virtue of which he exchanged Essewater for St. Tud, and received from the present pope provision of a canonry of Exeter and reservation of a prebend; (iv.) to hold together with such canonry and prebend, when obtained, another benefice, even if a canonry and prebend, or dignity, personatus, or office in a cathedral church, even if elective, and to exchange the same, as well as his canonry and prebend of Exeter for similar or dissimilar benefices, since which he has obtained and still holds a certain prebend of Exeter—so that he, who has for ten years postulated in the episcopal court of Exeter, may receive and hold any benefices whatsoever, of whatever number and kind, with or without cure, even if one be a canonry and prebend or an elective dignity major after the pontifical with cure of souls, in cathedral or metropolitan churches, and may exchange the same for similar or dissimilar benefices as often as he choose, provided that all the benefices held or to be held by him be mutually compatible. Further, in future graces concerning the aforesaid benefices, no mention need be made of his illegitimacy or of his dispensations.

3 Kal. Aug.
Villeneuve by Avignon.
(L. 123.)

To the Cistercian abbot and convent of Kinloss, in the diocese of Moray. Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation by Henry bishop of Aberdeen, with the assent of the dean and chapter, of the church of Elen, in his diocese, the fruits of which were by a former bishop divided into two portions, the rector taking the tithes of corn, and the vicar the tithes of lambs, wool, and cheeses, and all oblations, funeral, and other parochial dues. Bishop Henry appropriated to the abbot and convent the rectory, which was and is in their patronage, together with the said tithes of corn, the appropriation to take effect on the resignation or death of the rector. Upon the resignation of William Camyn of Buchan, the abbot and convent entered upon possession of rectory and tithes, and have held them for fifty-six years. Although William de Culabre, canon of Aberdeen, who held also the church of Alveth, a benefice incompatible with Elen, claimed the rectory and the tithes of corn, he failed in his suit and made no appeal. The bishop's letters, given at Aberdeen, without other date, assert that the patronage of the church was given by Robert king of Scotland to the abbot and convent, they having to pay to a perpetual chaplain in St. Mary's cathedral, Aberdeen, 100s. yearly, find him an honest habit for his use in the choir, and have a house built for the first of such chaplains; the letters are sealed with the bishop's seal 1376.

and the common seal of the chapter, and signed by: bishop Henry; William Comyn, prebendary of Crudan; John de Hadigthon, prebendary of Benchori; Reginald de Coyneriis, prebendary of Owen; Philip, prebendary of Clath; Walter Schori, prebendary of Balhelwi. [The year of the appropriation, 1320, is added in the margin, perhaps deductively, in the hand of Garampi, prefect of the Vatican Archives, 1757-1772.]

4 Kal. July.

(f. 131.)

To the bishop of Rochester. Mandate to appropriate to the master and college of Cobham—which was founded in honour of God and the Blessed Virgin Mary [and St. Mary Magdalen], in the church of Cobham, by John de Cobham, knight, of his diocese, and has been impoverished by pestilences and other misfortunes which have for some time prevailed more than is wont in the parts of England—one of the churches of the knight's patronage, value 40*l.* to take effect on the resignation or death of the rector, a vicar's portion being reserved.

10 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 132*d.*)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to inform himself touching the facts stated in the petition of the parishioners of St. Giles's without Cripulgate, London, who assert that the office books of their church, according to the Use of St. Paul's, London, are destroyed and, as it were, totally consumed by age, and to allow them, if it shall seem good to him, to adopt the Salisbury Use, which obtains, not only in the chapel of the metropolitan, but throughout almost the whole province of Canterbury; notwithstanding that the dean of St. Paul's strives with all his power that the ancient rite of his church may be preserved in St. Giles's.

17 Kal. May.
Avignon.
(f. 134*d.*)

To the dean of Dunkeld. Mandate, on petition also of Robert king of Scotland, to confirm to Thomas de Cardeny, clerk, of that diocese, if found fit after diligent examination, his canonry of Dunkeld and prebend of Forworth, which he obtained by provision of bishop Michael upon the resignation of David Marre, and now doubts whether they were not reserved to the pope, David having been at the time, as is asserted, a papal chaplain. The confirmation is to be subject to the condition that David was not otherwise a member of the papal household.

7 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 135.)

To Thomas de Brandon, subdean of York, licentiate of civil law. Confirmation to him of his prebend of Bole in York. Under letters of provision by the present pope of a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend, he obtained and still holds the prebend of Burgthorp (Bugthorpe), void by the death of John Stokes, which he believed to be due to him in turn, and about which he is litigating in the papal palace [See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 277*d.*] Afterwards, doubting whether Burgthorp was his in due turn, he obtained under the same letters the said prebend of Bole, void by the death of Simon Multon, and now doubts whether it was not reserved to the pope. The confirmation is subject to the usual condition that Simon Multon was not a member of the papal household.

16 Kal. April.
Avignon.
(f. 154.)

To William Couper of Prees, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield. Extension to 50 marks of the value of a benefice reserved to him in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham, value 40 marks with cure of souls and 18 without; the number of expectants for such benefices being so great, and their taxations so high, that he fears the former letters may be useless.

LITTERE DE CURIA.

Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 155d.)

To William archbishop of Rouen, papal nuncio. Grant to him, as translated from Carpentras to Rouen, to use and enjoy all the powers and faculties hitherto used and enjoyed by him in his mission touching the treaty of peace between Charles king of the French and Edward king of England, and to exact procurations and proceed against defaulters as before.

To William de Vyndesore, knight, of the diocese of York. Indult that his confessor may give licence to religious to eat flesh meat at the knight's table once a month on lawful days.

8 GREGORY XI.

DE INDULTIS, ETC.

1378.

2 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 220.)

To James cardinal deacon of St. George's in Velabro. Indult for three years to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places in his deanery of Salisbury, and archdeaconries of Durham and Leicester (Leucestrie) and persons thereof, and to receive procurations to the amount of 30 silver gros Tournois a day, at the rate of twelve to a gold florin of Florence. [See Reg. cclxxxv. f. 66.]

Concurrent mandate to the dean of Chichester, the chancellor of Salisbury, and Robert de Stratton, canon of York.

16 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 222d.)

To Philip de Thorneburi (Thornbury), of the diocese of Modena. Rehabilitation on account of his having accepted, under a mandate of provision by the present pope, the canonry of Lincoln and prebend of Caistor (de Castro), which he still holds, on their voidance by the death of Henry de Ingilby, without being dispensed on account of illegitimacy as the son of an unmarried man and an unmarried woman, of which illegitimacy no mention was made in the papal letters, although the bishop of Bologna had received papal mandate to grant him such dispensation. The canonry and prebend are to be resigned. [See Reg. cclxxxvi. f. 107d.]

1378.

Id. Jan. To John Southam, donsel, and Margaret his wife, of the diocese of London. Indults to have mass celebrated before daybreak, to have a portable altar, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated in places under interdict.

[12 Kal. March?] To John Therlyng, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Indult to have a portable altar. [This is from the Rubrice. The upper half of f. 231, on which it occurred, has been cut away.]

12 Kal. March. To Roger Lovecok, of the diocese of York. The like. [This occurs on the remaining half of f. 231, as well as in the Rubrice.]

REGESTA, VOL. CCXCI.*

1 CLEMENT VII. ANTI-POPE.

DE CURIA.

1378.

15 Kal. Jan. To John bishop of Palestrina, papal nuncio. Appointing him nuncio to the king and queen (sic) of France and the provinces lands subject thereto: with faculty to compel by ecclesiastical censure, without appeal, any soever who oppose or rebel.

[Marginal note in Rubrice, q[uaternus] iii. The reference is to Avignon Reg. No. 220 (Clem. VII. vol. xvi. the last of An. I), f. 47 seq. where at the end of the third quaternion is the note: Script[us] est in pergameno.]

Ibid.

(f. 26d.)

To all the faithful in Christ. Recounting the circumstances whereby on the death of pope Gregory XI. at Rome, in March last, the cardinals, the present pope being one of their number, entered the conclave, and were, by the violence of the officers of the city and the terrible uproar of the people, compelled to intrude into the holy apostolic see a certain Bartholomew, then archbishop of Bari, who, being blinded by ambition, presumes to call himself pope [Urban VI.]; wherefore, lest such deeds and excesses should not be known, the pope is sending to the realm of France John bishop of Palestrina, commends him to all the faithful, and warns, exhorts, and commands them to show him due obedience and reverence. Otherwise the pope will ratify sentences of the cardinal against those who oppose or rebel.

Ibid.

(f. 28.)

To John cardinal bishop of Palestrina, and Guy cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem, papal nuncios. Power to treat for a lasting peace and concord between Charles king of France and Richard king of England and their adherents; to confirm the same by ecclesiastical censure and any other penalties whatsoever, and to relax oaths, leagues, confederations, pacts, and conventions which may stand in the way. [There follow

Ibid.
(f. 41d.)

To Guy cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem. Appointing him nuncio to the kingdoms of England, Ireland, and Scotland, to Flanders, and to the [cities and] dioceses of Liège, Utrecht, Cambrai, and Tournay; as above, f. 26, mutatis mutandis.

Ibid.
(f. 41.)

To all the faithful in Christ. As above, f. 26d, mutatis mutandis.

Ibid.
(f. 43.)

To prelates and clergy, secular and regular, throughout the realms [of England, Ireland, and Scotland] expressed in the pope's letters. Mandate to provide Guy cardinal of St. Cross in Jerusalem, during his mission, with 50 gold florins of the camera a day, each worth 10 silver Tournois. [See f. 45d.]

Ibid.
(f. 43d.)

To Guy cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem, papal nuncio. Faculty to constrain by ecclesiastical censures those guilty of sacrilege, to absolve those who have thereby incurred sentence of excommunication, and to dispense those who have similarly incurred irregularity.

Ibid.

To the same. Power to treat of peace and truces between any persons whatsoever, secular or ecclesiastical, of the parts to which he is sent.

Ibid.
(f. 44.)

To the same. Power to exact, proceeding by ecclesiastical censure, without appeal, and invoking if necessary the aid of the secular arm, from the archbishops of Arles, Aix, Embrun, and Vienne, and their suffragans, and from other prelates and clergy, secular and regular, of those provinces, the same sum, as daily procuration, which he is empowered to exact within the limits of his nunciature (f. 43).

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to grant the office of notary to a hundred persons, even if married or in priest's or in other holy orders: enclosing the usual form of oath to be taken.

Ibid.
(f. 44d.)

To the same. Power to enquire into and punish excesses of religious, exempt or not exempt, of whatsoever order.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to convoke prelates and clergy, secular and regular, and to enjoin and impose upon them whatsoever may be expedient in the prosecution of his mission.

Ibid.
(f. 45.)

To the same. Mandate to cause to be observed by ecclesiastical censure, without appeal, the present pope's late modification, of which annotation is made below (cujus tenorem inferius annotari fecimus) respecting the moveables reserved by the pope to the apostolic see of deceased prelates (as above, Reg. cclxxx, f. 39d.). It has come to the pope's hearing that some collectors and 1378.

sub-collectors in the parts to which the nuncio has been deputed, exceeding the limits of their office in the recovery of the said moveables, and in contempt of the said modification, extort from the compositions which they often make in respect of such moveables and other things, a proportion in the shilling (caput solidi), namely a penny in the shilling upon the amount agreed upon, and at the time of payment two gold florins per cent. not for the camera, but rather for themselves; and that they allow to be received by their notaries (tabelliones), not without suspicion of a share in the gains (co[m]mun[i]onis lucrorum) for each instrument drawn up (instrumentis compositis) and acquittance (absolutione), both five and six, and sometimes eight gold florins and other immoderate fees (salaria), levying and compelling payment thereof.

Ibid.
(f. 45d.)

To the same. Faculty to exact, during his mission to the realms [of England, Ireland, and Scotland] expressed in the pope's letters, from prelates and other clergy within the limits thereof, secular and regular, as his daily procuration, the sum of 50 gold florins of the camera, each worth 10 silver Tournois. [See f. 43.]

Ibid.

To the same. Indult to celebrate and cause to be celebrated divine offices in places under an interdict, solemnly and aloud (alta voce), with open doors and ringing of bells, provided that those present were not the cause of the interdict, and that the interdict be not a special one.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve slayers and mutilators of wives, parents, brothers, and sisters.

Ibid.
(f. 46.)

To the same. Power to coerce by ecclesiastical censure or by any other penalties religious of any order soever, mendicants or not mendicants, exempt or not exempt, who shall presume to say or do anything in their preachings or sermons whereby the business of his mission may be hindered or delayed.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty during his mission to hear and terminate whatsoever causes, both civil and criminal, shall be brought before him or his court.

Ibid.

To the same. Power to cause churches and cemeteries in his nunciature to be consecrated by catholic archbishops and bishops in communion with the apostolic see, and to be reconciled by fit priests, the water having been first blessed by a catholic bishop; without derogation to the statute [Decretal. Greg. ix. iii. 40, 9], which requires such reconciliation to be done by bishops only.

Ibid.

To the same. Power to compel satisfaction to be given by those, of whatsoever dignity or rank, even pontifical, who capture or despoil persons going to or departing from him and his court.

Ibid.
(f. 46d.)

To the same. Faculty to constrain by ecclesiastical censure, with the aid, if necessary, of the secular arm, such persons, as 1378.

above, who hinder by counsel, help, or favour, the business entrusted to him.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to enjoy in all things the same power which is used by legates a latere. [Of. Varin, Arch. admin. de la ville de Reims, III. 498.]

Ibid.

(f. 47.)

To the same. Power to treat as above, f. 28.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to summon general or special councils, and to convoke thereto, generally and specially, prelates and other clergy, secular and regular.

Ibid.

(f. 47d.)

To the same. Faculty to proceed against and deprive inquisitors of heresy who have extorted money or other things.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to confirm, ratify, and approve whatsoever concords, conventions, pacts, and ordinances, made with the late king Edward by Giles Sancier Munionis, D.C.L. provost of Valencia, by mandate of Gregory XI. bear upon the provision of benefices of the realm of England which fall within the royal rights belonging for the time being to king Richard (causentium in Regaliis pro tempore occurrentibus).

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve, dispense, and rehabilitate clerks of his nunciature who, when included in the greater excommunication, have received orders, even priest's orders, or benefices from excommunicated bishops, and have ministered in the same, even in places under an interdict.

Ibid.

(f. 48.)

To the same. Faculty to cause fit persons of either sex to be received as canons or canonesses, monks or nuns, friars or sisters, in metropolitan, cathedral, and other regular churches, monasteries, [and] priories of any order soever, provided that where there be a fixed number therein it be incomplete.

Ibid.

(f. 48d.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense ecclesiastical persons within his nunciature on account of defect of age to receive and hold, after completing their twentieth year, a dignity or personatus without cure of souls.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense slayers and depredators of pilgrims.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to grant indulgences for three years to choose a confessor.

Ibid.

To the same. Grant (concedimus) to give relaxation of one year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who shall be present at mass and other divine offices celebrated by himself or pontifically celebrated in his presence; if the king or queen, their sons or daughters, or any one of them be present, the relaxation shall be for two years and eighty days.

Ibid.

(f. 49.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense women, howsoever illegitimately born, to make their profession in an approved order to dispense those who have already made their profession to take the sacred veil, and to hold any offices and honour soever the dignity of abbess excluded; and to dispense five of such women to be elected and appointed even to the dignity of abbess.

1378.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve from excommunication a hundred clerks who, when excommunicate, have accepted and held benefices, with or without cure of souls, even elective dignities major with cure of souls in cathedral churches, and principal dignities in collegiate churches; also a hundred others who have accepted such from excommunicated persons; and to grant restitution to their benefices, with rehabilitation and fresh collation when necessary.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make a declaration with respect to oaths, as to which it is doubted whether they be lawful or not; to remit them when declared unlawful, and to relax and remit pacts and confederations, fortified by oath, which appear to him to be unlawful and opposed to peace and justice.

Ibid.

(f. 49d.)

Faculty to make provision of any benefices whatsoever within the limits of his nunciature, secular and regular, with or without cure, void and to be void, even canonries and prebends, dignities, personatus, or offices in cathedral churches, even if their collation has by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council lapsed to the pope, and even if they be specially or generally reserved to the pope, or if they be void by the obtaining possession of any benefices soever by papal collation, or be void in any other way; provided that the values do not exceed—if taxed, 20 and 15 pounds petits tournois, with or without cure respectively, according to the taxation of the tenth; if not taxed, 30 and 20 respectively, according to the common estimate. One such benefice is to be given to a single person, even if such person hold one, two, three, or more benefices; or, holding one or two only, hold also a canonry, by papal provision, with expectation of a prebend, dignity, personatus, administration, or office, or have otherwise expectation of one or two benefices. The pope wills that if he to whom the nuncio shall make provision of one or more of such benefices, hold one, two, three, or more benefices, or hold two only together with a canonry, by papal provision, with expectation of a prebend, dignity, personatus, administration, or office, or together with similar expectation of one or two other benefices, such papal graces shall become ipso facto null and void, and of the first-named one, two, three, or more benefices, one shall be resigned for each obtained by virtue of these presents.

Ibid.

(f. 50.)

To the same. Faculty to absolve and to dispense on account of irregularity contracted, if any, all persons, ecclesiastical and secular, of his nunciature who have adhered, adhere, or shall adhere to the wicked man Bartholomew, sometime archbishop 1378.

of Bari, or have obtained, or shall obtain (impetraverint) from him benefices, letters, or graces, thereby or otherwise participating in the sentences or penalties inflicted on him.

Ibid.
(l. 50d.)

To the same. Authority for himself, and those of his household whom he shall send, to participate with the excommunicated Florentines in divine offices and other forbidden cases: with licence for members of his household whom he shall approve to have dealings (communicandi) therewith even in matters of trade (mercimoniis).

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve from excommunication and other sentences, and to dispense on account of irregularity incurred, if any, ecclesiastics within his nunciature, religious and secular (the words seculares et regulares, which were first written, are cancelled), who have ministered when not ordained.

Ibid.
(l. 51.)

To the same. Faculty to cause apt and able scholars to receive the tonsure (clericali caractere insigniri), and fit persons to be promoted to all holy orders, by a catholic bishop of his choice.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to grant to members of his household, once only, in the article of death, indulgence of plenary remission of sins.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to allow clerks within his nunciature, studying in any lawful faculties whatsoever in universities, to receive for five years the fruits of their benefices during absence.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make composition (componendi) with usurers with respect to uncertain usuries, provided that those to whom payment or restitution is due be unknown or cannot be found; and to absolve such usurers, after satisfaction made, from excommunication or other sentences incurred. Such sums as he shall receive by way of composition the pope intends to apply to the defence of the rights, lands, and goods of the Roman church, and the nuncio is, as quickly as he can, to certify thereof the officers of the camera.

Ibid.
(l. 51d.)

To the same. Faculty to use in behalf of members of his household, when without the limits of his nunciature, the same indulgences and graces which have been granted in their favour when within the same.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to confirm to members of his household collations and provisions of any benefices whatsoever made by papal authority.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense members of his household and other ecclesiastical persons within his nunciature who hold dignities or benefices with cure of souls or other benefices requiring priest's orders, so that, provided they become subdeacon within a year, they need not be ordained priest for seven years.

1378.

Ibid.
(f. 52.)

To the same. Faculty to surrogate fit persons to those members of his household who die when litigating in the Roman court with respect to any benefices whatsoever, even if they die in the said court. Such persons shall be established in the same rights with respect to such benefices which were possessed by the said members of his household at the time of their death.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve those who have incurred sentences of excommunication under processes made by the popes on Holy Thursday against whosoever act contrary to the tenor of the same.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make enquiry concerning any ecclesiastical persons soever, religious and secular, of any dignity and rank, even the pontifical, exempt and not exempt, even of the mendicant orders, who, pretending that Bartholomew sometime archbishop of Bari is pope, obey, adhere to, and favour him, receive his letters and mandates, and assail the pope with words of contumely and opprobrium; to cite them, and, if they be found guilty, and persist in their rebellion, to take, arrest, imprison, punish, and correct them, and otherwise execute due justice upon them.

Ibid.

(f. 53.)

To the same. Faculty to absolve from excommunication and to dispense on account of irregularity, if any, two hundred persons within his nunciature who have been promoted to priest's or other orders per saltum, provided that they were so promoted by catholic bishops and that they afterwards took the orders omitted.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to absolve from excommunication or other penalties promulgated by processes of the present pope or his predecessors, by heresy inquisitors, or by other papal delegates or sub-delegates, against adherents of heretics and of rebels against the pope, his predecessors, and the Roman church.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to employ all faculties, graces, and letters conferred upon him by divers letters of the pope respecting dispensations for matrimony, grants of the office of notary, and collations of benefices, in going to and returning from his nunciature, provided that he do not employ them within the limits of the nunciatures of other cardinals whom the pope is sending this day to other realms.

Ibid.

(f. 53d.)

To the same. Faculty to absolve from excommunication incurred, if any, and to dispense on account of irregularity, a hundred persons who have received orders from excommunicated bishops and those who have received orders from other bishops than their own, without licence from their own bishops, have ministered therein, and have before or after such ordination obtained from such bishops collations of benefices.

1378.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make provision of benefices, as above, f. 49d, as far as the words "expectation of one or two benefices." The pope wills that if a person who receives such benefice from the nuncio already hold three or more other benefices he shall resign one of them; and that if a person hold two benefices and a canonry, by papal provision, with expectation of a prebend, dignity, personatus, administration, or office, or hold two benefices with similar expectation of one or two others, such papal graces shall become ipso facto null and void.

Ibid.

(f. 54.)

To the same. Faculty to receive resignations of any benefices whatsoever within his nunciature, and to make provision of them, one to a single person, according to the faculty above, f. 49d.

Ibid.

(f. 54d.)

To the same. Faculty to deprive of their benefices those ecclesiastics, secular and regular, of his nunciature, who adhere and persist in adhering to Bartholomew sometime archbishop of Bari, and to make provision thereof to fit persons. The pope wills, as above, f. 53d.

Ibid.

(f. 56d.)

To the same. Faculty to receive and cause to be received ten [dignities, personatus, offices, or administrations (the omission is supplied from the Rubricæ)] in ten cathedral, even metropolitan, churches, and other ten (alias decem) in as many monasteries or other places of whatsoever order within the limits of his nunciature.

Ibid.

To the same. Power to absolve clerks and laymen, and their satellites, who have laid sacrilegious hands on churches, monasteries, benefices, and ecclesiastics; and in the case of clerks to dispense them on account of consequent irregularity, if any.

Ibid.

(f. 56.)

To the same. Faculty—in extension of the faculty (f. 50) to absolve and dispense ecclesiastics, secular and regular, who have had provision of benefices from the wicked man the son (alumnus) of perpetual malediction, Bartholomew sometime archbishop of Bari—to make provision anew of the same benefices to the same persons, upon their return to the obedience of the pope and the Roman church and their being absolved and dispensed.

Ibid.

(f. 56d.)

To the same. Faculty to reserve in ten regular cathedral or metropolitan churches, and in ten monasteries or other places of any order whatsoever, dignities, personatus, administrations, or offices, with or without cure of souls, one in each of such churches and monasteries; and to make provision thereof to twenty persons of his choice, even if such person hold a benefice or office and have expectation of another. Of the persons who by these presents obtain a dignity, personatus, administration, or office, those who already hold a benefice or office shall resign the same; and in the case of those who have expectation of such benefice or office, the grace under which they expect shall become null and void.

1378.

Ibid.
(f. 57d.)

To the same. Faculty to make provision to fit persons of his choice of all and singular benefices, secular and regular, with or without cure, of any members of his household whatsoever—even though they be papal chaplains or abbreviators or writers of apostolic letters, or otherwise officers of the apostolic see—which are void or shall become void during his mission.

Ibid.
(f. 58.)

To the same. Appointing him nuncio, as above, f. 41d.

1379.

6 Kal. Aug.
Avignon.
(f. 65d.)

DE INDULTIS, PRIVILEGIIS ET DISPENSATIONIBUS.

To David, abbot, and the convent of Holyrood, Edinburgh. Indult, on petition also of king Robert, for him and his successors to freely use the mitre, ring, and other pontifical insignia; likewise to give solemn benediction in the monastery (whose abbots are by custom the king's principal chaplains), in priories subject thereto, and in parish and other churches belonging in common or severally to the said abbot and convent, although not subject pleno jure, provided that no bishop or papal legate be present.

13 Kal. April.
Fondi.
(f. 112.)

To the bishops of St. Andrews and Glasgow. Mandate to summon Robert de Clakkston, Benedictine prior of Goldingham, in the diocese of St. Andrews, and others concerned, and to inform themselves touching the crimes of sacrilege, robbery, homicide, rapine, and devastation, of which the prior is accused, and his felonies against king Robert, whose ancestors founded and built the priory, and endowed it with a barony. If the facts be as stated, they are to deprive and remove the prior.

17 Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 157.)

Appropriation to the Augustinian abbot and convent of St. Mary's, Cambuskyneth, of the vicarage of Clacmanan, in the diocese of St. Andrews, value 10 marks, of their patronage, the rectory of which is already appropriated to them. Gregory XI. reserved all vicarages and other benefices with or without cure void through provisions made by him of archdeaconries, dignities, personatus, offices, and other benefices soever; after which the said vicarage became void through the promotion by that pope of Maurice de Strathern to the archdeaconry of Dunblane [See Cal. Pet. i. 556, 559], and had not yet been disposed of by Gregory when he died. The present pope confirmed the reservation of such benefices reserved by his predecessor and not disposed of. Afterwards the petition of the said abbot and convent stated that their monastery had suffered from constant wars, their chalices, books, and other altar ornaments and other goods having been stolen, and their bell-tower struck by lightning, whereby the choir is greatly ruined. They are to depute one of their canons, or a fit priest, to serve the vicarage. [See Reg. ccxcii, f. 244.]

Kal. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 199d.)

Relaxation of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms to the church of the Augustinian monastery of St. Catherine, Catdrnym Omany, in the diocese of 1379.

Clonfert. The pope [as above, Reg. cclxxxiv. f. 105d], strictly forbids these present letters to be sent by collectors; if this be attempted, they are invalid. [Cal. Pet. i. 542.]

7 Kal. Nov.

Avignon.
(f. 218d.)

To the bishop of Glasgow. Mandate to inform himself touching the petition of the Augustinian abbot and convent of Combuskyneth for a renewal of the appropriation formerly made to them by William bishop of St. Andrews, in consideration of the calamities recounted above (f. 157), of the church of Kinnoull of their patronage in his diocese, possession of which they obtained on the death of the rector, Brice de Kreye and held for two years or thereabouts, after which a question arose between them and Andrew de Tribrine, priest of the same diocese, who asserted that he had papal provision of the said church. On the cause being heard (contilata) before a papal auditor, and a definitive sentence being obtained by Andrew against the abbot and convent, against which they made no appeal, he despoiled them of their possession of the church, which he still holds. If the bishop find the facts to be as stated, and if he find expedient, he is to procure the appropriation anew of the church to the abbey and convent without requiring the licence of the diocesan, or of any other, to take effect on the voidance of the church by the resignation or death of Andrew, a vicar's portion being assigned. [Cal. Pet. i. 539.]

REGESTA. VOL. CCXCII.

2 CLEMENT VII. ANTI-POPE.

DE INDULTIS, PRIVILEGIIS, ET DISPENSATIONIBUS.

1380.

6 Id. Jan.

Avignon.
(f. 2d.)

To John de Caron, canon of Moray, licentiate in canon and civil law. Indult to him, who is also M.A. and licentiate in civil and in canon law in the universities of Orleans and Paris respectively, and is in priest's orders, to take at Avignon or any other university the doctorate (doctoratus insignia) in both laws, notwithstanding the statutes of Paris and Orleans, which he has sworn to observe, and by which he cannot do so elsewhere than at Paris and Orleans.

1379.

15 Kal. Dec.

Avignon.
(f. 33d.)

To William Gerland, canon of Caithness, M.A. Confirmation of the provision made to him by the present pope of a canonry of Caithness, with reservation of a prebend and personatus or office, with or without cure [10 Kal. Dec. 1378. See Cal. Pet. i. 543], notwithstanding that no mention was made therein of a previous provision, also by the present pope, of a canonry of 1379.

Moray with similar reservation [15 Kal. Dec. 1378. See Ibid. 545]. William, who is in priest's orders, has also the vicarage of Nautill (Newtyle), which has cure of souls (vicariam curatam), and the chaplaincy of Duffus castle, in the dioceses of St. Andrews and Moray, of which the first is to be resigned [See Ibid. 575]. As soon as by either of the two letters of provision he shall obtain such personatus or office with cure, the remaining letters, as far as regards another personatus or office, shall be null and void.

1380.

5 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 40d.)

To Peter Bricii, a Hospitaller. Declaration that he is in no wise bound to the order of Carmelites, which, at the instigation of certain of his father's friends, he entered in his tenth or eleventh year, and assumed the regular habit, but which before completing a year's probation, and before making any profession, he quitted in order to enter the order of St. John of Jerusalem.

1379.

7 Kal. Nov.
Anno 1.
Avignon.
(f. 47.)

To the bishop of Glasgow. Mandate as above, Reg. ccxci. f. 218d.

1380.

8 Id. April.
Avignon.
(f. 80.)

To Thomas Macheugan, Augustinian prior of St. Coman's, Roscommon, in the diocese of Elphin. Extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) when a secular clerk, to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure; (ii) upon his receiving provision of his priory, to exercise the cure and administration thereof; (iii) to receive and exchange as often as he chose the dignity of abbot—so that he may now be promoted to any dignity soever, even the episcopal. [See Cal. Pet. i. 541.]

3 Non. May.
Avignon.
(f. 137.)

To John de Congallis, rector of Kinlochgonue or Kinlochgoule (Lochgoilhead), in the diocese of Argyle. Dispensation to him, who is in priest's orders, and has studied canon law for three years and more at Paris, to hold any benefice soever with cure of souls. Within three years from his obtaining such benefice, he is to exchange it or his parish church for another benefice compatible with the one retained, otherwise at the end of that period he is to resign his church.

Ibid.
(f. 137d.)

Relaxation of a year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of fifty days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms to the fabric of the chapel of the poor hospital of St. John the Evangelist, Hochtyrogale, in the diocese of St. Andrews.

16 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 137d.)

To the bishops of Glasgow and St. Andrews. Mandate to make diligent enquiry touching the great part of the ransom still unpaid for the late king David, which king Robert, by reason of manifold wars in Scotland, cannot pay, and which he has petitioned the pope to help him to pay by granting him a tenth or other subsidy. The bishops are to enquire and to report under seal what ecclesiastical subsidy and of what kind ought to be imposed by the pope, who thinks it meet and just that the king should be helped by the clergy and people of his realm.

1380.

8 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 199.)

To William de Camera, clerk, of the diocese of Aberdeen. Confirmation to him, who has by letters of the present pope provision of a canonry of Dunkeld with reservation of a prebend, of the reservation made to him by Guy cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem, papal nuncio to the realms of England, Scotland, and Ireland, with all the power of a legate a latere, of a benefice value 20*l.* with cure of souls or 15*l.* without, in the common or several gift of the bishop and chapter of St. Andrews, notwithstanding that the cardinal, at the time of the reservation, had not yet entered the realm of Scotland. [See Cul. Pet. i. 550.]

4 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 199d.)

To the chancellor of Paris. Mandate to admit Theodore or Theodoric de Montigniaco, Augustinian friar and reader (lector) of Paris, to lecture on the 'Sentences' in the university of Paris during the following summer vacation, or as often as he shall please and when he shall demand; and afterwards, at the end of the summer or when he shall have completed his lecturing, if found fit after examination, to grant him the honour of mastership and the licence to teach in the faculty of theology. Theodore has lectured on the 'Sentences' for ten years and more in divers universities, and in the last chapter general of the order [at Verona, 1377] was nominated to lecture on the 'Sentences' and to receive the mastership in theology at Oxford, which he has been and is unable to do especially by reason of the wars between Charles king of France and Edward king of England. [Denifle and Chatelain, Chartul. Univ. Paris. iii. No. 1442. From Avig. Reg. xviii. f. 563d.]

5 Non. July.
Avignon.
(f. 204d.)

To the bishop of Chichester. Mandate, on petition of the Benedictine abbot and convent of St. Martin's, Sées, to inform himself touching the resignation to be made by them of the priory of Arundel in the following circumstances:—At the time when William duke of the Normans, called the Conqueror (conquisitor), acquired the realm of England, Roger de Montgomerici, knight, built, founded, and endowed the said monastery, and obtained the appropriation to it of the said priory, in which were previously twelve secular canons of the English nation. The abbot and convent elected the prior from their own monastery, and have been accustomed to send five of their monks to the priory, from which they have drawn no other profit. The petition further sets forth that eighteen of their monks have been violently expelled from the said priory and from other of their dependent priories in England, of 1380.

which priories the abbot and convent are thus despoiled, whereby they, as well as the said eighteen monks, are almost compelled to beg (quasi mendicare). Further, John (sic) earl of Arundel, in whose domain the priory is situate, desiring to reduce it to its pristine state and to institute anew and to endow therein a chanter (cantorem) as its head, with eleven secular canons, has requested the abbot and convent to resign their rights and to assign them to the said chanter and canons, offering them as an equivalent for such rights and for the sustentation of five monks a fitting compensation in ready money. If the facts be as stated, the bishop is to receive from the abbot and convent the resignation of the priory, and to give the earl licence to institute the chanter and canons, the compensation money being wholly devoted by the monastery to repairs rendered necessary by the wars and to the purchase of rents.

8 Id. May.
Avignon.
(f. 239d.)

To Geoffrey de Lymonia or Lymovia, preceptor of the Augustinian house or preceptory of St. Anthony, London, papal chaplain. Indult (he having been unable to collect the fruits of his preceptory by reason of the long wars between England and France, and of the schism caused by that wicked man and son (alumynus) of perdition, Bartholomew sometime archbishop of Bari), exempting him until such time as he shall collect the fruits of his preceptory, or shall receive provision of another benefice or preceptory, from the payment of the burdens, tallages (tallias), and contributions imposed by the chapter general or abbot of the monastery of St. Anthony, [Vienne,] which payment he has for the past three years been unable to meet. All sentences inflicted or to be inflicted upon him are hereby annulled, and dispensation is given on account of consequent irregularity, if any.

5 Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 242.)

Confirmation, on petition of bishop Alexander, Adam de Tynningham, dean, and the chapter of Aberdeen, of the gift of a yearly rent of 6 marks to God, the Blessed Virgin, and all saints, and a perpetual chaplain in the choir of Aberdeen, made by William de Keth, lord of the barony of Alden in the same diocese, from his lands of Acheydonald in the said barony, in consideration of the manifold services to him of William de Calabre, canon of Aberdeen, and for his own soul and the soul of the said canon. [Registrum Ep. Aberdonen. Spalding Club, I. 124.]

Ibid.
(f. 244.)

To the Augustinian abbot and convent of St. Mary's, Cambuskyneth. Confirmation of the appropriation of the perpetual vicarage of Clacmanan, value 15 marks, notwithstanding that in their former petition the vicarage had been declared to be of the value of 10 marks. [See Reg. cexci. f. 157.]

LITTERE DE CURIA.

4 Id. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 247d.)

To Guy cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem, papal nuncio. Faculty to receive from any persons soever, secular and regular, of his nunciature, resignations of any benefices 1380.

soever, below the pontifical, made for the purpose of exchange, and to make provision thereof.

Ibid.
(f. 248.)

To the same. Extension of his faculty to make provision of benefices, above, Reg. cxcxi. f. 49d, the values being now defined as follows:—If taxed, and in the parts where the basis of taxation is the silver mark, they shall not exceed 30 silver marks with cure of souls and 20 without; if taxed, and in other parts where the basis is the pound petits Tournois, they shall not exceed 40 pounds petits Tournois with cure of souls and 30 without—in the parts, that is, where the ancient taxation of the tenth has been reduced to half; and in other parts where it is not reduced they shall not exceed 60 pounds petits Tournois with cure and 40 without, according to the said taxation, if taxed, or where the benefices have not been so taxed, according to the amount accustomed to be paid for the tenth.

Ibid.
(f. 249.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense ten men and as many women to intermarry who are related in the third degree of affinity, or between whom there is an impediment arising from quasi-affinity (proveniens ex pu[bli]ce hon[esta]tis justitia).

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to grant letters of provision under the form for poor clerks to such poor clerks, acolytes, subdeacons, deacons and priests of his legation who before and after the death of Gregory XI were, at Rome and Anagni, examined in letters (litteratura) and found fit, and who returned from those parts without the papal letters of provision. The values of the benefices to be so given are defined as follows:—In the parts where the basis of taxation is the mark, they shall not exceed 20 silver marks with cure and 15 without; where the basis is the pound petits Tournois, and where the ancient taxation of the tenth has been reduced to half, they shall not exceed 20 pounds petits Tournois with cure and 15 without; in other parts where the reduction does not exist they shall not exceed 40 pounds petits Tournois with cure or 30 without, according to the said taxation, if taxed, or if not taxed, according to the amount accustomed to be paid for the tenth.

Ibid.
(f. 249d.)

To the same. Faculty to grant licence to three hundred persons of either sex, within and without the limits of his nunciature, to choose their confessor, who may give them plenary remission in the article of death.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to grant licence to two hundred persons of either sex to have a portable altar.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to confirm collations and provisions of any benefices soever within his nunciature made or to be made by papal or ordinary authority, provided that such benefices were not held by members of the pope's household, as though such benefices were not reserved to the pope or their collation had not lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council.

1380.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to give the tonsure within his nunciature, within and without the statutory times.

Ibid.

(f. 250.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense two hundred persons on account of illegitimacy as born of unmarried or married persons or of priests, to hold one, two, or three benefices, one of which may have cure of souls, and to resign or exchange the same for similar or dissimilar benefices.

3 Id. Sept.

Avignon.

(f. 255d.)

To the same. Faculty, even though he be without the limits of his nunciature, to summon those concerned, and to remove from their benefices and offices below the pontifical in England and Scotland all regulars and seculars, adherents of Bartholomew sometime archbishop of Bari, and to make provision thereof to fit persons of his choice. [Not in Rubrice.]

[The volume is incomplete. Twenty-eight Littere communes indicated in the Rubrice are wanting. None of them concern England.]

Avignon.
(f. 121d.)

To the bishop of Glasgow. Mandate, on the petition of John, Premonstratensian abbot, and the convent of Driburch in the diocese of St. Andrews, and if the facts be as stated, to ratify and confirm (i.) the grant (concessit et dedit ac . . . transtulit) made to them formerly (olim) by John son of the late John de Maxwellis of Pentelant, knight, of the patronage of the church of Penteland and of the chapel of Pastoun, with ten acres of land by Sowthsyde [of Newton], in the said diocese; (ii.) the subsequent collation and gift by William bishop of St. Andrews of the said church and chapel, to be held and possessed by them upon the resignation or death of Gilbert de Gleir, rector of the same; (iii.) the unanimous confirmation by the chapter of St. Andrews of the said collation and gift; the three being contained in sealed letters (not here exemplified) of the knight, of the bishop, and of the chapter. Upon Gilbert's death the abbot and convent took possession and have held it for twenty years and more. If a perpetual vicar with a fitting portion assigned have not been deputed, one is to be deputed by the bishop.

Ibid.

(f. 122.)

To the same. A like mandate touching (i.) a similar grant, made by Walter Steward (Senescallus) of Scotland [1326], of the patronage of the church of Maxtoun and four acres of land in Lonecrofto, both in the diocese of Glasgow, to the said abbot and convent of Driburch; (ii.) a similar collation and gift of possession by John late bishop of Glasgow, to take effect on the death of John de Goware, rector of the same; (iii.) the confirmation by the chapter of the said collation and gift. Upon John's death the abbot and convent took possession, and have held it for thirty years and more. A perpetual vicar is, as above, to be deputed by the bishop. [See Innes, Origines Paroch. Scot., Bannatyne Club, I. 298.]

3 Non. June.

Avignon.
(f. 124.)

To William bishop of St. Andrews. Indult that his confessor may dispense him, being feeble and broken with age, to eat eggs and milk-meats (ovis et quibuslibet lacticiniis) twice or thrice daily in Lent and on other fast days.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense six men and six women of his city and diocese, related to one another in the fourth degree of kindred or affinity, to intermarry.

Ibid.

To the same. Indult that his confessor may commute into other works of piety his life-long vow to fast every Wednesday.

Ibid.

(f. 124d.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense ten persons of his city and diocese, of illegitimate birth, to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure of souls.

Ibid.

Indult, on petition of the bishop and chapter of the Augustinian church of St. Andrews, that the claustral subprior, who is continually resident as penitentiary of the bishops of that see, shall annually, on the feast of SS. Peter and Paul and during its octave, give absolution and enjoin penance to those who devoutly repair to the said church ; likewise, that he may dispense on account of irregularities, even as the minor papal penitentiaries dispense those who personally visit the apostolic see.

15 Kal. June.
Pont de Sorgues.
(f. 126.)

To the bishop and chapter of St. Andrews. Grant—for the rebuilding of the cathedral church, which has been destroyed by fire—of the fruits of the first or second year, at their choice, of whatsoever benefices, with or without cure, shall during the coming ten years become void in the city and diocese. A fitting portion is to be reserved for those who serve them.

3 Non. June.

Avignon.
(f. 34.)

Suspension from the administration of his diocese in spiritualities and temporalities of Robert bishop of Killala, under the following circumstances:—The pestiferous man Bartholomew, formerly archbishop of Bari, having been by violence intruded into the apostolic see, and a number of prelates and other ecclesiastical persons of the parts of Ireland having adhered to him, the pope sent Thomas [de Roschoman, added in the following letter, f. 35] prior of St. Coman's, Roscommon, in the diocese of Elphin, with letters containing the truth of the said intrusion and of his own election, and the processes against Bartholomew and his adherents, with power to convoke the clergy and people of the said parts to see the letters published; the pope, moreover, ordered the archbishop of Tuam and his suffragans to publish them in their cities and dioceses. Afterwards, when the prior summoned to Roscommon the archbishop and the bishops of Kilmaedunagh and Clonfert, and Robert bishop of Killala, his suffragans, to see and hear the publication, the said Robert sent John Macoyreachtayg, archdeacon of Killala, to oppose and disobey the same, and to assert Bartholomew to be the true pope. Upon the prior publishing the letters in the presence of the archbishop, the bishops of Kilmaedunagh, Clonfert, and Achonry, and other prelates, and a multitude of seculars, regulars, and lay persons, who professed themselves ready to obey, the said John, in the name of Robert, made opposition (Robert afterwards ratifying the same), asserting that Bartholomew was the true pope, naming him Urban VI. and endeavouring to bring the clergy and people of the same cities and dioceses to his obedience. When the archbishop admonished Robert, and ordered him to desist from his rebellion against the pope and the Roman church, to return to the unity of the catholic church, and to publish in his diocese the aforesaid processes, he persevered in his rebellion, and the archbishop declared that he was to be deposed from the episcopal dignity. Robert, by certain letters of the said Bartholomew, publicly declared the archbishop excommunicate, tried to induce his subjects not to obey him, and caused sums of money due to the papal camera to be assigned to Hugh bishop of Clonmacnoise (Oluariensis for Cluanensis, as in the following letter, f. 35), for the said Bartholomew. The prior then cited Robert to appear before Peter cardinal priest of St. Mark's, at Avignon, to whom, and to Nicholas cardinal priest of St. Mary's in Trastevere, the pope gave a verbal commission to examine the case against Robert, and to report to the pope. The cardinals, inasmuch as Robert had not answered to his citation, cited him again, and on his again not appearing, proceeded to the inquisition of the case. On their report, and after diligent deliberation with them, the pope suspends the bishop. [Cf. Valois, II. 317n.]

Ibid.
(f. 35.)

To the archbishops of Armagh and Cashel, and to the bishop of Glasgow. Recapitulation of the above circumstances of the suspension of Robert bishop of Killala, the administration of whose diocese the pope commits to Cornelius Oconeyl, canon of Tuam; with mandate to execute the same.

Ibid.
(f. 36.)

Suspension, in like manner as above, of Thomas bishop of Elphin, who acknowledged (as above) Bartholomew as the true pope, and, on pretext of his letters, admitted Malachy Ochynnerigi to the deanery, refused to obey the monitions and mandates of the archbishop of Tuam (as above), declared him excommunicate (as above) in the church of Kingstown (Villa Regum) in the diocese of Tuam, and caused sums of money to be assigned (as above). Having been twice cited to appear (as above), he remains contumacious.

(f. 61d.)

To the bishops of Glasgow, Dunkeld, and Aberdeen. Mandate of provision in favour of William abbot of the Benedictine monastery of Londors (Lindores) in the diocese of St. Andrews, who received provision thereof from the present pope, but having been unable to obtain possession, has received further provision, under mandate addressed to the above three bishops, of Dunfermline, said to be void by the resignation, made to William bishop of St. Andrews, of John de Stramigloke (Strathmiglo). The pope now orders that if they do not find that Dunfermline is void, and provision thereof have not been made to William, as above, they are to make provision to him, if found fit, of any other void monastery of any order under the rule of St. Benedict, [monasteries] of the Cistercian order and the Benedictine monastery of Calcow (Kelso) in the diocese of St. Andrews being alone excepted; notwithstanding that such monastery be of another order, or the habit therein be of another colour and form than in Londors. The pope wills, 1383.

however, that William shall wear the habit thereof and otherwise conform himself. The bishops are to receive his oath of fealty according to the form inclosed and send it under seal to the pope.

3 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 98d.)

To William abbot of Lindores. Grant and assignation of an annual pension of 20*l.* to be paid in equal portions at Christmas and Candlemas, upon the abbatial mensa of Dunfermline, until he obtains possession of the goods of Lindores or other monastery.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Glasgow, and the provosts of Avignon and the free royal chapel of St. Andrews.

2 Kal. June.
Avignon.
(f. 103d.)

To Duncan Petit, provost of St. Andrews. Faculty to him, who is secretary of king Robert, to dispense twelve persons of the realm, of illegitimate birth, to be ordained and hold a benefice apiece, even with cure of souls.

2 Non. June.
Avignon.
(f. 103d.)

To the same. Faculty to dispense six men and as many women of the realm, related to one another in the third or fourth degree of kindred or affinity, to intermarry; or having married in ignorance of an impediment, to remain in the marriage so contracted, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

5 Id. June.

(f. 114.)

Confirmation, with exemplifications, on the petition of the Benedictine abbot and convent of Dunferynlyne in the diocese of St. Andrews, of their grant in fee, as also of the confirmations thereof by the sealed letters patent of king Robert and William bishop of St. Andrews, of all lands in the domain (dominii) of Swyntoun Magna to John de Swyntoun, knight, lord of Swyntoun Parva, in return for an annual pension or casa of 20 marks from him and his heirs to the prior and monks of the dependent priory of Coldinghine in the same diocese. The letters of abbot John and the convent of Dunfermline, containing the details of the grant of the said lands, which are situate in the barony of Coldingham and the county of Sewlkik (Selkirk), are sealed with the common seal of the chapter, and are witnessed by William bishop of St. Andrews; John earl of Carrik, steward of Scotland; Robert earl of Fife and Menteth; William earl of Douglas and Mar; George earl of March, lord of Annandale 1383.

(Vallis Anandie) and Man; John earl of Moray (Muriabe); James de Douglas, lord of Liddesdale (Vallis de Lydel), Archibald de Douglas, lord of Galloway (Galwidie), knights, and many others not named. The confirmation by Robert king of Scots is sealed with his seal, and is witnessed by William bishop of St. Andrews; John bishop of Dunkeld, the king's chancellor; John earl of Carryk, the king's eldest son, steward of Scotland; Robert earl of Fif and Menteth, the king's son; William earl of Douglas and Mar, the king's cousin; James de Lyndessay, the king's nephew, and Alexander de Lyndessay, the king's cousin, knights; at Methfen, 20 May, in the tenth year of his reign. The confirmation by William de Loundols, bishop of St. Andrews, is sealed with his seal and the common seal of the chapter, and dated at St. Andrews, 2 Nov. 1382.

Id. June.
Avignon.
(f. 145.)

To Alan de Lorgis, rector of Meffen in the diocese of St. Andrews. Dispensation to him, who holds also a canonry and prebend of Dunkeld, and is clerk of the audit (clericus probationis) of king Robert's house, to receive one other benefice with cure of souls, even an elective dignity in a collegiate church, and to retain with it, during the pope's pleasure, his rectory.

Ibid.
(f. 145d.)

To Duncan Petyt, provost of St. Mary's, St. Andrews, bachelor of canon and civil law. Extension to him, who is archdeacon of Whitehern, of a former dispensation from the present pope—to receive and hold, along with his archdeaconry, which is a dignity with cure, or (the same being resigned) to hold along with another benefice, even a dignity, personatus, or office, with cure, any other benefice with cure, even a dignity, personatus, or office; on condition that within a certain time expressed he should exchange for a compatible benefice his archdeaconry or the additional benefice, the pope willing that the archdeaconry should otherwise, upon the expiry of that time, be resigned and declared void—so that he (who is secretary of king Robert, and has by virtue of the above dispensation obtained the provostship of St. Mary's, St. Andrews, a dignity with cure) may, even after the expiry of the said time, retain and hold both his archdeaconry and the said provostship, or, if either of them be exchanged or otherwise resigned, may retain and hold in its place, along with the other, a benefice with cure, even a dignity, personatus, or office. [See Reg. cclx. f. 7d.]

Kal. Oct.
Chateaufneuf, dioc.
Avignon.
(f. 187d.)

To the bishop of Brechin, and the officials of St. Andrews and Dunkeld. Mandate to summon those concerned, and, if the facts be as stated, to make order respecting the Benedictine monastery of Lundors (Lindores) in the diocese of St. Andrews, into which John Steil, monk of the same, has intruded himself, and which abbot William and Hugh Liel, Simon de Dundee and John de Angusia, monks thereof, refusing to obey and adhere to the said John, and to dwell (conversari) with him and other excommunicated monks, and fearing therefore imprisonment, other vexations, and evil treatment, have been constrained to leave. John Steele and his accomplices have taken a topaz value 20*l.* delivered by Roger, late abbot, to the custody of Hugh, as well as books, vestments, copes, cloths (pannis), and other of their goods, so that the said abbot and monks have for two years been forced to beg among their friends. Further, although other monks, John's adherents, refusing to obey abbot William and the papal mandates, have been publicly excommunicated by him, they do not fear to celebrate divine offices and take part therein, of whom two, John de Stramygloke (Strathmiglo) and Donald de Echlyn, have presumed to take priest's orders. The said goods are to be restored, and a provision for food and clothing is to be made from the rents of the monastery until abbot William shall obtain possession; the sentences of excommunication are to be solemnly published, and the said John de Stramygloke and Donald are to be suspended from their orders until they come to the apostolic see to be absolved. Relaxation of one year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms towards the rebuilding of the bridge which existed on the river Newdach in Cowal, in the diocese of Argyle.

1383.

12 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 155.)

Confirmation of the grant by William bishop of St. Andrews with consent of the chapter, to the Benedictine abbess and convent of North Berwyk of the vicarage of the church of North Berwyk, made to them on its voidance by the re-signation to that bishop of John Fabri [See Cal. Pet. i. 551]. They have held the same for twenty-three years and more, and have presented to the said bishop and his successors, in accordance with the conditions of the grant, a chaplain to serve the church, assigning him a certain pension paid yearly. If the pension be not sufficient, a fit portion is to be assigned to the chaplain from the fruits of the vicarage.

related and being ignorant of the existence of an impediment, to remain in the marriages so contracted, declaring past and future offspring legitimate.

Ibid.

To the same. Mandate to visit in person or by deputy exempt monasteries of both sexes and those immediately subject to the apostolic see, in the realms of Scotland and Ireland, they being in many ways deformed and broken down (collapsa), and to correct and reform what is amiss therein; with power for his deputies to receive moderate stipends therefrom.

Ibid.
(f. 37d.)

To the same. Power for two years to cause, in his city and diocese, by any bishop or bishops in communion with the apostolic see, the first clerical tonsure and all other minor and holy orders to be conferred, bishops, churches, basilicas, and altars to be consecrated, abbots, abbesses, vestments, and church vessels to be blessed, churches and places to be reconciled, chrism and oil to be made for the sick, and other things pertaining to the pontifical office.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to dispense a hundred persons of the realms of Scotland and Ireland, of illegitimate birth, to be ordained and receive and hold one, two, or three benefices, one having cure of souls, and to resign or exchange them as often as they please for similar or dissimilar benefices.

Ibid.

To the same. Indult to exercise the same powers in the realms of Scotland and Ireland as are exercised by legates a latere, with faculty to compel obedience from any rank, condition, or order by ecclesiastical censure without appeal, any privilege general or special notwithstanding.

Ibid.
(f. 38.)

To the abbot of Kylwynnyn in the diocese of Glasgow, the provost of St. Andrews, and the subdean of Glasgow. Mandate, recapitulating the above indult (f. 36d.), to cause to be admitted any deputy of the said cardinal sent on the said visitation, and payment to be made to the cardinal or his proctor of the said procurations. [Omitted in Rubrica.]

7 Id. Nov.
Chateauf. (f. 52d.)

Relaxation of penance in favour of the church of St. Andoche de Saulieu (Sedeletto for Sedeloco) in the diocese of Autun, which has been despoiled of its chalices, books, and other ornaments, and for the greater part destroyed by the English and the enemies of the realm of France.

To David Falconer, licentiate of civil law, vicar of Monros in the diocese of Brechin. Conferring on him the dignity of papal chaplain, with the enjoyment of all its privileges, graces, exemptions, liberties, immunities, honours, and prerogatives.

8 Kal. April.

Avignon.
(f. 33d.)

Relaxation of one year and forty days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, those of St. Mary Magdalene and the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of forty days to those who on the said octaves and six days, annually visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of the hospital of St. Mary Magdalene, Muschilburgh, in the diocese of St. Andrews, the buildings of which, as likewise of the hospital, have been so destroyed by the wars raging in those parts, that the poor and infirm and lepers, who were wont to resort thither in great numbers, cannot be received and lodged.

15 Kal. March.

Avignon.
(f. 33d.)

To Walter bishop of St. Andrews. Faculty—seeing that all the bishops of Scotland are immediately subject to the Roman church, that appeal from them must therefore be made immediately to the apostolic see; seeing moreover that, as his petition contains, such appeals from them and other ordinaries of the 1386.

realm, and from judges delegate and sub-delegate by papal letters in the realm, are frequent, and are attended by delay of justice, so that suitors sometimes implore remedy from the secular power, to the prejudice and loss of ecclesiastical liberty—to hear and decide without appeal causes in any first appeals whatsoever lodged (interponi) at the apostolic see from the said bishops, ordinaries, and judges, and to cause his decision to be observed, invoking, if necessary, the aid of the secular arm.

Ibid.
(f. 34.)

To the same. Indult to visit by deputy, when hindered by sickness or any necessity, churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places of his city and diocese and the persons thereof, and to receive the procurations due therefrom in ready money, in accordance with the constitution of Benedict XII. beginning Vas electionis [see Reg. cclxxxiii. f. 214d]. Those who cannot pay in full are to pay according to their means; those who cannot pay anything are not to be compelled.

To David, Augustinian abbot, and the convent of Holyrood, Edinburgh. Indult that he and his successors may promote any of the canons present and future to the four minor orders and that of acolyte, and may bless chalices, corporals, altar-linen (toballias), and vestments, in the said monastery and places subject to it, without requiring the licence or assent of the ordinaries.

Ibid.

Relaxation of enjoined penance to penitents who annually visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of St. Mary, Qwytkyrk (Owytleyle in Rubrice), in the diocese of St. Andrews, situate a day's journey from the boundaries of the enemies of the realm, and renowned for miracles wrought by Jesus Christ, through the intercession and merits of St. Mary: to those who do so on the six feasts of our Lord, and on the feasts of Whitsun Day, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, All Saints, and the dedication, one year and forty days; to those who do so on the four feasts of St. Mary, three years and three quadragene; to those who do so on the octaves of certain of the above and the six days of Whitsun week, fifty days.

19 Kal. Feb.

Avignon.
(f. 95.)

Declaration that the appointment as papal chaplain, made on 17 Kal. July, anno 7, of the late John More, canon of Glasgow [see Cal. Pet. i. 527], held good from that date, even though, as 1386.

it is said, the appointment did not come to his knowledge. (In Rubrice, "John More is declared to have been and to be a chaplain of the apostolic see.")

12 Kal. Sept.
Chateanneuf.
(f. 132d.)

To Raymund Gilberti, a Friar Minor. Mandate to absolve from excommunication, a salutary penance being enjoined, Amaneus (Amedeus in Rubrice) de Moyssida, knight, of the diocese of Périgueux, and a number of his men. Upon the capture by the English of the place of Caslarium in the diocese of Limoges, during the wars in the duchy of Aquitaine, certain armed men of the society of English, of which Amaneus was captain, destroyed during his absence and without his knowledge a certain chapel near the ditch (fossatum) of the said place, which served the enemy as an ambush against the garrison and fortalice (custodie et fortalitis), with the intention of building a similar chapel within the same, which could not afterwards be done and would now be useless, the said place having been destroyed by fire, and remaining still without inhabitants.

DE COMMUNIBUS.

12 Kal. Sept.
Chateanneuf.
(f. 132.)

To the official of Limoges. Mandate to summon those concerned, and, if the facts be as stated, to restore Avallonus Richardi to his preceptory of the united Augustinian houses of St. Anthony, Plantadis (de Plantatis), and Etang (de Estans), in the diocese of Limoges, provision of which, upon its expected voidance by Avallonus obtaining by provision of the pope possession of the preceptory of the Augustinian house of St. Anthony, London, void by the death of Geoffrey de Limova or Limona, the pope ordered to be made to Gondamarius de Angoriaco, canon and penitentiary of the monastery of St. Anthony, Vienne, of the same order; Avallonus, by reason of the detestable schism of the pestiferous man Bartholomew, having been and being unable to obtain the said possession.

REGESTA, VOL. CCXCVIII.

9 CLEMENT VII. ANTI-POPE.

DE INDULTIS.

1387.

5 Non. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 148.)

To John Barber, archdeacon of Aberdeen. Indult at the petition also of Robert, king of Scotland, to visit his archdeaconry [see Cal. Pet. i. 583] by deputy, when engaged in the service of that king, or when hindered by age or infirmity, and to receive the due procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver [gros] Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of the camera; with the usual clause in favour of those who cannot pay in full or at all (see Reg. ccxcvii. f. 34).

1387.

Concurrent mandate to the prior and official of St. Andrews, and the treasurer of Glasgow.

Ibid.

To the bishop of Glasgow. Mandate, at the petition also of Robert, king of Scotland, if the facts be as stated, to dispense Robert de Benachtyn, donsel, and Egidia Steward (seneschalli), damsel, of his diocese, to intermarry, notwithstanding that Egidia's father was godfather to Robert.

3 Non. Oct.
Avignon.
(f. 166d.)

To Henry de Wardlaw, canon of Moray. Confirmation to him, who is licentiate of arts, has been during two years scholar of civil law, and holds a canonry and prebend of Glasgow, of the provision made to him by the present pope of the canonry and prebend of Kynnor in Moray [see Cal. Pet. i. 570, 635], on its voidance by the death (without the Roman court) of Walter, cardinal priest, whose nephew he was; as though mention had been made in the letters of provision that the prebend was an office called the sacristanship (sacristium) without cure of souls and elective.

REGESTA, VOL. COXCIX.

10 CLEMENT VII. ANTI-POPE.

DE INDULTIS, PRIVILEGIIS ET DISPENSATIONIBUS.

1388.

6 Id. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 34.)

To John, bishop of Tusculum. Indult for five years to visit by deputy even on one and the same day two churches, monasteries, or other ecclesiastical places, and the persons thereof in his archdeaconry of Glasgow, and to receive the due procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 80 silver [gros] Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of Florence; with the usual clause in favour of those who cannot pay in full or at all. (See Reg. ccxcvii. f. 34).

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Dunkeld and Ross, and the dean of St. Agriculus, Avignon.

Ibid.

To the same. The like, touching his archdeaconry of Ross.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Dunkeld and Glasgow, and the dean of St. Agriculus, Avignon.

2 Non. Jan.
Avignon.
(f. 35d.)

To Henry de Wardlaw, canon and precentor of Glasgow. Dispensation to him, who is licentiate of arts and nephew of the late cardinal Walter [Wardlaw], and who received recently from the pope provision of the precentorship of Glasgow, a dignity with cure, to receive a parish church, or other benefice with cure, and hold the same together with his precentorship, after getting possession thereof, or with another dignity or another benefice with cure if such be also conferred upon him, and if he do not get possession of the precentorship ; either of such benefices he may exchange for another compatible with the remaining one ; provided that in the precentorship and such benefices the cure of souls be not neglected.

1388.

Kal. Feb.
Avignon.
(f. 47.)

To John, bishop of Tusculum. Decree validating the provision made to him by Gregory XI. 3 Id. Sept. anno 6 (1376) of a canonry, prebend, and the archdeaconry of Glasgow, with exemplification from the register, of the original letters which have been lost, namely (i.) the provision made of the said benefice to him when cardinal of St. Marcellus, the same having been reserved to the pope in the lifetime of Guy, (ii.) the concurrent mandate to the official of Avignon and two others named to induct and defend him in the possession of the archdeaconry.

2 Non. April.
Avignon.
(f. 64d.)

Revocation of certain sentences and processes arising out of a subsidy lately imposed by the pope upon the clergy of the province of Bourges and other provinces in aid of the liberation of castles and fortresses in the parts of Auvergne, Velay (Val-lanie), Gevaudan (Gabiltan'), et Rouergue (Ruthenen'), which had been captured and were then or are even now detained by the English ; Louis duke of Bourbon (Borbonesii) and count of Forez being prepared to expel them from his duchy and county at his own expense.

8 Kal. March.
Avignon.
(f. 83d.)

To Angelus [de Spoletto], a Friar Minor, minister general, master of theology. Mandate to confer upon Angelus de Mananea, a Friar Minor, if found fit after examination by himself and three other masters of theology, the honour of mastership in that faculty and the licence to teach, in the next chapter-general which is to be held at Perpignan in the diocese of Elne. Angelus is an Oxford bachelor, has toiled for very many years in the faculty of theology, and still desires to remain in the study of the same faculty.

9 CLEMENT VII. ANTI-POPE.

1387.

12 Kal. Dec.
Avignon.
(f. 115.)

To Walter, bishop of St. Andrews. Mandate, if he will avoid the vengeance of the pope and the apostolic see, to procure the revocation of such alienations as he shall find unlawful, caused by his predecessors' grants on farm or under an annual cess (censu), to clerks and laymen, to some for life, to others for no short time, and to others in perpetuity ; of tithes, rents, lands, possessions, houses, cottages (casalia), meadows, pastures, granges, woods, mills, rights, jurisdictions, and certain other goods of the episcopal mensa, public instruments, oaths, confirmations, etc. notwithstanding.

REGESTA VOL. CCCX.* [Paper.][†]

2 URBAN VI.

[DE CURIA.]

1380.

15 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 1.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate (whereas persons ecclesiastical and secular, of the realm of England, have carried thither from the Roman court, and there use, letters concerning dispensations for marriage and illegitimacy, indulgences for churches, unions of benefices, and other graces, fabricated under the pope's name and bull by the son (alumnus) of iniquity, Stephen de Cusentia, falsely pretending to be the pope's secretary) to compel all who have any such letters—and especially those concerning graces of expectations of benefices with excessive taxations and not accustomed to be granted, and concerning unions of benefices, or dispensations for marriage or illegitimacy, which it is not probable that the pope has granted, and which are probably suspect—to exhibit the same to him. Such as appear to him suspect, he is to have registered, and is to send as quickly as possible to the pope. (De curia.) 1379.

6 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 2.)

To Cosmatius Gentilis. Appointing him papal nuncio and collector and receiver in England—all previous nuncios, collectors, receivers, and sub-collectors being recalled and removed—of all fruits of benefices collated or to be collated on their voidance, by the pope or by papal authority, of annual cesses and of all other goods due or belonging to the pope, the Roman church and the camera. Peter's pence especially is to be exacted. Plenary faculty and power is given him to hear and examine the accounts of collectors and sub-collectors, or other persons, hitherto deputed, and to compel payment of the above dues and obedience by ecclesiastical censure without appeal, excommunication, citation to the apostolic see, and invocation of the secular arm. The pope wills that he shall not suffer a delay of more than two years in the payment of sums due, that he shall send to himself or to the chamberlain the names of the sub-collectors appointed by him, and that he shall render his accounts every two years. (De curia.) [2½ pp. cf. Reg. cccxi. f. 172d.]

* Registers ccc. (an. 7), ccc. (an. 12, 13), cccii. (an. 14), ccciii. (an. 14), ccciv. (an. 14), cccv. (an. 15, quaternion ii. of which contains ten faculties, etc. dated Avignon, Kal. Feb. an. 15, to Peter [de Luna] sent to France, England, Scotland, Ireland, Flanders, etc.), cccvi. (an. 15, 16), cccvii. (an. 16), paper volumes, Clement VII. belong properly to the Avignon series and contain provisions, reservations, etc. Reg. ccc (from ff. 258-564 of which the parchment Reg. cccxvi. has been copied) and cccvii. alone contain indulgences, privileges, etc. With the exception of Reg. ccc. these volumes have nothing in common with the Vatican series. Reg. cccviii. paper, contains cameral letters of the chamberlain, Francis de Consié, archbishop of Narbonne, 1391-1432, written by his secretary, John Ludovici, between 31 Oct. 1393, and 31 Oct. 1394. On the back: Registrum Card. Camerarii sub Clemente VII. anno xvi. It does not concern England, Scotland, or Ireland. Reg. cccix. paper, a small quarto vol. is a note book, a 'Manuale' (f. 1) of John de Brouke alias de Derleke, of Tournay, notary of the Camera from Wednesday, 26 Oct. 1379[80], an. 2. It does not concern England, Scotland, or Ireland.

[†] On back: Urban[us] VI. Secret[arium] An. [ii.] iii. iv. v., Liber i. On flyleaf in a cursive hand, circ. 1700, the same.

1380.

Kal. March. To Robert de Hoo, canon of Lincoln. Appointing him nuncio
St. Peter's, Rome. and collector in the duchy of Brittany. (De curia.)
 (f. 10d.)

3 URBAN VI.

Kal. May. To Francis bishop of Faenza, dwelling at Rome, and Master
St. Peter's, Rome. Robert de Stratton, papal notary. Mandate, seeing that sons
 (f. 18d.) of perdition have presumed and do presume to challenge the pope's election and to sow (ponere) schism in the church of God, to diligently examine all such as they shall think fit of those who were present at the Roman court when Gregory XI. lay on his bed of sickness and departed this life, and at the time of the present pope's election and coronation and during two or three months thereafter, and to cause to be publicly taken down in writing for a perpetual memory their depositions and the depositions of any other cognisant of what was said and done concerning the said election and coronation by the then cardinals of the holy Roman church. (De curia.) [Raynaldi Ann. 1380
 § 19; Noël Valois, La France et le Grand Schisme, 1896, I.
 209, note.]

7 Id. May. To John de Karlellis, chancellor of Dublin, and William
St. Peter's, Rome. Pyroun or Pyroim, rector of Dounbyng in the diocese of Ar-
 (f. 16.) magh, papal nuncios in Ireland. Mandate to cite to appear, with their accounts, before the pope or his chamberlain, at a time for the fixing of which faculty is hereby given, William, bishop of Emly, and John, bishop of Sodor, papal nuncios and collectors in Ireland, who have received and keep much money, rendering no account to the camera. (De curia.)

[Diplomatarium Norvegicum, vii. 320; Theiner, 365.]

Id. May. To Master Cosmatius Gentilis, chancellor of Capua, licentiate
St. Peter's, Rome. in canon law, papal chaplain and nuncio. [Faculty] to him, (f. 21.) whom the pope has deputed collector in England of dues to the camera, to compel all preachers (predicatores), [and] publishers (publicatores) of the processes lately made by the pope against the anti-pope Robert (Clement VII.) and his followers in England, Scotland and Ireland, to assign sums received and to be received by them on that account to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, dwelling in London (sic), or to their factors and proctors. Of each assignment, the nuncio is to cause two public instruments and several duplicates to be made, keeping one and sending the other (reliquum) to the camera. Faculty is given to the said society to receive the money and to give acquittance, and to the nuncio to compel the said preachers and publishers to render an account. (De curia.) [Theiner, 365.]

Ibid. To the same. Power to assign sums received and to be re(f. 21d.) ceived by him for the pope and the camera to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, or their factors and proctors, dwelling in London. Instruments are to be made, and faculty is given to the said society, as above. (De curia.)

Ibid. To bishops and all preachers and publishers of the above
 (f. 22.) processes in the realms of England, Scotland and Ireland, who hold any sums whatsoever for the camera. Mandate to obey Master Cosmatas Gentilis, according to the contents of the papal letters addressed to him (f. 21), respecting an account of all sums received and to be received by them arising out of the said publication and preaching. (De curia.) [Theiner, 365.]

1380.

Ibid.
(f. 30d.)

To the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, merchants, [and] their factors and proctors dwelling in London. Faculty to receive and give acquittances for sums assigned to them by the nuncios and collectors and by preachers and publishers in England, Scotland and Ireland. (De curia.) [An codem modo: ut supra proxima preceden[ti], i.e. an immediately preceding faculty, on the same page, to the society and their proctors at Bruges in regard to James Dardani, collector in Flanders.]

Ibid.
(f. 31.)

To papal nuncios in Ireland and Scotland. Mandate to assign, in obedience to the mandates and orders of Cosmatas Gentilis, etc. nuncio in England, all sums received by them to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, dwelling in London (sic), or to their factors and proctors. For each assignment they are to make duplicate instruments, keeping one and sending the other to the said collector to England, to be transmitted by him to the camera, to which they are likewise to render a yearly account. (De curia.) [Theiner, 366.]

Ibid.
(f. 31d.)

To the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, merchants, and their factors and proctors dwelling in London. Faculty to receive and give acquittances for sums assigned to them by the collectors and preachers in England, Scotland and Ireland. (De curia.) [An codem modo: ut supra proxima, i.e. a faculty, immediately preceding, to the society and their proctors at Bruges in regard to the collector of Flanders.]

Ibid.

To Master Cosmatas Gentilis, etc. papal nuncio. Faculty to order the collectors and nuncios in Scotland to assign all sums which they have or shall have to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, or their factors and proctors dwelling in London, and to compel them by ecclesiastical censure, or the arrest of their persons and sequestration of ecclesiastical goods, invoking if necessary the aid of the secular arm, etc. Of each assignment made by them he is to have made two public instruments and several duplicates, keeping one and sending the others (reliquas) to the camera. (De curia.)

Ibid.
(f. 32.)

To all collectors and nuncios of Ireland and Scotland. Mandate to assign sums received and to be received by them for the camera to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca dwelling in London (sic), or to their factors and proctors, in obedience to the mandates and orders of Cosmatas Gentilis, etc. nuncio in England. Of each assignment they are to cause duplicate instruments to be made, keeping one and sending the other to the said collector, to be sent by him to the camera. A copy of their accounts is to be sent yearly to the camera. (De curia.) 1380.

Ibid.
(f. 32d.)

To Cosmatus Gentilis, etc. Mandate to inform himself touching the collector of Ireland, and see whether he has sent any moneys received by him as collector, and whether he is diligent in his office; upon which matters he is to certify the camera; likewise whether any of the prelates of Ireland do not obey him. If these things have occurred by his negligence, Cosmatus is to announce it to the pope and the officials of the camera by some honourable and fitting man. (De curia.)

6 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 34d.)

To John de Viridario, dean of St. Seurin without the walls, Bordeaux, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Faculty to him, as collector in the city and diocese of Bordeaux and the duchy of Aquitaine, to order collectors and nuncios in Aquitaine and all preachers against the anti-pope to assign all sums arising from such collectorships and preaching to the society of the Guinisii, citizens of Lucca, or their factors and proctors in England in the city of London, or in the town of Bruges, or to himself for transmission to the said merchants; and to compel, etc. as above, f. 31d. 3 Non. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(l. 86.)

To Michael de Guinisii of Lucca, merchant, at (sequenti) the Roman court. Approving two rolls of accounts with the camera of himself and his associates of the above society. The first roll, for the year 1380, indiction 3, an. 2 Urban VI. contains, among the items of payments, the following:—a loan to the camera of 200 florins of the camera, being money given to Sir James Dardani, clerk of the camera, and 1381.

Sir Cosmatus Gentilis, clerk of the college [of cardinals], 6 April; a payment of 80 florins of the camera to Sir Thomas Bristou, Englishman, alike for a loan as for his burial, 2 Aug. This roll was approved by Litus, bishop of Imola, the pope's treasurer, 26 Jan. 1380, ind. 3, anno 2. Afterwards, on 2 March, Matthew Nutini of Lucca, associate of the above merchants, received in their name 1100*l.* sterling through Cosmatus Gentilis, collector of the camera in England, which amount reduced to the florin of the camera at the rate of 39 sterlings to the florin, makes 6769 florins 9 bolognoni, and this the said merchants had from the said collector up to 10 Dec. last past; this item is approved by the above treasurer on 2 March. The second roll, for the year 1380, ind. 3, anno 2 and 3 Urban VI., contains among the items of receipt the following:—From the collectorate of England without exact date mentioned, 3692 florins of the camera, 14*s.* of Roman money. (Collatio [facta est]) [7 $\frac{1}{2}$ pp.].

10 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 101d.)

To Cosmatus Gentilis, collector in England for the camera. Mandate to pay and assign out of sums collected by him, to Jacobellus Matheoli called Cachiatius, butcher (macellairo) a Roman citizen, 1090 gold florins of the camera, due to him from the camera for beef, pork and mutton (carnibus vacinis, porcinis et crustacinis, i.e., castratinis) for the papal palace and members of the papal household. Faculty is hereby given to Jacobellus to give acquittance, and information of the payment is to be sent to the camera by the nuncio who is to make the usual two instruments.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 119.)

To the chapter and canons of York. Mandate to restore and to assign to Master Cosmatus Gentilis, papal collector, all the fruits of the deanery and certain other benefices formerly held by cardinals, who, as adherents of Robert the anti-pope, have, under processes made by the pope against them and him, been deprived of the cardinalate, their goods moveable and immoveable, and their benefices being confiscated to the camera; the said fruits being held in sequestration by the chapter and canons, who pretend from certain frivolous causes that they belong to themselves.

Ibid.
(f. 122d.)

To Master Cosmatus Gentilis, papal chaplain, licentiate in canon law, chancellor of Capua, papal nuncio. Faculty to admonish the archbishops of Canterbury and York, in consideration of the needs of the camera, to pay thereto without delay their triennial visitationes; and to order them to cite those intruded into the benefices, reserved to the apostolic see, of the rebellious cardinals, and to make restitution to the camera of all fruits received therefrom.

Ibid.
(f. 123.)

To the same, with the additional title of clerk of the college of cardinals. Faculty to appoint sub-collectors in the provinces of Ireland and Scotland. [Theiner, 366.]

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make a composition with Nicholas Feriby, canon of York, respecting the fruits of the prebend of 1381.

Stillington, which, by reason of two annates arising out of provisions made to two cardinals, his predecessors, and out of the provision made to the said Nicholas, is indebted (obligata) to the camera. He has faculty to give acquittance and to send moneys received to the camera.

Ibid.

To the same. Faculty to make a composition with the executors of the will of John Welde, a Friar Minor; to exact and give acquittance for the sum agreed upon; and to sell his books which belong to the camera, and send moneys received therefor.

5 URBAN VI.

1382.

2 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 235d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the abbot of Darley in the diocese of Lichfield, and another named out of England. Mandate to defend Master Richard Thorne, canon of York, bachelor of canon law, in the enjoyment of the privileges of a papal chaplaincy which has recently been conferred on him.

8 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 268d.)

To Cosmatas Gentilis, clerk of the camera, nuncio. Faculty to receive and give acquittance for, absolving the people and commune of Florence from penalties incurred for hitherto non-payments, the sum of 40,000 florins (being part of a total of 250,000 gold florins of Florence, due to the pope under the treaty of peace between Florence and the pope and the Roman church, of which 30,000 only have been paid; as is set forth in a letter on "fol. clxv." to the priors of the arts and the commune of the city of Florence, dated St. Peter's, Rome, 8 Id. Feb. an. 4, referred to in the present letter) upon its being paid either to himself or to John Auchut (Hawkwood) of England, knight, whom with his men-at-arms the pope desires to draw to the service of himself and the Roman church.

7 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 280d.)

To Master Cosmatas [Gentilis] of Sulmona, provost of the church of Valva, papal chaplain and nuncio. Faculty to give acquittances, etc., to him whom the pope is sending for certain arduous matters to Tuscany, Lombardy, Hungary and other parts (De curia).

Ibid.

Item, alia bulla committitur eidem Cosmato cuius tenor habetur folio cclxviii. (above) et clxv. hujus libri, sub data Rome apud sanctum Petrum viii. Id. Septembris anno quinto. [Marginal note, pro eodem.]

3 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 292d.)

Special reservation to the pope (in consideration of the heavy and excessive cost to the camera on account of the pope's daily varied and diverse expenses) of all sums due to the college of cardinals on account of the common services of William sometime bishop of London, elect of Canterbury, lately translated by the pope, and of bishops John of Durham and Robert of London. 4 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 326d.)

To Everard Suyler, knight, marshal general of the men-at-arms of John Agud, knight, Englishman. The pope having learned from Petrolus that the sum of 864 gold florins (being three months' pay for himself and sixteen lances, as above) has not been paid, as ordered by mandate above (f. 323d), hereby revokes the same. Power and faculty is now given him to exact and receive from the said commune, people and officials of Perugia, giving acquittance in the name of the pope and the camera, the said sum, which the pope now assigns and grants to him or his proctor out of the sum of 5000 gold florins which is the proportion due for the present month of March of 60,000 gold florins, the amount of the composition due from Perugia for injuries, contumelies, and losses inflicted on the Roman church. (De curia.) [Theiner, Ibid.]

Ibid.
(f. 327d.)

To the priors of the arts, conservators of the mint (monete) of the pope's city of Perugia, the commune and people of the same. Revoking, as above, a former mandate (f. 323d); informing them of the preceding assignment and grant, power and faculty, the pope willing them to pay in accordance therewith. (De curia.)

4 Id. Nov. To the bishops of Teano and London, and the precentor of St. Peter's, Rome. York. Mandate to compel Anthony de Sancto Quintino, clerk,
(f. 249.) of the diocese of York, to exhibit and consign to John de Ravenser and John de Popilton, clerks, of the dioceses of Lincoln and York, executors of the will of Richard de Ravenser, canon of St. John's, Beverley, certain fruits received by Anthony from the said canonry and prebend, of which he had unjustly despoiled Richard, and costs, as follows:—The cause was long heard (ventilata) in the apostolic palace before divers auditors thereof, and Richard gained, in possessorio only, two definitive sentences against Anthony, whereby he was restored to possession and Anthony condemned in fruits received from the beginning of the suit and in costs in both instances. Upon Anthony's appeal, Richard's proctor, probably in ignorance that Richard had died in [those] parts during this third instance, gained a third definitive sentence, by which the second sentence was confirmed, and Anthony again condemned in fruits and costs, the said proctor obtaining that the said costs should be taxed at 75 gold florins of the camera in the first, and 68 in the second instance. Meanwhile Richard, after the first definitive sentence, and when Anthony had not peacefully possessed the said canonry and prebend for three years, had obtained their sequestration by Richard de Chesterfeld, canon of the same church, under commission from the abbot of Westminster deputed, by papal letters, commissary for the purpose, and they still remain in sequestration. And because, upon Richard's death being notified in the Roman court, Thomas de Fereby, canon of Wells, was surrogated by papal authority to the prosecution of the suit, and, the third sentence being revoked, obtained a further definitive sentence against Anthony, by which the second sentence was again confirmed; and because Anthony gained a definitive sentence in petitorio, and asserted that the above sentences given in possessorio were null in petitorio; the causes were committed by the pope to Master John Trefnant and Master Peter Gasconis, auditors of the palace, and are now pending. As Richard in his will made disposition for certain uses of the said fruits and costs due to him, his executors have petitioned the pope to enable them to recover. The three persons addressed are therefore ordered to compel Anthony to pay to the executors the fruits received by him from the beginning of the suit to the time of the sequestration, and the costs of the first and second instances as taxed above; likewise to compel the above-named sequestrator to consign to the said executors as much of the said fruits as could have accrued (obvenire potuit) from the time of the sequestration to that of Richard's death, and to the officers of the camera or to the collector in those parts, as much of them as could have accrued from the time of the said death to that of the surrogation, the pope having, for certain reasonable causes, reserved these last fruits to himself. They are likewise to inhibit the said two auditors to proceed until Anthony has assigned to the executors the said fruits and costs. (De curia.)

1388.

14 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 280.)

To James Dardani, canon of Tropea, collector of dues to the camera, and John Clyfford, treasurer of York, licentiate in civil law. Mandate to remove the sequestration made by Alexander, bishop of St. Andrews, then archbishop of York, by his ordinary authority, and the subsequent sequestration made by the pope's authority, of all oblations and obventions belonging to the collegiate churches of St. John's, Beverley, and Ripon, and having informed themselves, to exact, recover, and receive by ecclesiastical censure without appeal, sentences of excommunication, and the aid, if necessary, of the secular arm, from those who detain them, all such as have accrued from the time of the sequestration to that of its removal, with the usual power to give acquittance, under the following circumstances. The two chapters appealed to the apostolic see against Alexander's sequestration, and as the causes, which the pope successively committed there to divers judges, remained undecided, the pope ordered Cosmatius, archbishop of Ravenna, then provost of St. Pamphilus, Sulmona, in the diocese of Valva, collector of dues to the camera, and Walter, bishop of Durham, then bishop of Wells, to inform themselves, and to exact and receive the obventions and oblations which had accrued (obvenerant) since the time of the sequestration, and which should accrue in the course of the suit, and to keep what they should receive until otherwise ordered by the pope. Afterwards the said archbishop, then collector, and bishop proceeding to the execution of the said letters, commissioned the Cistercian abbots, of Fountains in regard to Beverley, and Melsa in regard to Ripon; and afterwards the bishop alone commissioned John de Feriby, John de Walkyngham, and John Den, priests of the same diocese. These abbots and priests sequestered some of the oblations and obventions, and continue to hold them, although bishop Alexander, then archbishop, and certain others, have taken and usurped very many of those which ought to have been held by them in sequestration. Upon the petition of the chapters—containing that some of the canons and ministers who did not dare to reside, dreading the power and tyranny of the said Alexander, then archbishop, who persecuted them while he was at York, now propose to return and reside—for the removal of the sequestration, the present mandate is made. (De curia.)

1389.

Ibid.
(f. 281d.)

To the same. Recapitulation, in brief, of the above with further mandate, before they proceed to its execution, to make an agreement with the said chapters that—as was consented to before the date of the pope's first letters [i.e. to Cosmatius and Walter] by the proctors of the said bishop Alexander, then archbishop, and of the chapters—the papal camera shall receive a moiety of the obventions and oblations which accrued from the time of Alexander's sequestration to the date of the pope's said first letters, and of those which accrued after that date, and while those letters had effect. They are to have the moiety collected and transmitted to the camera, observing these presents in such a way that the pope may not have to provide by another remedy. The usual power is granted to give acquittance. (De curia.)

To Francis de Caponago, prior of the Augustinian priory of St. Martin, Siena, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Mandate to him, who is collector of dues to the camera in Ireland, to summon John Kariel, chancellor of Dublin, sometime collector under Urban VI. of dues to the camera in Ireland, and after enquiry to compel the restitution of whatever he owes to the camera; proceeding by ecclesiastical censure, sequestration of 1392.

his goods, capture of his person, deprivation of his benefices and disability to hold the same or others, without appeal, and invoking, if necessary, the aid of the secular arm. When William, (sic for Henry) bishop of Norwich, crossed over to Flanders against the schismatics, at the command of Urban VI. that pope granted to those penitents of England and of the dominion of the English who took the cross and crossed with him, or who aided his crossing, the indulgence usually granted to those going to the help of the Holy Land, and the said John together with the late William Karlel, clerk, his brother, whose heir he is, was deputed to collect, and did collect, the subsidy which was asked for the purpose in Ireland. Cited by Marinus, cardinal of New St. Mary's, chamberlain of the present pope, as of Urban VI. to appear before him and give an account, he has not done so; more than that, he violently snatched the letters of citation from the hands of their bearer, threw them on the ground with vituperation, and stamped upon them, to the grave danger of his soul, contempt of the apostolic see, and the prejudice and loss of the camera. To the end that he may not be able to boast of his contumacy and malice, the present mandate is issued. (De curia.)

2 Id. May. To Thomas, Premonstratensian abbot of Bylegh, in the and to the realm of England for the annulment of certain statutes lately made there against the pope and the Roman church and ecclesiastical liberty, and for other matters concerning the state of the said church, and king Richard and his realm—to treat and conclude in the name of the pope and the said church with the king and his nobles, magnates and council, and the prelates of the realm, whatever things may seem good to him respecting such annulment and other matters, and to do, exercise, and complete whatever things require a more special mandate. The pope will approve whatever he does. (De curia.)

Ibid. To the archbishops of Canterbury and York, and their (f. 277.) suffragans. Requiring and exhorting them to convoke their own clergy, secular and regular, exempt and not exempt, of whatsoever order, mendicants alone excepted, to set forth the necessities of the pope and the Roman church caused by the attacks of schismatics, and to induce them to grant the pope a certain charitable subsidy as shall seem good to the bishops, who are not to omit their own proportionate contribution.
Each bishop has hereby faculty to receive such subsidy, in case of its being granted by common counsel, and give acquittance, and is to hand it over to his own archbishop, who is to hand it over to the collector to the camera in England. [See Reg.

5 Id. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 294.) To Francis de Cappanago, Augustinian prior of St. Martin's, Siena, doctor of canon law, papal nuncio. Absolving and totally liberating him from the oath [See Fodera under date 1393, 15 July] which, when he arrived in Ireland, the archbishop of York, chancellor of King Richard, caused to be exacted and extorted—containing, among other things, that he would be faithful to the king and crown of England; oppose and reveal to the king and council anything against the fealty of the king and the crown; attempt nothing against the laws of the realm; give faithful counsel on the king's behalf, and reveal his secrets to none; make no processes against those promoted by the king, on the ground of annates (annate), or first year's fruits; exact no such annates or first year's fruits from benefices obtained under papal expectative graces, nor the mortuaries (spolia) of deceased prelates; publish or execute no papal letters without first presenting them to the king or his council; nor send gold or silver beyond the realm [without licence]—in so far as this second oath clashes with the usual oath of fealty to the pope and the camera taken by him in the camera upon his appointment as nuncio and collector to the camera in Ireland. (De curia.) [Raynaldi Annales, an. 1394, § xxii.]

Ibid.
(f. 296.) To the same. Mandate to him—whom the pope had deputed as nuncio to Ireland and is now sending back—to visit in person and enquire, correct and reform monasteries, priories, provostries (prepositatus), and other regular places of Cistercians, Cluniacs, canons regular of St. Augustine, and other non-mendicant orders immediately subject to the Roman church, which are known to be in no small need thereof; with faculty to carry out the aforesaid by ecclesiastical censure without appeal. - 15 Kal. May. To the bishop of Hereford and the abbots of Strata Marcella
St. Peter's, Rome. and Vallecrucis in the diocese of St. Asaph. Mandate—whereas
(f. 346.) recently John bishop of St. Asaph, on account of the provision made to him by the pope, bound himself and his goods, as is usual, for his common and five minute services due to the camera, the college of cardinals, and the members of the households of them and of the pope; and whereas it was found in the books of the said camera and college that the late bishops Laurence and Alexander, John's predecessors, on account of their successive provisions, being similarly indebted for such services in the sums of 150 [gold florins], 38s. 3d. and 300 gold florins 45s. respectively, bound themselves and their goods to pay at certain fixed terms, and paid nothing, and that bishop John, as is customary, recognised the debts of his predecessors, and promised to pay; and whereas, as his recent petition contained, the said Laurence and Alexander acquired in the name of their own persons, and disposed of, moveable and immoveable (stabilia) goods from the goods acquired by them for their church (intuitu ecclesie), and moreover permitted, by their neglect, houses of the episcopal mensa to fall to destruction—to cause the above amounts to be assigned to bishop John from the goods thus acquired by the said bishops, and the said houses to be restored from the remainder of such goods, if any.

- Id. Sept. To Nerotius de Albertis, and his fellows, citizens and mer-
St. Peter's, Rome. chants of Florence. Assigning to them, and especially to Peter (f. 386.) Marci, James Francisci, and Dominic Mathei Catini, citizens and merchants of Florence, their associates and proctors in England, 1000 gold florins of the camera, which they have lent to the camera, to be recovered by them as follows: John bishop of St. Asaph, when bishop elect, and John Parch, rector of Wythindon, in the diocese of Worcester, as private persons, promised the officials of the camera that Edmund bishop of Exeter, then bishop elect, should, as is wont, pay the camera, as its share of the common service due thereto and to the college of cardinals on account of the provision thereof made to him by the pope, 2500 gold florins of the camera, one half at Christmas next and the other a year thereafter, and that he should pay, in addition to the said sum, the customary minute services, binding themselves to pay in case of Edmund's default, who has paid only 200 florins. Faculty is given to exact and recover the said sum from bishop Edmund, or, if he refuses or neglects, from the said bishop and rector, and to give acquittance. The receiver is to make two similar public instruments, keeping one, and sending the other to the camera. (De curia.)

Ibid.
(f. 387.)

To the abbot of Glastonbury, in the diocese of Wells.
Reciting the above letter, and giving him power to absolve the said bishops and rector from sentences of excommunication, the guilt of perjury, and any other sentences and penalties, and to grant them dispensation on account of the irregularity which they shall contract if bishop Edmund's common and minute services due as above to camera and college be not paid by 1395.

Christmas next, the payment of 1000 florins to the above merchants being, however, made first; and to postpone payment of the rest to a term appointed by the abbot, after which, in case of default, they are to fall again under the same penalties and sentences. Whatever he does in this matter, he is to certify the camera as quickly as possible. (De curia.)

King Richard to Boniface IX. Whereas the monastery of St. Albans, immediately subject to the apostolic see, founded by the king's progenitors in honour of the protomartyr of England, has its means grievously diminished by the heavy expenses of the visits of the abbots elect to the apostolic see to obtain confirmation and benediction; whereas it is situate in the uttermost parts of the earth, and is in comparison with other monasteries of the realm over slenderly endowed, and that too in a barren place; whereas therein, beyond the other monasteries of the realm, the highest devotion, regular discipline, and daily hospitality flourishes; whereas, if each abbot elect were bound to make such visit, the number of monks would be diminished, their devotion chilled, and hospitality be not observed; and whereas the prince of Wales, whose carnal son we are known to be, and whose ways (mores) we desire to follow, bore a special affection to the said monastery: we petition your Holiness—seeing that full exemption has been granted by divers popes to the abbot and convent and their successors, and that the abbot for the time being has had papal indult to receive benediction from any catholic bishop, in sign of which exemption and liberty the abbot and convent have paid to the apostolic see an ounce of gold yearly, as in the letters of pope Honorius [III.—Reg. x. f. 60d.] is contained—to confirm the said letters, and further to grant that the abbots elect may eo ipso exercise at once their office without any confirmation, and may receive benediction from any catholic bishop, as if their election had been legitimately confirmed by the apostolic see. We hope for as much grace in our present petition as Innocent III. and Urban V. granted mero motu in a similar petition on behalf of the monastery of Evesham, as may plainly be seen in the register [Reg. cclii. f. 132] of the said Urban. Written under our signet at our manor of Eltham, the twenty-sixth day of the month of September. Subscribed: Your devoted son R. king of England and France; and counter-subscribed: Favorabiliter.

(f. 36d.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York, and Master James Dardani, clerk of the camera, collector thereto in England. Commending the purpose of John Holand, earl of Huntingdon, the king's brother, to come shortly to Italy and other parts for the extermination of schismatics and rebels and usurpers of cities and lands of the pope and the Roman church, as the pope has learned from the earl's letters and messengers; hoping that by his coming to Italy the state of the universal church will be made prosperous, and peace quickly restored; and (considering that what is for the good of all ought to be favoured and helped by all) imposing a tenth for one year of all ecclesiastical fruits in England and Ireland, those of cardinals, Hospitallers, and Teutonic knights alone excepted, to be paid at certain terms to be fixed by the archbishops and collector (et te, Jacobo collector: written over an erasure), to be paid to and exacted and received by the archbishops and collector (over erasure as elsewhere) and converted to the earl's expenses in accordance with the disposition to be made by the king. The pope wills the exaction to be made in accordance with the taxation for the tenth made there, or where no such fixed taxation has been made, according to custom; in the money current there, in accordance with the constitution of the Council of Vienne; and chalices, books, etc., not to be taken, in accordance with the constitution of the same council. The archbishops and collector have mandate to exact and collect the same; and the usual faculties are granted them (*) to compel payment by ecclesiastical censure and sequestration, invoking, if necessary, the aid of the

To the same. Whereas the insolence of the schismatic adherents of Robert, cardinal priest of the Twelve Apostles, of damned memory, and the son of perdition, Peter de Luna, sometime cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Cosmedin, the late and the present anti-pope, who presumed to call themselves Clement VII. and Benedict XIII.,—after and against the processes by Urban VI. against Robert and his followers condemning them as heretics and schismatics, and granting the Holy Land indulgence to those who should take the cross for their extermination (exterminium)—and of other enemies of the pope and the Roman church, has grown strong and daily grows stronger in Italy, and especially in the patrimony of St. Peter; the pope commends the laudable purpose of John Holand, earl of Huntingdon, and grants the usual Holy Land indulgence and remission of sins to penitents who join his crusade to Italy, or contribute to the expenses; with mandate to the archbishops and collector to cause the same to be published in England and Ireland and other parts subject to the king. The pope wills all money thus received to be wholly at the disposition of the king, and to be assigned to whomsoever he shall order. (De curia.)

(f. 60.)

12 Kal. Jan. To Peter, bishop of Dax, papal nuncio. Faculty at his petition, whom the pope has long ago thought good to send to England and other parts [see Reg. cccxy. ff. 307d, 354], and who is the pope's chamberlain, to confer benefices, secular and regular, with or without cure, in that realm and the duchy of Aquitaine, so long void that by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council they have lapsed to the apostolic see, or shall so lapse during a year from the date hereof, even canonries and prebends, dignities—even major below the pontifical, and elective in metropolitan or other cathedral churches—personatus, offices, priories—even conventual—or administrations, unlawful occupiers being removed, on fit persons at his choice, one to each, even if such person, being secular, hold one, two, three, or more benefices; any statutes, customs, or indults to the contrary notwithstanding. The pope wills that benefices incompatible with those obtained by virtue of these presents shall be resigned, and that the nuncio shall certify the camera or its collector respecting names and dates.

Ibid. To the same. Faculty [to grant indult] to fifty persons of the said realm and duchy, at his choice, to have mass celebrated before daybreak.
(f. 71d.)

Ibid. To the same. Faculty to grant indult to fifty persons thereof, at his choice, to have mass and other divine offices celebrated privately in places under an interdict.
(f. 72.)

Ibid. To the same. Faculty to grant indult to fifty persons thereof, at his choice, that the confessors of their choice may grant them plenary remission, upon contrition and confession, once only, in the article of death.

Ibid. To the same. Indult for forty persons thereof, at his choice, to enjoy the fruits of their benefices, the daily distributions alone excepted, and not to be compelled to reside, while engaged in the study of letters in a place where there is an university, or in the service of the nuncio or any prelate or temporal lord in the said realm or duchy, or residing in the Roman court or on any of their benefices; provided that the cure of souls be not neglected, but be exercised by good and sufficient vicars.
(f. 72d.)

1398.

Ibid.
(f. 73.)

To the same. Exemplification of the preceding indult, with power to give effect thereto, notwithstanding any indult of exemption from interdict, suspension or excommunication which does not make full and express mention thereof.

Ibid.
(f. 74.)

To the same. Faculty to grant indult to forty persons thereof, at his choice, to have a portable altar.

Ibid.
(f. 74d.)

To the same. Faculty to receive resignations, whether simple or made for the purpose of exchange; to collate benefices resigned for the purpose of exchange, even those of lay patronage, provided the patrons' consent be given, and to induct the persons concerned. He is to certify the camera and collector as usual, of names and dates.

Ibid.
(f. 75.)

To the same. Faculty to grant indult to fifty persons thereof, of his choice, to choose their confessors, who shall hear their confessions and absolve them except in cases for which the apostolic see is to be consulted.

10 BONIFACE IX.

1398.

12 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 78.)

To Richard, king of England. After divers and exquisite means and various remedies have been tried, and after manifold and vain labours to lead into the way of truth the king of France, whom king Richard calls by the title of father[-in-law], the pope at length turns to his serene and constant devotion, in the hope that a work of so much piety may by him be easily brought to effect. The pope prays and exhorts him to try to strike away the cloud from the French king's eyes, so that he may at length be converted to the fold of holy mother church, and hereby informs him that when the king of France disposes himself to acquiesce in king Richard's counsels and advice, the pope will be ready to receive him and his house into his bosom. 12 May. F[rancis] archbishop of Bordeaux to Boniface IX. Informing him of the death at Barcelona of [Peter] bishop of Dax on 27 April, whose goods at Bordeaux, to the value of about 10,000 francs, the archbishop has sequestered on behalf of the camera, and requests the pope's pleasure. He proposes for provision to the see Pelegrinus de Fabo, and prays the pope, who has been too much deceived, to ponder the provisions of dignities and benefices made in those parts, for if the bishop of Dax had lived, by whose counsel such unworthy promotions 1400.

were made, and worse were to be made, an outcry would have gone to the king of England to interpose with the pope. If the archbishop had consented thereto, the Roman church would long since have had no greater obedience in those parts than it has in England, and the English custom and observance would easily have passed over to those parts, but up to the present the pope has had and now has as full and free obedience as in any part of the world. DE EXHIBITIS.

- 7 Kal. Sept. To the archbishop of Tuam. Mandate to collate and assign the St. Peter's, Rome. archdeaconry of Kilmacduagh, value 8 marks, and to induct there-
(f. 44.) in Maurice (Mauricius inserted, and countersigned in margin by N. de Ben[even]to, in place of Mauricus Magil, cancelled in the text) Macgillavanach, canon of Kilmacduagh, whose petition contained that although papal provision was made to Laurence Odonchaga, clerk, of Kilmacduagh, of the said archdeaconry, void by the promotion and consecration by papal authority of John to be bishop of Clonfert, and previously reserved to the pope, nevertheless Gilbert Olean, canon of Kilmacduagh, asserting that the archdeaconry belonged to him, hindered the provision from taking effect; Laurence thereupon had the cause tried by papal delegation before Gregory, bishop of Kilmacduagh, who received their resignation of all right to the archdeaconry, and made provision of it to Maurice, who took 1396.

possession. As Maurice doubts whether this collation and provision holds good, and as the pope has learned that the arch-deaconry is hitherto void, the present mandate is issued, regard being had to the constitution Execrabilis of John XXII. etc. and notwithstanding that Maurice has a canonry and prebend of the said church, value 2 marks.

16 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 95.)

To the bishop of Kildare, the abbot of Novan (Navan), in the diocese of Meath, and Richard Yong, canon of Lincoln. Mandate to collate and assign to John Okearwill, priest, of the diocese of Meath, the church of Killalon, in the same diocese, value 50 marks, provision of which he received from the bishop in the life-time of Urban VI. on the death of the rector, Peter Weldon, by letters of that pope reserving to him, under the form for poor clerks, a benefice with or without cure in the gift of the bishop of Meath, but doubts whether the said provision for certain causes holds good. (Pro Deo.)

2 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 180.)

To John Atwalle, rector of the free chapel of Ingestre, in the diocese of Lichfield. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he became priest and obtained the above chapel, so that he may hold two other benefices compatible therewith, even canonries and prebends in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and may resign all three as often as he will, simply or for exchange, and receive in their place similar or dissimilar benefices compatible with one another. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

Perugia.
(f. 233d.)

To John de Hoo, rector of the church of East Town (Villeorientalis), Yarmouth (Jernemouta), S.T.M. and William Wederyngsete, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Indult to grant that the parishioners of either sex of the said church may gain the indulgence of the jubilee etc. as above (f. 149). They are to visit on seven days within a month after his grant their own parish church or other church appointed by him. [A brief eodem modo, cancelled. In full in Reg. Lat. Bonif. IX. XII. f. 258.]

1 BONIFACE IX.

1389.

Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's Rome.
(f. 270.)

To Master John de Dulmen, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to collate and assign, as below, the canonry and prebend of St. Martin's altar in Beverley, value 150 marks. The petition of Anthony de Sancto Quintino, rector of Sterinton, in the diocese of York, bachelor of canon law, contained that a cause arose lately between him and the late Richard Ravenser, clerk, about the said canonry and prebend, from which Alexander bishop of St. Andrews, then archbishop of York, removed Richard as having no just title and as being contumacious when cited by the archbishop to prove the same. Upon Anthony's obtaining them by authority of the archbishop, Richard opposed, declaring that he formerly exchanged his canonry and prebend of Lincoln with the late Roger de Nassington for the said canonry and prebend of Beverley, the resignations being made to John, archbishop of York, who, having special power from John, bishop of Lincoln, made due provision of both, and that Anthony afterwards despoiled him and intruded himself. The cause, lawfully introduced into the apostolic see, was committed by Urban VI. at Richard's instance to Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, then papal chaplain and auditor, who made restitution to Richard, Anthony's appeal from which the same pope committed to Master Anthony de Sulmona, papal chaplain and auditor, who gave successive sentences, by one of which he confirmed the sentence of Bertrand, and by the other adjudged the canonry and prebend to Anthony. The appeals from both of these sentences the same pope committed to John, bishop of Hereford, then papal chaplain and auditor, before whom the cause was going on when Richard died. By mandate of the same pope, the bishop of Bath surrogated in Richard's place Thomas de Feryby, canon of Wells, on whose behalf it was set forth to the pope that, according to the assertions of some, the right to the canonry and prebend belonged neither to Anthony nor to Thomas. After further sentences by the said auditor John, and further appeals, the same pope committed the cause to Master Peter Gasconis, papal chaplain and auditor, Anthony's appeal from whose sentence was committed by the pope to Master Peter de Florentia, papal chaplain and auditor, who confirmed the sentence of Peter Gasconis. Anthony's further appeal was committed by the pope to the late Master Peter de Coppa papal chaplain and auditor, who revoked the said sentence, from which revocation Thomas appealed, which appeal was committed by the same pope to the above-named John de Dulmen, after which Urban VI died. As the present pope has heard of the assertion that the canonry and prebend belong to neither Anthony—who is by both his parents of knightly race—nor Thomas, he orders the auditor, if he find this to be the case, to collate and assign them to whichever of the two he find, after examination, to be fit and sufficient; notwithstanding that Anthony holds the above church of Sterinton, value 100 marks, and is litigating in the apostolic palace about the canonry and prebend of Gouthnaubalt (South Newbald) in York, value 50 marks, of which he has not possession, and has expectation, under a provision lately granted him by the present pope, of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham, as well as provisions of canonries, also lately granted, with expectations of prebends and dignities, personatus, or offices, with or without cure, in York and Lincoln. [6] pp.] [See Reg. Lat. XII. f. 92.]

1389.

1390.

10 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 278d.)

To William Lycester, priest, of the diocese of York. Indult to retain his chantry in the chapel of Malton Castle, in that diocese, value 10 marks, which he obtained after a dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, no mention having been made therein that his parents were related in the fourth degree of kindred, on account of which he doubts whether he may not be molested in regard to his said benefice.

1389.

10 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 279.)

To Edmund Barle, priest, perpetual beneficiary in St. John's, Beverley. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy—to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he obtained the chantry of St. Peter in St. John's, Beverley—so that he may hold three other compatible benefices, even if one be a dignity, personatus, or office in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and exchange them as often as he chooses for similar or dissimilar compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

DE EXHIBITIS.

1390.

5 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 311.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to inform himself touching the petition of the archbishop of Canterbury and the Cluniac prior and convent of Bermondsey, in the diocese of Winchester, for the union of the church of Croydon, which is in the gift of the archbishop, and of the value of 100 marks, to the priory, which is of the value of 80 marks, and for the grant and assignment of the priory's manor of Wotton (Whaddon) to the mensa of the archbishop; which union, grant, and assignment he is, if he find the facts to be as stated, to carry out. [Injured.] [Monasticon, v. 90.]

1390.

12 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 315.)

To the bishop of Derry. Mandate to absolve and to dispense on account of any irregularity contracted, John de Wyom, Cistercian monk of St. Mary's, Kyrksted, in the diocese of Lincoln, who, not as an apostate but as a pilgrim, came to Rome without licence of his superior to get the indulgence granted by Urban VI. and at times on the way put off his habit and assumed a secular dress which he still wears, and now desires to return to his monastery.

Id. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 320d.)

To John Cheyne, knight, of the diocese of Worcester. Confirmation of the grant for a certain sum of money, by the Augustinian prior and convent of Ste. Barbe (Barbare) in the diocese of Lisieux, for the lives of himself, his wife and eldest son, of their rents in Berford and Colstrewarth, in the diocese of Worcester and Lincoln, even if at the time thereof the said prior and monks were adherents of the antipope Clement VII. [Almost illegible through water stains.]

12 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 320d.)

To Master Nicholas de Vivianis, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to make provision to William ap Howel, rector of Garthberbis in the diocese of St. Asaph, of the portion, value 50 marks, of the church of—(illegible), which, (on its voidance by Ith[el] ap Ro[bert] obtaining, under papal letters, the arch-deaconry of St. Asaph,) Matthew ap David ap Jerwerth, alias Clyud, obtained by authority of John, bishop of Bangor, and the cause about which was, at Matthew's instance, committed by Urban VI. and afterwards by the present pope to be terminated by the said Master Nicholas. On obtaining the said portion Garthberbis is to be resigned. [Much injured by water and hardly legible.]

7 Id. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 322.)

To William Woderoue, perpetual vicar of Wakfeld in the diocese of York. Extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) when in minor orders to be promoted to holy orders and hold a benefice even with cure, (ii) when priest and having obtained the church of Dryton or Derton in the diocese of Norwich, to hold therewith and exchange once, as well as the said church, one other compatible benefice, after which he exchanged his said church for the perpetual vicarage of Wakfeld, and obtained another benefice without cure compatible therewith called Belfaria in St. John's, Beverley, which last he has resigned—so that he may hold three other benefices compatible with his vicarage, even if one be a dignity with cure, and the others be canonries and prebends in cathedral or metropolitan churches, and may exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar benefices compatible with one another. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 328.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to absolve Ralph de Kesteven, canon of the chapel of St. Stephen's, called a free chapel, situate in the royal palace of Westminster, from the excommunication and suspension incurred by him in the cause introduced into the apostolic see between the dean and chapter 1390.

of St. Stephen's and the abbot and convent of Westminster, the latter asserting that the chapel was subject to them, and that its oblations belonged to them. The abbot and convent obtained a definitive sentence, the dean and chapter being condemned in a certain sum and costs, to be paid within a certain term, under pain of sentences of excommunication and suspension, which sentences they have incurred, and are still contumacious. Ralph is sixty years old and enfeebled by age, and is ready to make satisfaction for his share of the sum due.

1 BONIFACE IX

DE DIGNITATIBUS VACANTIBUS.

1390.

14 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 106d.)

To Malachy Ohymayr, clerk, of the diocese of Killaloe, B.M. Reservation to him,—who has had dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with 1390.

cure,—of the archdeaconry of Kilfenora with cure, not elective, value 12 marks, about to become void by the provision recently made by the pope to Patrick, elect of Kilfenora, and his impending consecration; notwithstanding that he has recently had from the present pope provision of the precentorship of Killaloe, which is to be resigned, and of a canonry of Limerick, with expectation of a prebend.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Kilfenora, the abbot of Clare (de Forgio), in the diocese of Killaloe, and Maurice Omurgysa, canon of Kilfenora. (Pro Deo.)

DE EXHIBITIS.

7 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 124.)

To Master Anthony de Ponto, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to surrogate William de Kentusdene, alias Osbarne, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield, to the late John Lichfield. His recent petition contained that a cause arose lately between Lichfield and John Kedwelly, priest, of the diocese of Llandaff, about the perpetual vicarage of Herlingham, in the diocese of Worcester, void by the death of Walter de Yere. Lichfield accepted the same under papal letters of provision; Kedwelly opposed, and prevented Lichfield's peaceable possession, declaring that he formerly obtained the same, on its voidance in a certain way, held it for some time, and now also holds it, and that Lichfield unjustly opposed his obtaining it and despoiled him. The cause lawfully introduced into the apostolic see, was committed by Urban VI. at Kedwelly's instance to Master Nicholas de Vivianis, papal chaplain and auditor, who made restitution to Kedwelly, Lichfield's appeal from whose sentence the same pope committed to the late Peter de Coppa, papal chaplain and auditor, who proceeded in the cause after Urban's death, Kedwelly having previously resigned his right. Lichfield having died at the apostolic see while the cause was before the said auditor, the above William is to be surrogated in his right. The vicarage itself, whether void by the death of Lichfield, or the resignation of Kedwelly, or otherwise, is moreover to be collated and assigned to William.

Ibid.
(f. 126.)

To Master Peter de Coppa, papal chaplain and auditor. The like mandate, mutatis mutandis.

3 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 128d.)

To Roger de Tangele, rector of Grafton Fleford, in the diocese of Worcester. Extension of dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he obtained the church of Asschestode, in the diocese of Winchester (ii) to exchange the same, which he did for Grafton Fleford—so that he may hold two other benefices compatible therewith and with one another, even canonries and prebends in cathedral churches, and exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1389.

6 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 140.)

To John Mauduyt, rector of Bradsted, in the diocese of Canterbury. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy as the son of a priest—to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he obtained the said church—so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even canonries and prebends in cathedral or metropolitan churches, and may exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 144d.)

To Thomas de Ravenser, rector of Pasmam, in the diocese of Lincoln, bachelor of canon and civil law. Extension to him, who is kinsman of John, bishop of Salisbury, of dispensation on account of illegitimacy—to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he obtained the said church—so that he may hold two other benefices compatible therewith, even if one be a dignity with cure, or a canonry and prebend in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and may exchange the same as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

12 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 145.)

To John Offewelle, priest, of the diocese of Exeter. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, so that he may hold two mutually compatible benefices, even if one be a dignity and the other a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, and exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

14 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148d.)

To the warden and scholars of the college instituted near Winchester by William, bishop of Winchester. Indult that the warden and his successors may let to farm the churches and possessions of the said college commonly called "Sancte Marie College of Wynchestre," and instituted for seventy poor scholar clerks.

12 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 149d.)

To the same. Indult to have a cemetery for the warden, scholars, priests, and clerks who die in the said college, and for any other persons.

18 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152.)

To the dean of London. Mandate to collate and assign to Nicholas Stone, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of West Sanford, in St. Cross, Crediton, value 20 marks, which he obtained by exchange with Master Thomas de Walkington, papal chaplain and auditor, in place of his canonry and residential prebend of the royal chapel of St. Martin's le Grand, London, resigned by him in the time of Urban VI into the hands of Richard Medforde, dean of the said chapel, who received the resignations, by virtue of his ordinary authority and of special power from Thomas, bishop of Exeter, and carried out the exchange. The collation made to Nicholas of the canonry and prebend of Crediton does not hold good.

1389.

and they are still void, Urban VI. having reserved to himself all canonries and prebends and other benefices of papal chaplains on their voidance, and the said canonry and prebend not having been disposed of by that pope before his death, and having therefore been reserved to the present pope in accordance with his declaration, upon his accession, respecting such undisposed of benefices.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 153d.)

To John Woretting, clerk, of the diocese of Norwich. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy—to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he received the tonsure—so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even canonries and prebends, or one of them a major elective dignity with cure in a cathedral or principal in a collegiate church, and may exchange the same for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1390.

5 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 155.)

To John de Lynton, rector of St. Vedast's, London. Dispensation, inasmuch as he has passed his sixty-fifth year, and holds also four benefices without cure, of small value, in St. Paul's (in majori ecclesia), London, called, one a cardinalate (cardinalis), another a minor canonry, and each of the other two a chantry, that he may say the canonical hours or offices of day and night in the said cathedral church by deputy.

1389.

Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 158.)

To the bishop of Salisbury. Mandate to inform himself touching the petition of king Richard and Henry, earl of Northumberland, for licence to exchange (the assent of Thomas, archbishop of York, having been already given) the church of Spofforde, in the diocese of York, of the earl's patronage, for the patronage and advowson of the collegiate church of Howden and of four canonries and prebends and as many perpetual vicarages therein, belonging to the prior and chapter of Durham; towns belonging to him and churches to which he had been accustomed to present clerks, members of his household, having been burnt and wasted in the border wars of the present reign. If the exchange be found to the advantage of Durham, the bishop is to grant the prior and chapter the required licence.

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

2 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 171d.)

To the chancellor of York. Mandate to examine William. Ibotson, priest, of the diocese of York, and, if he find that he reads, construes, and sings Latin well and speaks it becomingly (congrue), and is otherwise fit, or if he cannot sing well, but swear to learn within a year, to collate and assign to him the perpetual vicarage of St. Mary's, Beverley, value 40 marks, void by the death of Thomas de Lowthoup, even if it be so long void that it has by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council lapsed to the pope, or even if it has been specially reserved.

1390.

3 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 179d.)

To Henry Rowdon, clerk, perpetual beneficiary in the parish church of Holgot, in the diocese of Hereford. Provision of a certain perpetual benefice without cure in the said church, value 5 marks, void by the death of Ralph Goderich at the apostolic see; notwithstanding that he has provision from the present pope of a canonry of Exeter with expectation of a prebend, and of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Bath.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Hereford, the abbot of Westminster, and Andrew Baret, canon of Lincoln.

16 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 191.)

To Roger Whyte, warden of St. Mary's chapel, Laysynghy, in the diocese of York. Provision of the said wardenship, value 20 marks, which became void by the death at the apostolic see, during the pontificate of Urban VI, of John Moubray, papal chaplain, auditor, and referendary, and which, not having been disposed of by that pope at the time of his death, was by the above-mentioned letters (f. 152) reserved to the present pope; notwithstanding that he has the vicarage of Midilton, value 20 marks, and has lately had provision from the present pope of canonries with expectation of prebends of St. John's, Beverley, and St. Mary's, Southwell.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Gubbio, the abbot of St. Agatha's, and the prior of Hautenprisse, in the diocese of York. [Corrected in the margin by N. de Benevento from "the bishop of Todi and the priors of Drax and Hautenprisse," in the same diocese. The text, which had domus hospitalis nuncupate leprosorum, is also at each mention corrected in the margin to capelle beate Marie: correctum de mandato.]

Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198d.)

To Thomas de Walkington, canon of York, and two others out of England, one an archdeacon in the diocese of Bordeaux. Mandate to make provision to a person named of a parish church named in the diocese of Dax.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Salisbury and Wells and a foreign archdeacon. (Pro domino cardinali.) 1389.

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 259.)

To John, bishop of Orkney. Mandate to administer that see, to which, when rector of Pentlar in that diocese, he was elected by the chapter on the death of William, they being ignorant perhaps that it had been during William's lifetime reserved by Urban VI. who, on John's learning of the reservation and causing to be set forth in consistory before that pope the matter of the election, annulled it, and on 4 Id. Feb. anno 6 gave him provision of the see, and afterwards had him consecrated at the apostolic see, but died before the papal letters of provision were made out.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese of Orkney, and to the archbishop of Thronhjhem.

Ibid.
(f. 273d.)

To Milo Corr, elect of Clonmacnoise (Cluanen.). Mandate to administer that see, provision of which on the death of Philip, during whose lifetime it had been reserved by Urban VI, he, a Friar Minor, received 3 Kal. Feb. anno 10, from that pope, who died before the letters were made out.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the people and to the clergy of the city and diocese, and to the archbishop of Armagh, primate of Ireland.

Ibid.
(f. 279.)

To John, elect of Connor. Mandate to administer that see, to which, when archdeacon of Connor, he was elected by the clergy of the city and diocese, (to whom the election, the church having no chapter, by custom ordinarily belongs), on the death of Paul, they being ignorant perhaps that the see had been reserved by Urban VI, who on John's learning of the reservation and repairing in person to the apostolic see and causing to be set forth in consistory before that pope the matter of the election, annulled it and gave him provision, 4 Kal. April anno 11, but died before the letters thereof were made out.

Concurrent letters to the people of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to the archbishop of Armagh, primate of Ireland, to king Richard, and to the clergy of the city and diocese. [This last is added in the bottom margin.]

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

1389 or 1390.

n. d.
(f. 62.)

To William de Kellowe, canon of Auckland. [Provision of a canonry of Auckland, with reservation of a prebend.] [Unfinished, cancelled without note.]

1390.

10 Kal. July.
Rieti.
(f. 107d.)

To Howel ap Madoc, canon of Bangor. Provision of a canonry of Bangor, with expectation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he has lately had from the present pope provision of a benefice with or without cure in the gift of the bishop.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Todi and the dean and archdeacon of Bangor. (Pro Deo.)

DE PREBENDIS ET DIGNITATIBUS VACATURIS.

1389.

2 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 210.)

To the archdeacon of Bedford. Mandate to collate and assign to Richard Stratton, rector of Potton in the same diocese, B.C.L. if found fit after examination, provision of a canonry with reservation of a prebend in Lincoln; if found fit after examination in reading, construing, singing and speaking Latin, or if he swear to learn to sing within a year, he is to have reservation of an elective dignity with cure, provided it be not a major dignity below the pontifical, or of a personatus or office; or if he do not so swear, he is to have reservation of a prebend and an office without cure; notwithstanding that he holds also canonries and prebends of Hastings and Lincoln, which last he is, as he has offered, to resign upon getting possession of the canonry and prebend of Lincoln, and that he holds the above-named church, which he is also to resign upon getting the dignity, personatus, or office.

DE PREBENDIS VACANTIBUS.

1390.

5 Id. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 225d.)

To Master John Fraunceys, canon of St. Mary's, Southwell, papal writer and member of the papal household. Provision of the canonry and prebend of that church, value 80 marks, which became void by the death at Rome of Nicholas Chaddesden, member of the papal court (curialis), while the pope was residing at Rieti, which is not more than two days' journey from Rome; notwithstanding that he has recently had provision from the present pope of canonries of Lincoln, York, and Lichfield, with expectation of prebends therein and of a dignity, personatus, or office in Lincoln, and of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the archbishop of York and the abbots and convents of Hyde by Winchester; and 1390.

Ramsey, and holds the free chapel of St. Laurence, Spertegrove, in the diocese of Wells, value 10 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Winchester, London, and Todi. (Pro socio.)

4 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 230.)

To Walter Dolbeara, canon of Lichfield. Provision of the canonry and prebend of that church, value 20 marks, which became void by the death of Nicholas Chaddesden, as above; notwithstanding that he holds the church of Olistfonison and a canonry and prebend of St. Thomas the Martyr, Glaseney, value together 24 [marks], and has lately had provision from the present pope of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the Augustinian prior and convent of Plympton in the diocese of Exeter, of another in the similar gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter, and each and singular of the canons and persone of Exeter, and of canonries with expectation of prebends of Exeter and Wells.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, and the bishops of Derry and Exeter. [See Reg. Lat. viii. f. 147d.]

18 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 280d.)

To John Prata, canon of St. Asaph. Provision of the canonry and prebend of that church, value 10 marks, which became void by the death at Rome during the pope's late residence at Rieti, as above, of Howel Trevenant, alias ap David, member of the papal court; notwithstanding that he has lately had provision from the present pope of the church of St. John Zachary, London, value 40 marks; of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter, and each and singular of the canons and persone of Salisbury, even by reason of dignities, personatus, or offices which they hold therein; and subsequently of a canonry, with expectation of a prebend, of St. Mary the Virgin, Winchester.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Hereford and Derry, and John Welborne, canon of Salisbury.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. IV.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

1389.

Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 108d.)

To the archdeacon of Cleveland. Mandate to reserve to Thomas de Whytteby, clerk, of the diocese of York, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice, value 60 marks with cure of souls, or 40 without, in the common or several gift of the master and brethren of the order of St. Gilbert, Sempringham, in the same diocese. If he cannot sing well and does not swear to learn to do so within a year, such benefice is to be without cure.

1389.

Ibid.
(f. 109d.)

To the same. The like in regard to William de Levyngham, priest, of the same diocese, for a like benefice in the similar gift of the abbot and convent of Whitby.

Ibid.

(f. 147.)

To the official of York. The like in regard to Thomas de Gretham, rector of Ryton in the diocese of Durham, bachelor of canon law, for a benefice, value 150 marks with cure of souls, or 60 without, in the similar gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham. On obtaining a benefice with cure by virtue of these presents he is to resign Ryton. [See Reg. Lat. viii. f. 165.]

18 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 157.)

To the archdeacon of Cleveland. The like in regard to Thomas de Cawton, priest, of the diocese of York, for a benefice value 100 marks with cure of souls, or 40 without, in the similar gift of the abbot and convent of St. Mary's without the walls, York; notwithstanding that he has lately had from the present pope provision of a canonry of Lincoln, with expectation of a prebend.

Ibid.

(f. 158.)

To the same. The like mandate in regard to John de Burton, priest, of the same diocese, for a benefice value 60 marks with cure of souls, or 40 without, in the similar gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter, and each and singular of the canons of Lincoln, provided that it be not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church; notwithstanding that he has lately had from the present pope provision of a benefice without cure in the similar gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham.

1390.

Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 169.)

To John Wyntyr, clerk, of the diocese of Kildare (Daren). Reservation of a benefice, value 25 marks with cure of souls, or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the prior and brethren of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, Kylmaynan, in Ireland.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Todi and Kildare and the dean of Kildare.

1389.

17 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 215.)

To John Beverache, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Reservation of a like benefice in the similar gift of the bishop, provost, dean and chapter, and each and singular of the canons of London, by reason of dignities, personatus, or offices which they hold therein, provided that it be not a canonry or prebend in the cathedral church; notwithstanding that he holds the perpetual vicarage of Windelsore in the diocese of Salisbury, which he is to resign upon obtaining a benefice by virtue of these presents.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Tournay the abbot of Chartesey in the diocese of Winchester, and Andrew Yonge, canon of Chichester.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. V.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

1389.

13 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 8d.)

Relaxation of four months of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, visit the church of Horssyndon in the diocese of Lincoln, there pray for the soul of John Braybrok, donsel, and those of Gerard Braybrok, knight, and Isabella his wife, saying on their knees a Pater Noster and an Ave Maria, as also before the marble cross put up at Slepersdene, near the high road from the city of London to the town of Oxford, where the said John was killed by robbers, his body being buried in the said church.

[Note in left margin: Cancelletur alia, si reperiatur, quia corrigitur per istam, N. de Ben[even]to.] 1390.

4 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 22d.)

To John Cateby, rector of Chelmesford, in the diocese of London, licentiate of civil law. Extension to the term of his life of a late dispensation from the present pope to receive and hold for two years, together with his said church and his canonry and prebend of Hereford, one other benefice with cure, even an elective dignity—even if major after the episcopal in a cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church—personatus, administration, or office, and to exchange the said church and such benefice for similar or dissimilar benefices.

Id. Jan.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 23.)

To Thomas Olucherem, rector of Dampnach, in the diocese of Armagh. Extension of dispensation granted to him as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, so that he may hold any dignities short of the episcopal. Thomas is of noble race and a great combatant (expugnator) of schismatics in his diocese.

7 Kal. Oct.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 24.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to grant dispensation to Thomas Seymour and Joan, daughter of the late John Grene, who married in ignorance that John was Thomas's godfather, which impediment came to their knowledge after two years and more of cohabitation, whereupon they ceased to cohabit for ten years and more, and still cease. Their past and future offspring is to be declared legitimate.

7 Id. Oct.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 28.)

To Arnold Brocas, rector of St. Nicholas's, Guldeford, in the diocese of Winchester, bachelor of canon and civil law. Dispensation to him, who is king Richard's officer (officiarius), holds canonries and prebends in the Benedictine monastery of Werwell, in the above diocese (in which, besides the abbes and convent, there are secular canons with prebends) and Wells, and has this day received from the pope provision of a canonry, 1390.

with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, administration, or office, of Bordeaux, so that he may hold for one year, together with the said church, another church or a dignity, personatus, or office with cure, even in a cathedral or metropolitan church. Within the year either St. Nicholas's or such other church, dignity, etc. is to be exchanged for a benefice compatible with the remaining one; otherwise, St. Nicholas's is to be resigned.

1389.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 87.)

To the archdeacon of Sudbury. Mandate to collate and assign to Richard Maudalene, clerk, of the diocese of London, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of Derby in the diocese of Lichfield, value 16 marks, collation of which on their voidance by the death of Thomas Palmere at the apostolic see, was granted to him, a member of the household of king Richard, on the petition of that king, by Urban VI. 14 Kal. Aug. anno 12, who died before his letters were made out. [Fadere, dated 1390.]

1390.

8 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 28d.)

To the bishop of Norwich. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to grant dispensation to John Walpol, donsel, son of [John Walpol] and Agnes, daughter of Nicholas Abnale, damsel, of his diocese, who intermarried about twenty-four years ago in ignorance of the impediment which came to their knowledge seven years afterwards, that John, John's father, was Agnes's godfather. Their past and future offspring is to be declared legitimate.

4 Kal. June.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 45.)

To the bishop of Kildare (Daren). Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to grant dispensation to Maurice Ochonchur of Offali, donsel, and Gormoleya Mechumurchu, damsel, of his diocese—whose relatives and friends have been capital enemies, many of both sides having been expelled from the principality of Ireland—to intermarry, notwithstanding that they are related in the third and fourth degree of kindred, and the second of affinity.

8 Id. Jan.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 65.)

To John, donsel, son of Robert de Boynton, knight, and Elisabeth, daughter of the late Walter de Burton, knight, of the diocese of York. Dispensation to intermarry, notwithstanding that they are related in the fourth degree of kindred.

1389.

10 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 79d.)

DE EXHIBITIS.

To John de Elme, rector of Lambethe, in the diocese of Winchester. Extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold two compatible benefices, one of them having cure, but not being in a cathedral, after which he obtained Bekenham, in the diocese of Rochester; (ii) to exchange that church and such other benefice without cure for two other similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, one of them with cure, after which he resigned Bekenham for Bradestede, in the diocese of Canterbury; (iii) to exchange Bradestede for a similar or dissimilar 1389.

benefice with cure, to be held along with such benefice without cure, after which he exchanged Bradestede for Lamhethe—so that he may hold three or more other mutually compatible benefices, even if one have cure, or be a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, and may exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

DE REGULARIBUS.

1390.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136d.)

To John de Wetwang, monk of Fountains. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy as the son of a priest to be appointed to all administrations of his order, short of the abbatial, so that he may hold any dignity thereof, including the abbatial.

10 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136d.)

To the Benedictine abbot and convent of Abbodesbury, in the diocese of Salisbury. Incorporation anew of the parish churches in that diocese of Abbodesbury, Portesham, Winterbourne Martin, Tolre Porcorum, and Tolpudele, and the vicarage of Abbodesbury, of which the first two were of old, the next three over forty years ago, incorporated by authority of the ordinary, and the last two by papal authority, as they doubt whether the said incorporations held good. Their value, after deducting vicars' portions, is 400 marks, the revenue of the monastery being 500 marks. 14 marks are to be assigned to each vicar. (De mandato.) [In left-hand margin: Cancellatur alia si reperiatur, quia per istam corrigitur, N. de Ben[even]to.]

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

2 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 193d.)

To Patrick, elect of Kilfenora. Provision of that see, with mandate to administer the same, to which, when archdeacon, he was elected by the chapter on the death of Cornelius, they being ignorant perhaps that it had been during Cornelius's lifetime reserved by Urban VI. Patrick, learning of the reservation, has caused the matter of the election to be set forth in consistory before the present pope (Urban VI. having died without disposing of the see), who has annulled it. [The like, on ff. 192d and 193, is cancelled, with a note in the left-hand margin: Cancellata quia registrata inferius immediate post istam, N. de Ben[even]to.] Concurrent letters to vassals of the church of Kilfenora, to the archbishop of Cashel, to king Richard, to the chapter, to the people, and to the clergy of the city and diocese.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 195.)

To Thomas Horewelle. Provision to him, a Friar Minor, of the see of Killala, reserved to the present pope in the lifetime of Robert.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy, and to the people of the city and diocese. [Imperfect; f. 196 is missing.]

1390.

4 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198.)

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

To Lewis, cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Fenton in York, value 300 gold florins, void and therefore reserved to the pope by the death, at the apostolic see, of Francis, cardinal deacon of St. Eustace's.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Lichfield, the abbot of St. Mary's without the walls, York, and a foreign bishop. (Pro domino cardinali.) 1389.

11 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 199.)

To the bishops of Durham and Hereford and another named. Mandate, motu proprio, to give to Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, the provostship, which is a principal dignity with cure, of St. John's, Beverley, value 400 marks, whether void by the death of John de Thoresby, or by the resignation of Adam Spenser, made to Alexander, bishop of St. Andrews, then archbishop of York, or otherwise void; notwithstanding that the said cardinal is a Benedictine. (Pro domino cardinali.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. VI.

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 8.)

To John Trevor, doctor of canon and civil law. Provision of a canonry of St. Davids, with reservation of a prebend, notwithstanding that he has a canonry and prebend of Wells with the precentorship, and of St. Asaph, and has to-day received provision of canonries with expectations of prebends in Llann-ddewibrevi (f. 241d) and Abergwili (f. 242d), in the diocese of St. Davids.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Hereford, the treasurer of St. Davids, and another named out of England.

Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.

The like mandate in regard to Robert Bron, rector of Ponchardon, in the said diocese, for a canonry of Wells, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he holds the said church and a perpetual benefice without cure, called a chantry in St. Mary's chapel, in the cemetery of the church of St. David's.

1390.

16 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 144.)

To the archdeacon of Limerick. The like in regard to John, son of Thomas Meesean Nathoty de Geraldinis, clerk, of that diocese, of noble race, for the canonry and prebend of Kilid, value 12 marks, so long void, by the marriage of Thomas O'Grada, that by the statutes of the Lateran Council they have lapsed to the pope.

1389.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 147d.)

To Walter Dolbeara, member of the pope's household. Provision of a canonry of Exeter and one of Salisbury, with reservation of prebends; notwithstanding that he holds a canonry and prebend of the church of St. Thomas the Martyr, Glaseneye, and the church of St. Michael's, Clistfonisun, in the said diocese; with grant, although he is not a resident member of the said household (familiaris et actu commensalis continue . . . non existis), of the same rights as those who are, on account of the multitude of whom, expecting prebends in the said churches, he doubts whether he may not be delayed.

Concurrent mandate to the archdeacon of Cornwall, the provost of St. Thomas the Martyr, Glaseneye, and a foreign bishop. (De mandato.) [See Reg. Lat. iii. f. 230.]

1390.

16 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 159d.)

To Thomas atte Vikeres, rector of Oxendon, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy as the son of a priest, to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, so that he may hold two other compatible benefices, even if one be a canonry and prebend in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and may exchange them, as well as his said church, as often as he please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

DE EXHIBITIS.

(f. 182.)

To John Park, priest, of the diocese of Hereford. Extension to him, student for four years of canon and civil law, of successive dispensations as the son of a deacon—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, after which he held the perpetual vicarage of Homme Lacy, in the diocese of Hereford; (ii) to hold another benefice compatible therewith, and to exchange both once for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, after which he resigned his vicarage and obtained the rectory of Withyndon in that of Worcester, about which he is litigating in the apostolic palace,—so that he may hold two other benefices, even if canonries and prebends, dignities, even if major or principal respectively, personatus, administrations, or perpetual offices, with or without cure, even if elective, in metropolitan, cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as he will for similar or dissimilar mutually incompatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

(f. 184.)

To the same. As above (f.). [Address only, with the first two words only of the same preamble: Laudabilia probitatis. Cancelled by strokes.]

* This volume, which consists of two distinct parts, has a modern foliation throughout (181 to 361), which continues that of the preceding volume. The first part (181 to 317) belongs to anno I, and ought to have been bound at the end of Vol. VIII. The second part (318 to 361) belongs to anno 13, and ought to have formed a separate volume.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 186d.)

To the bishop of Meath, the abbot of Novan (Navan), in the same diocese, and Richard Jongh, canon of Lincoln. Mandate to collate and assign to Michael de la Felda, priest, of the diocese of Dublin, bachelor of canon law, the deanery of Ossory, an elective major dignity with cure, value 50 marks, which he obtained by exchange with Thomas Waforton for his perpetual vicarage of Callan, in the diocese of Ossory, the resignations being made to Alexander, bishop of Meath, then vicar-general in spiritualities of Richard, bishop of Ossory. Michael now doubts whether for certain reasons the collation holds good.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

Ibid.
(f. 198.)

To John Blakeman, rector of Compton Parva, in the diocese of Worcester, B.C.L. Confirmation a die of a dispensation to him, already dispensed by Urban VI. as the illegitimate son of a married man—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure; (ii) to hold one other benefice compatible therewith, and to exchange both for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices—granted 16 Kal. Jan. anno 12 by that pope (who died before the letters were made out), so that he might hold one other compatible benefice, even a canonry and prebend, or an elective major dignity, personatus, or office, in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and might exchange it, as often as he thought good, for a similar or dissimilar compatible benefice. His illegitimacy needed not to be mentioned in future graces.

6 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 199.)

Relaxation of four years and four *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who visit on the Assumption the church of St. Mary the Virgin, Cambridge.

6 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 206.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to grant dispensation to John Fitz Huwe and Joan Bullok to remain in the marriage which they contracted in ignorance that John's late mother Joan was Joan Bullok's godmother; their past and future offspring is to be declared legitimate.

8 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 207.)

Relaxation of four years and four *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who from the first to the second vespers of the Exaltation of Holy Cross, and on the days immediately following, visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Mary Magdalen, Sterbrige, near Cambridge. If other similar indulgence, granted by the present pope, except that granted Non. Oct. anno 1 for such visits and alms on the feast of St. Mary Magdalene, be not expired, the present letters shall have no force.

(f. 207d.)

To Thomas de Gretham, rector of Riton, in the diocese of Durham, bachelor of canon law. As above (?), Reg. Lat. viii. f. 165. [Address and salutation only, with the first six words only of the same preamble: Litterarum scientia, vite ac morum honestas. Cancelled with strokes only.]

13 BONIFACE IX.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

1402.

4 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 221.)

To the bishops of Florence, Bangor, and St. Asaph. Consolidation and mandate as below, on the recent petition of Griffin Yonge, rector of Llanynys, in the diocese of Bangor, doctor of canon law, which contained that out of the fruits of the church, whose value then and for some time was far more than 100 marks, twenty-four portions called Claswriaeths were formerly instituted, for the maintenance of twenty-four perpetual portionaries called 'Abbatathelaswyr,' one of them, whose portion was commonly called the portion of David the priest, having the cure of souls of the parishioners; that afterwards by reason of pestilence and wars the said fruits were diminished to barely 80 marks, and that therefore in course of time the number of portionaries was reduced by authority of the ordinary to two; and that the state of the church being otherwise changed, Griffin obtained it thus consolidated by authority of the metropolitan. At his petition the church and portions thus successively consolidated are consolidated anew, and mandate is given to the above executors to institute a perpetual vicarage, with a fit portion assigned, to which the rectors shall present, they being freed from the cure of souls, so that any of such rectors may without obtaining dispensation hold together with the said church any benefice or office with cure, or dignity or personatus with or without cure. Such vicar shall be subject and obedient to Griffin and his successors as are the perpetual vicars of other parish churches in those parts to those who have the ownership and dominion (proprietatem et dominium) thereof. (De mandato.)

10 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 222d.)

Grant that the prior of the Gilbertine priory of St. Saviour, Newbyggung, in the town of Latchon (i. e. Hitchin), in the diocese of Lincoln, may choose eight priests, secular and regular, to hear the confessions of, and give absolution (except in cases for which the apostolic see has to be consulted) to penitents who on the feast of the Annunciation, from the first to the second vespers, visit and give alms for the conservation of the priory church, the pope having this day granted to such penitents the same indulgence and remission as to those who on August 1 and 2 visit the church of St. Mary of the Portiuncula, called St. Mary of the Angels, without the walls, Assisi. (De mandato.)

4 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 223.)

Grant of the same indulgence and remission as above to penitents who on the feast of the Resurrection and on the three days preceding and following visit and give alms for the conservation or repair of the church of the Augustinian priory or monastery of St. Radegund's, Langelete, in the diocese of Salisbury; with indulgent that the prior and four priests to be chosen by him, alike secular and religious, may hear confessions, as above. (De mandato.) 1402.

14 Kal. Sept. To Robert de Lyndesay, priest, of the diocese of York. Indult
St. Peter's, Rome. to have a portable altar.
(f. 224.)

4 Non. Sept. Grant for seven years of the same indulgence and remission St. Peter's, Rome. as to those who on August 1 and 2 visit St. Mary's of the (f. 225.) Angels, Assisi, to penitents who on the feast of St. Martin the Confessor and the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, from the first to the second vespers inclusive, visit and give alms for the conservation and sustentation of the chapel, wherein divers relics of saints are kept, of the poor hospital of St. David, Sweynesey, in the diocese of St. Davids, in which dwell a warden called a master, four priests, and a number of brethren and sisters; with indult as above for the warden and four priests to be chosen by him, alike secular and religious.

2 Id. Sept. To John Creyby, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. Dispen-
St. Peter's, Rome. sation to hold on reaching his nineteenth year, and to exchange,
(f. 230.) a benefice with cure, whether it be a parish church or perpetual vicarage, or a dignity, personatus, administration, or office, with or without cure, in a metropolitan, cathedral or collegiate church.

3 Non. Oct. Decree, on petition of Matilda Cromwell, lady of the town of St. Peter's, Rome. Tateshale, in the diocese of Lincoln, who has already given some,
(f. 238.) and proposes to give other precious gifts and jewels to the altars of St. Mary and St. Anne in the church of Tatyshale, and other altars or oratories therein, whereby the said gifts are rendered inalienable.

7 Id. Oct. To Henry Davyd, archdeacon of Stafford. Indult for three
St. Peter's, Rome. years to visit his archdeaconry by deputy, and receive in ready
(f. 244.) money the procurations due.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of London, the abbot of Westminster, and the dean of St. Paul's.

7 Kal. Nov. To the abbot of Langle, in the diocese of Norwich. Mandate
St. Peter's, Rome. to give licence to the inhabitants of the town (opidi) of Har-
(f. 246d.) lyston, in the parish of Redenhale, in the same diocese, distant a legal mile or thereabouts from the parish church, to have mass and other divine offices celebrated by chaplains of the said church or any other fit, even hired, priests in Harlyston, which chapel is dependent on the said church.

6 Kal. Nov. To John Weston, rector of Iweley, in the diocese of Worcester, St. Peter's, Rome. bachelor of canon and civil law. Dispensation, motu proprio, to (f. 250.) hold for life one other benefice with cure, even if it be a perpetual vicarage, or another parish church, or an elective dignity major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus, perpetual administration, or office in a metropolitan or cathedral or a collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices, even if both be elective dignities with cure, major or principal respectively, or parish churches or perpetual vicarages.

1402.

8 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 274.)

To William de Wildenholtz, elect of Salmas (Samasten.). Provision to him, a Friar Minor, in priest's orders, of that see, void by reason that the provision made to Thomas [Merke], whom the pope translated from Carlisle to Salmas, does not hold good, because Thomas did not, in accordance with a certain ordinance of the pope, have the apostolic letters of translation made out within the time appointed by the pope. The see has been void so long that it is impossible to have certain information as to the true manner of its voidance. (De mandato.)

18 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 292d.)

To Walter Hungerford, knight, Joan his mother, and Catherine his wife, of the diocese of Salisbury. Indult to each to have a portable altar.

4 Non. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 297.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York, and a foreign bishop. Mandate to summon Richard, bishop of Worcester, and others concerned, and to inform themselves as to the recent petition of Gerard de Albertis, of Florence, and his fellows, containing that they let him, then in minor orders, have certain sums as a pure and amicable loan for his payments in the Roman court and elsewhere, which sums he promised to restore and has not done so. If the facts be as stated they are to compel him by ecclesiastical censure and other remedies to hand over the said sums, paid by Gerard and the others on his behalf, as is clear from the acquittances of the camera and of the sacred college of cardinals. If he do not do so they are to excommunicate him, and lay his church under an interdict, invoking, if necessary, the aid of the secular arm.

2 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 305.)

Relaxation, during five years, of seven years and seven quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who give alms for the repair of the bridge of the town of Fordynbrygg[h]e, in the diocese of Winchester, commonly called the great bridge of Fordynbrygghe. The pope forbids these presents to be sent by collectors (questionarios); if this be attempted they are invalid.

16 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 316.)

To Robert Wytton, rector of St. Mary's in Marisco, in the diocese of Canterbury, doctor of canon law. Dispensation, motu proprio, to him—who holds, besides St. Mary's, canonries and prebends of London and Wells, value in all 80 marks—to hold for life one other benefice with cure, even an elective dignity, major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus or office, in a metropolitan or cathedral or a collegiate church, or a perpetual vicarage, and to exchange both as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. (De mandato.)

2 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 316d.)

To Thomas Marschall, perpetual vicar of All Saints, Bristol. Dispensation to hold for ten years together with his vicarage, value 40 marks, one other benefice with cure, even a dignity, personatus, administration, or office with cure, and to exchange them as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices; provided that he exchange within the 1402.

ten years, his vicarage or such benefice for a benefice compatible with the remaining one; otherwise his vicarage or the first obtained of such incompatible benefices is to be resigned.

17 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 317.)

Confirmation of the sentence under which Robert Wytton, canon of London, doctor of canon law, obtained possession of his canonry and prebend of Twyford, alias Twyforth, which were so long void after their voidance by the death of John Danby that they lapsed to the see of Canterbury, as metropolitan, and of which he obtained provision by authority of archbishop Thomas as metropolitan. As they were unlawfully possessed by John Hyldiard, alias Hylliard, clerk, of the diocese of York, the archbishop issued a commission to Thomas Stowe, dean of St. Paul's, and John Barnet, official of Canterbury; and the dean, acting alone, gave a definitive sentence in favour of Robert, who was put in possession. Robert now doubts whether the dean observed all due legal solemnities. (De mandato.)

2 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 318.)

Declaration, with dispensation, that William Heydok, priest, of the diocese of Norwich, is bound to no order and may remain as a secular priest. In his tenth year he entered the order of Augustinian friars, made his profession on attaining his eleventh year, after a year and a half obtained leave from the superior of his house to go to an university, and in ignorance of the law left off his habit, and had himself ordained priest. He made his profession against the will of his relations and friends, and would never have done so had he reached years of discretion.

12 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 330.)

To Thomas Aston, rector of Beston by Milham, in the diocese of Norwich. Dispensation to hold for life together with Beston, value 40 marks, one other benefice with cure, or otherwise incompatible, even if a parish church or perpetual vicarage or an elective dignity, major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus, administration or office, with or without cure, in a metropolitan or cathedral or a collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. [Water-stained.] 1401 or 1402.

n.d.
(f. 331d.)

To John Bourne, a Friar Preacher. [Licence to transfer himself to another house of his Order.] His recent petition contained that after long remaining in the order, fired with the zeal of devotion, he with his superior's licence had himself enclosed in a cell of their house at Arundel, in the diocese of Chichester, but on account of the inconvenience of the place where the cell is situate, and the penury in which the friars of the said house labour, he is unable to remain, and prays to be removed. [Cancelled with strokes only, without marginal note, and unfinished. Water-stained.] 1402.

9 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 332d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to summon Thomas, earl of Arundel, son and heir of the late earl Richard, his accomplices and others, and to decide what is just, enforcing 1402.

his decision by ecclesiastical censure, in the recent petition of Thomas Ponyngris, lord of Sey[n]tjon, alias de Sancto Johanne, of the diocese of Chichester, executor of the will of Philippa his wife, which petition contained that earl Thomas has seized moveables and immoveables belonging to the dower of Philippa, who had been the wife of earl Richard. [Water-stained.]

3 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 834d.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to absolve from excommunication and other sentences incurred, a wholesome penance being enjoined, and to rehabilitate John Barbyr, priest, of his diocese, who laid violent hands on Robert called Prior, priest, of the same diocese.

3 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 835.)

Relaxation of seven years and seven *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms for the repair or conservation of the chapel of Holy Trinity, Lyndholme, in the diocese of York, founded in a desert place (in heremo) by Edmund, duke of York, to which access is dangerous on account of the swamps which surround it. [Water-stained.]

Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 835d.)

To the archbishop of Bordeaux. Mandate to grant dispensation to contract marriage anew to Pontius de Castellione, knight, and Margaret de Stratton, damsel, of his diocese, who married not in ignorance that Pontius had been godfather to Margaret's daughter. [Cancelled by strokes, with note in left hand margin : Cassata de mandato quia alibi de novo registratu.]

4 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 846.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, Walter Cooke, canon of London, and a foreign bishop. Mandate, motu proprio, to collate and assign to John Iklyngton, priest, of the diocese of London, the canonry and prebend of Bylton in York, value 40 marks, provision of which he obtained from Thomas, then archbishop of York, now archbishop of Canterbury, on their resignation by John Carpe. The suit which arose between Iklyngton and Thomas Burstall, priest, of the diocese of Exeter, having been lawfully brought to the apostolic see, Iklyngton obtained a definitive sentence. He now doubts whether the archbishop's provision holds good; and the said canonry and prebend, as the pope has learned, are still void as above. (De mandato.)

17 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 849.)

To John Morton, scholar, of the diocese of Lincoln. Dispensation to him, in his seventeenth year, the son of a priest, to hold a benefice with or without cure, even if an elective dignity, or personatus or office, and to exchange it as often as he please for a similar or dissimilar benefice. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (De mandato.)

8 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 849.)

To William Sendeye, rector of Hadham, in the diocese of London, D.C.L. Dispensation to hold for life, together with Hadham, value 100 marks, one other benefice with cure, even if an elective dignity, major after the pontifical in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in a collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as seem good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 349d.)

To John Prophete, dean of Hereford. Dispensation to him—who holds, besides the said deanery, which is an elective major dignity, canonries and prebends of Lincoln, St. Asaph, Aberguyly, Ledebury, Thainworth, and St. Cross, Crediton (Tridonen), the free sinecure chapel of St. Tiriotus and the parish church of Ryngwode, in the dioceses of St. Davids, Hereford, Lichfield, Winchester, and Exeter, value together 300 marks—to hold for life two benefices with cure, even if one of them be an elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in a collegiate church, and to exchange them as often as seem good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. (De mandato.)

6 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 356.)

To Hugh Hanneworth, archdeacon of Stowe. Indult for seven years to visit his archdeaconry by deputy, and receive in ready money procurations due.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of London, the official of Lincoln, and a foreign bishop.

7 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 358d.)

To John Cotes of Teuelby, rector of Stanhowe, in the diocese of Norwich. Dispensation for life to hold together with Stanhowe, value 20 marks, one other benefice with cure, even if a perpetual vicarage or parish church, or elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus or office in a metropolitan or cathedral or a collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

1391.

7 Id. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 127d.)

To Thomas Walkyngton, canon of York, and two deans of the diocese of Utrecht. Mandate to collate and assign a canonry and prebend named in that diocese.

DE EXHIBITIS.

3 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 167.)

To Thomas de Southam, archdeacon of Oxford. Licence to him, who has also canonries of Lincoln and Salisbury to have, on account of age and weakness, coadjutors in those benefices.

14 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 195.)

To William bishop of Winchester. Indult to build a bell tower, and ring the bells for divine offices in "Seincte Marie College of Winchestre" near Winchester.

1391.

Ibid.
(f. 195d.)

To the same. The like for the "Seincte Marie College of Wynchestre" at Oxford.

3 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 202d.)

To John de Wellyncton, Augustinian canon of Lanthon priory in Wales, in the diocese of St. Davids. Rehabilitation and dispensation on account of irregularity contracted by his having in his youth, ten years ago, when already a canon of Lanthon, laid violent hands on and deprived of sight the late prior Nicholas, who had injured him and had wasted the goods of the priory, after which he came (accessisti) to the apostolic see and was absolved from excommunication incurred.

9 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 214.)

To John Frensch, alias Lynton, rector of Tunstal, in the diocese of Canterbury. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy—to be ordained and hold two benefices, one of them with cure—so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if one be a dignity with cure in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and may exchange them, as well as the said parish church, as often as he think good, for similar or dissimilar benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

13 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome
(f. 214.)

To Master Nicholas de Vivianis, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to collate and assign to John Burbache, priest, of Worcester, D.C.L. the church, however void, of Hampton Episcopi in that diocese, value 70 marks. Lately (dudum) it was set forth to the pope on the part of William Malpas, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, that he formerly (olim) exchanged by authority of the ordinary, bishop Henry, his archdeaconry of Worcester with the late Robert Broune for the said church, and that afterwards a suit arose between the said William Malpas about the said church which he had by the said authority held for some time, and still held at the time of his petition (tunc), and the said John Burbache and Thomas Flaadbury, priest, of the same diocese, who opposed the collation, each of them asserting that the church belonged to himself. On William's appeal the cause was brought to the apostolic see, and was committed by the present pope to the said auditor, after which it was signified on William's behalf that some persons asserted none of the three to have any right, upon which the pope issued a mandate to the auditor, if this were so, to give the church, however void, to William, who, as he asserted, had no other benefice, and who pretended that he was possessor thereof, and that the title which he had had thereto for five years and more was better than that of either John or Thomas. John's recent (nuper) petition has stated that the pope's grant was not good, because it was not mentioned therein that William was litigating in the papal palace with William Rocombe, clerk, of Worcester, about the archdeaconry.

1391.

5 Id. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 226d.)

To Thomas Tesdale, clerk, of the diocese of Durham. Dispensation to him, who is studying civil law at Oxford, and is in his twenty-first year, to be ordained priest and hold a benefice with cure.

2 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 227.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of five years and five quadragene of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week, and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days, visit the church of St. Peter, Cornhill (de Cornela).

Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 239.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene and of a hundred days, respectively, to penitents who on the same days visit and give alms to the fabric of the chapel of Holy Trinity, Pryvet, in the parish of West Meone, in the diocese of Winchester.

Ibid.
(f. 240.)

The like to penitents who on the same days and the feast of St. Margaret visit and give alms to the fabric of the monastery or priory of Calewich, in the diocese of Lichfield.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the same days as above (f. 227) visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, Ponsholt, in the parish of West Meons, in the diocese of Winchester.

13 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 241d.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene to penitents who on the feast of St. James visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of All Saints, Wrydlington, in the diocese of Norwich.

13 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 242.)

The like to penitents who on the same days as above (f. 227) and the feast of St. Theobald visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of St. George, Harnham, in the diocese of Salisbury, in which St. Theobald, confessor, is venerated.

1390.

7 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 243d.)

To Thomas le Waer, rector of Manchester, in the diocese of Lichfield. Dispensation to him, who holds also the free chapel of Barthorpe, in the diocese of Lincoln, and the canonries and prebends of New Lafford in Lincoln and Grondale in York, who is by both parents of baronial race, at the petition also of king Richard, whose kinsman he is, to hold together with the said church a benefice with cure, even a dignity—even major in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in a collegiate church, and elective—personatus, administration or office, or a parish church, and to exchange both as often as he will for, and to hold for two years, similar or dissimilar benefices; provided that within the said two years he exchange either his said church or such benefice for another benefice compatible with the remaining one; otherwise his said church must then be resigned.

1391.

Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 244.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene and of a hundred days of enjoined penance to penitents who on the same days as above (f. 227) and the feast of St. Botolph visit and give alms to the fabric of the Augustinian monastery or priory of Tau[n]ton, in the diocese of Bath.

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 244d.)

To James Dardani, archdeacon of Norfolk, licentiate of civil law, and collector to the camera in England. Faculty to confer, after examination, the office of notary on four clerks, not married nor in holy orders, of his choice, and to receive their oath, according to the form appended.

Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 245.)

Relaxation as above (f. 244) to penitents who on the same days as above (f. 227) visit and give alms to the fabric of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, in the cemetery of Norton Veel, in the diocese of Bath.

4 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 266.)

To Ebulo Strange, rector of Gresford, in the diocese of St. Asaph. Dispensation to him, who is of royal race, has for some years studied civil law, and holds also the free chapel of Hemp-ton, in the diocese of Lichfield, and a canonry and prebend of Lincoln, value together with his church 150 marks, on the petition also of King Richard, who says he is his kinsman, to hold one other benefice with cure, even a major elective dignity with cure in a cathedral, and to exchange it and his said church as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

DE FRUCTIBUS PERCIPIENDIS.

1390.

Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 266d.)

To Walter Colmpton, canon of Exeter. Indult for five years to receive the fruits of the church of Stoke Flenmyng, being resident in Exeter; provided that the cure of souls be exercised by a fit and sufficient vicar.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury and the dean and chancellor of Exeter.

1391.

13 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 269.)

To William de Wyndesore, provost of Wyngnam, in the diocese of Canterbury. Indult for three years to him, who has spent much on the repair of the church, to receive the fruits of his benefices, the daily distributions excepted, while studying letters at an university or residing on any of his benefices; provided that his provostship be not a principal dignity, that such benefice be not a major dignity in a cathedral church, and that the cure of souls in his provostship be exercised by a good and sufficient vicar.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of London and Derry (Deren.) and the official of Canterbury.

To Master Andrew Barret, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to summon Thomas Goldyngton, priest, of the diocese of London, and laymen concerned, and to excommunicate them until they shall make satisfaction, and come to the apostolic see to be absolved, in the circumstances set forth in the recent petition of Thomas Tollerton, priest, of the diocese of York, which contained that between him and Goldyngton a suit arose lately about the church of St. Martin Orgar, London, void by the death of Henry Churechhuel, and collated to Tollerton by apostolic authority, which cause, lawfully brought to the apostolic see, the pope committed at Tollerton's instance, to the 1390.

late Thomas de Ambrevilla, papal chaplain and auditor. After the said auditor had proceeded to a number of acts, it was set forth by Tollerton that Goldyngton, with James and Thomas Snawe, laymen of the said diocese [of London] and their servants, had inflicted divers injuries on him, and were at his instance cited by the said auditor, by the pope's furthur commission, after which the cause was committed by the pope to the above Master Baret. Upon the citation being made by Alan Norreis, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, the said laymen, at Goldyngton's instigation, horribly fell upon Tollerton and Alan, saying, "We defy you, ribald knaves (scurras) and losels, and don't care for your apostolic letters and citation, and before you go away you shall pay for it"; and beat Alan grievously, and wounded Tollerton until the blood flowed, and knocked him down, thereby incurring the greater excommunication. Moreover, also at Goldyngton's instance, they got Tollerton and Alan arrested and imprisoned by the secular court of London; and Goldyngton obtained a writ from the royal chancery by which Tollerton and Alan were ordered under penalty of 400*l.* not to leave the realm or bring their complaint before the said [papal] court, oaths and pledges being extorted from them to that effect, to the contempt of the apostolic see and scandal of many. Wherefore Tollerton has prayed the pope to commit to Master Baret the causes, civil and criminal, which he intends to bring. In addition to the above mandate the pope orders the auditor to hear and decide the causes, and to relax such oaths and pledges, and if he find that Goldyngton procured the violence and imprisonment, to deprive him of whatever right he may have in the said church, of which the value is 40 marks, and to collate and make provision of it to Tollerton.

DE EXHIBITIS.

1391.

6 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 37.)

To the abbot of St. Augustine's without the walls, Canterbury. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to appropriate the church of Bogsels, in the diocese of Canterbury, to the prior and chapter and the capitular mensa of Rochester. Their recent petition contained that it had been formerly appropriated to them and the said mensa by king Henry, but that by an ordinance of archbishop Thobald, and also on account of the negligence of the then prior and of the chapter, secular clerks had for many years been appointed to it, who paid a yearly pension to them; and that afterwards archbishop Simon, with the consent of the prior and chapter of Canterbury, restored it to them and the said mensa, instituting therein a perpetual vicarage, as is said to be contained in the sealed letters patent of Simon and of the prior and chapter of Canterbury. They doubt whether this incorporation and restitution hold good, on account of the omission of some legal solemnities, and pray that, as they have to shew much hospitality, their own church being near the highway, and have to sustain more than a hundred persons, both religious and secular clerks, as well as other servitors, for which hospitality and sustentation the fruits of the said mensa are insufficient, the said church, the annual value of which is 46 marks, may be appropriated anew to them and to the said mensa whose value is 900 marks.

To Thady (Tutheo) Okeall, clerk, of the diocese of Cloufert. Extension of successive dispensations as the son of a bishop and an unmarried woman related in the fourth degree of kindred—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure; (ii) to hold four mutually compatible benefices, with or without cure, even if canonries and prebends, and dignities, personatus, or offices, in cathedral or metropolitan churches, even if such dignities were major and elective, and to exchange the same for similar or dissimilar benefices—so that he may hold an episcopal, even metropolitan dignity, and be translated thence once to a similar dignity.

6 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 44.)

To the Augustinian prior and convent of St. Mary's, Kertemelle, in the diocese of York. Grant to them and their successors that they may, as hitherto, have the cure of the parishioners of St. Michael's exercised by a hired secular priest, or by one of their canons in priest's orders, to be appointed and removed at their sole pleasure. In the foundation and endowment of their monastery, it was ordained by the ordinary that the cure of the parishioners of the said parish church which stood formerly where their monastery now is, should remain in the hands of the prior and convent, and that in the monastery church should be erected (as was afterwards done) an altar to St. Michael, at which the said parishioners should be bound to hear mass, etc. and receive the sacraments from a priest appointed and removed as above; which cure, since the said foundation, over a hundred and sixty years ago, has been exercised, sometimes by a secular, sometimes by a canon, as above.

1390.

Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 46.)

To the prior and chapter of Rochester. Indult to have six monks ordained deacon when they have arrived at their eighteenth, and priest when at their twenty-third year; the number of their monks of sufficient age having been much diminished by pestilence and other causes.

10 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 46d.)

To John Swyft, alias Chandelers, canon of Salisbury. Extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure; (ii) to hold one other compatible therewith, and to exchange both once for two similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, after which he obtained by papal provision the church of Wyttenham, in the diocese of Salisbury; (iii) to hold four mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends, and one of them an elective dignity with cure, personatus, or office, in cathedral or metropolitan churches, and to exchange them as often as he pleased for four similar or dissimilar benefices, after which he resigned Wyttenham, and obtained and at present holds the canonries and prebends of Nethirbury in Salisbury, Trefflegh in Landewybreve, in the diocese of St. Davids, and Lekford in St. Mary's, Winchester, and the church of Werbelington, in the diocese of Winchester—so that he may hold any mutually compatible benefices of any number and kind, even canonries and prebends, elective dignities, even major, personatus, or offices, with cure, in cathedral or metropolitan, or principal dignities in collegiate churches, and even episcopal, archiepiscopal, or patriarchal dignities, and may exchange them as often as seem good to him for other mutually compatible benefices.

1390.

16 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 57.)

To the Augustinian prior and convent of St. Mary's priory, Conyngesheved (Conishead), in the diocese of York. Indult that they and their successors may have their churches of Ulveereston and Mulcastre, and chapel of Dregge, in the diocese of York (whose value with that of the priory itself is 340 marks, on which nine canons are sustained), served as has been done from time immemorial, by stipendiary secular priests removable at their pleasure.

6 Id. Dec.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 61.)

To Thady (Tatheo) O'Keall, as above (f. 43d). Extension of dispensation as the son of a bishop, etc.—to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure—to him whose parents he asserts were of noble race, and who is a scholar of canon and civil law, and has been postulated by some of the canons to the deanery of Elphin, void by the death of Malachy Obynnery, so that he may hold the same and three other benefices with or without cure, compatible therewith and with one another, even if canonries and prebends, and major dignities, personatus, or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, even if elective, and may exchange them as often as seem good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. [See Reg. Lat. xix. f. 284d.]

1391.

6 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 64.)

To John, king, and Philippa daughter of John duke of Lancaster, queen, of Portugal and Algarve. Dispensation to them—king John having been master of the house of Avisio, in the diocese of Evora, of the order of Calatrava under the Cistercian rule; they having, in the belief that dispensation had been granted them by the apostolic see, contracted marriage although the letters of dispensation had not been made out; and king John having been, by other letters, absolved from consequent excommunication, etc., and from his oath and profession in the said order; he having also had dispensation to marry—to remain in the marriage contracted by them, and for the survivor to contract marriage as often as desired. Past and future offspring are declared legitimate. [I. Soares da Sylva, Memorias para a vida del rey D. Joāo I. iv. p. 58.] 1390.

3 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 72.)

To Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, dwelling in the Roman court. Mandate to him, by special mandate still an auditor, to surrogate Master Henry Bowet, canon of Salisbury, doctor of canon and civil law, papal chaplain, to all rights which the late Nicholas Chaddesden, clerk, had at the time of his death to the archdeaconry of Lincoln, value 600 marks, and to admit him to possession thereof. Henry's recent petition contained that a cause arose lately between him and the said Nicholas about the archdeaconry, the papal provision of which to him, on its voidance by the death of Richard Ravenser, was opposed by Nicholas, who took possession. The cause, lawfully brought to the apostolic see, was committed at Henry's instance to Master John de Dulmen, then to Master Thomas de Walkyngton, and then to two other auditors, the last of whom, Master Peter de 1390.

Florentia, had proceeded to a number of acts when Urban VI. died. Master Peter, in accordance with the general renewal by the present pope at his accession of the commissions given to papal auditors by his predecessor, proceeded to give a definitive sentence, by which he adjudged the archdeaconry to Henry and removed Nicholas. The latter's appeal was committed by the pope in the second instance to the above Bertrand, then chaplain and auditor, who had proceeded short of a conclusion, when Nicholas died in Rome during the pope's residence at Rieti (Reg. Lat. iii. f. 228d), being still in possession. The present mandate is made, lest a fresh adversary should arise against Henry, who is also auditor-general of causes in the court of the camera, and has had dispensation to hold two incompatible benefices, or two dignities, or one dignity and one benefice incompatible therewith, even if any one of such dignities have cure, be a major dignity in a cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, and be elective, and to exchange the same as often as he wish for two similar or dissimilar benefices or dignities; notwithstanding that he is litigating in the apostolic palace about the canonries and prebends of Legton-Busard in Lincoln (see f. 100), and Cyrmerster and Bear in Salisbury, and the church of Clyve, in the diocese of Worcester, holds the deanery of Dublin, value 600 marks, and has formerly had provision from the present pope of canonries with expectations of prebends in Chichester, York, Beverley, Ripon, and Southwell. As soon as he gets possession of the archdeaconry, the deanery of Dublin is to be resigned.

1391.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 80d.)

To John Prata, rector of St. John Zachary, London. Decree that the provision of the said church, value 40 marks, void by the death of John Roter, and previously reserved by the pope, shall hold good from the date of these presents, even though, as is asserted, it became void otherwise.

4 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 84d.)

Licence at the petition of Robert Joneson de Morton, rector of two portions of Repynghale, in the diocese of Lincoln (one of the two rectors of which has two portions, and the other the third), for him and the parishioners and any others, without the licence of the ordinary, to found and build a chapel of Holy Cross, and to have mass and other divine offices celebrated therein upon the spot in certain fields within the parish bounds, near the high road, on which for a hundred years has stood and still stands a certain wooden cross, whither, by reason of the miracles wrought there, great multitudes with offerings resort from the said diocese and from other parts of England. Bishop John, for a reason unknown, has forbidden such offerings to be made there, on account of which the cross is not held in due and wonted devotion.

17 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 92.)

To the archbishop of York and the provost of Beverley. Inhibition to admit anyone to the canonry and prebend of the altar of St. Martin in Beverley, and the church of Hornsea, under pretext of any royal or other new title, to the prejudice of Anthony de Sancto Quintino, rector of Seterington, under penalty of 10,000 marks, half to be given to the camera, and half to the said Anthony. His petition contained that a cause arose, etc. verbatim as above, Reg. Lat. i. f. 270, as far as:—". . . which appeal was committed by the same pope to Master John de Dulmen, papal chaplain and auditor, after which Urban VI. died." The present pope at his accession gave Master John the usual commission to resume the cause, and now upon Anthony's said petition, wherein he added that he doubts whether some person, by royal title or otherwise, may not intrude himself into the above canonry and prebend, or into the above church, provision of which he received lately from the pope, by whom it had been reserved, the present inhibition is made. [5½ pp.]

1391.

4 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 100.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops of London and Norwich. Mandate to summon John, bishop of Lincoln, John called Thomas, clerk, of that diocese, the bishop's kinsman, and others concerned, in the matter of the canonry and prebend of Legton Busard in Lincoln, papal provision of which, on their voidance by the death of William Kynwell, was made to Master Henry Bowet, papal chaplain. Henry has been despoiled of them by the bishop, who has intruded into them the said John, his kinsman. John, or any other intruder after him, is, under pain of excommunication, deprivation of all benefices, and disability to hold any others, to resign them to Henry; and bishop John is, under penalty of 10,000 gold florins, to be paid to the camera, to remove his kinsman and put Henry in possession. [See above, f. 72, and below, Reg. xiv. f. 48.]

15 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 106.)

To the bishop of Durham, the abbot of Wyreby (Whitby), in the diocese of York, and another named out of England. Mandate to remove John la Pole, and restore Thomas de Walkington, papal chaplain, or his proctor, to possession of the canonry and prebend of St. Andrew's altar in St. John's, Beverley, papal provision of which he obtained, on their voidance by the promotion by Urban VI. and consecration without the Roman court, of Walter, now bishop of Durham, to the see of Coventry and Lichfield. Having held them for some time, Thomas was despoiled by the said John, clerk, of the said diocese, who still holds possession. The cause between them was committed by Urban VI. at the instance of Thomas to Master John Egidii, papal chaplain and auditor. Master John, at the instance of the late Doynus de Remis, Thomas's proctor, cited John to the apostolic palace, and upon his contumacy gave a definitive sentence for Thomas, and condemned John in fruits received and in costs, 70 gold florins of the camera. After Urban's death it was set forth by Thomas to the present pope that John had falsely suggested to Urban that he had received from him provision of the said canonry and prebend before Thomas surreptitiously obtained the like, upon whom 1391.

Urban had therefore imposed silence, nullifying the above proceedings; and Master Peter Gasconis, chaplain and auditor, was ordered by the present pope to inform himself thereupon. Master Peter, at the instance of Master Richard Drayton, Thomas's proctor, cited John (who appeared by Master John Scriviani, acting for John's proctor, Master John Franceys) and confirmed the former sentence. John's appeal was committed to Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, then chaplain and auditor, who confirmed Peter's sentence, and condemned John in further fruits received and further costs, 25 florins. The pope at the petition of Thomas confirms the several sentences, and orders their execution. [7½ pp.]

5 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 110.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to summon those concerned and, if the facts be as stated, to absolve John Marcheford priest, of the diocese of Ely, from sentences of excommunication and other, to dispense him on account of irregularity contracted by celebrating divine offices and taking part therein during suspension, and to rehabilitate him to hold any benefices. His recent petition contained that Richard Dryton, canon of Wells, then rector by papal provision of Terryng, in the diocese of Chichester, obtained a definitive sentence in the apostolic palace against John, who had wrongly taken possession of the church, John being condemned in fruits received and costs. The archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Chichester, and the dean of St. Agricola, Avignon, were appointed to execute it. On John's refusal to obey the dean, who, as the form of the letters of execution enabled him, acted alone, Gregory XI. appointed the late William Herboth, chaplain and auditor, to enforce the sentence, and on John's repeated refusal [Urban] VI. ordered William to deprive John of all his benefices and to inflict on him disability to hold any others, which was done. John, his petition adds, is now ready to obey.

9 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 112d.)

To John Burnham, rector of Oswaldkirk, in the diocese of York. Extension of dispensation as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if one be a canonry and prebend or elective dignity, major in cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in collegiate churches, or personatus or office, with or without cure, and exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

3 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 113.)

To William de Wyndesore, provost of St. Mary's, Wyngham, in the diocese of Canterbury. Dispensation to hold for one year, with his provostship, which is a dignity with cure, value 100 marks, one other benefice with cure. Within such year one or other is to be exchanged for a benefice compatible with the remaining one; otherwise the provostship is to be resigned. Wyngham is near the sea-port by Sandwich, and the provost is thereby put to excessive expense in hospitality.

1391.

16 Kal. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 113d.)

To the prior of Lanthony near Gloucester. Mandate to license a cemetery to be dedicated for the parishioners of St. Helen's, Abingdon, in the diocese of Salisbury. The recent petition of the vicar, Henry Bryt, and parishioners, contained that the church has had no cemetery of its own for want of a fitting ground, and that funerals are taken into the monastery of Abingdon, to which the church is appropriated, the vicar, however, taking the whole of the dues; that the abbot and convent are annoyed because those who follow the funerals make a great tumult and hinder divine worship, to the great prejudice of the vicar and parishioners, for the monks do not allow the office of the dead to be said in the monastery; and that lately when the vicar had celebrated the office of the dead in the said parish church, the monks caused the monastery doors to be shut, and refused the body burial for about three days and nights; moreover, the said gates being carelessly not kept shut, pigs have got into the cemetery and dug up corpses; the monks, likewise, without consent of friends and executors, remove, sell, and appropriate to their own use the costly tombstones. The proposed cemetery is contiguous to the parish church, and is enclosed by a stone wall.

6 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 126.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to remove William, prior of Kertnell in his diocese, if it be found, as the pope has heard, that he has been guilty of dilapidation, spending the proceeds in depraved uses, of simony in the admission of persons to make their profession therein, and of too frequent visits to taverns (tabernae), so that buildings of the monastery are falling to ruin, divine worship and hospitality are neglected, scandal given by the prior's too dishonest life, and the monastery brought to a miserable state. [See Reg. Lat. xiii. f. 87.]

4 Id. Jan.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 128d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate—recapitulating the licence to build a chapel of Holy Cross, as is contained in the pope's letters (viz. above f. 84d)—to grant relaxation of two years and two quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of the exaltation of Holy Cross visit and give alms to the fabric of the said chapel.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

10 Kal. May.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 131d.)

To John Chitterne, rector of New Church, in the diocese of Winchester. Dispensation at his petition, who is master in king Richard's chancery, and holds also canonries and prebends of Salisbury and Hereford, to hold with his said church one other benefice with cure, even if it be a parish church or a dignity, major or principal respectively, perpetuus, or office, in a metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar benefices. [Cancelled, with a pen stroke, and note in the left-hand margin: Concellata quia propter sui nimiam correctionem inferius folio cxlviii. aliter registrata est.]

1391.

Id. April.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 134d.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, and those of St. Leonard and the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms for the repair or to the fabric of the parish church of St. Leonard, in the town (opido) of Coneglian, in the diocese of Connor (Ceneten. for Conoren.), which has been burned and is poorly endowed.

1390.

7 Id. Dec.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 135.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate, at the petition also of king Richard, to absolve, a salutary penance being imposed, William de Hypsconys, donsel, and Matilda Swyninton, alias Pesal, damsel, from the sentence of excommunication which they have incurred by marrying in a certain private chapel, and without banns, knowing that they were related on both sides in the third degree of kindred. They are to be separated for a time, and are then to be dispensed to remarry, past and future offspring being declared legitimate. Whichever of the two survive the other shall remain perpetually unwed.

1391.

2 Kal. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136d.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feasts of the Invention and Exaltation of Holy Cross visit and give alms for the conservation of the altar of St. Cross in the church of St. Columba, Seryne (Skreen), in the diocese of Meath.

1390.

10 Kal. Jan.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 143.)

To Robert [Waldeby], sometime bishop of Aire, elect of Dublin. Sending the pallium by the archbishop's envoy, Dominic de Sancto Johanne, clerk, of Bayonne, to be assigned to him by the bishops of London and St. Asaph, who are to receive from him the usual oath of fealty to the pope and the Roman church. [See Reg. Lat. xiii. f. 64d.]

Ibid.

To the above-named bishops. Mandate to assign the pallium, being sent as above, to receive the archbishop's oath, and to send it to the pope.

1391.

7 Kal. Feb.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 144.)

To William de Chesterton, rector of Ratlesdene, in the diocese of Norwich. Dispensation to him—who has lately received papal provision of Yakesle, in the diocese of Lincoln, on obtaining possession of which he is bound to resign Ratlesden; and who has also had provision from the present pope of canonries with expectations of prebends in Lincoln and Chichester, and of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure in Lincoln—to hold for two years, together with Ratlesdene, or with Yakesle or such dignity, personatus, or office with cure, one other benefice with cure, even if it be a parish church, or an elective dignity with cure, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus, or office, and to exchange meanwhile, as often as seems good to him, the other of the 1391.

said parish churches, or such dignity, personatus, or office with cure, or such benefice, for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. The pope wills that within the said two years he shall exchange such incompatible benefice for another benefice incompatible (sic) with the said other parish church, or with such dignity, personatus, or office with cure. Otherwise such other parish church and dignity etc. are to be resigned. [See f. 242.]

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 146.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of St. Clement visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of the Benedictine priory of St. Clement without the walls, York.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To John Chytterne, rector of New Church, in the diocese of Winchester. Dispensation motu proprio to him, who is master in king Richard's chancery, and holds also canonries of Salisbury and Hereford, to hold for life two benefices with cure, or otherwise incompatible, even if they be parish churches or elective dignities, or personatus, or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and such dignities be major therein or principal in collegiate churches, and to exchange the same as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. [See f. 131d.]

9 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to grant dispensation to Henry Harburgh, clerk, of his diocese, the son of a priest, to be ordained and hold three compatible benefices, even if one have cure, and be a dignity with cure in a cathedral or metropolitan, or be principal in a collegiate church; and to exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 150d.)

Relaxation of four years and four quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feasts of St. Mary the Virgin visit and give alms for the conservation of her church of the monastery of Carow without the walls, Norwich.

Ibid.
(f. 161.)

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Leonard visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Leonard in Bosco without the walls, Norwich.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Anne visit, etc. as above, the chapel of St. Anne, in the parish church of St. Clement in Coneyforde, Norwich.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Andrew visit, etc. as above, his church at Bernyngnam Parva, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.
(f. 151d.)

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Margaret visit, etc. as above, her church at Soterle in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the feast of Holy Trinity visit, etc. as above, the chapel of Holy Trinity, in the parish church of St. Ethelbert (Alberti) Catynton (i.e. Tatynton), in the diocese of Norwich.

1391.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Mary Magdalen visit, etc. as above, her church at Laufare Maudelyn, in the diocese of London.

Ibid.

The like to penitents who on the feast of St. Anne visit her chapel in the church of the Benedictine monastery of Thetford, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.

(f. 152.)

The like to penitents who on the feast of the Invention of Holy Cross visit, etc. as above, the chapel of Holy Cross, in the church of the Cistercian monastery of Sybton, in the diocese of Norwich.

3 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152.)

Decree that the merchants of England who, having business at Bruges and not understanding the language of the inhabitants, have newly (de novo) founded there a chapel to St. Mary the Virgin and St. Thomas the Martyr, may choose a fit priest of their nation, secular or religious, who may celebrate mass and other divine offices therein and hear confessions; provided that the offerings be wholly reserved, according to the custom of the place, to the parish church.

15 Kal. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 153.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, and those of St. Michael, the Nativity of St. John Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, St. Andrew, St. Laurence, St. Thomas the Martyr, St. Nicholas, St. Mary Magdalen, St. Margaret, St. Praxed, St. Catherine, the dedication, and All Saints, and during the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who on the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of St. Mary, Westwell, in the diocese of Canterbury.

6 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 158d.)

To the archdeacons of Norfolk, Oxford, and Bedford. Mandate to execute a certain grant, as follows, and to confirm the same, made by mandate of Urban VI. to whom it was lately set forth on behalf of Thomas, prior, John Henycie, canon, and the convent of the Augustinian priory of Frethelestok, in the diocese of Exeter, that the said John, formerly for seventeen years its faithful, diligent, and laborious prior, on account of his infirmities freely resigned, and in consideration of the augmentation and abundance of their means, due to his industry, was by the said prior and convent exonerated from choir for life, had a suitable room in the dormitory assigned him, and a yearly allowance for life of 10*l.* to be paid at Easter and Michaelmas, three large cheeses, 20 lbs. of candles, and two cartloads of fuel; also, weekly, fourteen loaves called 'Miches' and seven black loaves (nigros panes), twenty-four gallons of the better beer; and, daily, the portions (fercula) of two canons, to wit, of flesh and fish, and for his one servitor a pittance with a sufficient portion at dinner and supper; moreover, if he for study or recreation absented himself, he was to have during such absence, in lieu of all the above, except the room, a yearly pension of 14*l.*; all 1391.

which is said to be contained more fully in the sealed letters of Ralph de Ryngestede, vicar-general during the voidance of the see, who confirmed the same, and of the said abbot and convent. Urban VI at John's petition ordered the dean of London, not mentioned by name in the pope's letters (ejus nomine proprio non expresse), if the facts were as stated, to give papal confirmation. John's recent petition to the present pope contained that although John Appelbi, dean of London, has done so under the said letters, the prior and convent have for some years refused to observe their grant, defrauding him of his pension.

9 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 160d.)

To Walter Cook, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, B.C.L. Dispensation to him—who has lately had provision from the present pope of the chancellorship of London, a dignity with cure, of the church of Wermuth, in the diocese of Durham, possession of which he has not yet obtained, of canonries with expectation of prebends in London, Lincoln, and Wells, and of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure, in London, and of a benefice with or without cure, even if a dignity with cure, in the common or several gift of the archbishop and the prior and chapter of Canterbury—to hold two benefices with cure, even if one be a dignity major and elective in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and to exchange the same as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

1390.

4 Non. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 172.)

Relaxation for ten years of two years and two quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days, visit the church of Elmeston (i.e. Elmeston), in the diocese of Canterbury, which has been robbed of its ornaments, and which by reason of the poverty of the parishioners has no bells.

12 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 182.)

To the bishop of Ely. Mandate to separate for a time and then to absolve from the sentence of excommunication incurred by marrying, knowing that they were related in the fourth degree of affinity, Thomas de Morle, knight, and Anne de Dispenser, damsel, of the diocese of Norwich; to grant dispensation to them to contract marriage anew and remain therein, and to declare past and future offspring legitimate. Thomas and Anne held Henry, bishop of Norwich, who ought to have been written to in this case, for a certain reason (not mentioned) suspect. Whichever of the two survive the other shall remain perpetually unwed.

2 BONIFACE IX.

1390.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 182d.)

To Richard de Carleton, canon of London, D.C.L. Dispensation to him—who is a consistorial advocate, holds the church of 1390.

Aylington, in the diocese of Lincoln, and has had papal provision of the canonry and prebend of Warthille in York, about which he is litigating in the apostolic palace, and of that of Holborne in London, possession of which he has not yet got, and of canonries of London and Lincoln with expectation of prebends and dignities, personatus, or offices, with or without cure—to hold together with Aylington or other parish church any benefice with cure or otherwise incompatible, even if it be a dignity, major and elective, personatus, or office, in a metropolitan or cathedral church, and to exchange such benefices (sic) as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar benefices (sic).

5 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 184d.)

To Thomas Fayrandgod and Richard Holn, perpetual chaplains of Holy Trinity chapel, Walsoken, in the diocese of Norwich. Indult to them and their successors to celebrate and have celebrated, even in time of interdict if privately, mass and other divine offices in the said chapel, founded by king Richard.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 184d.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the usual octaves and six days; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of St. Helen, Quetlex, in the diocese of York.

2 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 185.)

To Michael Cergeaus, canon of Chichester, J.U.D. Dispensation to him—who is a consistorial advocate, holds canonries and prebends of Chichester and Wells, the perpetual vicarage of Sutton by Plympton, about which he is litigating in the apostolic palace, and the church of St. Ladoce, in the same diocese of Exeter; who had grant from Urban VI. to hold the said vicarage along with the said parish church, on condition of exchanging the church within a year for another benefice compatible with his vicarage; has lately had papal provision of canonries and prebends of Crediton (Crititonie) and Deywerton, in the dioceses of Exeter and Salisbury, possession of which he has not yet obtained, and holds under letters of the present pope canonries of Exeter and Salisbury, with expectation of prebends and of a dignity, personatus, or office—to hold together the said vicarage and church, and exchange them as often as seems good to him for two other similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices, even if they be residential dignities, major and elective in cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in collegiate churches, personatus, or offices, with or without cure.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 186.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to inform himself touching the petition of William, bishop of Rochester, and the Augustinian abbot and convent of Osney, for licence to exchange the church of Mixbury, of the patronage of the bishop, and those of Bokenhull and Cronell, of the patronage of the abbot and convent. The bishop is to grant the licence if, as the petition states, Mixbury would be much more convenient to the abbot and convent, being situate near their possessions, and if the exchange have the assent of the chapter of Rochester and others interested.

1390.

1389.

1 BONIFACE IX.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 191d.)

To Richard Montayne, clerk, of the diocese of Ferns. Confirmation a die of the extension by Urban VI. under letters, which were not made out, dated 14 Kal. Jan. anno 10, of his dispensation as the son of a priest—to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure—so that he might hold two or three other mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends in cathedral or metropolitan churches, and might exchange them for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices; with that pope's further grant that in future graces no mention of his illegitimacy needed to be made. [See f. 312.]

2 BONIFACE IX.

1390.

16 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 193.)

Relaxation of two years and two quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of St. Margaret visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of St. Margaret, Heinhulle, in the diocese of Canterbury.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 203.)

To Richard de Thoen (i.e. Thorn), canon of York, papal chaplain. Faculty to dispose of his personal property by will.

Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 208d.)

To Master Thomas de Walkington, canon of York, doctor of canon law, papal chaplain. Licence to him, who is also an auditor of causes in the apostolic palace, to resign as often as he 1390.

please his benefices for purpose of exchange into the hands of any ordinary or ordinaries without requiring the licence of the said [apostolic] see; and to such ordinary or ordinaries to receive the resignations and make the exchange, certifying the officers of the camera or the collector in those parts in respect of dates and names of persons and benefices.

2 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 209d.)

To John de Berford, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. Dispensation to him, who is S.C.L. and in his twentieth year, to hold after attaining his twenty-first year a benefice with cure.

11 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 213d.)

To John Mere, rector of Meyvot, in the diocese of St. Asaph. Dispensation to him—who has lately received from the present pope provision of a canonry of Salisbury, with expectation of a prebend and dignity therein, even major and elective, or personatus, or office, with or without cure, and of the canonry and prebend of Graton in Lincoln—to hold together with his said church one other benefice with cure, even a dignity in a cathedral or metropolitan church, major and elective, and to exchange both as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar benefices.

13 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 214d.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the usual six days; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of the Augustinian priory of Budlington (Bridlington), in the diocese of York, founded in honour of the Assumption.

7 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 215.)

Relaxation during ten years of five years and five *quadrage*ne, and of a hundred days, respectively, to penitents who on the like feasts, octaves, and days visit the church of All Saints, Gouxhill, in the diocese of Lincoln.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 217d.)

To Raymund, master-general of the order of Friars Preachers, S.T.M. dwelling at the Roman court. Faculty to grant to John Garland, of the said order, S.T.B. if found fit after examination by him and four other masters of theology in the Roman court, the honour of mastership in that faculty, and the licence to teach. John was deputed by his prior provincial, in order to obtain the said degree, to read the 'Sentences' in the university of Oxford, and has made such progress in the said faculty as to be worthy of the present mandate.

1390.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 220.)

Relaxation of four years and four *quadrage*ne, and of a hundred days, respectively, of enjoined penance to penitents who on the above feasts, octaves, and days visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of Bikelesewade, in the diocese of Lincoln.

1391.

14 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 239.)

To Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the Holy Roman church, Bartholomew, cardinal priest of St. Pudenziana's and Raynald, cardinal deacon of St. Vitus's in the Shambles, 1391.

Mandate to make diligent inquiry and report to the pope touching the life and miracles of John de Thweng (i.e. Twenge), prior of Bridlington, where in the priory church his body lies, for whose canonization king Richard, queen Anne, and many prelates and nobles of the realm have made repeated and instant petition. The cause has, according to custom, been thrice set forth in public consistory, and afterwards set forth by Philip, bishop of Squillace, S.T.M. to the pope himself.

10 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 242.)

To William de Chesterton, rector of Ratlesdene, in the diocese of Norwich. Dispensation, at the petition also of Adam, cardinal of St. Cecilia's, to hold for two years his church of Ratlesdene, value 50 marks, together with Jakesle, value 100 marks, upon his obtaining possession, which he has not yet got; notwithstanding that by the terms of the provision thereof made to him by Urban VI. by whom it had been previously reserved, he was bound to resign Ratlesdene; notwithstanding also the provision of Ratlesdene which the same pope subsequently ordered to be made to Robert Broun, clerk, of the diocese of Bath. The pope does not intend the said Robert to be otherwise prejudiced by these presents in respect of Ratlesdene. [See f. 144.]

2 BONIFACE IX.

DE EXHIBITIS.

1391.

3 Id. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 300.)

To Master Peter de Florentia, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to collate and assign as below. The petition of John William, subdeacon, of the diocese of St. Davids, formerly set forth that a cause arose lately between him and Thomas Lye, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, about the perpetual vicarage of Thammbury in the latter diocese, value 90 marks, which, on its voidance by the death of John Brampton, was obtained by William under pretext of letters of Urban VI. after that pope's death, and after the revocation of his reservations by the present pope. Lye claimed the vicarage, and the cause was brought by William's appeal to the apostolic see and committed by the pope to Master John de Dulmen, papal chaplain and auditor, who was ordered, if neither William nor Lye should be found to have a right to the vicarage, to collate and assign it to the former. Afterwards it was set forth to the pope on behalf of Lye that the said auditor gave a definitive sentence adjudging the vicarage to him. William's appeal was committed by the pope to Master John Trevor, chaplain and auditor, who was ordered, if neither William nor Lye should be found to have a right, as was asserted, to collate and assign it to whichever of the two he should find fit after examination. William's recent petition contained that Master John revoked the former sentence and that Lye's fresh appeal has been committed to the above-named Master Peter. As the petition adds, it is asserted, as above, and the pope orders Master Peter, if this be found to be the case, to collate and assign the vicarage to whichever of the two is, after examination, found fit and sufficient.

3 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 302.)

To the bishop, dean, and archdeacon of London. Mandate to collate and assign the perpetual vicarage of St. Giles without Crepulgate, London, value 60 marks, to John T[r]ouburrgg, priest, of the diocese of Bath, bachelor of canon law, whose recent petition contained that he obtained it during the lifetime of Urban VI. on the death of Bartholomew, under provision to him by that pope of a benefice with or without cure in the gift of the bishop of Bath, and now doubts whether for certain causes such provision holds good.

1390.

4 Non. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 312.)

To Richard Montayne, perpetual vicar of Ambrisdon, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of successive dispensations to him as the son of a priest—(i) to be ordained, etc.; (ii) to hold two or three other mutually compatible benefices, even if, etc. as above, f. 191d, after which he obtained his vicarage, and subsequently provision from the present pope of a canonry with expectation of a prebend of Ferns—so that he may hold any mutually compatible benefices soever with or without cure, even if they be canonries and prebends, and one of them an elective dignity with cure, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, and may exchange them as well as his vicarage as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XIII.

3 BONIFACE IX.

DE PREBENDIS VACANTIBUS.

1392.

Kal. May,
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 31.)*

To Thomas Leche, clerk, of Hereford, B.C.L. Reservation of the canonry and prebend of Llandalandaueylok in Aber-gwyly, value 15 marks, about to be void by Thomas Forster's obtaining the canonry and prebend of Ampilford in York, under the resignation clause of the provision made to him by Urban VI. of a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend; notwithstanding that Leche has lately had provision from the pope of a canonry, with expectation of a prebend, in Hereford and in Aber-gwyly, which latter shall, upon the present letters taking effect, be null and void.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of St. Davids and Hereford, and a foreign bishop.

14 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 46d.)

To Richard Possewick, of Avignon. Provision, at the petition of Adam, cardinal of St. Cecilia's, whose servant he is (pro te . . . suo familiari continuo commensali), of the canonry and prebend of Tassagarde in Dublin, value 20 marks, void and reserved to the pope by the death of the apostolic sec of Hugh Harlain during the lifetime of Gregory XI. who

(f. 85.)

To Thady (Tatheo) Odonnalayn. Provision, on petition of the convent, of the Augustinian priory of St. Mary's, Clontuasgert, in the diocese of Clonfert, value 20 marks, of which he is a canon, in priest's orders, void by the removal by Maurice, bishop of Clonfert, for his faults and demerits, of Carbricus, canon, afterwards prior, during whose priorship it was reserved to the pope. (Pro Deo.)

1391.

6 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 87.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate, in pursuance of other letters ordering him to deprive William, prior of Kertmell, for dilapidation, simony, etc. [Reg. Lat. Bonif. IX. xii. f. 126] to allow the convent for this turn only to proceed to the election of a new prior and to confirm the same, to receive from him the usual oath of fealty according to the form enclosed, and to send it to the pope.

6 Id. July.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 109d.)

To John Serjaint. Provision of the Augustinian abbey of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin, of which he is canon, in priest's orders, reserved by the present pope in the lifetime of the late abbot Thomas.

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

17 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 175d.)

To the bishop of Salisbury and James Dardani, archdeacon of Norfolk, collector to the camera in England. Faculty to carry out the exchange desired by Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriaca's, with another person for a similar or dissimilar benefice of any value whatsoever in England, of his canonry and prebend of Twyforth in London, of which he has not yet had possession, and provision of which was made by the present pope, on their voidance by the death of John Berkyng, before which they had been reserved to the pope, to William Waltham, canon of Wells, who exchanged them, before having possession, with the said cardinal, for a canonry and prebend of Wells, the resignations being made at the Roman court to Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the Roman church (below, f. 215). Of the names of such person and benefice, and of the dates of the collations, they are to certify the camera or its collector in those parts. (Pro domino Cardinali. The following letters under the above heading have the same subscription.)

2 Id. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 177.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the prior of Winchester, and the dean of Salisbury. Letters conservatory for Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the Roman church, in respect of his treasurership of Salisbury.

4 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 191.)

To Landulph, cardinal deacon of St. Nicholas's in carcere. Reservation, motu proprio, of the deanery of Dublin, an elective major dignity with cure, value 100 marks, which is to be resigned by Master Henry Bowet, papal chaplain and auditor of causes in the court of the camera, upon his obtaining possession of the archdeaconry of Lincoln, a dignity, under the terms of the provision thereof, then void, made to him by Urban VI.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Bari, the bishop of Leighlin, and Thomas Wafre, canon of Dublin.

Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 199d.)

To Nicholas, abbot of Nonantola, in the diocese of Modena, papal nuncio, and James ardani, Archdeacon of Norfolk, collector to the camera in England. Faculty to carry out the exchange desired by Raynald, cardinal deacon of St. Vitus's in the Shambles, with another person or persons for a benefice or benefices of any value or values whatsoever, of his canonry and prebend of Lincoln, value 270 gold florins, provision of which 1391.

was made to him by Urban VI. on their voidance by the death of Luke, cardinal priest of St. Sixtus's, before which they had been reserved to the apostolic see, and of his canonry and prebend of Coringham in the same church, value 150 marks, provision of which has been made to him by the present pope, who held them at the time of his accession, he having not yet obtained possession of either. Of names and dates they are to certify the camera or its collector in those parts.

4 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 213.)

To Bartholomew, cardinal priest of St. Pudentiana's. Indult for five years to visit by deputy churches, monasteries, and other ecclesiastical places, and the persons thereof, in his archdeaconry of East Riding, and to receive procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of Florence. [See f. 219.]

Concurrent mandate to the treasurer of York and two foreign bishops.

2 Non. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 215.)

To Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the holy Roman church. Mandate to carry out the exchange desired by Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriace's, of his canonry and prebend of Compton in Wells, value 40 marks, provision of which, previously reserved to the apostolic see, he obtained from the present pope, on the death of Thomas Somerset at the apostolic see, and possession of which he has not had, and by William Waltham of his canonry and prebend of Twyford in London, value 20 marks, provision of which, also previously reserved, he similarly obtained on the death of John Berking at Rome when the papal court was at Rieti, and possession of which he has likewise not had; notwithstanding that William holds, under papal letters, canonries with expectations of prebends in Salisbury and Wells, and of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure in Salisbury; has had papal provision, on their voidance, of a canonry and prebend of York, and of the parish church of Tissebury, in the diocese of Salisbury, and is litigating in the apostolic palace about that of Orpyngton, in the diocese of Rochester, the value of which two churches, together with his canonry and prebend of York, is 240 marks. The pope wills that upon William's obtaining possession under these presents of the said canonry and prebend of Compton, his letters of expectation of a prebend in Wells shall be null and void. [See f. 175d.]

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XIV.

DE EXHIBITIS.

1391.

- 4 Non. July. To John Exton, rector of Chippyngge, in the diocese of York.
St. Peter's, Rome. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, to be
(f. 2.) ordained and hold a benefice with cure, so that he may hold three other mutually compatible benefices, even if they be canonries and prebends, and one of them be a personatus, or an office with cure, in metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.
- 11 Kal. Aug. To the warden and scholars of the college instituted near St. Peter's, Rome. Winchester by William, bishop of Winchester. Indult, on the
(f. 12d.) said bishop's petition on behalf of the said college, commonly called 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre,' instituted by him for a warden and seventy poor scholars who are to study grammar, that the said warden and scholars, and their successors, may without licence of the diocesan have mass and other divine offices celebrated in their chapel, and the sacraments of penance, the eucharist, and extreme unction administered.
- Kal. Aug. To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, on petition of St. Peter's, Rome. Master Henry Bowet, archdeacon of Lincoln, papal chaplain, to
(f. 23.) cause to be observed for his life and tenure the composition made before the official of Canterbury by John, bishop of Lincoln, and the late Richard Ravenser, archdeacon of Lincoln, respecting a certain jurisdiction, as Henry, who has by papal collation obtained the archdeaconry upon its voidance by Richard's death, doubts whether the composition was not personal only.
- 3 Non. July. To the bishop of St. Asaph. Mandate to absolve and reha-
St. Peter's, Rome. bilitate Llewelyn Bach, priest, of the diocese, whose recent
(f. 24.) petition contained that a cause arose between him and Philip Dylest, rector of Llanwryn, in the diocese, which rectory he had obtained by authority of the ordinary, and which Philip also claimed; that before a papal auditor Philip obtained a definitive sentence by which the church was adjudged to him, and silence imposed on Llewelyn, who was condemned in fruits and costs; that he incurred excommunication, and was publicly excommunicated by one of the executors for contumacy, refusing to appear on being summoned, as also on being summoned by the ordinary and by the archbishop of Canterbury; and that finally he was seized by the secular court invoked by the ordinary and archbishop, and has been imprisoned for two years in the castle of Welshpool (Pola) in the said diocese. He is now ready to resign the church and make satisfaction to Philip for the said fruits and costs. On his doing this and taking an oath to obey the bishop, he is to be absolved and rehabilitated, and finally released from prison.

4 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 37d.)

To Master Peter de Florentia, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to collate and assign the parish church of St. Gregory, London, value 30 marks. The recent petition of Hugh Meynot, priest, of the diocese of London, contained that a cause arose lately between him and John Burton, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, respecting the said church, papal collation of which he received on its voidance by the death of Thomas Deyster, which collation John opposed, and has intruded himself. The cause, lawfully introduced to the apostolic see, was at Hugh's instance committed by Urban VI. to Master Hermann de Bilvelt, chaplain, etc. whose commission was continued by the present pope, and who gave a definitive sentence by which John was removed and Hugh restored. John's appeal was committed by the pope to Master John de Dulmen, chaplain, etc. who confirmed the above, and his further appeal has been committed to the above-named Master Peter. As the petition adds, it is asserted by some that neither of the two has any right, and the auditor is ordered, if he find this to be so, and John not to have been intruded, to collate and assign the church to whichever of the two he find to be fit and the more sufficient; notwithstanding that Hugh has had recent provision from the pope of a canonry of London with expectation of a prebend; and that John holds the parish church of St. Peter's, London, and holds in the church of London a certain perpetual benefice without cure, called a chantry (cantoriā), value 15 marks. If John get St. Gregory's, he is to resign St. Peter's. Of name and date the auditor is to certify the camera.

3 Non. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 39.)

To Master Thomas de Walkington, rector of the poor hospital of Schirbury, in the diocese of Durham, doctor of canon law, papal chaplain. Confirmation a die to him, who is also auditor in the apostolic palace, of the said hospital of which he has had provision from the present pope, it having become void by the promotion by Urban VI. and consecration of John, bishop of Salisbury, as he doubts whether it was not void in some other way.

14 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 43.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to commute into other works of piety the vow of Margaret, wife of George Frwngg, knight, dwelling in London, who when wife of the late Thomas de Naunton, knight, vowed at his command (de . . . mandato) and with his consent to visit Santiago de Compostella, but who on account of her age and the number of her children, and because the said George does not consent, is unable to fulfil her vow. The bishop is to impose a salutary penance, and cause her to assign for the repair of the churches of Rome, to the collector deputed in the Roman court for the purpose by the pope, a sum equal to the expenses of the journey and the offerings which she would have made to the church of Santiago.

1391.

7 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 48.)

To the bishops of Norwich and Lichfield, and a foreign bishop named. Mandate, on petition of Master Henry Bowet, canon of Lincoln, papal chaplain, concerning the canonry and prebend of Leighton Busard, in Lincoln, canonical possession of which he obtained under a papal provision on the death of William Kynwell, and was opposed by John Thomas, rector of Weheth[a]mstede, in the diocese of Lincoln, Richard Clifford, canon of Salisbury, John Yvet, archdeacon of Buckingham, and William Kyrksted, rector of Bernak, in the same diocese, each of whom claimed the same. Henry's appeal to the apostolic see has been committed by the present pope to Master John de Dulmen, chaplain, etc. who at the instance of Henry's proctor, Master John de Scrivania, cited the said persons repeatedly, and upon their non-appearance condemned them for contumacy, and by his definitive sentence adjudged the said canonry and prebend to Henry, imposed on them perpetual silence, and condemned them in costs. The pope confirms the sentence, and orders Henry to be placed in possession. [See above, Reg. Lat. xii. f. 100.]

14 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 61d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to commute into other works of piety the vows of pilgrimage of William Cressewyc and Alice his wife, citizens of London, who have both attained their fiftieth year, and who vowed to visit, William many years ago the Holy Sepulchre, and Alice, then unmarried, the churches of SS. Peter and Paul, Rome. Although William was absolved from his vow by the late Simon, bishop of Palestrina, then cardinal priest of St. Sixtus, legate in those parts, and gave certain sums for the repair of the churches of Canterbury and London, and although they, towards the fulfilment of their vow, sent at their own expense two men, one to Jerusalem and the other to Rome, and although both were afterwards absolved by Pileus, bishop of Tusculum, then cardinal priest of St. Praxed's, nuncio in those parts, with authority to so absolve, who imposed on them a certain sum as a subsidy (in subsidium) for the Roman church, they desire to tranquillise their consciences. They are to assign for the repair of the churches of Rome, to the collector deputed in the Roman court for the purpose by the pope, a sum equal to the expenses of their respective journeys and offerings.

4 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 67.)

To the bishop of Rochester. Mandate as below, at the petition of John de Cobeham, lord of Cobeham, on whose behalf it was lately set forth to Urban V. that he had formerly founded and 1391.

endowed in the parish church, where his progenitors are buried, a chantry for a college of five chaplains, one of whom, on the death or resignation of the vicar (the vicarage being in the gift of the Cluniac prior and convent of St. Saviour's, Bermundeseye), was, as master of the chantry, to fill the office of vicar; and that he had made certain wholesome statutes and ordinances for the said master and chaplains, all with the assent and authority of William, late bishop of Worcester, then bishop of Rochester, and all confirmed by the said pope. Subsequently at John's petition Urban VI. ordered the then bishop of Rochester to appropriate to the college a parish church of [John's] patronage, in order that the college might exchange it with the said priory and convent for that of Cobham; to give the necessary licence of exchange to both parties, and to the said John licence to increase the chaplains by two. Afterwards, at John's petition to Urban VI. making no mention of the preceding letters of that pope, the church of Rolvynden, in the diocese of Canterbury, of his patronage, was, by mandate to the bishop of Rochester, appropriated to the said chantry. John's recent petition to the present pope contained that under the above first letters of Urban VI. the church of Tylbury, in the diocese of London, of his patronage, has also been appropriated, and that John now desires licence to increase to thirteen the number of chaplains, successively increased by two at a time to eleven, and to make a declaration upon the above statutes and ordinances, which are in some passages obscure, and desires to have them thereupon confirmed. The bishop is ordered to grant the desired licence, and to confirm the statutes and ordinances. [See f. 207 d.]

9 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 87.)

To Ralph Tregrision, dean of Exeter, D.C.L. Faculty, he being old and infirm and his sight failing, to have coadjutors of his choice, without consulting the bishop and chapter or others. The coadjutors are first to take an oath not to alienate goods or rights of the deanery, etc.

15 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 95.)

To the prior and convent of the Benedictine monastery of St. Guthlac without the walls, Hereford. Indult, on the death or resignation of the present vicar, to put monks of their monastery into the vicarage of St. Peter's, Hereford, which church was formerly incorporated to them by papal authority, with a portion reserved for a secular priest as perpetual vicar. Their revenues have been so diminished by the pestilences which have long afflicted those parts, and by which even divers of their animals have perished, that they cannot maintain becoming hospitality, etc. The revenues of the vicarage are 50 marks, and those of the monastery 220.

11 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 104.)

To Robert Clerk, of Hedon in Holderness, priest. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he obtained a certain chantry in St. Mary's, Aldermarychurche, London, so that he may hold three other compatible benefices, even if one be an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus, or office, with or without cure, in a cathedral, metropolitan, or collegiate church, and may exchange them as often as he will for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1391.

Ibid.
(f. 104d.)

To William, bishop of Winchester. Faculty, he being old and infirm, to have coadjutors of his choice without consulting his metropolitan, the chapter of Winchester or other. The coadjutors are to take an oath not to alienate goods or rights of the episcopal mensa, etc.

Ibid.
(f. 106d.)

To the warden and scholars of the college instituted near Winchester by William, bishop of Winchester. Indult, at the said bishop's petition on behalf of the said college, commonly called 'Sainte Marie College of Winchester,' instituted by him for a warden and seventy poor scholar clerks, who are to study grammar, that the said warden and scholars and their successors may, without licence of the diocesan or other, receive minor and holy orders from any catholic bishop of their choice in communion with the apostolic see.

Ibid.
(f. 107.)

To the warden and scholars of the college instituted by William, bishop of Winchester in the university of Oxford. Indult, at the said bishop's petition on behalf of the said college, instituted by him for a warden and seventy scholars, who are to study theology, or canon or civil law, or arts, that they and their successors may, without licence of the diocesan or other, receive and convert to their own uses any offerings, gifts, and legacies.

Ibid.
(f. 107d.)

To the warden and scholars of the college instituted near Winchester, etc. as above. The like indult mutatis mutandis.

4 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 108.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of London, and James Dardani, archdeacon of Norfolk, collector to the camera in England. Mandate—on petition of king Richard, who desires to found a college of ecclesiastics, and to acquire by purchase and apply thereto, to the amount of 1000 marks, lands and possessions in the realm belonging to French religious of divers orders, some of whom are schismatics—to grant licence to the owners thereof, after the said college has been founded and constructed, to sell to the king to the amount mentioned.

11 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 109.)

To the warden and scholars of the college instituted by William, bishop of Winchester, in the university of Oxford. Indult, on the petition, etc. as above, that they and their successors may, without licence of the diocesan or other, receive minor and holy orders from any catholic bishop of their choice in communion with the apostolic see.

17 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 113.)

Declaration of the validity of a marriage dispensation, under which Richard, earl of Arundel, and Philippa, relict of John de Hastings, earl of Pembroke, have married, knowing that they were related in the third degree of affinity and the fourth degree of kindred. Their recent petition contained that Richard lately obtained dispensation from the present pope to marry within the third degree of kindred or of affinity or of both, and that for his said marriage some doctors assert the said dispensation to be sufficient, while others assert it to be invalid.

1391.

18 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 114d.)

Indult, at the petition of Bryan de Stapulton, temporal lord, and the inhabitants of the town of Carleton, in the diocese of York—containing that between their town and the parish church of Snayth, within whose bounds it lies, there is a certain navigable river called the Ayer, which is sometimes so flooded that they cannot convey their dead—to bury in the cemetery which is situated hard by the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the said town. [See f. 160.]

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 115.)

To John Oneachtayn, clerk, of the diocese of Clonfert. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy as the son of a priest, to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold any mutually compatible benefices below the episcopal, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (Pro. Deo.)

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

15 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 128.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of St. Thomas the Martyr visit and give alms for the repair and conservation of the hospital of St. Thomas the Martyr without the walls, York, and for the sustentation of the poor dwelling therein.

Ibid.
(f. 128d.)

The like to penitents who on the feast of Corpus Christi visit and give alms for the repair of the church of All Saints, Multon in Holand, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 128d.)

To Anthony de Sancto Quintino, rector of Hornesey, in the diocese of York, bachelor of canon law. Extension of dispensation [below, xvii. 238]—to retain for one year the church of Setryngton, in the same diocese, which upon obtaining Hornesey (which he has not yet got) he was, by the terms of the provision lately made to him by the present pope on the voidance of that church (previously reserved to the apostolic see), bound to resign, on condition of exchanging one or other within the year for a benefice compatible with the remaining one—so that he, who is by both his parents of knightly race, has litigated for years in the apostolic palace and is still litigating about the canonry and prebend of St. Martin in St. John's, Beverley, and has not passed beyond the said year, may upon obtaining Hornesey retain Setryngton for life, and may exchange them as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible elective benefices, even if they be major dignities in cathedral churches, personatus and offices with cure.

1391.

2 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the bishop of London. Mandate to warn and, under pain of excommunication, to compel the restoration of all the letters, privileges, charters, and muniments concerning the paternal inheritance and rights of William, knight, of the diocese of Canterbury, son of the late Guy de Bryene, knight, which, when formerly by order of king Richard he was sent with Richard, earl of Arundel, to conquer certain provinces and places, situate near the realm, of certain of the king's enemies in the maritime parts, were deposited in a chest in his house in London, and which certain unknown persons breaking open the chest have carried off.

16 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 137.)

To the bishop of Hereford. Mandate to grant dispensation to William Parys and Sibyl Leton so that they may remain in the marriage contracted by them in ignorance that they were related in the third degree of affinity, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

4 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 137d.)

To the archbishop of Dublin. Mandate to grant dispensation to Roger Bron, Augustinian canon of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin, on account of illegitimacy, so that he may accept and hold all dignities, even abbatial, episcopal, and metropolitan.

16 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 139.)

Relaxation—in addition to that lately granted of three years and three quadrages to penitents who on the feast of St. Laurence visit and give alms for the conservation of his church of Lactford, in the diocese of Norwich—of two years and two quadrages to penitents who similarly visit and give alms during the octave.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 134d.)

Relaxation, at the petition of Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the holy Roman church, of five years and five quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feasts of the Nativity, Annunciation, Purification, and Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, the Resurrection of our Lord, and the three days immediately following it (on which three days a great concourse of people takes place) and during the octaves of the said Nativity and Assumption, visit and give alms for the sustentation and conservation of the church of the Augustinian monastery of St. Mary de Altapassau, without the walls, London, the chapels and altars situate therein and those in the solemn hospital of the Blessed Virgin founded within the said monastery, in which hospital very many poor widows, wards (pupilli), and orphans are continually sustained.

[See f. 114d.]

1390.

3 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 169d.)

To Thomas Stowe, archdeacon of Bedford, D.C.L. Dispensation to him, who is official of London and holds the said archdeaconry, a dignity with cure, and canonries and prebends of Lincoln, Salisbury, and London, to hold for two years one other dignity, personatus, or office with cure, and (aut) a parish church, even if such dignity be elective, and be major after the pontifical in a cathedral or principal in a collegiate church, and to exchange them (ipsa) as often as he please during the said two years for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

1391.

6 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 170.)

To William, son of Richard earl of Arundel, clerk, of the diocese of Chichester. Dispensation to him, who is in his eleventh year and is a student in arts, to hold any benefices without cure, even if some one of them be a canonry and prebend, and even if they be in metropolitan or cathedral churches; and upon attaining his fourteenth year to be promoted to all holy orders and hold a benefice with cure even if they (sic) be an elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical in metropolitan or cathedral churches, or principal in collegiate.

13 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 188d.)

To Walter, abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester. Faculty to him and his successors to absolve and dispense such of the monks (who, as it happens, by persuasion of the devil often come to blows) as have contracted or shall contract irregularity by celebrating or taking part in divine offices when under sentence of excommunication for such violence, except in cases specially reserved to the apostolic see; such things being sometimes perpetrated by malice and aforethought in order to give an excuse for wandering forth from the monastery to obtain absolution from the said see or from the ordinaries.

11 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 192d.)

To William Lullyngton, dean of Chichester. Licence, at the petition also of king Richard, to exchange the deanery, which is an elective dignity, major after the pontifical, for other similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefice or benefices, without requiring licence of the ordinary or other, resigning it for the purpose into the hands of any prelate (prelati) of his choice.

1391.

Such prelate is to certify names and dates to the camera or to its collector in those parts.

Ibid.

(f. 193.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XV.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

1391.

4 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 100d.)

To William Westwode, clerk, of the diocese of Norwich. Reservation of a benefice, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of St. Albans.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Norwich, the prior of Speneve in the same diocese, and a foreign bishop named. (Pro Deo.) 1390.

2 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 104d.)

To the official of Dublin. Mandate to reserve to John Patrik, priest, of the diocese of Kildare (Daren.), if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the prior and brethren of the Augustinian hospital of St. John Baptist without the new gate, Dublin.

DE EXHIBITIS.

1391.

13 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 184.)

To John, bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to surrogate Stephen Merston, clerk, of his diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, to whatever right John Ade had in the church of Adestoke, value 40 marks, about which a cause arose between them, which, by John's appeal, was brought to the apostolic see, and during which John (who had obtained the church by exchange, made by authority of bishop John, with John Reynes for that of Adygton, in the said diocese) died at the Roman court.

DE REGULARIBUS.

10 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 233.)

To the prior of Coventry. Mandate to summon those concerned, and to confirm the election of Rose de Everhusen, nun of Nuneton, in the diocese of Lichfield, of the order of Fontevraud, made on the death of Margaret, prioress of that monastery; the election of prior and prioress belonging, by ancient custom, to the convent, and its confirmation belonging, both by the statutes of the order and by like custom, to the abbess of Fontevraud in the diocese of Poitiers, who is an adherent of the anti-pope called Clement VII. The like confirmation of canonical elections of prior or prioress is to be made while the schism lasts.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XVI.

DE PREBENDIS ET DIGNITATIBUS VACANTIBUS.

1391.

3 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's Rome.
(f. 27.)

To Thomas de Mountagu, licentiate of canon and civil law. Provision, at the petition also of the king his kinsman, of the deanery of Salisbury, a dignity with cure, value 450 marks, void by the resignation of Angelus, cardinal priest of St. Laurence's in Damaso. The deanery was held by the late James, cardinal deacon of St. George's in Velabro, on whose death the chapter (to whom by ancient, approved, and hitherto observed custom the election belongs) elected—perhaps in ignorance of Urban VI's reservation on their avoidance of all benefices of cardinals—Robert, bishop of London, then canon of Chichester, who got confirmation from the ordinary, whilst pope Urban made provision of the same to the late Thomas, cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Domnica. Upon Robert's receiving from Urban provision of the see of London and his consecration, the chapter elected Mountagu, then canon of Bromesburde, in the diocese of Hereford, who likewise got confirmation from the ordinary. Subsequently, upon the death of Urban VI. and cardinal Thomas, the present pope, in accordance with the usual general reservation, at his accession, of benefices of cardinals, made provision of the deanery to the above-named cardinal Angelus, who has resigned, as above. The provision is made notwithstanding that Mountagu holds the parish church of Chaddesey, in the diocese of Wells, which is to be resigned, and the said canonry and prebend, value in all 60 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, the archdeacon of Worcester, and the prior of Winchester.

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 111.)

To the official of Rochester. Mandate to collate and assign to John Merys, priest, of the diocese of Canterbury, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the perpetual vicarage of Gyllingham in the diocese of Rochester, value 60 marks, void recently by the death of William near the castle of Trya, in the diocese of Spoleto, not more than two days' journey from Rome whither he had come for his affairs and whence he was returning and where the pope was residing.

DE PREBENDIS ET DIGNITATIBUS VACATURIS.

6 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 175.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to make provision to William Fischer, rector of Clayton, in the diocese of Chichester, if found fit after examination, of a canonry of Chichester, and to reserve to him, if found fit in Latin, or if he swear to be so within a year, a prebend and dignity, not major after the pontifical, personatus or office with or without cure, or if not found sufficiently fit, and if he do not so swear a 1391.

prebend and office without cure; notwithstanding that William holds also a certain benefice without cure, called a chantry (cantoriæ), in Chichester. On his obtaining such dignity, personatus, or office with cure (curatum officium), Clayton is to be resigned.

Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 179.)

To John Rede, bachelor of canon law. Provision of a canonry of Waterford with reservation of a prebend and elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical, personatus or office; notwithstanding that he holds the canonry and prebend of Downaghmore in Limerick; is litigating in the apostolic palace about the archdeaconry of Cork, of which he has not yet got possession; has recently had provision from the present pope of canonries of Ferns and Lismore, and this day of Cashel, with expectation of prebends; and has lately had provision, on its voidance, of the church of Cuslowe, in the diocese of Lincoln, of which he likewise has not yet got possession. Upon obtaining such dignity, personatus, or office with cure (curatum officium), he is to surrender his right in respect of the said church and archdeaconry.

Concurrent mandate to the prior of Kenlis, in the diocese of Ossory, the dean of Ferns, and Richard Yong, canon of Lincoln. (Pro Deo.)

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

11 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 203d.)

To the bishop of Hereford. Mandate to make provision to Robert Chandos, rector of Deriton, in the diocese of Chichester, if found fit after examination, of a canonry of York, and to reserve to him, if found fit in Latin, or if he swear to be so within a year, a prebend and elective dignity, not major after the pontifical, etc. as above, f. 175, as far as "notwithstanding." On his obtaining such dignity, etc. Deriton is to be resigned.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XVII.

DE EXHIBITIS, LIBER SECUNDUS.

4 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 1.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Salisbury, and a foreign bishop named. Mandate to assign a term within which, under pain of excommunication, etc. John Haseley, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, is to give up the rectory of Cleyve in the same diocese to Henry Bowet, papal chaplain, who on its voidance had papal provision, it having been previously reserved. A cause arose between Henry and the late John Bryan, clerk, and was ventilated at the apostolic see, where Henry (John dying meanwhile) obtained a definitive sentence; but Henry, bishop of Worcester, not ignorant of the said provision, has intruded John Haseley into the church. If the bishop hinder execution he is to incur penalty of 10,000 gold florins, and is to be warned to remove John under the like penalty within a term to be fixed.

1391.

Ibid.

(f. 2.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of London, and another named. The like in respect of John called 'Thomas,' clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, kinsman of the bishop of Worcester, the archdeaconry of Lincoln, and the same Henry Bowet, who on its avoidance had papal provision thereof. A cause arose between Henry and the late Nicholas Chaddesden, clerk, and was ventilated at the apostolic see, where Henry obtained a definitive sentence, and upon Nicholas's appeal (who died meanwhile) obtained a second one under commission by the present pope. John, bishop of Lincoln, who after the first sentence had sequestrated the archdeaconry by papal mandate, upon the death of Nicholas intruded John, violating the sequestration. If the bishop hinder Bowet from obtaining possession, he is to incur penalty of 10,000 gold florins, and is to be warned to remove John within a term to be fixed, under further penalty of having the church of Lincoln placed under an interdict.

2 Kal. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 3.)

To Ralph Trugrison, canon and dean of Exeter, D.C.L. Exemption for life, in consideration of his infirmities, from the jurisdiction of the bishop of Exeter, placing him immediately under the protection of the apostolic see.

13 Kal. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 10d.)

To the Benedictine prior and chapter of Coventry. Indult that the sub-prior or sacristan, or other fit monk of their choice, may administer sacraments and sacramentals, in time of necessity only, to servitors and other persons belonging to their church, and to extraneous persons who repair thither, the perpetual vicar of the parish church of Holy Trinity, which belongs to them, and within whose bounds their church is situate, being accustomed to do so in cases of necessity, so that it is often needful for the doors of the monastery to be opened at night, and the said vicar or his priest to be introduced into the prior's chamber or other secret places where the sick lie, the which is reputed dangerous and very dishonest.

2 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 11d.)

To William Mackachathmayl, priest, of the diocese of Derry (Deren). Rehabilitation of him, who is a student of canon law at Oxford, and who, after having been formally dispensed by papal authority as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, obtained the church of Furnay in the said diocese; he having also obtained without further dispensation, by collation of bishop Simon and the dean and chapter, a canonry of Derry, void by the resignation to them of Gilbert Odunnay, which canonry he is to resign forthwith. He has now further dispensation to hold any benefices, even if canonries and prebends or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and even if one of them have cure or be an elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical, or a personatus, and to exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1391.

14 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 21d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the abbot of Bokelond, in the diocese of Exeter, and the dean of Exeter. Mandate to proceed to the execution of the sentence below given at the apostolic see against John Tyssington, minister provincial, William Chypton, guardian, John Tremur, John Edyngton, Robert Domyng, Henry Cely, William Kingeston, and John called 'Thomas,' Friars Minors, in a cause between them and Michael Cergeaux, perpetual vicar of Sutton by Plymouth, concerning a certain oratory and other buildings, which the said minister, guardian, and friars had, despite the protest of the ordinary and of the said vicar, caused to be built within the boundaries of the parish church. The cause was long ventilated at the apostolic see, where Michael obtained a definitive sentence whereby the said new work was ordered to be destroyed and demolished. His present petition adds that the said minister and others, whilst the suit was still pending, have had the oratory consecrated by a certain bishop, have publicly boasted that they would defend themselves by lay power, and, favoured by the secular power, go on daily with the building. Until the cause be terminated no divine offices are to be celebrated or heard, sacraments or sacramentals administered or received, oblations received or made in the said place, under pain of excommunication, suspension, and interdict, as well of the friars as of the parishioners.

6 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 26.)

To the bishop of London, the abbot of Langdon, in the diocese of Canterbury, and the prior of Holy Trinity, London. Mandate, on petition of John Preston, monk of St. Augustine's without the walls, Canterbury, S.T.P. papal chaplain, to compel the abbot and convent, in case of their refusal on the ground of his appointment as papal chaplain and penitentiary, to admit him to a stall in choir and place in chapter, and to provide him with commons.

15 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 57.)

To the archdeacon of Northampton. Mandate to summon the Augustinian prioress and convent of St. John Baptist, Rothewell, in the diocese of Lincoln, and others concerned, and if the facts be as stated, to assign a fitting portion from his church to John Herry, perpetual vicar of Desburgh, in the same diocese, which belongs to the priory, his petition containing that his fruits, rents, and profits are diminished.

4 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 65d.)

To John de Wynthorpe, perpetual vicar of Strubly, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two compatible benefices only, even if one of them be a canonry and prebend in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for other mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1391.

16 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 73.)

To the bishops of Hereford and Derry (Deren.) and the archdeacon of Brecon, in St. Davida. Mandate to proceed to the execution of two definitive sentences in possessorio iudicio only, obtained at the apostolic see by John ap Iorwerth, removing Gilbert Nichol, priest, of the diocese of St. Davida, who had despoiled John of his canonry and prebend of Abergwyly, obtained by him under papal authority. John's present petition adds that while the suit was pending Gilbert resigned, and that Richard Leythwardyn, priest, of the diocese of Hereford, intruded himself. The sentences are to be proceeded with as against Richard and any other intruders, and the canonry and prebend given to John. (Pro Deo.)

15 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 74.)

To the archdeacon of Northampton. Mandate as above, f. 57.

6 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 101.)

Erection into a monastery, with prior Richard as abbot—at the petition of the said prior and the convent, and of John, duke of Lancaster, the patron—of the Augustinian priory of St. Mary's, Norton, in the diocese of Lichfield, which is dependent on no monastery. (Pro Deo.)

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 106d.)

To Malachy Ohymayr, clerk, of the diocese of Killaloe (Laonien.), bachelor of medicine. Extension of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, (ii) to hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends or dignities, personatus, or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and exchange them as often as should seem good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices—so that he may hold two other benefices compatible with the aforesaid, even if canonries and prebends, elective dignities with cure, major after the pontifical, personatus, or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (Pro Deo.)

16 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 107d.)

To Coematus, cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem. Mandate to separate from the Augustinian abbot Hugh and the convent of St. Andrew's, Vercelli, and to appropriate to another church or monastery a certain dependent member of theirs in the diocese of Ely, wherein is the parish church of St. Andrew Chesterton. They have been accustomed to send thither a proctor with power to institute a priest or vicar to serve the church, and to transmit the remainder of the tithes, fruits, etc.; but on account of the distance and expense there results to them little and sometimes no utility at all; and they fear, moreover, through the malevolent and assiduous efforts of certain persons of those parts, the total loss of their rights. The present executor is chosen because, having very often visited, when in minor orders, the said member [as collector in England], he is fully informed in regard to the facts. Faculty is given to provide from the revenues of such other church or monastery an equal or greater annual rent to the said abbey of St. Andrew's.

1391.

2 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 109d.)

To the Benedictine abbot and convent of St. Peter's, Gloucester. Appropriation of the church of Chepyng Nortum, in the diocese of Lincoln, of their patronage, value 70 marks, that of the monastery itself being 2000, with which 40 persons and more are sustained, so as to enable them, as in accordance with their statutes they have been accustomed and are bound, to send three or four monks to Oxford or other university, with 15 marks a year apiece for their sustentation, to study in theology or other lawful faculties. The appropriation is to take effect on the resignation or death of the present rector.

5 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 141d.)

To the Benedictine abbess and convent of St. Mary's, Winchester. Confirmation of the appropriation of the church of Ercheffont of their patronage, value 40 marks, made to them by Ralph, bishop of Wells, then bishop of Salisbury, with consent of William Potyn, archdeacon (within whose archdeaconry Ercheffont lies), and the chapter of Salisbury, and fortified with their respective seals, the revenues of the monastery being 450, their movable goods having much diminished, many of their animals having perished, and their arable lands being uncultivated by reason of the pestilences.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 146d.)

Relaxation of two years and two *quadrage*ne to penitents who on the feast of St. John before the Latin Gate visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of St. John the Evangelist in the town of Burstall, in the diocese of Lincoln, which is very ruinous, and for the construction, newly commenced, of the bell tower.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 146d.)

Relaxation during ten years of four years and four *quadrage*ne to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year, and that of St. Peter ad Vincula, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of St. Peter ad Vincula, Crosthwey by Spykesworth, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.
(f. 147.)

The like relaxation during ten years to penitents who give alms for the repair of the wooden bridge at Schelforde Parva, in the diocese of Ely. The pope strictly forbids these presents to be sent by questuarii; if this be attempted they are invalid.

9 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152.)

To Roger Berwyk, perpetual vicar of Scherdestoke, or Cherdestoke, in the diocese of Salisbury, bachelor of canon law. Indult for seven years to absent himself while studying letters at an university, to enjoy the fruits, and to let them to farm.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Derry (Deren.), the abbot of Aleyndon (Abingdon), and the official of London.

1391.

16 Kal. March. Relaxation of four years and four quadrages to penitents who on the feast of St. Nicholas visit and give alms for the conservation of his church of Dersingham, in the diocese of Norwich.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152d.)

2 Kal. March. The like to penitents who on the four feasts of the Blessed Virgin similarly visit and give alms for the conservation of the altar of St. Mary on the right side of the church of St. Augustine without the walls, Canterbury.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 152d.)

Ibid. The like to penitents who on the same feasts similarly visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Mary in the church of the Cistercian monastery of Sibton, in the diocese of Norwich.

(f. 153.)

Ibid. The like to penitents who on the same feasts similarly visit and give alms to the church, called chapel, of St. Mary in the fields (campis), in the diocese of Norwich.

16 Kal. March. The like to penitents who on the feasts of the nativity (i.e. the martyrdom), the chains, and the chair of St. Peter, similarly visit and give alms to the church of St. Peter Westlenn, in the diocese of Norwich.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 153.)

Ibid. The like to penitents who on the feasts of the nativity and beheading of St. John Baptist similarly visit and give alms to his church at Norwich.

2 Kal. March. The like to penitents who on the four feasts of St. Mary the Virgin similarly visit and give alms to her altar in the church of St. Helen, Abyndon.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 153d.)

Ibid. The like to penitents who on the same feasts similarly visit and give alms to the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, Moselet, Langforde, in the diocese of Norwich.

16 Kal. March. The like to penitents who on the feasts of St. John Baptist similarly visit and give alms to his poor hospital at Shrewsbury.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 154.)

7 Kal. Feb. To the abbots of St. Mary's and St. Thomas the Martyr's by Dublin, and William Pirrone, canon of Dublin. Mandate to summon John de Swinton, or Swindon, who has not obtained holy orders after holding for a year and more the treasurership of Dublin, value 50 marks, an elective dignity with cure, not major after the pontifical, void under the statutes of the church of Dublin, which provide that the holder is bound to receive holy orders within a year of his obtaining possession, and if not, be deprived. They are to collate and assign to John Teyr, clerk, of the diocese of Kildare (Dairen), the said treasurership, void as above, or by the death of James Stanton, who was a member of the papal court (curialis) and died in a wood, in the diocese of Tivoli, not more than two days' journey from Rome, where Urban VI. was residing, or void in any other way; notwithstanding that Teyr has lately had provision from the present pope of a benefice with or without cure, in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter, and each and singular the canons of Lincoln and of Salisbury, which provisions are upon his obtaining the treasurership annulled as regards benefices with cure only.

Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 160.)

To Richard Clifford, rector of Ford, in the diocese of Winchester. Dispensation to him—who is a member of the king's household, and who holds, besides Ford, the free chapel of St. Mary Gosmonthe, in the diocese of Durham, the wardenship of the hospital of St. James by Westminster Abbey, and canonries and prebends of Lincoln, Salisbury, Wells, and Glaston (Glasney) (and who has had papal provision, on their voidance, of the canonry and prebend of Leghton Bussord in Lincoln, possession of which he has not yet obtained; cancelled with strokes only)—to hold together with his parish church one other benefice with cure, even an elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in a collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as he think good for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

4 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 161d.)

To Thomas de Southam, archdeacon of Oxford, in Lincoln. Indult for five years to visit his archdeaconry by deputy, and to receive the due procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of London, the abbot of Westminster, and John Southam, canon of Lincoln.

7 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 169.)

To Richard, abbot of St. Mary's, Norton, in the diocese of Lichfield. Faculty to him, who has recently had provision from the pope, to receive benediction from any catholic bishop of his choice in communion with the apostolic see, who shall receive from him the usual oath of fealty according to the form enclosed, to be sent by the abbot under his seal to the pope; without prejudice to the bishop of Lichfield, to whom the monastery is of ordinary right subject.

11 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 175d.)

To the bishop of Limerick. Mandate, as below, on behalf of the Augustinian prior and convent of Killagh (Belloloco), in the diocese of Ardfert. Urban VI. learning that they had long held as appropriated to them the church of Dayngyn, in the same diocese, enjoying the fruits, a perpetual vicar's portion having never been assigned, and that they had had the church served by a secular priest, whom they recalled from year to year, to the peril of the souls of the parishioners, issued letters ordering the bishop, dean, and archdeacon of Ardfert, their names not being expressed, if they found the above to be true, to institute a perpetual vicarage with fitting portion, and to collate and assign it to John Omochlehayn priest, of the said diocese. Afterwards—upon its being stated on the part of the said John to the present pope that the said executors proceeding to carry out the mandate of Urban VI.

1391.

promulgated a definitive sentence, and that the prior and convent, as they did not in accordance therewith admit John to the vicarage within a certain term, long sustained sentence of excommunication, hardening their hearts—the pope issued letters ordering the executors to aggravate the processes (ipseus [processus] aggravare). The recent petition of prior Thomas and the convent contained that although they had lawfully protested, and sought to be admitted to prove that the said first letters were notoriously surreptitious and such that under them no proceedings could nor ought to be taken at the instance of the said John, inasmuch as the said executors unjustly refused to hear them, they appealed to the apostolic see; moreover, as the executors, although the time of the prosecution of this first appeal had not elapsed, proceeded further in the cause, added under pretext of the said second letters sentences of suspension and interdict, and refused to give the prior and convent a copy thereof, they appealed again to the apostolic see. The same petition added that although they made all possible diligence in the matter of the appeals, they have been delayed by the death of John the late prior on his way to the Roman court to petition for papal letters touching them, and by the great distance. The pope on the said petition now orders the bishop of Limerick to summon John and others concerned, to absolve prior Thomas and the convent from the sentence of excommunication, a salutary penance being enjoined, to remove and relax the sentences of suspension and interdict, and if he find the monastery injured by the above definitive sentence to admit their appeal and decide it.

6 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(C. 179.)

Confirmation of certain letters of Urban VI. as below, on behalf of John, son of Michael de la Fele, knight, canon of St. John's, Beverley. Lately, on 2 Kal. Aug. anno 8 [1385], Urban VI. ordered provision to be made to him of a canonry and prebend of Beverley, which had become void by the promotion and consecration of Walter [Skirlawe], now bishop of Durham, at that date (tunc) of Wells, to Lichfield and Coventry; and afterwards, on 17 Kal. Jan. in the same year of his pontificate [1385], made provision of the said canonry and prebend which is called the prebend of St. Andrew's altar, thus void, to Master Thomas de Walkyngton, canon of York, then dean of Exeter, papal chaplain. The cause which thereupon arose, although it had not lawfully devolved to the apostolic court, was committed by that pope, at the instance of Thomas, to Master John Egidii, chaplain etc. who, on Thomas's statement that John after being cited had despoiled him and intruded himself, gave a definitive sentence whereby he declared the provision made to Thomas to be canonical, removed John, and condemned him in fruits and costs. And because the prebend was one to be held by a priest, and John at the time of his provision was in his twelfth year or thereabouts, of which no mention was made therein, and therefore doubted whether it might not be reputed surreptitious, the same pope by other letters annulled Thomas's provision and the above sentence, imposed on him perpetual silence, ordered the cause to be remitted to his chancery, and confirmed the letters granted to John as though the said mention had been made. Afterwards, on its being set forth to the present pope by Thomas that John had signified to Urban VI. that his grace had been prior to that of Thomas, whereas Thomas's was a month earlier than John's, as would be clear from the register of petitions signed by that pope, and that it was because he had been circumvented by this signification that that pope had declared Thomas's grace surreptitious and had again annulled the sentence in his favour, the present pope, at the instance of Thomas, committed the cause to Master Peter Gasconis, chaplain etc. who confirmed the sentence of Master John. John's appeal against this was committed to Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, then chaplain etc. who confirmed Peter's sentence, and condemned John in fruits and costs. The pope, motu proprio, not on John's petition, seeing that the cause was remitted by Urban VI. to the chancery, confirms the last letters granted to John by Urban VI. and annuls the sentences of the auditors Peter and Bertrand, and his own letters executory thereof, imposing silence on Thomas.

1391.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of York, the archdeacon of Sudbury in Norwich, and a foreign bishop named.

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 182.)

To James Dardani, archdeacon of Norfolk, licentiate of civil law. Indult during three years to visit his archdeaconry by deputy, and to receive procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of London, the abbot of St. Peter's, Westminster, and the archdeacon of Oxford.

6 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 183d.)

Perpetual appropriation, at the petition of king Richard and Robert bishop of London his kinsman, to the bishop's mensa, value 2000 marks, of the churches of Stebenhethe, Fulham, and Hakeneye, value 330 marks, of his patronage. It was lately set forth on their behalf to Urban VI. that by reason of the yearly influx to London of nobles and others, especially in parliaments and councils of the king and realm, the bishop is put to great charges, and that the buildings on his manors are in need of repair, and also the bell-tower and nave of his church of London on account of a recent earthquake, which charges and repair he is unable to support and carry out. The appropriation, which was granted by Urban VI. for the pontificate of bishop Robert only, is now made perpetual. It is to take effect on the resignation or death of the present rectors, perpetual vicars, with fit portions assigned, being instituted.

Non. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 187.)

To James Dardani, collector to the camera in England. Mandate to assign to Francis Johanni[ni] and Joquetus Dini, merchants of Florence, or their proctors, from moneys collected and to be collected by him in England, the sum of 260*l.* sterling as 1391.

the equivalent (loco) of 1515 gold florins of the camera, and 30 Bolognani, which Spinellus Francisci and his fellows, merchants of Florence, have assigned to the camera as a loan; the collector is to make the usual two instruments, and the said merchants have hereby faculty to give acquittance for the said sum of 260*l.* sterling. (De curia.) [Verbatim as above, Reg. cccxiii. f. 123*d.* except that 260*l.* is here both times indicated. See Reg. Lat. xiii. f. 279.]

1390.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 197.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadrages to penitents who on the feast of the Holy Trinity and the other principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days visit and give alms to the fabric of the chapel of Bolteby, annexed to the church of Feliskyrk, in the diocese of York.

2 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 203.)

Relaxation of two years and two quadrages to penitents who on Whitsun day visit and give alms for the repair of the chapel of the confraternity of Holy Trinity, in the parish church of All Saints, Northampton.

Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 205.)

To Master Thomas de Walkington, canon of York, doctor of canon law, papal chaplain. Indult to him, who is also auditor of causes in the apostolic palace, to receive the fruits of his benefices, the daily distributions alone excepted, as long as he shall be engaged in the service of the pope.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop and official of London, and a foreign bishop named.

1391.

2 Non. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 208*d.*)

Relaxation during ten years of two years and two quadrages to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the usual octaves and six days; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of St. John Baptist, Sottroby, in the diocese of Lincoln.

12 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 215*d.*)

To Richard, Augustinian abbot of St. Mary's, Norton, in the diocese of Lichfield. Indult to him and his successors to use the mitre, ring, pastoral staff, and other pontifical insignia, and to give solemn benediction in the monastery after mass, vespers, and matins, provided that no bishop or papal legate be present.

6 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 219*d.*)

Relaxation of five years and five quadrages to penitents who on the feast of the translation of St. Thomas the Martyr visit his chapel in the parish church of Gedeney, in the diocese of Lincoln.

15 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 220*d.*)

To Eleanor, duchess of Gloucester. Indult to choose as her confessor a fit priest of any religious order.

1391.

6 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 231d.)

Relaxation of two years and two quadrages to penitents who on the feast of St. Laurence visit and give alms for the conservation of his church at Halyngton, in the diocese of Lincoln.

12 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 238.)

To Anthony de Sancto Quintino, rector of Hornesey, in the diocese of York, bachelor of canon law. Dispensation to him, who is by both his parents of knightly race, and who has long litigated and is still litigating in the apostolic palace about the canonry and prebend of St. Martin in St. John's, Beverley, to retain for one year his parish church of Setryngton upon obtaining Hornesey (possession of which he has not yet got), although by the terms of the provision thereof, on its voidance by the present pope, by whom it had been previously reserved, he was bound to resign Setryngton. He is meanwhile to exchange one of the two churches for another benefice compatible with the remaining church. [See Reg. Lat. xiv. f. 128d.]

16 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 239d.)

To Master John Fraunceys, canon of York, papal writer and member of the pope's household. Dispensation to him—who is also abbreviator of apostolic letters, at the petition also of king Richard, whose clerk he is, and who under papal letters holds canonries with expectation of prebends in York, Lincoln, Lichfield, Southwell, and of a dignity or personatus with or without cure in Lincoln, the free chapel without cure of St. Laurence Spertegrove, and is expecting a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the archbishop of York and the abbots and convents of Hyde by Winchester and Ramsey—to hold for seven years two benefices with cure or otherwise incompatible, even if elective dignities, major after the pontifical in cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in collegiate churches, personatus, administrations, offices, or parish churches, and to exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar benefices. One of the two he is to exchange meanwhile for another compatible with the remaining one; otherwise the first obtained is to be resigned. (Pro socio.)

6 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 257d.)

To the bishop of London and the Benedictine priors of Okeburn and Couwik, in the dioceses of Salisbury and Exeter. Mandate, during the present schism, to convoke to some fit place and there celebrate at the customary times a chapter-general of priors, provosts, deans, and other religious of the Benedictine order in England, dependent on the abbey of Bec Herlewin, in the diocese of Rouen. Tioldus, formerly abbot thereof, as well as the present abbot, by whose mandate such chapter-general is wont to be held, have been and are adherents of the antipope called Clement VII. Faculty is given to receive fit persons as monks, and their profession, and to institute and deprive priors, provosts and deans of such dependent houses, and to do all other things which the said abbot could do by custom or right.

4 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 261d.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to absolve from excommunication incurred, and, a salutary penance being enjoined, to dispense to remain in the marriage which they have contracted, John de Dalton, knight, and Isabella Rogeri, relict of Thomas de Lathum, who, knowing that they were related in the fourth degree of kindred, contracted marriage in the hope of more easily and more quickly obtaining licence from the apostolic see to remain therein, than of obtaining a dispensation to contract it. Afterwards a separation (divortium) was made by the ordinary, and subsequently Walter Dysee, a Carmelite, S.T.M. nuncio in the realms of England, Castile and Leon, Navarre, Portugal and Aragon, granted them dispensation to contract marriage anew, which they did. It is now doubted by some whether Walter had sufficient power. Offspring, past and future, is to be declared legitimate.

1391.

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

9 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 268d.)

To the dean of Hereford. Mandate to collate and assign to Edward Crompe, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Mordeforde, in the diocese of Hereford, value 25 marks, which William Milton, sometime rector, still retains, although void by reason that he held it for a year and more without being ordained priest or obtaining dispensation.

2 Non. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 278.)

To the archdeacon of Limerick, William Wynchidon, canon of Cork, and a foreign bishop named. Mandate to collate and assign to Richard Went, treasurer of Cork, student at Oxford for seven years in canon and civil law, the perpetual vicarage of Kynsall, in the diocese of Cork, value 50 marks, void by the death of Remund de Garri. The treasurer'ship is to be resigned.

1390.

11 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 271d.)

To John Attewel, perpetual vicar of Sutterton, in the diocese of Lincoln. Provision of that vicarage, value 40 marks, void by the death of William Scharpe at Tarano (in castris Terrani), in the diocese of Sabina, not more than two days' journey from Rome whither he was coming and where the pope was residing with his court.

Concurrent mandate to the archdeacon of Lincoln, John Danby, canon of York, and a foreign bishop.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 294d.)

To the bishop of Ross, the abbot of Carrigillihy (Ponteveico), in that diocese, and Donatus de Odeaygh, canon of Ross. Mandate to summon John Omurchilly, priest, of the said diocese, who is in wrongful possession of the perpetual vicarage of Lylalayg, in the same diocese, value 8 marks, void by reason that Denis Ofyni, sometime vicar, held it for a year and more without being ordained priest or obtaining a dispensation; and, if the facts be as stated, to collate and assign it to Gillacius Ohuollachayn, canon of Ross, notwithstanding that he holds a canonry and prebend of Ross, value 2 marks. (Pro Dea)

1391.

13 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 297d.)

To the abbot of Enlly, the prior of Beddkeleert, in the diocese of Bangor, and the archdeacon of Bangor. Mandate to collate and assign to Howel ap Madoc, priest, of the said diocese, the church of Llannergart, in the same diocese, value 15 marks, void by reason that David ap Gruffud Says held it for more than a year without being ordained priest or obtaining a dispensation, and void so long that by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council its collation has lapsed to the apostolic see; notwithstanding that Howel is expecting, under letters of the present pope, a benefice with or without cure in the gift of the bishop, and has had provision of a canonry of Bangor with expectation of a prebend, which letters shall upon his obtaining Llannergart be null as far as regards a benefice with cure only. (Pro Deo.)

Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 304d.)

To the abbot of Cella Parva, in the diocese of Tuam. Mandate to collate and assign to Matthew Ohynneri, clerk, of the said diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Fuaran Mor, in the diocese of Annadown (Eneargdunen.), value 4 marks, void by reason that William Ohynnen, formerly a secular priest, has become a Cistercian monk of St. Anastasius's without the walls, Rome.

1390.

2 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 312d.)

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Derry (Deren.), the abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and Richard Voych, canon of Salisbury.

16 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 317d.)

To Thomas Andrew. Provision of the perpetual vicarage of Kylpatryk, in the diocese of Meath, value 12 marks, void by the resignation of Richard Rowe at the apostolic see to Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the holy Roman church.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of St. Thomas the Martyr without the walls, Dublin, the archdeacon of Kenlis in Meath, and a foreign bishop named. (Pro Deo.)

1391.

3 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 325.)

To John de Winthorpe. Provision to him, who is priest and proctor of letters of the papal penitentiary, of the church of All Saints, Waynflete, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 60 marks, void and reserved to the pope by the death of Gilbert de Rougton at the apostolic see; notwithstanding that he holds the vicarage of Strubby in the said diocese, which on obtaining All Saints he is to resign. [See f. 65d.]

Concurrent mandate to the treasurer, and Richard de Wynwyk, canon of Lincoln, and a foreign bishop named.

4 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 326.)

To the abbots of Gar[en]don and Leicester, and the dean of Leicester. Mandate to collate and assign to John Prestwold, canon of the Gilbertine priory of Sixill, in the diocese of Lincoln, the perpetual vicarage of Prestwold in the same diocese, went to be held by canons of Sixill and value 30 marks, void by the death of John Waynflete.

1391.

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS

4 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198.)

To Robert ap Gwillim Scheffl. Provision of a canonry of Abergwyli, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he has lately had from the present pope provision of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the prior and brethren of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England and Wales.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Morgan, in the diocese of Llandaff, the chancellor of St. Davids, and a foreign bishop.

1 BONIFACE IX.

1390.

7 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 199d.)

To Robert Ohuallachayn. Provision of a canonry of Killaloe (Laonien.), with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he holds a canonry and prebend of Ross, and the perpetual vicarage of the parish church of Kyllhaliesyn, in the diocese of Killaloe, value altogether 9 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Clare Abbey (de Foryio) and Inisgadd, in the diocese of Killaloe, and Maurice Omurgyma, canon of Cashel. (Pro Deo.)

2 BONIFACE IX.

2 Id. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 222.)

To Walter Fyll. Provision to him, who has lately had dispensation as the son of a priest to hold a benefice even with cure, of a canonry of Ossory, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he holds the church of Kyltakan in the same diocese. He has hereby further dispensation to hold such canonry and prebend.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Jeriponde in the same diocese, the dean of Ossory, and a foreign bishop. (Pro Deo.)

1391.

11 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 230d.)

To the abbot of St. Werburg's (Wallburgis), Chester, in the diocese of Lichfield. Mandate to make provision to John Dutton, rector of Chedul in that diocese, bachelor of canon and civil law, if found fit after examination, of a canonry and to reserve to him a prebend of St. John's, Chester; notwithstanding that he holds the said rectory and the sinecure chapel of St. Mary Barwe, in the same diocese, value together 50 marks.

DE DIGNITATIBUS VACANTIBUS.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 284d.)

To the prior of the monastery of St. Peter, Athlone (de Innocentia), in the diocese of Elphin, and the provost and archdeacon of Elphin. Mandate to collate and assign the deanery of Elphin, an elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical, value 30 marks, still void by the death of Malachy Ybrynneri (sic), although wrongfully occupied by Gilbert Machabrichyn, priest, of the same diocese, to Thady (Titheo) Okeall, canon of Clonfert, scholar of canon and civil law, who was formerly postulated thereto, on its voidance, by some of the canons; notwithstanding that Thady holds a canonry and prebend of Clonfert, which, as soon as he obtains the deanery, he is to resign. [See Reg. Lat. xii. ff 43*d* and 61.]

1391.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XX.

DE PREBENDIS VACANTIBUS.

3 Non. June
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 43*d*.)

To John Benyngton. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Stononprouyndyr in All Saints, Derby, in the diocese of Lichfield, value 15 marks, void and reserved to the pope by the death of Thomas Palmer at the apostolic see; notwithstanding that he holds a certain perpetual benefice called a chantry (cantaria), value 8 marks, in the said church.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Lichfield, the abbot of Darley in that diocese, and a foreign bishop.

13 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 76.)

To Thomas Kyng. Provision of the canonry and prebend of ~~Cridia~~ alias Esteridia in Kirton, in the diocese of Exeter, value 20 marks, void and reserved to the pope by the resignation of John Stauerton at the apostolic see; notwithstanding that he has lately had from the present pope provision of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Worcester.

Concurrent mandate to the dean, and Richard Wych, canon of Salisbury, and a foreign bishop.

9 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 97.)

To William de Kellowe. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Eskombe in Aukeland, value 24 marks, void and reserved to pope Urban VI. by the death at the apostolic see of John Mombray, papal chaplain, [reader] of littere contradicte, auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, and referendary of Urban VI. who died without disposing thereof.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of Lanchester, the official of Durham, and a foreign bishop.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 134*d*.)

To the archdeacon, and Henry Buyton, canon, of Hereford, and a foreign patriarch. Mandate to collate and assign to John Outheby, rector of Keteryng, in the diocese of Lincoln, the canonry and prebend of Welyngton in Hereford, value 30 marks, void by the death of Thomas Lexham; notwithstanding that he holds, besides Keteryng, the sinecure chapel of St. Giles, Blaston, in the said diocese, value together 70 marks, and that he has recently had from the present pope provision of canonries with expectations of prebends in Salisbury, Lichfield, York, Southwell, and of a dignity, personatus, administration, or office in Salisbury.

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

1391.

11 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 206d.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate, at the petition of king Richard and queen Anne, to summon John Macclesfeld, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, and collate and assign to John Pouere, priest, of the diocese of London, if found fit after examination, the preceptory of the house of St. Anthony, London, value 200 marks, dependent on the Augustinian monastery of St. Anthony, in the diocese of Vienne, and wont to be governed by canons thereof, not a dignity nor a personatus, without cure of souls and not elective. Macclesfeld desiring to become a canon of St. Anthony's, Vienne, the pope lately ordered James Dardani, canon of Salerno, collector to the camera in England, to cause him to be received therein. The pope also ordered the collector by other letters to collate and assign to him, after he should have worn the habit for three months, the said preceptory, which was void by the death of Richard Brighous, and which Macclesfeld had administered under nomination by king Richard and without other canonical institution; the pope moreover specially reserving the preceptory to himself, 16 Kal. Jan. anno 1. Afterwards, the above Pouere desiring to become a canon of the said monastery, the pope ordered the bishop of London to admit him thereto. He has recently learned that Macclesfeld has not taken the habit, and that the collector has therefore not made provision to him of the preceptory. [See Reg. Lat. xxiv. f. 71d.]

Ibid.
(f. 208.)

To Thomas de Bekyngham, bachelor of canon law. Provision of the rectory of Aestebury, in the diocese of Lichfield, value 160 marks, void by the resignation of Nicholas de Rymsheton (under the terms of a provision lately made to him by the present pope of a canonry of Lincoln, with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, perpetual administration, or office) made at the apostolic see to Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vice-chancellor of the holy Roman church, and thereby reserved to the pope; notwithstanding that he holds the parish church of Bysophorne, in the diocese of Canterbury, value 150 marks, and canonries and prebends of Salisbury, Lincoln, and Aberguyly, value together 120 marks. Dispensation is hereby given to hold Aestebury together with Bysophorne, and to exchange both for similar or dissimilar benefices, even if dignities with cure (and one of them major after the pontifical in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church), personatus, or offices, and to exchange such benefices as often as he please for similar or dissimilar, even incompatible benefices.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury and two foreign bishops.

2 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 216.)

To John de Scremerston. Provision of the poor hospital of St. Bartholomew, Twedemowthe, in the diocese of Durham (to be assigned, by its foundation ordinances, to secular clerks), value 8 marks, void and reserved to the pope by the death at the apostolic see of John de Lowyk, rector, called warden; notwithstanding that he is expecting, under letters of the present pope, a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham.

1391.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Derry (Deren.), Thomas de Walkyngton, canon, and the official of York.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 227.)

To Master Thomas de Walkington, doctor of canon law, papal chaplain. Provision to him, who is also auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, at the petition of Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, of the poor hospital without cure of souls of Schirburi, in the diocese of Durham (to be assigned, by its foundation ordinances, to secular clerks), value to a resident 400, or to a non-resident 100 marks, void by the promotion made by Urban VI. of John to the see of Salisbury, and therefore reserved by that pope (who died without disposing thereof) in accordance with his general reservation of benefices void through promotions by him to cathedral churches; notwithstanding that he holds the parish church of Houghton, the archdeaconry of Cleveland, and canonries and prebends of Exeter, the free royal chapel of St. Martin's le Grand, London, and St. John's, Beverley, value together 460 marks, and canonries of York, Lincoln, Salisbury, St. John's Beverley, St. Peter's Howden, St. Andrews Aukelande, and Ripon, with expectation of prebends, and of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure, of York, and that he has lately had provision from the present pope of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Durham.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Salisbury and Derry (Deren.) and a foreign canon named.

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 247d.)

To the abbot of Knockmoy (Collis Victorie), in the diocese of Tuam, Nicholas Okeall and William Olachnam, canons of Tuam. Mandate to summon Thomas Machgeillachalaid, sometime perpetual vicar of Killcherryn, in the same diocese, and, if it be found that the vicarage, value 5 marks, is void by Thomas's obtaining by collation of the ordinary the archdeaconry of Tuam, a dignity with cure, to remove him and collate and assign it to John Oneachtayn, clerk, of the diocese of Clonfert, already dispensed as the son of a priest to hold a benefice even with cure. (Pro Deo.)

11 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 269d.)

To Thomas de Bekyngham, bachelor of canon law. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Welton in Lincoln, value 20 marks, void by the death during the lifetime of Urban VI. of Laurence de Nigris, collector to the camera in England, and therefore reserved by that pope, who died without disposing thereof; or whether they became void by the resignation of the said Laurence made to the ordinary, or by his resignation or that of Richard called 'Scharp' of Skelton, clerk, of the 1391.

diocese of York, made at the apostolic see, or by Richard's marriage, or otherwise; notwithstanding that he has recently had provision from the pope [f. 208] of the church of Astbury, value 160 marks; that he holds the church of Bishopbourn, value 150 marks, and the canonries and prebends of Landoguy in Abergwyly, and Stratton in Salisbury, value together 100 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury, the archdeacon of Oxford, and a foreign bishop.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 120d.)

To Thomas Ilshawe [see Reg. cccxii. f. 71.] Provision to him, a Friar Minor, in priest's orders, of the see of Coutances, reserved by Urban VI during the episcopate of the son of iniquity, William, sometime bishop, and afterwards void by his adherence to Clement VII; Urban VI having died without disposing thereof.

Concurrent mandate to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, and to the archbishop of Rouen.

1392.

8 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 155.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate, if the facts be as stated, to grant the inhabitants of the township (villæ . . . villata nuncupate) of Belmes[t]horp, in his diocese, licence to depute a perpetual chaplain at their charges to serve their chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in Belmes[t]horp, they being separated from the parish church of Real, within whose bounds they are situate, by streams of water which make access thereto difficult.

DE EXHIBITIS.

4 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 158.)

To the archdeacon of Oxford in Lincoln. Mandate to collate and assign to Thomas de Eltisle, canon of Salisbury, R.C.L. if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Donyngton, in the diocese of Salisbury, value 50 marks. His recent petition contained that papal provision of it was made to William Grey on its voidance by the supposed reason that the late Richard Beneger held it for a year and more without having himself ordained priest; that Thomas obtained Donyngton by exchange with Grey for Toppefeld, in the diocese of London, the exchange being made by bishops John of Salisbury and Robert of London; that at the time of these resignations a suit was, unknown to Thomas, pending in the apostolic palace between Richard Mey, clerk, of the diocese of Exeter, 1392.

and the said Richard Beneger about Donyngton, provision of which (opposed by Mey) Beneger had obtained under papal letters on its voidance by Richard Abet's making his profession in the Carthusian house of Hyneton, in the diocese of Wells; that Beneger obtained two definitive sentences by which the church was adjudged to him, and silence imposed on Mey, but that before the sentences were executed Beneger died. As Thomas doubts whether he may not be molested, the pope orders Donyngton to be given him as above, whether it be void by Beneger's not having himself ordained priest within the lawful time, or by his death or by the resignation of William [Grey]; notwithstanding that he has canonries and prebends of Salisbury, [H]astynges, and Wulvernhamton, value together 50 marks.

3 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 160d.)

To William, bishop of Winchester. Confirmation to him—who has by apostolic licence newly founded and endowed 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' for seventy scholars to be instructed in grammar, with a chapel or oratory; has instituted by his ordinary authority a warden, and has appointed a removable master to instruct the said scholars; has made other statutes and ordinances; and proposes in addition to depute ten perpetual [in margin] secular priests to celebrate mass and other divine offices in the chapel, with three clerks and sixteen boys to assist them, and to be changed and removed in accordance with an ordinance he has made—of the said institution, appointment, statutes, and ordinance; with indult to depute the said number of priests, clerks, and boys, who may be changed and removed in accordance with the said ordinance. (De mandato.) [Compare Lat. Reg. xxv. f. 60d.]

3 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 163.)

To the bishop of Salisbury. Mandate to grant licence to John de Ravenser, priest, Thomas de More, John Deynes, John de Somersby, clerks, Thomas Claymond, John Belle or Bolle, William Michel, William Tullymond and John Hulle, laymen, and Isabella relict of Thomas de Friskeneey, knight, of the diocese of Lincoln, to found and endow out of certain lands and possessions in the diocese, belonging to them in common, three perpetual chaplaincies called chantries (cantorias) in the parish churches of Leck and Leverton in the diocese, and to augment a chantry founded in Leck by Laurence de Leck; their desire being hindered by John, bishop of Lincoln, because a kinsman of his, who has to wife a daughter of Isabella, hopes to succeed to that part of such lands and possessions which belongs to Isabella.

18 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 166.)

To James, bishop of Monopoli, dwelling in the Roman court. Mandate to absolve from excommunication incurred, to grant dispensation for irregularity contracted, and to rehabilitate Richard Ellesmere, priest, Augustinian canon of St. John the Evangelist's, Hagmon, in the diocese of Lichfield, who is now at the Roman court for the purpose. Formerly, upon a disputed election of an abbot, Richard, who with certain of his 1392.

fellow canons made opposition, repaired to the Roman court in order to prosecute their intent, abandoned his regular habit, put on the habit of a secular clerk, and celebrated therein, or more truly profaned, mass and other divine offices, continuing to do so as a secular priest for some time after his return to his own parts. He has now re-entered his monastery. (Pro Deo.)

Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 170d.)

To John, bishop of Ely, and the Benedictine abbot and convent of Ramesey, in the diocese of Lincoln. (i) Licence, at the recent petition of king Richard, for the abbot and convent to give and grant with its appurtenances to the bishop and his successors, for their mensa, the manor of Chateriz (Catheriz in text. In margin: 'Charteriz. Correctum de mandato, N. de Ben[even]to'), situate in the diocese of Ely, and in the bishop's demesne (sub dominio), which both the bishop and the abbot and convent and their predecessors have claimed, and about which have arisen dissensions, suits, mutilations, homicides, etc. (ii) Appropriation to the abbot and convent of the churches of Schutlington and Therfeld (similarly corrected in margin from Terfeld as in the text) in the diocese of Lincoln, of their patronage, value 280 marks over and above the portions to be assigned for perpetual vicars and the other burdens to be supported by the monastery, value itself 3000 marks. The present licence and appropriation are in pursuance of an ordinance made by certain prelates and others deputed by King Richard from his council (de consilio suo) for the purpose of ending such dissensions, etc.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL XXII.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

1392.

2 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 34)

To Richard de Felton, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield. Reservation of a benefice value 25 marks with cure or 18 without in the common or several gift of the Augustinian abbot and convent of Haimon, in the same diocese.

Ibid.
(f. 48.)

To William de Wykyn, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield. Reservation of a like benefice in the like gift of the Benedictine abbot and convent of the monastery of Collam, Shrewsbury (Salopie), in the same diocese.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Haugmon, in the diocese of Lichfield, the archdeacon of Salop in the church of Lichfield, and a foreign bishop. (Pro Deo.) 1392.

8 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 50.)

To the abbot of Osilvestan, in the diocese of Lincoln. Mandate to reserve to Hugh Dany or Davy, priest, of the diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a like benefice in the like gift of the Augustinian prior and convent of Newenham, in the same diocese.

2 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 54d.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to reserve to Nicholas de Minnshull, priest, of the diocese, if similarly found fit, a like benefice in the like gift of the abbot, prior, and convent of St. Werburg's, Chester.

Ibid.
(f. 68.)

To John Hepworth, alias Caldewell, clerk, of the diocese of Norwich. Reservation of a benefice value 160 marks with cure or 18 without in the like gift of the abbot and convent of Peterborough; notwithstanding that he has lately had provision from the present pope of a benefice with or without cure in the like gift of the prior and convent of Eye, in the diocese of Norwich, which, as regards a benefice with cure, is hereby annulled.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop and archdeacon of Lincoln, and a foreign bishop.

15 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 78.)

To the abbot of Bardenay, in the diocese of Lincoln. Mandate to reserve to Alan de Carlton, clerk, of the said diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 25 marks with cure or 18 without in the gift of the prior of St. John of Jerusalem in England.

Ibid.
(f. 79.)

To the archdeacon of Huntingdon. Mandate to reserve to John de Wespyngton, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, if similarly found fit, a like benefice in the common or several gift of the Premonstratensian abbot and convent of Newsum, in the same diocese.

Ibid.
(f. 81d.)

To John de Kyrtan, canon of the Premonstratensian monastery of Neuwo (Newbo), in the diocese of Lincoln, papal chaplain. Reservation of a benefice with or without cure, value 40 marks, even if a chantry (cantoria), in the gift of the abbot and convent, and accustomed to be held by canons of the said monastery.

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Swinshed and Kirchstede and a foreign bishop.

1391.

5 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 83.)

To William Norton, rector of West Meone, in the diocese of Winchester. Reservation, at the petition of William, bishop of Winchester, of whose household he is a member, of a benefice value 100 marks with cure or 18 without in the common or several gift of the bishop and prior and chapter of Winchester; notwithstanding that he holds West Meone, and that he has lately had provision from the present pope of canonries with expectation of prebends in Wells and Salisbury, and of a dignity, personatus, or office in Wells. Upon obtaining possession of such benefice, West Meone is, as he has offered, to be resigned.

1391.

and his grace of provision of a canonry of Wells with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office shall, as far as regards a dignity, personatus, or office with cure, be null and void. [See Reg. Lat. lxix. f. 94.]

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Hyde and Oseney, and a foreign bishop.

1392.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 107.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to reserve to Graciottus Racuni or Ratuni, clerk, of the diocese of Winchester, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 25 marks with cure or 18 without in the common or several gift of the dean and chapter of Salisbury; notwithstanding that the pope has this day ordered provision to be made to him (Reg. Lat. xxiii. 12d.) of a canonry with expectation of a prebend in that church.

2 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 128.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to reserve to John Macclesfeld the younger, rector of Denham, in the diocese of Lincoln, if found fit after examination, a benefice without cure value 18 marks in the gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter of Lichfield, even on account of (ratione) dignities, personatus, or offices, which are held (obtinetur) in that church; notwithstanding that he holds Denham and that he has this day had letters of provision from the pope (f. 129) of a benefice with cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter of Lincoln. Upon obtaining a benefice with cure under these latter letters, Denham is to be resigned.

Ibid.
(f. 129.)

To the bishop of Ely. Mandate to reserve to the same John Macclesfeld the younger, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice with cure value 25 marks in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter of Lincoln, even on account of dignities, personatus, administrations or offices, which are held in that church; notwithstanding that he holds Denham (and that he has this day had letters of provision from the pope (f. 128) of a benefice without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter of Lichfield: added in bottom margin by the corrector). Upon obtaining such benefice [with cure] under these present letters Denham is to be resigned.

2 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 130d.)

To the archdeacon of Lincoln. Mandate to reserve to John son of Henry Talour of Snath, priest, of the diocese of York, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 30 marks with cure or 18 without in the common or several gift of the Augustinian abbot and convent of Leicester.

2 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 133d.)

To the official of Ely. Mandate to reserve to William Dunstaple, rector of Graveley, in the same diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 100 marks with cure or 18 without in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter, and each and singular the cautions of 1392.

Lincoln, even on account of dignities, personatus or offices, which they hold in that church. Upon obtaining such benefice with cure, Graveley is to be resigned.

Ibid.
(f. 153d.)

To Thomas Bouenok (Sevenoak?), clerk, of the diocese of Canterbury. Reservation of a benefice, value 160 marks with cure or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the prior and brethren of the house of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, London.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of London and Salisbury and a foreign bishop. [Here with spelling Beuenok.]

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

8 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 219.)

To the abbot of Westminster, the archdeacon, and Adam Holm, canon of London. Mandate to collate and assign to William Downe, clerk, of the diocese of York, St. Peter's, Bradestrete, London, value 20 marks, void by reason that John Burton, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, who held it, obtained St. Gregory's in St. Paul's churchyard (atrio), and detained it together with St. Peter's for a month and more without obtaining dispensation, and still detains it.

12 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 220.)

To the archdeacon of Oxford in Lincoln. Mandate to cause to be collated and assigned to Richard Schawe, canon of the king of England's free chapel of St. George in Windsor castle, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Farnham, in the diocese of Lincoln, value 20 marks. Richard formerly obtained dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure; (ii) to exchange it for another; after which he obtained the church of Cherleton, and exchanged it for a canonry and prebend in the king's free chapel of St. Stephen's in Westminster palace. Upon the voidance of Farnham by the resignation, made to John, bishop of Lincoln, of Thomas Middleton, Richard was presented by the lay patron and instituted by the said bishop. Subsequently he obtained dispensation (no mention being made of his having got possession of Farnham) to hold one other benefice, and to exchange it and his canonry and prebend of St. Stephen's for two other mutually compatible benefices, after which he exchanged his canonry and prebend of St. Stephen's for a canonry and prebend of St. George's, Windsor, receiving meanwhile the fruits of Farnham, and converting them, to the sum of 100 marks, to the uses of that church. The pope has by other letters rehabilitated Richard in respect of the above, and has willed him to resign Farnham, which thus void he now orders to be given to him as above. He has hereby special dispensation to hold Farnham.

1391.

3 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 228.)

To William Kyppyng. Provision of the perpetual vicarage of Estcherche, in the diocese of Canterbury, value 30 marks, 1391.

void and reserved, by the death of Adam Smyth at the apostolic see, to Urban VI. who died without disposing thereof.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Rochester, the abbot of St. Saviour's, Faversham, in the diocese of Canterbury, and a foreign bishop.

15 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(I. 238d.)

To Master John Trevor, doctor of canon and civil law, papal chaplain. Provision to him, who is also auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, of the parish church of Meyvot, with its chapels, in the diocese of St. Asaph, value 300 marks, void and reserved to Urban VI. (who died without disposing thereof) by the consecration at the apostolic see, of John, papal chaplain and auditor, promoted to the see of Hereford by that pope; even though a suit between the said bishop and Reginald Hilton, priest, of the diocese of Lichfield, about the said church and chapels, has remained undecided in the Roman court; and notwithstanding that he holds canonries and prebends of Wells and St. Asaph, and the precentorship of Wells, and is litigating in the apostolic palace about a canonry and prebend of Hereford, the value of all which is 100 marks, and that he has lately had provision from the pope of a canonry with expectation of a prebend in Abergwely, in Landdewibrevy in the diocese of St. Davida, in St. Davida, and in Lincoln, and of a dignity, personatus, or office with or without cure in Lincoln. He has hereby dispensation to hold for three years the said church and chapels with his precentorship, which has cure and is not a major dignity. One of the two is meanwhile to be exchanged for another benefice compatible with the remaining one; otherwise the precentorship is to be resigned. Upon his obtaining Meyvot the provision of a canonry of Lincoln with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office shall be null and void as far only as regards a dignity, personatus, or office with cure.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury, the abbot of Vallecrucis, in the diocese of St. Asaph, and a foreign canon.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXIII.

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

1391.

4 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(I. 7.)

To Gilbert Macinnoglay. Provision of a canonry of Killala (Alladen), with reservation of a prebend and elective dignity with cure, not major after the pontifical, personatus, or office.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop and archdeacon of Achonry (Akuden), and a foreign bishop. (Pro Deo.)

1392.

2 Kal. Feb. To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to make provision to St. Peter's, Rome. Graciottus Racuni or Ratuni, clerk, of the diocese of Winchester, (f. 12d.) if found fit after examination, of a canonry of Salisbury, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that the pope has this day ordered provision to be made to him [Reg. Lat. xxii. 107] of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the dean and chapter of Salisbury.

2 Non. May. To John Macclesfeld. Provision, at the petition of St. Peter's, Rome. king Richard, whose secretary he is, of a canonry of York,
(f. 29d.) with reservation of a prebend and of a dignity, not major after the pontifical, personatus, perpetual administration, or office with or without cure, even if elective; notwithstanding that he has this day had from the pope [below, ff. 108 and 109] provision of canonries of Salisbury and Lichfield, with reservation of prebends.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Durham, and a foreign bishop.

Kal. March. To the chancellor of Wells. Mandate to make provision to St. Peter's, Rome. Philip Rodde, rector of Wathley, in the same diocese, if found
(f. 83d.) fit after examination, of a canonry of Wells, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he holds Wathley, value 20 marks.

9 Kal. Nov. To Adam Orogonya. Provision to him, who is scholar in Perugia. canon law, of a canonry of Dromore, with reservation of a
(f. 87d.) prebend; notwithstanding that he holds the church of Dromo-loinn, in the same diocese, value 3 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of SS. Peter and Paul, Armagh, the dean of Armagh, and Richard Junge, canon of Lincoln. (Pro Deo.)

12 Kal. May. To the abbot of Barlyng. Mandate to make provision to St. Peter's, Rome. John Norman, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, if found fit
(f. 91.) after examination, of a canonry of Lincoln, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that the pope has lately ordered provision to be made to him of a canonry of Salisbury, with reservation of a prebend.

2 Non. May. To John Macclesfeld. Provision, at the petition of king
St. Peter's, Rome. Richard, whose secretary he is, of a canonry of Lichfield, (f. 108.) with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he has this day received from the pope provision of a canonry of York with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, administration or office [above, f. 29d], and of a canonry of Salisbury with expectation of a prebend.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Durham, and a foreign bishop.

Ibid. To the same. The like in Salisbury, mutatis mutandis.
(f. 108.) Concurrent mandate as above.

DE DIGNITATIBUS VACANTIBUS.

1392.

2 Kal. Nov.

Perugia.
(f. 212d.)

To the archdeacon and precentor, and Gerald Omolkarcar, canon, of Limerick. Mandate to summon William Brya, priest, of Meath, who unlawfully detains the chancellorship of Limerick (which is not elective), value 40 marks, void by the marriage of John Pilston; and to collate and assign it to Thomas son of John de Geraldinis knight, rector of Cluychirbrayn, in the diocese of Artfert. Thomas, who is of a noble race of earls, barons, and knights, and is scholar in canon law, had dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which, being ordained subdeacon, he obtained Cluychirbrayn, which, as he himself has offered, he is to resign upon obtaining the chancellorship. He has hereby special dispensation to hold it.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXIV.

DE EXHIBITIS. LIBER TERTIUS.

1392.

4 Id. Sept.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 14.)

To the abbot of Bordesley, in the diocese of Worcester, Richard Wych, canon of Salisbury, and a foreign bishop. Mandate to proceed to the execution against the present or any other intruders, of the sentence in the cause between Robert Prees and John Middleton, clerk, of the diocese of York. Robert's petition contained that he obtained by authority of the ordinary, on its voidance, the archdeaconry of Norfolk (to which the church of Corston, in the diocese of Norwich, is annexed), and was despoiled of it by John; that he gained a definitive sentence in the apostolic palace, by which the archdeaconry was adjudged to him, and silence imposed on John; and that he obtained the present pope's letters of execution addressed to the above three. His petition adds that while the suit was pending John gave up possession of the archdeaconry, and that another with his connivance has intruded himself into it.

Ibid.

(f. 30.)

To the bishop of London, the archdeacon of Northampton, and a foreign bishop. Mandate to proceed to the execution against the present or any other intruders, of the sentence in the cause between John Winchestre and Robert Osyngweld, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. John's petition contained that after obtaining canonical possession of the church of Brington, in the diocese of Lincoln, he was despoiled of it by Robert; that he gained a definitive sentence in the apostolic palace by which Robert was removed and himself restored; and that he obtained apostolic letters of execution addressed to the above archdeacon and two others. His petition adds 1392.

that Robert afterwards resigned the church, and that William Osyngweld, clerk, of the same diocese, similarly intruded himself into it, was admonished by the archdeacon, acting under the said letters, to give it up to John under pain of divers sentences, but in order to keep it the longer has appealed to the apostolic see.

5 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 31.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to summon the Cistercian abbot and convent of Thaine and others concerned, touching the perpetual vicarage of Chalgrove, in the diocese of Lincoln. The recent petition of the vicar, William Athecote, contained that the fruits of the vicarage are insufficient, and that the abbot and convent had extorted from him an oath not to try to increase his portion nor to make suit against them, although the value of the church, appropriated to the monastery, is 60 marks. He fears them greatly and with reason (merito perhorrescens), and cannot meet them with safety in the city or diocese. The oath is to be relaxed and the fruits increased until they are sufficient.

17 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 71d.)

Grant to John Macclesfeld clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, at the petition also of king Richard, whose secretary he is, that if, by virtue of recent letters of the pope addressed to certain judges, the then void preceptory of the Augustinian house of St. Anthony, London, dependent on the monastery of St. Anthony in the diocese of Vienne, be given him to be held by him for ten years in commendam, he and his ministers engaged in his service for the affairs of the said preceptory and house shall enjoy all the privileges, exemptions, liberties, immunities, and indulgences which preceptors and brothers regular of the said house have enjoyed. [See Reg. Lat. xx. f. 206d.]

6 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 104d.)

Confirmation of the appropriation by John, bishop of Lincoln, with the consent of the dean and chapter, and of the archdeacon of Hontygdon, to the abbot and convent of Westminster, of the church of Aldenham, value 58 marks, that of the monastery itself being 3000. Exemplification is given of the bishop's letters, which themselves give exemplification of the king's licence by letters patent, sealed with his great seal of the chancery, for abbot William and his convent to appropriate Aldenham, which is of their patronage; in return for which they are to celebrate yearly, on the morrow of the Translation of St. Swithin, the king's coronation day, a solemn mass with music (per notam) at the altar of St. John Baptist in their conventual church of St. Peter, for the good estate of himself and his queen Anne, during their lifetime, and after their death their obits: T[este] me ipso apud Westmonasterium decimo octavo die Augusti anno regni nostri quinto decimo. The bishop's letters proceed to state that at the supplication and prayers of the king and of the abbot and convent the appropriation is made, with the above burdens imposed by the king, to take effect on the resignation or death of the rector Thomas 1392.

Atherston, a vicar's portion being deducted. An annual pension or cess is imposed of 13s. 4d. for the bishop (or for the dean and chapter during voidance of the see) to be paid on the Purification of St. Mary and the Nativity of St. John Baptist in the bishop's lodging (hospicio) at the Old Temple of London in Holborne; and of 3s. 8d. for the archdeacon of Huntingdon, over and above what he was entitled to receive from the rector, to be paid on the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in the parish church. Dated in the Chapter House of Lincoln, 2 Nov. 1391, the 29th year of the bishop's consecration. The consent of the dean and chapter, and that of William Welburne, doctor of civil law, archdeacon of Huntingdon, is dated in the same place, 3 Nov. 1391.

6 Id. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 121d.)

To Roger de Anglia and Ambrose de Senia, Friars Minor. Faculty to choose and lead with them twenty-four friars of the order, of any nation, for the conversion of the empire of the Tartars and other northern infidels and schismatics; seeing that otherwise many converts, especially in the Caspian (Caspici) mountains, where there are ten thousand and more, will relapse on account of the dearth of friars. (Pro Deo.) [Wadding, Annales Minorum, ix, 106, from lib. 4 (sic).]

6 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 122.)

To the abbot of Hyde, the archdeacon of Ely, and a foreign bishop. Mandate to collate and assign to Walter Wylmot, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln, the church of Toft, in the diocese of Ely, of lay patronage. Walter's recent petition contained that lately, on the death of William, the late rector, John de Mandour, canon of Wells, patron of Toft, presented him to the ordinary, but that they doubt for certain causes whether the presentation holds good. The church, whose value is 24 marks, is to be given to Walter, on whose behalf John has also petitioned, notwithstanding that he expects a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of Hyde, by grant of the pope under the form for poor clerks, which letters, upon his obtaining Toft by virtue of these presents, are to be null and void so far as regards a benefice with cure only.

15 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 126d.)

To the prior and convent of Sempringham, in the diocese of Lincoln. Power, on their recent petition—which contained that formerly in the Marsh (in loco de Marisco) of Holand, in the diocese of Lincoln, where there is a hermitage of theirs, on account of the miracles wrought there through the merits of St. Thomas the Martyr a chapel dedicated to him was founded and was appropriated to their monastery; that at the time of the foundation there was in the said place, which is distant two miles from any parish church, no habitation of man, but that now it has by God's blessing become very populous—for them to depute and remove a chaplain, and for the chaplain to administer ecclesiastical sacraments.

1392.

4 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 141.)

To John de Lanum, rector of Swaby, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of successive dispensations to him as the son of a priest—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice with cure; (ii) to hold another compatible benefice and exchange both, under which dispensations he held Wodalle and exchanged it for Swaby—so that he may hold two or three other mutually compatible benefices with or without cure, even if they be canonries and prebends, or dignities, personatus, or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and such dignities be major therein or principal in collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for other benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

9 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 169d.)

To William le S[c]rop, knight, lord of the kingdom of Man and the Isles. Licence to build a castle in the place commonly called 'Patrikysholm,' near and belonging to the church of Sodor, situate in his said kingdom, whose buildings have been destroyed by the invasion of enemies of the kingdom, and cannot, through the slenderness of its means, be repaired, whereby divine worship (cultus) has been almost utterly (quasi penitus) diminished, and divine [offices] have for a long time (a diu) not been celebrated. He intends to repair the church, to which the castle will serve as a defence. (De mandato.) [See ff 198d. and 221d.]

8 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to grant dispensation in respect of the marriage of Hugh de Arden and Cicely, of the diocese of Lincoln. Lately it was set forth to Urban VI. that they married, Hugh being ignorant of the existence of an impediment, and Cicely knowing thereof, and that at length it came to Hugh's notice that he and Cicely's former husband, John de Honford, were related in the fourth degree of kindred, that Cicely and Agnes, Hugh's former wife, were related in the same, and likewise Hugh and Cicely. Urban VI. ordered the bishop to absolve Cicely from sentence of excommunication incurred by her and to grant dispensation to remain in the marriage so contracted, declaring past and future offspring legitimate. As the recent petition of Hugh and Cicely to the present pope contained that Hugh and John were related in the third degree of kindred, whereby the above mandate is made void, it is now renewed.

Perugia.
(f. 198d.)

To William le Scrop, knight, lord of the kingdom of Man and the Isles. Absolving and freeing him from his vow to visit the basilicas of SS. Peter and Paul at Rome, on condition of his converting, as he has offered, the expenses of his journey and the offerings which he would have made there, to the repair of the church of Sodor. (De mandato.)

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

6 Kal. Nov.

churches, and ecclesiastical places immediately subject and dependent; to consecrate chalices of the same; to reconcile such churches and their cemeteries; and to confer minor orders on monks and other persons of the monastery and of its said priories, churches, and places. (De mandato.)

10 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 205.)

Relaxation of two years and two quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of St. Katherine visit and give alms for the conservation of her chapel in the church of Haliswurcht, in the diocese of Norwich.

2 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 211.)

The like relaxation, during ten years, to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel situate over the gate of the Carmelite house of Brunham, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.
(f. 211d.)

The like, without the ten years' clause, for the church of St. Margaret, Thirkeby in Fleg, in the diocese of Norwich.

8 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 217d.)

To Roger Kyrkeby, perpetual vicar of Gaynford, in the diocese of Durham. Indult of non-residence for seven years to him, who has studied canon law for several years, and to take the fruits and let them to farm while studying letters at an university.

9 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 221d.)

Exhortation to give alms for the repair of the church of Sodor, which, with its buildings, is so destroyed by the invasion of enemies that its own resources are insufficient for its repair, on account of which divine worship therein is almost utterly diminished; with perpetual relaxation of seven years and as many quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who do so. The pope strictly forbids these present letters to be sent by questuarius outside the province of Thronthjem, and if this be attempted they are invalid. [See f. 169d.] (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 222.)

To William le Scrop, knight, lord of the kingdom of Man and the Isles. Indult that his confessor may give him dispensation not to fast (jejunare) on fasting days, and to eat flesh and milk-meats thereon and on days of abstinence (quibus omnis carniem est prohibita). (De mandato.)

5 Kal. Nov.
Perugia.
(f. 227.)

To Master James Floriani, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to proceed to the execution of the mandate below, addressed to John de Dulmen, in the cause between John William, subdeacon, of the diocese of St. Davids, and Thomas Lye, priest, of the diocese of Worcester, about the perpetual vicarage of Thornnbury, in the diocese of Worcester. John William under pretext of letters of Urban VI obtained and held it on its voidance by the death of John Brampton, and Thomas opposing this provision, John appealed to the present 1392.

pope, who committed the cause to Master John de Dulmen, papal chaplain and auditor. Dulmen, after proceeding to a number of acts short of a conclusion, was ordered by the pope, in case it should appear that neither had any right to the vicarage, to collate and assign it to John. Afterwards, it being set forth to the pope on the part of Thomas that the auditor had given a definitive sentence by which he had adjudged the vicarage to him, and that John had appealed, the pope committed the appeal to John Trevor, papal chaplain and auditor. Trevor, after similarly proceeding (as above), was ordered, in case it should appear that neither had any right to the vicarage, to collate and assign it to whichever of the two should on examination be found to be the more sufficient. John's recent petition contained that Trevor revoked Dulmen's sentence, collated the vicarage to him, and gave him provision and that Thomas appealed. The appeal was committed to Peter, bishop of Sagona, then papal chaplain and auditor, and upon his absenting himself from the Roman court, to Master Thomas de Walkington, papal chaplain and auditor, who revoked Trevor's sentence, collated the vicarage to Thomas, and gave him provision, John's appeal against which sentence the pope committed to Master James Floriani, who has proceeded to a number of acts. (Pro Deo.) [See Reg. Lat. xii. f. 300].

DE REGULARIBUS.

- 10 Kal. Feb. To John Yong, Cistercian monk of Tintern, in the diocese of Ferns. Dispensation, as the son of a priest religious, to be promoted and appointed to dignities of his order, even abbatial. (Pro Deo.) [A quaternion, ff. 245-268 inclusive, is missing.]
 St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 272.)
- 11 Kal. June. To Thomas Swynshed, Augustinian canon of the priory of St. Thomas the Martyr, in the diocese of Lichfield. Dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be promoted and elected to any dignities, even abbatial, administrations, or offices of his order.
 St. Peter's, Rome. (f. 298d.)
- 8 Id. Nov. To John Kendy, Augustinian canon of St. Mary's, Louth, in the diocese of Armagh. Dispensation, as the son of a priest religious and a married woman, to accept the abbey of Bangor, in the diocese of Down, provision of which the pope intends this day to make to him.
 Perugia. (f. 316d.)

2 Non. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 11.)

To the Augustinian abbot of Brun, in the diocese of Lincoln. Mandate to appropriate to the prior and convent of Sempringham, who have begun to rebuild their church, which is prostrated to the ground with age, the church of Hacumby of their patronage, in the said diocese, value 30 marks, that of the monastery being 600 marks; a perpetual vicar's [portion] is to be reserved.

3 Id. Feb.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 12.)

To Thomas Colman, canon of the Augustinian priory of Launde, in the diocese of Lincoln. Dispensation on account of irregularity contracted, and rehabilitation so that he may hold any benefices of his order. Lately it was set forth to Urban VI. on behalf of William Fraukener (sic for Faulkener, as below, and at the corresponding place in f. 13d), rector of Hathesnegge, in the diocese of Lichfield, that he obtained a definitive sentence in the apostolic palace in his cause long ventilated there against William Alwold, clerk, of the same diocese, and the above Thomas Colman, then prior of Launde, respecting the said church, provision of which on its voidance Fraukener had obtained under papal letters, and which Alwold with Colman's help unlawfully occupied; that pending the execution of the sentence by Andrew Baret, canon of Lincoln, acting without his two colleagues, Alwold under pretence of an exchange resigned the church, and Aswold (sic here) and Colman had Richard Brentinghi (sic), clerk, of the said diocese, intruded into it; that Urban VI. ordered Baret and his colleagues to proceed against Richard as though the above sentence had been delivered against him, and the bishop of Lichfield to take the church into his own hands, cause it to be served in spirituals, and give any surplus of its fruits to Fraukener; that nevertheless Alwold, Brentinghi, and Colman, in contempt of the sentences incurred, celebrated divine offices and caused Faulkener (sic here, and in the several further mentions of the name) to be summoned before the secular courts, and outlawed and condemned in 80 marks. Urban VI. ordered Baret and his colleagues, if they found the above to be true, to deprive Alwold, Brentinghi, and Colman of all their benefices, and to render them unable to hold others. Baret deprived Colman, as his recent petition contained, of his priory, and the other two of their benefices, after which Colman repented, got absolution, and now prays for dispensation and rehabilitation.

above, mutatis mutandis. [Here with the readings Hauersegge, Faulkener, and Alwold, throughout.]

4 Id. March. To Thomas Wardroper, rector of Burton Novary (cancelled, St. Peter's, Rome. and in margin: Stykeney, Correctum de mandato, N. de Ben-
(f. 21.) [*even*to), in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of dispensation, as below, f. 100. [There are three margin additions, each subscribed as above, and all incorporated in f. 100. The letter is cancelled with strokes, and in the margin is: Cancellata quia inferius propter sui nimiam correctionem folio c. aliter registrata est.]

7 Kal. March. To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of London, and a foreign bishop. Mandate, on petition of Richard Clyfford, to execute against the present or any other intruder the definitive sentence gained by him in the apostolic palace, the execution of which was committed to the above, in the cause between him and John called 'Thomas,' clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, respecting the canonry and prebend of Lerhtonburssarde in Lincoln, which Richard obtained on their voidance by authority of the ordinary, and of which John despoiled him. It has come to the knowledge of Richard that John, while the suit was pending, made a pretended exchange of the said prebend of Lehtonburssarde (sic here) for another in the said church with William Ascheton, priest, of the diocese, who now occupies it.

6 Non. March. To the abbot of Pippewelle. Mandate, if necessary, to augment the portion reserved to the vicar of Desburgh, in the diocese of Lincoln. Lately it was set forth to Urban VI. on behalf of the Augustinian prioress and convent of St. John Baptist, Rothewell, in the diocese of Lincoln, that Richard Clare, earl of Gloucester, founded the priory, but died before he had sufficiently endowed it. As he left no male issue, his patrimony was divided among his daughters, who neglected to assign a fitting endowment, on account of which the prioress and convent, fourteen in number, could not expend for their food and clothing, and that of their servants, beyond 4 marks and four fields (agris) of land, in one of which the priory was situated, so that some of them were compelled, for the sustentation of themselves and the other nuns, with the opprobrium of mendicity, to beg alms after the fashion of friars of the mendicant orders. Wherefore king Richard granted them his patronage of Desburgh, in order that it might be appropriated to them, which Urban VI. ordered the bishop to do, a fitting portion for a perpetual vicar being reserved. The recent petition of John Harry, the vicar, contained that the portion assigned by the bishop is insufficient.

4 Id. March. To Robert de Halton, priest, of Lincoln. Extension of St. Peter's, Rome. dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends and dignities, personatus, or offices in cathedrals, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

3 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 60d.)

Confirmation of the institution made by William, bishop of Winchester, by his ordinary authority, for his college of St. Mary of Winchester at Oxford, commonly called 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre'—newly founded by him, with apostolic licence, for seventy scholars to study theology, canon or civil law, or arts—of a warden, ten secular priests for the performance of divine offices in the chapel which he has lately constructed there, three clerks and sixteen boys to assist the said priests; and of the statutes and ordinances made by him for the above and for the government of the college. (De mandato.) [There are several additions and corrections in the margin, e.g. the date is corrected from quarta to tertio. They are subscribed as usual, viz. Correctum de mandato.]

4 (sic) Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 60d.)

To William, bishop of Winchester. Indult to him—who has by apostolic licence newly founded and endowed the college of St. Mary by Winchester, commonly called 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre,' for a warden and seventy scholars to be instructed in grammar, with a chapel or oratory, and proposes to depute ten secular priests to celebrate mass and other divine offices in the chapel, with three clerks and sixteen boys to assist the said priests, [all] to be changed and removed by the warden and scholars at their sole pleasure (autum)—to depute the said number of priests, clerks, and boys; and to the warden and scholars to change and remove them at pleasure. (De mandato.) [Cancelled with strokes, and in margin: Cancellata quia propter magnam sui correctionem fuit et est alibi registrata, N. de Ben[even]to, i.e. Reg. xxi. f. 160d. There are no marginal corrections, not even of the date.]

5 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 64.)

To the prior of Mottisfont (Montisfontis), in the diocese of Winchester. Mandate to summon Thomas Bole, rector of the church or chapel of Kingsworthy (Wortharegis), who has buried the body of John Wytthe, layman of Kingsworthy, in a cemetery which he has had consecrated near the said chapel by Simon, bishop of Aconry (Akarien, i.e. Akaden), receiving the funeral oblations, to the injury of the abbot and convent of Hyde, who have from time immemorial had the sole right of burying the bodies of those who die in Kingsworthy in the cemetery of the parish church of St. Bartholomew, Hyde, which is appropriated to them, and of receiving the funeral oblations. The prior is to decide what is just without appeal.

2 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 85.)

To the Augustinian abbot of Brun, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation of the appropriation by Henry, bishop of Norwich, by his ordinary authority, of the church of Holy Trinity, Calistor 1392.

(de Castro), value 40 marks, to the Gilbertine prior and convent of Shouldham, value 200 marks, to whose patronage it belongs, the said priory's buildings (domus) having been overthrown almost from their foundations by floods of river and sea (aquarum et maritimorum fluctuum), fires, and a strong wind, and its possessions in great part destroyed—as is said to be contained more fully in a public instrument fortified with the seals of the bishop and chapter. A fitting portion for a perpetual vicar, a secular clerk, is to be assigned, if this has not been done.

2 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 90.)

To John de Campeden, rector of Chiriton, in the diocese of Winchester. Licence to him, who has also the poor hospital of St. Cross by Winchester, and a canonry and prebend of Southwell, in consideration of his age and infirmity to depute one or more coadjutors.

4 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 100.)

To Thomas Wardroper, rector of Stykeney, in the diocese of Lincoln. Extension of successive dispensations to him as the son of a priest and a married woman—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, by virtue of which he obtained Burton Noveray in the same diocese; (ii) to hold one other compatible benefice, and exchange both once for two other similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, even if one had cure, by virtue of which he resigned Burton Noveray for Stykeney—so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends and dignities, personatus, or offices in cathedrals, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (De mandato.) [See f. 21.]

7 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 115d.)

To John Wilmenton, clerk, of the diocese of Wells. Extension to him, who has studied philosophy for two and civil law for eight years at Oxford, of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he caused himself to receive the tonsure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if one of them have cure or be a dignity, personatus, or office, with cure, and the other be a canonry and prebend, in metropolitan, cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1391.

4 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 145.)

To Gilbert Macinnoglay, clerk, of the diocese of Ardagh. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he received the tonsure, so that he may hold two mutually compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends, or one of them a dignity, elective and major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus or office, in cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (Pro Deo)

15 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 151.)

To Master John Trevor, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate, at the petition also of Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, to surrogate Richard Benet, priest, of the diocese of Norwich, member of the cardinal's household, and to collate and assign to him the perpetual vicarage of Walpole in the said diocese, value 40 marks, provision of which he obtained under papal letters on its voidance by the death of Walter Colton, which provision Geoffrey Wattenes, priest, opposed, and despoiled him of the vicarage. The cause was committed by the present pope to the said auditor, before whom the cause was pending when Geoffrey died. (Pro Deo) 1392.

14 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 158.)

To the bishop of London. Mandate to grant to Robert Burk, knight, and the inhabitants (universitatis) of the town of Hodesdon, situate within the bounds of the parish church of Brokesburne, who on account of frequent inundations of rain and the too great distance cannot go thereto, if the facts be as stated, to have as often as such floods happen masses and other divine offices celebrated, and women churched, in the chapel of St. John, Hodesdon, by a chaplain of their choice.

7 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 158d.)

To the prior of Lanthony near Gloucester. Mandate (recapitulating the circumstances contained in the late petition of Henry Bryt, vicar, and the parishioners of St. Helen's, Abingdon, in the diocese of Salisbury [Reg. Lat. xii. f. 115d.]) to summon the abbot and convent of Abingdon, and others concerned, and to proceed according to the pope's former mandate [ibid.] ordering the prior to grant licence to the parishioners to have a cemetery of their own. The recent petition of the same contained that the licence granted by the prior has been contested by the abbot and convent on the ground that they were not cited by him, and that they have obtained the committal of the cause to Master Branda de Castellione, papal chaplain and auditor, who has proceeded to a number of acts short of a conclusion, which cause the pope hereby calls in to himself.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

4 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 171.)

Grant and donation in perpetuity, motu proprio, to the warden and the seventy scholars, ten secular priests, three clerks, and sixteen boys of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' at Oxford, whose yearly value does not exceed 300 marks, of the manors or granges of Sutton, Russebrugge, and Neweburi, in the county of Essex, that of Chiselhurst in Kent, an inn called 'Monticofysyn' (i.e. Monte Jovis Inn) within the gate of Aldgate, four messuages in Little Jewry, in the city of London, other immoveable goods, advowsons and patronage of churches and chapels, escheats and reliefs etc. in Essex and Kent, all which belong to the Augustinian monastery or hospital of SS. Nicholas and Bernard, Montjoux, in the diocese of Sion, and 1392.

are useless thereto because the inhabitants of the county of Savoy, in which the monastery is situate, are enemies of King Richard; because the said possessions are in large part detained by laymen and other powerful inhabitants of England, out of whose hands it is probable that the provost and convent are unable to recover them; and because they are adherents of the antipope called Clement VII. The grant includes, besides the above, the advowsons and patronage of the church of Haverynge, commonly called Horn-churche, and of any other benefices, and also of chapels annexed to and dependent on Haverynge in Essex and Kent, belonging to the said monastery. The pope's intention is that, upon the said monastery returning to its fealty and devotion to the present pope or his canonical successors, the college shall make compensation in lieu of the said manors, etc. (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 178.)

The like for similar reasons to the same 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' at Oxford, of the following possessions in England of the Benedictine monastery of St. Valery (Walerici)-sur-Mer, immediately subject to the Roman church, in the diocese of Amiens:—the manors, called 'Sancte Valeries' of Takele, Esthalle, Walles, Wydynton, Bylchangre, and Lyndeselle; an annual cess of 10 marks from the manor called Bacons; parish churches, perpetual vicarages, chapels, portions, and other immoveable goods; the advowsons and patronage of benefices in the realm belonging to St. Valery's; annuities and pensions in Takele, Bilchangre, Wydy[n]ton, and Lyndeselle aforesaid, as also in Bradewelle, Middelborne, Manewedan, Boliton, Machynges, Clansfeld, Tylyngham, and in the hundred of Daneseye; and all their other possessions in England outside Middlesex. The pope's intention is as above. (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 178.)

The like for similar reasons to the warden and the seventy scholars, ten secular priests, three clerks, and sixteen boys of 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' near Winchester, whose yearly value does not exceed 200 marks, which is insufficient, of the following possessions in England of the Benedictine priory of Hamele in the Rys, in the diocese of Winchester, or of the monastery of Holy Trinity, Tiron, in the diocese of Chartres, upon which the said priory depends:—the manors, lands, etc. of Hamele in the Rys, Howne, and Westworldham, situate within the counties of Sutht, Berk, Wilteres, and Dors (sic), and anywhere else in the realm; moreover of all manors, lands, etc. within the realm belonging to the Benedictine monastery of Holy Trinity at Mont Ste. Catherine by Rouen; with the advowsons and patronage of the parish churches of Hamele, Houwe (sic), and Westworldham aforesaid, as also of Hermondesworth, and of their perpetual vicarages and of other churches, vicarages, and chapels in England, belonging to the said monasteries. The pope's intention is as above. (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 180.)

The like for similar reasons to the same 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' near Winchester, of the following possessions of the monastery of St. Valery-sur-Mer:—the lands, etc.

of Istelworth, Heston, Twykenham and Hampton in Middlessex, with the advowsons and patronage of their churches or chapels and their vicarages. The pope's intention is as above. (De mandato.)

14 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 192d.)

To Robert, archbishop of Dublin. Indult, while in the service of king Richard, to say the canonical hours according to the Roman manner, which he has hitherto observed, and not to be bound against his will to observe any other use (morem) or order; provided that as often as he happens to be present at the said hours in his church of Dublin he observe the custom of that church.

4 Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 195.)

Perpetual appropriation, motu proprio, for similar reasons, as above, to 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' at Oxford, of the church of Havering called Hornchurche, in the diocese of London, with annexed chapels, value 100 marks, the appropriation to the monastery of SS. Nicholas and Bernard, Montjoux, in the diocese of Sion (as above, f. 171), being dissolved. A vicar's portion is to be reserved, if this has not been done. The pope's intention is as above. (De mandato.)

Ibid.
(f. 196.)

The like appropriation to 'Seinte Marie College of Wynchestre' near Winchester, of the parish churches or chapels of Istelworth, Heston, Twykenham, Hampton, Hermondesworth, Hamele, Howne, West Worldham, with other chapels annexed thereto, value 300 marks (corrected in margin for 200 in text), in the dioceses of London and Winchester, their appropriation to the monasteries of St. Valery-sur-Mer, Holy Trinity at Mont Ste. Catherine by Rouen, Holy Trinity, Tiron, and to the priory of Hamele in the Rys, dependent on the last named, in the dioceses of Amiens, Rouen, Chartres, and Winchester, being dissolved. Vicars' portions are to be reserved, if this has not been done. The pope's intention is as above. (De mandato.)

5 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198d.)

To John, Augustinian abbot of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin. Faculty to him, to whom the pope has lately made provision of that abbey, to receive benediction from any catholic bishop of his choice in communion with the apostolic see. The bishop is to receive the usual oath of fealty according to the form enclosed, which the abbot is to send to the pope by his sealed letters patent; without prejudice to the archbishop.

14 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 203.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate to separate for a time, and then to absolve from excommunication incurred, Richard Quinchald and Isabella Amable, who married clandestinely, knowing that they were related in the third degree of affinity, inasmuch as Richard had cohabited with Joan Rokeby, who is related to Isabella in the third degree of kindred. They are afterwards to have dispensation to contract marriage anew, past and future offspring being declared legitimate. The survivor is to remain perpetually unwed.

1392.

7 Kal. March. Exhortation to give alms for the repair and conservation of the chapel of St. Andrew in Casterflegh, in the diocese of Norwich; with relaxation, during ten years, of two years and two *quadrage*ne to penitents who do so. The pope strictly forbids these present letters to be sent by questuarii; if this be attempted they are invalid.

Ibid. The like for the chapel of Holy Trinity, in the church of Haryngworthe, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Ibid. To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to grant dispensation to Nicholas, donsel, son of Nicholas de Montegomery, knight, and Joan, damsel, daughter of Nicholas de Langeforde, knight, who married in ignorance that they were doubly related in the fourth degree of kindred, to remain in the marriage so contracted, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate.

14 Kal. March. Relaxation of two years and two *quadrage*ne to penitents who on the feast of St. George visit and give alms to the fabric of his church of the Benedictine monastery of Thetford, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid. To Robert, archbishop of Dublin. Indult to visit churches, monasteries, etc. of his city and diocese by deputy, and to receive moderate procurations in ready money.

13 Kal. Aug. Relaxation of — of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year (in nativitate, etc.) visit and give alms to the church of Harnham, in the diocese of Salisbury, dedicated to St. George, in which Blessed Theobald, confessor, is venerated. [Without the usual subscription and abridged as indicated. Cancelled by strokes, without marginal note.]

1391.

17 Kal. Dec. Decree, on petition of the guardian and Friars Minors of their house in London, in regard to the body of John Hastynges, earl of Pembroke, whose will was that he should be buried in their church, but whom the prior and Friars Preachers of Hereford caused to be buried in their church, or ratified the burial made therein. The pope issued a mandate to the bishops of London and Lichfield to decide the matter, and now for certain reasons calls up the cause to himself and inhibits them from proceeding therein. [Wadding, Annales Minorum, ix. 425.]

4 Id. Dec. To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to separate for a time, and then to absolve from excommunication incurred, Thomas Huchyn and Margery Comper, who intermarried knowing that they were related in the third degree of affinity. They are afterwards to have dispensation to contract marriage anew, past and future offspring being declared legitimate. The survivor is to remain perpetually unwed.

4 Kal. Jan. To the dean of Killala (Alladen). Mandate to summon John Oceandunan, sometime rector of Cayslanconcubir, in that diocese, who, as the pope has heard, was during the lifetime of 1391.

Urban VI. an adherent of the antipope called Clement VII. and was therefore ipso jure deprived. If the dean find the facts to be so, he is to declare John to have been and to be deprived, and is to remove him. (Pro Deo.)

Ibid.
(f. 244.)

To the same. Mandate to collate and assign to Gilbert Macunoglay, clerk, of the diocese of Ardagh the above church, value, as he asserts, not more than 12 marks, formerly held by the above John, who, as the pope has this day heard, was an adherent of the antipope, and whom he has ordered the dean by other letters to deprive and remove. Seeing that if John so adhered the church was and is thereby void and reserved to the pope by decree of Urban VI. the pope now orders the dean, if he deprive John, to make collation of it as above. (Pro Deo.)

Ibid.
(f. 264.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of two years and two quadragene of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and days visit the parish church of Houghton, in the diocese of Durham.

Ibid.
(f. 264d.)

The like for ten years for the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the cemetery of the parish church of Clyngham, in the diocese of Norwich.

Ibid.
(f. 265.)

The like for ten years for the church of the Benedictine nuns' priory of Handall, in the diocese of York.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

4 BONIFACE IX.

1393.

6 Kal. Feb.
Perugia.
(f. 113.)

To Maurice Macnamyn, perpetual vicar of St. Brandan's, Killtesquyg, in the diocese of Clonfert. Extension of dispensation as the son of a priest—to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he obtained his vicarage, value 2 marks, which is insufficient for his sustentation—so that he may hold one other benefice, even with cure, value not exceeding 12 marks, and may exchange both for two similar or dissimilar benefices, even if one or both have cure. (Pro Deo.)

15 Kal. Aug.
Perugia.
(f. 114.)

To Walter Freen, clerk, of the diocese of Hereford, M.A. Extension of dispensation as the son of a priest—to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he received the tonsure—so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if they be canonries and prebends and dignities, personatus or offices, in metropolitan, cathedral and collegiate churches, and such dignities have cure in metropolitan or cathedral, or be principal in collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as he wishes for similar or dissimilar benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

Ibid.
(f. 114d.)

To John Freen, priest, of the diocese of Hereford, M.A. The like extension of a like dispensation, after which he was ordained priest. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

DE REGULARIBUS.

Id. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 133d.)

Exemption of Walter Summirton, Friar Preacher, papal chaplain, in consideration of his services to the pope and the Roman church, from the statute and ordinance made by the pope on the 8th day before the Ides, following the example of some of his predecessors, against the abuses, brought to his hearing by king Richard and others—to wit, that some Friars Preachers, abusing their immunities, liberties and privileges as papal chaplains, refuse to obey their superiors, and to be present at and celebrate divine offices, although provided for, like other friars who are not chaplains, from the alms of their houses. [Ripoll, Bullarium Prædicatorum ii., 337.]

[DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.]

3 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 18d.)

To Walter Cook, B.C.L. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Holborn in London, void and reserved to the pope—in accordance with the reservation lately made by him of all benefices void by the death of members of his court (curiales) when following the Roman court from place to place, however distant such place might be from the said court—by the recent death, without having had possession, near Monte Rotondo, in the diocese of Sabina, less than two days' journey from the Roman court, whither he was following the pope and his court from Perugia to Rome, of Richard Carleton, advocate of the papal consistory and curialis, to whom provision thereof was made on their voidance by the death of Thomas Brightewell, during whose life they had been reserved by the pope. The value thereof and of the church of Brompton in Pykering Lith, in the diocese of York—provision of which, being void in a certain way and likewise previously reserved to the pope, has also been this day made to him by other letters [Reg. Lat. xxix. f. 83d]—is 120 marks. Notwithstanding that he is litigating in the apostolic palace about the church of Maydyston, in the diocese of Canterbury, and the chancellorship of London [Reg. xxx. f. 29], and has lately had from the pope provision of the canonries and prebends of Kydyngton [Major, added in Reg. xxx. f. 30] in London, Sydlesham in Chichester, and Morton Waden in Hereford, of none of which he has yet got possession, and whose value together is 500 marks; of canonries of London, Lincoln, and Wells, with expectation of prebends and dignities, personatus, or offices; and of a benefice with or without cure and a dignity with cure in the common or several gift of the archbishop and prior and chapter of Canterbury. On obtaining possession of the prebend of Holborn, the provision of a canonry of London with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office, as regards such canonry and prebend only, and the provision of a canonry and prebend of Kydyngton, are to be null.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Westminster, John Mere, canon of Lincoln, and a foreign bishop.

DE EXHIBITIS.

15 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 62d.)

To Griffen Yonge, canon of Abergwily. Extension, at the petition also of Queen Anne, of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i) to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure; (ii) to hold two benefices, even if one had cure, after which he obtained the canonry and prebend of Gertprynge in Abergwily, and the church of Flaunynys, in the diocese of Bangor—so that he may hold any benefices of any number and kind, with and without cure, compatible with one another and with the above, even if canonries and prebends and elective dignities, major or principal respectively, personatus, perpetual administrations or offices, in metropolitan or cathedral and collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. [See Reg. Lat. lxix. f. 80.] [Water-stained.]

3 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 75d.)

To Philip Lowe, rector of Holy Trinity, in the diocese of Cork. Extension to him, who has studied civil law at Oxford, of dispensation as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold other mutually compatible benefices with or without cure, even if canonries and prebends and elective dignities with cure, major or principal respectively, personatus or offices in metropolitan or cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as he wish for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (Pro Deo.) [Water-stained.]

1393.

Ibid.
(f. 101d.)

To the archbishop of Dublin. Mandate, on petition of the Augustinian prior and convent of St. John Baptist, Lau[nde], in the diocese of Lincoln, and of king Richard, who has proposed to found in the monastery church, and to contribute towards the endowment of, a chapel or chantry in which three masses are to be said daily by three canons, to cause to be appropriated to the said monastery, for the relief of the burdens of the prior and convent and for the maintenance of the said chantry, three churches of their patronage to the value of 100 marks, the income of the monastery being 600. [Badly water-stained.]

17 Kal. Aug.

Perugia.
(f. 107d.)

To Master Andrew Baret, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to surrogate Thomas de Weston, rector of Langnewenton, in the diocese of Durham, licentiate of civil law, whose petition contained that a cause arose between Peter de Stapilton, priest, of the diocese of York, and John Henley, canon of Chester [le Street], in the diocese of Durham, about the church of Seggesfeld, in the diocese of Durham, of which church, void by reason that the said John, its sometime rector, obtained and held it together with Holuchton in the same diocese, Peter received papal provision, which provision John opposed, retaining Seggesfeld. The cause was committed by Gregory XI. at Peter's instance to the late William Herborth, papal chaplain and auditor, and by Urban VI. to another, who adjudged the church to Peter. John's appeal was committed successively to John Egidii and Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, the latter of whom reversed Herborth's sentence. Peter's appeal was committed to the late Peter Gasconis, and successively to divers others, and finally to Thomas de Ambrevilla, during whose hearing Urban VI. died. The present pope committed the cause to the above Master Andrew Baret. Seeing that, as the petition added, Stapilton, while the cause was pending before Baret, has obtained another benefice with cure, whereby Seggesfeld has become void, Thomas is to be surrogated to him as regards his right to Seggesfeld at that time, and the church, whose value is 200 marks, is to be collated and assigned to him; notwithstanding that he holds, besides Langnewenton, the wardenship of the poor hospital of Gretham, a perpetual portion without cure in the parish church of Derlyngton, and the canonry and prebend of Lamesley, in Chester [le Street], value altogether 100 marks. (De mandato.) [Water-stained.] 1392.

17 Kal. Jan.

Perugia.
(f. 157.)

To William Scot, perpetual vicar in the chapel of St. Stephen, within the palace of Westminster. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices with and without cure, even if canonries and prebends or dignities in cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for other mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1393.

17 Kal. Sept.

Assisi.
(f. 167.)

To Walter, bishop of Durham. (The word nostro in the address Venerabili fratri nostro is corrected by a marginal note to Waltero.) Faculty to dispense ten persons of his city and diocese, of illegitimate birth, to be ordained and hold two compatible benefices apiece, even if one of them have cure and be in a cathedral church, and to exchange them as often as they please for similar or dissimilar compatible benefices. [Water-stained.]

6 Id. July.

Perugia.
(f. 169d.)

To Ralph [Sel]by, archdeacon of Buckingham. Dispensation, motu proprio, and in consideration of king Richard, whose — (illegible) he is, to hold together with his archdeaconry which is a benefice with cure, or with any other dignity, personatus, or office, or benefice with cure, which he may in future obtain, one other elective dignity with cure, major after the pontifical in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, or benefice with cure, and to exchange the same as often as seems good to him. [Water-stained.]

17 Kal. Sept.

Assisi.
(f. 182d.)

To Walter, bishop of Durham. Faculty to make provision for this time only, to fit persons of his choice, of twenty benefices secular and regular in his city and diocese, so long void that the collation of them has by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council lapsed, even if they or any of them be elective dignities with cure in Durham. Of names, etc. the camera or the collector in those parts is to be informed. [Water-stained.]

11 Kal. Nov.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 187.)

To the bishop of Lichfield. Mandate to grant dispensation to intermarry to Nicholas Boterhale and Agnes Palmere, who are related in the third degree of kindred. [Water-stained.]

9 Kal. April.

Perugia.
(f. 188.)

To John Howbert, rector of Garthorp, in the diocese of Lincoln, bachelor of canon and civil law. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he, who is of knightly (militari) race, may hold two other benefices compatible with Garthorp, and may exchange them for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

4 Id. May.

Perugia.
(f. 189d.)

To Gervase Johannis ap Eynon, rector of Llandoget, in the diocese of St. Asaph. Extension of dispensation as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if one be a canonry and prebend or an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus, or office in a metropolitan, cathedral or collegiate church, and may exchange them as often as he please for similar or dissimilar compatible benefices.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

8 Id. Oct.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 194.)

To Master Henry Bowet, archdeacon of Lincoln, doctor of canon and civil law, papal chaplain. Indult for two years to visit by deputy churches etc. and the persons thereof in his 1393.

archdeaconry, and to receive procurations in ready money to the amount of 30 silver [gros] Tournois a day, 12 to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the dean and precentor of Lincoln, and a foreign bishop.

1392.

4 Id. Dec.
Perugia.
(f. 197.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of the Assumption visit and give alms for the repair of the church of the Augustinian monastery of St. Mary the Virgin, Inysgad, in the diocese of Killaloe (Laonien.), which is so destroyed alike in respect of its buildings as of its books, chalices, etc. and likewise of its temporal goods, that it is threatened with ruin.

1393.

6 Kal. June.
Perugia.
(f. 198.)

To Richard Courteney, clerk, of the diocese of Exeter. Dispensation to hold, after he is in his fourteenth year, any benefice with cure, even an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus, administration with or without cure, or office, in a cathedral or metropolitan or collegiate church, and to exchange it as often as he please for a similar or dissimilar benefice.

DE CONSERVATORIIS.

3 Kal. Feb.

5 Kal. June.
Perugia.
(f. 218d. orig.
cccxvii.)

To the abbots of Westminster, Waltham, and Selby. Mandate, to hold good during fifteen years, to absolve John bishop of Salisbury—on whose behalf the pope has this day issued to the same three abbots letters conservatory [f. 221d.]—and others from excommunication etc. which they may incur from the archbishop of Canterbury. The bishop's petition contained that sometimes when he or his officials, commissaries, or servants have lawfully appealed to the apostolic see from charges made by the archbishop, nevertheless the archbishop, who is legatus natus in his province, proceeds by excommunication, suspension, interdict, sequestration, or otherwise. The abbots are hereby ordered in such cases of lawful appeal to absolve from excommunication and suspension, and to relax interdict and sequestration. (Iustis petentium desideriis.)

1393.

Ibid. To the same. Letters conservatory to hold good during fifteen years for John, bishop of Salisbury, and his episcopal mensu. (Ad hoc nos Deus.)

10 Kal. Dec.
Perugia.
(f. 57.)

Revocation of a decree of Urban V. touching the Benedictine abbot and convent of St. Werburg's, Chester. Clement VI. exempted them and their monastery from the jurisdiction of the ordinary, the bishop of Lichfield, of the metropolitan, the archbishop of Canterbury, and of the archdeacon of Chester, and bound them to pay 10 marks, at the rate of 5 florins a mark, every three years to the apostolic camera on the feast of SS. Peter and Paul. Afterwards it was represented to Urban V. by the late abbot Thomas and the convent that abbot William had procured the exemption for personal reasons and without the knowledge or consent of the convent and of the founder, Edward prince of Wales, and that on its account very many inconveniences and losses had befallen the monastery, no mention having been made of the payment of 10 marks; wherefore Urban V. revoked it [above Reg. cclxi. f. 35d.]. His revocation is hereby annulled and revoked, the letters of Clement VI. are to remain in force, and the 10 marks are to be paid. (De mandato.)

(f. 134 d.)

To the bishop of Lincoln. Mandate as below, at the petition of Robert Aschebey, subprior, Hamund Terfordi, John Balli, Henry Wermynghon, William Kant or Kauc, John Billingborwe, Richard Napton, William Gryffin, Thomas Lodolowe, Alan Turman, Thomas Chiborai, William Bowton, and John Drawton, monks of the Cluniac priory of St. Andrew, Northampton, which contained that whereas by ancient and immemorial custom twenty days' notice ought to be given of a visitation, nevertheless John, prior of Bermondessey, in the diocese of Winchester, and Henry, prior of Derby, in the diocese of York, both of the order of St. Benedict, pretending that they were sub-delegates of William, archbishop of Canterbury, deputed by the apostolic see as vicar or visitor general of the Cluniac order in England, suddenly ordered the said subprior and others (as above, but with Thyberay for Chiborai) to admit them to visit the priory. The subprior and monks (here Tyberay) appealed to the apostolic see, but the two priors, although not ignorant of the appeal, at the instance of John, prior of Northampton, fulminated sentence of excommunication against them (here and below, passim, spelling Willingborwe) and put the priory under an interdict. The prior and monks appealed anew to the apostolic see. The three priors, with the help of John Glasyer, layman, of the diocese, and others forcibly (manu armata) entered the priory, removed the subprior from his office, and ordered, and would have (intendebant) compelled, the said monks to consent to certain dilapidations and alienations made by prior John, from which comminations and mandates the said subprior and monks again appealed. And although they intimated the appeal to the three priors, nevertheless the prior of Northampton with a multitude of armed men drove them out, 1393.

laid violent hands on Henry [Wermynghton], and despoiled them of their food and portions due from the common goods of the priory, certain books and other things, to the value of 1000 florins and more. The subprior and monks, forced to wander about miserably and beg their bread, petition the pope to commit the causes, criminal and civil, which they propose to bring against the said three priors and John Glasyer and their accomplices, to some approved person (probo) in England (in partibus), with power to deprive prior John, if he be found guilty of the said dilapidations, to order alimēt for them while the suit is pending, to restore them to the priory, and to absolve them absolutely or provisionally (simpliciter vel ad cautelam) from the excommunication, and to relax the interdict. The pope orders the bishop, if the violent laying on of hands be proved, to publicly declare prior John and his accomplices excommunicate until they make satisfaction and come for absolution to the apostolic see; to summon the three priors, John Glasyer, and others, and absolve the subprior and monks as petitioned above.

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

3 Non. Oct.

St. Peter's, Rome.

(f. 52d.)

To Walter Cook, rector of Brompton in Pykering Lith, in the diocese of York, B.C.L. Provision of that church, void and reserved to the pope by the death without having had possession of Richard Carleton, as above [Reg. xxvii. f. 15d] to whom provision thereof was made on the death of Richard Thorne, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope. The value of the said church, together with that of the canonry and prebend of Holborn in London, provision of which (likewise previously reserved) the pope has also this day made to him [Ibid.], is 120 marks. Notwithstanding etc. as above [Ibid.]. On obtaining Brompton the said chancellorship, which is a dignity, and Maydiston are to be resigned.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Westminster, Thomas Weston, canon of London, and a foreign bishop.

(f. 150)

To the archdeacon of Limerick. Mandate to reserve to John Harchor, rector of Athenedisce, in the diocese of Limerick, according to his fitness, after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice with or without cure, not being a canonry and prebend in a cathedral church, value 25 marks with cure or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean, and chapter of Limerick. On obtaining such benefice with cure he is to resign his rectory.

DE EXHIBITIS.

8 Kal. Sept

(f. 195.)

To Master Andrew Baret, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to surrogate, etc. The recent petition of William Cuylling, rector of Opton Pin in the diocese of Exeter, contained that a cause arose lately between the late John de Edneues, priest, and John Raw, canon of St. Thomas the Martyr's, Glasney, about the provostship of the same, a dignity, provision of which (on its voidance by Master Thomas de Walkington, papal chaplain and auditor, obtaining by papal authority the deanery of Exeter, which has cure) Edneues obtained by the same authority, which provision Raw opposed, despoiling him and taking the fruits. The cause, lawfully introduced to the apostolic see, was committed by Urban VI. at the instance of Edneues to John, bishop of Hereford, then chaplain, etc. before whom Edneues appeared. The bishop, proceeding in possessorio only, removed Raw and restored Edneues. Before the cause in petitorio was resumed Urban VI. died, and the present pope committed it to the above Master Baret; and as before the said sentence was executed Edneues also died without the Roman court, the pope now orders the auditor to surrogate Cuylling to Edneues in the said cause in petitorio, and if he find that Edneues had, and that Raw has, no right, to collate and assign to Cuylling the said provostship, wont to be governed by canons of St. Thomas's, whose value, he asserts, does not exceed 60 marks, whether it be void by Walkington's obtaining possession of the said deanery, or, likewise by papal authority, of the church of Houghton in the diocese of Lincoln, or otherwise; notwithstanding that Cuylling holds his aforesaid church, and a canonry and prebend of St. Thomas's, value together 26 marks; has lately had provision from the pope of canonries, with expectation of prebends, of Exeter, Salisbury, and Wells, and of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure, of Salisbury; of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter and each and singular the canons of Exeter, of another in the like gift of the 1398.

Augustinian prior and convent of Plymton in that diocese, and another in the like gift of the prior and brethren of the Hospitallers in England; and has lately had dispensation to hold for two years two benefices with cure, even if dignities, personatus, or offices, in cathedral or collegiate churches, or parish churches, and to exchange them as often as he pleased for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. On obtaining the provostship such graces are, as far only as regards benefices incompatible therewith, to be null and void, and his parish church is to be resigned. (Pro Deo.)

Translation of Maurice, bishop of Clonfert, to the see of Tuam, from which William is being translated to Clonfert; considering that he and William will be able to rule Tuam and Clonfert more usefully, and that if the provision to Tuam were delayed, that church might be exposed to divers perils, and suffer grave detriment in spiritualities and temporalities.

Concurrent letters to the chapter of Tuam, to the people and to the clergy of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to the suffragans of Tuam, and to king Richard.

PRO DOMINIS CARDINALIBUS.

16 Kal. Feb.
Perugia.
(L. 281d.)

To Master Paul de Dugnano, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate, motu proprio, to surrogate, etc. as below, Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's. It has recently come to the pope's notice that a cause arose lately between cardinal Adam and Robert Mansfeld, priest, of the diocese of York, about the provostship of St. John's, Beverley, provision of which, on its voidance by the death of John de Thoresby, was made to the cardinal by papal authority, which provision Robert opposed, intruding himself. The cause was committed by the present pope to Master Paul, who has proceeded to a number of acts, short of a conclusion. As it had been set forth to the pope on the part of Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Cyriac's, that Robert similarly opposed his papal provision of the canonry and prebend of Ustwayt in York, intruding himself and taking the fruits, and that Christopher, on account of the power and malice of Robert, had no hope of obtaining justice in those parts nor of causing him to be cited there, the pope committed the cause, at the cardinal's instance, to Nicholas [bishop] elect of Potenza, 1393.

then chaplain, etc. notwithstanding that the cause did not by its nature lawfully devolve to the Roman court. The auditor was to cite Robert, if necessary, by public edict posted on the doors of St. Peter's, Rome, where the pope was then residing, and in other public places on the continent (citra mare) near England (illis partibus vicinis), to resign the said canonry and prebend to cardinal Christopher, with fruits taken, or else to allege before the auditor cause why; which the auditor proceeded to do. And seeing that Robert was contumacious, the said auditor, with the counsel and assent of his co-auditors of the apostolic palace, to whom he made a faithful relation, and while the cause between cardinal Adam and Robert was pending before the above Master Paul, pronounced against Robert, being in possession of the said provostship, sentence of excommunication, deprivation of all his benefices, and disability in future to hold them or others. As, accordingly, all Robert's right in regard to the provostship is void, the pope orders Master Paul to surrogate cardinal Adam to him in respect of the said provostship, whose value is 400 marks, and to collate and assign it to him. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXX.

DE EXHIBITIS.

3 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 25)

To Master Paul de Dugmano, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to surrogate, etc. as below, Walter Cook, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, B.C.L., whose recent petition contained that a cause arose lately between John Leuesham, priest, of the diocese of York, and the late Richard Carleton, about the church of Brompton in Pykering Lith, papal provision of which, on its voidance by the death of Richard Thoern, was made to Carleton, which provision Leuesham opposed, taking the fruits; and that the cause was committed by the present pope to the above Master Paul, at Carleton's instance. As the petition adds, while the cause was pending, Carleton died [as related above, Reg. xxvii. f. 18*d*]. The auditor is ordered to surrogate Cook in respect of Carleton's right. The value of the said church, etc. [as above, Reg. xxix. f. 83*d*]. Notwithstanding, etc. [as above, Reg. xxvii. f. 18*d*].

1392.

3 Kal. Jan.
Perugia.
(f. 29.)

To Master James Floriani, papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to collate and assign, as below. The recent petition of Walter Cock (Cook), clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, B.C.L. contained that a cause arose lately between him and Roger Holm, canon of London, about the chancellorship of London, papal provision of which was made to Walter on its voidance 1392.

by reason that Roger obtained it by authority of the ordinary, being a dignity with cure, not major below the pontifical, and held it, without a dispensation, along with his parish church of Warmuth, in the diocese of Durham, contrary to John XXII's constitution Execrabilis, which provision Roger opposed. The cause, although not lawfully devolving by its nature to the Roman court, was committed by the present pope to Master James. As, the petition adds, it is asserted that neither of them has any right, the pope orders the auditor, if he find this to be the case, to collate and assign the chancellorship, whose value is 100 marks, to Walter, whether it be void as above, or by the deprivation of Roger, or if he be not yet deprived in the Roman court, in the event of his being so deprived under the processes begun against him in that court at the instance of Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's [see f. 298]; notwithstanding that Walter has lately had provision from the present pope of the canonries and prebends of Kydyngton Major in London, Syddlesham in Chichester, and Morton Wadon in Hereford, the parish church of Maydiston, in the diocese of Canterbury, about which he is litigating in the apostolic palace, of none of which he has yet got possession; of canonries of London and Lincoln and Wells, with expectation of prebends, and of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure, of Wells; and of a benefice without cure in the common or several gift of the archbishop, etc. of Canterbury, the value of all which is 600 marks. Upon obtaining the chancellorship he is to resign, if meanwhile he get it, the said parish church [of Maydiston].

(f. 54d.)

To the bishop of Kilmore (Triburnen). Mandate to collate and assign to Tiernacus Macuegheanarch, priest, of the diocese of Clogher, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the parish church alias comorbanship (Comurbania), of Clomecoya, in that diocese, value 10 marks, provision of which he obtained from the bishop, by his ordinary authority, on its voidance by the resignation, made to the bishop, of John Macuegheanarch, and now doubts whether, for certain causes, the provision holds good.

3 Non. Oct.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 73.)

To Bertrand, bishop of Gubbio, dwelling in the Roman court. Mandate to surrogate, etc., as below. The recent petition of Walter Cook, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln, B.C.L. contained that a cause arose lately between William Dynghere, clerk, of the diocese of Exeter, and the late Richard Carleton, priest, about the canonry and prebend of Holborn in London, papal provision of which, on their voidance by the death of Thomas Brychtewell, was made to Carleton, which provision Dynghere opposed, taking the fruits, and that the cause was committed by the present pope to the said bishop at Carleton's instance. As the petition adds, while the cause was pending Carleton died [as above, Reg. xxvii. f. 18d]. The bishop is ordered to surrogate Cook in respect of Carleton's right. The value of the said canonry and prebend, as well as of the church of Brompton, provision of which the pope has made to Cook, is 120 marks. Notwithstanding, etc. [as above, ibid.]. On obtaining the canonry and prebend of Holborn, the provision of a canonry of London, with expectation of a pretend and dignity, personatus, or office, as far as regards a canonry and prebend only, and that of the canonry and prebend of Kydyngton, are to be null and void.

1393.

4 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 85.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to grant licence for the foundation of a monastery of the order of St. Clare, as below. It having been set forth to Urban VI. on the part of William Cary, donsel, of the diocese of Exeter, that he proposed, having obtained licence from king Richard, to erect the parish church of the Blessed Virgin and All Saints, Clovely, of which he is patron, and whose value was 50 marks, into a collegiate and regular church of the order of St. Augustine, and therein to found and endow a college of seven regular priests of the said order, who should wear cassocks (vestes talares) like secular priests, with a small cross of red and white on (circa) the breast on the outer garment (in superiori veste), and of whom one should be warden, and exercise the cure of souls of the parishioners, Urban VI. granted faculty to the then archbishop of Canterbury, his name not being expressed, to proceed thereto, instituting members of the said order, or receiving the profession of priests willing to enter it. William's recent petition to the present pope contained that he cannot find priests willing to join the order, and now proposes to found and build a monastery for an abbess and twenty-four nuns of St. Clare, to which order he has a special devotion, with a church or oratory, cemetery, bell tower, bell, dwellings, and other necessary offices, and to endow it out of his own goods and the fruits of the said church. The archbishop is ordered to grant him licence to carry out this foundation, a portion of the said fruits being reserved for a secular priest, who on the resignation or death of the present rector shall have cure of the parishioners' souls.

17 Kal. July.
Perugia.
(f. 184d.)

To the bishop of Salisbury. Mandate to absolve and to grant dispensation on account of irregularity, as below, to William Sleaford, dean, and the chapter of St. Stephen's chapel in the royal palace of Westminster, whose recent petition contained that a cause arose between them and the abbot and convent of Westminster, the latter asserting that the said chapel lay within the bounds of the parish of St. Margaret's church, [which is] within the cemetery of the said monastery; that the said church of St. Margaret, with all chapels within the parish, is appropriated to the abbot and convent; that the said chapel, which is collegiate, belongs to them; that they receive the parochial tithes and oblations which the said parish church has been wont to receive from its subject chapels, as also the funeral and all other parochial rights arising in the said chapel; and that they exercise jurisdiction alike in the said parish and in the said chapel; all which dean William and the chapter denied. The cause was committed by Gregory XI. at the instance of the 1393.

abbot and convent to the late Nicholas, archbishop of Naples, then papal chaplain and auditor, who, upon the contumacy of the dean and chapter, promulgated sentence of excommunication against the dean and each of the chapter, of suspension against the chapter, and of interdict upon the chapel. After the cause had long been heard by divers auditors, the abbot and convent obtained a definitive sentence, letters executory being issued to Augustine, bishop of Perugia, then bishop of Penna, the dean of Arches, and the archdeacon of Oxford (Osenien) in the church of Lincoln, the former of whom promulgated the sentence. As the dean and chapter remained contumacious, Peter Counnbe, monk of Westminster, as the bishop's sub-executor, published the sentences, but they, not in contempt of the keys, but in ignorance of the law, have continued to celebrate divine offices. They are now ready to submit, and to make satisfaction to the abbot and convent.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

Non. July.
Perugia.
(f. 291.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to restore Clement, Premonstratensian abbot of St. Radegund's, in the diocese of Canterbury, who obtained it on its cession, made by the late canon Richard, then abbot, to George, abbot of Barlyngge, and John, abbot of Wellebeke, and who was afterwards forced to resign it to the said abbot John, who has intruded John Strete, a canon thereof. (f. 292.)

Perpetual appropriation, motu proprio, to the episcopal mensa of Salisbury — the spiritualities thereof being too slender, and its temporalities being from various causes at present in the hands of the king — of the canonry and prebend of Chosmister, alias Chernister, and Bere. Upon these presents taking effect the canonry and prebend of Potern, which is united to the said mensa, and the name thereof, are to be suppressed and extinct, their fruits remaining perpetually to the mensa. (De mandato.)

5 Kal. Aug.

(f. 220.)

Declaration that Walter, bishop of Durham, and Thomas Weston, rector of Langneuton, in his diocese, were unaware of the falsity of certain letters fabricated under the pope's name and bull, a duplicate of which Thomas, believing at the time that they were true and valid, sent to the bishop, whose envoy he was to the pope, and the original of which he afterwards, upon finding them false, presented in person to the pope. The said letters, which the pope has by other letters declared false, and of which exemplification is here given, are addressed to Walter, bishop of Durham, begin 'Romani pontificis providentia,' and are dated at Perugia, 5 Kal. Aug. anno quarto. The pope therein exempts Walter, whilst bishop of Durham, and his officials, etc. from the jurisdiction and power, metropolitan and legatine, of the archbishop of York, now and for the time being, and takes them under his protection and that of the apostolic see, so that the archbishop cannot suspend, excommunicate, depose, or fine the bishop and his said officials, etc. interdict their places or sequester their fruits, make processes or fulminate any sentences against them, all such being decreed null beforehand. To Walter, Augustinian prior of Launde, in the diocese of Lincoln. Faculty to grant dispensation to six persons of his choice, of illegitimate birth, to be named to James Dardani, canon of Salerno, papal chaplain, or other collector to the camera in England, to be ordained and hold one benefice only, even with cure, and to exchange it once only for a similar or dissimilar benefice.

Ibid.

(f. 224.)

To the same. Faculty to grant dispensation to four persons of his choice, to be named as above, who have attained their twentieth year, to hold a benefice with cure, even if a dignity, personatus, or office with cure, or a parish church, and to exchange it as often as they please for a similar or dissimilar benefice.

Ibid.

(f. 224d.)

Relaxation of seven years and seven quadrage and of a hundred days to penitents who visit as above [f. 210d] and give alms for the repair of the church of St. John Baptist, of the monastery of Launde. If similar indulgence, not yet expired, have been granted by the present pope, perpetually or for a time not yet elapsed, with the exception of that lately granted, namely for four years and four quadrage, the present letters shall be null and void.

Ibid.

(f. 227.)

To William, rector, called master of the college of perpetual chaplains and beneficed clerks of Holy Trinity in the church of Arundel, in the diocese of Chichester. Dispensation to hold together with the said college, founded by Richard, earl of Arundel, in which residence is required, a benefice with cure on which he shall meanwhile not be bound to reside.

(f. 233.)

Declaration of the non-reservation to the apostolic see of the archdeaconry of Meath. The pope recapitulates the mandate issued by Gregory [XI.] to the bishop of Meath, in which the bishop's name was not expressed, in the long standing cause between Hugh, then cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Portico, and the late Matthew Crompt about the said archdeaconry [Reg. cclxxxiv. f. 127d.] The bishop proceeded, during the lifetime of Gregory and Matthew, to assign an annual pension to the cardinal and to surrogate Matthew to him in respect of the archdeaconry. Urban VI. made provision thereof, void and reserved by the adhesion of cardinal Hugh to the anti-pope called Clement VII, to the late Lewis, cardinal deacon of New St. Mary's. Subsequently a cause arose about the said archdeaconry between Landulph, cardinal deacon of St. Nicholas in Carcere Tulliano, to whom provision thereof was made on its voidance by the death, without having had possession, of cardinal Lewis, and Thomas Sprot, clerk, of London, Matthew's successor, who opposed the provision. The cause, lawfully introduced to the apostolic see, was committed by the present pope, at the instance of Thomas, to Master Paul de Dugmano, chaplain, etc. and is still pending. As many doubt whether the archdeaconry, on account of the aforesaid, has remained reserved to the apostolic see, the pope declares hereby that from the time of the assignment of the said pension it did and does not remain, and was and is not, generally nor specially, reserved in any way to the apostolic see.

(f. 235.)

To Thomas de Montecuto, dean of Salisbury, licentiate of canon and civil law. Extension of dispensation, at the petition also of king Richard, whose kinsman he is, so that he may retain for life the church of Chaddesey—which by the terms of the provision lately made to him by the pope of the deanery, an elective major dignity with cure, void and previously reserved, he was to resign, and which he afterwards, before obtaining possession of the deanery, had dispensation to retain therewith for two years, the pope willing him to exchange during that period one or other for a benefice compatible with the remaining one, otherwise at the end of that time to resign the church—after the lapse of the said two years, which are about to end, or to exchange it for any other benefice incompatible [with the deanery], even if an elective dignity, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, with cure, and to exchange the same or

To Walter, bishop of Durham. Indult to choose one or more coadjutors, to be appointed or removed at his pleasure.

To the same. Faculty to grant dispensation to ten persons of his city and diocese, who have already had dispensation on account of illegitimacy to hold one benefice, so that they may hold two other mutually compatible benefices, even if one have cure or be in a cathedral, and exchange them as often as they please for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices.

DE PREBENDIS ET DIGNITATIBUS VACATURIS.

5 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 281d.)

To Thomas Karlelle. Provision to him, who is a priest and has studied canon law for some time, at the petition of Cosmatas, cardinal priest of St. Cross in Jerusalem, of a canonry of St. Davids, with reservation of a prebend and dignity, even with cure, not major, personatus or office; notwithstanding that the pope has lately ordered provision to be made to him of a benefice with or without cure in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter, and each and singular the canons and personae of Exeter.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Hereford, the prior of Haverford, in the diocese of St. Davids, and John Trevor, canon of St. Asaph.

DE PREBENDIS VACANTIBUS.

4 Id. May.
Perugia.
(f. 293.)

To Thomas Leche, B.C.L. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Norton in Hereford, value 10 marks, void and reserved to Urban VI (under his general reservation of all benefices void through papal collation) through John Harold, dean of Hereford, obtaining by authority of that pope and during his lifetime the canonry and prebend of Bolinghope, united to the deanery. On the death of Urban VI, who died without having disposed of Norton, the present pope declared that all such benefices reserved by Urban VI, and void at his death remained void and at the pope's sole disposal, under which declaration he makes the present provision; notwithstanding that Leche has lately had provision from the present pope of the canonry and prebend of Landelandaveylok, in Abergwili, value 10 marks, and of canonries of Hereford and Abergwili, with expectations of prebends. Upon obtaining Norton the expectation in Hereford is to be null and void.

Concurrent mandate to the prior of Wenkok (sic) in the diocese of Hereford, the archdeacon of Hereford, and a foreign bishop.

13 Kal. Aug.

Perugia.
(f. 298.)

To William de Waltham, B.C.L. Provision of a canonry and prebend of London, as below. Lately the pope reserved all benefices void by papal deprivations; after which it was set forth to the pope on the part of Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, that he had provision from the present pope, on its voidance, of the church of Warmouth, in the diocese of Durham, previously reserved, after and against which reservation Roger de Holm, sometime canon of London, intruded himself, taking the fruits; and that the pope committed the cause at the cardinal's instance to Master Thomas de Walkington, papal chaplain and auditor, who was, if he found the facts to be as above, to warn Roger under pain of excommunication, deprivation and disability, to give up the benefice to the cardinal, and make him satisfaction for fruits received, all which the auditor did, but Roger refused and refuses to obey, thereby incurring the said sentences. The cause was committed to Master John Trevor, papal chaplain and auditor, who declared Roger to be excommunicate, deprived, and unable to hold any benefices, whereby a canonry and prebend of London, value 50 marks, which he then held, has become void, whereof the pope now makes provision to William de Waltham; notwithstanding that he holds canonries and prebends of Salisbury and Wells, value together 130 marks, and a canonry and prebend of York, value 40 marks, and has lately had papal provision of the church of Orpyngton, then void, in the diocese of Rochester, value 100 marks, and recently of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure, when void, in Salisbury.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury, Richard Yonge, canon of Lincoln, and Richard de Holm, canon of Salisbury.

18 Kal. July.

Perugia.
(f. 316.)

To the archbishop of Cashel. Mandate to collate and assign to Thomas Wyot, perpetual vicar of Kalcolme or Kalcome, in the diocese of Ossory, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of Ferns, value 20 marks, which became void and reserved to the pope (under his late reservation of void benefices of collectors to the camera) by the death of John Karlele, collector in Ireland, although Richard Montayne, priest, of the diocese of Ferns, unduly detains them; notwithstanding that he holds Kalcome, value 10 marks, and has lately had provision from the present pope of the perpetual vicarage of Bray, then void, in the diocese of Salisbury, value 50 marks, and of a benefice with or without cure, when void, in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Winchester. On obtaining the said canonry and prebend, the last named provision is, as Thomas has offered, to be null and void.

3 Non. July.

Perugia.
(f. 353d.)

To William Langbrok, licentiate of canon law. Provision of a canonry and prebend of Wells, as below. Lately the pope reserved all benefices void at the apostolic see; after which it was set forth to him on William's behalf that a cause arose between him and Raynald, cardinal deacon of St.

1393.

Vitus's in the Shambles (in Macello), about the canonry and prebend of Wormestorre in Wells, and the treasurership of the same, which William obtained, on their voidance in a certain way, by authority of the ordinary, and held for some time, and papal provision of which, void in another way, was made to the said cardinal, which provision William opposed, holding possession and taking the fruits. The cause, lawfully introduced to the apostolic see, was committed by Urban VI. at the cardinal's instance to the late Oderic de Ragoma, papal chaplain and auditor, who adjudged them to the cardinal and imposed silence on William, who was then absent from the Roman court, condemning him in fruits and costs. William, who did not give them up and has not yet done so, incurred by his contumacy sentences of excommunication, suspension, and interdict, and afterwards, by Urban VI.'s further mandate to the said auditor, of deprivation of his benefices and disability to hold any others, from which sentences he was by the present pope provisionally absolved, received dispensation on account of irregularity, if any, and was rehabilitated, and on their voidance, by the cardinal's resignation made to the pope, received provision of the said canonry and prebend and treasurership. After all this, Master Andrew Baret, papal chaplain and auditor, who asserted that he had papal provision of the canonry and prebend, renounced the same to the pope, whereby they are void and reserved to the apostolic see. The pope therefore makes provision thereof, value 60 marks, to William; notwithstanding that he holds the said treasurership, value 160 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop and official of Salisbury and the abbot of Glastonbury.

DE DIGNITATIBUS VACANTIBUS.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 26.)

To John Macclesfeld, canon of York. Provision to him, at the petition of king Richard, a member of whose household he is, of the provostship of Wells, value 300 marks, void at the apostolic see by the resignation of Pileus, bishop of Tusculum, made by his prætor, Frederick de Junipereto, clerk, of the diocese of Arezzo, to the pope; whether it be void as above, or by the deprivation of Roger Holm, or otherwise; notwithstanding that he has lately received from the present pope in commendam for a certain time not yet elapsed, the preceptory of St. Anthony's, London, value 600 marks, and had provision of canonries with expectation of prebends in York, Salisbury, and Lichfield, and of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure in York. Upon obtaining the provostship, the said letters of provision for York shall be null and void as far as regards a dignity, personatus, or office with cure (curatum).

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Dublin, the bishop of Durham, and the official of Canterbury.

8 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 24.)

To the dean and Matthew Macoy, . . . [water-stained], canon of Killaloe, and Richard Yong, canon of Lincoln. Mandate to collate and assign as below. It has been lately set forth to the pope on the part of Cornelius Odeayg, subdeacon, of Killaloe, bachelor of canon law, that he (who had, without mention of his illegitimacy, obtained the tonsure) received dispensation on account of such illegitimacy to be promoted to all holy orders and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he obtained, by authority of the ordinary, without further canonical dispensation, the perpetual benefices called rectories of the parish churches of Dissertmolacala, Killnafearwagy, and Kyllkady, in the same diocese, the cure of souls in which is performed by perpetual vicars; that he obtained dispensation from Pileus, bishop of Tusculum, then cardinal priest of St. Praxed's, papal nuncio, to hold one other benefice even if in a cathedral and if an elective dignity, and to exchange the aforesaid benefices as often as seemed good to him for similar or dissimilar benefices, under pretext of which he obtained, also by authority of the ordinary, canonries and prebends of Killaloe and Kilfenora; that he then by virtue of the first dispensation was ordained subdeacon; that afterwards, without mention of his having got the above benefices and canonries, he obtained papal dispensation to hold all dignities, short of the pontifical, even if elective, relying on which he obtained, also by authority of the ordinary, the archdeaconry of Killaloe, void by the death of Cornelius Ykenendig, and without obtaining possession thereof retained all his other benefices and canonries; and that the pope by other letters has rehabilitated him, willed him to resign all his benefices, and granted him dispensation to hold four mutually compatible benefices with or without cure, even if canonries and prebends, or dignities, personatus, or offices, with or without cure, and such dignities major after the pontifical in metropolitan or cathedral or principal in collegiate churches, and elective, or archiepiscopal or episcopal, and to exchange them for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. As the pope has learned that the said archdeaconry, which is not an elective dignity and not major, and has cure of souls, value 60 marks, is still void, as above, and also the said rectory of Dissertmolacala (because held for a year and more along with the said other rectories), value 10 marks, he orders them to be collated and assigned to Cornelius, who has studied civil law for three years, and who has hereby dispensation to hold them together for life. [Water-stained.]

16 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 37d.)

To the chancellor of Ross, William Wynchedon, canon of Cork, and a foreign bishop. Mandate to collate and assign to Matthew Ohdyrsgol, perpetual portionary called 'rector' in the parish church of Grenagh, in the diocese of Ross, who has studied canon law for many years at Oxford and Vienna (Wyenne) in the diocese of Passau, the archdeaconry of Ross, which has cure but is not major nor elective, value 18 marks, void by the death of Andrew Yhuollachayn; notwithstanding that he holds the said perpetual portion without cure called a 'rectory' in Grenagh, and another in Tolagh, in the same diocese, value together 6 marks.

5 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 80d.)

To the abbot of Kells (Coneria), the prior of Mokmore (Muckamore), in the diocese of Connor, and Richard Yong, canon of Lincoln. Mandate to collate and assign to Nicholas Goldop, priest 1394.

of the diocese of Connor, who, supported by the favour of king Richard, took possession, without canonical institution, of the archdeaconry and its fruits of Connor, which is a major dignity with cure, not elective, and to which the parish church of Irow (Irué) is annexed, the value of both being 6 marks, on its voidance by the death of John de Onell. The pope has this day by other letters rehabilitated Nicholas, who has studied canon and civil law for six years, and has willed him to resign.

16 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 85d.)

To the archdeacon of Cork, Richard Yeng, canon of Lincoln, and Cornelius Odai, canon of Killaloe. Mandate, on petition of the chapter of Elphin, to collate and assign to Malachy Oflannaga, clerk, of that diocese, scholar of canon law, who has hereby dispensation for the purpose (and has already had dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he was received by authority of the ordinary as a canon of Elphin), the deanery of the same, an elective major dignity, value 8 marks, whether void by the death, as the pope has heard, of Malachy Ymergi, or by that of Constantine Ylannagy, late deans, or otherwise. Malachy is to cease to be canon.

DE PREBENDIS VACANTIBUS.

8 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 160d.)

To Richard Possewik, of Avignon (Aviniane), canon of Dublin. Reservation of the canonries and prebends of St. Davids and Landewybrey, in the diocese of St. Davids, value together 45 marks, which are to become void by the promotion made by the pope and the forthcoming consecration of John, elect of St. Asaph, who was papal chaplain and auditor, and member of the household of Adam, cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's; notwithstanding that he has lately [Reg. Lat. xiii. f. 46d.] had provision from the present pope of the canonry and prebend of Tassegard in Dublin, then void and previously reserved to the pope, value 20 marks, of which he has not yet got possession and that the pope has ordered provision to be made to him of a benefice without cure in the common or several gift of the archbishop, dean and chapter, and each and singular the canons of York.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Hereford, Richard Wyche, canon of Salisbury, and a foreign bishop. [Here with spelling Possewy.]

1393.

14 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 201d.)

To the bishop of Cloyne. Mandate to collate and assign to Geoffroy Galuy, canon of Cork, S.C.L. if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of Kylbrogayn in the same, value 6 marks, void by the death of Vincent Whyt; notwithstanding that he holds therein the canonry and prebend of Kylbryttan, which, upon obtaining the above, are to be resigned.

1394.

11 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 208d.)

To the bishop of Comacchio (Comacien), the abbot of Carrigillihy (de Fontevivo), and the prior of St. Mary's, in the diocese of Ross. Mandate to collate and assign to Donatus 1394.

Odonwayn, clerk, of the diocese of Ross, the canonry and prebend of Island (Insula) in Ross, value 5 marks, void by the death of Donatus Yhuollachayn; notwithstanding that the pope has recently ordered provision to be made to him of the void perpetual vicarage of Kylkyerayn, in the same diocese, value 8 marks, of which he has not yet got possession.

Non. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 232d.)

To the priors of St. John's by Leuenchac (Latteragh), and St. Rogan's, Lochra, in the diocese of Killaloe, and a foreign dean. Mandate to collate and assign to Donald Okenedig, clerk, perpetual beneficiary in lay fee called rector in the parish church of Lochyn, in the diocese of Killaloe, who is by both parents of noble birth, and has studied canon law for three years, the canonry and prebend of Lochkyn in the same, value 8 marks, so long void by the death of Cornelius Maginahuna, that their collation has, by the statutes of the Lateran Council, lapsed to the apostolic see; notwithstanding that he holds his said perpetual benefice called in lay fee, and has recently had from the pope provision of the then void parish church of Nenach, in the same diocese, value 15 marks, and of a benefice, with or without cure, even if a dignity, personatus, or office, in the gift of the bishop of Killaloe.

DE PREBENDIS ET DIGNITATIBUS VACATURIS.

6 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 263.)

To Thomas de Sancto Jacobo. Provision of a canonry of Limerick, with reservation of a prebend and dignity, even if elective, not major, personatus or office; notwithstanding that the pope has recently ordered provision to be made to him of the then void perpetual vicarage of Balegade, in the same diocese, of which he has not yet got possession, and which is, upon obtaining such dignity or personatus, to be resigned.

Concurrent mandate to the archdeacon, and John Archer, canon, of Limerick, and Richard Yong, canon of Lincoln. (Pro Deo.)

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

Ibid.
(f. 299.)

To the archbishop of Cashel. Mandate to make provision to Gerald son of Maurice Ricardi, knight, canon of Limerick, who has studied civil law for four years and a half, if found fit after examination, of a canonry of Cloyne, with reservation of a prebend; notwithstanding that he holds the canonry and prebend of Effyn in Limerick, the parish church of Moynachy in the same diocese, and that the pope has this day made him provision of a canonry of Lismore, with expectation of a prebend.

13 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 302d.)

To the dean of Killaloe. Mandate to make provision to Nemea Ohangaly, perpetual vicar of Usgean, value 2 marks, in the same diocese, priest, scholar of canon law, if found fit after examination, of a canonry of Killaloe, with reservation of a prebend in the gift of the bishop, value 18 marks.

1391.

DE CONSERVATORIIS.

- Non. June. To the dean and archdeacon of Hereford, and the archdeacon St. Peter's, Rome. of Kermerdyn (Carmarthen) in St. Davida. Letters conserva-

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXIII.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

1393.

- 4 Kal. Dec. To Master John Fraunceys, canon of St. Mary's, S[ol]uthwell, St. Peter's, Rome. papal writer and member of the pope's household. Licence to (f. 196.) him, who is also abbreviator of apostolic letters, to resign into the hands of any ordinaries, for purpose of exchange, without leave of the apostolic see, any benefices or dignities below the episcopal, and to such ordinaries to carry out the exchanges.
(Pro socio.)
- 4 Id. Nov. To John Alhart, priest, of the diocese of Ossory. Extension
St. Peter's, Rome. of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and (f. 117.) hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices with or without cure, secular or regular, even if canonries and prebends, or one of them an elective dignity with cure, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, or abbatial, or a regular priory, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces. (Pro Deo.)
- 3 Id. Nov. To the abbot of St. Mary's, Tryme, in the diocese of Meath.
St. Peter's, Rome. Mandate to relax an unlawful oath, as follows. The petition
(f. 120d.) of Richard Petir, rector of St. Mary's, Birewell (Burwell), in the diocese of Norwich, contained that he deputed John Bernardi, clerk, of the diocese of Ely, as his proctor and agent (gestorem) for the administration of the goods of the said church, and that when John rendered his account, it was found that Richard was indebted to John in the sum of 220 marks, and that although Richard entered into a bond to pay, nevertheless John, moved, as is believed, by the intention of disposing of the said church as he chose, with the help of some of his friends caused Richard, under pretext of the bond, to be arrested and imprisoned. Released for a time from prison by the intervention of their common friends, but fearing to be again imprisoned, Richard, under constraint, bound himself anew under penalty of 1000 marks, half to be paid to the camera and half to John, that he would pay 60 marks during the year dating from Christmas 1392, and 40 in successive years until the 220 marks should be fully paid; that meanwhile he would not without John's leave exchange or resign the said church, and would live in the university of Cambridge, or within twenty miles of it; that he would constitute John his proctor for the exchange of the said church, which he did, and would not revoke such constitution under the aforesaid penalty; to all which Richard, against his will, bound himself by oath before a public notary and witnesses. His petition added that he has kept the above as far as regards the payment of the 220 marks, and intends to keep it, but feels himself burdened by the rest, which was extorted unlawfully and by fear. The pope orders the abbot, if he find the above to be true, and provided that Richard make satisfaction in regard to the 220 marks, to relax the oath as far as regards the unlawful agreements, namely, the non-exchange, the non-revocation and residence in or near Cambridge.

1393.

DE FRUCTIBUS PERCIPIENDIS.

1394.

2 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 143.)

To John Chaundeler, canon of Salisbury. Indult to take without keeping residence [the fruits], the daily distributions alone being excepted, of his prebend of Calne and treasurership of Salisbury, and of his other benefices requiring residence, while residing on any of his benefices or in the Roman court or elsewhere.

Concurrent mandate to the deans of London and Wells, and a foreign bishop.

2 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 144.)

To John de Lynne, rector of Bernes, in the diocese of Winchester. Indult while resident at Bernes to take without keeping residence the fruits of his perpetual benefice without cure, called a minor canonry in London, of small annual value, on account of which he is bound to be present at canonical hours or divine offices by day and night.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Westminster, and the archdeacons of Bedford and Oxford in Lincoln.

1394.

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

7 Kal. Nov. To Henry Thirillowe. Provision to him, a Friar Minor in
St. Peter's, Rome.
 (f. 161.) priest's orders, of the see of Annadown, reserved by the present pope in the lifetime of bishop John.

Concurrent letters to the chapter of Annadown, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the archbishop of Tuam, and to king Richard.

PRO DOMINIS CARDINALIBUS.

11 Kal. Oct. To the archbishop of Dublin. Mandate to summon Thomas
St. Peter's, Rome.
 (f. 190.) Evordon, canon of Dublin, who, as Landulph, cardinal deacon of St. Nicholas in Carcere Tulliano, has set forth to the pope, after the cardinal had obtained by papal authority the deanery of the same, a dignity (on its voidance by Master Henry Bowet, papal chaplain, obtaining by the same authority the archdeaconry of Lincoln, which has cure of souls), and had held it quietly for some years, intruded himself and despoiled the cardinal thereof. Thomas, who has also despoiled him of movable goods to the value of 4000 gold ducats and more belonging to him on account of the deanery, has been helped by officers of king Richard in Ireland, by Robert Corl, canon of Dublin, and by others. He has also in many ways vexed the cardinal's proctors in the court of the said officers, and—to use their words—by royal writs. If the above be found to be true, the archbishop is to assign a term for Thomas to give up possession of the deanery to the cardinal, and restore the said goods or their value, and fruits received; and to warn Robert and others, cleric and lay, against assisting Thomas; otherwise, to deprive of their benefices Thomas and those of the others who are clerks, and to render them unable to hold others, invoking, if necessary, the secular arm. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

1393.

3 Kal. Dec.

St. Peter's, Rome.
 (f. 199.)

To Nicholas, elect of Potenza, dwelling in the Roman court.
 Mandate, motu proprio, to surrogate to the clerk named below, who has died while his suit was pending, Marinus, cardinal deacon of New St. Mary's, who has recently set forth to the pope that a cause arose lately between John Maundon, canon of Wells, and the late Hugh de Herle, clerk, and himself about the archdeaconry of Durham, papal provision of which was made to him on its voidance through the deprivation by Urban VI. of Pileus, bishop of Tusculum, which provision John and Hugh, each claiming the archdeaconry, opposed, and John still opposes, preventing its taking effect. The cause, lawfully introduced to the apostolic court, was committed by Urban VI. at the cardinal's instance to John, bishop of Hereford, and then to the late Master Henry Godebarn, chaplains and auditors, and by the present pope in succession to Masters John de Dulmen and Richard Yong, and to the above bishop elect, then chaplain and auditor. The bishop is, moreover, to make 1393.

provision to the cardinal of the said archdeaconry, which is wont to be held by secular clerks, and whose value is 250 marks. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

1394.

11 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 203.)

To James Dardani, archdeacon of Norfolk, collector to the camera in England. Power to carry out the exchange desired by Raynald, cardinal deacon of St. Vitus's in the Shambles (in Macello), of his canonry and prebend of Beckingham in St Mary's, Southwell, for some other benefice in England. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXIV.

DE PROVISIONIBUS PRELATORUM.

1394.

17 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 10.)

To Gerald Caneton. Provision to him, an Augustinian friar, in priest's orders, of the see of Cloyne, void and therefore reserved (under the pope's late reservation of cathedral churches void through papal deprivation) by the recent deprivation by the pope of Richard, sometime bishop, although absent, for his faults and demerits.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to the archbishop of Cashel, and to king Richard.

5 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 29.)

To Robert [Read]. Provision to him, a Friar Preacher, S.T.M. of the see of Lismore and Waterford, void by the death of Thomas, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter of Waterford and Lismore, and of Lismore and Waterford, to the people and to the clergy of Lismore and Waterford, and of Waterford and Lismore, and to the archbishop of Cashel, and to king Richard. (De mandato.) [Burke, Hibernia Dominicana (1762), 467; from Ripoll, Bullarium Prædicatorum II. 345.]

16 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 32.)

To John Omachan. Provision to him, priest, of the diocese of Achonry, of the see of Derry, void by the translation this day of John [Dongan] to Down.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the archbishop of Armagh, and to king Richard.

Ibid.
(f. 36.)

Translation of John bishop of Derry to the see of Down, void by the death of bishop John, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the archbishop of Armagh, and to king Richard.

1394.

12 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 39.)

To John Trevor. Provision to him—who is canon of St. Asaph, doctor of canon and civil law, papal chaplain and auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, in priest's orders—of the see of St. Asaph, void by the death of Alexander, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to the archbishop of Canterbury, and to king Richard.

1393.

Non. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 48.)

To Peter [de Bosco]. Provision to him, who is archdeacon of Cernès (Sarnen.) in Bordeaux, B.C.L., papal secretary and chamberlain, of the see of Dax, void by the death of John, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people, to the vassals, to the archbishop of Auch, and to king Richard. (De mandata.) [Fœdera.]

7 Id. March.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 57.)

Translation of Henry, bishop of Greenland, who is present at the apostolic see, from the see of Greenland (Garden.) to that of Orkney, void by the translation this day of John bishop thereof to Greenland. The translations are made for the greater utility of both sees.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, and to the archbishop of Thrunthjem.

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

1393.

14 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 129d.)

To the archbishop of York, the bishop of Tuy, and the master of the schools (scholasticus) of St. John's, Liège. Mandate to proceed to the execution, against any intruders, of certain papal letters as below. Pincellus, cardinal priest of St. Clement's, has set forth to the pope that in his cause at the apostolic see against John Bodelisham, canon of Linceln, about the archdeaconry of Leicester, of which he obtained collation by papal authority, holding possession in peace for some time, which possession the said John then hindered, he gained a definitive sentence and letters of execution; and that while the cause was pending John Elvet, clerk of the diocese of Durham, despoiled him and has intruded himself. Power is hereby given them to deprive Elvet if disobedient, and to render him unable to hold any benefices, etc. (Pro domino Cardinali.) 1394.

7 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136d.)

To the archbishop of York, etc. as f. 129d. Mandate, recapitulating the above circumstances and mandate, to fix a term in which John Elvet, or other intruder, is to resign and make satisfaction for fruits received, under pain of deprivation and disability to hold any benefices. Faculty is hereby given to publish processes, monitions, and citations in Flanders and other places on this side of the sea, near England, which shall be binding as though personally served. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

1394.

8 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To Bartholomew, cardinal priest of St. Martin's in Montibus. Provision, motu proprio, of the treasurership of Salisbury, void by the death at the apostolic see of Francis, bishop of Palestrina, vicechancellor of the Roman church, the value of which, together with that of the canonry and prebend of Aleystonia in Lincoln, provision of which the pope has also this day made to him, is 1500 florins.

Concurrent mandate to the patriarch of Grado and the bishops of Durham and Gubbio. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

DE PLENARIA REMISSIONE.

1393.

(ff. 169 sqq.)

[Indults to the underwritten persons that the confessor of their choice may give them, being penitent and having confessed, plenary remission once only in the article of death; with the usual safeguards.]*

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXV.

6 BONIFACE IX.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

1395.
 6 Kal. March. To William Nicolai, of Schefelde. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he received the tonsure, so that he may hold two other mutually compatible benefices with or without cure, even if they be canonries and prebends or dignities, personatus, or offices in metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate churches, or in regular places, and such dignities be major in the two former, or principal in the two latter, and may exchange them as often as he pleases for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1394.
 2 Id. Nov. To the bishop of Carlisle. Mandate to absolve from the sentence of excommunication incurred, imposing a salutary penance, and afterwards to dispense (first separating them for a time) to contract marriage anew, declaring their past and future offspring legitimate, Thomas Warcop, of Lambertfet, dowsel, and Margaret Plumland, damsel, who married knowing that Margaret and Joan de Smerdal, Thomas's first wife, were related in the third degree of kindred, and therefore Thomas and Margaret in the third degree of affinity. The survivor is to remain unmarried.

1395.
 4 Kal. Nov. To the inhabitants (universitati) of the town of Strangesham, in the diocese of Worcester. Indult to them—who have lately obtained an indult from the present pope to have in time of necessity their dead buried by any fit priest of their choice, at the church, otherwise called chapel, built in the said town; the monastery of Pershore, where their dead have been from time immemorial buried, being difficult of access in winter on account of floods—to have their dead thus buried at any time soever, even when no such necessity exists. [Note in left-hand margin: Cancelletur alia si reperiatur, quia per istam corrigitur.]

1395.

11 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 22d.)

To John Ixworth, of Cambridge, rector of Sevenok, in the diocese of Rochester, B.C.L. Dispensation to him—who is priest, has lately taken his degree of B.C.L. at Cambridge, has followed the Roman court for some years, and still does so; to whom the said church, value 50 marks, collation of which he received by papal authority, has been adjudged at the cost of great labour and expense; and to whom the present pope has lately made provision of canonries of Salisbury, London, and Westbury, in the diocese of Worcester, with expectation of prebends, and of a major dignity in London, personatus or office, with or without cure—to hold for life, together with the said parish church, one other elective dignity with cure, major or principal respectively, personatus or office, in a metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate church, and to exchange both as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

12 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 28.)

Relaxation of seven years and seven quadrages to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year, those of the dedication, Holy Trinity, SS. Philip and James, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who, during the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms to the fabric of the church of St. Asaph.

8 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 51.)

Relaxation of two years and two quadrages to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year, and that of the dedication, the usual octaves and days; and of a hundred days to those who, as usual, visit and give alms for the repair of the parish church of St. Andrew on the Hill, Lincoln.

4 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 71.)

To William de Lalanad, clerk, of the diocese of Lincoln. Dispensation to him, which is in his twenty-first year, and has studied civil law for several years, to be promoted to all holy orders, and hold and exchange a benefice even with cure.

DE REGULARIBUS.

6 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 82d.)

To the abbot and convent of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church. Indult that whenever, as often happens, the abbot is prevented by absence or by infirmity or otherwise from admitting the professions of novices in the said monastery, its priory and cells, from absolving them and other monks, and granting them dispensation for irregularity when contracted, the claustral prior may do so in his stead.

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 84.)

To the bishop of Chichester. Mandate to summon John Symonde, priest, of the diocese of Rochester, and others concerned, and to make order touching the chapel of St. Edmund, near Dotteforde, which belongs to the Augustinian prioress and convent of the monastery of Dotteforde (Dartford), in the diocese of Rochester, is not a benefice, requires no canonical institution, and has been unlawfully taken possession of by the said John.

1395.

9 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(C. 87d.)

To the Benedictine abbot and convent of St. Peter's, Gloucester. Licence, except on days when it is prohibited by the canons to do so, to eat flesh meat from Septuagesima Sunday to Quinquagesima Sunday inclusive, their statutes and those of the order forbidding the same, although it is commonly permitted in many monasteries of their order in England. Nobles and other guests have to eat flesh, for there is no supply of fish, their monastery being 40 English miles from the sea.

Ibid.
(C. 88d.)

To the abbot and convent of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church, and all priors and rectors of its dependent or otherwise subject priories, cells, churches, chapels, portions, and benefices. Indult to let to farm their fruits, possessions, etc. to any persons, even laymen. [Cancelled with strokes, and note in the left-hand margin: cancellata quia propter suum nimiam, etiam in dato, correctionem de anno undecimo registrata est. The date has been altered in the margin from sexto non. Oct. anno sexto to duodecimo kal. Maii anno undecimo. See Reg. Lat. lxxix. f. 280d.]

6 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(C. 88d.)

To the abbot of the monastery of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church. Indult to him and his successors to bless chalices, patens, sacerdotal vestments and other ecclesiastical ornaments belonging to the said monastery and its dependent or otherwise subject priories, cells, churches, chapels, and other places.

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(C. 88d.)

Confirmation at the recent petition of the prioress and convent of the Augustinian monastery of Derteforde, living according to the institutes and under the care of the order of Friars Preachers, in the diocese of Rochester, of (i.) John XXII's licence [Cal. Lett. II. 217] to Edward [II.], king of England, to found and build a monastery of the above order, which Eleanor, queen of England, his mother, had intended to do, but was prevented by death; (ii.) his grant [Cal. Lett. ibid.] dated at Avignon, 6 Id. June, anno 5, exemplification of which is here given, to such monastery when founded of a certain privilege, on the model of his similar privilege to the prioress and sisters of the monastery of Beaumont (de Bellomonte), situate in Valenciennes (Valencenis), of freedom from tithes from their possessions; from annual rent or cess therefrom to the diocesan bishops; from pedages, tolls (thalanea), and other exactions to kings or other secular persons; from procurations to papal legates or nuncios; and from tenth or other portion, or any subvention, even though the papal letters thereabout expressly mention that they extend to any places and monasteries soever, exempt or not exempt—unless they make full and express mention of the preceding privilege and monastery; exemption from the jurisdiction of patriarchs, archbishops, diocesan bishops, and others; and enjoyment of the privileges of the Friars Preachers; (iii.) the founding in the town of Derteforde, in virtue of the above licence, of the above monastery by the successors of the said king, who died without doing so. [See Reg. Lat. xxxviii.]

1395.

f. 6d. Ripoll, Bullarium Præd. ii. 353, omitting date of John XXII.'s privilege, as well as the above part (iii.).]

12 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 109.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops of Norwich and Tuy. Mandate to carry out the ordinances, here recapitulated, of Benedict XII. touching apostates in regard to Thomas Fornessete, Augustinian canon of Walsingham, bearer of these presents, who having left his order desires to be reconciled to it.

8 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(119d.)

To Walter Cook. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Milton Ecclesia, in Lincoln, value 100 marks, void by exchange with Master Andrew Baret, papal chaplain and auditor, for the canonry and prebend of Holborne in London, the resignations having been made to the pope; with dispensation motu proprio to hold the same with his other benefices.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Tuy, the archdeacon of Durham, and William Waltham, canon of Salisbury.

DE FRUCTIBUS PERCIPIENDIS.

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 150.)

To William Langbrok, treasurer of Wells, licentiate of canon law. Indult to take the fruits of his treasurership of Wells and other benefices, the daily distributions alone being excepted, while engaged in the service of king Richard, or of John, duke of Lancaster, or while studying letters at an university, or residing in any of his benefices.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury, the abbot of Glastonbury, in the diocese of Wells, and the official of Salisbury.

Ibid.
(f. 152.)

To John Wodeman, perpetual vicar of South Pederton, in the diocese of Wells. Indult for seven years to take the fruits of his vicarage and other benefices, the daily distributions alone being excepted, while studying letters at an university.

Concurrent mandate to the prior of Bruton, in the diocese of Wells, the chancellor of Wells, and the archdeacon of Barnastapol, in Exeter.

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 154.)

To Master Thomas de Walkington, archdeacon of Cleveland, doctor of canon law, papal chaplain. Indult for seven years to him, who is also auditor of causes of the apostolic palace, to take the fruits of his archdeaconry and other benefices, the daily distributions alone being excepted, while studying letters or residing in any of his benefices.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Salisbury, the abbot of Ossney, and the prior of St. Frideswide's.

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 155.)

To John Rympton, perpetual vicar of Kyngesbury Episcopi, in the diocese of Wells. Indult as above, f. 152.

Concurrent mandate as above, ibid.

DE OFFICIO NOTARIATUS.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(ff. 154-156.)

The office of notary public is conferred, or ordered to be conferred, on the underwritten persons, the form of oath taken, or to be taken, being in each case appended.

1394.

4 Non. Dec. William Ferroure, unmarried clerk, not in holy orders, of the diocese of Winchester, who has been found fit after examination by Master Bartholomew Francisci, provost of St. Stephen's, Prato, in the diocese of Pistoja, papal notary, regent of the chancery of the holy Roman Church.

6 Kal. Dec. John Irdeslegh, unmarried clerk, not in holy orders, of the diocese of Lichfield; by the abbot of Cokyrland, if found fit after examination.

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

13 Kal. Nov. To Gilbert alias Comedinus Macbradaych. Provision of the St. Peter's, Rome. see of Ardagh (Archaden. with variants, Archadien. Ardechaden.), (f. 211d.) void by the death of bishop John, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to king Richard, to the chapter of Ardagh, and to the archbishop of Armagh.

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

Kal. Feb. To Raynald, cardinal deacon of St. Vitus's in the Shambles.
St. Peter's, Rome. Reservation motu proprio of the canonry and prebend of (f. 261.) Bychull cum Gnaresbourn, in York, value 100 marks, which are shortly to become void by the promotion by the pope, and the forthcoming consecration of Edmund, elect of Exeter.

Concurrent mandate to the patriarch of Grado, the provost of Beverley, and the dean of Lincoln. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

18 Kal. Feb. To Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriac's. Reservation
(f. 262d.) motu proprio of the canonry and prebend of Wyforde, in Lichfield, value 70 marks, and the canonry and prebend of Lincoln, value 24 marks, which are to become void in the same way.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Anglona, Castro, and St. Asaph. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

Id. July. To Henry, cardinal priest of St. Anastasia's. Reservation
St. Peter's, Rome. and assignation for life motu proprio of a yearly provision of (f. 263d.) 200 gold florins of the camera on the fruits of the archdeaconry of Taunton, to be paid by the archdeacon on or within a month after the feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, under pain of excommunication, not to be removed except in the hour of death. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

8 Id. Sept. To Landulph, cardinal deacon of St. Nicholas's in Carcere
St. Peter's, Rome. Tulliano. Licence to resign to the archbishop of Dublin (cor-
(f. 264d.) rected in margin from bishop of Ossory, as originally in text) his deanery of Dublin, which he holds by grant of the apostolic see, for the purpose of exchanging it against any other benefice, without requiring the licence of the said see; and to the archbishop to carry out the exchange. The archbishop is to certify the camera or its collector in those parts of date and names. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXVI.

1395.

DE EXHIBITIS.

7 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 81.)

To William, archbishop of Canterbury. Faculty to erect the parish church of Maydenston, value 200 marks, on the resignation or death of the present rector, into a collegiate church, and to institute therein a college of a master with cure of souls of the parishioners, chaplains, and clerks, to the number of twenty-four or other number, and to endow the said church.

11 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 92d.)

To the archdeacon of Durham (corrected in margin from the official of Salisbury, as originally in text). Mandate to collate and assign to William de Waltham, canon of Salisbury, if found fit after examination, the canonry and prebend of Chalk in Wilton—in the church of which monastery, in addition to the abbess and convent, there are a number of secular canons holding prebends—value 150 marks, which he obtained by exchange with John Colseye (corrected in margin from Robert called Magister hospitii, as originally in text) for a canonry and prebend of Wells, this exchange being made by John, bishop of Salisbury, who had power from Ralph, bishop of Wells. As William doubts whether for certain causes the bishop's collation of the said canonry and prebend holds good, they are to be collated to him whether they be void as above or by the resignation made to the pope of Angelus, cardinal deacon of St. Lucy's in Septem solis (Sette Sale), or in any other way; notwithstanding that he holds the church of Algarkerke, in the diocese of Lincoln, and canonries and prebends of York and Salisbury, and that the pope has lately ordered provision to be made to him of a canonry and prebend of London then void, the value of all which is 300 marks, and also under date of 5 Id. Nov. anno 1 of a dignity, personatus, or office, with or without cure, void or to be void, in Salisbury.

14 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 133d.)

To the archbishop of Cashel, and the deans of Cloyne and Limerick. Mandate to collate and assign to Nicholas Oconeyle, clerk, of the diocese of Cloyne, the canonry and prebend of Iniscar in Cloyne, value 3 marks, which he obtained by authority of bishop Gerald on their voidance by the death of Robert Roche, and doubts whether for certain causes the bishop's collation holds good. (Pro Deo.)

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

4 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(L. 147.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops of London and Tui. Mandate to cause to be observed the statute and ordinance made by Michael, late bishop of London, in the cause in which both parties had recourse to him, namely the late John Barnet, then archdeacon of London, and all the rectors of parish churches in the archdeaconry, about a certain yearly pension which they were bound to pay to him in common, and refused. The bishop, with the consent of the dean and chapter, ordained 1395.

that each rector should pay as yearly pension certain pence and shillings to the archdeacon for the time being, as was contained in a public instrument under the seals of the bishop, and of the dean and chapter. At the petition of Thomas [Baketon], archdeacon of London, Urban VI. confirmed the bishop's ordinance, giving exemplification thereof; and the recent petition of the same to the present pope contains that some of the rectors refuse to observe it.

3 Id. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To Thomas de Aston, archdeacon of Stowe. Indult for life to him, who is a septuagenarian and has divers infirmities, to visit his archdeaconry by deputy and receive moderate procurations in ready money.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of London and the archdeacons of Norfolk and Buckingham.

6 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 161.)

To Nicholas Slake, canon of the free royal chapel of Windsor [corrected in margin from archdeacon of Chester, cancelled]. Extension, at the petition of king Richard, whose continual commensal chaplain he is, of successive dispensations on account of illegitimacy—(i.) to be ordained and hold any three mutually compatible benefices, even if one were a dignity, personatus or office, or a canonry and prebend in a cathedral or collegiate church, and had cure of souls, and to exchange them as often as he pleased for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices, after which he was ordained and obtained the above canonry and the archdeaconry of Chester; (ii.) to hold four benefices, even if one were an elective major dignity with cure, personatus or office, and to exchange them as often as he pleased for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices; with grant that his illegitimacy needed not to be mentioned in future graces—so that he may hold any benefices, of any number and kind, with or without cure, even if pontifical dignities, personatus or offices in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and may exchange them as often as he pleases for similar or dissimilar benefices.

1394.

8 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 162.)

Relaxation of seven years and seven *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year, and those of St. Patrick and the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and days visit and give alms for the repair of the church of Dublin, whose bell-tower has fallen and thrown down a great part of the church.

1395.

14 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 164.)

To John Maydenhithe, rector of St. Dunstan's by the Tower of London, B.C.L. Dispensation to him,—who holds canonries and prebends of St. Martin's-le-Grand London, Salisbury, and Hergredibrey (Heytesbury) in the diocese of Salisbury, value together with St. Dunstan's 150 marks—to hold two incompatible benefices, even if they be dignities, personatus or 1395.

offices [with or without cure] in metropolitan or cathedral churches, and one of them an elective major dignity therein, and to exchange them as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

Ibid.
(f. 164d.)

To Richard Pittes, rector of Wyly, in the diocese of Salisbury. The like to him who holds also a canonry and prebend of Salisbury, value together with the said church 90 marks.

7 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 176.)

Relaxation of enjoined penance to penitents:—(i.) seven years and seven quadrages to those who on the principal feasts of the year and those of St. Thomas of Canterbury visit and give alms for the repair, conservation, or fabric of the church of Canterbury and the tomb in which his body was placed after his canonization and now lies, or either of them; (ii.) three years and three quadrages to those who on the said feasts and on every Wednesday from the beginning of Lent until Whitsun day similarly visit and give alms to the chapel called the Crown in which there is preserved a part of the saint's head, the altar at which he was martyred, and the tomb in which his body lay before canonization, or any one of them.

10 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 178d.)

Exhortation to give alms towards the repair of the cloister of the Benedictine priory of St. Mary, Worcester, which the prior and chapter have not means to do; with relaxation during ten years of seven years and seven quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who do so.

3 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 181.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of three years and three quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who, on the principal feasts and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who, during the said octaves and days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of Kildare (Daren).

4 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 187d.)

Appropriation motu propria to the episcopal mensa of Ely, of the parish church of Summersham, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the gift of the bishop of Ely; to take effect on the resignation or death of the present rector, who is a cardinal of the holy Roman church. A fitting portion for a perpetual vicar is to be reserved. (De mandato.)

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 188.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feast of Holy Trinity visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of Holy Trinity, Wetenaston, in the parish of Lappeley, in the diocese of Lichfield.

8 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 189.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of three years and three quadrages to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the usual octaves and days; and of a hundred days to those who, during the said octaves and days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of the Augustinian monastery of St. Catherine, Floxton, in the diocese of Norwich.

1395.

13 Kal. Aug. The like for visits and alms to the parish church of Marcham
St. Peter's, Rome. in the same diocese.
(f. 189d.)

2 Non. Sept. To Richard Lopham, clerk, of London. Dispensation to him, St. Peter's, Rome. who is in his fifteenth year, to hold a benefice with cure, even if
(f. 195.) elective and if a dignity, major in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus, or office.

6 Id. Sept. To Richard, king of England. Indult to him—to whom the St. Peter's, Rome. pope has lately granted an indult whereby clerks and priests, (f. 195d.) religious or secular, members of his household, who have been wont to say the canonical hours with him after the manner (morem) of the Friars Preachers, which differs somewhat from that of the Roman church, might be free to do so, and not be bound to observe any other mode—that in case of their absence, with intent to return to him, they may during two months have the same liberty. [Ripoll, Bullarium Præd. ii. 352.]

2 Kal. Sept. Ordinance, on information of king Richard and the minister St. Peter's, Rome. and Friars Minors of the English province and others to the (f. 199.) effect that an increasing number of members of the order in that province, without licence of their superiors, go or send to the Roman court, and get themselves received as papal chaplains, abuse the immunities, liberties, and privileges thereof, despise the obedience and correction of their superiors, and run about through the world, that all such shall be subject to their superiors in all things, and be present at divine offices by night and day as if they were not such chaplains.

15 Kal. Oct. Relaxation of seven years and seven quadragene of enjoined
St. Peter's, Rome. penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year
(f. 200.) and those of the dedication, St. Keranus, bishop, and St.
Canicus, abbot, the usual octaves and six days; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of Ossory.

10 Kal. Oct. To Richard Hals, rector of St. Ives in Cornwall, B.C.L. Dis-
St. Peter's, Rome. pensation to him, who holds also a canonry and prebend of St.
(f. 205.) Cross, Crediton, value together with his said church 70 marks, to hold two benefices with cure or otherwise incompatible, even if one of them be an elective dignity with cure, major or principal respectively, in a cathedral or collegiate church, and to exchange them as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

2 Non. Sept. To Maurice Macgallenanem, canon of Ardagh. Extension
St. Peter's, Rome. of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, to be ordained
(f. 206d.) and hold a benefice even with cure, after which he obtained his canonry by ordinary authority, so that he may hold any mutually compatible benefices, of any number and kind, with and without cure, and exchange them as often as he pleases for similar or dissimilar [mutually] compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

1395.

9 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 213d.)

To Ralph Selby, archdeacon of Buckingham. Indult for two years to visit his archdeaconry by deputy and receive procurations in ready money to the daily amount of 30 silver [gross] Tournois, 12 to the gold florin of Florence.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of London, and the priors of Barnwell and Anglissey, in the diocese of Ely.

3 Non. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 214d.)

To Richard Ofeargayl, clerk, of the diocese of Arlagh. Extension of dispensation as the son of a priest, to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold any mutually compatible benefices, of any number and kind, with and without cure, and may exchange them as often as seems good to him for similar or dissimilar mutually incompatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

15 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 216d.)

To Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells. Faculty for five years to reconcile churches, chapels, and cemeteries of his diocese by a fit priest, the water having been blessed by himself or by any other bishop.

12 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 217.)

To Llewelyn ap Rys, rector of Langeby, in the diocese of Bangor. Extension of dispensation on account of illegitimacy, to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, so that he may hold two other compatible benefices, even if canonries and prebends in cathedral or collegiate churches, and may exchange them as often as he pleases for similar or dissimilar mutually compatible benefices. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 217d.)

To Walter Cook. Provision of the archdeaconry of Berkshire (Burchirie) in Salisbury, value 120 marks. Cook received provision by papal authority of the canonry and prebend of Warthill in York, on their voidance by the death of Richard Carleton, but did not obtain possession; and Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriaco's, received from the pope provision of the archdeaconry, void by the death of Andrew, cardinal priest of SS. Marcellinus and Peter, and previously reserved, and likewise did not obtain possession. Cardinal Christopher and Walter (who had formerly received by authority of the ordinary collation of the said archdeaconry on its voidance, as was wrongly believed, otherwise than by the death of cardinal Andrew, under pretext of which collation he believes that he obtained possession) have, for the purpose of exchange, resigned the said benefices to the pope, who has admitted the resignations. The provision is made notwithstanding that Cook is litigating in the apostolic palace about the church of Brompton in Pykering Lith, in the diocese of York, the canonry and prebend of Holborn, and the chancellorship of London, a dignity with cure, value altogether 240 marks, has lately received from the pope provision of a canonry of Lincoln with expectation of a prebend, and has had dispensation to hold two benefices with cure, even if one were an 1395.

elective major dignity in a cathedral or metropolitan church, and to exchange them as often as seemed good for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. He has hereby dispensation to hold the archdeaconry with the said chancellorship, and to exchange both as often as seems good for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices, even if in cathedral or collegiate churches, major or principal respectively, with cure and elective. Upon obtaining the archdeaconry and chancellorship, the said church is to be resigned. [See Reg. xxxvii. f. 220d.]

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Tuy, William Waltham, and Richard Holm, canons of Salisbury.

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 221d.)

Relaxation of three years and three quadragene to penitents who, on the feast of St. Edmund, visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Edmund, king and martyr, Spytelothestrete, alias Herwyk, in the parish of Holmeswelle, in the diocese of Lincoln.

11 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 229d.)

To William Flete, rector of St. Peter's, Staunford, in the diocese of Lincoln, bachelor of canon law. Dispensation to hold one other benefice with cure, and exchange it, as well as St. Peter's, whose value is 20 marks, as often as seems good, for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

Ibid.
(f. 230.)

To John Brocle (corrected in margin from Brocke, as in the text), rector of Great Horkysleygh, in the diocese of London. Dispensation to hold one other benefice with cure, even if a dignity, personatus, or office in a collegiate church, and to exchange it, as well as his said parish church, whose value is 20 marks, as often as seems good, for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

3 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 230d.)

To Richard Corteney, canon of Lincoln. Extension, at the petition also of his uncle, William, archbishop of Canterbury, to him, who is in his fourteenth year and of noble birth, of the dispensation granted to him when in the same year—to hold any benefice with cure, even if a dignity, personatus, administration with or without cure, or office, in a cathedral, metropolitan, [or collegiate church, and such dignity] were [in a cathedral or metropolitan] church major after the pontifical, or principal in a collegiate, and were elective, and to exchange it as often as he pleased for a similar or dissimilar benefice—so that he, who holds canonries and prebends in Lincoln, London, Wells, and Chichester, in the conventual church of Wylton, and in the royal chapel of Boscham, and holds the deanery of St. Michael's, South Mallyng, in the dioceses of Salisbury and Chichester, value together 320 marks, may hold two mutually incompatible benefices, even if one be an elective dignity with cure, major in a cathedral or metropolitan, or principal and united in a collegiate church, and may exchange them as often as seems good for similar or dissimilar benefices.

Ibid.
(f. 231.)

To John Prophete, dean of Hereford. Dispensation, at the petition also of William, archbishop of Canterbury, to him, who holds together with his deanery, which is an elective major dignity with cure, canonries and prebends in Lincoln, St. Asaph, Abergwyly, Lledbury, and Tamworth, the free sinecure chapel of St. Tiriot, in the dioceses of St. Davids, Hereford, and Lichfield, value together 370 marks, to hold for three years two mutually incompatible benefices, even if one be an elective dignity with cure, major in a cathedral or metropolitan or principal and united in a collegiate church and to exchange them meanwhile as often as seems good for similar or dissimilar benefices.

1395.

Ibid.
(f. 231d.)

To Henry Broun, rector of Cheyham, in the diocese of Winchester. Dispensation, at the petition of the same archbishop, of whose household he is a continual inmate, and registrar of his letters, to hold for three years, etc. as in the preceding. The value of Cheyham is 40 marks.

12 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 240.)

To John, bishop of St. Asaph. Faculty to confer the office of notary on twelve persons, even if married or in holy orders, to be examined by him; with the form of oath appended.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 240.)

To John Bernardi, rector of Lythum, in the diocese of York, licentiate of civil law. Dispensation to him, who holds also the canonry and prebend of Shyldon in Aukeland, value, together with Lythum, 163 marks, to hold one other benefice with cure, even if it be a dignity, personatus or office, in a cathedral or metropolitan or a collegiate church, even a major dignity, or be a perpetual vicarage with obligation of residence by the statutes of Otho and Ottobon, and to exchange it, as well as Lythum, as often as seems good, for two incompatible benefices.

2 Non. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 248.)

Relaxation of five years and five quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the feasts of the Blessed Virgin visit and give alms for the conservation of her chapel by the gate, on the wall of the monastery of St. Mary's, York.

6 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 249d.)

The like to penitents who, on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the usual octaves and days; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the altar of St. James in the church of the Benedictine priory of St. Gutlac without the walls, Hereford.

Ibid.
(f. 250.)

The like in favour of the chapel of All Saints in St. Peter's monastery, Gloucester, commonly called the chapel of Walter Froucest[re], abbot.

Ibid.
(f. 250d.)

The like, with the addition of the feast of St. Leonard, in favour of St. Leonard's chapel in the church of the Benedictine priory of Stanley Monachorum, in the diocese of Worcester.

15 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 252d.)

To the bishop of Hereford and the abbots of Strata Marcella and Vallis crucis, in the diocese of St. Asaph. Mandate as above, Reg. Vat. cccxiv. f. 345.

1395.

Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 257.)

Relaxation, during ten years, of three years and three quadragene to penitents who, etc. as above, f. 249*d*. visit and give alms for the fabric or repair of the parish church of St. Mary, Kypax, in the diocese of York.

4 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 257*d*.)

The like to penitents who, etc. as above, f. 249*d*. visit and give alms for the completion of the church of St. Peter, Crowmere, in the diocese of Norwich, the building of which has been begun.

5 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 265.)

To the abbots of Dorchester, New Abbey (Novomonasterio) by the Tower, and Langley, in the dioceses of Lincoln, London, and Norwich. Mandate—as the pope has learned that a contention has arisen between prelates, rectors, and the secular clergy, of the one part, and the Friars Minors and Friars Preachers, of the other part, of the province of England, about the hearing of confessions and the absolution of those who wish to confess—to cause to be observed the constitution Vas electionis, doctor eximius of John XXII. [Extrav. Commun. V. iii. 2], of which exemplification is here given, about the sacrament of penance. The pope further orders the three abbots not to permit the friars and those who confess to them to be molested by the said secular clergy, compelling by ecclesiastical censure without appeal.

15 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 276.)

Relaxation as above, f. 257, to penitents who, etc. as above, f. 249*d*. visit and give alms for the conservation of the church of St. Mary, of the Augustinian priory of Stonlee, in the diocese of Lincoln.

12 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 281*d*.)

To John, bishop of St. Asaph. Faculty to grant dispensation to six persons of his kindred, on attaining their twentieth year, to hold a benefice with cure, even if an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus or office, and to exchange it as often as they please for a similar or dissimilar benefice.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 282.)

To Thomas Pattesle, rector of St. Giles's, Tyd, in the diocese of Ely. Dispensation to hold one other benefice, even . . . benefices, as above, f. 240. The value of Tyd is 80 marks.

2 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 288.)

To the bishops of London and Salisbury. Mandate to receive the oath of fealty, according to the form enclosed, from Tydeman, recently translated from the see of Llandaff to that of Worcester, to save him the labour and expense of a journey to Rome, and to send it by his letters patent under seal to the pope.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXVII.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

1395.

12 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 2.)

To Richard Ofeargayl, clerk, of the diocese of Ardagh. Reservation of a benefice with cure, value 25 marks, in the common or several gift of the Augustinian prior and convent of Dristernach and (nec non) in the similar gift of the Augustinian prioress and convent of Lochsed, in the diocese of Meath.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Armagh, the bishop of Dax, and the official of Armagh. (Pro Deo.)

19 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 87d.)

To the dean of Ferns. Mandate to reserve to Walter Ogdredi, clerk, of the diocese of Ferns, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice, value 25 marks with cure or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the Cistercian abbot and convent of St. Mary's vow, Tintern (de voto Sancte Marie de Tynterna) in the said diocese.

Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 104.)

To Jerward ab David, priest, of the diocese of Bangor. Reservation of a like benefice in the gift of the bishop of St. Asaph, provided it be not a cathedral canonry and prebend.

Concurrent mandate to the provost of Dorla, in the diocese of Mainz, and the dean and archdeacon of St. Asaph. (Pro Deo.)

4 Non. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 129d.)

To Howel ap Jevan, priest, of the diocese of St. Davida. Reservation of a like benefice in the common or several gift of the bishop and chapter of St. Davida, provided, etc. as above; notwithstanding that the pope has recently ordered provision to be made to him of the vicarage of Llanrystat, in the same diocese, then void, which is, upon his obtaining such benefice with cure, to be resigned.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Hereford, and the abbots of Strata Florida and Talley, in the diocese of St. Davida. (Pro Deo.)

Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 166.)

To Maurice Macgillananem, clerk, of the diocese of Ardagh. Reservation to him, who is scholar of canon and civil law, of a benefice with cure, value 25 marks, in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter, and each of the canons of Ardagh.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Armagh, the bishop of Dax, and the archdeacon of Armagh. (Pro Deo.)

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM

4 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 217.)

To Master Hermann de Biluelt. Mandate, motu proprio, to surrogate Philip, bishop of Ostia, to the late John Stacy, clerk, in respect of the canonry and prebend of Massan in York, value 200 marks, and to collate and assign the same to him. A cause arose between the said cardinal and Stacy about the said canonry and prebend, provision of which the former asserted 1395.

to have been made to him by papal authority on their voidance at the apostolic see by the death of John Mombray, papal notary, during whose lifetime they had been reserved, which provision Stacy opposed, hindering it from taking effect and intruding himself. The cause, although not lawfully devolving to the Roman court, was committed by Urban VI. to Master John Egidii, who cited Stacy, and to the late [Master] Henry Godbarn; by the present pope to Master John de Dulmen, chaplains and auditors, and then to the above Master Hermann, while the cause was pending before whom Stacy has died in possession. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 220d.)

To Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriac's. Provision of the canonry and prebend of Warthill in York, value 40 marks, which he has obtained by exchange with Walter Cook for the archdeaconry of Berkshire, as above, Reg. xxxvi. f. 217d.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Anglona and Salisbury, and Thomas Weston, canon of London. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

DE CONSERVATORIIS.

5 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 241.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Salisbury, and the abbot of St. Augustine's, Canterbury. Letters conservatory for five years for the prior and chapter of Norwich.

15 Kal. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 242d.)

To the priors of Thetford and Ixeworth, in the diocese of Norwich, and the archdeacon of Sudbury. The like for the Benedictine prior and convent of Eye, in the said diocese.

1395.

3 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 244.)

To the bishops of London, Winchester, and Norwich. The like for John, bishop of Ely.

Non. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 244d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, and the abbots of Westminster and Malmesbury. The like, not to expire by the death of the grantor, at the complaint also of king Richard their patron, for the abbot and convent of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and their priories and members.

3 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 245.)

To the bishop of Salisbury, the archdeacon of Buckingham, and the treasurer of Salisbury. The like for five years for Richard Clifford, archdeacon of Ely.

17 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 246.)

To the bishop of London, the abbot of St. Mary's, York, and the dean of Lincoln. The like for the abbot and convent of St. Albans, and its dependent priories.

4 Non. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 246d.)

To the bishop of Winchester, the abbot of 'Newhous,' in the diocese of Lincoln, and the prior of Coventry. The like for John de Schepeye, canon and dean of Lincoln.

8 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 248d.)

To the archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the bishop of Exeter. The like for the dean and chapter of Hereford.

1395.

12 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 250d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Hereford, and the abbot of Westminster. The like for ten years for John, bishop, and the chapter of St. Asaph.

Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 251.)

To the abbots of Whytby and Byland (Billelanda), and the prior of Gisburne, in the diocese of York. The like for five years for Master Thomas de Walkington, archdeacon of Cleveland, papal chaplain.

DE CURIA.

15 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 275.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate to enquire, etc. as below, inasmuch as the pope's ears do not cease to be stricken with the reports of the ever-growing strength in England and Wales, and especially in the province of Canterbury, of a certain crafty (dolosus) and bold sect of pseudo-christians, who call themselves the poor men of the treasure of Christ and His disciples, and whom the vulgar call by the sounder (saniori) name of Lol[l]ards, like dry tares (quasi lolium aridum). These—not men, but damnable shades of men (virorum ombre damnose), some of whom are in a measure (prope modum) lettered, do not fear, to the subversion of all ecclesiastical order, under a pretended humility, devotion, and abstinence, to publish, preach, and openly also to write and affirm against the orthodox faith and the Holy Roman and universal church, in whose bosom they learned letters to the confusion and eternal damnation of themselves and many, a number of erroneous, detestable, and heretical articles, of which the pope has thought good to express a few [viz. the 4th, 3rd, 11th, 5th, and 7th]. They assert with polluted mouth that in the sacrament of the Eucharist, which is shown to Christian people by the hands and ministry of priests, the body of Christ, which they say has never left (existit) heaven, is present not objectively, but only subjectively by grace (non realiter sed habitualiter tantum existat), and in that way any faithful man and woman can, according to the law of God (de lege Dei), without any miracle make the sacrament of His bread (facere sacramentum sui panis). They add that the law of continence for priests and holy virgins is the cause of greatest sins, which the pope denies, the continent man being able by holy fasts and assiduous prayers, with the grace of God, to preserve his integrity unsullied (intemperatam); that exorcisms and blessings in church of wine, bread, water, oil, salt, wax, incense, the altar stone, church walls, vestments, mitres, pastoral or pilgrims' staves, are practices of necromancy; that special prayers for the dead are a false foundation of alms, and other detestable and erroneous articles. The archbishop is to make enquiry against all, both men and women, of the said sect, in his city, diocese, and province, and warn and require them to return to the unity of the catholic faith; and on their refusal, to strip those who are ecclesiastics of all prerogative of their order, and leave them to be punished by the secular power, and to leave those who are laymen to be punished by the secular judge; declaring them and their defenders anathema, and laying the places where they dwell and through which they pass under interdict; depriving them of ecclesiastical burial, and causing their goods to be applied to the revenue (fisco) of their immediate lord; invoking, if expedient, the aid of the secular arm; compelling contradictors and rebels, ecclesiastical and mundane, by ecclesiastical censure, without appeal. The archbishop is urged to act without fear or pusillanimity, otherwise the pope will be compelled, against his will, to provide severely against his negligence. (De curia.) [For the text of the Conclusiones Lollardorum of 1395, see Wilkins's Concilia, iii. 221; Lewis, Wiclif, 337; Shirley, Fasc. Zizan, 360.]

1395.

(f. 276d.)

To the archbishop of York. The like: an eodem modo. (De curia.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XXXVIII.

DE REGULARIBUS.

4 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 1.)

Confirmation, at the petition of king Richard and of the abbot and convent of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church, of the bull (Religiosam vitam eligentibus) of privileges granted by Honorius III. at the Lateran, 10 Kal. March, anno 3 [1219], to abbot William and his brethren present future, verbatim exemplification of which is here given, with the exception of the subscription of one of the subscribing cardinals, which on account of its age could not be read and inserted. [The exemplification is not taken from the Register of Honorius, viz. Reg. Vat. x. f. 60d, whence the abstract in Cal. Lett. i. 63 is made, but evidently from the original bull. It differs from Reg. Vat. x. f. 60d. in having less good readings of place names and in adding the formal subscriptions, namely, in addition to that of pope Honorius, Guy of Palestrina, Conrad of Porto and St. Rufina, cardinal bishops; Leo of St. Cross in Jerusalem, Stephen of the Twelve Apostles, Gregory of St. Anastasia's, Thomas of St. Sabina's, cardinal priests; Guy of St. Nicholas in Carcere Tulliano, Oct[avianus] of SS. Sergius and Bacchus, Gregory of St. Theodore's, Stephen of St. Adrian's, cardinal deacons; datum, etc. The bull is printed by Dugdale, Monasticon, ii. 232, who supplies the missing subscription—that of Nicholas, cardinal bishop of Tusculum. It is there inaccurate, John being added at the end of the list of kings, and the church of Winslawe being omitted.]

2 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 4.)

Inhibition—at the recent petition of the custos, guardian, and brethren of the house of Friars Minors at Cambridge, containing that from of old they have, on account of the university there, been wont to receive a very great multitude of brethren of the 1395.

order, of divers regions and provinces, and to minister to them food and other necessities out of the procurations of alms from the bounds of their house; and that near the said bounds, in or near Ware, in the diocese of London, a certain small house of the order has been founded, whose brethren extend the bounds of their procurations so far towards Cambridge and other parts that the said multitude incurs very great loss—to the said brethren of Ware to extend their bounds, for the purpose of making procurations of alms or preachings, more than five miles towards any parts which, before their foundation, belonged to the bounds of the house at Cambridge, except to the town of Poketich, in the said diocese.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of York and the bishops of London and Ancona. [Here Pokerich.] [Wadding, Annales Minorum, ix. 437.]

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 5.)

To the Augustinian prioress and convent of Derteforte, living according to the institutes and under the care of the order of Friars Preachers, in the diocese of Rochester. Appropriation to them, who are in no small need, of the parish churches, value 60 marks, that of their monastery being 600, of Norton Escudemo, alias Norton Bavent, and Wittelee, in the dioceses of Salisbury and Winchester, the patronage of which was formerly given them by certain lay patrons, and which were appropriated to them by ordinary authority, a vicar's portion in each having been reserved. They doubt whether for certain causes such donations and appropriations held good. [Ripoll, Bullarium Prædicatorum, ii. 352.]

Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 6d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, at the recent petition of the above prioress and convent of Derteforte—with (as above, Reg. Lat. xxxv. f. 93d.) (i) narration of John XXII.'s licence to king Edward II. to found and build; (ii) exemplification, as it is said to be, of that pope's privileges, Avignon, 6 Id. June, anno 5; (iii) narration of the foundation of the said monastery by the said king's successors at Derteforte—to inform himself, and if, upon inspection of the original letters of the licence and privileges, he find the facts to be as stated, and the above exemplification to agree with the original, to confirm by apostolic authority the said grant of licence, privileges, and foundation. [Cancelled with strokes, and in the left-hand margin: Cancellata quia alibi [i.e. apparently Reg. xxxv. 93d.] propter sui nimiam correctionem registrata est, N. de Ben- (even)to.]

6 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 8d.)

Indult perpetual, at the petition of Richard king of England and of the abbot and convent of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church, that, in consideration of the dangers and expense of the journey to the apostolic see for confirmation, abbots elect shall, ex ipso, and without any other confirmation, be esteemed true abbots and administer as such, as if their election had been confirmed by the apostolic see, and that they may be blessed by any catholic bishop in communion with 1395.

the said see. The pope wills that the abbot and convent—in compensation for first fruits and common and minute services, and other burdens accustomed to be paid at times of voidance to the pope, the camera and the college of cardinals, and the households and officials of them and the pope, on account of confirmation and provision—shall pay in future twenty marks and no more to the collector in England yearly and perpetually at Michaelmas, and shall be compelled thereto by ecclesiastical censure.

Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 41d.)

Declaration that the present pope's annulment of the grant by Urban VI. to the late Nicholas, abbot, and the convent of the Augustinian monastery of St. Mary's, Cirencester, in the diocese of Worcester—that in future voidances the convent should be free, notwithstanding any apostolic reservations, to proceed to the election of a new abbot who, when thus canonically elected, should without confirmation be esteemed true abbot, and should, without licence of the diocesan, archdeacon or other, freely administer; and that both such abbots as should be thus elected and those who should be appointed by the apostolic see might receive benediction from any catholic bishop in communion with the apostolic see—is not to be extended to the election of John Lekhampton, who, being then prior, was, on the death of Nicholas, in virtue of Urban VI.'s grant, and before the said annulment, elected abbot, and received benediction from Robert, archbishop of Dublin; with annulment of whatever may have been or shall be done by the ordinary or other against abbot John and the monastery on account of the above.

4 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 50.)

To the prior and chapter of Norwich. Renovation and confirmation, with exemplification, of the letters Ad hoc sumus of Celestine III. to the prior and monks of Holy Trinity, Norwich, dated at the Lateran, 4 Kal. Nov. anno 4, which are beginning to be consumed with age, and which the pope has caused to be diligently inspected in his chancery. Pope Celestine—hearing that the bishop removes the possessions of their monastery against their will, sends away brethren endowed with the treasure of learning and with letters who have opposed [such removal], and constrains (cohibuerit ?) them lest their complaints should pass beyond the bounds of his diocese—grants that they may repair to the presence alike of the pope (vestram, evidently for nostram) as of others who have jurisdictions, and prohibits the said diocesan from removing the possessions of their monastery, or sending away any of their brethren from their house, or promulgating sentence of excommunication, suspension, or interdict against them, their clerks or servants, without manifest and reasonable cause.

Ibid.
(f. 55.)

To the same. Renovation and confirmation, with exemplification, of the letters Solet annuere of Alexander IV. to the prior and convent of Norwich, dated at the Lateran, 5 Kal. March, anno 2 [Cal. Lett. i. 327], which are beginning to be consumed by age, and which the pope has caused to be similarly 1395.

inspected. The said pope confirmed the assignment to them by bishops of Norwich, with consent of the patrons, of the churches of Len[n]i (Lynn), Yarmouth (Gernemund), and Andeby, whereof they have constituted priories, causing, with consent of the diocesan, a prior and three monks, together with secular priests having the cure of souls, to dwell in each church.

7 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 64d.)

To the prior of Angleseye, in the diocese of Ely. Mandate to inform himself touching the recent petition of the Augustinian prior and convent of Spaneye, in the diocese of Norwich, in regard to the gift by Mary, relict of Humphrey de Bassingburne, knight, of lands and meadows for the sustentation of four canons in the said priory, two of whom she ordained to celebrate masses and other divine offices in the priory, and two in the parish church of Wikis. As the divine offices, day and night, are sung (cum nobis . . . decantentur), though with difficulty, in the church of the priory, in which there are at present, besides the prior, eight canons only, it is prayed that all the canons should be present at them, that the said parish church should be served by secular priests, and that the two canons should be sent back to the priory. If the facts be as stated, this is to be done.

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 66.)

To the Benedictine prior and convent of St. Mary's, Worcester. Perpetual appropriation to their office of hospitality, which is too slenderly endowed, its value not exceeding 10 marks, of the church of Homulton, in the same diocese, of the prior's patronage, value 18 marks, so that on the resignation or death of the present rector it may be served by one of the monks or by another fit priest appointed and removed at the sole pleasure of the prior.

14 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 72.)

To the Augustinian prior and convent of Bromhill, in the diocese of Norwich. Appropriation of the church of Croxton, in the same diocese, value 25 marks, that of the priory being 80 marks, its lay patrons having recently given them the patronage with a view to its appropriation; so that it may be served by one of the canons, or by another fit priest appointed as above.

13 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 73.)

To the prior and chapter of Worcester. Confirmation of the perpetual appropriation by Henry, bishop of Worcester, with licence of Richard, king of England and France, founder and patron of Worcester, of the church of Stoke Prioris, to the office of the chamberlain (camerarius), whose fruits are insufficient for the supply of shoes and clothing to the monks and the support of certain other burdens. The bishop's letters, exemplification of which is given, and which are dated at Hertlebury Castle, 1 Dec. 1389, the fifteenth year of his consecration, reserve a portion for a perpetual vicar to be instituted by the bishop, and order a yearly pension of 6*s.* 8*d.* payable at Michaelmas to be paid to the bishop. The value of the church, the patronage of which belongs to the prior and chapter, is 30 marks; the value of the capitular menae is 1700 marks.

1395.

Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 106.)

To the abbot of Byle, in the diocese of London. Mandate to reserve to John Herst, Benedictine monk of St. John's, Colchester, in the diocese of London, according to his fitness after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice, with or without cure, value not exceeding 80 pounds petits Tournois, in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of the said monastery, and accustomed to be held by monks thereof.

8 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 107.)

To the prior and chapter of Norwich. Renovation and confirmation of the letters Ex parte which are beginning to be consumed with age, which the pope has caused to be diligently inspected in his chancery, and of which exemplification is given, of Innocent III. to the archbishop of Canterbury, the abbot of Chertsey (Sertesia), and the archdeacon of Colchester, dated at the Lateran 3 Kal. April anno 3, ordering them to carry out that pope's mandate prohibiting the bishop from compelling the prior and monks to receive into their college persons not examined by them according to ancient custom; from instituting a prior from another college without their consent, and expelling the one they elect in accordance with their ancient right; and from removing unjustly from the houses of their obedience fit persons who know well how to govern their house, and substituting less fit persons by whom the goods of the same houses are dilapidated; prohibiting likewise the archdeacons of the diocese and their officials who burden churches, vicars, and priests of the said monks in regard to the assignment of chrism, holy oil, and other matters, suspending them and putting their churches under an interdict, and who interfere with the free and ancient right [of the monks] to admit anyone to choose his sepulture among them.

5 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 107d.)

To the Augustinian prior and convent of Lanthony, in the diocese of Worcester. Perpetual appropriation of the perpetual vicarages, served by secular priests, of the parish churches of Payneswyk, Prestebury, and St. Owen (Audoeno), in the same diocese, which they have long held to their own uses, value together 80 marks, that of the monastery being 800; so that on the resignation or death of the present vicars, the vicarages may be served by canons of the monastery appointed and removed at the sole pleasure of the prior.

Ibid.
(f. 108d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury. Mandate, at the recent petition of king Richard, his kinsman Thomas earl of Nottingham, and the prior and chapter of Rochester, to appropriate the parish church of Fyndon, in the diocese of Chichester, value 50 marks, to the church of Rochester, whose value is 1000. The said earl proposes to give the patronage thereof to Rochester, so that the church shall be perpetually appropriated thereto by the apostolic see for the use of the capitular mensa, and that the prior and chapter shall cause masses and other divine offices to be said perpetually, namely, those of St. Andrew for the prosperity of the said earl, and after his death those of the dead for the souls of himself, his progenitors, relatives, kinsmen, 1395.

friends, benefactors and all faithful dead, at the altar of SS. Andrew and Ithamar on the east side of the high altar, by a fit monk to be chosen by the precentor, and shall be bound to celebrate the anniversary of his obit. On the resignation or death of the present rector, the church may be served by a monk of Rochester, to be appointed and removed at the sole pleasure of the prior.

6 Kal. Feb.
88. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 116.)

To the Benedictine prioress and convent of Legburn, in the diocese of Lincoln. Confirmation, with exemplification, of the appropriation made to them by the late John, bishop of Lincoln, of the moiety of the parish church of Legburn, of their patronage, value 6 marks, that of the priory being 60. The bishop's letters are dated in the chapel of the manor of Buckeden, in the said diocese, 21st Aug. 1387, indiction 10, the 10th year of Urban VI. and the 25th of the bishop's consecration; witnessed by Masters John de Burgh, S.T.P., and William de Gretwelle, papal notary public, [rectors] of the parish churches of South Colyngam and Twyforde, in the dioceses of York and Lincoln; attested by the bishop's scribe, John Collon of Haversham, of the diocese of Lincoln, clerk, papal and imperial notary public; and approved and confirmed—saving an annual pension of 20*d.* to be paid on the feast of the Annunciation—by the sublean and chapter of St. Mary's, Lincoln, in the absence of the dean, in the chapter-house of Lincoln, 24th Aug. 1387, in the presence of John Kyngton, clerk, of the diocese of Salisbury, papal notary public, along with Masters Richard de Wynnewyk and Thomas la Ware, rectors of the parish churches of Walton and Manchester, in the diocese of Lichfield. They set forth that the lands and tenements of the priory are uncultivated on account of the dearth of cultivators and the rarity of men, arising out of the unwonted pestilences and epidemics; that the other moiety of Legburn is already appropriated to them; and that if a vicar's portion were separated from the fruits little or nothing would be left, wherefore the said moiety shall be served by a stipendiary chaplain removeable at the pleasure of the nuns; and reserve a yearly pension or cess of 3*s.* 4*d.* for the bishop, to be paid in the episcopal palace of Lincoln on the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin.

2 Kal. Feb.
88. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 112*d.*)

To the archbishop of Armagh. Mandate touching the provision made to Walter Calfe, monk of the Benedictine church of Down (Dunen.), by the present pope, of the priory of Down, void and previously reserved to the pope by the provision made by Urban VI. to the late John of the see of Down. The recent petition of John Sely, monk of the same church (who on the recent voidance of the see was elected bishop by the chapter, another person, however, receiving provision from the apostolic see), contained that Walter, before his provision, without the then prior's licence, and with the intention of apostatizing, put off the habit of his order, and left the said church, and went to Scotland and lands occupied by schismatics, adherents of the anti-1395.

pope called Clement VII. whereby he incurred excommunication, being otherwise unfit to hold the priory, which he obtained from the present pope, as above, without absolution and without making mention of the aforesaid. The pope orders the archbishop, if Sely wishes to and does accuse Calfe, to summon the latter and others concerned; and if on the facts being proved he deprive him, to collate and assign to Sely, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the said priory, which is an elective major dignity with cure, value 60 marks.

4 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 115d.)

To the bishop of Freisingen. Mandate to collate and assign to Patrick Ohykyga, monk of the Benedictine monastery of St. Mary of the Scots, Vienna, in the diocese of Passau, priest, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the conventual Scots priory, value 26 marks of pure silver, of St. Peter without the walls, Ratisbon, dependent on the Scots monastery at Ratisbon, and accustomed to be served by monks thereof, being of the Scots nation. The said priory became void and reserved to the apostolic see by the promotion of Matthew to be abbot of the said Scots monastery at Ratisbon by Gregory XI. who, as also Urban VI. died without disposing of it. After Patrick, who is of the Scots nation, has got peaceable possession of his priory, he is to be transferred from his said monastery of St. Mary's to the said Scots monastery, Ratisbon.

4 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 118.)

To the prior and chapter of Norwich. Renovation and confirmation of the letters Cum a nobis petitur of Alexander IV. to the prior and convent of Norwich, dated at the Lateran 7 Kal. March, anno 2, which are beginning to be consumed with age, and which the pope has caused to be diligently inspected in his chancery, confirming the grant made by former bishops of the see and by Walter the then bishop, by their letters patent, to clerks of the prior and convent, dwelling on manors and churches belonging to the prior and convent, to have cognisance of and to determine causes belonging to the ecclesiastical forum arising thereon. [Cancelled with strokes, and in margin: Cancellata quia, propter sui nimiam etiam dati correctionem, de anno decimo aliter registrata est.]

Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 119d.)

To the prior of St. Gregory's, Canterbury. Mandate to absolve from sentences incurred, and to grant dispensation on account of consequent irregularity to Simon called 'Mudiston,' canon of the Augustinian priory of St. Mary Magdalen, Combewelle, in the diocese of Canterbury, between whom and Roger Tyshurst (who asserted that he obtained the priory by authority of the ordinary, and that Simon despoiled him thereof) a suit arose and was long heard in the apostolic palace, where before a certain papal auditor Roger obtained a definitive sentence, by which Simon was removed and condemned in fruits and costs, and himself restored, obtaining also letters of execution addressed to the abbot of Westminster and two others not here named. Although Simon was excommunicated etc. for contumacy, he continued to celebrate divine offices, but now desires to return to the bosom of the church.

1395.

2 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 133d.)

To Walter, Augustinian prior of Launde, in the diocese of Lincoln. Exemption, as long as he lives and is prior of Launde, from the jurisdiction of the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Lincoln, and any other judges ordinary, subjecting him to the apostolic see alone.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 141.)

Indult, on petition of the Augustinian prior and convent of Wroxeston, in the diocese of Lincoln, that on the resignation or death of the perpetual vicar of the parish church of Wroxeston, situate within the limits (septa) of, and appropriated to, the said monastery, they may cause the church to be served by one of their canons, or by a secular priest, removable at their sole pleasure, the bishop's dues etc. being paid by them. The value of the vicarage is 15 marks, that of the monastery 100.

Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 133d.)

To John Preston, monk of St. Augustine's without the walls, Canterbury, S.T.M. papal chaplain. Grant to hold a benefice with cure, even one accustomed to be held by secular clerks, and to exchange it as often as he will for a similar benefice.

Ibid.
(f. 136.)

To John Colchestre, otherwise called Pak, monk of St. John's, Colchestre, papal chaplain. The like.

3 Id. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 136.)

To the prior and convent of Launde, in the diocese of Lincoln. Appropriation of the parish church of Asseby Folville in the said diocese, of their patronage, value 60 marks, that of the monastery being 700 marks. The cure of souls is to be exercised by a canon of the monastery appointed and removed at the pleasure of the prior.

12 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 139d.)

To the prior of Holy Trinity, London. Mandate to absolve, etc. as below, Robert Bartone, monk of Westminster, who before the abbot, claustral prior, and other of the monks was accused by certain of his enemies (emulii) of having, as was wont to be done in those parts at a certain time of year, eaten in a certain supper room (cenaculo) with certain of the monks and secular persons of either sex, and of having, while vespers were being sung in the monastery church, talked alone with a woman, for which he was condemned by the abbot to ten days' penance. On five successive nights, putting off his habit with a view to avenge himself upon (ad se vindicandum de) his accusers, he wandered forth, lightly and without leave, returning to the monastery on each night. On the sixth, as he was returning, he was caught by certain who were watching him, put in a close prison, and penanced there, and has lost his distributions, voice, and place at table (mensa), in choir, and in chapter. Although Robert, who is a priest, on account of the above incurred sentences of suspension, interdiction, and excommunication, under which sentences he lay when he was brought back from prison to the monastery, he in ignorance of the law celebrated divine offices. He is to be absolved, a wholesome penance being enjoined; and, after being suspended 1395.

for a time from the exercise of his orders, is to receive dispensation on account of irregularity, and to be restored to his stall in choir and his voice and places in chapter and at table.

2 Non. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 171.)

To John Mermachian, Augustinian canon of SS. Peter and Paul, Armagh. Dispensation to him, who is priest, as the son of a priest-religious, to be elected and appointed to any offices, administrations and dignities of his order. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

4 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 172.)

To the Benedictine abbot and convent of Persshore, in the diocese of Worcester. Confirmation, with exemplifications, of the appropriation made by the ordinary of the churches of Braddewey, in the said diocese, and St. Peter's the Great, Worcester, of their patronage, value together, with all their rights and appurtenances, 50 marks, that of the monastery, which is weighed down with debt and whose refectory and infirmary need repair, etc. being 1000 marks. The letters of Henry, bishop of Worcester, which are dated at Worcester 6 Id. Feb. 1384, the 10th year of his consecration, state that the value of Broadway is 9 marks, besides the portion of the greater tithes which has been anciently received by the monastery, and that of St. Peter's the Great 16 marks; that the licence of [Richard] king of England and France has been granted; that portions are to be assigned for perpetual vicars to be presented to the bishop; and reserve for the bishop, to be paid in the episcopal palace of Worcester at Michaelmas a yearly pension or cess of 40*d.* from the fruits of each church. The letters confirmatory of prior John and the chapter are dated at the chapter house 12 Sept. 1388. [7½ pages.]

17 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 175*d.*)

To John Clyslampton (for Chyslampton, as below, f. 272), Cistercian monk of Rewley by Oxford. Dispensation to hold a benefice with cure accustomed to be held by secular clerks, and to exchange it as often as seems good to him for a similar or dissimilar benefice with cure.

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 206.)

Indult, on petition of the Augustinian abbot and convent of Keynesham, in the diocese of Wells, that on the resignation or death of the perpetual vicar of the parish church of Keynesham, which is contiguous (corrected in margin from infra septa) and appropriated to the monastery, they may cause the church to be served by one of their canons, or by any secular priest, removable at their sole pleasure, the bishop's dues, etc. being paid by them. The value of the vicarage is 40 marks, that of the monastery 250.

n.d.
(f. 209.)

To Egelina, Benedictine abbess of Schaston (Shaftesbury), in the diocese of Salisbury. Confirmation, at the petition also of king Richard, of the provision of the monastery, formerly made to her, with consent of the convent, by John, bishop of Salisbury, on its voidance by the death of Joan; although Lucy (Lucia in margin, corrected from Licia) Fitzherberde, nun thereof, is said to have appealed to the apostolic see against the said provision, asserting that she was elected by the greater part, which election she neglected to present within the statutory time to the bishop or his vicar for confirmation. [Unfinished and cancelled by strokes, with note in the margin: Registrata est de provisionibus.]

2 Non. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 212d.)

To the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishop of Hereford. Mandate, as below, at the petition of Alexander, prior, and the chapter of Norwich, containing that the visitation, correction, and punishment of the monks belongs to the prior for periods of seven years, that the custody of privileges and muniments concerning the bishop and chapter belongs to the chapter, and that the nomination, removal, and visitation of the rector, called master, of the poor hospital of St. Paul of the Normans, Norwich, accustomed to be governed by monks of the said church, to which it is annexed, belongs to the said prior; and that nevertheless bishop Henry has hindered and does hinder prior Alexander in his right of visitation, correction, and punishment by enquiring into certain excesses committed by Thomas de Tutistallis (? Tunstallis), chamberlain (camerarius), John Kyrkeby, infirmarian, John Dancer, succentor of the said church, and by Thomas Lenne, rector of the hospital; as also by absolving Richard de Bilney, monk of the same church, against whom prior Alexander had issued sentence of excommunication for disobedience and other excesses; has monished the chapter to exhibit privileges and muniments concerning them and the bishop before a certain judge in a question then pending between the bishop and the prior and chapter; has interdicted a syndic or proctor of prior Alexander and the chapter in his defence of their causes in the Norwich consistory; and has inflicted other injuries upon them. Of the questions between bishop Henry and prior Alexander and the chapter, some are pending in the Roman court before Master Paul de Dugmano, papal chaplain and auditor, and some before certain judges in the said parts; and the petition adds that the causes pending in the said court can be better settled (liquere) in the said parts than there, and that the pending of all the suits involves their church in great inconvenience and expense. The pope therefore calls up all the causes to himself, and orders the above archbishop and bishop, if the parties consent, to make thereon an amicable composition and concord. If they cannot induce the parties to do so, they are to hear the causes short (usque ad calculum) of a definitive sentence, and then within two years are to transmit them and the parties themselves, in respect of the articles upon which they have failed to be brought to a concord, to the apostolic see to receive sentence. Bishop Henry is meanwhile to be inhibited under pain of excommunication from doing anything against the prior and chapter while the causes are pending.

10 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 215d.)

To the bishop of Meath. Mandate to collate and assign to John Schorbrun, Augustinian canon of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the independent priory of St. Mary's, Lowth, of the same order, 1395.

in the diocese of Armagh, a dignity with cure and conventual, value 150 marks, provision of which he received by ordinary authority of archbishop John as having lapsed to him by the statutes of the [Fourth General] Lateran Council, it having become void through the deprivation, by the archbishop, for his faults, of Patrick, sometime canon, then prior. John doubts whether the collation and provision holds good.

12 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 240d.)

To William Fyscher, rector of Clayton, in the diocese of Chichester. Indult for seven years to take the fruits of his benefices while studying letters at an university, or residing on any of his benefices; and to give them to farm, or let them at a yearly rent (responsione) to clerks or laymen.

Concurrent mandate to the prior of St. Bartholomew's without the walls, London, the archdeacon of Norfolk, and the official of Canterbury.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 244.)

To John Schepeye, dean of Lincoln, D.C.L. Indult for ten years to take the fruits of his canonry and prebend of Nas-sington and of his deanery, a major elective dignity with cure, to which some parish churches are annexed, and on account of which he is bound to reside 36 weeks in the year at Lincoln at no small expense, while resident in his said prebend or any of the said churches, provided that he reside one month yearly at Lincoln.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Winchester, the abbot of Neuhows in the diocese of Lincoln, and the prior of Coventry.

Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 247.)

To William Hardy, perpetual vicar of Skydbroke in the diocese of Lincoln. Indult, while dwelling in some honest place, to take and give to farm the fruits of his vicarage, on which not by his fault but on account of certain conspiracies of some of his parishioners against him, and through fear of certain enemies (emulorum) of his, he cannot reside without danger of death.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Telesse, the dean of Lincoln, and the prior of St. Catherine's without the walls, Lincoln.

1395.

6 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 66d.)

To Augustin MacBradaich, clerk, of the diocese of Kilmore (Triburnen). Reservation of the perpetual vicarage of St. Patrick, Droog, value 12 marks, to which is united the church of St. Brigid, Learach, in the said diocese, shortly to become void by the promotion, made by the pope, and the forthcoming consecration of Gilbert, elect of Ardagh.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Tuy and Meath, and the archdeacon of Kilmore. (Pro Deo, pro medietate)

7 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 135d.)

To the archdeacon of Aghadoc (de Achadeo), in the church of Ardfert. Mandate to collate and assign to John Flemyng, priest, of the diocese of Ardfert, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the perpetual vicarage of Cacyrbrenslan in the same diocese, value 8 marks, which he, who had received dispensation as the son of a clerk to be ordained and hold 1396.

a benefice even with cure, obtained after receiving the tonsure, and held for a year and more without being ordained priest, and without having dispensation for the purpose. He has been rehabilitated by other letters of the pope, who has willed him to resign.

2 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 150.)

To the precentor, and Dennis Ochachyearna and Gerald Thoberrd, canons of Limerick. Mandate to summon Nicholas Oeachbuayg, the unlawful occupier, and to collate and assign to Gyllaseanayn Ohalphyn, priest, of the same diocese, who has lately received dispensation as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, the perpetual vicarage of Kylscanyll in the same diocese, value 5 marks, void by reason that Richard Burchs, who had no dispensation, held it for a year and more without being ordained priest. (Pro Deo.)

2 Id. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 154.)

To the official of Achonry (Akaden.). Mandate to collate and assign to Cornelius Magoreachtaid, clerk, of the said diocese, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the perpetual benefice called a rectory, in the parish church of Culobynd and Ranna in the same diocese, of lay patronage, value 5 marks, void [and reserved to the pope] by the death at the apostolic see of Bernard Higera.

8 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 157.)

To the archdeacon of Aghadoe in the church of Ardfert. Mandate to collate and assign to Mark Otonia, priest, of the said diocese, who has lately had dispensation as the son of a priest to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the perpetual vicarage of Killerochayn, in the same diocese, value 10 marks, void by the death of Dennis Ossulluayn.

5 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 183.)

To the bishop of Clogher. Mandate to collate and assign to Trivet (Triuotus) Macamnarig, clerk, of the diocese of Kilmore (Triburnen.), the perpetual vicarage of Fignasadin in that diocese, value 12 marks, void by the death of Thomas Macamnarig.

5 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 211d.)

To the abbot of St. Mary's, Boyle (de Buellio), in the diocese of Elphin, and the dean and archdeacon of Elphin. Mandate to collate and assign to Isaac Macbrechamayn, priest, of the said diocese, who lately received dispensation as the son of a priest and an unmarried woman related in the third degree of kindred to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, the perpetual vicarage of St. Mary's Killmaccallan, in the said diocese, value 7 marks, void by the death of Macrobius Macbrechamayn, although Isaac's father Dermit, priest, of the same diocese, unlawfully occupies it, who, or any other unlawful occupier, is to be removed.

7 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 225.)

To the archdeacon of Durham. Mandate to collate and assign to John de Tesedale, perpetual vicar of Crosby in the diocese of Carlisle, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Aldestownemore in the diocese of Durham, 1396.

value 50 marks, void by the death of Thomas de Brydkyrke, although the Augustinian prior and convent of Hextildesham, in the diocese of Durham, who are to be removed, unlawfully occupy it. Upon obtaining Aldestownemore, Crosby is to be resigned.

3 Non. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 235.)

To the bishop of Tuy, and the dean and archdeacon of Limerick. Mandate to collate and assign to Nicholas Bull, priest, of the diocese of Limerick, bachelor of canon law, the perpetual vicarage of Corbomordi, in the same diocese, value 8 marks, void by reason that the said Nicholas, who held it, has obtained, by authority of the ordinary, the archdeaconry of Ardfert, a dignity with cure; notwithstanding that the pope has this day, by other letters, ordered provision to be made to Nicholas anew, of the said archdeaconry, whose value is 24 marks, as he doubted whether the said collation held good. He has hereby dispensation to hold for three years therewith the said vicarage.

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XL.

DE PREBENDIS VACATURIS.

7 Id. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 81.)

To Henry Carthynt (corrected in margin from Cathynt), canon of Limerick. Reservation to him, who is a priest, of prebends in Limerick and Cloyne, notwithstanding that he has lately received provision from the present pope of the deanery, then void, of Lismore.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Noli (Naxula.) and Limerick, and Edmund Ade, canon of Limerick. (De mandato.)

DE BENEFICIIS VACANTIBUS.

14 Kal. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 122.)

To Master John Fraunceys, rector of Saltwode, in the diocese of Canterbury, bachelor of canon law, papal writer and member of the pope's household. Provision, motu proprio, of the said rectory, value 70 marks, which has become void by the promotion and consecration of Thomas, bishop of Lismore and Waterford, and thereby reserved to the pope in accordance with his late reservation of all benefices to become void through papal promotions to cathedral churches.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Tuy, London, and Lichfield. (Pro socio.)

5 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 147.)

To the dean of London. Mandate to reserve to John Wytynge, clerk, of the diocese of Salisbury, and to collate and assign to him, upon its voidance, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, the church of Byforde, in the diocese of Hereford, value 40 marks, to become void shortly by reason that Lewis, 1396.

son of John Suw, rector thereof, is bound to resign it under the terms of the provision recently made to him by the pope of the church of Chesterton, in the diocese of Lincoln, then void and previously reserved to the pope.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

8 Id. June.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 178.)

To Richard de Horncastria. Reservation of a benefice for secular clerks, value 25 marks with cure or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop, prior, and chapter of Ely, and (neonon) of the abbot and convent of St. Edmundsbury.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Dax and the abbots of Kyrkestde and Rewesby. (Pro Deo.) [Here with the description: priest, of the diocese of Lincoln.]

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 230.)

To John Breche, or Brethe, rector of Ewell (de Ewellen), in the diocese of Winchester. Dispensation to hold for life, together with the said church, value 80 marks, one other incompatible benefice, even if an elective dignity, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, with or without cure, and to exchange both as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. [In right-hand margin: Cancelletur alia, cum reperiatur, quia per istam corrigitur.]

9 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 233.)

To John Schirburne, chancellor of York, S.T.M. Dispensation, in order to help towards the heavy expense of keeping up the decency of his estate (status), to hold for seven years, together with his chancellorship, which is an elective dignity with cure, not major, one other benefice with cure, even if an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus or office, with or without cure, in a metropolitan, or cathedral, or a collegiate church, and meanwhile to exchange both as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices; provided that he exchange during the said term either his chancellorship or one of such other benefices for another compatible with the remaining one; otherwise the chancellorship or other such incompatible benefice is to be resigned.

16 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 238.)

To John Arlam, layman, of the diocese of Durham. Appointing him papal serjeant-at-arms. (De mandato.)

DE REGULARIBUS.

8 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 243.)

Appropriation anew, with exemplifications, to the abbot and convent of St. Werburg's, Chester, of the church of Astbury, and of the churches of Aston and Weston-on-Trent, of their patronage, value together 300 marks, that of the monastery being 2000, as they doubt whether the two appropriations formerly made by Richard, bishop of Lichfield, by his ordinary 1396.

authority, hold good. The bishop's letters for the appropriation of Astbury—dated in the chapel of his manor of Heywoden, in the year of the Incarnation 1393[-4], indiction 1, anno 5 Boniface IX. the last day of January, in the presence of Masters Richard Conyngeston, D.C.L. and John Sutton, canons of Lichfield, and John Layot, rector of Denford in the diocese of Lincoln, witnesses, and attested by William Thurbache, clerk, of the diocese of Hereford, public notary by papal and imperial authority, the bishop's scribe and registrar—state, among other things, that the land from which they were wont to derive the greater part of their victuals, being situate by the seashore, has been irrecoverably destroyed (deleta) by the tides, that their buildings are in need of repair, that the rents and services which their tenants and serfs used to pay have been irrecoverably diminished and withdrawn under pretext of pestilences, that the licence of the king of England and France has been granted, that a portion is to be reserved for a perpetual vicar to be presented to the bishop for institution, and impose a yearly pension, cess, or rent of 2 marks to be paid at Michaelmas to the bishop, 26s. 8d. to the dean and chapter of Lichfield, the like to the prior and chapter of Coventry, and the like to the archdeacon of Chester, the latter to be paid in the collegiate church of St. John's, Chester. The said notary notes and approves the erasure 'of the words 2 marks and 26s. 8d. in the 25th line, and 26s. 8d. in the 26th line, reckoning from the top.' The ratification by the dean and chapter of Lichfield is dated in their chapter house, 9 April 1394; and that by the prior and chapter of Coventry in their chapter house, 10 April in the said year, and the consent of William de Neuagh, archdeacon of Chester, at Chester, 12 April 1394. Similar letters for the appropriation of Aston and Weston-on-Trent, dated in the said chapel of Heywode, 20 September 1395, indiction 3, anno 6 Boniface IX. with the above Masters Conyngeston and Sutton, and also William Norton, of the diocese of York, notary public, as witnesses, and attested as above, impose one yearly pension only—13s. 4d. for the archdeacon of Derby, to be paid in the church of St. Peter, Derby, at Michaelmas. The ratification of the prior and chapter of Coventry is dated 15 January, and that of the dean and chapter of Lichfield 13 January, and the consent of John de Endeby, archdeacon of Derby, 15 January, all in the same year [i.e. 1395-6]. [10 pp.]

Ibid.
(f. 248.)

Appropriation anew, with exemplification, on petition of John Layot, dean, to the deanery of St. John Baptist's, Chester, of the church of Pleymondestow, in the diocese of Chester, of his patronage, value 50 marks, the value of the deanery being 200, as he doubts whether the appropriation formerly made thereof, on its voidance, by Richard, bishop of Lichfield, by his ordinary authority, holds good. The bishop's letters of appropriation of the said church (here once spelt Leymondestowe)—granted on petition of dean John Wodehous, dated in the chapel of the 1396.

bishop's palace, Lichfield, 22 October in the year of the Incarnation 1393, indiction 2 (sic), anno 4 Boniface IX. in the presence of Master Richard Conyngeston, D.C.L. the bishop's official, and Master John Sutton, canons of Lichfield, and Master William Rodbourn, public notary, as witnesses, and attested by the above William Thurbache, here not styled registrar—state that the licence of Richard, king of England and France, and lord of Ireland, has been given, order that the church shall be served by a stipendiary and resident priest as chaplain, to be appointed and removed by the dean, impose a yearly cess or rent of 3s. 4d. to be paid to the bishop, and the like to the dean and chapter of Lichfield, to the prior and chapter of Coventry, and to the archdeacon of Chester, the latter to be paid in St. John Baptist's, Chester. The ratification by the dean and chapter of Lichfield is dated 23rd October, and that by the prior and chapter of Coventry 25th October, in their respective chapter houses, and the consent of William de Neuagh, archdeacon of Chester, at Chester, 30 October, all in the same year [i.e. 1394].

Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 269.)

To the prior of the Benedictine priory or cell of St. David, Kylpek, in the diocese of Hereford. Indult to cause, on the resignation or death of the perpetual vicar, the vicarage of Dewchurche, value 35 marks, which with its annexed chapels is annexed to the priory, value 60 marks, to be served by a secular or regular priest appointed and removed at the pleasure of the prior. (De mandato.)

Ibid.

To the prior of the Benedictine priory or cell of St. Leonard, Stanley, in the diocese of Worcester. The like indult to cause to be served by a secular or regular priest the perpetual vicarages, which are appropriated to the priory, of Erlingam and Coueley, in the said diocese, value 50 marks, that of the priory being 160. (De mandato.)

3 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 276.)

To the bishop of Durham. Mandate to absolve from sentences incurred Reginald de Wermouthe, monk of Durham, who left the said church and his order for about a year, and has now returned to it, to grant him dispensation on account of irregularity contracted, if any, so that he may hold any dignities, administrations or offices of his order, and to rehabilitate him.

6 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 278.)

To John Rypun, monk of Durham, papal chaplain. Grant to hold a benefice, with or without cure, even if accustomed to be served by secular clerks, and to exchange it as often as seems good to him for a similar or dissimilar benefice. [Hist. Dunelm. Script. Tres, clxxviii. with spelling Ripon.]

DE FRUCTIBUS PERCIPIENDIS.

10 Kal. July.
St. Peter's, Rome
(f. 292.)

To Richard Pullynge, perpetual vicar of St. Andrew's, Depham, in the diocese of Norwich. Indult, for seven years, to take and give to farm to any, even lay, persons, the fruits of his benefices, while studying letters at an university, or residing in the Roman court or on any one of his benefices.

1396.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Ely, the abbot of St. James's, Walden, and the prior of Bernwell, in the dioceses of London and Ely.

13 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 293.)

To John Frizelle, rector of Uldalle, in the diocese of Carlisle. Indult, for seven years, to take and give to farm the fruits of his rectory while engaged in the service of the prior of Tynmuth, he being unable to reside without danger by reason of the whirlwinds of war (guerrarum turbines) which have afflicted and at present afflict those parts.

Concurrent mandate to the abbot of Alnwyk, and the officials of York and Durham.

6 Id. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 294.)

To Peter Gerves, perpetual vicar of St. Constantine's, in Cornwall. Indult, for ten years, to take and give to farm, even to laymen, the fruits of his benefices while studying letters at an university.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, the abbot of Rewley near Oxford, in the diocese of Lincoln, and the precentor (cantori) of Exeter.

10 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 297.)

To Peter Duke, vicar of Seynt Marichurche, in the diocese of Exeter. Indult, for seven years, to take the fruits of his benefices while studying letters at an university, or residing in the Roman court or on any one of his benefices.

Concurrent mandate to the abbots of Glastonbury in the diocese of Bath, and Tavistock, and the chancellor of Exeter.

5 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 298.)

To Thomas de Gretham, rector of Riton, in the diocese of Durham. Indult, for life, to him, who is in his fifty-sixth year, cannot reside with comfort by reason of the continual wars and strife (lites) there and other inconveniences, and desires to serve God in some cloister or other honest place, to take the fruits of his rectory while residing in such cloister or honest place.

Concurrent mandate to the prior of Durham, the dean of St. Mary's, Chester-le-Street, and the archdeacon of Cleveland.

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

3 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 314.)

Translation of Robert, bishop of Carlisle, to the see of Chichester, void by the translation this day of Robert to the see of York. The archbishop of Canterbury and the bishop of Salisbury are to receive his oath of fealty to the pope and the Roman church, according to the form enclosed.

Concurrent letters to king Richard [Faxera], to the chapter of Chichester, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the vassals of the church, and to Robert, archbishop of York.

1396.

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

10 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 341.)

To Christopher, cardinal priest of St. Ciriac's. Provision, motu proprio, of the archdeaconry of Esdinringhit in York, value 160 marks, void by the death without the Roman court of Bartholomew, cardinal priest of St. Pudentiana's, legate in certain parts, and reserved to the pope in accordance with his late reservation of voided benefices of cardinals.

Concurrent mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury, and the bishops of London and Tuy. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XLI.

1395.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

18 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 161.)

To the archdeacon of Kenlys in Meath. Mandate to reserve, and to collate and assign to Richard Corre, clerk, of the diocese of Meath, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the gift of the bishop of Meath.

1396.

DE EXHIBITIS.

4 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 245.)

To Master Godfrey Bothorn, rector of Hasselt, in the diocese of Liège, papal writer and member of the pope's household. Confirmation of the provision of Hasselt lately made to him by the present pope on its voidance by resignation at the apostolic see, made for the purpose of exchange with Adam [Eston], cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, for the church of St. Alban's, Cologne; as he now doubts whether it was not in another way that Hasselt became void. (Pro Deo.)

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

4 Non. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 274d.)

To Walter Cook, canon of Lincoln. Faculty to found on the land of his parents in the town of Knolle in the parish of the town of Hampton, in the diocese of Lichfield, Knolle being distant a mile or thereabouts from the town of Hampton, a chapel with cemetery, bell-tower, and bell, in honour of St. John Baptist, St. Laurence martyr, and St. Ann, and to endow the same for a secular priest as chaplain or rector, who shall celebrate masses and other divine offices, baptise the infants and bury the dead of Knolle instead of as hitherto at the said parish church, access to which is difficult in time of rain and snow, hear the confessions and solemnize the marriages of the inhabitants, and minister all other sacraments. (De mandato.)

DE LITTERIS DOMINORUM CARDINALIUM.

14 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 289.)

To the bishops of Adria (Adrien), Ferrara, and Bologna. Mandate, motu proprio, to collate and assign to Adam [Eston], cardinal priest of St. Cecilia's, the Benedictine priory, value 1396.

200 gold florins, of St. Agnes, Ferrara, void by the death of Andrew de Avenantibus. (Pro domino Cardinali.)

DE REGULARIBUS.

Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 299.)

To the archbishop of York. Mandate, if he find the circumstances to be as stated, to grant licence and otherwise proceed as below. A statement was made to Urban VI. on behalf of Thomas, earl of Nottingham, that the number of the monks in the Benedictine priory of St. Benedict at Kyrkeby, in the diocese of Lichfield, founded and endowed by his progenitors for seven monks, and subjected by them to the monastery of St. Nicholas, Angers, had long been not kept up, and that at the will of a certain knight two monks only resided; that the rule was not observed; that the goods were not expended for pious uses and the priory's rights neglected; that on account of the dissolute life of the prior and French monks living there, and of their servants who were at discord with the English, and on account of the wars between the two realms, the buildings were partially falling; and that the earl desired the priory to be turned to better uses. Urban VI. ordered the bishop of Lichfield to transfer the priory to the Carthusians, and to convert it into a house of that order, due provision being made to the prior and monks, if any. Upon the earl's recent petition, containing that no step has been taken towards the execution of the said mandate, the pope orders the archbishop to grant him licence, upon king Richard's licence being obtained, to found, on his domain in the island of Morholm (sic), in the diocese of Lincoln, a Carthusian house in honour of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin, St. John the Evangelist, St. Edward the Confessor, and all other saints; the archbishop is further ordered to transfer to it the said priory, which is to be separated from St. Nicholas's, and whose name is to be extinguished, and to appropriate to it the churches of Belton and Epeworth, situate in the said island and of the earl's patronage. In the Carthusian house thus founded there are to be a prior and twelve monks.

DE FRUCTIBUS PERCIPIENDIS.

5 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 317d.)

To Roger Wylle, perpetual vicar of Myddelton alias Mylton, in the diocese of Exeter. Indult for life to him, who is in priest's orders, to take the fruits of his benefices while studying letters at an university.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Dax, the abbot of Tavistock, and the dean of Exeter. [See Reg. xliii. f. 231.]

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XLII.

DE PROVISIONIBUS.

1396.

12 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 8.)

To John Colschestre. Provision to him, a Benedictine monk of Colchester, in priest's orders, of the see of Orkney, void by the death of bishop Henry, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the archbishop of Thronthjem (Nidrosien.), and to Margaret, queen of Norway.

3 Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 9d.)

To Gregory (inserted in margin), bishop of Kilmacduagh (Duacen.). Provision anew of that see, void by the death of bishop Nicholas, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope. Upon the pope's learning, on 3 Id. Oct. anno 4, of the death of Nicholas, he made provision of the see to Gregory, who was then dean and in priest's orders. Before the papal letters of provision were made out, and without the pope's mandate, Gregory had himself consecrated and assumed the administration of the episcopal mensa, afterwards causing all the above to be set forth to the pope in consistory. As the provision, by reason of his neglect to have the letters expedited and lodged in the chancery within a year, is void, he is now absolved from the sentence of excommunication incurred, is rehabilitated, and receives fresh provision as above.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy, to the people of the city and diocese, to the archbishop of Tuam, and to king Richard.

2 Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 13.)

To John de Heremo. Provision to him, an Augustinian friar, papal minor penitentiary, in priest's orders, of the see of Bazas, which was reserved to the pope by Urban VI. during the episcopate of the late bishop John, became void by that bishop's adherence to the antipope called Clement VII. and had not been disposed of by Urban VI. when he died. The present pope translated thither from Aire the late Maurice, who died before the papal letters were made out.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the vassals of the church, to the archbishop of Auch, and to king Richard.

1395.

4 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 18.)

To Michael Oluchan. Provision of the Augustinian monastery of SS. Peter and Paul, Armagh, whereof he is a canon, in minor orders, reserved to the pope during the abbottship of Nicholas, now a canon thereof, and void by reason that Milo, archbishop of Armagh, by ordinary authority, deprived Nicholas for his faults and unworthiness.

Concurrent letters to the convent, and to the archbishop of Armagh.

1396.

7 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 44.)

Translation of Robert, bishop of Lismore, to the see of Carlisle, void by the death of bishop John (sic), during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope. He is to take the usual oath of fealty before the bishops of Chichester and St. Davids, according to the form enclosed.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to vassals of the church, to the archbishop of York, and to king Richard.

6 Non. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 45.)

To Peter, bishop of Nantes. Appointment anew, during the pope's pleasure and after the example of Urban VI, as administrator of the see of Coutances in the islands of Jersey and Guernsey (Gerseyo et Greneseyo) only, with the disposal of the goods of the episcopal mensa therein of that see. Lately Urban VI. with the counsel of the cardinals, to whose number the present pope then belonged, made provision to Peter, on its voidance, of the see of Nantes. Afterwards learning that Peter could not obtain administration of the episcopal mensa because those who held the temporal dominion in those parts were adherents of the antipope called Clement VII, Urban VI. seeing that—although the church of Coutances, in the province of Rouen, was also in such [schismatic] parts and was detained by a certain schismatic—the clergy and people of the said islands were, as they still are, obedient to him and the Roman church, appointed Peter, a master of theology, administrator during his pleasure of the church of Coutances in the said islands only, which appointment expired with that pope's death.

Concurrent letters to the clergy and to the people of the islands of Jersey and Guernsey, in the diocese of Coutances, and to king Richard.

7 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 72d.)

To Thomas Spackford (sic). Provision to him, priest, of the diocese of Exeter, B.C.L. of the united sees of Waterford and Lismore, void by the translation this day [f. 44] of bishop Robert to Carlisle.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, and to vassals of the church of Waterford; the like for Lismore; to the archbishop of Cashel, and to king Richard.

2 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 97.)

To John Bruchilla. Provision to him, a Friar Preacher, in priest's orders, of the see of Llandaff, void by the death of bishop Andrew, during whose lifetime it was reserved to the pope.

Concurrent letters to the chapter, to the clergy and to the people of the city and diocese, to the vassals of the church, to the archbishop of Canterbury, and to king Richard. (De mandata) [Bipoll, Beffarium Prædicatorum, ii. 358.]

2 Non. July.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 112.)

To Sibyl, prioress of the priory of Ambresbury, of the order of Fontevrault, in the diocese of Salisbury. Confirmation of her election by the convent, to whom by ancient custom it belongs; the abbess of Fontevrault, to whom by like custom the 1396.

confirmation belongs, being an adherent of the antipope called Clement VII.; notwithstanding if at the time thereof she had not reached her thirtieth year, being aged twenty-eight, and notwithstanding the lapse of time in seeking confirmation.

Concurrent mandate to the convent.

DE BENEFICIIS VACATURIS.

11 Kal. March. To Robert Kychyn of Spyllesby, priest, of the diocese of Lincoln. Reservation of a benefice, not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value 40 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop, dean and chapter, and each and singular of the canons of Lincoln.

St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 121.)

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Monopoli, and the abbots of Bar[de]nay and Haunby, in the diocese of Lincoln. (Pro Deo.)

13 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 148.)

To Theodoric Oconchur, rector of Dubhacha, in the diocese of Artfert. Reservation of one, two, or more benefices, not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value together 25 marks if one of them have cure of souls, or if not 18, in the common or several gift of the bishop and chapter of Ardfert; notwithstanding that he holds Dubhacha, which is without cure.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Monte Corvino, and the archdeacon and the chancellor of Artfert. (Pro Deo.) [The scribe has dated this reservation anno primo. The rest of the volume is, however, of the seventh year, and the rubric at the head of this same folio is de beneficiis vacaturis anno septimo.]

11 Kal. March.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 172d.)

To John Bysschop, priest, of the diocese of Norwich. Reservation of a benefice, value 40 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the Cluniac prior and convent of Lewes.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Monopoli, the abbot of Westminster, and the prior of St. Mary Overay, in the diocese of Winchester.

4 Id. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 182d.)

To the bishop of Bath. Mandate to reserve to John Cary, clerk, of the diocese of Exeter—who has already had dispensation on account of a blemish (macula) in his right eye to receive all holy orders and hold a benefice even with cure—if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 30 marks with cure of souls or 25 without, in the common or several gift of the Augustinian abbot and convent of Kymesham, in the diocese of Wells.

13 Kal. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 193.)

To Gilbert Ossullewayn, archdeacon of Aghadoe in Ardfert. Reservation to him—who has already had dispensation as the son of a deacon (i) to receive all holy orders and hold a benefice even with cure; (ii) to hold his archdeaconry, provision of which, on its voidance, was ordered by papal authority to be made to him—of one, two, or three benefices, not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value together 25 marks if one of them have cure of souls, or if not 18, in the common or several gift of the bishop of Ardfert and the Augustinian prior and convent of St. Mary's, Killaba (de Bello loco), in the same diocese; with dispensation to hold such benefice or benefices, even if one of them have cure, together with the said archdeaconry, which has cure of souls, and is a dignity, not major after the pontifical, value 12 marks.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Tuy, and the priors of St. Michael's Mount (Sancti Michaelis de Rupe) and Ynyafach-lynd (Inisfallen), in the diocese of Ardfert.

3 Non. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 255.)

To Maurice Macgillanach, archdeacon of Kilmaedugh (Duacen). Reservation of one or two benefices, even if one have cure of souls or be a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value together 25 marks with cure or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the bishop and chapter of Kilmaedugh; with dispensation as above on account of his archdeaconry, which has cure and is a dignity, not major after the pontifical.

Concurrent mandate to the bishops of Noli (Naulen) and Kilfenora and the dean of Kilmaedugh. (De mandata.)

1395.

18 Kal. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 271.)

To Nollan Omundh, priest, of the diocese of Clogher. Reservation, on petition also of Arthur, bishop of Clogher, whose chaplain he is, of a benefice, not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the gift of the bishop for the time being.

Concurrent mandate to the dean of Clogher, Richard Jong, canon of Lincoln, and the official of Clogher.

1396.

7 Id. Jan.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 279d.)

To the prior of Wyrksope, in the diocese of York. Mandate to reserve to John Thorp, perpetual vicar of Dryngley, in the diocese of York, priest, if found fit after the usual examination in Latin, a benefice value 60 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the common or several gift of the abbot and convent of St. Mary's without the walls, York.

1395.

4 Non. Dec.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 280d.)

To John Jordan, clerk, of the diocese of Dublin. Reservation of a benefice, not a canonry and prebend in the cathedral church, value 25 marks with cure of souls or 18 without, in the gift of the archbishop of Dublin.

Concurrent mandate to the bishop of Tuy, the abbot of St. Mary's, Dublin, and the official of Meath. (Pro Deo.)

LATERAN REGESTA, VOL. XLIII.

1396.

DE EXHIBITIS.

15 Kal. Feb.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 9.)

To Master Henry Westerholt, papal chaplain and auditor of causes of the apostolic palace. Mandate to collate and assign to John Rede, canon of Limerick, the archdeaconry of Cork, value 10 marks. It was formerly set forth to the present pope on John's behalf that a cause arose between himself and the late Robert Roche, priest, concerning the said archdeaconry, provision of which (being then void by reason that Robert, who held the perpetual vicarage of Kynsale, obtained collation of and unduly held therewith the said archdeaconry, which has cure of souls, against John XXII's constitution Execrabilis, and without obtaining dispensation) was by papal authority ordered to be made to him, which mandate of provision Robert prevented from taking effect. Urban VI. at John's instance committed the cause, although not lawfully devolved to the Roman court, to an auditor named, and the present pope successively to two others named, and then to the above Master Henry, whilst the cause was pending before whom Robert died in possession. The pope ordered the auditor to surrogate John to Robert's right, if any, at the time of his death, to admit him to possession of the archdeaconry, and to collate and assign it to him. John's recent petition contained that afterwards the auditor admonished William Gulton, priest, of the diocese of Dublin, then at the Roman court, who had meanwhile claimed and seized (apprehenderat) possession of the archdeaconry, to resign it to John, which was done. The pope hereby ratifies this resignation and orders as above; notwithstanding that John holds the canonry and prebend of Donoghmore (de dewanghmar) in Limerick, of which he has been despoiled, and is litigating in the apostolic palace about the canonry and prebend of Regale in Cashel, value altogether 12 marks; has recently had provision made to him of the deanery of Waterford, a dignity value 20 marks, under the present pope's late letters of provision of a canonry thereof, with expectation of a prebend and dignity, personatus, or office; and has lately had provision from the pope of canonries of Ferns and Lismore, with expectation of prebends, and of the parish church, then void, of Crissellow, in the diocese of Lincoln, possession of which he has not yet got, and which upon obtaining the said deanery he is bound to resign. Upon getting possession of the said deanery John is also, as he has offered, to resign the archdeaconry, if meanwhile he obtain possession of it. (Pro Deo.)

3 Id. May.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 47.)

To Master Paul de Dugnano (sic), papal chaplain and auditor. Mandate to surrogate John Leuesham, priest, of the diocese of York, to whatever right to the church of Brompton in Pykering Lith was possessed by Walter Cook, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield, at the time of his resignation, as below, of such right; and to collate and assign to him the said church, value 1396.

80 marks. It was lately set forth to the pope on Cook's behalf that a cause arose lately between Leuesham and the late Richard Carleton, priest, about the said church, papal provision of which, on the death of Richard Thoern, was made to Carleton, which provision Leuesham opposed; that the cause was committed by the present pope, at Carleton's instance, to the above Master Paul; and that while the cause was pending Carleton died [as above, Reg. Lat. xxvii. f. 18d.]. The pope ordered the auditor [Reg. xxx. f. 25] to surrogate Cook to Carleton's right. The recent petition of Leuesham contained that upon the said voidance by the death of Thoern (sic here), who was a papal chaplain, the Gilbertine prior and convent of Malton, to whom the presentation anciently belongs, presented him to Thomas, archbishop of York, who instituted him; and it added that Cook has been surrogated by the auditor to the said right, and has resigned it back to him at the apostolic see.

DE DIVERSIS FORMIS.

2 Non. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 147.)

To Robert, sometime bishop of Chichester, archbishop elect of York. Sending by Henry Amerton, rector of Lockyngton in the diocese of York, the pallium asked for by Francis, cardinal priest of St. Susanna's, who holds a canonry and prebend in the archbishop's church, to be assigned to the archbishop by the archbishop of Dublin and the bishop of Salisbury, who are to receive his oath of fealty in the name of the pope and the Roman church, according to the form enclosed.

7 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 175.)

To John Milner of Horseley, clerk, of the diocese of Lichfield. Dispensation to him, now in his sixteenth year, to hold on reaching his eighteenth year two benefices with cure of souls or otherwise incompatible, even if they be dignities, major after the pontifical or principal and united respectively, personatus, administrations or offices, in metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate churches, and be elective, and to exchange them as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar, even incompatible, benefices. (De mandato.)

14 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 176.)

To William Brynkelowe, rector of Mancestre, in the diocese of Lichfield. Dispensation to him, who is priest, and holds a canonry and prebend of the free royal chapel in (sic) St. Martin's-le-Grand, London, value together with Mancestre 60 marks, to hold for life one other benefice incompatible with the said parish church, even if it be an elective dignity, major after the pontifical or principal respectively, personatus, or office, with or without cure, in a metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate church, and to exchange it and his parish church as often as he please for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices. (De mandato.)

6 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 182.)

To William Spaldewick (cancelled. In margin is Spa'dewyk. Correctum de mandato, N. de Ben[even]to), rector of Ellsey (similarly cancelled and corrected in margin to Ellsey), in the 1396.

diocese of Ely. Dispensation, at the petition also of king Richard, to him, who holds the said church value 60 marks, to hold for life one other benefice with cure, even if it be an elective dignity, major after the pontifical in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, and to exchange it and (vel) his said church as often as he please for similar or dissimilar benefices.

Ibid.
(f. 188d.)

To William Rede, rector of Marteley, in the diocese of Worcester (corrected in the margin, as above, from Lincoln). The like dispensation, at the petition also of king Richard, to him, who holds the said church, value 65 marks.

8 BONIFACE IX.

1397.

Kal. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 190.)

Relaxation of three years and three *quadrage*ne of enjoined penance to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who, during the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, Pipewell (in Pypwellis), in the diocese of Lincoln. The pope wills that all oblations thus arising shall be wholly converted to the conservation and fabric, and to the repair of ornaments. [This and the letter which immediately follows in the Register are almost the only two in the volume which are dated anno octavo. They ought probably to have been cancelled, like that on f. 198 below.]

7 BONIFACE IX.

1396.

3 Non. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 196.)

The like for ten years (without the oblations clause) for the chapel of St. Blide in the vale (valle) of the cemetery of the parish church of Martham, in the diocese of Norwich.

8 BONIFACE IX.

1397.

10 Kal. April.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 198.)

Dispensation, at the recent petition of John, duke of Lancaster, to the dean and each of his successors, of the collegiate church, Leicester—founded by duke Henry for thirteen secular canons, one of them being dean, and as many perpetual vicars—to hold with the deanery, which is a principal dignity in the said church, one other benefice with cure or otherwise incompatible, even if it be an elective dignity, with cure, major after the pontifical in a cathedral or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, and to exchange such benefice as often as he please for a similar or dissimilar benefice. [Cancelled with strokes, and in margin: Cancellata quia alibi registrata est de anno octavo, N. de Ben[even]to.] 1396.

6 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 201.)

To Thomas Jokfleta, rector of Fenny Stanton, in the diocese of Lincoln. (Sennstanton Elien. dioc. of the text is cancelled, and in margin is: Fenistanton Lincolnien. Correctum, etc. as above.) Dispensation, for life, as above, f. 188, at the petition also of king Richard, to him, who holds the said church, value 180 marka.

14 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 228.)

Relaxation of seven years and seven quadrages of enjoined penance to penitents who on the Nativity of St. Mary, and on the feasts of St. Anne and St. Andrew, visit and give alms for the conservation of the chapel of St. Mary and St. Anne situated by (juxta) the church of St. Andrew, Wykford, a suburb of Lincoln.

5 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 231.)

To Roger Wylle, perpetual vicar of Myddelton, alias Mylton in the diocese of Exeter. Indult for seven years to study and lecture (audire et legere) in civil law, notwithstanding that he holds the said vicarage and is in priest's orders, and notwithstanding the constitution of Honorius III. and any other constitutions. [See Reg. xli. f. 317d.]

Kal. Sept.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 232d.)

Ratification and confirmation of the marriage contracted by John, duke of Lancaster, and Catherine de Swynforde, damsel, of the diocese of Lincoln, with dispensation to remain therein, offspring past and future being declared legitimate. Their petition contained that formerly, after the death of his wife Constance, duke John and Catherine contracted and consummated marriage (not being ignorant that John had been godfather to a daughter of Catherine by another husband, and that afterwards, while Constance was still alive, he had committed adultery with the said Catherine, an unmarried woman, and had offspring by her); and that they considered such marriage to be lawful, inasmuch as, the said impediment of compaternity not being notorious but private (occulto), their orator to the apostolic see had taken back to them from the pope a letter of credence (quoddam breve credentiale) marked (signatum) by the pope's hand, and related to them that, as was also contained in the letter itself, the pope had given his viri voce consent. They now doubt lest, the said impediment having been afterwards divulged and apostolic letters on the subject of such consent not being forthcoming, their marriage may not be impugned, divorce follow, and grave scandals arise. (De mandato.)

6 Id. Aug.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 236d.)

Relaxation of five years and five quadrages to penitents who on the principal feasts of the year and that of the dedication, the octaves of certain of them, and the six days of Whitsun week; and of a hundred days to those who during the said octaves and six days, visit and give alms for the conservation of the high altar of the church of St. Thomas the Martyr, Glaseney in Cornwall, in the diocese of Exeter.

14 Kal. Juno.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 232.)

To John de Ikelyngton, rector of Briddeport, in the diocese of Salisbury. Dispensation to him, who is a member of the household of king Richard and holds Briddeport, value 50 marks, to hold for three years one other incompatible benefice, even if it be an elective dignity, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office with cure, and to exchange both for two similar or dissimilar benefices.

6 Kal. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 254.)

To Geoffrey Davenport, rector of Brereton, in the diocese of Lichfield. Indult to him, who holds Brereton, value 30 marks, to hold for life two benefices with cure or otherwise incompatible, even if one of them be a perpetual vicarage, or a parish church, or an elective dignity, major or principal respectively, personatus or office with or without cure, in a metropolitan, cathedral, or collegiate church, and to exchange them as often as seems good to him for two similar or dissimilar incompatible benefices.

14 Kal. Oct.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 258.)

To Malachy O'Kellayg, clerk, of the diocese of Clonfert. Extension of dispensation as the son of a deacon and an unmarried woman related in the third degree of kindred—to be ordained and hold a benefice even with cure, under which he has received the tonsure only—so that he, who is a student of canon and civil law, may be promoted to all dignities, personatus and offices, even if episcopal or archiepiscopal, and elective. His illegitimacy need not be mentioned in future graces.

6 Id. Nov.
St. Peter's, Rome.
(f. 278d.)

To Walter Medforde, chancellor of Chichester. Dispensation, at the petition also of king Richard, to him (who is in his twenty-second year, holds besides his chancellorship a canonry and prebend of St. Martin in the free royal chapel, London, and the first sinecure portion of the parish church of Bisse in the diocese of London, value altogether 125 marks, and has also had dispensation to hold, below his twenty-fourth year, a benefice with or without cure, even if a dignity with cure in a cathedral church) to hold for life, together with his chancellorship, which is a dignity with cure, one other benefice with cure, even if it be an elective dignity, major in a metropolitan or cathedral, or principal in a collegiate church, personatus or office, and to exchange one or both as often as he please for similar or dissimilar benefices.

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15s. each Volume or Part.]

Subsequent to recommendations of Committees of the House of Commons in 1800 and 1838, the Master of the Rolls, in 1865, stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, "and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect "series of their kind in the civilized world," and although "they are "of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point of view, yet "they are comparatively useless to the public, from the want of proper "Calendars and Indexes." Whereupon their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

The following Works have been already published in this Series:—

CALENDARIUM GENEALOGICUM: for the Reigns of Henry III and Edward I.

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8VO. Price 10s. each Volume or Part.]

1. THE CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. Being written in English, it is of value as a record of the language spoken in Norfolk.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEPHENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei. II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Eduuardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in French, probably written in 1245. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, which is mainly valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written between 1066 and 1074.

4. MONUMENTA FRANCISCANA.

Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Registrum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London.

Vol. II.—De Adventu Minorum; re-edited with additions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

5. FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF cum TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; or, A Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catherine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1121.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1300; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I.-III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858-1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., with a continuation to the year 1413.

10. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE SEVENTH; Bernardi Andrea Tholosensis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; necnon alia quedam ad eundem Regem Spectantia. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1858.

The contents of this volume are: (1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet Laureate and historiographer, Bernard Andre, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1485 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE FIFTH. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti; Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhani Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by CHARLES A. COLE. 1858.

12. MUNIMENTA GILDHALLE LONDONIENSIS; Liber Albus, Liber Customarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati

Vol. I., Liber Albus.

Vol. II. (in Two Parts), Liber Customarum

Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859-1862.

The Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Customarum was compiled in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. CHRONICA JOHANNIS DE OXENEDEN. Edited by SIR HENRY ELLIS, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Henry I. and Henry II., it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1292. It is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the kingdom.

14. A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL POEMS AND SONGS RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY, FROM THE ACCESSION OF EDWARD III. TO THE REIGN OF HENRY VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1859-1861

15. THE "OPUS TERTIUM," "OPUS MINUS," &c. of ROGER BACON. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. 1859.

16. BARTHOLOMEW DE COTTON, MONACHI NORWICHENSIS, HISTORIA ANGLICANA; 449-1278; necnon ejusdem Liber de Archiepiscopis et Episcopis Angliæ. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LEARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge, 1859.

17. BRUT Y TYWYSOGION; or, The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

This work, written in the ancient Welsh language, begins with the abdication and death of Cadwalla at Rome, in the year 681, and continues the history down to the subjugation of Wales by Edward I., about the year 1282.

18. A COLLECTION OF ROYAL AND HISTORICAL LETTERS DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY IV. 1399-1404. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A., of Exeter College, Oxford. 1860.

19. THE REPRESSOR OF OVER MUCH BLAMING OF THE CLERGY. By REGINALD PECOCK, sometime Bishop of Chichester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1860.

The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. His work gives a full account of the views of the Lollards, and has great value for the philologist.

20. ANNALES CAMBRIÆ. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447, and come down to 1288. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.

21. THE WORKS OF GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vols. V.-VII. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. Vol. VIII. Edited by GEORGE F. WARNER, M.A., of the Department of MSS., British Museum. 1861-1891.

These volumes contain the historical works of Gerald du Barry, who lived in the reigns of Henry II., Richard I., and John.

The Topographia Hibernica (in Vol. V.) is the result of Giraldus' two visits to Ireland, the first in 1183, the second in 1185-6, when he accompanied Prince John into that country. The Expugnatio Hibernica was written about 1188. Vol. VI. contains the Itinerarium Cambriæ et Descriptio Cambriæ: and Vol. VII., the lives of S. Remigius and S. Hugh. Vol. VIII. contains the Treatise De Principum Instructione, and an index to Vols. I.-IV. and VIII.

22. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE WARS OF THE ENGLISH IN FRANCE DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY THE SIXTH, KING OF ENGLAND, Vol. I., and Vol. II. (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1861-1864.

23. THE ANGLO-SAXON CHRONICLE, ACCORDING TO THE SEVERAL ORIGINAL AUTHORITIES. Vol. I., Original Texts. Vol. II., Translation. Edited and translated by BENJAMIN THORPE, Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Munich, and of the Society of Netherlandish Literature at Leyden. 1861.

There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. In this edition, the text of each manuscript is printed in columns on the same page, so that the student may see at a glance the various changes which occur in orthography.

24. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGNS OF RICHARD III. AND HENRY VII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JAMES GARDINER, 1861-1863.

The principal contents of the volumes are some diplomatic Papers of Richard III., correspondence between Henry VII. and Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain; documents relating to Edmund de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk; and a portion of the correspondence of James IV. of Scotland.

25. LETTERS OF BISHOP GROSSETESTE. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1861.

The letters of Robert Grosseteste range in date from about 1210 to 1253. They refer especially to the diocese of Lincoln, of which Grosseteste was bishop.

26. DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Vol. I. (in Two Parts); Anterior to the Norman Invasion. (Out of print.) Vol. II.; 1066-1200. Vol. III.; 1200-1327. By Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1862-1871.

27. ROYAL AND OTHER HISTORICAL LETTERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGN OF HENRY III. Vol. I. 1216-1235. Vol. II. 1236-1272. Selected and edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, D.D., Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford. 1862-1866.

7. YPOCRISMA NKUSTRIÆ A THOMÆ WALSINGHAM, QUONDAM MONACHO MONASTERII S. ALBANI, CONSCRIPTUM.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V. the first by W. Langland, Prior of St. Albans.

[illegible]

In the 14th century, the Annals of Henry (1290-1307), Annals of Edward II, 1307-1313, Annals of the Kings of Scotland, 1290-1329, Annals of St. Edward, a continuation of Trivet's Annals, 1321-1327, and Annals of the Kings of England, 1327-1381, were written in the early part of the 14th century, and later, in the 15th century, the Annals of the Kings of England, 1381-1400, were written.

The 13th-century Book of the City of Dreadful Night is one of the earliest of the Arts and Crafts of St. Albans, 783 to 1611.

The 8th-century version of the continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Asseline (d. 911), written c. 880-890.

The first and the second records particularly the acts and proceedings of Abbot

The 13th Volume contains a complete History of England to the reign of Henry V. and of Normandy to the rule of Richard I. Waldegrave, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABATIS EYNSHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EYNSHAM ET THOMA DE MARLEBERG ABATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, USA COM. CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY. Bodleian Library, Oxford, 1863.

The University of Toronto, under the leadership of that important monasterist from 1920 to 1945, has a tradition of providing the English-speaking monk as acquainted with the inner dynamics of a particular order, as well as the broader context of general, personal, and local history.

30. RECORD OF CHRONICLES: SPECIMEN HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLIE. Vol. I., 447-871. Vol. II., 872-1009. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1903-1909.

35. LEECHDOMS, WORTCUNNING, AND STARCRAFT OF EARLY ENGLAND; being a Collection of Documents illustrating the History of Science in this Country before the Norman Conquest. Vols. I.-III. Collected and edited by the Rev. T. OSWALD COCKAYNE, M.A. 1864-1866.
36. ANNALES MONASTICI.
 Vol. I.:—Annales de Margan, 1066-1232; Annales de Theokesberia, 1066-1263; Annales de Burton, 1004-1263.
 Vol. II.:—Annales Monasterii de Wintonia, 519-1277; Annales Monasterii de Waverleia, 1-1291.
 Vol. III.:—Annales Prioratus de Dunstaplia, 1-1297. Annales Monasterii de Bermundesceia, 1042-1432.
 Vol. IV.:—Annales Monasterii de Oseneia, 1016-1347; Chronicon vulgo dictum Chronicon Thomæ Wykes, 1066-1289; Annales Prioratus de Wigornia, 1-1377.
 Vol. V.:—Index and Glossary.
 Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARDS, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, and Registry of the University, Cambridge. 1864-1869.
37. MAGNA VITA S. HUGONIS EPISCOPI LINCOLNIENSIS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1864.
38. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF RICHARD THE FIRST.
 Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI.
 Vol. II.:—EPISTOLE CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199.
 Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864-1865.
- The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.
 The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.
39. RECUEIL DES CRONIQUES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. Edited by WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1879. Vol. IV., 1431-1447. Vol. V., 1447-1471. Edited by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1884-1891.
40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. III.-IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865-1880.

This chronicle begins with the Creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVRE DE REIS DE BRITANIE E LE LIVRE DE REIS DE ENGLETERRE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Bradling, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treatises are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406, Vols. I.-III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1868-1868.

44. MATTHEI PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE UT VULGO DICITUR HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I.-III. 1067-1253. Edited by Sir FREDERICK MAUDSLAY, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum. 1866-1869.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455-1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources, which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicle appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1165; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1893.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1896-1898.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I. and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts: in the first, is an abridgment of the story of Mercurius; in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

48. THE WAR OF THE GAIDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OF THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

49. CRISTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169-1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTET, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and late Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOUZDEN. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 782 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

52. WILLELMI MALMESBURIENSIS MONACHI DE GESTIS PONTIFICUM ANGLORUM LIBRI QUINQUE. Edited by N. E. S. A. HAMILTON, of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum. 1870.

53. HISTORIC AND MUNICIPAL DOCUMENTS OF IRELAND, FROM THE ARCHIVES OF THE CITY OF DUBLIN, &c. 1172-1320. Edited by JOHN T. GILBERT, F.S.A., Secretary of the Public Record Office of Ireland. 1870.

54. THE ANNALS OF LOCH CE. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, FROM 1041 to 1590. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with a Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1871.

55. MONUMENTA JURIDICA. THE BLACK BOOK OF THE ADMIRALTY, WITH APPENDICES, Vols. I.-IV. Edited by Sir TRAVERS TWISS, Q.C., D.C.L. 1871-1876.

This book contains the ancient ordinances and laws relating to the navy.

56. MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VI.:—OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THOMAS BEKYNTON, SECRETARY TO HENRY VI., AND BISHOP OF BATH AND WELLS. Edited by the Rev. GEORGE WILLIAMS, B.D., Vicar of Ringwood, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge. Vols. I. and II. 1872.

57. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS, MONACHI SANCTI ALBANI, CHRONICA MAJORA. Vol. I. The Creation to A.D. 1066. Vol. II. 1067 to 1216. Vol. III. 1216 to 1239. Vol. IV. 1240 to 1247. Vol. V. 1248 to 1269. Vol. VI. Additamenta. Vol. VII. Index. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, D.D., Fellow of Trinity College, Registrar of the University, and Vicar of Great St. Mary's, Cambridge. 1872-1884.

58. MEMORIALK FRATRIS WALTERI DE COVENTRIA.—THE HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF WALTER OF COVENTRY. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1872-1873.

59. THE ANGLO-LATIN SATIRICAL POETS AND EPIGRAMMATISTS OF THE TWELFTH CENTURY. Vols. I. and II. Collected and edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A., Corresponding Member of the National Institute of France (Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres). 1872.

60. MATERIALS FOR A HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VII., FROM ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS PRESERVED IN THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, M.A., one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools. 1873-1877.

61. HISTORICAL PAPERS AND LETTERS FROM THE NORTHERN REGISTERS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES RAINE, M.A., Canon of York, and Secretary of the Surtees Society. 1873.

62. REGISTRUM PALATINUM DUNELMENSE. THE REGISTER OF RICHARD DE KELLAWE, LORD PALATINE AND BISHOP OF DURHAM; 1311-1316. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1873-1878.

63. MEMORIALS OF ST. DUNSTAN, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1874.

64. CHRONICON ANGLIE, AB ANNO DOMINI 1828 USQUE AD ANNUM 1888, AUCTORE MONACHO QUODAM SANCTI ALBANI. Edited by EDWARD MAUNDER THOMPSON, Barrister-at-Law, Assistant Keeper of the Manuscripts in the British Museum. 1874.
65. THÓMAS SAGA ERKIBYRKUPS. A LIFE OF ARCHBISHOP THOMAS BECKET IN ICELANDIC. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with English Translation, Notes, and Glossary, by M. EIRIKR MAGNÚSSON, M.A., Sub-Librarian, of the University Library, Cambridge. 1875-1884.
66. RADULPHI DE GODDESHALL CHRONICON ANGLICANUM. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1875.
67. MATERIALS FOR THE HISTORY OF THOMAS BECKET, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Vols. I.-VI. Edited by the Rev. JAMES CRAIGIE ROBERTSON, M.A., Canon of Canterbury. 1875-1883. Vol. VII. Edited by JOSEPH BRISTOLCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. 1885.
- The first volume contains the life of that celebrated man, and the miracles after his death, by William, a monk of Canterbury. The second, the life by Benedict of Peterborough. John of Salisbury. Alan of Tewkesbury. and Edward Grim. The third, the life by William Fitzstephen; and Herbert of Bosham. The fourth, anonymous lives, Quatriologus, &c. The fifth, sixth, and seventh, the Epistles, and known letters.
68. RADULFI DE DICETO, DECANI LUNDONIENSIS, OPERA HISTORICA. THE HISTORICAL WORKS OF MASTER RALPH DE DICETO, DEAN OF LONDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1876.

82. CHRONICLES OF THE REIGNS OF STEPHEN, HENRY II., AND RICHARD I. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1884-1889.

Vol. I. contains Books I.-IV. of the Historia Rerum Anglicarum of William of Newburgh. Vol. II. contains Book V. of that work, the continuation of the same to A.D. 1293, and the Draco Normannicus of Etienne de Rouen.

Vol. III. contains the Gesta Stephani Regis, the Chronicle of Richard of Hexham, the Relatio de Standardis of St. Aelred of Rievaulx, the poem of Jordan Fantosme, and the Chronicle of Richard of Devizes.

Vol. IV. contains the Chronicle of Robert of Torigni.

83. CHRONICLE OF THE ABBEY OF RAMSEY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM DUNN MACRAY, M.A., F.S.A., Rector of Ducklington, Oxon. 1886.

84. CHRONICA ROGERI DE WENDOVER, SIVE FLORES HISTORiarum. Vols. I.-III. Edited by HENRY GAY HEWLETT, Keeper of the Records of the Land Revenue. 1886-1889.

This edition gives that portion only of Roger of Wendover's Chronicle which can be accounted an original authority.

85. THE LETTER BOOKS OF THE MONASTERY OF CHRIST CHURCH, CANTERBURY. Vols. I.-III. Edited by JOSEPH BRIGSTOCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. 1887-1889.

The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between 1296 and 1339.

86. THE METRICAL CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF GLOUCESTER. Edited by WILLIAM ALDIS WRIGHT, M.A., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge. Parts I. and II., 1887.

The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1300. The writer appears to have been an eye witness of many events of which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.

87. CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF BRUNNE. Edited by FREDERICK JAMES FURNIVALL, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. Parts I. and II. 1887.

Robert of Brunne, or Bourne, of Lincoln, was a member of the Gilbertine Order established at Sempringham. His Chronicle is described by its editor as a work of fiction, a contribution not to English history, but to the history of English.

88. IGELANDIC SAGAS AND OTHER HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS relating to the Settlements and Descents of the Northmen on the British Isles. Vol. I. Orkneyinga Saga, and Magnus Saga. Vol. II. Hakonar Saga, and Magnus Saga. Edited by GUDBRAND VIGFUSSON, M.A. 1887. Vols. III. and IV. Translations of the above by Sir GEORGE WEBER DASENT, D.C.L. 1894.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS, from WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR to QUEEN ANNE, selected under the direction of the Master of the Rolls and Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Price, each Part, with translations and notes, double foolscap folio, 16s.

Part I. (William the Conqueror to Henry VII.). 1865. (Out of print.)

Part II. (Henry VII. and Edward VI.). 1866.

Part III. (Mary and Elizabeth). 1867.

Part IV. (James I. to Anne). 1868.

The first Part extends from William the Conqueror to Henry VII., and contains autographs of the kings of England, as well as of many other illustrious personages famous in history, and some interesting charters, letters patent, and state papers. The second Part, for the reigns of Henry VIII. and Edward VI., consists principally of holograph letters, and autographs of kings, princes, statesmen, and other persons of great historical interest, who lived during those reigns. The third Part contains similar documents for the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth, including a signed bill of Lady Jane Grey. The fourth Part concludes the series, and comprises a number of documents taken from the originals belonging to the Constable of the Tower of London; also several records illustrative of the Gunpowder Plot, and a woodcut containing portraits of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI., circulated by their adherents in England, 1580-3.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Lieut.-General J. CAMERON, R.E., C.B., F.R.S., and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part I. *Price 2*l*. 10*s*.*

The Anglo-Saxon MSS. represented in this volume form the earlier portions of the collection of archives belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and consist of a series of 25 charters, deeds, and wills, commencing with a record of proceedings at the first Synodal Council of Cloveshoe in 742, and terminating with the first part of a tripartite chirograph of the sixth year of the reign of Edward the Confessor.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Major General A. COOK, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part II. *Price 3*l*. 10*s*.* (Also, separately. Edward the Confessor's Charter. *Price 2*s*.*)

The originals of the fac-similes contained in this volume belong to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, Wells, Winchester, and Worcester; the Marquis of Bath, the Earl of Hereford, Winchester College, Her Majesty's Public Record Office, Bodleian Library, Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society's Museum in Taunton Castle, and William Salt Library at Stafford. They consist of charters and other documents granted by, or during the reigns of, Haldred, Ethelred, Offa, and Burgred, Kings of Mercia; Uhtred of the Hwiccas, Caedwalla and Ine of Wessex; Ethelwulf, Eadward the Elder, Ethelstan, Edmund the First, Eadred, Eadwig, Eadgar, Eadward the Second, Ethelred the Second, Cnut, Eadward the Confessor, and William the Conqueror, embracing altogether a period of nearly four hundred years.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Colonel R. H. STOTHERD, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part III. *Price 6*l*. 6*s*.*

This volume contains fac-similes of the Ashburnham Collection of Anglo-Saxon Charters, &c., including King Alfred's Will. The MSS. represented in it range from A.D. 697 to A.D. 1161, being charters, wills, deeds, and reports of Synodal transactions during the reigns of King-Whitred of Kent, Offa, Eadwulf, Coenwulf, Guthred, Beornwulf, Ethelwulf, Ethelred, Eadward the Elder, Edmund, Eadred, Queen Eadgifu, and King- Eadgar, Ethelred the Second, Cnut, Henry the First, and Henry the Second. In addition to these are two belonging to the Marquis of Anglesey, one of them being the Foundation Charter of Burton Abbey by Ethelred the Second, with the testament of its great benefactor Wulfric.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOVEDENE. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

52. WILLELMI MALMESBIRIENSIS MONACHI DE GESTIS PONTIFICUM ANGLORUM LIBRI QUINQUE. Edited by N. E. S. A. HAMILTON, of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum. 1870.

85. THE LETTER BOOKS OF THE MONASTERY OF CHRIST CHURCH, CANTERBURY. Vols. I.-III. Edited by JOSEPH BRIGSTOCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. 1887-1889.

The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between 1296 and 1333.

86. THE METRICAL CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF GLOUCESTER. Edited by WILLIAM ALDIS WRIGHT, M.A., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge. Parts I. and II., 1887.

The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1300. The writer appears to have been an eye witness of many events of which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.

87. CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF BRUNNE. Edited by FREDERICK JAMES FURNIVALL, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. Parts I. and II. 1887.

Robert of Brunne, of Bourne, co. Lincoln, was a member of the Gilbertine Order established at Sempringham. His Chronicle is described by its editor as a work of fiction, a contribution not to English history, but to the history of English.

88. ICELANDIC SAGAS AND OTHER HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS relating to the Settlements and Descents of the Northmen on the British Isles. Vol. I. Orkneyinga Saga, and Magnus Saga. Vol. II. Hakonar Saga, and Magnus Saga. Edited by GUÐBRAND VIGFUSSON, M.A. 1887. Vols. III. and IV. Translations of the above by Sir GEORGE WEBER DASENT, D.C.L. 1894.

89. THE TRIPARTITE LIFE OF ST. PATRICK, with other documents relating to that Saint. Edited by WHITLEY STOKES, LL.D., D.C.L., Honorary Fellow of Jesus College, Oxford; and Corresponding Member of the Institute of France. Parts I. and II. 1887.

90. WILLELMI MONACHI MALMESBIRIENSIS DE REGUM GESTIS ANGLORUM LIBRI V.; ET HISTORIÆ, NOVELLÆ, LIBRI III. Edited by WILLIAM STUBBS, D.D., Bishop of Oxford. Vols. I. and II. 1887-1889.
91. LESTORIE DES ENGLIS SOLUM GIFFREI GAIMAR. Edited by the late Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records; continued and translated by CHARLES TRICE MARTIN, B.A., F.S.A. Vols. I. and II. 1888-1889.
92. CHRONICLE OF HENRY KNIGHTON, Canon of Leicester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity. 1889-1895.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS, from WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR to QUEEN ANNE, selected under the direction of the Master of the Rolls and Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Price, each Part, with translations and notes, double foolscap folio, 16s.

Part I. (William the Conqueror to Henry VII.). 1865. (Out of print.)

Part II. (Henry VII. and Edward VI.). 1866.

Part III. (Mary and Elizabeth). 1867.

Part IV. (James I. to Anne). 1868.

The first Part extends from William the Conqueror to Henry VII., and contains autographs of the kings of England, as well as of many other illustrious personages famous in history, and some interesting charters, letters patent, and state papers. The second Part, for the reigns of Henry VIII. and Edward VI., consists principally of holograph letters, and autographs of kings, princes, statesmen, and other persons of great historical interest, who lived during those reigns. The third Part contains similar documents for the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth, including a signed bill of Lady Jane Grey. The fourth Part concludes the series, and comprises a number of documents taken from the originals belonging to the Constable of the Tower of London; also several records illustrative of the Gunpowder Plot, and a woodcut containing portraits of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI., circulated by their adherents in England, 1580-3.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Lieut.-General J. CAMERON, R.E., C.B., F.R.S., and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part I. Price 2l. 10s.

The Anglo-Saxon MSS. represented in this volume form the earlier portions of the collection of archives belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and consist of a series of 25 charters, deeds, and wills, commencing with a record of proceedings at the first Synodal Council of Clovesho in 742, and terminating with the first part of a tripartite chirograph of the sixth year of the reign of Edward the Confessor.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Major-General A. COOK, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part II. Price 3l. 10s. (Also, separately. Edward the Confessor's Charter. Price 2s.)

The originals of the fac-similes contained in this volume belong to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, Wells, Winchester, and Worcester; the Marquis of Bath, the Earl of Hereford, Winchester College, Her Majesty's Public Record Office, Bodleian Library, Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society's Museum in Taunton Castle, and William Salt Library at Stafford. They consist of charters and other documents granted by, or during the reigns of, Baldred, Æthelred, Offa, and Burgred, Kings of Mercia; Æthelred of the Hwiccas, Cædwalla and Ine of Wessex; Æthelwulf, Eadward the Elder, Æthelstan, Eadmund the First, Eadred, Eadwig, Eadgar, Eadward the Second, Æthelred the Second, Cnut, Eadward the Confessor, and William the Conqueror, embracing altogether a period of nearly four hundred years.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Colonel R. H. STOTHERD, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part III. Price 6l. 6s.

This volume contains fac-similes of the Ashburnham Collection of Anglo-Saxon Charters, &c., including King Alfred's Will. The MSS. represented in it range from A.D. 697 to A.D. 1161, being charters, wills, deeds, and reports of Synodal transactions during the reigns of Kings Wilfred of Kent, Offa, Eardwulf, Coenwulf, Cuthred, Beornwulf, Æthelwulf, Ælfred, Eadward the Elder, Eadmund, Eadred, Queen Eadgifu, and Kings Eadgar, Æthelred the Second, Cnut, Henry the First, and Henry the Second. In addition to these are two belonging to the Marquis of Anglesey, one of them being the Foundation Charter of Burton Abbey by Æthelred the Second, with the testament of its great benefactor Wulfric.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and calligraphic ornamentation are, as far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.

Part II.: From the Twelfth Century to A.D. 1299.

Part III.: From A.D. 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.

Part IV. 1: From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.

In part IV. 2 the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.
